WOODWORK

BY DALTON

KNOTHOLES: I feel as I begin this, it might very well be called "Shortwork." . . . Somehow I don't feel too wordy. . . . Note to my friends at KSEL: the big bicycle caper (Plainview to Lubbock in an hour and a half or bust) was canceled last Saturday. The rider, one Terry Parks, says he couldn't find any tires for his special racing bicycle. Besides, it was too cold. But he hasn't copped out. He says he still intends to try it. . . . As a Matter of fact, some insiders now are not so sure he can't do it. They found out he used to do a lot of that sort of riding overseas. . . . Sonny and Cher, the purportedly husband and wife caterwauling duo, have become parents, says the Associated Press—a girl was born last Tuesday. The AP didn't say which one of them had the baby.

TALK ABOUT nutty—about 400 persons gathered on the steps of the Arkansas capitol the other day and demanded an increase in taxes. Maybe not so nutty, though. . . . at least they were willing to pay for what they want. Trouble with most of us is that we want all the federal, state and local assistance we can get, but we also want taxes cut. Personally I'd be willing to freeze all services from all these governmental agencies where they are now, and freeze prices and wages too, for everyone who has been working at a job for at least 15 years. . . . It probably wouldn't work, though.

A NEW SPOTLIGHT is being put on rock music, specifically the words. Rep. John Dingell has introduced a bill to require printed copies of words to all recorded music moving in interstate commerce. Most of that stuff is so smothered in decibels you can't understand it, but he's right—lots of the words are pretty suggestive (would you believe downright dirty?).

RED CROSS HOLDS MEETING

At the regular meeting of the Lamb County Chapter of the American Red Cross, Friday, March 7, Mrs. Bonnie Haberer, Chairman, welcomed a new member of the board, Rev. C. P. McMaster, Methodist Minister.

According to reports on the first week of the fund drive, most communities had made progress but no goal had been reached.

Those attending were Bonnie Haberer, Blanche Dodgen, Doris Frey, Lenore La Grange, A. H. Scivally, Rev. C. P. McMaster, and Ruth Wade.

ARRESTS SOLVE SUDAN BURGLARIES

The arrest of two Latin Americans Sunday led to the recovery of approximately $600 worth of merchandise which was taken during the robbery of Roark's Jewelry here February 11. Several thousand dollars worth of goods were taken at that time.

Louis Martinez, 24, of Lubbock, was arrested at Lubbock and is now confined in jail at Littlefield where bond has been set at $10,000 following a charge of burglary.

Thomas Ramond Ysagaga, 22, also of Lubbock, was arrested Sunday while in the process of moving to Plainview. He is being held at Crosbyton. The arrests were allegedly made due to tips from unidentified persons.

The pair gave statements admitting to the burglaries at Sudan and also several others on the South Plains. The Sudan burglaries occurred Feb. 11 when five businesses were illegally entered. Cash was taken from Baccus Chevrolet, Higginbotham-Bartlett Lumber Company and Southwestern Public Service. A pickup and cutting torch was taken from Keith Glover Food but was later recovered.

Lamb County Sheriff E. D. McNeese accompanied Deputy Sheriff Homer McLaury and Olan Roark, owner of the jewelry store, to Lubbock and Plainview Monday where the merchandise was being held. Roark stated that the recovered goods included china, silver, jewelry, shirts, blouses, robes and underwear. He added that some of the merchandise was damaged and soiled, thus reducing the value to a fraction of the original value.

McNeese, who returned Martinez to Littlefield, said that the prisoner will be indicted for all accounts of burglary before the next term of the grand jury.

AN ELECTRIC WATER HEATER, OF COURSE!

Electric water heaters can be concealed anywhere ... in the garage, in a closet, under cabinet tops. And, that's because they do not need flues or chimneys ... just the water connection and electricity. If your present water heater is getting along in years ... not putting out like a youngster, then it's time to replace with a sparkling new electric. And, if service should ever be needed, just call Reddy Kilowatt ... he'll fix whatever's wrong ... quick as a magician pulling a rabbit out of a hat!

Devotional

Scripture: St. Matthew 16:13-18; St. John 3:15-18; 14:1-6.

Who am I? Who is He? These are two questions all of us ask ourselves as we begin to grow up, but I am sorry to say, not all of us seek the answers. Some just have the fleeting thought, and run away from it. But until we know the answer to the second question, we cannot know the answer to the first, for until we know who Jesus is, we are dead, unconscious of who we are and what or who the source of life is.

