WOODWORK

BY DALTON

SOMETIME ago, I read a book called "Impossible, Yet It Happened," which, as the title implies, related a group of stories about incidents which apparently couldn't happen, but according to reliable reports, did.

A couple of people who saw me reading it commented about my reading a "bunch of trash." I was free to admit that it might be just that, but true or not, it was interesting reading. There were examples of ghost stories, unusual experiments, telepathy, clairvoyants, well-substantiated stories about "sea monsters," etc. Some came from the testimony of such responsible persons as Thomas Edison, Sir Arthur Conan Doyle and others of that caliber.

Once there was an Associated Press story in the Lubbock paper which would go well with that collection. In part, it related: "BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP) — Thirty believers in the cult of St. John the Baptist walked barefoot over a 1,472-degree hotbed of coals in a soccer stadium Saturday night—and came away unharmed.

"Doctors said scientists were amazed; 15,000 spectators gasped."

Doctors on the scene testified none of the believers was burned. One thing you may be sure of: the Associated Press would not report as news such a seemingly preposterous story without checking closely to see if the facts were straight.

It could be they just grow tougher people in the Argentinians. Certainly this was no group of tenderfeet.

October 6-12 will be designated as National 4-H Week in Lamb County. Every year 4-H club members across the nation celebrate the anniversary of 4-H by telling of their work and accomplishments in 4-H during this week.

This group of boys and girls plan out the major county-wide 4-H events. They decided to put news articles in their local newspapers telling about 4-H Club work in their community. The council asked County Judge, Trigg Sides to officially declare National 4-H Week in Lamb County which he agreed to do.

Officers of the County 4-H Council include Vickie Ray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Ray of Sudan.

The Sudan Hornets scalped the Morton Indians Friday night in Hornet stadium, 23-0. Both the Sudan offensive and defensive units turned in a fine performance. Downfield blocking was excellent throughout the game, and the Hornet backs took advantage of every hole opened for them.

Getting off to a bad start in the game, the Hornets fumbled on their 17 yard line on the first play. J. D. Wiseley was there to cover the ball for the Indians. After failing to move the ball for a first down, the Indians attempted an 18-yard field goal, which was no good. The Hornets moved the ball to the Indians 21, where they fumbled the ball again and the Indians recovered, and the first quarter ended, 0-0.

Early in the second quarter, the Hornets stopped the Indians short of a first down on the Hornet 30 yard line. Again they fumbled, but guard Billy Ford was there to cover the ball for the Hornets. Then the Hornets warmed up, and HB Jerry Bellar ran 39 yards for the first Hornet touchdown. Bellar kicked the extra point and the Hornets led 7-0. Sudan kicked off, and the Indians started play on their 28, but were forced to punt on 4th down. Bellar took the Indian punt and ran 65 yards for a TD. He kicked the point, and Sudan was leading at the half, 14-0. Just before the hornsounded for the half, Bellar attempted a field goal, which was blocked by the Indians.

distribution of the tickets in the six counties.

About a thousand persons are expected to attend, according to Dr. Bill Armistead, general chairman of the appreciation dinner.

Downfield blocks that helped clear the way for Bellar's long run in the first half were made by guards Mickey Gilbert and Monte Roberts, and tackle Dexter Baker.

In the third quarter, the Hornets started again by losing the ball on the 40 yardline where the Indians recovered a Hornet fumble. But Sudan's stubborn defense held the Indians, and the ball changed hands several times with neither team making a first down. The Hornets had the ball on their own 40 yard line, when HB Billy Gore broke through the grasp of numerous Indians for a 60-yard touchdown run. Bellar kicked the extra point and the Hornets were leading the Indians, 21-0. Following a good kick by Bellar, the Morton halfback took the ball on the one foot line, where his feet slipped out from under him and the Indians put the ball in play more than 99 yards from their goal line. After gaining only one yard in two plays, the Hornets downed the Indian ball carrier behind the goal line for a Hornet safety, and the Hornets had two more points.

