WOODWORK 1969 Cars To Be Shown

BY DALTON
DID YOU HEAR about the cross-eyed schoolteacher who couldn't control her pupils? That's a cornea joke.

GOD is 'color-blind,' according to most ministers, who have said this in regard to the racial problems of the United States. We can't argue this, but wonder if maybe Billy Graham, who is certainly one of God's most able field generals, isn't color-blind in the original sense of the word. An AP story the other day noted that the evangelist went to play a round of golf wearing orange slacks, a green shirt and yellow shoes.

More likely, though, he was just wearing them because it was one of the rare occasions when he didn't have to dress in standard old grey or brown suits.

QUOTE from Robert MacLeod, editor of 'Teen Magazine': "Mini-bike manufacturers are bringing out superhot models small enough to fit in a car trunk, but speedy enough to substantially add to the accident rate."

MORE PEOPLE are getting cancer than ever, not only on a total basis, but on a percentage basis, reports the Public Health Service.

In a way, it seems strange that all the money spent on research, and with all the brilliant minds working to find out cancer's secrets, they still haven't found out what causes it or how to cure or prevent it. Hopefully, they will hit on the answers some day.

I AM NOT, I repeat, am not, anti-dog. Although I wrote a column recently which caused some dog lovers to foam at the mouth, I just wanted to point out that too many are too nutty about their dogs. As a matter of fact, I like dogs, and we own a couple of them (It's cats that I can't stand).

I didn't mean to bring this up, but an advertisement in the Plainview Daily Herald is a good example of doggone foolishness. A furniture store offers a matching four-poster miniature pet bed for dogs and cats. Just $26 with pad included. Good grief.

SUDAN DOWNS AMHERST, 26-6

HOLD 'EM BOYS! - The Sudan Hornet Defense is shown as they stopped another Amherst play before it could gain yardage. The defense played an outstanding game in holding Amherst to only six points during the game last Friday night.

GAME AT A GLANCE

Sudan	Amherst
14 first downs	8
180 yards rushing	81
122 yards passing	51
4 completed pass	5
3 intercepted pass	0
2 fumbles lost	0
7-85 penalties	6-80
4-35 punts, avg.	6-30.3

The strong Hornet defense did an outstanding job in holding the Amherst Bulldogs to only six points and a total of 132 yards in Amherst Friday night.

Sudan defeated Amherst 26-6. Quarterback Steve Martin had a great night in the air, as he completed 4 out of 6 pass attempts, including one for a touchdown, for a total of 122 yards.

Fullback Larry Hanna led in rushing with 86 yards.

Action in the first quarter, included Rex Boyles intercepting a Bulldog pass on the 45 yard line. Later the Hornets moved the ball to the 10, where they fumbled and Amherst recovered.

Starting the second quarter, the Hornets had the ball on the Bulldog 42, and moments later HB Jerry Bellar ran 13 yards for the first Hornet TD. Bellar missed the extra point, but the Hornets led 6-0. The Bulldogs had trouble with the Hornet defense and was forced to kick on 4th down. The Hornets took over on their own 48 yard line. Two plays later QB Martin passed to End Joe Hines for a fine 32 yard gain, and the ball was on the 10 yard line. FB Hanna made three tries, and went over for another Hornet TD. Try for point was no good, and when the half ended, the Hornets were leading 12-0.

The fighting Hornets came back ready for action in the second half, and on the second play, QB Martin tossed a pass to End Bobby Brown who sprinted for the goal line, completing a 64-yard run-pass play for a touchdown. It was a beautifully executed play. Martin put the ball when he wanted it, and Brown, after taking the pass, refused to be caught until he crossed the goal line. Bellar kicked the extra point, and the score was Sudan over Amherst, 19-0.

Late in the second quarter, HB Billy Gore made a sharp interception and carried the ball for 15 yards before the Bulldogs could stop him. The Hornets could not move, and were forced to kick on 4th down, lacking only one yard for first down. The Bulldogs took over on their own 30 yard line. Before the quarter ended the Bulldogs capitalized on another Hornet fumble and had the ball at the Hornet 45.