You may say, "It makes no difference to me who Jesus is," but, doesn't it? Think about this. Have you ever known anybody else who could give life, even physical life, but especially eternal life? I have not.

The disciples followed Jesus, and Jesus revealed to them enough of Himself, His power, His love, His patience, His compassion, His mission, (all of Himself that He could reveal to them, with their limited understanding), to cause them to believe that Jesus was the One sent to save the world. But the disciples were mostly interested in being with Jesus when He revealed Himself as King, in all His glory and mighty power, they even went so far as to ask what would be their place when Jesus came into His kingdom.

Now there is nothing wrong in wanting to be with Jesus and recognized as children of a King, but the disciples were not ready for that yet. Just to go with Jesus that far is not enough. The world would like to take Jesus and live forever, if they could just take Him when He became king, if they did not have to go with Jesus through the suffering the way of the Cross. But until we have gone the way of Jesus, we are not fit for the kingdom of God, and not yet ready.

The disciples, even the closest inner circle of Peter, James and John, never amounted to very much for Jesus sake until they not only accepted Him as King, but were revealed at the appointed time, but also accepted Him first as a lowly, suffering, servant here on earth to all mankind, who died to save sinners.

This One was without sin, yet He took the burden and punishment for your sins and mine.

The disciples ran away when Jesus would not let them use their physical power of force to protect Him, but Jesus told Peter to put up his sword.

After the disciples of Jesus saw Him die on the Cross, saw Him arise from the dead, and then followed His instructions to wait for the Holy Spirit to come into the world, then the disciples had a Guide, a Comforter, a Power available to them.

So we have power, available to all of God's obedient children. So have we the answer to who we are, when we believe and accept Jesus as God says for us to take Him—by faith.

Jesus said "I Am the Way..." So as Jesus went, serving others. He also said I am "the truth". Believe all He says, and find out for yourself what He said. And He is "the life". Jesus is the giver of life, and He said there is no other source, no other way to obtain life.

Have you found the answer to "Who am I?" and "Who is He?"

Does this shock you? Then what do you think about the fact that a New York City doctor—an obstetrician—said at a university gathering, earlier this year, "An engaged couple should enjoy sex together as a healthy, enjoyable thing."

The name of this obstetrician who apparently considers himself an authority in matters of morals is Dr. Selig B. Neuhardt and he was speaking at a conference held at Michigan State University.

He recommended that these engaged couples should use contraceptives, but also stated that he favored abortion, in cases of unwanted pregnancies.

The Biblical injunctions against immorality of this sort apparently have no effect on his thinking.

Perhaps it should be pointed out that the obstetrician's views on morality and religion should be considered just as authoritative and valuable as a clergyman's advice on obstetrics would be.

God's Rules SHH Sound

The rules that God has set for human welfare have not changed—no matter what some self-styled experts may say.

The best advice for young people who aspire to live a happy life is still the counsel that Paul gave to his young friend, Timothy, "Flee also youthful lusts, but follow righteousness."

The young person who heeds this wise counsel will have nothing to regret.

On the other hand, the young person who adopts as his code of conduct the permissive standard urged on him by some who ought to know better will, some day, be sorry that he did not use as his life's guide the Book which points the way to genuine happiness.

Students Make Rules

To meet the demands of some of the students, numerous colleges, across the nation, have relaxed dormitory rules—in some cases permitting the students to set the rules themselves.

In one university—which I prefer not to name—the rules permit students living in a dormitory to decide when students of the opposite sex may visit their friends in that building, and whether doors of dormitory rooms may be closed during the visits.

The visiting students, must, however, leave by midnight on most weekdays. On Fridays the visiting time is extended to 1 A.M. Saturday, and on Saturday nights the required leaving time is 2 A.M. Sunday.

High Plains Research Trustees Meet

At least 80 High Plains leaders in agriculture are expected to attend the Spring meeting of the High Plains Research Foundation Board of Trustees, March 15 at the Holiday Inn in Plainview.

Highlighting agenda will be selection of officers for the Research farm at Halfway. Harold Hinn, Board of Trustee Chairman, will preside. New Trustees also will be elected.

Research Foundation personnel will give individual reports on projects under study at the farm. Also, Chairmen of the Foundation's Commodity Committees will be on hand to discuss research in various commodity areas.

