WOODWORK

BY DALTON

CAMPUS disorders apparently are going to keep on increasing, probably until some of our major institutions are destroyed--if not actual physical destruction, at least in their operation as meaningful organizations.

President Nixon deplored the campus rioting last week, but said the policing of them is mainly the job of the university and college officials.

Fortunately most of the student rebellions are perpetrated by a minority of the students; the average student still is interested in learning something. But this minority certainly has been allowed to get out of hand in many instances.

In Washington the other day a psychologist named Bruno Bettelheim (a good old Latin American name) saw striking similarities between student disorders in the United States and the upheaval in German universities that preceded the rise of Adolf Hitler.

Bettelheim, a survivor of Hitler's concentration camps, says a determination to bring down the establishment is the same motive in both cases, but the danger now, he said, is to the universities, not to the nation.

He said another mistake people make today is in assuming that the rebels are idealists concerned with the real issues of society.

He asserted that many modern student rebels are in fact overwrought adolescents pushed unwillingly into college. He suggested that not all young persons need to go to college; that some would be better off in trained in vocational education for jobs that will give their lives meaning and purpose.

It's at least something worth thinking about.

KNOTHOLES IN THE Woodwork: Nearly one out of six employees in the nation now holds a government job. Foot disorders is one of the prices we pay for wearing shoes. Such ailments reportedly were almost nonexistent among primitive races that went barefoot. The use of hypnosis to cure ailments is on a big increase. Properly used it apparently can cure many nervous disorders.

Mrs. Taylor's Rites Monday

Services for Mrs. Myrtice Aldrie Taylor, 77, of Morton, longtime resident of Cochran County and sister of Mrs. W. L. Rice of Sudan, were held Monday, 2 p. m., at the Morton Church of Christ. Cecil Williams, Minister, officiated. Burial was in Morton Cemetery with Singleton Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Survivors include Mrs. Rice, a foster son, Clarence O. Rice of Lubbock; a daughter, Mrs. Raymond King of Tulsa, Okla., a son, James Weldon Taylor, serving with the U. S. Air Force in Vietnam; a brother, Carl Trapp of New Mexico; 11 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

ROTARY- ANN BANQUET HELD

The Sudan Rotary Club Annual Teacher Appreciation and Rotary-Ann Banquet was held Thursday night in the Sudan School Cafeteria.

H. H. Potter, president and master of ceremonies, introduced the program, which was a men's chorus under the management of the program director, Willard Cox, Minister of the Church of Christ.

Vicki Ray, rotary sweetheart, was seated at the head table and introduced the group. Rotary Club members introduced their Rotary-Ann's and guests.

The Honor guests, teachers in the Sudan School system, were introduced by Superintendent of Schools W. E. Hancock.

Some 97 persons attended the banquet.

Mrs. Birdie Shuttlesworth is in Houston undergoing treatment at a hospital there.

Swing Group To Play For Senior Supper

A group of Plainview professional men who play music "for fun and relaxation" in a 1940-model swing style will perform for Sudan seniors and others present for an annual program in Sudan Methodist Church Thursday night (tonight) at 7:00 p. m. Theme of the Chuck Wagon Supper, which is sponsored by the WSCS, will be "Round-up".

The Old Masters of Swing, first organized about 10 years ago, now is the most popular entertainment band in the Plainview area, appearing on many programs such as civic clubs, conventions, chamber of commerce banquets and church-related events.

Mostly they present programs only in the city of Plainview, but have accepted some events outside. Probably the largest function at which they have appeared was playing for the Ronald Reagan reception in Amarillo last year, and for the statewide convention of optometrists in Lubbock in 1968.

The group now includes three doctors, a florist, a businessman and a newspaperman, plus the featured vocalist, talented 14-year old Tracey Seigler, who already has been singing with the group for four years. Tracey is the daughter of Dr. Gale Seigler, featured guitarist and one of the four original members of the OMOS. Drummer Arch Keys, a florist; Pianist Wilmot Eaton, owner of Eaton Stationery; and optometrist Dr. Clovis Clough, cornet, are others who have been with the group since 1959.

