MORE BIG companies are getting into the door-to-door sales business, according to a wire service report we read the other day. Their reasons:

"We were concerned with establishing the best way of getting to and serving customers. We felt this type of shopping was what the consumer wanted in large-ticket, total decorating buying." So said the head of J. C. Penney Co.'s custom decorating division, which has instituted a program in which their 'consultants' sell a complete line of furnishings in the home. "Consultants" is a six-bit word meaning chair-and-table hustler.

One reason the big companies cite as causing the consumer to be more receptive to door-to-door selling is traffic jams and parking problems in suburban shopping areas. "The consumer is fed up with self-service from apathetic clerks," said one man.

Maybe so. But the home still should be a place where a man can relax without being hit by some sales pitch, especially if it's uninvited. One thing this country doesn't need is more door-to-door salesmen.

THE METHODISTS are all in a dither about a course offered at SMU which is supposed to familiarize budding pastors with the seamier side of life by offering sex films and visits to homosexuals to the prospective ministers to understand the situations they will have to deal with in ministering to persons with such problems. The program has been defended by Dr. Joseph Quillian of SMU's Perkins School of Theology.

Not having seen any of the films, I couldn't say too much about the merits of the programs. I wonder if I could get Dr. Quillian to send me a couple of them, strictly so I can write authoritatively on the subject, of course.

JUST SO the Baptists won't feel left out, we notice they're having problems, too, regarding a Sunday School quarterly showing a black boy and two white girls with some kind of supposedly objectionable caption. Anyway, the Baptists aren't likely to get to see it, since the brains of the publishing house at Nashville ordered the quarterlies destroyed.

IT'S GETTING so you can't even go to church without getting into an argument.

SENIOR CITIZENS TO HOLD MEETING

The Sudan Senior Citizens will meet Friday, Nov. 12, at the Community Center with a covered dish luncheon to begin the meeting at noon.

All Senior Citizens are invited to attend and bring a covered dish and remain during the afternoon for games and fellowship.

HOMECOMING SET FOR NOV. 13

Plans for the 1971 homecoming of Sudan High School exes will be finalized tonight, Thursday, when the program committee meets, according to Philip Gordon, president of the Ex-Student Association.

The festivities will get underway at 6 p. m. Nov. 13 when members of the Future Teachers will host a reception during the registration period.

The meal, prepared by the Band Parents organization, will be served at 7 p. m. The price of the meal will be $1.50 per plate.

Classes to be honored this year are the graduates of 1930, 1940, 1950, 1960 and 1970.

BOVINA STOMPS HORNETS, 48-0

In play Friday night the Hornets were defeated by the Bovina Mustangs in District 3-A by a wide margin, 48-0, after building up a three-touchdown lead in the first quarter.

Halfback Jeff McCormick got the first two TD's on runs of six and 10 yards. Quarterback Bill Shelby got another on a 29-yard run. Bobby McMeans converted each time and the Mustangs led, 21-0.

In the third quarter McCormick rambled for 30 yards with McMeans converting and it was 28-0. A 2-yard run by Shelby made it 34-0.

In the fourth quarter, Bovina scored on a blocked punt near the goal line by Larry Wiseman. McMeans added another point.

Gary Edwards was top ball carrier for the Hornets with 58 yards in 15 tries, followed by Roger Bellar with 31 yards in 8 tries. Bo Lance completed one pass to Bellar for 27 yards.

Vega leads the pack with a 5-0 record in district play after downing Happy 22-3 last week. Springlake and Kress have identical records of 4-1 and are the only teams with a shot at catching Vega. Vega can clinch a tie and the playoff spot with a win Friday night. Bovina stands fourth in district, Farwell fifth, Hart sixth, and Happy and Sudan both post a 1-4 record.

The Jr. Varsity team from Sudan blanked the Bovina Mustangs 36-0 on their home field last week.

Mitch Chester executed flawless ball control at QB as the Hornets controlled the ball 64 plays to 31 for Bovina.

Terry Hatch did an excellent job at halfback, as did Richard Tamplin, Pat Hedges, and Curtis Chester.

The offensive interior line, composed of Mart Davison, Rory Manning, Bruce Pierce, Ryan Dale Harvey, Tommy Seymour, and Jimmy Markham, opened gap holes in the Mustang defense and were the keys to the success of the Hornets.

The defense was spearheaded by vicious "gang tackling" as the Hornets shut out their opponents for the third time this year. Pat Hedges, Carroll Legg and Richard Tamplin led the attack.

Hedges scored the first TD for the Hornets in the opening period from the one-yard line. He led the team with rushing honors for 147 yards and also led with 15 tackles.

The Hornets have also outscored their opponents in the last four district games 132-6.

Sudan's Junior Varsity is now in a first place tie for district honors with the Farwell Steers who will meet at Sudan tonight at 6:30.

In the second quarter Hatch went over from the five-yard line with Tamplin carrying the ball for the two-point conversion. Hatch scored again in the second period from the one-yard line and also scored two points for the conversion.

Tamplin scored in the third quarter on an 18-yard run. Try for extras failed.

Hatch tallied again on a 31-yard TD in the fourth quarter with Tamplin going over again for two points.

Fumbles were recovered during the game by Ryan Dale Harvey, one; Curtis Chester, one; David Aills, one.

Mandarin Sauce for Pork

Corn starch is an important ingredient in Chinese cooking. With it, the Chinese achieve the slightly thickened transparent sauces that give delicacy to their dishes and make them lovely to look at as well as delicious to eat.

Mandarin Orange Sauce is such a sauce. The blending of several flavors belonging typically to the Chinese cuisine, go into the making of this gourmet sauce. Allspice, ginger, sesame seed and mandarin in orange segments all contribute to the subtle flavor. The sesame seed add interesting texture contrast, too, and orange segments provide the just right color fillip.