In other business, the Trustees will review new research projects to be proposed include methods of chemical application on cotton and corn, yield comparisons of four Triticale varieties, herbicide residue effects, methods of herbicide incorporation, studies in minimum seeded preparation for cotton, sorghum, soybeans, and castors, economic evaluation of fertilizer and herbicide application through automatic sprinklers and an economic study on feeding swine in portable pens with slatted floors.

WSCS News

The Women's Society of Christian Service of the First United Methodist Church met Monday, March 10 for the conclusion of their study of the Book of John entitled "Coming to Life". Mrs. J. W. House, Jr. gave the closing session "The Lord of Life and Death", using scriptures from the 19th and 20th chapters of John and Isaiah 53:1-7.

Mrs. A. Pinkerton gave the opening prayer and Mrs. House the benediction.

Others attending were Mesdames Ves Terry, T. B. Adair, C. M. Furneaux, Joe Rone, J. E. Dryden, J. S. Smith, Ray May, Ocie Willingham.

AGRICULTURE DEPT. STARTS BEEF PROGRAM

The most intensified promotional campaign in agricultural history has been opened by the Texas Department of Agriculture to make Texas grain-fed beef a household word.

"By the time the next two months are over, we hope that housewives will ask for Texas beef and not just beef," Agriculture Commissioner John C. White said in announcing TAP would turn its attention to beef promotion in March and April.

"We are going to do everything short of tying a string around the finger of the housewife to help the consumer remember to watch for the TAP symbol," White said.

The Department, with the help of private associations, will place more than 500 outdoor billboards across the major arteries of the state and will install more than 40,000 full color posters and case strips in 10,000 grocery stores.

The TAP-Texas Agricultural Products—program has proved very successful although still relatively new. It is being used throughout the state to promote home-grown products, with emphasis changed each two months.

Sex Revolution Going Too Far?

One of the several revolutions which we are living through in this disturbed time has been named the "sex revolution."

Filthy films, which would not have been permitted under the old motion picture production code, now besmirch the screens of what used to be the best theaters.

Books which would not have been sold by reputable merchants, a few years ago, are now praised by reviewers as having literary merit.

Perhaps the most extreme changes are being made on the campuses of our colleges and universities.

To meet the demands of some of the students, numerous colleges, across the nation, have relaxed dormitory rules—in some cases permitting the students to set the rules themselves.

The best advice for young people who aspire to live a happy life is still the counsel that Paul gave to his young friend, Timothy, "Flee also youthful lusts, but follow righteousness."

The young person who heeds this wise counsel will have nothing to regret.

On the other hand, the young person who adopts as his code of conduct the permissive standard urged on him by some who ought to know better will, some day, be sorry that he did not use as his life's guide the Book which points the way to genuine happiness.

Panwich Cookies—Snacktime Favorites

Take 2 crunchy peanut butter cookies, sandwich together with creamy filling of marshmallow cream, peanut butter and chopped maraschino cherries... and be prepared for some good cookie eating! What else would you expect when combining the things snackers crave?

Peanut butter is a universal favorite and it's now to know the special bonus you get when using Peter Pan Peanut Butter in cookies, cakes, breads or right out of the jar on sandwiches. Aside from the hearty peanut butter flavor, it's an economical source of protein.

PETER PANWICH COOKIES (Makes about 2 dozen cookies)

- 1/2 cup Peter Pan Crunchy Peanut Butter
- 1/2 cup butter
- 1/2 cup firmly packed light brown sugar
- 1 egg
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 2 1/2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
- 2 teaspoons baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- Peter Pan Marshmallow Filling*

Cream together peanut butter and butter, gradually add sugar. Beat in egg until mixture is light and fluffy. Stir in vanilla. Sift together flour, baking powder, cinnamon and salt. Stir into creamed mixture. Shape into 12 balls; place on ungreased cookie sheet. Lightly butter bottom of glass, dip into granulated sugar. Press balls into patties, 1/2-inch thick. Bake in 375° moderate oven 10 to 12 minutes or until lightly browned. Sandwich together each of 2 cookies with Peter Pan Marshmallow Filling.

*To prepare Peter Pan Marshmallow Filling: Makes about 1 cup. Blend together 1/2 cup marshmallow cream, 1/2 cup Peter Pan Crunchy Peanut Butter and 1/2 tablespoon chopped and drained maraschino cherries.
