FORTY-SECOND YEAR

SUDAN, LAMB COUNTY, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 1967

10 CENTS PER COPY

NUMBER 50

W/ODWORK

BY DALTON

AMONG the numerous things about which I know very little is the chain letter, such as I received last week. It wasn't the first I ever received; over a period of several years I have been mailed two or three others, all of which I promptly ignored. The one I got the other day was worded typically, according to some of my friends who have received them more recently. It read thusly:

"The copy of this letter came from the Netherlands. The luck of this has been around the world four times. The one who breaks the chain will have bad luck.

"DON'T BREAK THE CHAIN. Don't keep this letter; don't send money. Please copy this letter and see what happens in four days from now. Send this letter and four others to those you wish good luck. Charlton Heston received $60,000 only to lose it after breaking the chain. You are to receive good luck four days from now. This is no joke, you will receive it in the mail.

"Put name at the bottom of list, leaving the top one off."

This was followed by 12 names, the last of which I recognized as the one who sent it on to me.

So I broke the chain, and I'll have bad luck, which won't be anything particularly new. I should have bad luck like poor Charlton Heston. If someone hands me 60,000 iron men, the Bad Luck Fairy better grab it back in a hurry or I'll have most of it spent.

At first I pondered if these chain letters could be some type of lottery, but I couldn't figure any way the names would get back to any central source, unless it is being operated by the Post Office Dept., which periodically comes up with some kind of scheme.

I also couldn't figure out how anyone would know whether to send me good luck or bad in the mail after four days, since no one else could know whether I sent the letter on or not.

Consequently I had to agree with my friends who said it is just a sort of superstition, like some people believe in the stars and fortune-telling. And lots of folks, the type who won't walk under ladders, copy the letter and mail it on, just so they won't risk having bad luck.

So maybe I should be more like them, and should have sent it on. Certainly I could use all possible good-luck factors on my side.

NOW THAT YOU have read this, please clip and copy it three times and send it to four of your acquaintances, along with a subscription blank to this newspaper, which we will gladly supply. Don't break the chain or you will have bad luck. Billie Sol Estes failed to send this column to anyone, and look what happened to him.

Sudan Basketball Teams Win Fourth District Game

Both the Hornets and Hornettes have a season standing of 4-2 in district play with only two games remaining. They meet Springlake there Friday night and then close out the season here Feb. 10 against Farwell.

Farwell leads the district play for the boys teams and the Springlake girls have a slim margin over the Hornettes. However, if the Hornets defeat them in the game Friday night, they will be tied for district.

The Hornets downed Bovina Friday night.

The Hornettes also won their rematch with the Bovina fens, 36-31, in a thrilling overtime. Sudan had a slim lead 20-15 at the half and the regular time ended with the score 31-31.

Donna Gaston and Joyce Williams both scored 11 points to pace the Hornette scoring.

Tuesday night the squads traveled to Kress and won both games. Mike Bellar hit 18 points to lead the Hornets to a 69-59 victory. Kress remains 0-5 in district play.

Sharon Baker scored 21 points to aid the Hornettes in their 32-18 decision over Kress.

The game got off to a slow start in the scoring department with Kress leading 4-2 at the end of the first quarter. The Sudan girls only hit 2 FT out of 12 tries in the first quarter. However, they found the basket in the last half for the victory.

The B team girls chalked up another victory Tuesday against Kress, 25-20 with Connie Lance and Louise Williamson each scoring 9 points.

The junior high teams are entered in a tournament at Springlake with play beginning Friday.

PIONEERS OF YESTERYEAR

By Evalyn Parrott Scott

(Authors note—The history of Marvin Greathouse and wife, Arlene (Wyatt) Greathouse was written by Mrs. Greathouse who is interested in family genealogy. She has in her possession a family Bible, from her mother's side, the Rutherford family, which has a birth date listed in 1791. Also she has an old Bounty Land Script dated 1854 of Alabama. She was nineteen years of age when she came to Sudan with her parents and was quite unhappy with the move because she had to leave her friends behind. The first sight of Sudan didn't help much but since then this has become "home". Although there were Watts listed in the first tax roll in Washington County, Texas 1837, Arlene does not believe her family was in Texas that early, however, they could have been kinsman.)

Marvin H. Greathouse came to Sudan May, 1929, from Clovis, New Mexico, and put in a tailor shop in the building at the rear of Alderson Dry Goods. He drove back and forth until his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. E.