Changing ends of the field, the 4th quarter got underway with the Bulldogs having the ball on the Hornet 19 yard line. Amherst QB Royce McAdams had a rough time all night finding a receiver open to catch a pass, but he made a fine pass to End Mickey Johnson in the end zone for the first Bulldog score of the night. McAdams attempted pass for two points was knocked down.

With a little more than 3 minutes to play, the Hornets got on the scoreboard again as HB Bellar raced 21 yards for another TD, and kicked the extra point. Steve Martin came right back against the Bulldogs and intercepted one of McAdams' passes on the 30 yard line. When the gun sounded, the score was the Hornets over the Bulldogs 26-6.

This gives the Hornets a 1-1 record. They will be hosts to the Morton Indians, who also have a 1-1 season record, in the Sudan Hornet Stadium Friday, 8 p. m.

PANCAKE SUPPER SET FRIDAY

During this month of travel, they will visit Japan, Formosa, Hong Kong, the Philippines and Hawaii. The evangelistic effort for Salem and his team-mate will be mostly in West Mindanao, Philippines, but also in the other countries. The teams will be preaching in churches, speaking in schools and to service groups, holding training sessions among the Natives and holding services in their homes, living with the people in their homes and according to Native customs. There is to be much visiting in the homes.

The principal aim of this group is to win souls to Christ, Mr. Salem said, and to train others to do the same. Native church leaders will accompany the "two and two" mission teams. Although English is spoken, interpreters will be provided to translate into one of the two leading Philippine languages spoken in that area.

The Philippines is 80% Roman Catholic, 10% Moslem, and about 5% independent Catholics and Protestants. Among 35 million people, there are some 150,000 Methodists.

ANTIQUÉ DRESS--Mrs. Jerusha Smith and Mrs. Laura Hay are shown as they were dressed for the recent Antique Exhibit sponsored by the Sudan Senior Citizens.

Devotional

By HAZEL HOUSE

Scripture: St. John 12:26, 42-48; Galatians 6:9.

Jesus Christ, the Babe of Bethlehem; Jesus Christ, of Nazareth; Jesus Christ, the Lamb of God that taketh away the sins of the world. Jesus Christ, the teacher, the prophet; Jesus Christ, the suffering, crucified Savior; Jesus Christ, the Risen Lord. Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of God; King of Kings and Lord of Lords.

Jesus, the Way: It is the way that He walked; the giving of oneself in service for others, the teaching, preaching, suffering, sacrificial, loving, and joyful Way of the Cross that will lead us Home. Following Jesus, our Risen Lord, who is coming back to earth again some day to take all who believe in Him all the way Home.

Jesus, the Truth: The sins of all mankind who will believe in Jesus, take His Word that He does have power to save man and that He died for our sins - the sins of believers, have been judged in the person of Jesus Christ "lifted up" on the Cross. The result was death for Christ, and justification for the believer (Redeemed from sin and its result). The Truth is the Word of God - Jesus was the Word made flesh.

Jesus Christ, the Way, the Truth, and the Life: How did Jesus walk, and which way did He go? We can only follow Him if we use the Record, and Word of God, interpreted to us by His own Spirit. But, as we seek to follow Jesus, we read that "as His custom was" (St. Luke 4:16) He went into the synagogue on the sabbath day. We read of how he was tempted by Satan and how He resisted temptation (No one of us can be tempted beyond what we can bear for Christ has promised to make for us a way of escape from any temptation).

Then we find Jesus teaching, healing, preaching, calling His disciples, calling men to be saved. We read of Jesus in prayer, that He came to save the world, not to condemn it, not to judge. We read that Christ came to do His Father's will; the Father, whose love and desire to have us back with Him was so great that He sent Jesus, for it is not the Father's will that any one of us be lost.

And Jesus served others, even to washing the disciples' feet! Jesus went out among the sick, the downtrodden, wherever the people were, not seeking riches or high position for Himself (Why should He? For He knew Who He Was - the King of Kings!) And Why should we? For we are truly Children of God, joint-heirs with Christ in His inheritance of the eternal Kingdom.

Then Jesus suffered, was crucified, arose from the dead, and ascended into heaven. And Jesus Loved! If we are to follow Jesus, if we are to have eternal life by Him, we, too, will love Him and love others. For Jesus said in leaving us a new commandment:

"By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another."

