THIRTY-NINTH YEAR

SUDAN, LAMB COUNTY, TEXAS THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 1963

NUMBER 37

WOODWORK BY DALTON

TEXANS voted down the move to abolish the poll tax and replace it with a 25-cent "registration fee" last weekend, and I can't really see what all the fuss was about, since I personally didn't care one way or the other.

Rep. Bill Clayton came out strong for retaining the poll tax, claiming that to abolish poll taxes would take money from the schools, lead to whiskey and horse racing all over Texas, and other such horrors. I've agreed with Bill on lots of things, but I doubt that abolishing the poll tax would result in all those things. And, if the alternative to the poll tax had not been just another two-bit poll tax, I certainly would have come out as strongly as possible in favor of doing away with poll tax.

American citizens shouldn't have to pay in order to have the right to vote. And they shouldn't have to register by Jan. 31 or any certain time of the year, either. I have no great objection to the poll tax, though, if you could pay it any time of the year before you are allowed to vote. A lot of poll taxes could have been collected in Sudan this year just before the vote on the school tax issue.

One fellow said it didn't matter to him, anyway, since he was about to get old enough that he wouldn't have to pay it. He even figures that "all us old geezers probably voted to keep it. Since we had to pay it all these years, we figured everybody else ought to have to pay it, too."

A TYPOGRAPHICAL error last week said I had picked 65 games right and missed 63 for a percentage of .650. It should have read 65 right and 36 wrong. I missed 5 more and got 8 more right last week, not too hot, but this makes the season tally 71 right, 41 wrong, average .634. Unfortunately, I almost picked the exact score on Sudan-Farwell. But while I picked Tulsa 99-0 over Auburn, it was only 12-0, a moral victory for the underdog.

This may be the kiss of death, but I think Amherst will beat New Deal, about 36-20, and win its first outright district championship since the early 40's. Sudan should squeeze by Hale Center 20-14. Otherwise: Farwell 28, Springlake 8; Whiteface 27, Whitman 12; Arkansas 14, SMU 12; Hart 13, Vega 8; Pitoma 20, Olton 14; Texas 17, TCU 0; Texas Tech 28, Texas Western 13; Denver City 66, Spu 0.

VARIETY STORE HAS NEW OWNERS

Sudan Variety store recently changed ownership and is being operated by J. M. Bullock Jr., and C. A. Howell of Lakewood, Calif., owner.

Both Howell and Bullock are Master Masons. Bullock, the manager, is in his 20th year of working in the variety field.

"Our stock is still incomplete," Bullock said Tuesday, "but we have plans to add a complete variety line, including several new departments. We plan to carry price ranges from small to the better grade high-ticket items."

He also said the new operators are interested in cooperating on any worthwhile civic project.

What faint hopes the 1963 Sudan Hornets had for gaining the football playoffs for the first time in history went the usual route last Friday as the Farwell Steers crushed the visiting Hornets 35-6.

With huge and talented Leon Lovelace leading the way, Farwell gobbled up touchdowns in each of the first three quarters and added a pair in the fourth against a stubborn Hornet crew which just couldn't stop the Farwell attack or get any kind of running offense going.

Sudan, however, never quit, and made the Steers earn their points, instead of going to sleep as they did against Springlake.

The passing of Pat Brown and Tommy Thomson and the receiving of Danny Allen kept the Hornets in the game for a time, and Sudan threatened two or three times without being able to score. But Farwell, with Lovelace operating the option play expertly, rolled to 24 first downs and 305 yards rushing.

Although Lovelace's passing percentage was fair, he had three passes intercepted — two by Corley Baker, who did a fine job on defense. And Pat Brown intercepted a pass by Jerry Fields and ran 15 yards untouched to score the Hornets' only points in the fourth quarter.

Farwell TD's were by Lovelace (3 yards), FB Jerry Harrington (1 yard), HB Danny Lindop (13 yards), End Jerry Childs (20, pass from Lovelace), and End Butch Ford (3, pass from Lovelace). Lovelace kicked five out of five extra points.

Sudan this week will close out the season against Hale Center, the team which beat them last year 14-6 and threw the race into a tie for the crown, and kept Sudan from representing district.

EARN COKE PARTY — This sixth grade class of Mrs. Cordia Hargesheimer was treated to a Coke party and movie last Friday as its reward for getting more new members signed up for PTA than any other class in school. The class got 57 new members, mostly recruited by Pat Minyard. (Beacon-News Photo)

GIRLS WIN SECOND GAME

Hornet Cagers To Open Season

By LINDA WILLIAMS

The fighting Cotton Center girls were grazed 41-38 by the Sudan Hornets in Sudan's second game, and second win of the '63-64 basketball season for the girls.