No score was made by either team in the fourth quarter, but many Sudan players had a chance to play in the game during this period. Quarterback Steve Martin started the quarter by passing from the Indian 28 to End Bobby Brown, who ran the pass-play up to 31 yards. Billy Gore intercepted two Indian passes in this quarter. When time ran out on the clock, the Hornets had a 23-0 victory over the Morton Indians.

The Hornet defense, led by Roberts, Ford and Hanna held the Indians to 62 yards rushing in the first half, and only 25 yards rushing in the second.

Halfbacks Bellar and Gore fell just short of the 100 yard mark rushing, as Gore had 99 yards, and Bellar had 94.

The Hornets, with a 2-1 record for the season, will play Seagraves there Friday night. Game time is 8 p. m. in Eagle Stadium. Seagraves has a 1-2 season record.

Dinner Honors Mrs. Fulcher

Mrs. Lillian Fulcher celebrated her 95th (not the 90th as quoted last week) birthday Sunday at the Sudan Community Center. "Ma" Fulcher, as she is affectionately called by her many friends as well as family, provided her own musical entertainment for the afternoon. She played the harmonica every time she was asked to play, and after a while she "cut down" on "Red Wing". One visitor was heard to say "How can she hold out to play so long?" "Red Wing", "Home Sweet Home", and "I Have Sugar In My Coffee" seem to be her favorite songs, her daughter, Mrs. Hardy said.

Ma has a ready answer for anyone who would like to tease her and is mighty sharp for her age. She has made her home in the Muleshoe Nursing Home since last January. She is quite fond of the many friends she has made there. The several activities provided for them by the home are seldom missed by Ma. She looks forward to the Singings, Birthday Parties and Church Services at the home.

Five of Ma's ten children are still living, four sons and one daughter. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. John Fulcher of Lubbock, Charlie Fulcher of La Feria, Davis Fulcher of Glenn, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Fulcher of Sudan, and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hardy of Sudan. Hosts and hostesses for the day were Mr. and Mrs. Hardy and

Devotional

By HAZEL HOUSE

Scripture: St. John 1:1-5, 15:26, 17:17.

In prayer, asking God to cleanse me anew and to use me in His service, the thought came, "But how are you cleansed?" And the answer immediately was, "By the Word." For Jesus said in the prayer for His disciples "Sanctify them through thy truth, thy word is truth." By the applied shed blood of Jesus I am made clean; by the Word, the power and guidance of the Spirit I can be kept clean.

Then the clear vision came and my mind, my heart, my whole being was full of delight, amazed joy, mingled with regret that I had ever allowed anything to keep me from being in hearing distance of God's messages to me. For I saw anew the Triune God, God, the Father, who created the world and all that is therein; who made man in His image and then loved him so much that he made the plan for man to be re-born into the perfect image in which man was created: The plan of salvation.

Then, God, the Son, the Word of God made flesh, Jesus; who lived and revealed the Father, who died and arose from death into life and ascended into heaven — the Living Word.

Then, the Holy Spirit, the Holy Ghost which Jesus sent from the Father, born on the day of Pentecost, the Comforter, the Guide, the Spirit of Truth.

And I saw something else — the Body of Christ! But, you may say, "If I could only see Jesus." You can, my friend, if you will come to Him in answer to His call of "Follow me." Even now, you can see Jesus, for in this world there is the printed Word of the Living Lord — the Bible; and the Holy Spirit as guide and comforter and teacher; and the Body of Christ which is you and me who believe that He is the only begotten Son of God who died to redeem us from sin and Satan and to make a way for mankind to have eternal life.

Jesus gave His life for you and me. So when we believe in Him, accept Him as Lord and Savior, we become a member of His body — the Church of Jesus Christ, visible to this world.

Now, the question is this: What does the Body of Christ look like to the world? Christians, ask yourself this question, as I have. Let us be very sure that the "body" is not so anemic, so weak, so under-nourished, so under-exercised, or so paralyzed that it no longer is obedient to the commands of the Head; and therefore, cannot reveal the beauty of Jesus, or the promise and hope and sureness of His power and steadfast, eternal Love.

