WOODWORK

BY DALTON

A LOT OF FOLKS around here take the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, so many may have read the following in George Dolan's column last week. Nevertheless, this is so good (it's terrible) I feel I should repeat it... even if I don't believe it.

Dolan said a teacher at a Crowsnest elementary school played some records and asked the students to draw their impressions.

The first time had a happy tilt. The kids drew people dancing and throwing confetti.

The second time was sad, so the drawings showed tears and people weeping.

Then she played, "America, the Beautiful".

While it was playing, she wandered around the room looking at the students' work.

One drew an American flag. Another drew the Statue of Liberty. But the work of one boy, age 10, stopped her.

He was drawing an airplane in flight, with bananas, apples, oranges and pineapples hanging from it.

"What is that?" asked the teacher.

"This," explained the boy, "is the fruited plane."

SOME outfits called the Hudson Institute recently reported on a study it made speculating about the life of Americans from the year 1976 to the year 2000.

"People will live in 10-room houses with three cars in the garage and a helicopter on the lawn," said the director. He also predicted there will be three-day weekends, three or four-month vacations, and high incomes.

"Many Americans will be satisfied, but others will find such a life meaningless and purposeless, and will look for something to fulfill," he added.

Somehow the whole prospect doesn't sound as bright as I should.

THEY'RE a long way from being out of the woods yet, and haven't even started conference play, but this year's model of the Sudan Hornets football team definitely is one of the best in years. The offense has come up with the big play when needed, and the defense has played it tough against some good teams.

There are some more rugged teams to face, and a letdown somewhere is almost certain. But we all can hope that the letdown is not serious enough to bring disaster. This team definitely has the potential to reach the playoffs—and it will be the first time in history if it does—providing they don't get overconfident. From now on, so long as the Hornets have the top mark in district, they will be on the spot, with every opponent sure to give an extra effort in trying to knock off the top team.

BOOSTER CLUB SPONSORS BUS TO FOOTBALL GAME

The Booster Club announced that they will sponsor a bus for individuals to ride to the Sudan Bovina football game in Bovina Friday night.

The bus, leased from the school on a mileage basis, is scheduled to leave from the high school gym at 6:30 p. m.

Seating capacity is 32, so anyone wanting to ride the bus is asked to contact Don Wright at Sudan, Texas as soon as possible.

Expenses will be divided among the passengers.

W. T. (TOBE) VEREEN ANNOUNCES CANDIDACY

W. T. (Tobe) Vereen announced this week that he will be a write-in candidate for Justice of the Peace, Precinct 5, in the November election. Vereen, who also announced as a write-in candidate in the May primaries, received the majority to the votes, but due to a legal point, must run in the November election.

He has been a citizen of the Sudan Community for several years. He is presently employed at Baccus Chevrolet.

Gospel Meeting Slated Here

A series of gospel lessons will be presented in a short gospel meeting next week at the local Church of Christ. Willard Cox, local minister, will be the speaker.

Services will begin each evening at 7:30 with the children's Bible drill and singing to be held at 7:10 p. m.

Congregation singing will be led by local church members.

"Everyone is invited to attend," Cox said, "we hope to have good attendance since the event hasn't really gotten underway."

Store Changes Announced

Lester Shanks, owner of Shanks Dept. Store, announced this week that the store will be moving into the building formerly occupied by the Shoe Corral.

He stated that the building is being remodeled and if plans are completed, the stock will be moved by the first of November.

Shanks also announced that the store will be under the management of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Shanks.

The L. E. Shanks have resided in Plainview for the past 25 years where he was employed by Bud Lowe Wholesale. They have moved into the house formerly occupied by the Lester Shanks.

The Lester Shanks have moved to Newton, Kansas, where he is employed by Ely & Walker.

They maintained that they are tough, and he'll be straining to the team the idea of playing them all one at a time, knowing that when you look ahead, you sometimes get behind.

SUDAN WINS NO. 5

HORNETS SWARM COWBOYS, 21-0

LOOK HERE BOYS - Jerry Bellar (21) seems to be showing the Plains Cowboys the ball before he galloped off for 29 yards, setting up the third touchdown for Sudan in their victory over Plains 21-0.

The Sudan Hornets racked up their fifth straight victory of the season Friday by defeating the highly-rated Plains Cowboys 21-0. Again the strong defensive unit did a remarkable job in holding the Cowboys and keeping them scoreless. Ronnie Hill, QB, and the strong running backs did a fine job on offense by stacking up 288 yards rushing.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETING HELD MONDAY NIGHT

The Board of Trustees of the Sudan Independent School District met Monday night in a regular monthly meeting.

