WOODWORK BY DALTON

I FINALLY cashed in on something I wrote. Last week I wrote a bit about people who won't use strong lights in their homes, and commenting that I had one 150-watt bulb which didn't cost me any more in a month than a smaller one because it was burned out.

Well, good old Southwestern Public Service isn't going to miss a bet. Local manager Herb Potter read what I had and brought me a 150-watt bulb. I wasn't here, so he left it on my desk.

Fellow staff members tell me that bulb is the most brilliant thing to come off my desk in a long time.

WENDELL TOOLEY of the Floydada Hesperagus stole the following from Charlie Didway of the Post Dispatch, and there's no telling where Charlie got it from:

The publisher of a country newspaper retired with a fortune. When asked the secret of his success, he replied:

"I attribute my ability to retire with a $500,000 bank balance after 30 years in the newspaper business to close application to duty, pursuing a policy of strict honesty, always practicing rigorous rules of economy, and to the recent death of my uncle, who left me $498,500."

JUNE is the month in which Gen. George Armstrong Custer and his men were massacred back in eighteen-seventy-nump-in, and last week Earl Scudday of the Avalanche-Journal wrote a fine story about the incident, its many ramifications, and pointing out that there are a lot of misapprehensions about the whole affair.

Some said Custer was a hero, others think he was a glory-mad schnook, some think Sitting Bull was a great chief, others feel he was just another Indian who happened to be there.

Anyway, some of us who saw Earl about the time he was writing his story were poking fun at him, and I wrote a little song, to the tune of Yankee Doodle, which left Scudday aghast. He pointed out that making fun of the massacre of Custer was like making fun of someone on death row. I can't quite see it that way, since it all happened so long ago, and Custer did go hunting those Indians, even if he didn't show much Injunity.

ROTARY HONORS S. D. HAY AT ANNUAL BARBECUE

If Simon D. Hay could have heard all the things his friends said about him last Thursday night, he undoubtedly would have been embarrassed, but he would have appreciated it.

Approximately 150 persons attending the annual Sudan Rotary Club barbecue and installation in Hay's back yard heard Wayne Brown, speaking for the Rotary Club, describe Hay as "a good citizen, a good neighbor and a good friend."

Three families closest to Hay, who died in April, sat in positions of honor as Brown presented a plaque to Mrs. Hay inscribed, "In Memory of Simon D. Hay, for Outstanding Service Above Self," with the club name across the bottom of the plaque.

The plaque was accepted for Mrs. Hay by her son-in-law, Major Wilb Richard, and her grandson.

Asked to sit in chairs behind the microphone as the presentation was made were Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Slate, Mr. and Mrs. Reed Markham, and Mr. and Mrs. John Dean.

Hay, a charter member of Sudan Rotary Club when it was organized in 1937, traditionally invited the club to have its annual barbecue in his large back yard. After his death this year, Mrs. Hay invited the club to have the event there once more "because that's what Sim would have wanted."

Rotary Club President Benny Arnold handed over the leadership of the club to Calvin Jordan, president for the coming year. Jordan introduced new vice president Kenneth Burgess, secretary Paul Chisholm and board members Lester Shanks, Wayne Whiteaker and Jack Downs, who was absent.

Musical entertainment was by the Gopelaires Quartet from Muleshoe.

Jimmy Lynn Fields visited last week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Prentiss Fields in Paducah. Mr. and Mrs. Glyn Williams and daughters will leave this weekend for a vacation in California.

BOLL WEEVIL FUNDS ASKED

Congressman George Mahon appeared Monday before the Senate Committee on Appropriations to urge the inclusion in a Senate bill of $1,000,000 to be used for the purpose of combatting the advance of the boll weevil into the High Plains area.

The President last week sent the $1 million budget request to Congress for the boll weevil program. Mahon, Chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, had asked the President and the Secretary of Agriculture to approve the request for the necessary funds. The funds would be available only if matched by a similar sum from the area farmers, and High Plains farm groups have made such commitments.

Actions taking place in Washington are on outgrowth of the discovery last spring that the boll weevil had wintered on the fringes of the High Plains. Farmers became concerned and formed a boll weevil committee to push for action.

In view of the President's supplemental budget request, Mahon said he is optimistic that the funds will be provided in the final version of the bill to be worked out in a House-Senate conference.

Little League Winds Up

The Intercity Little League wound up play this week with the Sudan Cards on top, with a record of 12 wins, three losses and one tie. Second place went to the Amherst Braves, with a mark of 9 wins, 6 losses and one tie.

The Angels improved considerably over last year's record, having a mark of 8-8. The Dodgers are believed to have a record of 6-10 and the Cubs 5-11.