Look at Jesus! Follow Him!

Commit your way to the Lord.—(Psalm 37:5).

We know the many things that require our time and attention. We know what we would like to see adjusted and harmonized. We know what seems to be out of order. With His Spirit working in and through us to bless all that concerns us, we will bring forth the right answers in order to establish a good and orderly life for all those whose lives touch our own.

Chevrolet introduces 1969.

Caprice. Match this, you other 69's!

There is no joy in the land of our competitors today. But let us ask you this.

Should we have made Caprice shorter instead of the longest Chevrolet ever built? Or adorned it with flashy nicknacks to make it look less expensive?

Just because competition doesn't, should we not have offered you washers to clean your headlights, new variable-ratio power steering, liquid tire chain you can apply to your rear wheels at the touch of a button?

Should we have given you less power, instead of the largest standard V8 in its field?

Some people think so.

Our competitors.

'69 Caprice Coupe

'69 Camaro SS Sport Coupe, plus RS equipment

Standard V8 is 210 hp. SS engines available up to 325 hp. For added SS appeal: sport striping; power disc brakes; wide oval, road-hugging tires.

Your Chevrolet dealer offers this advice: Go on, you other sportsters. Gnash your gears and look tough.

Maybe it will help. Putting you first, keeps us first.

Camaro. Who needs to say "announcing" or "new". The Huger.

And just look how it all hangs together. No gingerbread anywhere.

We've improved the interior, too. Quieted the ride. Made the Astro Ventilation ventilate better.

The power range is very impressive.

TELL ME

WHERE DID OUR WILD HORSES OF THE FAR WEST...THE MUSTANGS... COME FROM?

THE SPANIARDS BROUGHT THE HORSE, THE SPIRITED ANDALUSIAN VARIETY, TO THE AMERICAS IN THE 16th CENTURY!

HOW LONG DID THE FIRST QUEEN ELIZABETH OF ENGLAND RULE?

HER REIGN LASTED 45 YEARS, UNTIL 1603... WHEN THE OLD QUEEN PASSED AWAY AT THE AGE OF 70!

WHAT ARE THE ORIGINS OF THE WORDS "TYCOON" AND "NABOB"?

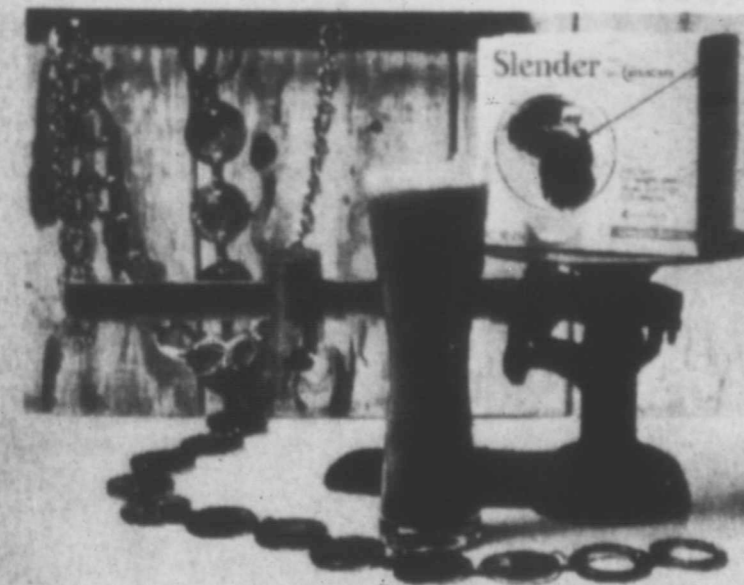

"TYCOON" IS FROM CHINESE... MEANING "GREAT RULER". "NABOB" STEMS FROM HINDU AND ARABIC, DENOTING A RICH, POWERFUL PERSON!

WHAT IS THE WORLD'S GREATEST EXAMPLE OF RIVER EROSION?

THE GRAND CANYON OF THE COLORADO... 217 MILES LONG... 12 MILES WIDE FROM RIM TO RIM IN SOME AREAS AND OVER 1 MILE DEEP!

