FORTY-FIRST YEAR

NUMBER 47

WOODWORK BY DALTON

IF IT weren't so far from civilization, I'd be tempted to move to New York City and retire into the plush living of a bus driver. Because those guys are going to have it Made, with a capital M, one of these days. Indicative of their modest ambitions are a couple of things they were demanding last week when they were on strike in New York.

Salary-wise, I suppose their demands weren't too far out of line, for New York, where I understand living costs are higher. They're looking for something in the neighborhood of $3.00 an hour, which isn't a bad neighborhood, but nothing like the steelworkers are getting.

But get this: They were asking for a four-day work week, and a guaranteed six-weeks paid vacation after the first year of employment. By the time you read this, they may have secured all these goals.

I never could find out what kind of deal those who had been there more than one year were seeking. Probably each worker was demanding a solid gold Cadillac to take his vacation in each year.

HE IS OUR champion in the United Nations; he undoubtedly is working hard to achieve the worthwhile aim of peace in Viet Nam, something everyone would like to see. He probably is a nice enough fellow, but offhand I can't remember ever seeing or hearing anyone who repelled me on sight and sound as much as Arthur Goldberg. He's as bad as Jonathan Winters on TV, and almost as repulsive as Sammy Davis Jr.

CONSIDERING that our scientists can invent a bomb so powerful everyone is afraid to use it (we all hope), I have a suggestion for invention of more benefit to mankind. What we need is a device to cut off the television set at any given point in a program when one is interrupted by phone calls, dinner, company or work, and then have it pick up at that exact point when you go back to the set later. That way, you wouldn't miss the rest of the program. I suppose it would have to operate on a tape of some sort, so you could rub out all the programs in between the time you cut it off and when you resumed the original show, so you could catch up to the present.

Of course, a refinement would be to have it automatically rub out the commercials, but the sponsors wouldn't like this. Unless I miscounted, one TV ad repeats the phrase, "Borax in NEW Fab?" some 79 times in the same commercial.

BAND PARENTS TO HOLD BAKE SALE

Mike Metz, band director, urges all the housewives of Sudan to let the Band Parents organization do their baking for the weekend.

The organization will hold a Bake Sale, Saturday, Jan. 15, beginning at 9 a.m. The event will take place at Shanks Dept. Store.

pies and cakes will be on display.

Metz suggests that buyers come early to insure getting their favorite kind of cake or pie.

Sudan in 1932 from the Smyer community.

All three of the Markham children graduated from Sudan High School.

Markham began working with the Foxworth-Galbraith Lumber Company in August, 1927, and has been employed with the company since that time, except for one year when he was with the Falco company.

Mrs. Markham, who worked as bookkeeper for the same company, officially retired in 1962.

Since moving to Sudan, Markham has been more than just the manager of a lumber company as he has also taken an active part in Sudan's civic and church activities. He is a member of the Sudan Masonic Lodge, an active member of the Sudan Rotary Club, and has been an active Sunday School teacher in the First Baptist Church for the past 34 years.

He stated that he will still live in Sudan and will be on call to help the company when they need someone in this area.

Mr. and Mrs. Markham would like to express their deep gratitude to this community for all their friendship, kindness and consideration, and help both in and in the rearing and education of their children, throughout these 34 years in Sudan. He said "Sudan is dear to our hearts and we appreciate our association with you in the past but also look forward to being a part of this community in the future."

parent representation included, O. L. Turner, sixth grade and Mrs. Calvin Vernon, third grade.

Also a nominating committee was named including Mrs. Billy Chester, Mrs. Bobby Jack Markham, Mrs. Bob Drake.

The PTA organization will sponsor the Senior Citizens' meeting, to be held Friday afternoon at 3 in the community center.

Other items discussed was the Bi-County PTA Council to be held in Amherst, Feb. 1.

Mrs. A. H. Kelley of Memphis, Tenn., was recognized as a guest.

Those present for the executive meeting were Mrs. Harold May, Mrs. Lavene Kamp, Mrs. Glenn Gatewood, Mrs. Wayne Swartz, Mrs. Bobby Jack Markham, Mrs. Bob Drake.

1935 Study Club Elects Officers

Mrs. R. D. Nix was named president of the meeting of the 1935 Study Club held Monday evening in the home of Mrs. W. V. Terry.

Named to serve with her were Mrs. Jack Riley, vice president; Mrs. Kenneth Wiseman, recording secretary; Mrs. Marvin Tollett, parliamentarian; Mrs. F. M. Smith, critic; Mrs. J. M. Bulloch, corresponding secretary; Mrs. W. E. Hancock, treasurer; Mrs. S. D. Hay, reporter.

