BY DALTON

ONCE AGAIN I seem to have come to a crisis, namely the time to pour out golden words of wisdom to vast legions of avid devotees of this space, only to find one lonely little note in my desk drawer which offers anything usable.

Well, anyway, for whatever it's worth, here's that one little note which I marked down some time or other as a possible item for comment:

It seems that a couple of weeks ago the police officer at Olton was chasing some crooks who tried to burglarize a body shop. While chasing the burglars, the officer's car struck some road equipment.

The burglars got away. The city car was bugged up. I just wonder if the body shop got some work out of the deal.

Now wasn't that something. Okay, not much, but the only other thing I saw at all was a release from somebody fighting against Senate passage of House Bill 16311, described as a welfare reform bill, and one which sets up a guaranteed annual income.

The bill, said the pamphlet, put out by the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, would increase welfare rolls in the United States by 128 per cent, and in Texas, the increase would be 218 per cent.

The USCC claims the cost of the bill if enacted into law, would be titanic to the taxpayers.

According to the USCC, the bill offers no real incentive to work, but discourages working for a living.

It does a bunch of other bad things, too, says the USCC, in urging people to write their senators in Washington and ask them to oppose the measure in the Senate.

Sounds like a good idea. Since I've kind of lost track of the measure, I hope they haven't already passed it.

MISS DEBRA CHURCHMAN

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Churchman announce the engagement of their daughter, Debra Lynn, to Jerry Ethridge of Dimmitt, Texas. Jerry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Ethridge of Earth. The couple plan a May wedding.

Mrs. R. E. DeLoach returned home recently after being confined to the Amherst hospital.

EARLY MAILING SOUGHT HERE

Sudan Postmaster Ken Minyard stressed this week the importance of mailing Christmas packages and cards early, especially those to servicemen overseas.

Christmas parcels for servicemen overseas can be sent until November 20 by "Space Available Mail" for only the small domestic parcel post charge involved from Sudan to the east or west coast. Parcels up to 5 pounds are accepted at this low rate.

Larger parcels can be sent by airlift mail for $1 extra charge per parcel provided they are mailed before Nov. 27.

"The key to efficient Christmas mailing," Minyard commented, "is to mail early and carefully. Clear addressing, with the ZIP codes, proper packaging and early depositing can prevent most problems and provide the greatest value for money spent for postage."

Minyard also announced that rural delivery of mail for the City of Sudan began Saturday. Persons wishing to obtain this service need only (1) to live on the route; (2) install a mail box at street level; (3) inform post office and change mailing address.

Minyard reminded residents that tampering with mail or mail boxes is a federal offense and any violation should be reported at once to the post office.

Dinner Held For Exes

A dinner for ex-students, teachers and guests of Sudan High School was held Saturday night in the high school cafeteria climaxing the annual homecoming celebration.

President Markham officiated as master-of-ceremonies with the Sudan Band Parents preparing and serving the meal. Entertainment was by Miss Mitzi Trussell, soloist with guitar accompaniment.

The Hornets stayed alive in District play as they defeated the Farwell Steers 24 to 19 Friday night. Going into the game there was a 4-way tie for the district crown but after Kress defeated Springlake and Bovins downed Vega, it's up to the game tomorrow night when the Hornets journey to Kress to decide the District winner.

The Hornets scored just as FB Edwards ran 48 yards for a touchdown. Kim Ingram kicked the extra point and the Hornets led 7 to 0. The Hornet defense again held the Steers forcing them to punt on fourth down. The Hornets took over on the 13 yard line and moved to the Steer eight yard line as the first quarter ended.

As the second quarter started the Hornets were faced with long yardage and fourth down when the Hornets kicker, Kim Ingram, came-in. Ingram kicked the 25 yard field goal to give the Hornets a 10 to 0 lead.

The Steers came back to score as FB Gary Erwin carried over from the 1 yard line for the touchdown. Larry Erwin kicked the extra points to cut the Hornet's lead 10-7. About mid-way the second quarter, Ingram attempted a 46 yard field goal which fell short and was killed on the Steers 4 yard line. The Steers moved out to the 21 yard line where they fumbled with Weaver recovering for the Hornets. FB Edwards scored from the 5 yard line and Ingram kicked the extra points to give the Hornets a 17 to 7 lead. With only 2 seconds left in the first half, Weaver intercepted a Steer pass on the 50 yard line and returned it to the 23 yard line before he was stopped.

