WOODWORK BY DALTON

IT'S A TRIAL, and it's also a sideshow, and a little bit of a farce, and it has been going on since Sept. 24 in a federal courtroom in Chicago.

We refer to the trial of a group of Yippies and freaks on charges of conspiring to incite riots at the time of the Democratic National Convention in 1966.

The defendants have been cursing the judge, shouting obscenities, screaming in court, and otherwise displaying their personalities. One of them finally was sentenced to a term in prison for contempt of court, but this hasn't slowed the others.

The lawyers for the defendants—one is Jerry Rubin who wandered about in Chicago during the convention, wearing crossed bandoliers and hair out to here—have been just as guilty of idiotic conduct, and in fact, I don't see how they can be members of any responsible bar association. Apparently they are hoping to cause a mistrial by agitating the judge to the point that he does something on which they can base such a motion, or make an appeal that they have been denied their civil rights or something.

Most of us reading about the courtroom conduct of the defendants in the case are thoroughly disgusted that they can get away with it.

In fact, it has been suggested that anything short of capital punishment for these scabs on the skin of mankind would be a miscarriage of justice.

INFLATION—or lack of it—is costing American motorists a lot of money, according to a tire company. Agents of the company conducted a secret tire inflation survey last May and June and later reported that millions are cheating themselves out of longer tire mileage and also risking their lives on underinflated tires.

In 21 cities the agents simply used a tire gauge on 2100 parked cars, chosen at random. An average of eight of 100 tires checked were underinflated. At least one of every five cars had at least one low tire.

The economy suggested that every motorist carry an accurate tire gauge in his car pocket and check the tires at least once a month.

Farm Production Funds Available

Lamb County is one of nine South Plains counties designated as a disaster area due to crop production loss from weather conditions, and emergency funds are now available through the Federal Housing Administration (FHA).

These funds are designed as a supplemental source of credit to assist those who otherwise wouldn't be able to continue their farming and ranching operations.

Counties designated to receive emergency funds were named by secretary of agriculture. A special rate of three per cent interest is applied to funds obtained for continuing normal farming operations.

Applications for these funds can be made at the FHA office in the basement of the Littlefield Post Office.

HORNETTES PLACE SECOND IN DISTRICT

1969-70 HORNETTES BASKETBALL TEAM

The Hornettes finished their 1969-70 basketball season in second place in district play with a 7-3 record, after defeating Vega 54-48 in a very close game here Tuesday night.

Vega led the scoring by two points at the end of the first quarter and by a score of 27-26 at half. However, the score was tied at the end of the third quarter. Sudan fought to a one-point lead with only one minute remaining, when they went into a stall forcing Vega to foul. The final score was Sudan 54, Vega 48.

Five senior girls played their last basketball game for Sudan High School Tuesday night. The two forwards, Connie Lance and Sharon Wilson scored 25 and 24 points during the Vega game. Senior guards are Kathy Rice, Venita Whiteaker and Deborah Marlow.

The Hornettes defeated Kress Friday night 51-41 with Lance scoring 18, Angela Pickett 16, and Wilson 15.

The Girls B-team lost to Vega by two points after trailing 8 points at the half. The final score was Vega 35, Sudan 33. Val Newell shot for 14 points and Susan Gaston accounted for 10.

Coach Glyma Harrison reported that she was very proud of the girls and their cooperation throughout the season.

With only one game remaining for the Hornets, they lost to Vega 76-61. Shawn Potter was high with 17 points. The Hornets trailed throughout the game although they played fine catchup in the last quarter, scoring 29 points.

Sudan defeated Kress boys 49-35 Friday with Potter again leading the scoring with 13 points. Jerry Bellar and Roger Boyles each had 12 points. Sudan made 61 per cent of their free shots during this game.

The Hornets will host Spring-lake for their final game Friday night.

week at the Community Center. Some 26 boys are involved in the scouting program here. Bishop is leader for Troop 635, Mrs. Robert DeLoach is den mother for the Cubs and Mrs. Yvette Gage is leader for the Webelos.

Judge Halbert C. Woodward, Lubbock, newly elected president of the South Plains Council, announced that the theme for this year would be a continuation of the "BOYPOWER 76" slogan, "America's Manpower Begins with Boypower."