Included in the business transacted was the hiring of Mrs. Margie Trammell of Portales, New Mexico, to teach remedial reading under the Title I program.

Progress of the field house was discussed and it is reported that it will be ready for use in approximately two weeks.

Mike Bellar opened the game by kicking off to Plains. Minutes later, Plains fumbled the ball and Sudan recovered on the Cowboys 35 yard line. The Hornets moved the ball down to the 5 yard line where HB Larry Morgan went over for the TD. Bellar kicked the extra point, putting Sudan on the scoreboard, 7-0.

On the kick-off return, the Cowboy was jarred loose from the ball and the alert Hornet squad covered the ball on the Plains 15. Three plays later Morgan carried the ball 6 yards for the touchdown and Bellar added the extra point, making the score Sudan 14, Plains 0, in the first quarter.

Dee Miller Visits Area

Dee Miller, Democratic Congressional candidate, campaigned in this area Saturday afternoon, climaxing the day by being a guest at the Bailey County Farm Bureau annual meeting in Muleshoe.

In response to questions asked him by individuals Miller explained his stand on the water problem by saying, "We cannot afford to overlook a single possibility in our search for water. This means we must put our best scientific and engineering talent on this project immediately."

"We must not put all our eggs in one basket by relying solely on conservation to save us. We must find new sources of water, whether they be underground or out-of-state."

My opponent has stated several times that West Texas is not included in the Colorado River Basin Project Act. I'm telling you that we are included, and that the fight to keep us in that project will be one of the most important issues in the next Congress."

'Love In Action' Organization For Boys And Girls Develops Here

COMMUNITY NEWS
THURSDAY, OCT. 13, 1966

A movement of "Love in Action" is a reality in Sudan. It is called LOTWS (Love Overcometh the World), and has as its officers, Joe T. Salem, president and founder of LOTWS; Kenneth Burgess, vice president; and Mrs. Beth Salem, secretary and treasurer.

LOTWS is a voluntary ministry, Salem said, which was conceived in 1947, and the plan put into action some three years ago. It is now a proven success.

The following is Mr. Salem's report of LOTWS:

"It is a 'help and be helped' program of service and sharing, out of love of God and people. The participants, mostly boys and girls of different races and backgrounds, have improved remarkably in discipline, industry and spirituality during this three year period. They are learning the importance of work and earning the pocket change they receive during our weekly programs. Some have learned to lead in the Lord's prayer. Our policy is to turn no one away — to help people help themselves to a better spiritual and physical life. This has also helped us as leaders and broadened our vision of Christianity.

Since June, 1963, we have had 307 registered participants, 193 boys and 79 girls, ages 2 to 19; 44 adult leaders and co-workers. Attendance has varied from 1 to 44, but usually 30 to 40 are present; they come on their own. To the tune of religious and popular music, they are registered and given service assignments. They enjoy available reading, singing and a spirit of hope and belonging. Then after inquiring into our needs, we are led in prayer and a short devotional. We close with the Lord's prayer in unison before dispersing to go to service assignments in businesses, homes and on farms. We reassemble and they proudly report on their work and training.

During the 1965 Christmas program when three ministers of different denominations gave assistance, 64 were present, and on our Second Annual Round-up Day, we had over 80. Protestants and Catholics participate in our programs. One boy came to us continually for 11 years, since he was 5 years old. The first girl came with her brother in 1964. We outgrew "The Shack", our first meeting place, and moved to larger quarters, now called LOTWS Center.

We are also proud of the garden these youngsters helped raise on the farm, supervised by Kenneth Burgess, and the vegetables taken home, the last being pumpkin. All enjoyed playing games, including baseball and seeing a color movie of themselves and their experiences. This ministry has humbled and uplifted all of us, knowing that human dignity, love and equity reflect the very nature of God, the Creator of us all.

A semblance of this effort has prevailed on an individual basis since 1935. Young and old have come to us with their problems and needs. With sympathy and understanding we have tried to assist, or secure assistance for them. There were times when the road was arduous and our efforts seemingly unpopular and fruitless. However, the Lord has sustained us, and as He has led, we have tried to follow, and as the need has arisen, we have tried to meet it. This is how our movement evolved and the Lord willing, we plan to pursue this same approach in charting our future course.

Assistance is given in gifts, loans, work assignments and moral support—not on worthiness nor merit, but upon need. We give people benefit of the doubt. Some abuse this privilege, but most of them are grateful. They seldom forget the favor and want to try to reciprocate. We are trying to build lives by ministering to all areas of life, especially the spiritual. Such was the mission of Jesus on earth. We hope to lead the unchurched to Christ and the Church of their choice, as some have already been led to make a choice. All this has not come about the easy way, but it is rewarding and probably the greatest work we have ever done.