Dr. Curtis Baldwin, dentist and string bass player, joined the OMOS a short time later, and Dalton Wood, news editor of the Plainview Herald and partner in the Sudan Beacon-News, joined the organization as a saxophone player about three years ago.

To prove they know some tunes not from the 1940s era, the Old Masters of Swing plan to include some Tijuana Brass numbers in tonight's program.

Ronnie Lee Nelson Rites Held Here

RONNIE LEE NELSON

Services for Ronnie Lee Nelson, 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nelson of Sudan, who drowned in a neighbor's swimming pool late Wednesday, March 19, were held at 1:30 p. m. Saturday in the First Baptist Church, Rev. J. R. Manning, pastor, officiated.

Peace Justice Tobe Vereen pronounced the child dead at the scene after efforts to revive him failed. Vereen ruled the death accidental drowning.

The child had been put down for a nap earlier and apparently wandered out of the house to the neighbor's pool where his body was discovered.

Burial in the Seagraves Cemetery was directed by Hammons Funeral Home of Littlefield.

Survivors besides the parents include two sisters, Pamela and Debra, both of the home; twin brothers, Johnny and Denny, also of the home; his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Henderson of Whiteface and Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Nelson of Seminole; and great-grandparents, Mrs. Winnie May Mason of Whiteface and Mrs. H. C. Dixon of Sacramento, Calif.

A memorial fund for the child has been established through the Sudan First National Bank.

Water, Inc. Starts Membership Drive

Directors of the Lamb County Water Association met Thursday night to pass out window stickers declaring "Water Is Life" and cards to sign up new members in the county water group.

Membership cards say the member is promoting imported water from the Mississippi River to Bull Lake for irrigation, industry, city and recreation.

"The future of life and growth in Lamb County and on the Texas High Plains depends on planning for imported water," said John D. Smith, president of the organization.

"Without it, the area economy can and will shrivel to pre-irrigation day levels. The Lamb County Water Association is dedicated to doing its part in the area wide effort to bringing adequate supplies of water from wherever it can be found in surplus for use in homes, industry, land and for recreation.

"It is unbelievable what unlimited water for this area could do," Smith said. "Already this area produces more than 44 out of 50 states. When water is gone, we've had it. But with plenty of water this area stands to gain everything. Imagine what it would be worth to this area just to have 186,000 acre feet of water in Bull Lake.

"That is the proposed amount that will be stored at Bull Lake due to the natural depression there. Water will be up to the shoulder of the road. Lamb County will be in the bull's eye center of the largest storage reservoir on the South Plains."

This area is now third in cattle production. It is expected to be first within 10-15 years. Tanneries are now looking at this area as a place to locate plants.

By-products from such a large amount of water are unbelievable officials say. Heat generated from water moving into this area would be enough to actually boil the Mississippi, engineers say. This heat when used commercially would be enough for fantastic industries not yet thought of for this area.

When the water plan was first introduced into the legislature two years ago, the South Plains was left out entirely. Now the High Plains is scheduled to get 8 1/2 million acre feet of the proposed 12 1/2 million.

WATER INC., officers say this part of the state is in a good position politically with a governor from this area, Rep. Bill Clayton, a strong supporter of the (cont'd. on page 2)

INSURANCE RATE LOWER FOR SUDAN

A three-cent reduction in Sudan's fire insurance key rate on April 1 will mean a savings to insurance buyers of about $328 a year, if they buy the same amount of coverage this year as they bought last.

The State Board of Insurance set the key rate for Sudan at 36 cents, down from the present 39 cents.

The state agency arrives at the key rate through a system of charges for fire hazards and credits for fire prevention practices in the city.

Sudan had a total of 38 cents in charges, due to deficiencies in the water works, elevated tank, water mains, fire apparatus and building laws, as well as having a wholly volunteer fire department, no fire marshal's reports made, and overhead wires and frame ranges in the mercantile district constituting a fire hazard.