The annual report to the Governor ceremonies will be held in Austin on Saturday. Representing the South Plains Council in the annual event will be Rhonnie Crawford, Lubbock, an Eagle Scout in Troop 402. He was selected earlier as "Top Scout" in the council and will make the report to Governor Smith. Also participating in the report will be District Top Scouts John Brand, Lubbock; Tony Ellison, Ralls; and Mike Brannon, Lamessa.

SCHOOL EXPENSES UP

The Texas Research League pointed out that aid to local school districts is the most expensive obligation of state government and most important determinant of future tax requirements.

Expansion of the foundation school program and teacher pay raises voted last year will increase state expenditures for public elementary and secondary education by $345 million in the current biennium and will produce an additional 50 per cent increase in total state costs during the next six years.

Total increase in state aid for a six-year period is calculated at $1.6 billion in new state funds. Higher salaries account for 65 per cent of this. Research League predicts that

SCIENCE

PUBLIC VEXATION with the noise created by modern jets winging over the countryside had its counterpart in the era of the single-engine, open-cockpit U.S. air mail plane, reports the Federal Aviation Administration. An Ohio poultry raiser in 1928 complained that low-flying aircraft were so upsetting his hens that their output of eggs dropped.

SCIENCE SKETCHES

SUPPLEMENTAL OXYGEN systems in single- and twin-engine aircraft help keep the pilot and his passengers alert and allow them to fly at higher altitudes, reports Zap Aero Systems, El Segundo, Calif. At altitudes of 8,000 feet it is easier to obtain greater speed, distance and smoothness, and less fuel consumption.

LEWIS LLEWELLYN

Can This Really Be Illegal?

Recently, a friend of mine, returning from a trip which had taken her behind the Iron Curtain, told of meeting a woman who lived in Czechoslovakia — a woman whose husband, a minister, had been imprisoned because he refused to deny his Lord.

But this faithful woman, talking to her friends and neighbors, a few at a time in her own home, continued to tell others the good news of salvation and joy to be found in Christ.

Meetings Forbidden

Communist authorities warned her that she must not conduct such meetings in her home.

"Meetings?" she asked. "There have been only a few people here at a time. Can't I talk to my friends in my own home?"

She was told to quit having such meetings, where people were taught to believe in God. But, after all, this happened in a Communist country.

The scene shifts to California — Los Angeles County — to the suburban town of La Canada.

In La Canada, Rev. Donald Sills, youth minister of a church in the area, has been holding some Bible study meetings in his home.

He has now been ordered to stop holding these Bible studies, which have usually been attended by 25 to 30 young people.

"The minister has had no personal complaints from neighbors," reports the Glendale Ledger, adding, "The minister notes that there is no singing, no music, and those in attendance are urged to be careful not to block driveways when parking their automobiles. Usually there are no refreshments, and noise is held to a minimum. . . . There is no offering taken at the meetings" — which are being held about twice a month.

Rev. Sills has received a letter from a deputy district attorney stating, "It has come to the attention of the district attorney's office that you are in violation . . . in that you are conducting regularly scheduled public Bible studies in a residence."

The zoning ordinance does not forbid such meetings; it merely states that homes in that area are to be used as residences — places for people to live.

Can it really be against the law for a minister to conduct orderly, quiet Bible studies in his own home — in California?

The record indicates that there is no legitimate reason for the attack on these Bible study sessions. What the final outcome will be is not yet known.

A Losing Battle

It appears to be just another of the increasingly frequent onslaughts against anybody and everybody who respects the Bible as the Word of God and wishes to teach it to others.

People who read the Bible and live by its teachings are good citizens — honest, law-abiding, compassionate, interested in the welfare of their fellowmen.

Why is it that some people seem to be controlled by an undying hatred for the Sacred Book?