Final game was Tuesday afternoon, when the Cards outlasted the Angels 3-2, as Steve Edwards stole home with the winning run in the bottom of the sixth, on a close play at home. Jerry Bellar was the winning pitcher and Allen Black the loser.

Coaches and managers were to meet Wednesday night to choose the Little League All-Star team. All-star team practice may start song I wrote, but I'll just give you the first verse and the chorus here.

General Custer went to war,
Thought he'd kill some Injuns;
Had he known his fate ahead,
He might have changed opinions.

Chorus:
General Custer went to war,
Mounted on a pony,
But the Indians sliced him up
Just like a chunk of bologna.

Traffic Vigil Mapped for July 4 Holiday

While the drivers of Texas are making plans for 4th of July trips, the Texas Department of Public Safety is getting ready for "Operation Motorcade", a three day vigil of tabulating all traffic deaths in the state. Major Harry Hutchison, regional commander of this area for the D. P. S., said this week the state is approaching the mid-point in the year amid definite indications that traffic deaths will hit an all time high again in 1964.

"If we continue to take lives at the present rate, 1964 will become the most deadly year in Texas history for traffic fatalities," he said. "Motorcades" at this time are over 150 more than at the same time last year, and considering the trend of increased accidents and casualties, "we have every reason to expect that traffic deaths will exceed the previous all-time high in Texas of 2,729 in 1963."

"Only 271 more deaths in 1964 than in 1963 will make a total of 3,000 lives lost on our streets and highways in one year, an increase for the year of ten per cent over 1963."

Hutchison said that "Operation Motorcade" will be placed in effect from 12:01 a. m. Friday, July 3rd and continue through 11:59 p. m. Sunday, July 5, 1964.

"Since police traffic supervision cannot cover the entire street and highway system in the state every minute of the day, the big hope for safe driving and accident prevention rests with the individual motorist," Hutchison concluded.

PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name...

O, God help us... plead the cause of the people... have mercy on my human family... Save, O Lord, and remind us again of thy power to save man and make Him an eternal son of God. Have mercy upon us... O God, who hath in times past dried the sea, the waters of the great deep, and hath made the depths of the sea a way for the ransomed to pass over.

O Lord, our Maker; O Lord, that divided the sea, and laid the foundation of the earth; O Lord, that made man, and then came down to die for us and arose again from death; who ascended into heaven and there lives to intercede for us, His children.

O Lord, my God, how great Thou art! Yet in all Thy greatness and majesty and power, Thy love for us is greater, and made known by the price you have paid to redeem and save us, and now by Thy Spirit's abiding Presence. O Lord, forgive our sins, and grant us power to witness here, as Thy children, that Jesus saves eternally! And we will then give Thee the glory due Thy name. Amen.

We should always be thankful for all the blessings of our lives that flow from God; for the infinite good with which He surrounds us, for the many ways in which He guides and strengthens us.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white Chantilly lace, highlighted by a Sabrina neckline with Mrs. John Buth gave the devotional. Present were Mesdames Buth, Meeks, J.P. Arnold, Dexter Baker, Halbert Harvey, George Mowrer.

Ronald Bellamy, student at the University in Austin, is home to spend the summer with his mother, Mrs. Edna Bellamy.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Serratt recently visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Wood in Woodward, Okla.

Mrs. Jack Downs has been in Denver City to be with her sister and brother-in-law who were injured recently in an automobile accident.

The Texas Department of Public Safety appeals to all drivers to mark this Fourth of July weekend as a time to review their driving habits in light of the fact that traffic accidents are at an all-time high. Serious accidents are more frequent in holiday periods, and it is estimated that 32 persons will be killed in traffic from Friday, July 3, through Sunday, July 5. This doesn't have to happen! Tragedy can be averted by remaining constantly on the alert for dangerous situations, by not taking chances and by driving in accordance with laws of safety.

| ¼ cup flour   | ¼ teaspoon salt                                |
| ¼ cup melted butter                                 | ¼ teaspoon crushed thyme                       |
| ½ cup (small can) undiluted evaporated milk         | ¼ teaspoon pepper                              |
| 1 can (10½ ounces) condensed cream of mushroom soup | 8 to 10 small cooked onions                    |
|   | ¼ pound sliced mushrooms                       |

Coat chicken with flour. Arrange chicken in single layer with skins down in melted butter in baking dish (12x7x2 inches). Bake uncovered in 425 degree (moderately hot) oven for 30 minutes. Turn chicken; bake until brown, 15 to 20 minutes or until tender. Pour off excess fat. Combine evaporated milk, soup, cheese, salt, thyme and pepper. Add onions and mushrooms. Pour milk mixture over chicken. Cover dish with foil. Reduce oven temperature to 325 degrees and continue baking 15 to 20 minutes.
