THERE'S this announcer on KGNC, Amarillo, who comes up with witticisms between every song. I don't know where he gets them all, but some are pretty good. He noted the other day that a volume of 1,896 pages in the Dag Hammarskjold Library at the United Nations was entitled "India At A Glance." This, of course, is quite a glance.

He also made the comment that he couldn't understand why some people could sit down all day waiting on a fish to bite, but the same people get infuriated at waiting for the light to change, or waiting in line at the teller's window at the bank.

THE HARVARD School of Public Health says it has found that college admissions officers discriminate against applicants who are too fat. This prejudice is shared by high school teachers who recommend students for college, the school said. "It is probable that this prejudice is entirely unconscious," the researchers said.

zens knew that all the time. We're burn, dirininated against, not only in college admissions, but in lots of other ways. The clothing manufactures, for example, refuse to make garments which will help us look like Alan Ladd or Rock Hudson (or Natalie Wood).

There is some hope, though. The larger one grows, the more difficult it is to slide under the wheel of the car. Now the car makers have come up with a steering wheel which is supposed to give way under excessive pressure. The tennis shorts I used to wear in college finally did the same thing last year. If walking weren't so strenuous, we fat people would organize a march.

THE MOVIE, "The Restless Ones, " produced by the Billy Graham team (or at least aided by them), is showing at the Granada Theater in Plainview today through next Tuesday. I haven't seen it yet, but I've heard nothing but praise for the film, especially designed for teenagers. Tickets are $1 each, and I honestly believe the trip over there would be worthwhile for teenagers and parents alike.

Scripture: St. Luke 19:1-10 So many words are said, so many things claim our attention, so many opinions tend to sway us from the way we know; so much noise and pressure from the crowd, that sometimes one far out may not be able to see to the center where the action is going on.

"And he sought to see Jesus who He was, and could not for the press, because he was little of stature."

This man, Zacchaeus, was a rich man, a publican. But when Jesue came to Jericho, evidently Zacchaeus had heard of Him and wanted to see Him as He was passing by.

So, rich and holding a high position as tax collector for the government, yet his desire was so great that he forgot his "dignity" and ran out in front of the crowds and climed up a sycamore tree in order to see Jesus, for he "was to pass that way."

Then Jesus looked up and saw him in the tree, and told him to hurry and come down, for He must abide at his house today. Zacchaeus was hated by most of the Jews, first because he was rich and they were so poor, but most of all because of his job as tax collector. So wher Zacchaeus heard Jesus call to his house, he came down hastily and joyfully. When Zacchaeus knew that Jesus cared about him, he received Him and said, "Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor..." and offered to restore fourfold anything he had taken falsely. and Jesus said, "This day is salvation come to this house."

But the crowd said that Jesus was gone to be guest with a man that is a sinner.

How many times, I wonder has a crowd of Jesus followers "blocked" the view of a young convert, a new-born Christian, or one who wanted to be a Christian, so that they could not see Jesus? Could it be we have failed to notice how the "Little" one could not be tall enough to see? Have we failed to make room for the least one to come to Jesus?

Pleasant words...sweet to the soul.—(Prov. 16:24)

When we awake in the morning, let us turn our thoughts to pleasant things. Let us ask God to cleanse our heart of irritation and quicken within us the desire to be loving toward everyone. When we put forth the effort to be cheerful and pleasant, and develop a pleasant outlook toward life, we can develop a good disposition and help make life worth

WMU OBSERVES WEEK OF PRAYER

The Week of Prayer for Missions and the Lottle Moon Offering is being held this week by the WMU of the First Baptist church when the group will meet each afternoon at the church for programs. Instead oi an afternoon meeting on Wednesday they will appear on the evening prayer service.

"Behold the Lamb of God" is the program theme and Mrs. L. F. Meeks was in charge of the meeting Monday afternoon presenting the topic "Behold Him as a Healer". Those present were Mrs. T. W. Dunaway, Mrs. R. E. Deloach, Mrs. Halbert Harvey, Mrs. J. A. Graves, Mrs. Oscar Vinson, Mrs. Louise Ray, and Mrs. Meeks.