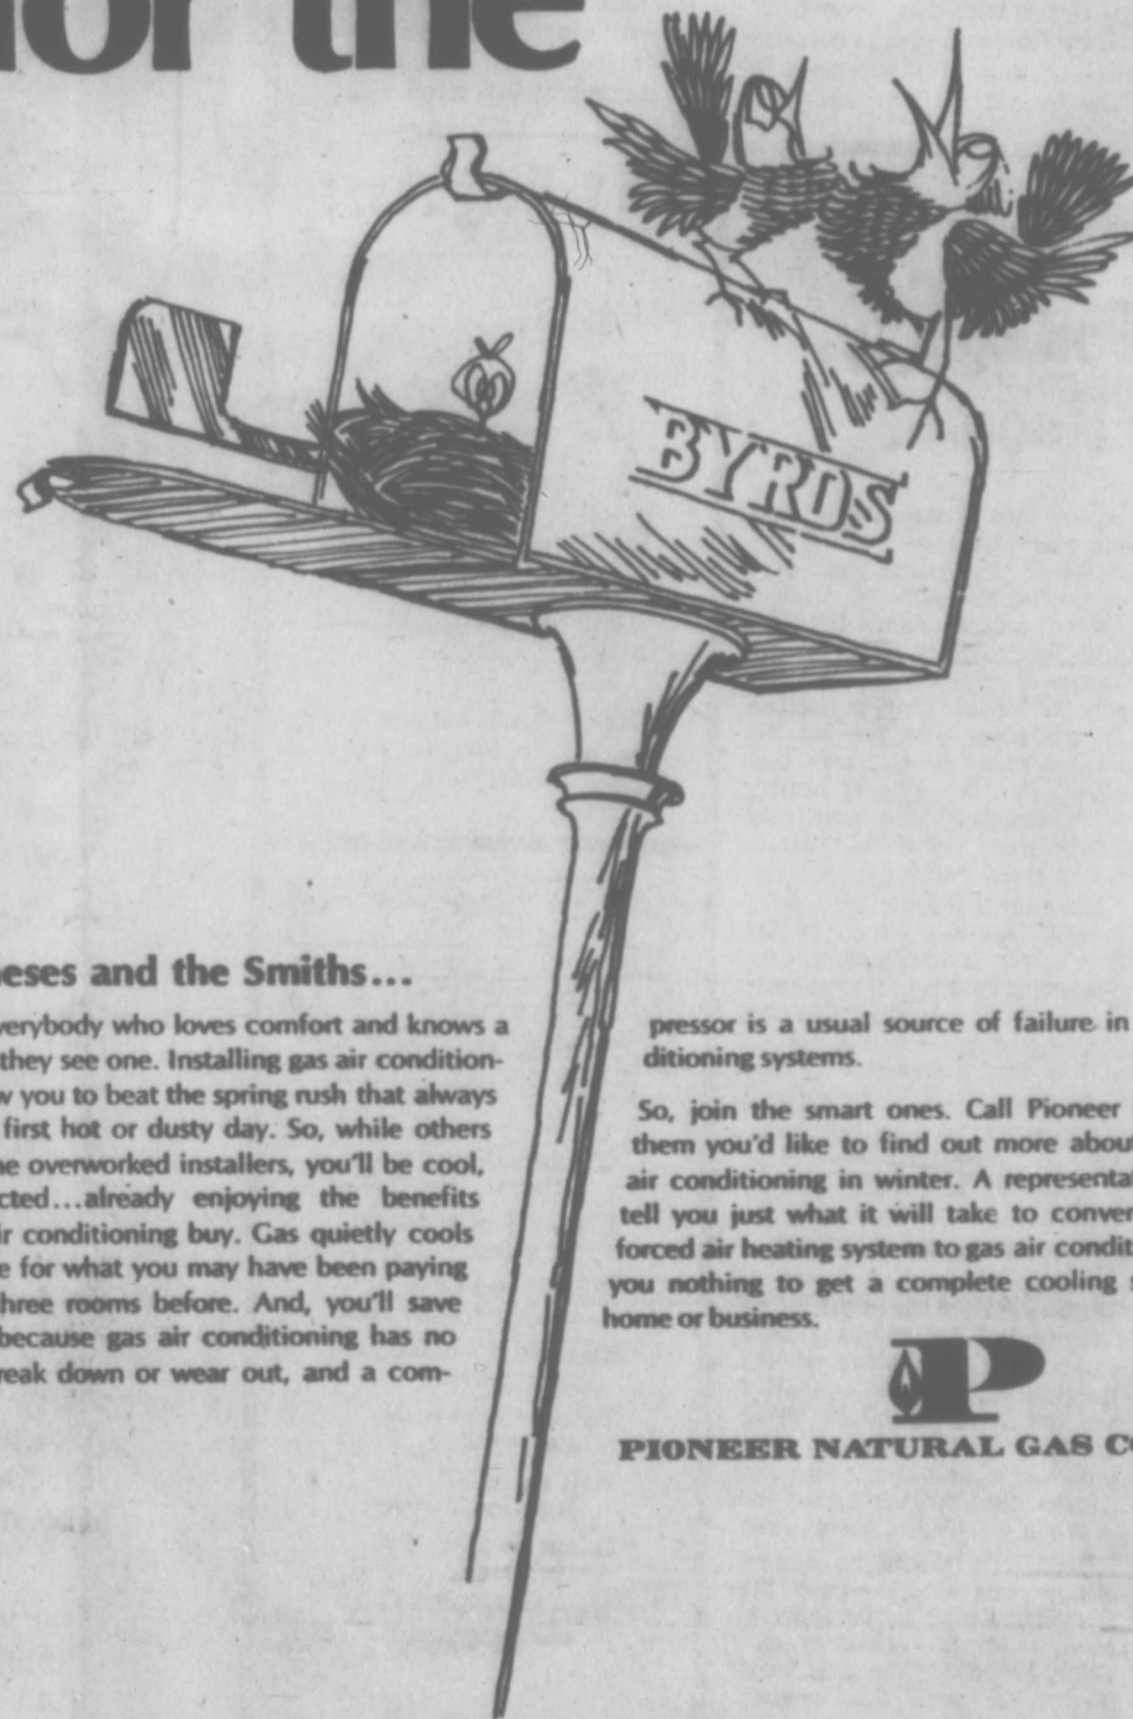

What can they hope to gain by waging this war which they are bound to lose?

Opponents of the Bible have long battled against it — but they have all failed. Why?

Perhaps the answer is to be found in the Scriptures. The prophet Isaiah declared, "The Word of our God shall stand forever."

Wouldn't you rather be on God's side?

Installing Gas Air Conditioning in the Winter is for the

and the Joneses and the Smiths...

and just about everybody who loves comfort and knows a wise move when they see one. Installing gas air conditioning now will allow you to beat the spring rush that always comes with that first hot or dusty day. So, while others are waiting for the overworked installers, you'll be cool, calm and collected...already enjoying the benefits of your winter air conditioning buy. Gas quietly cools your whole house for what you may have been paying to cool two or three rooms before. And, you'll save on repairs, too, because gas air conditioning has no compressor to break down or wear out, and a com-pressor is a usual source of failure in other air conditioning systems.

So, join the smart ones. Call Pioneer today and tell them you'd like to find out more about installing gas air conditioning in winter. A representative will come tell you just what it will take to convert your present forced air heating system to gas air conditioning. It costs you nothing to get a complete cooling survey of your home or business.

Laser Livestock Branding Coming