Although the game was extremely close, the Hornets led almost all the way. At the end of the first quarter Sudan headed

For most of the year, the Owls have been crippled, and were soundly trounced by Farwell and Springlake. But, as usual, Sudan will catch them strong, as was evidenced by last week's score. Hale Center stomped Kress 58-15, so getting revenge on the Owls for last year may be a big task for Sudan.

Springlake was idle last week while Farwell was beating Sudan, and the two teams will battle it out at Farwell this Friday night for the championship and the Elkettes 15-13, and raised the margin to 25-17 at the half. The rest must have been good for the Elkettes; they came back and scored 14 points in the third period, and their guards held the Sudan forwards to 8 points. The final quarter opened with a 33-31 score in favor of Sudan. As the clock ticked away the Elkettes tied the game at 37-37, then took a 1-point lead. Then Candace Mudgett came through with her jump shot and two points. She also did some fine jumping on a double-foul play, tipping the ball to Jackie Norman who went in for an easy two. The Elkettes made one last try at the basket, but with no luck, thus handing Sudan the victory.

Miss Mudgett looped 19 points while Sharon Walser and Miss Norman totaled 11 each.

High scoring for Cotton Center was done by Sherry Burnett with 15.

The Sudan girls "B" Team also came through with their first right to meet Petersburg in bidistrict. Among the also-rans, Hale Center ripped Kress 58-15. Hale Center's 58 points exactly equalled the Owls' point output for the eight previous games.

CHILI SUPPER SET FOR NOV. 15

The 1935 Study Club is sponsoring a chili supper next Friday night, Nov. 15 preceding the Hale Center-Sudan football game and will be held in the school cafeteria.

Serving will begin at 5 p. m. Seventy-five cents will be charged for chili, beans, onions, catsup and coffee, with 20¢ extra for pie.

Citizens Urged To Find Items For Nov. 30 Auction

Saturday, Nov. 30, is the date of the next Sudan Trades Days Auction, and citizens are asked to start looking around the house or farm and see what they can bring to the auction.

The auction will take place at 2 p. m. Saturday, Nov. 30, while the Trades Days specials offered by various merchants in Sudan will be in effect Friday and Saturday — and possibly on Thursday, for those who will be open on Thanksgiving Day.

Items to be auctioned off should be brought to the square Saturday morning, so they can be tagged before the auction begins. There is no charge for auctioning off items; the owner gets the full price the items bring.

The auction is part of the plan of the Sudan Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture to increase trade at home. Anyone with any questions regarding the auction should contact Nolan Parrish or A. A. Pinkerton.

T. B. Adair Rites Held

T. B. Adair, 87, a retired Sudan farmer, died at 8 p. m. Sunday in a Lubbock rest home. Services were conducted Wednesday at Lone Oak.

A member of the First Methodist Church of Sudan, Adair had lived in Sudan since 1941.

Survivors include his wife, Eustace; two sons, Floyd of La Puente, Calif., and Don of Lubbock; two daughters, Mrs. Lorena Fortenberry of Lone Oak and Mrs. Thelma Parrott of Littlefield; a brother, George, of Greenville; 12 grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Ray Wood was hostess last week for a Bridge Club meeting when members present were Messdames F. M. Smith, Glenn Gatewood, Boyce Hancock, Bob Drake, W. O. Eddins, and Adrian Martin. Guests included Messdames Doyle Watkins, E. E. Crow, Kenneth Burgess, Glenn Gaston, R. S. Gatewood and O. D. Martin Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Drake of Tulsa visited Sunday afternoon in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Drake.

Mrs. Myrtle Martin of Lorraine has been visiting in the home of her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Hank Brown.

BAND STUDENTS JOIN TWIRLING CONTEST

Several band students were in Springlake Saturday to participate in the Interscholastic League Twirling Contest.

Those competing and the ratings they received included a trio composed of Dyane Curry, Kathy Minyard and Vickie Masten, who received a "B" rating; performing solo routines were Kathy Minyard, 2 rating; Vickie Masten 3; Cynthia Parrish 3; Dyane Clark 3; Susan Jones 3.

Those participating from Junior High were Cheryl Watts 3, Kathy Rice 3; Frances Hanna 3.

Accompanying the group were Mrs. Bill Curry, Mrs. E. C. Minyard and band director Mike Metzger.

T. P. Wingo, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Wingo, is home after serving two years in the armed services.

Mr. and Mrs. Delmer McCarty of Hereford visited Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Vinson.

