THIRTY-NINTH YEAR

SUDAN, LAMB COUNTY, TEXAS THURSDAY, OCTOBER 17, 1963

NUMBER 33

WOODWORK

BY DALTON

LACK OF space prevents me from printing a bunch of stuff I had written for my column. Aren't you lucky?

LAST WEEK was my worst yet. I missed six out of 11 football choices, when even chance says a person should hit 50 per cent. I did pick the score of the Kress-Happy game exactly, 14-8, except that I picked the wrong team to win. For the year, I have 37 right, 25 wrong, .597 average for year. This week: Amherst 13, Anton 8; Sudan 15, Springlake 13; Farwell 40, Kress 7; Memphis State 14, WTSU 10; Idalou 25, Crosbyton 6; Petersburg 26, Loremo 7; Arkansas 16, Texas 14; TCU 22, Texas A&M 6; Mississippi State 19, Houston 6; SMU 20, Rice 17; Baylor 26, Texas Tech 10; New Deal 22, Whiteside 8; Floydada 49, Abemathy 0; Morton 14, Mulshoe 6.

Roll call was approved with an "International Personality". Mrs. S. D. Hay discussed the topic "Liberty Depends on the Bridges We Build".

Mrs. R. S. Gatewood, president, presided at the business meeting when it was announced the fruit cakes sold each year by club members had arrived and may be secured from members. The price of the cakes is $1.50.

Present were Mesdames Mary Bowman, Gatewood, Wesley Hergenheimer, Hay, C. E. Nichols, Nix, Beulah Wiseman, Sara Woods, J. S. Smith and Miss Esther James.

Carnival Shaping Up

Sudan ESA, sponsors of the upcoming Halloween Carnival, this week reported that plans for the carnival are moving along satisfactorily, and that "we are pleased with the response of the local organizations to the idea".

Many of the booths which will be set up in the school gymnasium Halloween night already have been spoken for. Booth space may be reserved by calling 227-4082 or 227-3581.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Dykes were in Clovis Friday to be with his father, Homer Dykes, who underwent surgery.

Jaycees, Faculty Plan Football Game Tuesday

The Sudan Jaycees will take on the Sudan school faculty in a football game (sort of) at 7:30 p. m. next Tuesday, Oct. 22 at Masten Stadium.

The game will be a flag football game, similar to the annual Powder Puff football game, which will be played a week later between the high school girls' classes.

Some of the main differences will be that men will play in Tuesday night's game, the men will play eight-man teams instead of 11, and the girls probably will be able to run a lot longer and farther.

Admission to the game will be 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for students eighth grade and un-

Back in the '20s, Red Grange, the famous Galloping Ghost of Illinois, once carried the ball only five times in a game, and scored five times. Tommy Thomson, Sudan quarterback, Friday night scored every time he carried the ball, too, but it wasn't enough, as Frenship eventually won out 14-7.

Thomson, unfortunately, only got to carry the ball once, and he scored from the Frenship four early in the first period, and then kicked the point, to give Sudan a 7-0 edge. But a few plays later, Thomson and Frenship end Carmon Turnbow were ejected from the game for continuing to play football after the whistle had blown. Both later denied hearing the whistle.

Sudan scored its touchdown after forcing the Tigers to punt the first time Frenship had the ball. From the Frenship 40, the Hornets moved to the 18, where, on fourth and 6, HB Pat Brown ran 12 yards to the 6. Brown then moved it to the four, from where Thomson speared straight ahead through heavy traffic for the counter.

Sudan's defense again looked tough Friday night, and Frenship won the game with a third period score which came after a blocked kick. Early in the second quarter, the Tigers moved to a first down on the Hornet 5, and it appeared that they would score. However, Gary Rudd hit the Tigers' Royce Wittie for no gain, Bill Boyles and Kessel May teamed up to throw Jimmy Townsend for a loss to the 7, Corley Baker broke through to down HB Garland Booser back on the 10, and on fourth down, middle linebacker Tommy King put the big rush on the passer, pinned his arms and downed him on the 13.

Frenship came back later in the quarter with a 65 yard drive which did score, with QB David Bugamy going across from the 1. Townsend kicked point, and it was 7-7 at halftime.

Disaster struck the Hornets early in the third quarter, when Allen went back to punt at the Sudan 25, and Frenship's middle linebacker, Jerry Kindred, came roaring through to block it, giving the Tigers the ball on the Sudan 10. Frenship scored in two plays, with Robert Parham doing the honors. Townsend again kicked point, and it was 14-7.