Can the world see Jesus in us? What does Jesus Christ look like to others as they look at the only body He has in this world — the Church? Are we showing mercy, compassion, forgiveness, concern, understanding, love, as out into the world day by day we "go" at Jesus' command?

This God is my strong refuge.—(II Sam. 22:23).

When we feel secure in God, we have a sense of His enfolding presence. We know that he is wherever we are, and that He is always with us. We know that life offers us new and thrilling opportunities with each new day, because God is always with us with His providing substance. So let's always turn to God for the inspiration to do the things that we should do.

TIPS™ OUTDOORSMEN

by Vern Sanford

GIVES SHINE TO LURES

A simple method to shine up dull fishing lures is to soak them in water that potatoes have been boiled in.

THIS IS A DUCKY IDEA

You can pluck ducks easier by first soaking them in detergent. It cuts the oil in the feathers and makes them easier to remove.

MANY USES FOR TAPE

The wise angler carries a roll of plastic tape in his tackle box. It is a good emergency repair kit for all sorts of things, such as fixing loose fishing rod guides, patching tent holes, holding a mirror to a tree, etc.

FISH CLEANING MADE EASY

Keep things neat by scaling fish on an old copy of a magazine. Clean one fish, turn a couple of pages, clean another, and so on. You always have a clean place to work and very little mess to clean afterwards.

The Harvest Years

It was not so very long ago that self-respecting retirement was something you could look forward to if you were a man of wealth and only dream about if your means were less than average. Even the term "senior citizen" was unheard of a generation ago.

But times have changed. Today a comfortable retirement belongs to any man who plans for one, according to the Investment Company Institute, national association of the mutual fund industry.

Witness the millions of senior citizens the nation over who are now able to enjoy their harvest years in relative ease, thanks to an extended life span and a growing national prosperity.

Yet, to retire is not always that easy. Government figures indicate that only 40 per cent of the more than 18 million people in this country who are 65 and over are self-sufficient. The rest must rely on public welfare, private agencies or family for support.

The real problem is simply poor planning. Too many people who thought they had provided adequately for the future find that either they had miscalculated or that inflation had trimmed the value of their original savings far below levels needed to live in terms of what today's dollar will buy.

Mutual funds, with broad holdings in American industry, have proved effective in keeping pace with inflationary trends, the Institute points out. They can be used as income-producing vehicles from which the investor may draw during retirement, or if he is self-employed he may set up a Keogh Program during his working years.

Why are mutual funds—with 4.2 million shareholders and assets of close to $50 billion—so popular today? To begin with, mutual funds employ professionals who constantly watch the many different markets and analyze all the conditions that may affect them.

In addition, a mutual fund also provides broad diversification. This is a well-tested method of reducing the risk inherent in any investment for it spreads that risk among the securities of many different corporations, rather than just a few. Even one mutual fund share may represent holdings in as many as a hundred or more different companies.

Putting-you-firsts:

(A quick tour of some of the thoughtful new features the 1969 Chevrolets offer that other cars in Chevrolet's field don't.)

Headlight washers

You push the windshield washer knob and hold it, and your headlights come clean.

Fluid is diverted to two jet nozzles at each light lens. (Outer lights only on duals.)

The spray removes up to 80% of accumulated dirt.

The feature is standard on 1969 Corvettes. It comes with the hidden headlights available on Camaro, Caprice and Kingswood Estate Wagons. It is available on all other models except Corvair.

Heated glass

In a moment your rear window will self-defrost.

Because we've built onto it a network of tiny ceramic strips capable of heating the entire surface.

Fog and frost disappear quickly and quietly. You just flick a switch.

The heated rear window is available on the 1969 Caprice Coupe and Impala Custom Coupe.

Pushbutton tire chains

You press a button on the instrument panel and the rear tires get a shot of "liquid tire chain."

You spin your wheels once, wait a moment, and you're off—with traction you wouldn't believe possible on slick ice, or packed snow.

Available on all 1969 big Chevrolets.