Early in the third quarter, after the Hornet defense held the Steers forcing them to punt on 4th down, the Hornets took over on the 20 yard line. On third and seven Weaver not only picked up the yardage needed for the first down, but ran 83 yards for another Hornet TD. Ingram kicked the extra points to give the Hornets a 24 to 7 lead. The Steers took to the air the third quarter and moved from the Hornet 26 all the way for a Steer touchdown. HB Barry Williams carried over from the 2 yard line for the touchdown. QB Sheets attempted to run for the extra points, but was stopped short of the goal so the Hornets led 24 to 13. Late in the 3rd quarter the Hornets fumbled and the Steers were there to cover it on the 48 yard line.

As the final quarter began, the Steers had the ball on the Hornets 45 yard line and again the Steers went to the air to move the ball to the Hornet 5 yard line. QB Sheets passed to his HB Randy Chandler in the endzone for another Steer touchdown. The kick was no good so the Hornets led 24 to 19. The ball changed hands several times late in the quarter. With only 55 seconds left, the Steers were on the Hornet 6 yard line with a fourth and goal to go. QB Sheets went back to pass and hit HB Chandler again on the one yard line. Chandler was hit hard as he caught the ball by Bellar and Bayler to prevent him from scoring. The Hornets took over on the one yard line with 43 seconds left on the clock. It was a great victory for the Hornets and the ex-students of Sudan really saw an exciting game. All the Hornets played a good game. Weaver was top ball carrier with 169 yards on 11 carries. Edwards was next with 116 yards on 13 carries.

Back the Hornets this week as they go to Kress. The winner of this game will win District and advance to Bi-District play. Game time is 7:30 p. m.

CHILDREN'S PICTURES TO BE TAKEN

It is an undisputed fact that the responsibilities of tomorrow's world, our nation and community, will rest upon the shoulders of the children of today. Since this is true, the publisher of this newspaper would like to give you a good look at these future "World Builders."

The only way we can do this is by publishing pictures of them in a feature series. To assure the latest and best reproduction

LEWIS LLEWELLYN

A Generation Of Peace?

President Nixon has stated that his goal is to work for "a generation of peace" for this country. There seems to be no reason to doubt his sincerity, but there is considerable reason to wonder whether this laudable goal can be achieved in this generation.

It is so obvious that it hardly needs to be stated that the powers arrayed against us — the powers which are a threat to world peace — are Communist powers.

Yet one of the greatest obstacles to world peace is the fact that Communists have proved to us, over and over again, that we cannot trust them to observe their solemn agreements. One need look no farther than the Egyptian Suez Canal area to have current proof that this situation has not changed.

Peace — When?
If peace must be achieved through negotiation between us and the Communists, and if we can confidently expect that they will violate the terms of their agreements whenever it suits them, what basis is there for expecting that there will really be peace any time soon?

Yet the Bible does say, "They shall beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruninghooks. Nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither will they learn war any more."
The real question is not whether we shall have a period of peace on earth but when.

The Scriptural quotation which seems to apply to our time is, "Ye shall bear of wars and rumors of wars. See that ye be not troubled, for all these things must come to pass. . . . Nation shall rise up against nation, and kingdom against kingdom."

Is there then no hope for peace in our time? Is the promised peace in the far-distant future?

This is, obviously, a matter of opinion — and yours may be different from mine.

As I see it, those who vehemently insist that there can and must be "peace now" are either viewing things as they wish they were, not as they are, or — as in the case of some of the young agitators who shout this slogan — deliberately playing on our emotions to achieve their very unpeaceful ends.

Actually, the word "peace" has different meanings, depending on who is using the word and what his objectives are.

The Bible speaks of two kinds of peace — international peace and personal peace.

"Peace I Give Unto You"
International peace may not be attainable now. Personal peace is.

In the midst of the turmoil of this war-filled world, there can be a peace — an inner peace — which is the gift of God to those who will receive it.