We thank God and the good people of Sudan and neighboring cities, for their contributions of time, abilities and substance towards this badly needed effort. Most of the gifts supporting our budget have come on volunteer basis. A kind of official of one of the Lubbock stores volunteered and gave 30 upholstered chairs for our center. A hat rack and desk have been donated. Twenty-eight Sudan business men, housewives and farmers have given of their time and skills to help these boys and girls in their service chores. While some, without much of a chance in life, came to play and not work, with such opportunities, they are learning how to work creditably and are becoming responsible American citizens. Some of our officials have told us that delinquency has become almost nil since the ushering of this program.

This is good spiritual therapy and contagious. We can visualize only success ahead because God is in it. We expect this pioneering movement to broaden in our community and filter into other areas. If the God-fearing people of each community will minister to their own in the right spirit and make our preaching and teaching of love come alive, many of our ills will be healed and conflicts resolved. Love, truth, hope and freedom will prevail over hate, falsehood, despair and enslavement. If we would live our faith, we must love God with heart, and mind and strength and neighbor as self. If His kingdom is to come on earth,

We solicit your support and above all your prayers, in order that we might become better servants of the Lord, so that all we say and do will be for His glory.

Twelve (12:00) noon daily is the adopted time when we and our participants are to pray for each other. Will you join us? Loving is Giving and Living."

Thank Heaven for Little Girls!

Maurice Chevalier will long remember his recent journey to Southern California, where he visited his friend and longtime admirer Allen Parkinson, founder-director of MovieLand Wax Museum in Buena Park. Whisked from the airport in MovieLand's gold Rolls Royce, Chevalier toured the world's largest wax museum, where many of his famous co-stars are "brought to life" in scenes from their most memorable movies.

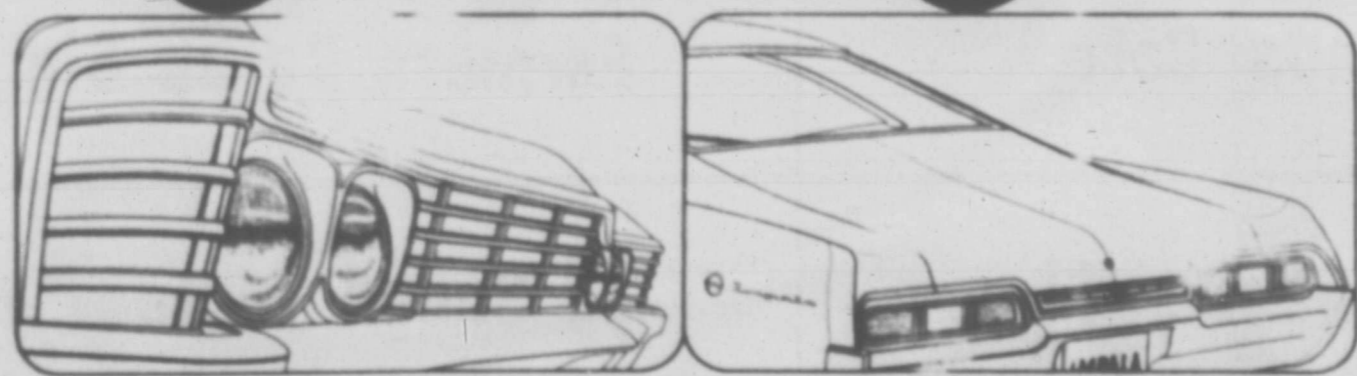

In that giant California tourist attraction, Chevalier visited the sets of Gloria Swanson in a scene from "Sunset Boulevard"; Harold Lloyd; breathtaking Marilyn Monroe; Charlie Chaplin; Gary Cooper and Grace Kelly in "High Noon"; exciting Clark Gable in "Gone with the Wind"; Greta Garbo; and a multitude of great personalities in authentic and colorful sets.

Parkinson, a man who does things with a flair, arranged for Chevalier to meet 40 girls all named "Louise" in honor of his greatest hit. Then, on Chevalier's own set, a scene from the 1934 movie "The Merry Widow" an attendant pushed a button, and the wax figure of Maurice Chevalier began to sing the song "Louise" with which he has been identified for so many years.

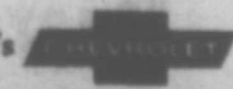

A mostable and tearful Chevalier told Parkinson proudly: "It has been a great life and I shall never retire. When I become too old to perform on stage and in the cinema, I shall have a television show from my home near Paris."

To Allen Parkinson and thousands of admirers that day seems a long way off, for the gallant Frenchman has had none of his charm and personal magnetism.