Then it got a number of credits. They were one per cent for having a 100 gallon booster tank, three per cent for teaching the methods of fire prevention and principles of fire insurance in the public schools, and two per cent for maintaining an arson reward. This amounted to six per cent in credits, or two cents of credit, making the total 36 cents.

R.V. Herzog Rites Held

Ronald V. Herzog, 54, whose wife, Jeri, is a former Sudan resident, died of what appeared to be a heart attack Friday at his home in Los Angeles.

Herzog, a native of Lincoln, Neb., was a new car dealer in Los Angeles. He was a veteran of World War II, and was a Captain in the Army Infantry Intelligence Division.

Surviving besides his wife is a sister, Mrs. Majorie Fiersal of Los Angeles.

Services were at 3:00 p. m. Sunday in the Singleton Funeral Home Chapel of the Chimes.

Rev. Wayne Perry, Baptist minister from Lubbock, officiated.

Burial was in Littlefield Memorial Park with Singleton Funeral Home of Muleshoe in charge of arrangements.

Guild News

The Wesleyan Service Guild met in the home of Betty Masten Tuesday night, March 18, with Mrs. Herb Potter as co-hostess.

Mrs. Bob Drake, president, presided at the meeting. Mrs. Marvin Tollett gave the invocation. Roll call was answered with signs and affirmation of Jesus found in John.

The devotional was given by Mrs. Robert Brown. Rev. Robert Brown continued the study "Coming to Life—John".

At the business session several members stated that they would attend the annual meeting of the Northwest Conference of the Wesleyan Service Guild in Littlefield March 22-23.

Refreshments were served following the business session to Mrs. C. W. Rosson, Mrs. Bill Curry, Mrs. Marvin Tollett, Mrs. Bob Drake, Rev. and Mrs. Robert Brown.

The annual meeting of the Northwest Conference of the Wesleyan Service Guilds of the United Methodist Church was held in Littlefield Saturday and Sunday, March 22-23.

plan, and Sen. Jack Hightower working on the committee. Congressman George Mahon being in politics for the past 37 years will be a big help, they say.

This is a highly political thing, according to officials. When a person speaks of the lower Mississippi, this doesn't just include the Louisiana area, but all of the giant commercial area of the South.

This program must be sold locally as well as to all those involved in the eastern part of the state and other states with interests.

To show what a large water supply can do for this area, Water, Inc., points to land in California which sold for $200-$250 an acre before that state brought in imported water. This same land is selling in excess of $7,000 an acre now.

"We won't get the water just because we need it," officials say. "We've got to work for it. Work is progressing in the right direction now, with the bonds to support this figured on a 50-year payout, they say.

"We're going to see the day when water will be very precious," Tom Williams, an employee of Water, Inc., said. "Nothing is more important than water. An oil well can't even be drilled without it."

"THIS IS A fine plan," Smith said, "but we've got to have money to finance it. Membership dues are a minimum of $5, but we'll take any amount anyone wants to give us," Smith said.

Memberships may be obtained from any of the 33 county directors. Directors are made up of three men from each of the 11 communities in the county.

Directors and their communities are:

- OLTON: Kenneth Burgess, Elmer McGill, Percy Parson.
- SUDAN: Donnie Cowart, Alvin Messermore, F. M. Smith.

LEWIS LLEWELLYN

What Does Love Really Mean?

"Make love, not war," the hippies proclaim by the cards that they carry and the slogan that they inscribe on the walls of buildings.

But what do they mean by "love"? Do they mean the deep emotion which causes men and women to sacrifice themselves for those whom they love—or do they mean the cheap gratification of a physical desire?

There is a great gulf between the various meanings of the word "love."

Some have cheapened the word till it means to them hardly more than an animal biological urge.

But this is not the true meaning of the word that is intended to express the deepest and noblest emotion of which the human heart is capable.

True love does not impel one to do that which will gratify the whims or satisfy the passions of the lover at the expense of the one who is loved.

Rather, true love will lead the one who loves to do that which will be of greatest benefit to the one who is loved.