Sudan took the ensuing kickoff and drove all the way to the Frenship 25, but lost the ball on downs. Biggest gain in that drive was a 15-yard run from punt formation by Danny Allen, who earlier had made another first down by running 21 yards on a fourth down play.

As it turned out, this was Sudan's last serious threat. Al-

P-TA Seeking New Members

The Sudan Parent-Teachers Association is conducting a membership drive now through Oct. 22. A spokesman for the P-TA said this week that the organization received 97 new members last week, making the total to date of 208, which is already considerably higher than last year's membership of 140.

Each class is trying to get new members, and the class getting the largest number of members will win a coke party. It was pointed out that not only parents could join, but that friends and grandparents as well are invited.

The slogan for the drive is "Children and school need you in the P-TA, join this American team today."

Membership fee is 50 cents.

Sewer Extension In Operation

Sewer lines and a booster plant have been installed in the Bosen Terrace addition, with facilities adequate to take care of 60 residents, Mayor Joe Rone said this week.

The installing was conducted by the city at a cost of approximately $8000. Rone said the facility is serving about 10 residents at the present.

During the spring and summer a number of sewer lines were laid in the new Furneaux addition, according to the Mayor.

Several members of the 1935 Study Club were in Anton Monday to attend a meeting of the Anton Study Club, observing its 25th anniversary. Those going were Mrs. R. S. Gatewood, Mrs. R. D. Nix, Mrs. S. D. Hay, Mrs. J. S. Smith.

this week learned that Silverton will be added to the district next season, all lost, except Springlake last week. The Wolverines beat Amherst 36-0, but Sudan lost to Frenship 14-7, Farwell lost to Plains 25-22 on a field goal, Happy beat Kress 14-8 and Crosbyton blanked Hale Center 13-0.

Lamb County

The two Lamb County directors to Plains Cotton Growers are urging full participation from farmers, ginners and businessmen—the team that makes up PCG—is the "do-it-yourself" program to insure a vigorous future for the High Plains cotton industry through research, promotion and service.

These directors are your county representatives in all affairs governing the policies and actions of PCG, and together with "home-folks" from the other 22 counties, are your assurance that those policies and actions are a direct reflection of your needs and desires.

The long-term future of the cotton industry will rest on its success or failure in world markets. PCG's production research to make cotton more competitive in price, technical and fiber research to explore large old markets and open new ones, and its intensive promotion are the types of action that will re-establish the superiority of cotton in these markets.

A representative of PCG will be calling on your ginner soon in the organization's annual "Sign-Up" campaign. Wherever you gin, contact that ginner and let him know that you want to be on the team that keeps this work going for the High Plains.

PLEASE PARDON OUR BIAS, BUT . . .

This newspaper, we believe you will agree, has always been generous in allocating space to the celebration of all manner of "weeks"—from National Pickle Week to Employ the Handicapped Week.

Therefore, we feel we should be forgiven for a small toot on our own horn in behalf of National Newspaper Week, which this year is being celebrated during the October 13 to October 19 period.

There could not be a more fitting slogan than the one chosen for 1963. It is: "Newspapers Make a Big Difference in People's Lives."

Most readers are certain to subscribe to that statement, especially those who have been deprived of their newspapers by strikes and have found out how truly dependent they are on their newspapers.

For the newspaper—particularly the hometown newspaper—is much more than a gatherer and dispenser of news. It is a frontline fighter in the never-ending struggle to preserve our freedoms; it is a relentless foe of corruption; it is a watchdog of the public treasury and it unflinchingly exposes any menace to national or community well-being.

And, best of all, anyone who finds fault with that appraisal of the virtues of a community newspaper can so express himself right in the letters-to-the-editor column of those very newspapers—including this one.

Coffee Crumb Cake a Delight

For breakfast or snack-time, it's good made with margarine.

New margarine made with liquid vegetable oils are providing a boon to diet-conscious homemakers. They're good, and they are polyunsaturated.

Liquid oils in margarine are important because they retain polyunsaturation. Hydrogenated oils lose this quality.

Among the vegetable oils used in margarine, safflower oil is by far the highest in polyunsaturates. It's also light and bland, and helps bring out the natural flavors of other foods.