Nolan Parrish has been confined to a hospital in Lubbock.

TO SPEAK HERE — Hughes Quattlebaum, a Methodist leader from Amarillo who recently made a trip to Bolivia, will speak on that nation at the Methodist Church next Wednesday, Nov. 20, following a Family Night covered dish supper. His subject will be "Bolivia, a Land Mightily in Need of God and Christian Neighbors". Quattlebaum is a lay leader, Boy Scout worker and helped with Amarillo United Fund campaign. He has already reported to 35 churches and civic clubs on his trip to Bolivia.

ALCOHOL EXPERT — Wilbur Gouveia of Florida is shown here during an informal session with members of the Sudan Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture Tuesday night. Gouveia, a recognized expert on alcohol manufacturing plants, was brought to Sudan to check on the possibilities of locating such a plant in this area to supply medicinal alcohol and also to manufacture a high-protein cattle feed by-product. Gouveia spoke to Sudan Rotary Club Wednesday. (Staff Photo)

1935 STUDY CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. SPARKMAN

The 1935 Study Club met Monday evening in the home of Mrs. C. M. Sparkman when the program topic was "Time to Face Our Responsibilities".

Mrs. Mary Bowman was program director and roll call was answered with "An important responsibility of mine". The motto was "I believe that every right implies a responsibility".

Mrs. R. D. Nix gave the topic "The Importance of Responsibility" and stressed the duties of patriotism.

Those present were Mesdames Bowman, Nix, Sara Woods, Mike Carter, S. D. Hay, R. S. Gatewood, Beulah Wiseman, Weaver Barnett, C. E. Nichols.

Clean Hair Curls Best

Prior to a shampoo, pick up and stretch a curl of your hair to see how well it snaps back. Then, after lathering, setting, and drying your hair, test that curl again. You'll be surprised to note how much springier it is when clean! The reason: soiled hair is less elastic and too heavy to take a good set.

LADIES BIBLE CLASS NEWS

Mrs. Joe Foster led the study taken from the book of Peter at the meeting Monday afternoon of the Ladies Bible Class of the Church of Christ.

Present were Mesdames T. Fife, Quinton McCaghren, Beulah Wiseman, E. B. Hutchinson, Weaver Barnett, Joe Fisher, Martin Maxwell, Jack Fisher, James Withrow, R. S. Gatewood, Bernard Wilson, C. E. Nichols, Paul Mathews and Dall Burnett.

WSCS NEWS

"World Wide Community Day" was the theme for the meeting of the WSCS held Monday morning at First Methodist Church.

Mrs. Tray Gaston was in charge of the program and Mrs. A. Pinkerton gave the devotional.

During the business meeting a discussion was held pertaining to a district meeting the local group will host on Dec. 4.

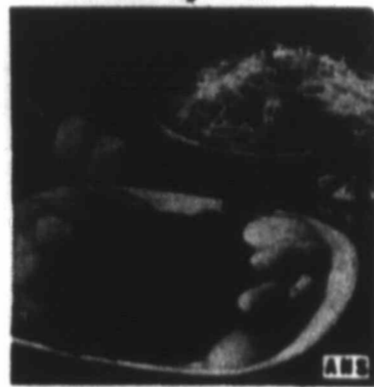

Mrs. Rodney Nichols served refreshments. Those present were Mesdames Gaston, Pinkerton, Nichols, Weldon Shaffer, Matt Nix Jr., Frank Lane, Bruce Newman.

BIRTHDAY DINNER

A birthday dinner was held Sunday in honor of John Burnett in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dall Burnett.

Attending were the honoree, his wife and sons, Charles and Carl, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Nance, Eddie, Cathy, Tina and Kim, of Slaton, Mrs. Myrtle Gonsalves of Oakland, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Dwan Hilliard and Roy Dall of Littlefield, Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Reid of Clovis, and the hosts.

Hearty Ham

NIPPY WEATHER calls for hearty baked dishes. Here's a rib-warming ham recipe that's easy to prepare and just the right family fare when the mercury hits a new low.

BAKED HAM SLICE

- 1 center slice ham cut, 1" thick
- 1/4 cup brown sugar
- 2 tbsps. A.I. Steak Sauce
- 1 tbsps. prepared mustard
- 1 tsp. powdered cloves
- 1 pint milk

Put ham in deep baking dish and spread with paste made from sugar, A.I. Sauce, mustard and cloves. Pour milk around ham, bake 40 minutes at 350 degrees. Delicious with glazed sweet potatoes and cabbage salad. Makes 6 servings.