Sometimes the working of true love is at great cost to the one who loves.

Sacrificial Love

While there are those who declare that our military effort in Vietnam is "immoral and unnecessary," there are others who have seen with their own eyes a Vietnamese father carrying the lifeless body of his young child, killed by the Viet Cong, and who have a very different opinion of the morality of defending these people against the murderous terrorism of the Godless hordes of Ho Chi Minh.

One Marine corporal in Vietnam has sent to columnist Ray Cromley a poem which Cromley mentioned in a recent column. In it, the Marine asks God whether he (the Marine) has the heart to live or to die for other men. He is afraid that he won't measure up to the situation that he is facing.

The poem closes with the declaration by this young man, "I think that I would rather be right here, where I can take my stand, and with my heart and with my hand, make life alive for another man."

No Greater Love

Jesus said "Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends."

It is this kind of love that we need in the world today.

It is this kind of love that Jesus manifested, 19 centuries ago, when He—the guiltless one—went to the cross to die for the guilty ones.

God gave His Son. The Son gave His life.

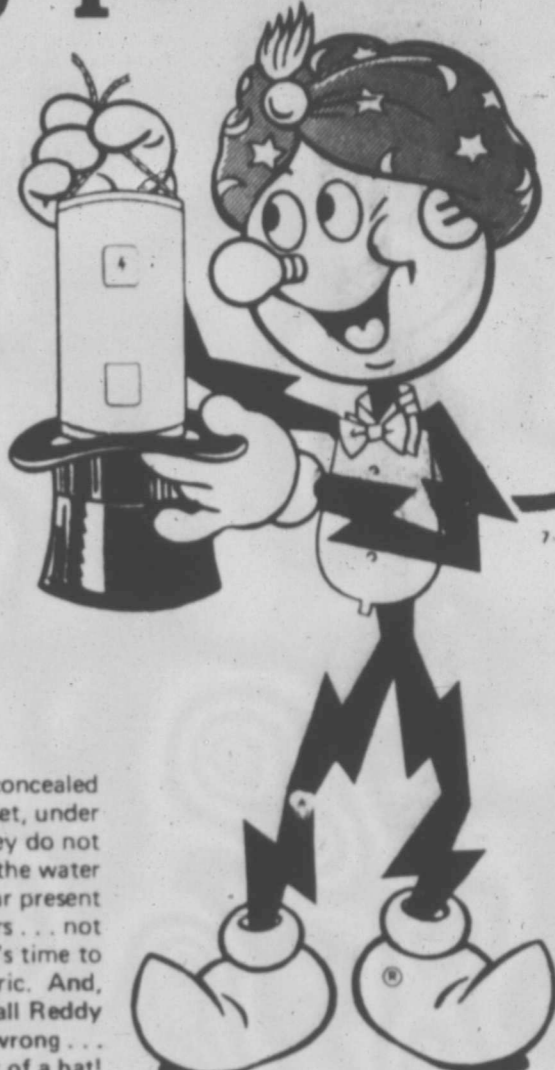

But the tragic truth is that, in too many cases, while God loves men, men love darkness rather than light—and go on stumbling through life until they stumble headlong into the place of perdition that Jesus died to save them from.

"God commendeth His love toward us in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us."

What is your response to this manifestation of God's love for you?

AN ELECTRIC WATER HEATER, OF COURSE!

Electric water heaters can be concealed anywhere . . . in the garage, in a closet, under cabinet tops. And, that's because they do not need flues or chimneys . . . just the water connection and electricity. If your present water heater is getting along in years . . . not putting out like a youngster, then it's time to replace with a sparkling new electric. And, if service should ever be needed, just call Reddy Kilowatt . . . he'll fix whatever's wrong . . . quick as a magician pulling a rabbit out of a hat!

Howdy Neighbor

BOYS OF PIERCE BURLERSON
The main trouble with being sick is that people begin to pay attention to you and it gets to be such a nice sensation that you get afraid of getting well. Looking back to your stay in the hospital continues to leave with you some definite impressions:

The hospital uniform is a bathrobe, or a white nightshirt which shows your hairy legs and which says as clearly as anything can, "I'm sick."