Saffola margarine is nearly half liquid safflower oil. It rates high in flavor and polyunsaturates.

COFFEE CRUMB CAKE

(Makes one 8-inch square cake)

2 cups sifted all-purpose flour 1/2 cup milk
3 teaspoons baking powder 1 egg beaten
1/2 cup granulated sugar 1/2 cup firmly packed brown sugar
1 teaspoon salt 1/2 cup finely chopped filberts
1/2 cup Saffola margarine 1/2 cup sifted all-purpose flour
1/2 cup Saffola margarine 1/2 cup Saffola margarine

Sift 2 cups flour, baking powder, 1/2 cup granulated sugar and salt into bowl. Add nuts, mix lightly. Cut in 1/2 cup margarine to consistency of coarse meal. Combine milk and egg, stir into dry ingredients just until mixed. Grease an 8-inch square baking pan with some softened safflower margarine. Dust with flour. Spread batter in bottom of pan. Mix brown sugar and 1/2 cup flour, cut in 1/2 cup margarine. Sprinkle crumb topping over cake batter. Bake in hot oven (400°) 30 minutes, or until cake tests done.

Scripture: St. Matthew 6:19-21; 20:1-17; 9:33-41; St. Mark 10:29.

"... For great is your reward in heaven."

In thinking of rewards, we usually think of an unexpected bonus paid to us for a service well done. And, it is true this is a reward. But in thinking of God's promise of rewards, it is interesting to me to hear other Christians' interpretation of God's Word to us of how we are to be rewarded. Of course we do not know what the rewards in heaven for any Christian service will be, but the Scripture says, "Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love Him."

But where one usually gets all mixed up in discussing God's rewards is on what basis does God judge our services? We know God's way is not our way, and we are not judged, for instance, on what we accomplish by a service in the kingdom's work, but by why we do it. And we are not judged evidently on the "time" element of how long we serve.

As I read and search the Scriptures, I become more aware that God's rewards to us will be given for what we are in doing His will, not for how well or how great is our accomplishment. In other words the one who joyously sweeps out the church building and dusts off the pews will receive the same reward of "well done" from the heavenly Father as one who in the same joyous spirit preached a great sermon. Only the "gift" from God was different — it was the same Spirit.

One Christian said we shall all receive the same reward — eternal, abundant life in heaven with God the Father, through Jesus Christ our Lord. And immediately, in the witness of the Spirit to each of us, my heart sang with the joy of "This we know" by our faith in Jesus! Yet this much we attain, not as a reward, but as a free gift through Jesus Christ our Lord. Any reward we receive from God the Father, will be after we have received the free gift of eternal life by our faith to believe and accept Jesus. But what the Christian means is that to be with Jesus through eternity is enough!

Then how do we lay up rewards or treasures in heaven? By doing God's will and taking up our cross daily, following in Jesus' footsteps, for Jesus said,

"But seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness..." And He also said that where your treasure is, there will your heart be also. Where is your treasure? Do you seek God and think of His work or are you so busy doing your every day tasks, thinking about what you will eat, what you will wear, how you will be entertained, how much money you will make, etc., that you fail to "lay up for yourselves treasure in heaven."

I do not know much about rewards, but I do know that Jesus Saves! Jesus gives us eternal life as a gift. And I know He said, "I go to prepare a place for you... that where I am, there ye may be also." And that is more than enough for me! Do you know Jesus, too? Then you know that joy is our reward now!

If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth.—(Mark 9:23).

Our faith must hold strong in times when things are blackest; not only when our lives are running smoothly.

The eyes of a young Texan light up over a painting depicting one of the Lone Star State's finest moments — Sam Houston leading his troops at the Battle of San Jacinto. When the smoke cleared away, Mexican General Santa Anna was defeated and Texas became a Republic with the tough, six-and-a-half foot Houston as its first president. The portrait of Houston, twice president of Texas and its U. S. Senator, is one of 75 historic paintings, "Faces of Freedom," an art exhibit presented by the American Heritage Foundation and the John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company. It is currently on display at the State Fair of Texas in Dallas.

CARD OF THANKS

I'm taking this way of thanking my friends and neighbors for the many cards and letters while in the hospital and since coming home, and the visits as well. It all helps so much.

Each day we turn another page,
While years are adding to our age
We're making history every day

Through deeds and acts that we display.

Each day we write a little more,
Just adding to the day before,
I wonder if it all will be,
An interesting history.