J. R. BUCE NAMED TELEPHONE SUPERVISOR

General Telephone Company of the Southwest announces that J. R. (George) Buce has been transferred to the position of Plant Supervisor of the Littlefield District. Buce replaces K. R. (Kenny) Bridwell who has been transferred to San Angelo, as Plant Training Instructor.

Buce, a 38 year veteran in telephone work will supervise the installation and maintenance forces in twelve area towns serviced by General Telephone Company and has served in similar positions at Lubbock, Leveland, and Hobbs, N. M.

Greathouse, moved to Sudan. Their first home was at 410 Temple Street. On May 1932 they bought and moved to 409 Commerce. Both parents are now deceased and are buried in the Sudan Cemetery.

P. E. Greathouse was born in Arkansas and Mrs. Greathouse in Louisiana. Marvin was born at Mount Pleasant, Titus County, Texas, on July 3, 1907. Marvin's first school was at Oklaunion, Texas. He moved to New Mexico in 1921 with his parents. They traveled by wagon and Marvin rode horseback all the way. It took them nearly a month to make the trip.

Marvin and Arlene Wyatt were married June 16, 1934 in Muleshoe, Texas. She moved to Sudan in Nov. 1930 from Vernon, Texas, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wyatt and two brothers, Leon (Cotton) and G. W. Both Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt were born in Robertson County, Texas. Arlene was born July 15, 1911 in New Baden, Texas. She started to school in Palestine, Texas, and was graduated from Vernon High School in May, 1929.

Marvin and Arlene have lived in the same neighborhood since their marriage, first at 409 Commerce and now at 411. The Glenn Gatewoods at 411 Commerce and the Greathouses at 409 traded homes in June, 1956. Both families are still residing at those addresses.

Marvin's tailoring career was interrupted in March 1942 when he was inducted into the Army. He first served at Fort Knox, Ky. with the 8th Armored Division, and then at Camp Chaffee, Ark, with the 14th Armored where he was discharged October, 1943. He was 36 years of age at the time of his discharge.

Marvin served as a Volunteer fireman about twelve years when the late Bill McGlamery was Fire Chief. At the present time, Greathouse is owner of Highway Used Car Sales.

Devotional

By HAZEL HOUSE

JESUS IS COMING AGAIN!!

Scripture: St. Matthew 24: 27-44; Revelation 20: 4-6, 11-15.

There are two questions, I think, which you and I must answer. And, in the day of judgement that is surely coming to every man, these are the two important questions which we must answer: "Do you have Jesus Christ as your Savior and Lord?" And "What kind of steward were you over what God gave you?"

You will notice that the first question is "Do you have", not "Will you take" as I ask you today.

Jesus said "not every one that sayeth unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven, but he that doeth the will of my Father, which is in heaven".

In that final day, there can be no quibbling, no ignoring, no excuses, no refusing to answer, for answer each one of us must. Indeed, at that time we will have already answered in how we choose to answer now. "Will you take Jesus Christ as your Savior and Lord?" Even in silence, our record will be already there, for the books shall be opened. There will be no time then to make a choice, for my record and yours will have been made already. And, if Jesus is your Lord, your name will be written in the book of life.

Since Jesus gave up his body that we might have eternal life, and if we love Him, is it not reasonable that we give Him ourselves, our body to dwell within and to use in accomplishing His will and purpose here on earth? And His purpose is to seek and to save all mankind who was lost, is lost, without Him.

So, our record is made, completed when the books are opened. No changing them then. Now is when we make our choice to accept or reject Jesus as our personal Savior and Lord. So, ask yourself this first question, and joyfully, gratefully, accept Jesus.

Once this first question is answered YES, then to be answered is the second question "what kind of steward were you...?" Our record here, is written, also, and so our answer must stand as recorded.

But Christians, there will be no record of your sins; for although your sins may be as scarlet, Jesus' shed blood has covered all your sin, blotted them out - the page is clean and white like snow - and God remembers them against us no more. At the judgment, only sinners, who have not accepted Jesus as Lord, must account for every sin committed, because that record is there, too. Yet, Christian, you may be saved, but "empty-handed", if your stewardship record is not as God judges it should be.

Since this matter is so important to man, even to change him from a sinner to a sinner saved by God's grace; to make him a new creature and to give him eternal life -

Can you tell me why you do not choose Jesus now?