Science may help to ease one of the cowboy's most onerous chores. The laser beam may soon be used for branding and dehorning steers, according to Industry Research Inc., of Beverly Shores, In. Laser will do the job faster, cheaper, and without the upsetting pain, according to the report. Hot irons and surgical procedures cause severe stress in the cattle, the report explains, and after experiencing this trauma, the animals refuse to eat for several days, suffer weight loss, resulting in less beef available to the consumer. The use of laser, the report states, is expected to result in saving millions of dollars in the processing of cattle. In addition, since the light beam cauterizes as it cuts, there is no danger of infection.

LICENSE CHECKS TO BE MADE

The Texas Department of Public Safety today announced an intensive, statewide driver licensing emphasis program to be launched immediately on the basis of a study revealing a disproportionate involvement of unlicensed drivers in serious traffic accidents.

Statistical data compiled from reports of motor vehicle accidents occurring on the public streets and highways of Texas during the first six months of 1969 reveal that some 9.6 per cent of the drivers involved in fatal accidents were unlicensed; that 7.6 per cent of the drivers involved in personal injury accidents were unlicensed; and that more than 5.8 per cent of those Texas residents involved in all motor vehicle accidents were not licensed. It is esti-ated that there are as many as 400,000 unlicensed drivers in Texas at this time.