Steering wheel lock

When you own a car as desirable as the 1969 Chevrolet, you don't take chances.

When you leave it, you lock it. Not just the doors.

You lock the ignition, steering wheel and transmission lever, too.

Our new lock on the steering column takes care of all that.

Standard on all 1969 Chevrolets, Chevelles, Chevy Novas, Camaros and Corvettes.

Sorry, car thieves.

Power steering plus

The 1969 Caprice, Impala and Camaro are available with a new type of power steering.

Variable-ratio power steering.

What it does is give you faster steering with fewer turns of the wheel.

Variable-ratio power steering is particularly helpful in short, full turns.

And parking becomes unbelievably easy. You'll see.

Walk-in wagons

The tailgate swings open like a door on most of our 1969 station wagons.

Which in itself is no big deal. But wait, there's more.

We've built a concealed step into the rear bumper.

You simply step up, over, and in.

(The way we build our wagons, you can do it without bumping your head, and without acrobatics.)

Walk into a wagon soon at your Chevrolet dealer's.

Decorating

Four Groups of Tile

Ceramic tile's "great decorative diversity" can be divided into four general types, according to a new booklet published by the Tile Council of America.

Glazed wall tile, most familiar in 4 1/2 inch squares, is also available in other sizes and shapes. New heavy-duty glazes now make it suitable for countertops and floors.

