WOODWORK BY DALTON

IN THE COURSE of what was obviously an idle conversation the other night, some of us got to wondering about why stars are represented as having five points.

Of course, there probably is some literature or information on this some place, but looking it up would be too easy, and besides, we wouldn't have had the pleasure of speculating.

It came about when a fellow said he used to enjoy making moon-and star whatnots. He explained you make a crescent with a few shelves on it, then put a five-pointed star out at the end somewhere, with another shelf on it.

"Why five-pointed?" I asked. "Why not just a lump?" A female present came up with the sensible answer: "Because nobody would know what it was." Then she added that stars did look like they had points on them, as any light appears that way to the eye when the light's against a dark background. In an argumentative frame of mind, we all stepped outside and looked up.

"See?" she said. Even the street light looks like it has points. "At this point, I spied the moon, although looking for stars. "See any Russians chasing each other around the moon?" someone asked.

I didn't, but I was about to get excited. I was almost certain I could see something barely moving on the surface of the moon, something which looked for all the world like a gigantic winged creature, which would necessarily have been larger than one can imagine to be seen with the naked eye. However, it was just a mosquito on my glasses.

The mosquitoes soon drove us back inside, and we never did come to any conclusions about the stars having five points.

Bobby Brown, son of Rev. and Mrs. Robert Brown, is attending the McMurry College Summer Band School. The school will continue until July 21.

A. W. Ormand returned home after several days confinement in Methodist Hospital at Lubbock.

Methodists Set Bible School

"Portraits of Fashion" is the theme for the annual 4-H Dress Revue, to be held in Littlefield Community Center Friday, July 14 at 2 p. m.

Girls will have an opportunity to show their accomplishments in the Clothing Project and receive ribbons for their efforts.

The highest scoring senior and junior girls will represent Lamb County at the district revue on August 1 at the Student Union Building on the Tech Campus, according to Lady Clare Phillips, Co. Home Demonstration Agent.

Connie Ham and Jamie Horn are completing their dresses for the 4-H Dress Revue, Friday. Their leader is Mrs. Don Ham.

WCSO MEETING HELD MONDAY

The WCSO of the First Methodist Church met Monday, July 10 in the church parlor for their regular meeting.

Mrs. Matt Nix Jr. led the opening prayer, followed by Capt. Nancy Christ (L) and her twin sister Capt. Linda Christ at the state capitol in Trenton, N.J. The twins—recently returned from Viet Nam—were welcomed to their home state by Gov. Richard J. Hughes (D-N.J.). The twin Army Nurse Corps captains told the governor the American soldier in Viet Nam today is receiving the finest medical care of any fighting man in history.

School Board Meeting Held

The Board of Trustees of Sudan Schools met Monday evening for a regular session. The group voted to approve the new State Legislative Minimum salary set for teachers, and also the paying of the teachers bonus will be continued. The board approved the purchase of some needed equipment in the Vocational departments.

Supt. W. E. Hancock recently returned from a business trip to several colleges where he interviewed applicants to fill the vacancies on the teaching faculty.

Applicants were interviewed at Abilene, Brownwood, Nacogdoches, Huntville, and Denton.

Other activities around the school recently have been the re-roofing of the high school building and Home Economics Cottage because of damage by hail.

Scriptures: I John 5.
"And this is the record, that God hath given to us Eternal Life, and this life is in His Son."
Let's look at the record—God's Holy Word—kept through almost 2000 years for us since Jesus birth, which in itself is worth thinking about. Recorded in God's Word is God's work and word from the Beginning; the prophecy of Jesus coming and the recording of the fulfillment of that prophecy.

In the New Testament we have recorded the birth and earthly life of Jesus, and the recording of His statement that He came to save the lost; His threefold Ministry—Prophet (His earthly life and teachings), Priest (His Holy priesthood that now is as He sits at the right hand of God, the Father, to make intercession for us), and King! (when He returns again for His Bride, the Church that is founded on Faith in Jesus Christ as the only begotten Son of God). Also, we have instructions on how to live now and how to live eternally. The "coming again" of Jesus is a promise Jesus made us when He was here (and through the Holy Spirit had recorded for us). Unless we believe that promise of Jesus, we make God's record a lie, and we have not the faith in Jesus that is necessary in order for one to have eternal life. "By grace are ye saved, through Faith".

When we believe Jesus' promises (remember He is God and we do not have to understand and know every detail of the working of His mind; we cannot!), and accept these promises as truth, then we know that He hears ALL our prayers, and will supply our every need. He listens in loving patience to even our most foolish little requests, like as a father to his child, and answers with what is best for us all. Although His ways are not always our ways, and, we do not always understand at once, neither does a child understand when a parent refuses to let him eat too many pieces of pie, not at the time of refusal. But, if God does love us as much as His record says that he does, enough to give His only Begotten Son to die in our place so that we, also, could live forever—do you know anyone you would give your son's life for? Then surely we can trust Him with our present life and needs, and our future, and, thereby have that peace that passeth all understanding.

God's word is a record, it is true, but it is also much more than a record. It is more than just printed words on a page. In Matthew 24:35 Jesus said, "Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away."

Because God lives, His word is alive. Through the direction and guidance of the Holy Spirit, His word is made plain to us who "seek" Him, and He speaks to His own children, giving us guidance, assurance, comfort, hope, joy, peace, and life Eternal through Jesus, our Savior and Lord.
