SUDAN WINS OVER SUNDOWN, 30-6

THE SUDAN-AMHERST rivalry in football, which will be renewed here Friday night, has always been one of the healthiest ones I've ever known about.

The feeling is keen, of course, but only on a few occasions has the antagonism between players and fans grown bitter. In recent years, until last year, it was a bit one-sided, as Sudan had won several years in a row, including a 13-13 tie game, but Amherst won it 14-8 last September, and several of the contests have been close ones providing lots of thrills for the fans.

A 14-12 game won by Sudan a couple of years ago was a real disappointment to Amherst fans, who saw their team hold a big edge in every statistical department except the score.

About three years before that, I recall the excitement of a game at Sudan in which the Hornets took a 13-0 halftime lead, only to see Amherst come storming back to tie the game, with Quarterback Johnny Blair spearing a receiver (my memory, which could be faulty, says it was Bob Hedger) on the goal line in the final seconds to tie the score. And fans on both sides recall the tension as Blair's attempted kick for the winning point struck the crossbar and fell back on the inside to leave the score tied.

Other exciting moments of Sudan-Amherst games stand out in my memory, which dates only as far back as the 1959 season (and I'm sure many Sudan and Amherst fans can recall some highlights of games before that).

I remember well the long touchdowns run of Gary West and Joe Bellar against Amherst teams, the pass-catching, punting and tackling of Horner End Danny Allen at Amherst one night, the rugged tackling of the Hornets' Kemel May, and on the Amherst side, the fierce linebacking and running of Gary Pigg in a losing effort at Sudan, Carl Enloe's outstanding job at linebacker, the darting runs of James Breshean, Blair's cool quarterbacking, and the competitive spirit of End Reagan Cox, whose seal occasionally got him into trouble with the officials, but whose play was outstanding.

There were plenty of other players who made themselves noticed in past Amherst-Sudan games, and undoubtedly there will be some fierce action Friday, as they should. The rivalry will be keen, as each would like nothing better than to beat the other. It is normal and fine that the players should feel this way, and that the fans will be yelling for their boys to hit the other team with everything they have.

But the nice thing about the Sudan-Amherst rivalry is the fact that on any other night except the one where they're playing each other, the fans of Sudan are always rooting for the Bulldogs to win, and the Amherst folks are pulling for Sudan.

These people are neighbors installation of officers and entertainment will be furnished by a group of high school students.

There were five members and the club advisor, Mrs. Kenneth Burgen, present for the meeting Monday night when the hostesses were Mrs. Don Ham and Mrs. James Withrow.

Several local Young Homemakers attended the Area I Young Homemakers Convention in Tulsa last Saturday.

Those attending from the local chapter were Mrs. Don Ham, Mrs. Paul Wiseman, Mrs. James

TELEPHONE DIRECTORIES DISTRIBUTED LAST WEEK

Allan Waldrop, district manager for General Telephone, announced this week that the 1966 telephone directories have been distributed.

Waldrop stated however, that the books contain numerous listings that will not be in effect until Sept. 13.

Anyone having questions concerning the revised listings are asked to call the telephone office.

EASTERN STAR TO HOST MASON DINNER SATURDAY

The local chapter of the Order of Eastern Star announced that they will host a dinner Saturday, Sept. 17, at 7 p. m. in the Sudan Masonic hall for members of the local masonic lodge and their wives.

In making this announcement they stressed that all members and their wives are urged to attend.

GUILD TO MEET TUESDAY

The Wesleyan Service Guild will meet Tuesday, Sept. 20, at 7:30 p. m. in the fellowship hall of the First Methodist Church.

In making the announcement, Ruby Shannon the president, stated that a salad supper will be served and that each member is asked to bring a salad.

Withrow, Mrs. Kenneth Burgen, and Miss Lucy Leal.

Mrs. Mike Metz, Miss Lucy Leal and Mrs. James Withrow also attended the High Plains Research Foundation field day held at Halfway, Thursday, Sept. 8. The group aided in the registration of guests.

DKG MEET HELD

The local Delta Kappa Gamma chapter met Saturday, Sept. 10 in the fellowship hall of the Amherst Methodist Church when a salad supper was served.