When entertaining, try a spread made from 1/2 pt. sour cream, 1/2 pkg. dehydrated onion soup and 1 tbsps. A.I. Steak Sauce. Your guests will love it.

Statue of Peter Pan Home Town Honors Mary Martin

Peter Pan hovers over the shoulders of Mary Martin's daughter, Hallie, and Ralph H. Maulin in Weatherford, Texas, where a statue of the mythical character was dedicated in tribute to the famous actress who was born and raised in the community.

Heller addressed a crowd estimated at more than 1,800 persons on behalf of her mother who is appearing on Broadway in a new musical, "Jennie".

Maulin, president of the Peter Pan Peanut Butter Co., Chicago, presented the 16-foot statue to the town, located 25 miles west of Fort Worth, as part of the firm's 75th anniversary celebration. The figure is mounted on a six-foot stone pedestal adorned with a bronze plaque hailing "the genius of Weatherford's Mary Martin who brought a myth to life for America's millions."

The Fisherman's Club of First Methodist Church met Monday evening for a supper and program. A film on New England was shown the group. Some 25 were present.

Mrs. M. C. Ingram returned home the first of the week from a Lubbock hospital where she recently underwent surgery.

Datesetters U.S.A.

Conversation piece for Miss Datesetter, U.S.A. . . . with a great deal to say for itself! Fashioned in a shifty fluid non-cling crepe of Celanese acetate and rayon, colorful mohair shrug, gives the layered look a luxe look! Well-bred and wonderful, this young junior Datesetter has enough spirit to set the whole town talking!

THE "SECOND SEASON"

Fishing season has opened again! September traditionally signals the end of summer vacations. It also ushers in a revitalized fishing period that rivals the action-packed weeks of spring.

With the approach of cool autumn weather and lower water temperatures, the fishing staff at Mercury outboard motors reminds us that we can expect to find activity picking up at a brisk clip. And it will steadily improve until snow flurries appear.

As the blistering heat of summer subsides, game fish lose their lethargy and move out of deep water havens into the shallows. Their appetites are whetted by more agreeable temperatures and a rapidly diminishing food supply. They're less choosy, now, and inclined to gobble at a tasty morsel whenever the opportunity arises.

Arvas which produced only bullheads and bluegills in July and August suddenly start yielding lunkers again.

During fall, too, you'll discover many of our best waters virtually deserted. With the kids back in school and vacations over, many families won't return until next year. Most of the troutlines have been stored away and can't interfere with shore line trolling.

Autumn's definitely the time to go fishing, the literary experts say. The fish are cooperative. Days are pleasant. And there's plenty of other room for all.

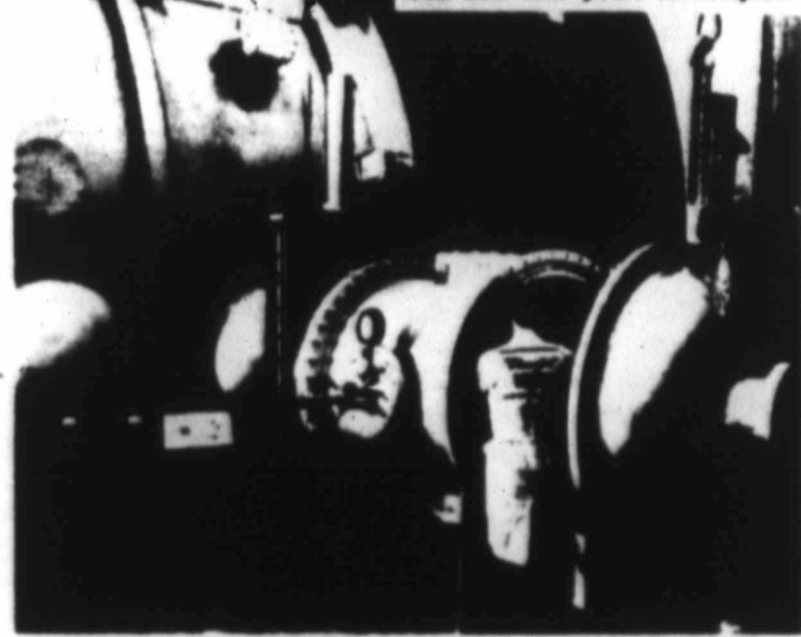

This "second season" can be the best of the year.

Turkey Time—U.S.A. by Martha Logan

No need to limit your enjoyment of turkey to only one or two times a year. Today turkey is a year 'round dining favorite that is easy to fix and serve.

The best known bird in the U.S.A. is available frozen and ready to stuff with your favorite stuffing. A real time-saver is the frozen already stuffed bird. It is stuffed with an old-fashioned bread stuffing that is sure to please.