When Jesus was facing crucifixion — when the agony of this excruciating and ignominious death was only hours away, and He knew it — He said to His disciples, "Peace I leave with you. My peace I give unto you. Not as the world giveth give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid."

Jesus had a serene, inner peace, in spite of what was happening.

This peace we can have, whether there is peace in the world or not.

We should work for peace in the world. We must have the peace of God in our hearts.

Yes, Mom Can Survive the Football Season

From the first snap of the ball to the last blow of the referee's whistle, lots of time is being spent by dad and junior this season right in front of the TV watching National Football League action. But mom, too, can be star quarterback by making some fancy plays with sandwiches for the spectators.

Peter Pan Peanut Butter was selected as one of the NFL training table foods. Members of all 26 teams were dipping into big 28 ounce jars of peanut butter 3 meals a day for the entire 6 week training period prior to the regular season. Peanut butter is full of protein and supplies lots of quick energy for the professional athlete as well as the aspiring junior quarterback.

For "make your own sandwiches" during the game, set up TV or snack trays with all the fixings. Peanut butter makes a versatile sandwich ingredient and combines well with a variety of luncheon meats as well as bacon, deviled ham, or leftover turkey and chicken. Tomatoes, lettuce or pickles are good peanut butter go-togethers. Put out a variety of breads, such as rye and whole wheat, and some hard rolls.

For easy snacking during some exciting plays, spread peanut butter on crisp celery sticks.

People who cook with pride cook with GAS. Mrs. Cecil Burke does.

Some of the world's best cooks are found in the kitchens of America, and they give themselves every cooking advantage, like gas range cooking. Good cooks like Mrs. Burke and nine out of 10 professional chefs agree that precise temperature control makes the difference in good cooking, and with gas you get exactly that. Gas also gives immediate response and constant temperature, so important in oven cooking.

So, give yourself every advantage and cook with gas. Remember, people who cook with pride cook with gas.

Here's one of Mrs. Burke's favorite recipes.

JEWEL CHEESE PUFFS

Mrs. Cecil Burke, 2426 Walnut, Amarillo
2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
2 tablespoons sugar
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 cup butter
1 package (8-oz.) cream cheese
2 eggs, beaten
Preserves or jelly

Sift together dry ingredients. Beat butter and cream cheese until fluffy. Add beaten eggs and beat well. Blend into sifted dry ingredients. Chill dough one hour. On lightly floured board, roll dough 1/4 inch thick. Cut individual rounds with floured biscuit cutter. Make an impression in center of each round with thumb. Fill imprint with preserves or jelly (about 1 teaspoon). Bake on an ungreased baking sheet in moderate gas oven (375 degrees) for 15 minutes or until delicately browned. Serve warm. Makes about 24.

It received its name from the Greek word meaning flame. It ranges in showy colors, but the blooms are never flame colored.

Annuals are grown from seed, but perennials always from stem and root cuttings. The flowers will grow in clusters sometimes two or three feet high.

pictures they must all be of uniform size and quality. An expert children's photographer with all the necessary equipment for this specialized work will be here Saturday, Nov. 21. Pictures will be taken at the Beacon News Office from 9 a. m. to 1 p. m.

No Charge to Parents
There is no charge to the parents. There are absolutely no strings to this invitation. It is bonafide in every sense of the word. Parents do not have to be subscribers, nor even readers of this newspaper to take advantage of this feature. Neither are they obligated to purchase pictures after they are taken. Those who want some additional prints may obtain a limited number by arrangement with the studio representative when they select the pose they want printed in the paper. It is entirely up to them.

The More Pictures The Better

This paper simply wants pictures of all the youngsters and the more the better. So the mothers and fathers of the community in which this paper circulates should remember the date Saturday, Nov. 21, and bring their children to the photographer.

You will be mighty glad afterwards, if you did and very very sorry if you do not permit your children to participate in this event. The kiddies will have fun and both mother and dad and the youngsters too will be very proud to see their pictures in print later.

Appointments may be had by Calling 227-3911.

How Much Should We Give to God?

Does the law of the harvest apply also to what we give to the Lord?