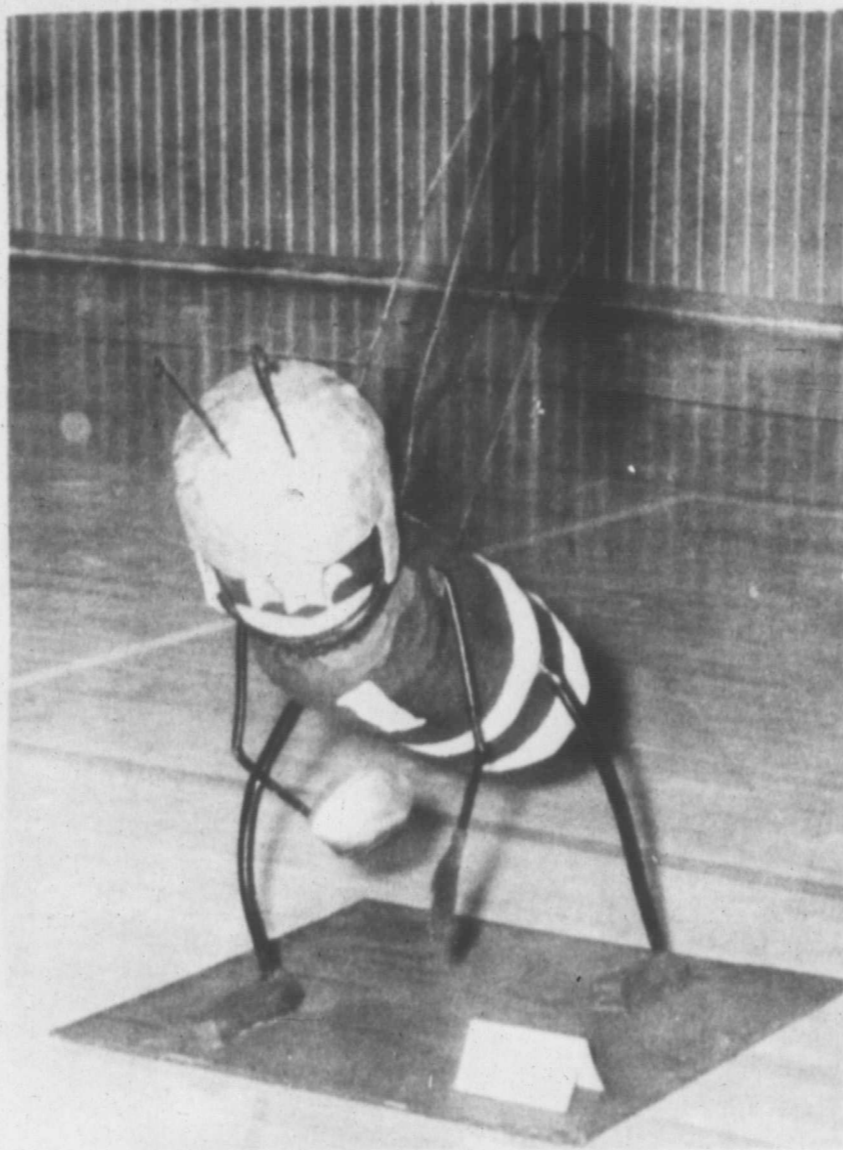

Ceramic mosaic tiles come in many colorful shapes, with or without a glaze. Often called "floor tile," ceramic mosaics are excellent on other surfaces, and are popular for murals.

Quarry tile, a heavy-duty floor surfacing once available only in earthen-red, six-inch squares, is now produced in many colors and shapes, even textured and glazed.

Pavers, similar to quarries in appearance and use, are made by a different process. They widen the color range of heavy-duty floor tiles.

The Tile Council's new illustrated booklet, "Designs For Gracious Living With Ceramic Tile," contains many articles that describe the esthetic and functional applications of all types of tiles.

Man's internal clock broke down with the coming of the jet age. When people rapidly cross time zones, as in transatlantic flight, their biological time sense finds it hard to adjust to a new cycle. Fatigue and confusion result.

A new invention helps get that built-in timer ticking again. Developed by Westclox for travelers, the Home-N-Away travel clock features two dials--one for local time, the other for "back home" time. A man away on a business trip can thus know the right hour to phone his office or home--and when to eat or nap to help his body "re-set" itself.

Cool It Meals
 Summer is absolute heaven for the homemaker because it's the time she can get by without cooking too often. Everyone likes cool-it-meals, and it's perfectly acceptable to have easy--does-it buffets or barbecues during warm weather. Cold soups are marvelous and there are many delicious canned or frozen varieties that you can serve up with a minimum of fuss. I love jellied consommé and vichyssoise which I serve with little corn chips. A lot of women prepare cottage-cheese and fruit-salad dinners, but I'm of the opinion that men don't think too much of this kind of a meal after a sweltering day at the office, and I do agree with them. I need meat and fish even in the summer and I frequently prepare cold chicken, cold salmon, trout in gelée or bay sliced sturgeon or smoked salmon.

If summer is considered the light-meal season, it's also the heavy-thirst time. Soft drinks, punches, refreshing juices and coolers, iced tea and coffee--all make their welcome appearance. Refreshing beverages are the warm weather way of life. Teens at home are inveterate ice-box raiders for bottles or cans of Pepsi-Cola; little fry love it and it is like a special "treat" when mother allows a soft drink instead of routine milk. Probably the first thing the tired businessman does when he gets home is run to the refrigerator for a refreshing pick-me-up. With all this ice-box activity, it's essential you have enough Pepsi-Cola iced and ready to quench the almost unquenchable thirst.

By planning quick meals, instant desserts (ice cream is the all-time favorite) and stocking a good supply of soft drinks this summertime--the living can be easy--for you!

Let you and me, my brother, be what we feel that we would want the other fellow to really truly be; Should I so much as mention what I would have you do, Unless I'm more than willing to do the same for you?

Newest Cookware Colors
 IF avocado green was the rage in 1967 housewares, what will be the 1968 height of fashion? Corning months ago foresaw a bold newcomer in glowing warm colors and has introduced its new Pyrex ware with yellow and orange Daisy decorations. But market research also predicted continuing popularity of avocado. So stores now carry a remarkable addition to the familiar gleaming white—avocado Corning Ware round pieces. (NP Features)

Something Different

THE delicate taste of cherry blossoms delights the palate when you sip Sakura, cherry blossom liqueur from Suntory, Ltd. of Japan. Recently introduced in the U.S., Suntory products are delighting even "non-drinkers". Green Tea liqueur is another new taste experience. "If we and the other great corporations can find the way to make a business out of development, if we can learn to measure profits in human progress as well as dollars, we will not only win the enthusiastic support of our young people, but the last third of this century can bring all mankind a long way toward the realization of the human potential."