There is a size turkey to suit everyone's need. The ready-to-stuff bird is available in weights from 4 to 20 pounds. The already stuffed turkey ranges in weight from 4 to 16 pounds and is especially nice for smaller gatherings.

The master leg technique in the turkey have been pulled to make carving easier. The drumsticks are tucked into a slot of skin at the base of the breast cavity to eliminate the need for trussing.

Roasting time schedules that have been carefully developed in the Martha Logan Test Kitchens are found on the wrapper of Butterball Swift's Premium Turkeys. The times are given for both open pan and covered pan roasting. Time schedules are a guide for putting the turkey into the oven. The best guide to doneness is a roast meat thermometer inserted into the thigh muscle next to the body cavity. The temperature should be about 185 F. Another test for doneness is to prick the thigh and forefinger with paper or cloth and pinch the driest portion of the drumstick. If done, the meat should feel soft.

Traditional favorites for serving with turkey such as cranberry, pumpkin pie and sweet potatoes are available at all times of the year. So why not plan turkey for your family now?

COTTON CLASSING PACE STEPPED UP

The Lubbock U. S. Department of Agriculture Cotton Classing Office handled 53,300 samples last week to bring the season's total to 136,300 bales, according to W. K. Palmer, chairman at Lubbock. Palmer went on to say that at the close of business Friday, the Lubbock office had a carry-over of 12,000 bales. Joe Brevard, chairman for the Lamesa office, reported 22,700 samples classed with a carry-over of 3,000 bales. The season's total for Lamesa is 69,000 bales. At Brownfield, Wilburn Reeves stated that 9,700 samples had been classed for that area this week and they had a carry-over of 2,000 bales. To date 26,900 samples have been classed in Brownfield.

All three offices have classed 236,100 bales this far. Last year on Nov. 8, 216,000 samples had been classed and there was a carry-over of 10,000 bales.

Average grades showed little change from a week earlier. Middling was the predominant grade classed in Lubbock. Middling Light Spotted was the main grade classed in Lamesa and Brownfield.

The percentages for the cotton classed in Lubbock were: 37 per cent Middling, 25 per cent Strict Low Middling, 18 per cent Middling Light Spotted, and 6 per cent Strict Low Middling Light Spotted.

Micronaire readings were excellent with 84 percent 3.5 and above at Brownfield, 87 percent at Lubbock and 98 percent at Lamesa.

No Clinkety-Clacks in Glued Rail Tracks

1 (Above) Joint bars and rail ends are sandblasted prior to application of epoxy glue.

2 (Below) Epoxy resin glue is applied to area of contact between rail and joint bar.

4 (Below) A portable propane heater is used to heat area to about 275 degrees Fahrenheit.

3 (Above) Joint bars are replaced and bolts tightened.

Welding rails into 1440-foot sections removed the clinkety-clack, provided a smoother ride, and reduced the problem of damage to rail ends by substituting one joint where there were formerly 37. And for the remaining joints, which average about 8 per mile, Santa Fe Railway is now experimenting with an epoxy resin glue in their current program of laying 245 miles of welded rail during 1963 that may minimize maintenance even more. Gluing ends of the long rails increases strength of the joint assembly, helps keep rail ends in alignment to reduce pounding by passing trains and greatly reduces the possibility of gaps between rail ends during extreme temperature changes. If tests prove successful, the same process may be applied to the more than 1,800 track miles of welded rail already in service on the Santa Fe.

LITTLE GIRL GETS OUT OF "JAM"

Where - what a whirl for a little girl! She's been playing outdoors, romping with the dog, and now she's having a grand time with her bread and jam. But look out! She's just like every other little girl or boy and she is going to spill it all over her pretty new dress. Time was when Mother would throw up her hands in alarm and annoyance at the grass stains, the paw prints, or the jam on the children's clothes, but not today. New all-fabric bleach beads take the worry out of the wash, according to the Purex Corporation, leaders in the bleach field. This new bleach has a completely new bleaching agent (Du Pont's "Oxone"). It is safe on all washable colors and fabrics and has real cleaning power too - without chlorine. So, little girl, you may keep smiling. No more tears, even though there will be smears. Modern mothers now have a modern helper in All-Fabric BEADS-O' BLEACH that saves time (no need anymore to save up a load of "chlorine bleachables") saves problems (colorfasts won't fade and wash 'n wears won't yellow) saves work and money (removes soil and stains the easy way and keeps clothes looking like new!).