The Public Safety Director said the emphasis program will consist of:

1. Urging all drivers in Texas to see that they are properly licensed.
2. An intensive, stepped-up program of enforcement by means of frequent, periodic license checks to be made on the road by DPS patrolmen.

3. Development of driver training schools for persons who need more knowledge and skill to qualify for driver licenses.

4. Urging employers in large plants and business establishments to encourage their employees to obtain proper driver licenses, particularly those moving to Texas from other states.

How to Keep from Forgetting

So you thought those soft rolling hills and that magnificent sunset was your greatest photo? But two years from now, will you remember where you took that picture?

And that lovely French restaurant where you met the Burke's? Was it on the outskirts of Bennington or Rutland? When was your cousin Marie's second child born and when did they move into their new house?

Psychologists point out that mental notes are not to be relied upon for any length of time. Everyday pressures cause even highly important events in your life to fade, become blurred and jumbled.

That is why reporters, photographers and others who must remember what they see, record their observations and discoveries in pocket-sized notebooks. The very act of writing down their information makes events come to life, says the Paper Stationery and Tablet Manufacturers Association.

Experienced note-takers have developed short cuts that make note taking easier. Here are some suggestions for your note taking.

1. Keep a pocket-sized notebook for each vacation you take. Section it off for the various types of information you wish to remember such as the names of hotels, restaurants, special events and photographs.
2. Make your notations legible, concise, but complete. A cryptic scrawl is meaningless in the future.
3. If your notes are in the form of a daily diary try to write them at the same time each day. You then train your memory in total recall until you record the facts in writing.
4. If it's people and events in the family that give your memory trouble, try this: Use an alphabetical index in a loose leaf notebook and under the proper letter grant a page for each member of the family and record all vital statistics and events for each.

Individual notebooks can be maintained for entertainment, birthday and Christmas card lists, menus and recipes, budget, medical records and gardening. A wide range of notebook sizes are ready to help save your memory.

Does God Really Heal People?

By DAVE LLEWELLYN
"Jesus touched her hand and the fever left her."

Healing through the Holy Spirit, apart from ordinary medical care, is a phenomenon of wide popular interest today and a topic of considerable dispute.

Support for the practice is found in the testimonies of restored people and in several passages of Scripture.

Objection to it comes from people who reject the idea simply because it involves supernatural power, from people who have had unfortunate experiences with quack "healers," and from people who understand differently these passages of Scripture.

Concerning objections to the supernatural involvement, the Bible clearly teaches that God does operate in the affairs of men.

Satanic Imitations
Concerning conflicting testimonies to the effectiveness of supernatural healing, it should be observed, sadly, that there are confidence operators ready to imitate anything that interests people.

Jesus' enemies attributed His miracles to Satan, and there were people even then who tried to use Jesus' name to make a name for themselves as healers.

Concerning the interpretation of the Bible, the problem is not so much what the Bible says as what it does not say.

Scripture clearly indicates that Jesus healed and that He gave this power to His disciples. Furthermore, the "gifts of healing" are among the gifts of the Holy Spirit of which Paul teaches every believer has at least one.

The problem of omission is that there is no specific record Sunday School Lesson for February 15, 1970.

in the New Testament of anyone other than one of the disciples or the apostle Paul ever exercising the gifts of healing. And, reasoning from the fact that the miracles of Christ are spoken of repeatedly in the gospels as having been performed for the purpose of proving His claims, many people have concluded that the gifts of healing were intended to be used only by the early church in order to verify their teaching.

However this issue is resolved in your personal study of the Scriptures, several general conclusions should be remembered: The Lord gave the gifts of the Holy Spirit to unify the church and to enable believers to help each other.

Disension between denominations or individuals over these gifts is contrary to the purpose of God.

God Works for Our Good
Further, Paul teaches that all of the gifts are important, that all gifts are equally valid indicators of the presence of the Holy Spirit in a life - that if one gift is to be valued above another it is prophecy - (i.e. preaching), and that more important than having all of the gifts put together is having love.

Finally, it should be beyond dispute that God overrules the physical as well as the spiritual welfare of His children and works everything for good, even though for some this involves suffering sickness.

