WOODWORK

BY DALTON

NOBODY depends on his brain anymore. We have electronic brains and government bureaus to do our thinking for us. We don't have to know anything; we just need to remember where to go to look up the answer. And this trend has even affected the drive-in cafe and ice cream joint business.

One of the more colorful practices of the past has all but been eliminated by the write-it-down-for-accuracy movement in the drive-in business. No longer do these places use the slang expressions similar to those when we were jerking sodas and hopping cars. There are some exceptions, but most places have their waiters and waitresses simply write down the order in some form of shorthand, and that's it.

When I worked at an ice cream place in Denton during my college days, we never turned in written orders (I'm sure I couldn't remember half as much now as I did then.)

Anyway, suppose a carload of people drove up and ordered two plain Cokes, a cherry Dr. Pepper, a dish of butterscotch ice cream, a double-dip chocolate ice cream cone and a large can of tomato juice to go (which is unlikely.) All of this was for six persons, who also would need water, and a tray.

My order as I passed the doorway to the next car would be: "Shoot a pair for a Waco honest-Chinese D for a choc stack—bucket of blood on wheels—86 on a jitterbug."

Besides being colorful, this kind of lingo also served a good purpose. It was easier to remember in this form than in plain English.

Waco always meant Dr. Pepper, and "honest" meant cherry-flavored. Some of my friends tell me that in their particular part of the country, cherry flavor was designated by the word, "wild", but that Waco and a shot (Coke) were the same. A napkin was a skirt, a straw was a siphon. The figure 80 was a glass of water, with the second digit telling how many were needed. Trays were jitterbugs, and anyone who ever carried a couple of these around when they're loaded down knows why. Two of anything was a pair, three was a crowd, four was "jody" (I still don't know why.) There were lots of others, but I don't recall them now.

Also, in those days, I was proud of the fact that I could rattle off about 18 flavors of ice cream in one breath, almost. Of course, nobody could understand a word I said, so they generally ordered chocolate or vanilla.

The soda jerks and carhops today are more efficient, no doubt. But they probably don't have as much fun in their jobs.

Devotional

By HAZEL HOUSE

ARE YOU READY?

Scripture: St. Matthew 25: 1-13.
"While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept."
To which of the groups of "five" do you belong? You cannot truly answer "neither", for all of us belong to one group or the other.

Recently I have been made joyful, for some of us have prayed, but saddened because so many have already started slumbering and sleeping with no apparent thought of needing "oil" in their lamps.
Indeed, some have been too indifferent, too careless, too lukewarm to even ridicule the wise who seek and have this "oil". The cause for which, they have given themselves in this time that has passed, and are giving themselves today—their cause is too small.

Nothing, no cause, is great enough for a man or woman to give themselves to—their time, talents, money, or anything, if it is something that will end when physical life ends. It may be exciting for a moment, but it is not enough. A cause like that is like an excitingly beautiful package that, when opened, is empty and unsatisfying.

Even the handiwork of God, beautiful grandeur that it is, would be just that if it were not that a living God has been revealed to man, Jesus has come, and no longer can we claim ignorance of God and His way for us. If we want to have an abundant, eternal life, we can have it, for God loves us and made a way for us to return into His family through the shed blood of Jesus that takes away all our guilty stain of sin, and will make us pure and holy. But without Jesus we have and we are nothing!

God help us to wake up! For now we can hear those who say "the Kingdom of heaven is at hand," and perhaps "Behold, the bridegroom cometh..." and sooner than you may think, we may hear "go ye out to meet him."

Are you ready? Now is all the time you have to get ready. Have you truly been sorry for your sin and said "with God's help, I'll turn from my way to His way."

Then, pray for the "oil" of the Holy Spirit, keep your lamps

Love... is not provoked... but rejoiceth with the truth. —(1 Cor. 13:4-6)

If working conditions appear strained, a peaceful, soothing word from us may give others assurance. Regardless how irritated or unreasonable someone may appear, we must remember that love is not provoked. Instead of feeling hurt or angry we will bless them into the Father's care and keeping. Let's rejoice in His love.

Shower Honors Bride-Elect

Cynthia Wiseman and Kathy Kamp registered the guests. Presiding at the serving table was Mrs. Jerry Bridwell of Lubbock.

Mrs. J. B. Harper assisted with the listing of the gifts.

The hostess gift was silverware and a silver chest.