Joy Hedges of Amherst reviewed the constitution yearbook to highlight the program which was concluded with group singing.

Blanche Johnson of Muleshoe, president, presided at the business session. She also presided at the executive meeting held preceding the supper.

The October meeting is scheduled to be held in Sudan at the home of Mrs. Mary Tollett.

Attending the meeting from Sudan were Maxine Nichols, Mary Tollett, Hazel May, Thelmy Wiseman, Elsie Wilson.

WMU OBSERVES MISSIONS WEEK

"By Faith Committed" was the theme for the Season of Prayer for State Missions being observed this week by members of the WMU, First Baptist Church.

Mrs. L. F. Meeks, chairman, was in charge of the program when the members met Tuesday afternoon at the church. Appearing on the program when Mrs. Meeks discussed the topic "Giving" were Mrs. John Bush and Mrs. Halbert Harvey and Mrs. Oscar Vinson.

The members were also in charge of the Wednesday evening prayer service when Mrs. J. P. Arnold gave the devotionals.

Fullback Mike Bellar scored 18 points and a Sudan Hornet defense which seems to have developed unexpected muscles kept visiting Sundown in check as the Hornets rolled to a crowd-pleasing 30-6 triumph over the visitors here Friday night.

The unexpectedly large margin over what nevertheless appears to be a good Sundown team has Sudan fans mentally crossing their fingers and hoping that this may be the year for evening-up some old grudges on the gridiron when district time rolls around. Friday's game with a good Amherst team may shed some light on Sudan's outlook.

Statistics showed the two teams to be a bit closer than the score shows, but Sudan's edge in interceptions and recovered fumbles, plus Bellar's magnificent kicking, proved to be a big factor.

Bellar kicked a 40-yard field goal, probably the longest—and perhaps the only—field goal ever scored by a Sudan team. In addition, he raced 26 yards for the first Hornet touchdown, kicked three of four extra point efforts, scored again from the 4, and set up another TD by returning a punt 35 yards to the Roughneck 2.

Despite this, he was second in ground-gaining to teammate Larry Morgan, who scooted 90 yards in nine carries for a nifty 10-yard average. Bellar gained 82 yards in 11 efforts, for 7.5,

Much of the credit for the win must go to the defense, spearheaded by rugged Van Seymore, 205-pound junior, who made numerous tackles alone or assisted, who stopped a Sundown effort to run for two points after the visitors' third-period TD, and who once simply took the ball away from the ballcarrier to stop a Sundown drive.

Bellar's initial score came near the end of the first quarter after Sudan had recovered a fumble on the Sundown 27. With the score then 7-0, Sundown's rugged halfback Jimmy Ray Jackson almost broke free early in the second period, but a saving tackle by HB Jerry Bellar prevented a long run. Bellar, fleet younger brother of Mike Bellar, and only a freshman, also caught passes for 25 and 18 yards from QB Ronnie Hill during the game.

Hill marked up the second touchdown late in the half after Mike Bellar's runback to the 2, scoring from six inches away. Bellar converted again, and a minute later, with one second left on the clock, booted the ball squarely through the uprights from the 30-yard-line for three more points.

Sundown came back on a sustained 62-yard drive, with Jackson and Ronnie Popejoy doing "most the heavy work, to cut the margin to 17-6, in the third. Sudan came back to score again at the end of the period on a 65-yard drive, with Bellar capping it from the 4. His kick this time was wide.

Morgan wound up the scoring in the fourth, taking a quick handoff from Hill and bursting 23 yards across the goal line virtually untouched. Bellar again converted.

In addition to Seymore, Guard Eddy Boyles, Tackle Robn Davis and Jerry Bellar at halfback turned in good defensive work.

Sundown's David Weaver, 185-pound center and defensive tackle, was outstanding, as was Popejoy on defense.

Boosters View Film

The Sudan Booster Club met Monday, Sept. 12 at 8 p. m. in the school cafeteria to view the film of the Sudan-Sundown football game.

Booster club president Waymon Bellar presided at the meeting and Coach Jim Cain narrated the film.

During the business session the Sudan high school cheerleaders were made honorary members of the organization.

The Boosters joined the cheerleaders in asking the public to attend the Pep Rallies. This week's rally will be held in the gymnasium Friday afternoon at 3:30.

