WOODWORK BY BALTON

NOT LONG ago, Dr. Paul White, the noted heart expert who treated President Eisenhower for his first heart attack, came out strongly against extension telephones in American homes.

It is unwise, he suggested, to pamper housewives with convenient conversation outlets all over the place — an extension phone saves steps, but it deprives the girls of exercise which helps to keep their hearts and arteries toned up.

In other words he was implying a person is less likely to have heart trouble if he (or particularly she) has to walk to her phone.

Probably the sales department people of the phone companies had a minor heart attack of their own when Dr. White hinted an extension phone might give you heart trouble. Actually Dr. White's idea seems a bit far-fetched. It's not likely to have much effect on extension phone sales, either—probably about as much as if he suggested everybody walk to work instead of driving a car.

Which no doubt would be healthier, and safer, too.

SINCE I quite often strongly criticize various television programs, for once I am going to strike a small blow for the enemy.

Cynthia Lowry, the Associated Press radio-TV writer, has been quoted by me before regarding programs we mutually thought were lousy. But she didn't like "Charlie Brown's Christmas" and I think she is all wet on that one. I liked it, my kids liked it, my wife liked it, our dog liked it.

Miss Lowry said the program "became an explicit demonstration of the sad truth that some good things are better left alone... the moment the little pen-line characters were animated and moved off the printed page and acquired voices, they lost most of their special, piquant charm."

I still liked it.

OH, COME NOW DEPT: After it first was rumored that the pope might permanently lift the Friday meat ban for Catholics, the Associated Press messaged all its bureaus to check on what adverse effect such a move might have on the fishing industry.

Holy mackerel.

WINNERS ANNOUNCED

O'Dean Heard, owner of Heard's Grocery, who recently held its Grand Opening, announced the names of the winners for the drawing held Saturday night.

Mrs. Gladys Parrish and Mrs. Ben Stark were winners of the bicycles, Arlie Long won the electric blanket and James Hearst received the wrist watch.

Heard congratulates these winners and wishes to express his appreciation toward all the people who made the opening a success.

He also extends a welcome to all the area residents to come in and visit with them any time as the store will remain open seven days a week.

COUPLES CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY—Shown above are Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Slate of Sudan and Mr. and Mrs. Lester J. LaGrange of Amherst who celebrated their 50th Wedding Anniversary Thursday, Dec. 9. The couples were united in a double wedding ceremony in Henderson, Texas in 1915. The Slaters moved to Sudan in 1919 where they operated a general merchantile store and Slate was post master for 15 years. The LaGranges came to Amherst in 1924 where he was associated with the Mashed O ranch until he retired. Mrs. Slate and Mrs. LaGrange, sisters, are from Henderson, while the two men originally came from Iowa. They celebrated their anniversary with a quiet family dinner.

BLAKE NAMED PRESIDENT OF SUDAN BOOSTER CLUB

Mickey Blake was elected president of the Sudan Athletic Booster Club at the organization's first official meeting held Thursday, Dec. 9 in the Community Center.

Other officers elected were Waymon Bellar, vice-president;

Calvin Baker, secretary-treasurer; Ken Minyard, publicity chairman; Jack Riley, projects chairman; Jack Noblett and Red Morgan, board members.

The Steering committee presented the by-laws and constitution, which were adopted by the 36 members present.

One of the first projects of the club will be a membership drive in which they hope to solicit some 200 or 300 members.

Membership fee will be $2.50 per person and all residents interested in the athletic program of the school are urged to become members.

Ken Minyard, publicity chairman, stressed that the club will be a self-supporting organization with all funds to be gained from club projects.

Meeting dates were set for the fourth Thursday night of each month with the next meeting scheduled for Jan. 27. During special seasons meetings will be held more often.

Patry Cartwright, Mrs. Dorman Chester, Mrs. Jim Cain, Miss Nita Whiteaker, Mrs. Joe Rome, Mrs. Jay House, Mrs. Bob Drake.

Band section—Robert DeLoach, Dewey Haragan, Jack Noblett, R. E. DeLoach, Nolan Parrish, George Ritchie, Frank Lane, Jerry Hopper, Barry Potter.

Rev. Willie Hamel, pastor of the First Baptist Church extends a welcome to all residents to attend this Christmas program.

FOOTBALL

1965 football jackets were awarded during an assembly held Tuesday, Dec. 14. Seventeen varsity jackets and 12 B-team jackets were awarded with managers, Son Qualls and Jimmy Williams also receiving jackets.

The jackets were the regulation style for Sudan made of black wool with black leather sleeves and a gold "S".