Program director for the meeting was Mrs. F. M. Smith. Subject topic was "The First Wealth-Is Health". Mrs. J. M. Bulloch gave "The Heart Association at Work".

Answering roll call with data on the following topics were Mrs. R. S. Gatewood, "World Affairs"; Mrs. W. E. Hancock, "Safety"; Mrs. S. D. Hay,

PARTY HONORS

THE CARTWRIGHTS

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Cartwright and family were honored with a Going-Away party Saturday evening in the Community Center. The Cartwrights will move this weekend to Sunray to make their home.

Assorted items were presented as host and hostess gifts.

Mrs. D. W. Williamson and Mrs. Louis Fields registered the guests and Mrs. Weaver Barnett and Mrs. Weldon Wiseman presided at the serving table.

Host and hostesses for the event were Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Williamson, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Seefeld, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Truman Parrish, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Burges, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Engram, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Drake, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. House Jr., Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Narramore, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Metz, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Hanna, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Davison, Mr. and Mrs. George Ritchie, Mr. and Mrs. Harold May, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Olds, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Hanna, Mrs. Thelma Shaffer.

SUDAN WINS DISTRICT GAME

Sudan basketball teams defeated the high-rated Kress teams in the first game of district play here Tuesday night.

Kress has been rated to win district with Hale Center picked as second by an area newspaper.

The score of the boys game see-sawed back and forth with the score being Sudan 8-Kress 9 at the end of the first quarter, while Sudan came back to lead 25-23 at the half. Kress led 42 to 39 for the third quarter but Sudan outscored them in the final quarter to end the game Sudan 58-Kress 55.

Corley Baker was high point for Sudan with 21 with Mike Bellar a close second with 20 points.

High point for Kress was Burk Bradley with 18 points.

Coach Nelson said that he was extremely proud of the way the boys played and has a bright outlook for future district play.

The Hornets came from behind in the final quarter to outscore and defeat the Kress team

GET-ACQUAINTED COFFEE HELD HERE MONDAY

Representatives of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce attended a Get-Acquainted coffee here Monday morning.

Estes Shanks, president of the Sudan Chamber of Commerce, reported that approximately 30 attended from Lubbock.

Attending from Sudan were Shanks, Olan Roark, Guy Walden, the Rev. Jack Riley, Doyle Baccus, Max Bulloch, Reed Markham, Bobby Markham, Noel Lumpkin, F. M. Smith, A. L. Shannon, Joe Saleem, Ves Patterson, Marvin Tollett and R. D. Kamp.

RECEPTION HONORS THE R. S. GATEWOODS

Approximately 200 guests from several towns attended the reception honoring Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Gatewood on their 50th wedding anniversary.

The event was held Sunday in the home of the honored couple with their children and grandchildren as hosts.

It was a close game but Kress had a narrow edge until the fourth quarter when Sudan scored 15 points.

Scoring for Sudan were Tanya Fox, Joyce Williams, Sharon Baker with 10 points each and Penny Mudgett with 4.

The low score indicates the defensive battle that went on. Sudan guards seeing action were Kathy Minyard, Susan Jones, Margie Bellar and Frances Hanna.

The Sudan teams will meet Springlake in Springlake Thursday (tonight) for their second district game of the season.

Sudan boys won consolation in the tournament held last week in Amherst by defeating Amherst 56-45. Sudan led all the way with Corley Baker scoring 26 points for high pointer.

In the first game of the tournament Anton defeated Sudan 59-50. Sudan then won over Pep, who had defeated Nazareth in the first go round, to take on the Bulldogs.

Coach Nelson remarked on the fine brand of ball played by the boys during the tournament and complimented Corley Baker, who leads the team in scoring, on scoring 40 points in the Pep game.

Nazareth, who had been beaten twice before by the Sudan girls, slaughtered them in the second go-round of the tournament, 53-31. The girls had previously defeated Anton 47-42 in the first game.

High point for the Anton game was Sharon Baker with 11 and Penny Mudgett with 11. In the Nazareth game Joyce Williams scored 12 points for the honor.

The Eighth grade Junior High boys, coached by T. P. Wingo Jr., defeated Springlake 25-13 last week with Jerry Bellar scoring 14 points for the high point honor.

Wingo stated that the team has developed nicely and shows great promise in future years. They have the height that enables them to control the backboards and are playing heads up ball.