Our attitude should reflect the emphasis of Jesus, who, when He saw the crowds of needy people following Him "had compassion on them," not because of their physical condition but because they were "like sheep without a shepherd." Copyright Dave Llewellyn 1970

INSPECTION DATE NEARS

With the State's April 15 motor vehicle inspection deadline approximately 60 days away, large numbers of Texas motorists have yet to take their vehicles in for the mandatory annual safety inspection.

Colonel Wilson E. Speir, Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, today urged all motorists whose vehicles have not been inspected to visit an inspection station as soon as possible. "Those getting the inspection now will avoid long lines which are certain to develop at many stations as the April 15 deadline draws near," he said.

The DPS Director noted that Texas adopted an annual inspection program on Sept. 1, 1969.

All vehicles inspected since that date have had the sticker placed on the left side of the windshield with a large number tab inserted to show the month of expiration. For example, vehicles inspected in September have the number nine displayed and will require reinspection before Sept. 30, 1970. Those inspected in October have the number 10 and must be reinspected before Oct. 31, 1970. Vehicles which are inspected in January will bear the number one and reinspection will be required before Jan. 31, 1971.

All vehicles which currently have a sticker on the right side of the windshield have not been reinspected in compliance with the new law, and their owners have only until April 15 to visit an approved inspection station.

Devotional

By HAZEL HOUSE

Scripture: Proverbs 23:7; Philippians 4:8; St. Luke 15:11-24; Ephesians 2:3-10.

"As he thinketh in his heart, so is he."

Are you a Christian? Are you lost? Are you a prodigal son? Do you know the way back to your Father?

A minister once said "You are not what you think you are; but what you think you are." So, what do you think about? For the real you truly is what you think about most of the time.

"Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue and if there be any praise, think of these things." The true honest, just, pure, lovely, of good report, anything of virtue, or praise—think of these.

So, lets look at ourselves in this light of God's infallible Holy Word. When you begin to think on awakening in the morning, have you learned to think first of God, of His undying love and forgiveness extended to you? Do you think of the truth of the fact that He loves you enough to die in your place for your sin? Do you think of His mercy, of His watch-care over you while you slept? Do you think of how wonderful it is that He has given you another day of life to live here on earth?

Are you thankful to God for all this? Then do you ask Him for help, for forgiveness? Do you ask for daily cleansing of your soul and mind, that His Spirit may come in and dwell within you that other men may see Him in you, and come to Him and find eternal life? Then you have the joy (amid all sorrow, pain, temptation and turmoil) of His guidance and constant companionship, and the peace that passeth all understanding. You are thinking according to God's directing mind and Spirit.

Have you given your Soul to Jesus Christ, accepting Him before men as your Savior and Lord?

Then, have you given Jesus your mind and boyd, your will will become His will? For Christ will have all of you, or none of you.

If you are a sinner, your nature, your way and habits of thinking, must be given to Christ that He may change the real you. Your part to do is to be willing to leave your sinful way, to turn from it, to uproot it by throwing away all the trash and "hunks that the swine die eat" and arise and start back toward your Father's house. Read the stated Scripture of the prodigal son, and you will know the Lord stands near you, waiting for you to turn to Him, waiting with open arms of love and protection and joy and sufficient power and food to keep you His child forevermore.

You are a new man (or woman) a new creation through Christ Jesus. You are new, born again, and ready for the process of thinking daily with Christ, seeking Him for guidance, for cleansing, for comfort, for forgiveness, for renewing life, the life which He has again made eternal for you!

You will have Jesus as Savior, and learn one step at a time to think on these things from God's Word, from the companionship of His mind and Spirit—or you will perish, you will die; not so you will know it immediately, perhaps, (for the devil deceives as he deceived Adam and Eve in the beginning) but you will die spiritually, mentally, and finally the body dies and you will be in hell eternally.

But Jesus came to save you and me from perishing. He came to give you something: abundant, eternal life! Be simple but wise—just take Jesus Now! Do not wait until you can reform yourself (you cannot earn eternal life) but come to Jesus like you are, turning away from your sin and following Him.

Start walking with Jesus, and think as He directs you, then your heart will be pure, and your actions will finally become according as you think.

"Come now and let us reason together, saith the Lord" (Isaiah 1:18).