Coach Cain reminded us that a boy must be passing at least 3 solid subjects in order to be eligible to receive a letter in football, which entitles him to a jacket.

Following is a list of the students receiving jackets:

Seniors — Frank Cantu, Ricky Humphreys, Bill Allen, Corley Baker.

Freshmen—Mont Roberts.

B-team jackets were awarded to Van Seymour, Rodney Bunting, Damon Purnaux, Mike Hama, Billy Paul, Steve Murphy, Green Underwood, David Williams, Wayne Gilbreath, John Gans, Tim Hix, Mickey Gilbert.

Boys, Girls Win In Cage Play

The Sudan girls basketball team won both the games played in the last week while the boys won the game with Amherst but lost to Anton.

Sudan was host to Anton Friday night when the boys were defeated by only one point, 50-49. Larry Crews of Anton was game high pointer, followed closely by Corley Baker who was high for Sudan with 20 points.

Anton took a first quarter lead but Sudan rallied in the third, although they were unable to come out on top as the final whistle blew.

Joyce Williams was top scorer for the Hornets with 18 points when they overtook the Dogettes 45-40. Penny Mudgett scored 12 while Donna Gaston sank 5 shots for 10 points.

In the B-team game, Sudan murdered the Anton girls, 49-7, with Kathy Fisher scoring 20, Jeanne Baker, 16, Donna Heard

BAND TO PRESENT CHRISTMAS CONCERT

The Hornet Band of Sudan High School will present the annual Christmas concert Monday, Dec. 20 beginning at 7:30 p. m. in the school cafeteria.

The highlight of the program will be the crowning of the Band Sweetheart. Candidates for the honor are Vicki Maston, Kathy Minyard and Susan Jones. The name of the queen will not be announced until the coronation service, reported band director, Mike Matin.

SUDAN SCHOOLS TO BE DISMISSED WEDNESDAY

Ralph Stewart, high school principal, and Bernard Wilson, grade school principal, announced this week that school will be dismissed Wednesday, Dec. 23 at 2:30 p. m. for the Christmas holidays.

Grades one through seven will have their annual Christmas party, Sheryl Watts 3, and Mickey Logan who also played guard, scored 4 points.

Other members of the B-team are Jackie Noblett, Nancy Lance, Brenda Harper, Vickie Ray.

The boys' varsity team took Amherst 50-42 in a game Tuesday night with Corley Baker scoring 30 points. Billy Sherrill was high point for Amherst with 18 points.

The Hornets defeated the Amherst girls although the score was low for both teams, 31-23.

Tanya Fox was high pointer with 9 points, followed by Vicki Maston with 8, and Joyce Williams and Penny Mudgett with 7 points each.

JESUS, THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD

Scripture: Genesis 6:16; Matthew 5: 14-16; St. John 14: 18-21.

Are you a Christian today? If not I would love to tell you that Jesus is a wonderful Friend and Savior to have. He is yours if you want him.

Even as Christians, so many times we look all around us at the sin that is in this world, and we lose faith and become discouraged. It was no accident that God told Noah to build a window in the top of the Ark, because instead of looking out at the terrible destruction and flood waters around him, Noah only looked up to God.

If you are a Christian today you are a reflection of Jesus, as Jesus was to the Father. But my friend, look at yourself. Do your "first work" over again, remembering Jesus' words to the Church of Ephesus in the second chapter of Revelations.

Be very sure that your life, your daily life is a reflection of Jesus and not a reproach, or a stumbling block, to someone who is looking at your life for an example.

Parents, as your children look at your way of living, be sure that they know you are only striving for perfection through Jesus, as the Truth is applied to your life. Also, be sure they know that you are willing again

FOR THE GRAYES, THE COMING-OF-AGE

The young people of the Church of God of Prophecy will have their Christmas play at the church at 7 p. m. Sunday, Dec. 15.

In making this announcement, the pastor, H. L. Kitchin, said that everyone is welcome to attend.

The youth are also planning to go Christmas caroling Saturday night.

WBU HAS BIBLE STUDY

"The Kingdom is Coming, O Tell Ye The Story" was the subject topic of the meeting Monday afternoon of the WBU at the First Baptist Church. Bringing the Bible study from First and Second Samuel and the Chronicles was the Rev. Willie Hamel.

Mrs. Max Bullock, president presided at the business meeting.

to confess and repent, and to give God your all—everything—to let God's will be done in your life.

Then, and then only, your children and others who look at your life can see Jesus! You are no longer a stumbling block in their way, blocking their view. You have removed sinful self and can say with joy, "Look at Jesus — He's the one!"