Hostesses were Mrs. Joe Fisher, Mrs. Byron Ford, Mrs. L. E. Slate, Mrs. Roy Baccus, Mrs. Arnold Reed, Mrs. Buford Walker, Mrs. Tommy Cate, Mrs. W. B. Jones, Jr., Mrs. R. S. Gatewood, Mrs. Ed Bellar, Mrs. Weaver Barnett, Mrs. Burnice May, Mrs. Ben Beauchamp, Mrs. Weldon Shaffer, Mrs.

trimmed and ready to shine forth, remembering that each of us must take Jesus individually. Each one must make a personal choice, for we cannot borrow His Spirit of life from any other. And remember, too, that Jesus said:

"Watch therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh."

Wake up! Don't let anything keep you from Jesus—for He is your Savior, if you want Him! If you miss Jesus, you have missed everything! Don't let this world deceive you into losing your eternal life. Jesus is an abiding Friend, who upholds and loves and delights all who know and trust and obey Him. Be ready—take Jesus now!

Our loneliness, my friends, you'll find Is only just a frame of mind;
If loneliness has claimed your time, Then kindly analyze this rhyme;
To render service day by day, Will drive all loneliness away;
It has no place for its abode, Where we will share our neighbor's load.

NUMBER TWELVE ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 8, 1966. HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 48 proposing an Amendment to Article IX of the Constitution of the State of Texas, providing the method and manner for dissolution of hospital districts created under Article IX of the Constitution.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Section 9, Article IX of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended to read as follows:

"Section 9. The Legislature may by law provide for the creation, establishment, maintenance and operation of hospital districts composed of one or more counties or all or any part of one or more counties with power to issue bonds for the purchase, construction, acquisition, repair or renovation of buildings and improvements and equipping same, for hospital purposes; providing for the transfer to the hospital district of the title to any land, buildings, improvements and equipment located wholly within the district which may be jointly or separately owned by any city, town or county, providing that any district so created shall assume full responsibility for providing medical and hospital care for its needy inhabitants and assume the outstanding indebtedness incurred by cities, towns and counties for hospital purposes prior to the creation of the district, if same are located wholly within its boundaries, and a pro rata portion of such indebtedness based upon the then last approved tax assessment rolls of the included cities, towns and counties if less than all the territory thereof is included within the district boundaries; providing that after its creation no other municipality or political subdivision shall have the power to levy taxes or issue bonds or other obligations for hospital purposes or for providing medical care within the boundaries of the district; providing for the levy of annual taxes at a rate not to exceed seventy-five cents (75c) on the One Hundred Dollar valuation of all taxable property within such district for the purpose of meeting the requirements of the district's bonds, the indebtedness assumed by it and its maintenance and operating expenses, providing that such district shall not be created or such tax authorized unless approved by a majority of the qualified property taxpaying electors thereof voting at an election called for the purpose; and providing further that the support and maintenance of the district's hospital system shall never become a charge against or obligation of the State of Texas nor shall any direct appropriation be made by the Legislature for the construction, maintenance or improvement of any of the facilities of such district.

Provided, however, that no district shall be created except by act of the Legislature and then only after thirty (30) days' public notice to the district affected, and in no event may the Legislature provide for a district to be created without the affirmative vote of a majority of the taxpaying voters in the district concerned.

The Legislature may also provide for the dissolution of hospital districts provided that a process is afforded by statute for:

- (1) determining the desire of a majority of the qualified voters within the district to dissolve it;
- (2) disposing of or transferring the assets, if any, of the district; and
- (3) satisfying the debts and bond obligations, if any, of the district, in such manner as to protect the interest of the citizens within the district, including their collective property rights in the assets and property of the district, provided, however, that any grant from federal funds, however dispensed, shall be considered an obligation to be repaid in satisfaction and provided that no election to dissolve shall be held more often than once each year. In such connection, the statute shall provide against disposal or transfer of the assets of the district except for due compensation unless such assets are transferred to another governmental agency, such as a county, embracing such district and using such transferred assets in such a way as to benefit citizens formerly within the district.

Sec. 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1966, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

"FOR the constitutional amendment providing the method and manner for dissolution of hospital districts.

"AGAINST the constitutional amendment providing the method and manner for dissolution of hospital districts."

Sec. 3. The Governor of the State of Texas shall issue the necessary proclamation for the election and this amendment shall be published in the manner and for the length of time as required by the Constitution and laws of this State.