HAVE FAITH IN GOD

Scripture: Ephesians 2: 8-10

How can I escape from the web, how can I escape from temptation, from the web of sin that holds me so tight?

It is true that sinners, when brought face to face with Jesus, sometimes feel the desire to be redeemed, but because of their escaping from their particular sin, they do not turn away, really.

We are caught, entangled in the temptation to sin as a fly is caught in a spider's web. The more the fly struggles to free himself from the web, the more entangled he gets, until he cannot escape.

The more we try to save ourself, like the fly in the web, the more we are caught, the deeper we get into sin.

So, how can we escape? Sinners almost unconsciously think, "I can't escape," but it works! We can "escape" sin, if the fly could escape if I reached out to him and free it from the tangled web, if that fly knew enough to relax and not hold on to the web, I could grasp it firmly and set it free!

That is what Jesus said when he said "I came to seek and to save that which was lost." And "believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved."

If you will stop struggling to save yourself, to release yourself, and "Only trust Him, He will save you!"

Don't hold on frantically to the sin that has enslaved you, just because it is something you have become "used to," a habit, a thing you do, and call it your name, believing, and He will grasp you and lift you up out of the web that binds you like many chains, and you will be free! Then you hold on to Him — grasp Him!

Once He sets you free, remember to thank Him, praise His name for His mighty power and His love for you. Then, to stay free from sin, keep as busy for and devoted to God as you were to your former way of living. Seek God and His merciful forgiveness and cleansing every day. Call on Him, for He said "and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand." Be very sure you give yourself to God, through acceptance of Christ as His Son sent to save you from your sin. Do this, and you are God's child. Then be very sure you give yourself for His cleansing daily — read His Word that He may guide and empower you daily. And God will then keep you safe in Him, by His power, forevermore.

This is the only way — only trust Jesus, and He will set you free to become God's child!

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

The part to play in life's great game, is not to strive for wealth or fame. It's not to lay upon the shell. Just everything we want for self. It's not for show our gifts are made, Nor should we hope to be repaid; To help another's burden's bear, Is one great reason why we're here.

TEXAS TECH LIBRARY ON THE MOVE

To meet the needs of a steadily growing enrollment and the implementation of new programs, Texas Tech's library is taking a major step forward this fall.

Completion of a $155,206 construction program begun in February paves the way for expansion of the university's library facilities in services as well as space, according to Tech Librarian S. C. Janeway.

Additional square footage, acquired by finishing the third floor and a portion of the basement of the existing building, adds 40 per cent in overall seating and book storage space and 50 per cent in seating capacity alone.

"Every student comes to the library at least three times a week", Janeway said.

The Childrens Corner...

Deck The Door

Nancy is putting the finishing touches on a swag for her front door. She is using Indian corn which has kernels of all different colors and strawflowers in yellow and orange.

Nancy is using Indian corn and strawflowers for a swag to hang on the knocker of her front door. It's easy to make and quickly finished if you have grown the material.

The strawflowers are from Nancy's garden. She picked them when they were fully opened and their color was bright. Then she clipped the leaves from the stems and made bunches of 4 or 5 flowers each.

She tied these with soft string at the lower ends of the stems, leaving extra string at each end. Then she used that extra string to tie the bunches of strawflowers to a wire she stretched across one corner of the garage.

During the 3 weeks she left the strawflowers in the garage corner the blooms dried completely. So did the stems and they became brittle. So Nancy broke them off from the flowers and made substitute stems of florists wire.

She picked a piece of No. 20 wire up through each strawflower bent a tiny hook at the tip and gently pulled the wire down until the hook caught in the upper side of the bloom. Thus the wire became the new stem and she could twist it as she pleased.

The 3 mats of many-colored Indian corn were first tied together by their husks which had been bent back. Nancy left the string long enough to slip lowest end hanging where she wanted the end of the swag to be when the string was tied to the door knocker.

After that Nancy wound the wire stems of the strawflowers around the string and stuck a few of the stems into the corn husks until she got the effect she wanted. Here she's adding the last flower to her pretty swag. Wouldn't you like to deck your front door as prettily?

NEW GLOW FROM OLD-TIME LAMP

The old-fashioned lamp with which this young miss lights her way to bed looks and feels like the kerosene-burner many of us fondly remember. But it is not. She is carrying a modern electronic lamp powered by five rechargeable nickel-cadmium batteries. Called a "Snooze Lamp" and produced by International Electronics Company of Trumbull, Conn., the lamp works on batteries which can be recharged hundreds of times and provide up to 18 hours of light on one charge. The lamp is also equipped with a light-regulating dimmer and a variety of colored bulbs. It is becoming popular for use in such areas as children's rooms, patios, at poolside and on boats.