You cannot change yourself from evil to good, any more than you can change black to white, but Jesus can change you if you will let Him into your life, your heart, believing and following Him.

Stop and think! This could well be the last generation of mankind, but it definitely is the only time you have to make your choice of life, through Jesus Christ. Your decision is being made now. I pray that you will hear and take Jesus!

Issued and given under my hand and the Seal of said Court, at office in Littlefield, Texas, this 17th day of January A.D. 1967.

Attest:

Clerk
District Court
Lamb County,
Texas

1964 of 2.49 feet; 1965, 3.99 feet; 1966, 3.51 feet. There are many factors which could have caused the 1966 decline to be less than the average decline in the past few years.

In August of 1966, heavy rains were received generally throughout the Water District. These rains usually cut off all pumping of irrigation wells on grain sorghum, cotton and soybeans. Some wheat and vegetables were watered in the latter part of November and December in the Northern part of the district.

Government acreage programs allowing farmers to cut their cotton acreage 35% and slight reductions in the grain sorghum acreage probably saved pumping a great amount of water.

There is a possibility that some recharge occurred in the sandy land areas of Lamb, Bailey, Cochran, Hockley, Lubbock and Lynn Counties where the water table is less than 150 feet below the land surface.

Lamb County showed one of the lesser declines of only 68 feet while Floyd and Potter Counties showed declines of over four feet. Hockley County was the only county to show a rise in the water level.

WHAT HOME ECONOMICS IS ALL ABOUT

By DEBBIE NIX

Girls starting their freshman year in high school are faced with many subjects offered them. They often ask "Well, what about Home Economics? What would I learn in there?"

Many times the answer is "You'll learn to cook and sew". Many parents and girls feel this way. They think cooking and sewing is all home economics is about. This is undoubtedly a false belief.

All three years of Home Economics covers six main areas. They are clothing, foods, child development, family relations, housing, and management. In the first year Home Economics a girl learns the basic techniques of the five areas. Then in second and third year Home Economics the course becomes more advanced.

There are many different methods of teaching the five areas of Home Economics.

In the clothing area the first year class will learn the basic techniques of sewing. They will learn how to use the equipment and how to take care of it. After learning to choose patterns and the fabric, a simple garment will be made.

In the foods unit they will learn how to use the equipment in the kitchen. The importance of nutrition will be introduced and a basic study of the food groups. Simple meals will be prepared.

In second and third year Home Economics, the clothing unit is more advanced. You learn to make a more difficult garment. The third year girls usually learn how to line a garment. The food unit is covered more thoroughly in the second and third year classes. Food budgets preparing foreign dishes, and food preservation including both freezing and canning, are some of the things covered.

The unit on housing includes such things as a study of the kitchen and laundry room, design, color, furnishings, and homes of different types including mobil homes.

Family relations of course is meant to better a girl's relations with her family and prepare her for added family living.

The study of child development in Home Economics is intended to result in improving practices in one's relationship with children. It is meant to develop a better understanding of children in their different development stages.

Management includes the best way to use one's time, how to put one's energy to the best use, and how to manage money.

From these six areas taught in Home Economics it is easy to see that cooking and sewing are only a small part of the course.

I urge all parents to interest their girls in Home Economics. It is a course all girls will need and appreciate.

"Cross at the Green" in Berlin, Too

Training in traffic safety starts early for the younger set in West Berlin where registered motor vehicles have increased by 123,500 to a record high of 318,239 in five years. Picture shows a typical scene from the periodic lessons conducted in Berlin under the supervision of traffic policemen; the children are taught to wait for the light at intersections, and they learn not only how to ride their bikes in traffic, but also the rules of the road for motor vehicles against the time when they are old enough to drive their own cars.

This practical education of today's youngsters who are tomorrow's drivers cuts down avoidable accidents in West Berlin, that bustling metropolis which has one motor vehicle for every seven of its 2.2 million people. Although passenger cars have nearly doubled in number and taxicabs have tripled between 1960-1965, there's always a silver lining because of the much wider ownership of private cars, motorcycles and motor scooters on Berlin's streets have dropped sharply from 14,675 to 3,331 in the same five years. This, and the modern multi-lane cross-town expressway that has been built to speed up traffic, are two of the reasons why rush-hour inconvenience can be kept at a minimum.

Don't you know we're only brothers,
When we're really one at heart,
How we differ from all others
Is the way we play our part,
Love we have for one another,
That's the way we really know
That we're one another's brother,
And how far we go.