Those in charge of programs during the series of meetings are Mrs. J. P. Arnold, Tuesday; Mrs. T. W. Dunaway, Thursday; Mrs. Bob Nelson, Friday.

The Sunbeams will have part on the Wednesday evening program and a young peoples quartet will sing. Rev. Willie Hazel will bring the Mission message.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Renfro of Borger visited Monday night and Tuesday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Drake.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Sanders

PERSONAL PatBrownd has returned home from a hospital in Amarillo where he had been confined with injuries suffered in a recent automobile accident. Pat is a student at West Texas State University. Mrs. Clovis Bridwell was hostess Thursday afternoon for a Dessert Bridge meeting when those present included club members Mrs. J. B. Harper, Mrs. Wallace Gosdin, Mrs. Cleo Whitmire, Mrs. Ves Patterson, Mrs. Glenn Gatewood, Mrs. R. E. Scott, Mrs. Burnice May and Mrs. Hershell Olds.

By definition, not too many Christmas gifts can be "in"; and old-fashioned at the same time. But to the go-go crowd, the good old-fashioned bicycle will again be on top of the "most-wanted" list. Not since Diamond Jim Brady presented Lillian Russell with a gem-incrusted gold bicycle, have the two-wheelers been more fashionable.

Parents all over the country may feel a renewed sense of hope, too, in the fact that more teenagers and young adults ride bicycles than frug, Watusi or jerk. And their grandmothers and grandfathers, who abandoned bikes to do the Charleston and the Big Apple, are listening to the good news from octogenarian Dr. Paul Dudley White and are getting back on bikes as never before.

Santa will tell you that America will be the Bike Capital of the World this Christmas — more than a million new bike owners will be added to the already 57-million American cyclists between the ages of 5 and 75 who are riding for fun. fitness, economical transportation and the sheer joy of just being out-of-doors.

Some new bikes fold away, too, for convenient storage, making it easy for the city teenager to enjoy that free-wheelin' feelin' anytime. And who knows, Santa himself might be making his 1966 rounds on a bike!

a cotton farmer who operates in different areas will gain by notifying his local Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service office of all his production.

Through a change announced by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, the grower has until tommorrow Dec 9 the final day of the referendum, to establish his interest through the ASCS office.

The program can go into effect if approved by two-thirds of the cotton farmers voting. It can also go into effect if a simple majority vote "yes" providing these farmers account for two-thirds of the volume of those voting.

It is of utmost importance that farmers producing in different counties or states notify the ASCS of the total volume, combining all acreages in the one report.

If approved by the referendum, producers will pay $1 per bale and research-promotion program will be initiated and conducted by a beltwide or ganization of cotton producers. Refunds would be available to those who would not wish to contribute to the program. Sixty-one cotton organizations endorse the program as the best possible solution to the problem of fast-dwindling markets. Action to the state of the stat

WHO WAS THE EMPEROR THAT

TELL ME

How big is a headache? Sometimes it feels bigger than your head.

Probably the biggest in history was experienced by Jupiter when his daughter, Minerva, sprang forth from his head, full grown and fully armed.

Of course, Jupiter and Minerva were mythical figures. But the pain suffered by some 24 million Americans who visit their doctors each year because of headache is quite FM real. In fact, headache is the most universal of all human ailments.

Had the mythical Jupiter lived today, his ailment probably would have been identified as the most severe case of migraine in history. A medical committee on classification of the headache recently established 15 major classifications, with numerous subtypes, ranging from "classic migraine" to cranial neuralgias. "The commonest type of headache," says Dr. George Schumascher, Chairman of the Division of Neurology, University of Vermont College of Medicine," is vascular headache. This constitutes perhaps 90 per cent (of all headaches)."

A vascular headache is brought on when, after some emotional upset or prolonged tension, vessels in the head become distended and press on tiny, sensitive nerves.

And while Jupiter found his relief when Minerva sprang forth from his head, medical researchers say the best way to get fast, long-lasting relief from most headaches is to relieve the pain and the vascular pressure at the same time

One way to do this is with Vanquish, which combines more ingredients than any other remedy - five.
