MUSICAL NOTE: We understand that amateur musicians outnumber professionals 170 to 1 and account for 99 per cent of all sales of musical instruments. Of the 43, 900, 000 amateur musicians in the United States, 17.1 million, says 'Teen Magazine editor Robert MacLeod, "are between the ages of 4 and 21. "

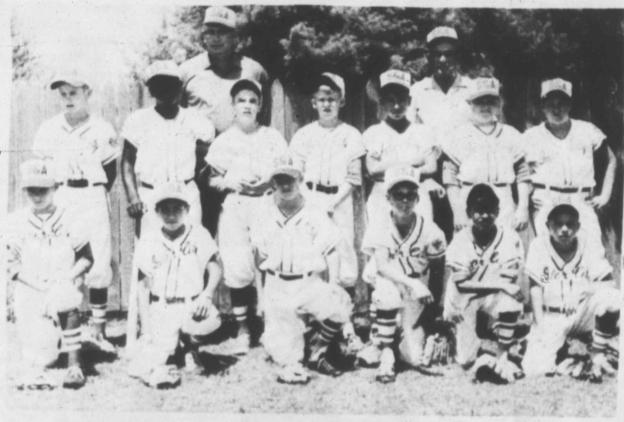

How many of these are 4-yearolds, I wondered, but MacLeod didn't say. Of course, I guess: you could give a 4-year-old a $500 guitar and $1000 amplifier, turned up to a deafening peak, and he could make as much music as even some of those goofy ginks who claim to be profes-

DOUBLE-DRAG practice is reported popular with teenagers in Canada. They get a two-stem corncob pipe, originally a promotion gimmick, and one teenagergets on each end of the pipe. We understand a Quebec factory is working around the clock to fill the orders for "togetherness pipes. "

Maybe they can make a game out of it. Fill the pipe with strong tobacco and both start puffing. First one to fall over in a faint

IF YOU happen to see a funnylooking little guy with thinning hair on his head and a saxophone stuck in his mouth standing behind California Gov. Ronald Reagan, it could be me. The combo of musicians called the "Old Masters of Swing" has been asked to play for the Amarillo reception for Gov. Reagan tomorrow evening (Friday, July 19). Naturally, we're pleased by the prospect, and are to be on hand unless some last-minute hitch in plans develops.

The OMOS (Old Masters, etc.) are mostly professional men in Plainview, including three doctors who play instruments. There are six musicians in the group, and there's yours truly, the only sax player they could get. Oh well, no group is perfect.

Devotional

By HAZEL HOUSE

SCRIPTURE:

ST. LUKE 4

THE LORD IS COME!

Jesus the Lord is come to save Man from sin, from death and the grave. Sent by the Father from heaven above To show man He cares; His nature is love.

Tempted and suffering, yet without sin, Jesus of Nazareth went out among men; In the power of God's Spirit He read from "the Book" And all eyes of the synagogue on Him did look.

They wondered about this man's gracious words, For reading like this had they never heard; The truth of Elijah and Naaman He stated, And they would have killed Him if He had but waited.

He preached, He prayed, He came to seek And save the lost, the least, the weak; He healed all sickness and pain, to begin To show us His power on earth to forgive sin.

He called His disciples; He calls us today, And sends us out, also, to follow His way; We take up our cross, and our "self" deny, Or we'er none of His; so on Him rely,

For Jesus has died to redeem us from sin; He gave Himself that others might win Eternal life, to man freely given, Made pure and holy for God's own kingdom.