SHORT AND SWEET

The American housewife has a choice of 8,000 food items. In ten years there will be a choice of some 12,000, half of them different from today's items. Trading stamps add about 67 cents a week to the average family's food bill. Today's teenagers with 12% of the population and an income of $12 billion a year, have the power to set many of today's mass-buying trends. When youngsters now between the ages of 5 and 12 reach their teens, they will probably have an income of about 20 billion dollars.

So much of life is wasted in a most neglected way. When so many deeds of kindness we could render or display. A hand upon the shoulder, kind words that we can bring. Will do much more for others than almost any thing.

BRUSHES are becoming standard equipment for putting piping systems together. Tube Turns, Louisville, has developed a line of epoxy-bonded pipe fittings. The adhesive is brushed on fittings that are to be joined.

MORE BRILLIANT than a galaxy, quasars, which are mysterious, distant and energetic sources of light, may be the result of collisions between galaxies. Case Institute of Technology scientists theorize that quasars are formed when galaxies consisting of normal matter collide with others of quaternary.

WIRE-MESH CAGES called gabions, first used in the Middle Ages, are helping conserve fish in drought-stricken areas of the U.S. Placed in stream beds and filled with rocks, they form dams and deepen the drying streams.

A NEWLY DEVELOPED "Vetator" scraped surface heat exchanger makes processing of thick slurries in the chemical industry easier. The Louisiana firm's "Classwell" and provides 26 square feet of heat transfer surface. Material pumped through the unit is constantly scraped from the walls by head blades, preventing fouling.

The only way we could make a Catalina look even better would be to show you its price tag.

Because stretching back for nearly 18 feet behind that dashing front end is everything that would make pricing a Catalina the next logical step: A 389-cu. in. V-8 Wide-Track wheels. Nylon carpets. A package of safety features including seat belts front and rear. And one of the roomiest trunks in the field. Come in, take on and price out a tiger at your Pontiac dealers—a good place to buy used cars, too.

BY HAZEL HOUSE

"WOULD YOU FOLLOW HIM ALL THE WAY?"

Scripture: St. Matthew 20: 26-34.

Thinking of what you and I have cost God to get us back into fellowship with Him, to the perfection in that He made us first, I continually wonder "what is man that thou art mindful of him?" and feel a deep thankfulness that He does love us more than we can understand.

The idea of "serving" is not one that is looked on by the world today with much more favor than was so in the days of our scripture lesson. Even the disciples, who were Jesus' closest friends, failed to understand yet that Jesus' Kingdom was not a kingdom gained by power of might or money; that its place gained not being served, but by serving others. Many today would believe in their minds that Jesus is the Son of God, but to "follow Him" all the way is another thing; to believe in their heart that He is "the way, the truth, and the life" is another thing indeed.

To go with Him through the garden; to deny oneself, means we must give our bodies (a reasonable service) for God's use, God's will, to minister unto others, as Jesus did, if we are to be His disciple. We must take up our cross daily, bearing our burden joyfully, forgetting the shame or persecution and looking toward the joys in store for us; then, lo, our burden is light, for Jesus told us it would be so and He does not leave us to walk alone.

Just before Jesus' triumphant entry into Jerusalem, our scripture tells us that two blind men, sitting by the side of the way, heard that Jesus was passing by. (Are you hearing that Jesus is passing by?) Then they cried out to Jesus, and when the crowd tried to hush them up, they even more so cried, "Have mercy on us, O Lord, thou Son of David." Has the "crowd" tried to keep you quiet about going to Sunday School and Worship Service.

Have they tried to keep you from disturbing them (regardless of what happens to you) by your calling on Jesus, perhaps telling you that you are too busy and tired and need to sleep late on Sunday - that nobody in the church cares whether you come that nobody has time to listen to you any time, especially now? Don't believe it—let nothing keep you from calling more on Jesus, for listen to what He did at the two blind men's call! "And Jesus stood still." (He may have been busy and thinking of His triumphal entry into Jerusalem, but He is never too busy to hear our call for His mercy or help!) "and called them", (Is Jesus calling you?) "and said, What will ye that I shall do unto you?" and the blind men told Him their need to see.

"So Jesus had compassion on them, and touched their eyes; and immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed Him."

Are your spiritual eyes open? Only by the touch of Jesus can we receive our spiritual sight. "And they followed Him". Will you follow Jesus? He is truly the only way back to the Father, into Heaven, into eternal life.