Fashion Accent on the Waist

Full fashions decree that the shape of things to come is sleek, slender and wee-waisted. Long slim tunics, the slinky fit of the thirties era, coats so close to the body they look like dresses, skinny pants and belts, belts, belts all add up to one thing. If the "Now" look is to be "Your" look, you'll want a slim, trim figure.

With the accent on the waist, many a would-be femme fatale finds herself in need of a bit of waist whittling before swathing her midsection in miles of glittering chains or plushy suede cinchers. Now Carnation has made it easier to shape-up with Slender, their new diet food that has a delicious fresh milk flavor. It's so rich, creamy and satisfying that it's hard to believe there are only 225 calories in a glassful. Just empty a packet of Slender into a glass, add 8 ounces of fresh cold milk and stir briskly. There are 8 tantalizing flavors to choose from with the recent addition of Chocolate Malt, so you're certain to find several of your favorite flavors. And whether you're a coed, a career girl or a busy homemaker, it's easy to keep a supply of Slender in briefcase, desk drawer or cupboard for quick, convenient meals that will help speed you toward an hour glass figure for those smashing new body-conscious clothes.

ATTEND CHURCH SUNDAY

There's ever walking side by side. To be accepted or denied, A right or wrong that fills each day. That never fails to come our way. A task that we're to live, to do. Is making choice between the two We find it's one continuous fight, To always stand for what is right.

COTTON MEETING HELD

Members of Lamb and Bailey County Women's Cotton Association met Monday night, Sept. 16, in Bula School cafeteria, to conduct business and choose a name for the organization.

President of the organization read "possible names" which had been submitted by members. In a final vote, the group chose "Denim Dolls for Cotton".

Each member present was given a copy of the by-laws, which were read and explained by Betty Harlan, then approved by unanimous vote.

Other business for the evening included a discussion of possibilities for a cotton style show sometime next spring, and Jo Ann Gaston was appointed chairman of a committee to plan the event.

Members present agreed that they would like for the organization to expand to Littlefield and Muleshoe, to become bi-county wide.

Present were Dolores Drake, Dena Claunch, Betty Tiller, Madge Cannon, Sib Hubbard, Nell Lane, Jo Ann Gaston, Anna Black, Betty Harlan, Faye Rowland, Veda Bryan and Imogene Claunch.

canopole will suffice. Tie about a No. 1 thin-shanked hook on the end of your line, add a clinch-on sinker about eight inches up and you're in business.

Crappie prefer some kind of cover. Almost always you'll find them around submerged brush. Some people even "bait" crappie holes by tying together large clumps of green brush and anchoring the brush underwater in a likely spot.

One of the best times to catch crappies is in the spring, when they migrate into the shallows to feed. This is one time of year when they readily hit artificial baits. Bass fishermen often take several while plugging along the shorelines of lakes.

Probably the best lure is the tiny white Maribou-hair jig. All you must do is cast the jig, allow it to sink deep and bring it back slowly, simply reeling in at the same speed all the time. Some people put a cork bobber about two feet above the jig and cast this around brush in the shallows, popping the cork lightly to make the jig jump up and down.

Favorite natural food of the crappie is the minnow. Ninety-nine of every 100 crappie caught are taken on this popular bait. A small minnow about two inches long is best. Hook it through the lips or just behind the dorsal fin to make it stay alive and wiggling, to entice a wily old crappie into biting.

Sometimes a crappie will carve a minnow off the hook without the fisherman ever knowing it. Large crappie seem to have this knack. What they do is approach from below and sort of lift up on the minnow. This way there is no tell-tale tug to betray the bite.

One of the best crappie fishermen I've ever known uses a porcupine-quill bobber. His rig is set so the minnow is near the bottom, where crappie generally hang out. The slender bobber rides upright on the water. When an up-lifting crappie tries to steal the minnow, the bobber tilts slightly and the fisherman drives the hook home.

As the old axiom goes, there is more than one way to skin a cat.

OUTDOORS IN TEXAS

BY VERN SANFORD

Shortly after nightfall Lake O' the Pines comes to life. You can see evidence of it everywhere. First, the flickering flame of a lighted gasoline lantern, then the brilliant and steady glow. White lights seem to pop up like fireflies, everywhere.