Paul says it does. "He who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and he who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully."

However, it shouldn't be a straight business proposition. Paul tells us, "God loves a cheerful giver." If we give grudgingly, God doesn't want our gifts.

Isn't our willingness to give directly related to our love?

The Tithe

The Old Testament standard was a tithe — 10 per cent. The new Testament statement on this subject is, "Every man according as he purposed in his heart, so let him give."

Recently, in a Texas newspaper, I ran across an item whose author I do not know, but which reveals a truth in an interesting manner. Here it is:

"Now it came to pass that a certain churchman invited a friend to lunch and they went to a popular restaurant. The waiter was very efficient and the food was very good.

"As they rose to depart, the friend observed that his host laid some coins under the edge of the plate. And the waiter, who stood by watching, smiled happily — which, being interpreted, meant that the tip was satisfactory.

"Now, the friend was familiar with this custom called tipping.

Well did he know that the customary tip used to be the same as the Biblical tithe, 10 per cent, but that in these latter days, lo, it had risen to a minimum of 15 per cent and in some cases 20 per cent, lest the waiter turn against you.

"As he meditated upon these coins, it came to this friend that few people honor their God as much as they honor their waiter. Even his churchman friend here would not think of giving unto the waiter less than the tithe, but did he also give as much unto God?

"Whatever I Can Spare"

"Being a good and true friend, he asked him about this matter. 'No, verily,' replied the churchman, 'I give unto God whatsoever I feel inspired to give or whatsoever I think I can spare. In the olden days, I often put into the collection plate a quarter, but nowadays I usually put in a greenback, a dollar, and on rare occasions, even per chance a five-spot. But added together it maketh not the total of the tithe. I know what the Bible saith, but I just cannot afford to tithe these days. Everything costs so much, like the expense of eating out. Even the tip has gone up.'

"'Verily,' mused the friend, 'doth man fear his waiter more than he feareth God? And doth he love his God less than he loveth the waiter? Truly, truly, a man and his money are past understanding.'

BAPTISTS SEEK PICTURES

The First Baptist Church of Sudan is planning to observe their fiftieth anniversary in February and a booklet is being composed featuring former pastors and members. If anyone has addresses, pictures or other items of interest concerning former pastors, members, families of former pastors or members, they are asked to contact Sara Woods, Norma Phillips or Louise Parrish.

Members of the committee stressed the need for such material by November 24 or as soon as possible. They also stated that all pictures and material will be returned.

offices, within a few days. If you are one of that vanishing breed of Texans that still till the soil for a living, you had better pick up a copy and start plowing through this year's tax problems. You may be interested in a copy even though you simply live on a farm, work for wages or a salary, and farm for food, and maybe a little profit. Actually the Farmers Tax Guide is as valuable for the city dweller who owns a farm and does his farming through the windshield of his car as it is for the on-the-farm dweller. The price is right -- it's free.

Presley Rites Held

Funeral services for Tony Ray Presley, 2-month old son of Mr. and Mrs. Donnie Lee Presley, were held Monday afternoon at Dennis Memorial Chapel at Dimmitt with the pastor of the Dimmitt Assembly of God Church, officiating. Burial was in the Castro Memorial Gardens. Among survivors were his parents, two brothers, three sisters, and great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Gumm of Sudan.

DPS ISSUES ACCIDENT REPORT

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated ten accidents on rural highways in Lamb County during the month of October, according to Sergeant Thurman Kaffer, Highway Patrol supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in eight persons injured and an estimated property damage of $14,575.00. The rural accident summary for this county during the first ten months of 1970 shows a total of 92 accidents resulting in four persons killed, 44 persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $87,528.00.

Traffic wise, November and December are noted as dangerous months for pedestrians. During November and December of 1969 in Texas, there were 86 pedestrians killed and 885 injured in collisions with motor vehicles. Some of the attributing factors are: early hours of darkness, bad weather, drinking intoxicating beverages, holidays, and lack of drivers' and pedestrians' attention.

Real success in life is not measured by how many individuals you excel but by how many people you befriend.

Destructive fires took a toll of an estimated 12,100 lives and $2.44 billion in property in the United States in 1969.