COFFEE-SHOWER HONORS

MRS. KERMIT SORRELLS

A coffee-shower honoring Mrs. Kermit Sorrells was held last Thursday morning in the home of Mrs. Arthur Nelson.

Other hostesses included Mesdames Gil Rogers, Hank Brown, Evelyn Ritchie, Madge Beauchamp, D. W. Williamson, Raymond Harper, Ken Burgess and Clyn Williams.

Mrs. E. Pope has been confined to the hospital in Amherst. Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Blake have returned from Grapevine where he conducted a meeting at the Church of Christ there. Returning home with them was their grandson, Shawn Blake, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Blake of Winboro.

BRIDAL SHOWER HONORS MRS. WISEMAN

Mrs. Bill Wiseman was honored with a bridal shower Friday afternoon when the event was held in the home of Mrs. Weaver Barnett.

The hostess gift included an electric toaster and coffee pot.

Yellow chrysanthemums centered the brown taffeta covered table. Presiding at the serving table was Mrs. Benny Arnold. Mrs. Paul Wiseman registered the guests.

Other hostesses were Mesdames Joe Foster, C. E. Nichols, Bernard Wilson, Early Bartley, E. B. Hutchinson and R. S. Gatewood.

HOUSEWARMING HONORS FORDS

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Ford were surprised with a housewarming when friends gathered at their home last Tuesday evening.

The host and hostess gift included electrical appliances.

Hosting the event were Messrs. and Mesdames Dick West, Hank Brown, W. C. Masten, Wayne Howell, Paul Chisholm, Bill Steer, Hubert Dykes, Bruce Newman, T. P. Wingo, Coleman Terrell, John Humphreys and Mrs. Lois Blair.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Scott and Randy were dinner guests Friday evening in the home of their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heffington in Spade. The dinner was in observance of the birthdays of Mr. and Mrs. Scott and Charles Heffington. Also there was Mrs. Clara Parrott of Littlefield.

NEW LAKE PUMP --- Gus Parish (center) is shown here in a recent demonstration of the KMP Lake Pump which he invented and now manufactures. The revolutionary pump has eliminated costly priming and prevents clogging under normal lake conditions. The KMP plant, located one mile south of Earth on the Parish farm, is presently turning out five pumping units per week.

SCIENCE FACT & FABLE

A DIET OF MICE... FRIED, ROASTED, BAKED OR STEWED... WAS ONCE CONSIDERED A CURE FOR THE COMMON COLD IN SOME PARTS OF ENGLAND. THE IDEA WAS THAT MICE NATURALLY HAD CURATIVE POWERS.

IT WAS ALSO THOUGHT THAT YOU COULD CURE A COLD BY WEARING A BAG CONTAINING A MESS OF MICE AROUND THE NECK.

YOUNG HOMEMAKERS HEAR LECTURE

Miss Judy Carson, representing the Robert Spence charm school, spoke on self-improvement at the Nov. 4 meeting of Young Homemakers. Twelve members were present, with Wanda Swart hostess at the home economics building.

The SYH had a salad supper Oct. 26 at the home of Alvin Messamore, when Connie Brumley, Area I president from Hereford, installed officers.

COLLEGE 'WHO'S WHO' LISTS ROBERT WEIR

ABILENE (Special) --- Robert Weir, McMurry College junior student, has been named in the 1963-64 list of Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Weir is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Frank Weir of Sudan.

Students are chosen to Who's Who from a certain percentage of the school's enrollment on the basis of their scholarship, character, leadership, and service to the school. In McMurry Who's Who members are nominated by the whole faculty, student council and student senate.

Weir is majoring in history and English. Also on the McMurry campus, he is a member of Sigma Tau, Forum Service Club, and the McMurry Choir, Chanters. He also participates in the McMurry athletic program.

GOLF ODDITIES

... by JOE BLACK,

PGA Tournament Supervisor

BRUCE DEVLIN collected 12 penalty strokes, an average of three a round, in the OKLAHOMA CITY OPEN by hitting five balls out of bounds and landing in water hazards with two other shots. Still, with this frustrating collection of misfires in a single tournament, Devin finished with a two-under-par score of 285.

BRUCE CRAMPTON has canned three tee shots for holes-in-one during tournament play. One was in the LOUISVILLE OPEN while playing with Lionel Hobert. A second was in the PENSACOLA OPEN with John McMillin as his partner in the LUCKY INTERNATIONAL OPEN Bruce drew Hobert and McMillin for partners. With that draw in the "Lucky" tournament, he couldn't miss. That was the day he made his third tournament ace.