Alongside these lanterns are crappie fishermen, or in Northeast Texas lingo, the "white perch" anglers. They get out in the cool of night to drop their live minnows down alongside a tree or next to a submerged clump of brush. Each of those tight-line holders hopes that one of those broad, "white fish" . . . attracted by the lantern light . . . soon will give that tell-tale yank on the line.

This isn't a scene familiar only to Northeast Texas. It is repeated almost every night—spring, summer and fall—on lakes throughout the Lone Star State. It happens everywhere you find those ubiquitous crappie. And that's almost everywhere!

Crappies are basically lake fish. You'll find a few in the deep, placid pools of rivers, but mostly they favor the man-made reservoirs. Soon after a new lake fills up, crappie start showing up on anglers' stringers. This is true more and more as time goes by.

Why? Because the crappie is a master at multiplication. In fact, if it has one fault it is that it is too prolific.

"The unfortunate thing about crappies is they have the ability to over-populate the waters in which they live by their sheer productive potential," says Marion Toole, director of Inland Fisheries for the State Parks and Wildlife Commission. "The first crappies that are planted in a pond or lake are capable of rapid growth, but as subsequent spawns occur the growth rate of the young of the year becomes slower and finally a stunted crappie population is the end result."

This means, then that crappies have to be fished—hard. Which is all right with the fishermen. If there is one fish that fishermen like to catch, it is the crappie.

There's some magic about this fish that's difficult to describe. It isn't a very sporting fish, not really. It bites in a series of light tap-taps, and when hooked it battles deep in tight figure eights, surrendering after only a brief fling of energy. Perhaps the basic motivation behind its inherent popularity is that it is an epicure's delight on the dinner platter. Many fishermen claim the crappie has the best flavor of any fish, bar none. It is a kind of sweet, succulent meat. Best way to cook one, they say, is to lop off the head, gut it and fry whole, a rich golden brown.

Two species of crappie are found in Texas—the white and black crappie. Offhand, it is almost impossible to tell them apart. A large male of the white species might be almost entirely black. Only sure-fire identification is to count the spines in the dorsal fin. If it has five or six spines, you've got yourself a white crappie; seven or eight and it belongs to the black family.

Actually, most fishermen could care less whether it is white or black. All they like to do is catch them . . . and the more the merrier. Fortunately for anglers, crappie have a way of cooperating quite nicely. Another good thing about the crappie is that they are school fish and where you catch one you'll likely take several.

Any kind of rod and reel can be used for crappie fishing, and if the water is shallow enough, an ordinary

FORD STRESSES WATER EFFORT

Campaigning in the Rhea Community this week, Frank Ford proposed an "Action plan for total development of water resources in this area".

"Beginning with each of us at the local level," said Ford, "Continuing efforts must be made to capture and utilize every drop from the rainfall that we receive. This means maximum use of lake pumps to use the water in plays lakes when available to conserve underground water, and more conservation dams to prevent runoff from this area in our creeks."

"Additional research is needed to determine ways of getting this maximum use from rainfall water, which is the cheapest water we have. Irrigation from plays lakes and the percolation value of conservation lakes on our streams will greatly extend the economic life of our irrigated land while importation efforts are pushed forward."

Ford pointed out that the funding for feasibility studies on various importation plans must come from congress, and the necessity for maximum cooperation and coordination between the state and federal levels of government. He also warned of the danger of injecting partisan politics into water importation efforts.

"Whether our grandchildren can raise their families in this area depends to a large degree upon all of us working together in the field of water resources", Ford concluded, "And I pledge my total efforts in this direction".

Ford is the Republican candidate for State Representative in Cochran, Lamb, Bailey, Castro, Farmer, and Deaf Smith Counties.

WORLD'S ONLY STONE ORGAN

Luray Caverns of northern Virginia, the largest and most popular cave in the East, has the world's only stone playing organ—The Great Stalactite Organ—which fills the "Cathedral" room with music by tapping natural stone formations with tiny electric hammers. The "fried egg" formations in the cave are actually the beginnings of stalagmites.