Clayton Will Speak

Representative Bill Clayton of Springlake will be one of the principal speakers at the annual meeting of the Texas County Judges and Commissioners Association in Austin on Thursday, Oct. 10.

Clayton will discuss the role of county government in relation to the State Legislature.

As Chairman of the Counties Committee, Clayton directs all legislation relating to county matters in the Texas House of Representatives. During the last session of the Legislature his committee handled more than 230 bills.

An advocate of strong local government, Clayton said the volume of bills affecting counties has grown tremendously in recent years and that it is now virtually impossible for each county official to keep up with what is happening in Austin.

He said that unless county officials keep a close liaison with state government, they are in danger of having the powers of local self government eroded away.

Clayton is serving his third term as the representative of Legislative District 79, which includes Castro, Deaf Smith, Lamb, Oldham, and Parmer Counties, and is running for another term with the District being changed by adding Bailey and Cochran Counties and deleting Oldham County.

CRAWFORD MARTIN DAY SLATED AT HEMISFAIR

Attorney General Crawford Martin will be the guest of honor at "Crawford Martin Day" at HemisFair in San Antonio Saturday, Oct. 5, to round out a busy week of campaigning in his bid for reelection in the Nov. 5 general election.

Martin and his family will be honored Saturday at the San Antonio world's fair, the closing weekend of the big exposition.

In other campaign activities during the week, Martin spoke at a Law and Coastal Margin Workshop in Brownsville, held a press conference and luncheon in Austin, dedicated a memorial marker at Central Texas College in Killeen and will campaign in Corpus Christi, Falfurrias, Victoria, Bryan, and Temple before being honored at HemisFair Saturday.

Martin announced the appointment of former State Senator Searcy Bracewell of Houston as his state campaign chairman. Bracewell served 10 years with Martin in the State Senate.

Martin is a former Mayor of Hillsboro, a Senator from Hill County and Secretary of State. He was elected Attorney General in 1966.

Doyle Watkins, vice president of the Rotary Club, presided over the regular meeting of the club Wednesday in the absence of the president.

C. A. Dempsey, Dept. of Public Safety, presented a traffic safety program.

Dexter Baker, student of the month, was a guest.

Some 25 members and two guests attended the meeting.

Overseas Visitors Top 200,000

Business and pleasure visitors from overseas to the United States topped the 200,000 mark in July, the second largest volume ever for a single month, the Commerce Department reported.

The total number of visitors to the U. S. for the first seven months of 1968 ran 6.9 per cent above the same period last year.

The country breakdown for the first seven months of this year compared with the same period for 1967, shows the following percentage increases: Italy, 19.1; Japan, 24.9; United Kingdom, 5.1; West Germany, 10.2; Sweden, 7.5; Norway, 15.1; and The Netherlands, 6.4.

Road Traffic Accidents Cost Up $140 Million

Traffic accidents cost the nation an estimated $1,265,243,000 during July, an increase of more than $140 million over the toll of July 1967, the Insurance Information Institute reported.

The increased economic loss came about in spite of the fact that highway deaths in July dropped slightly from their 1967 level, the Institute pointed out. The improved fatality record was more than offset by an increase of 13.2 per cent in the total number of traffic accidents during the month.

National Safety Council figures showed that July traffic deaths totaled 4,770, as compared to 4,820 a year ago. But estimates based on official records from a cross-section of states showed total traffic injuries up 2.2 per cent, in addition to the rise of 13.2 per cent in total accidents.

The estimated July economic loss brings the total for the first seven months of 1968 to $7,670,555,000, up by $759 million from the $6,911,350,000 figure for the same period in 1967.

Hungry moths damage claims top $300 million annually as they feast on wearing apparel, especially woollens and furs. Much of this could be avoided if homeowner's installed tongue-and-grooved cedar lining in their closets.