TEENIE off third in a threesome playing the 482-yard, par 5 second hole of the INSURANCE CITY OPEN, Al Gelberger scored an eagle. When he lined up for the third, Gelberger was still last off the tee. His playing partners, Julius Boreas and Chi Chi Rodriguez, had both matched Gelberger's eagle on the second.

AT THE HAIG & HAIG SCOTCH MIXED FOUR-SOME tournament in Sebring, Fla., the only time that the country's leading men and women professionals join together for competition, there have been two holes-in-one. Both times the long-hitting men had to stand back and watch a lady turn golf's most difficult trick. The aces were scored by Gloria Armstrong, in 1960 and Jo Ann Prentice, last winter.

The elegance of this new costume from Patou's recent presentation in Paris is a Vogue pattern exclusive. The skirt has a Talon Zephyr, the nylon coil zipper which offers so many fashion advantages... so easily cared for by just covering the nylon coil with a cloth when pressing or ironing. The fitted bodice, the graceful skirt and tailored jacket with eased waist, make this a potential leader in future fashions. It's a Vogue Paris Original pattern number 1280 to make in any number of precious fabrics.

Scripture: II Cor. 5:1-8; Job 14:14; Genesis 3:19; St. John 5:28, 29; 6:37; I Cor. 15:16-23; St. Luke 23:43.

Death — what is death? "If a man die, shall he live again?" Physical death is a consequence of sin. But physical death affects the body only, and is neither the ceasing of life nor of consciousness. The body is the "tabernacle" wherein the spirit (the real you) dwells. Physical death for the believer in Christ is referred to as "sleep", because the body may be "awakened" in Resurrection at any moment!

At death of the body, the Christian is at once with the Lord, according to the Scripture. Many details of life after death are veiled in a dim light (for "now we see through a glass darkly, but then face to face"), but the glorious and important fact is that, through Christ, we shall never die, but live on and on throughout eternity! This is both sight and joy enough for me! I am eternal, being born again into the eternal God's family! I am God's child, created by Him and then through His forgiving mercy, love and grace, by my faith to believe and accept Jesus as the only begotten Son of God, I am re-born eternally! I am a new creature, an eternal being. I have accepted God's plan for my salvation (and yours).

Jesus is the answer to all human need. Do you know Him, or do you just know about Him? Without Jesus man has no hope (of all men most miserable). But with Jesus, we have life — abundant life in love and peace and joy forever.

Jesus said "... him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out." Will you come to Jesus and take Him now — for now is the only time you have to make a choice? Choose Jesus — He is the way, the truth, and the life. No other way to have life eternal — only Jesus can save and keep you forever!

If a man die, shall he live again? YES, but only through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Iberia Air Lines Air-Lanes Champ!

The "Zurbaran", named after the famed Spanish painter of the 17th century, is the new "champion" of the trans-Atlantic air-lines. This sleek Douglas DC-8 of the Iberia Air Lines of Spain fleet recently established a record in a history-making non-stop flight.

The aircraft flew from Long Beach, California to Palma de Mallorca, off the east coast of Spain, a distance of 6390 miles in 10 hours and 30 minutes.

While Iberia's regular route between this country and Europe is only between New York and Madrid, the plane won the speed "blue ribbon" during the delivery flight to its home base.

The "Zurbaran" joins five other DC-8's named for famous painters in daily flights between America and Spain and from Spain to South American countries.

Household operating expenses — necessary feathers for the family nest — cost John Q. Homemaker and family about an hour and a half's wages every workday. To preserve the current homestead plumage and to get the most from whatever has to be spent, more and more homemakers are devoting extra time these fall cleaning days painting, polishing and refurbishing. Unlike bygone days, the person tackling today's fall cleaning schedule must come to grips immediately with a wide variety of new plastic surfaces, synthetic fiber materials, anodized metal fixtures and the like in addition to objects made from ordinary wood, steel, canvas, etc. New materials have done wonders to improve the U.S. home, but knowing how to clean them may occasionally stymie the most ambitious workman, reports coloring and refurbishing expert David T. Stebbins at Talsol Corporation, Cincinnati.

Generally if the cleaning procedure is not the same as for ordinary materials, he says, it's no more difficult — just different. To assist do-it-yourselfers in cleaning and restoring chores, industry has developed a number of special products for use on new materials.

Dirty or faded artificial leather or vinyl upholstery, for example, may be colored or recolored to match almost any decor while giving added life with a coat of such new spray products as Talsol's Mar-Hyde. All you do is wash the dirt off the fabric, whether it's a cushion cover, lampshade, headboard, deck chair or even a convertible car top — and spray on the color you want. It dries in minutes.