The Booster club also stated that they would like for the public, including all members and non-members, to aid in the formation of the victory line in the end-zone before each game.

Also the public is invited to attend the Monday night meet-

METHODIST YOUTH MEET HELD HERE

Some 70 youth, their counselors, and pastors met here at the First Methodist Church Sunday for the MYF Shining Light Sub-district meeting.

A salad luncheon was served by the local MYF members, assisted by the ladies of the church.

The program included showing of color slides of the recent trip to Europe made by area members of the MYF. Among those making this tour was Miss Donna Gaston of Sudan.

Brenda Drake, MYF president; Danny Martin, vice president; and Donna Gaston, led the closing devotions.

These meetings will be held each Monday at 8 p. m. in the school cafeteria.

sin. Truly, He died for all. But don't turn away now. Let's look at this cross where Jesus is dying, nailed to the Cross, his side pierced and the blood flowing down. The record is that He died for me, and for you. So, as Son of God dying, He is One who suffers more keenly than any other man, than any one of us—rejected of men, de— "a man of sorrows and acquainted with grief".

Jesus did not die the death of a martyr; He chose to die that man might be redeemed from sin and death, and eternal life be made available to each person who would believe. Yes, He suffered and died — "He was wounded for our transgressions". The suffering death of Jesus goes down underneath the vilest, ugliest, filthiest sin that human nature ever commits.

Any sinner, any man, through faith in this One, the Christ of the Cross, by God's grace can come and be saved. Christ in the Cross bearing all our sin, offers you new life.

What does the Cross of Christ mean to you? Are you drawn to Him, who loves you enough to willingly die that you might live forever?

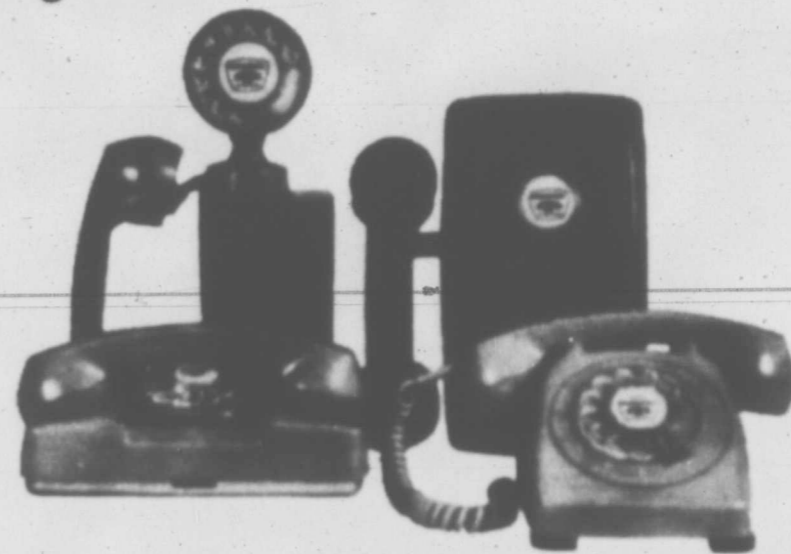

Only Trust Him, and He will save you! Trust Jesus with your temptation to sin, with all that you are, give yourself to Him; He has done the redemptive work in the Cross.

Scripture: St. John 6:44; 12:32; 14: 6, 9.
"And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me."
What does the Cross of Christ mean to you? Does it mean nothing?
To them that perish the preaching of the Cross is foolishness. But unto those which are saved it is the Power of God.

Jesus said if He be lifted up to die on the Cross, that He would draw all men unto Him. So, what is the meaning of the Cross? Today, now Jesus is "lifted up". Hear what He said in the Scripture.
In the Cross, we see Jesus, the man, dying. He died willingly, He chose to die for all the sin of anyone who would believe in Him as being what He claimed: The Son of God, sent by the Father to save us from all Lady, here's your problem.

It's the food you cook, not the fuel you use, that soils your kitchen. But a modern GAS range can keep mess to a minimum. Closed-door broiling eliminates smoke. The "burner-with-a-brain" and 1001 temperature controls guard against cook-top burning and boilovers. So don't take potluck. Go GAS for clean, cool cooking.