It may be the reason that they don't let you wear your clothes in the hospital is they might forget you are sick. And you might forget, too. What a shock it might be to look down at your foot and see a shoe and sock on it!

"Nurse! Nurse! Call the doctor. I must see the doctor at once." The astonished nurse knows how to handle the situation. "The doctor is not to be called except for an emergency. He has left instructions for you to not get out of bed."

"But, nurse, look—can't you see? Something terrible has happened. I've got my shoes on."

"Why, you're not the person I thought you were at all," the nurse says. "Are you a visitor or did you think this was a hotel? Now get up and get out of here."

"But I've got a tube stuck into my arm." She replied, "I don't care what you've got stuck in your arm. You can't be registered here if you have your shoes and socks on. Get up or I'll call the police."

"My civil rights are being violated—I have the right to make one phone call so please let me do that, okay."

"Hello, Hello, Doctor. Will you tell this nurse that this is me? She don't believe it. She just keeps hollering about my shoes and socks and some hotel.

LAMB COUNTY ACCIDENT REPORT

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated 13 accidents on rural highways in Lamb County during the month of February, according to Sergeant Thurman Keffer, Highway Patrol Supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in three persons injured and an estimated property damage of $5,650.00.

The rural traffic accident summary for this county during the first two months of 1969 shows a total of 20 accidents resulting in no persons killed, six persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $12,485.00.

"Windy" March is here. Pedestrians and drivers can be temporarily blinded by blowing dust of sand — long enough for a hazardous situation to develop and lead to an accident. The reduction of visibility can cause a head-on collision, a rear-end collision, or a run-off roadway type of accident.

The wind itself can exert a powerful force on your vehicle and force it across or off the roadway. Sudden changes in wind velocity can cause you to lose control of your vehicle. Be sure to have both hands on the steering wheel to help maintain control of your vehicle.

The sergeant said, "Be alert and prepared for these dangers of gusty winds and reduced visibility."

GUESTS DELIGHT IN THIS LOW CALORIE MAIN DISH

New and different entrees are always in demand, particularly if they help keep you trim. This Shrimp En Chemise has everything a hostess could desire—a rich look without the high calorie count usually associated with such things—delectable flavor and unique taste.

By combining rice with shrimp and low calorie fruit cocktail, you get lots of great mouth-temptment in one dish. What's more, you can serve it hot or cold, any time, any season.

SHRIMP EN CHEMISE

- 2 cups uncooked rice.
- 1 1/2 lbs. raw shrimp, shelled or 2 packages (10 ounces each) frozen shelled and deveined raw shrimp
- 3 cans (8 ounces each) low calorie Diet Delight fruit cocktail, drained and juice reserved
- 1/2 cup sherry, preferably an Amontillado (medium sweet) or cooking sherry, if you prefer
- 1 table spoon curry powder
- 1/4 teaspoon Diet Delight non-caloric liquid sweetener
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 3 cups (1 1/2 pints) plain yogurt
- 3 eggs, well-beaten

*Cook rice and line bottom and sides of a 2-quart casserole with it. If shrimp are frozen, thaw completely and drain. Place juice drained from fruit and sherry in skillet large enough to hold shrimp in a single layer. Cover and bring to boil. Add shrimp, cover and lower heat. Let shrimp poach in liquid until just firm when tapped lightly in the thickest portion, about 5 minutes.

With slotted spoon, remove shrimp to bowl, and mix with fruit cocktail. Reduce pan liquid to half the original amount by boiling uncovered. Add curry powder, liquid sweetener, and salt. Combine yogurt and eggs. Beat in the reduced pan liquid and adjust seasoning.

Fill rice shell with shrimp and fruit. Pour yogurt mixture over and bake in preheated oven for 25-30 minutes until filling is just firm, about 25 minutes. Makes 6 servings and may be frozen. Calories per serving 142.