JUDY MEETS JETS. Stewardess Judy Stillwell proves that all jets do not fly as she inspects the new Eureka fan jet powered vacuum cleaner. Behind her at Chicago's O'Hare International Airport is an American Airlines Astrojet, part of the airline's fan jet fleet. The Eureka "Prince II" has a new fan jet motor which creates jet stream air current at the nozzle—a high velocity air movement that carries away deepest dirt, freshens rugs through and through in "jet speed" time. It is dynamically balanced and rubber mounted for quiet, efficient operation. The appliance weighs less than 20 pounds complete with five accessory cleaning tools, including a floor and wall brush, carried inside.

Rev. Willie Hazel left Tuesday morning for the Baptist convention being held this week in San Antonio. Going with him were Rev. James P. Arnold Jr. of Summerfield and Rev. Delbert Serratt of Spade.

Broom Wardrobe!

Something brand new in house cleaning has been created by The Broom Research Council for the immaculate housewife — a broom wardrobe consisting of nine brooms of varying weights and sizes. Each broom is designed for a specific cleaning chore. The wardrobe may be assembled at will to meet the individual housewife's needs, if she should not require the full complement. A heavy duty broom for basements and patios having unfinished but smooth cement floors, a rattan center broom for garage floors and driveways, a cornbroom for larger smooth floor areas requiring a broad sweeping action, a cornbroom of long resistant fibers for carpeted floors, a pickup broom for areas requiring just a junior broom, a woman's little helper, a family broom for tile, linoleum and wood floors, a heavy whisk broom for upholstery, and a dainty whisk broom for clothes.

SCIENCE SKETCHES

EYEGLASSES for chickens increase egg production, says California poultryman Al Schiner. The molded plastic contact lenses, at three cents a pair, fit over the chicken's eyeballs, are held in place by the lids. Purpose, however, is not better vision but worse. With lenses, chickens can see to eat and drink but not well enough to fight with each other.

OUTDOORS IN TEXAS
By VERN SANFORD

Who are Texas hunters and fishermen? They are you and you and your next door neighbors! In fact, 50 to 60,000,000 of the next door neighbors in all of the 50 states are either fishermen or hunters. They spend well over $116,000,000 a year just for hunting and fishing licenses alone. And the license they buy is the smallest part of the whole expense. In most cases the hunting and/or fishing license can be had by residents for the price of a box of good shotgun shells and considerably less than the price of a box of high-powered rifle cartridges. So any time you feel you are only a small cog in this great outdoors, just remember that you represent perhaps a third or more of the total population of the United States. Your own voice or your own purchasing power may be small, but combined with the voices of others it is a loud voice. That voice must continue to speak up. First it must speak up against any and every move by so-called do-gooders to do away with your right to own a gun or for that matter a many guns as you can afford. Every time you hear of some piece of legislation that would rob you of this right, join with all the other millions to let the world know you intend to preserve this right. There are many other rights and privileges which you also share. Actually the game belongs to you. But game is produced, for the most part, on private property. As a good sportsman it is up to you to recognize the right of property owners. But at the same time the landowners should recognize some of your rights to harvest the game he has produced. In that way everyone enjoys the benefits of the great outdoors. You have a right to fish in the lakes and streams, but often these waters are on private property. Even when they are not, they represent not only a monetary investment, but something which must not be desecrated. If everyone of the 60,000,000 or so persons who buy hunting and fishing licenses will recognize the rights of others and work together, it will be possible to continue with hunting and fishing for a long, long time. What happened during the last half-century is somewhat paradoxical. At the beginning of this century, wild life was well on its way out. Market hunters and game dogs were killing off game faster than it could produce. Then came the first laws to prevent the kill off. But with these laws came another dangerous program. Soon game habitat was being pushed back as towns developed. Then cities came, with great industrial plants and thousands of miles of highways. All these did away with much of the domain of wild life. Eventually science came into the picture, along with reason. Many new and practices were put into use. There were experts in the field of wildlife. It didn't take long for them to realize that the hunter will not destroy all wildlife if there is a place for it to live. Then engineers came along and built dams to impound water for more fish. Today we have more fish by far than the Indians ever had. Also today we have a different outlook on wildlife. Once we harvested wildlife for food alone. When we needed meat we killed a buck or a turkey, regardless of the time of the year. Now we harvest wildlife not only for food, but as a part of our sporting blood. We call ourselves sportsmen but we must play the part. And who are these hunters and fishermen? They are you, and you and you. Women and children today are just as much a part of this program as any grown man. In fact, there are more women and children hunting and fishing today than there were men participating some fifty years ago.