This sauce is especially good with pork or chicken dishes.

Mandarin Orange Sauce

1 (11-ounce) can mandarin orange segments
1 tablespoon corn starch
1/2 cup light corn syrup
1/4 teaspoon ground allspice
1/4 teaspoon ground ginger
1 tablespoon toasted sesame seed
1 tablespoon lemon juice
Drain syrup from orange segments into a small saucepan. Stir in corn starch until smooth. Add corn syrup, allspice, ginger and orange segments. Bring to boil, stirring constantly. Reduce heat and simmer 2 minutes. Remove from heat. Stir in sesame seed and lemon juice. Serve with chicken or pork. Makes about 1 1/2 cups.

MISS NEWSOM FARM BUREAU QUEEN CANDIDATE

Miss Debra Jeanette Newsom of Hockley County will represent District 2 in the state finals of the 1971 Texas Farm Bureau Queen Contest to be held on the evening of Monday, Nov. 15, in Amarillo. Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Newsom of Smyer, Miss Newsom was selected to represent this area in a recent district elimination.

The District 2 nominee will compete with 12 other district winners at the state contest which will be held in conjunction with the 38th annual meeting of the Texas Farm Bureau. The state winner will receive expenses for herself and matron escort to attend the American Farm Bureau Federation convention in December in Chicago.

The 16-year-old Miss Newsom, a junior at Smyer High School, has brown hair and blue eyes and is 5'3".

Miss Newsom's school activities include basketball and Future Homemakers of America. She is also active in church work. She is a member of the National Honor Society. Her hobbies are cooking, sewing, and decoupage. She plans to attend South Plains College and then wants to be an airline stewardess.

Did You Know...

New York — (HK) — Someone, somewhere in the United States is injured as a result of a home accident every eight seconds of the day! The Council on Family Health, sponsored by the manufacturers of medicines, says one prime reason for the high incidence of home accidents is the failure of consumers to read labels. If you don't want that someone, somewhere to be you, the Council says always read labels and follow the directions they provide.

Danger in Our Schools

Teaching school is twice as dangerous as working in a steel mill, according to a report of the American School Board Journal. School crime doubled, in most categories, in a recent four-year period — from 1964 to 1968. During this time, assaults on teachers increased by 1,700 per cent. The situation is continuing to deteriorate.

Last year, every public school in Providence, R.I., was closed for several days because of disturbances among students. The same thing happened in Trenton, N. J.

The Syracuse University Research Corporation conducted a survey of nearly 700 urban high schools and reported that 85 per cent of the schools had suffered some type of disruption.

A new report entitled, "Vandalism and Violence — Innovative Strategies Reduce Costs to Schools," prepared by the editors of Education USA, a weekly newsletter published by the National School Public Relations Association, expresses the conclusion that the situation in our schools is "a national dilemma."

What is Cause?

What has caused the present deplorable situation in our schools? And what is the cure?

Dr. Norman Vincent Peale says that the lack of discipline among students should not be blamed basically on the young people, but on their parents.

"For a couple of generations," he said, "the Dr. Spock baby plan has been used on our youngsters: 'Feed 'em whatever they want, don't let them cry; instant gratification of needs.' And now Spock is out in the mob leading the permissive babies raised on his undisciplined teaching."

Governor Jack Williams of Arizona, speaking at a meeting of the Arizona Breakfast Club, said that many of our nation's problems are a consequence of a lack of religious, moral, and ethical teachings in our homes and schools.

"Once upon a time," he reminded his listeners, "McGuffey's Readers formed the seed-bed for young minds to grow in — and they emphasized religion, morality, and ethics."

Children need and must have guidance on moral issues. They must be trained to exercise self-discipline, as well as being taught to respond co-operatively to reasonable discipline by teachers and others in authority.

"Most Damaging"

Ann Landers has said, "In my opinion, the theory of permissive upbringing is the most damaging concept ever latched onto by a generation of spoiled brats. . . . What the vast majority of American children need is an end of being pampered, of being indulged. . . . The key word is discipline — and discipline should begin when the child is in the cradle."

"Parents who genuinely love their children," she added, "will teach and direct them, not just satisfy their every whim."

This advice is right on target. It says what the Bible has been saying all along, while misled parents and educators have been following Spock instead of the Book.

"Withhold not correction from the child," says the Bible. "A child left to himself bringeth his mother to shame. . . . Correct thy son, and he shall give thee rest. Yea, he shall give delight unto thy soul."

Both the home and the school must teach proper discipline and respect for authority if our civilization is to be saved from internal destruction.

Alliance of Harmony

"We all must work toward the establishment of ideals but it should be done within the governmental framework set up for change. The overthrow of that framework only leads to authoritarian action," he went on, "and that is an atmosphere where the American Dream cannot flourish. . . . What we need now is an alliance of harmony between our people."

Albert Einstein expressed this need for cooperation in these words: "A hundred times every day, I remind myself that my inner and outer life depends on the labors of other men, living and dead, and that I must exert myself in order to give in the same measure as I have received."

Bridge over troubled waters.

It's easy to forget that emergencies do happen. And when there is a crisis, you'll need a nest egg to fall back on.

The Payroll Savings Plan is one of the easiest ways to make sure you've something saved for when you need money fast. When you participate in the Payroll Savings Plan where you work, an amount you designate will be set aside from each paycheck and invested in U.S. Savings Bonds. It's an effortless way to build up a reserve.

And now there's a bonus interest rate on all U.S. Savings Bonds — for E Bonds, 5 1/2% when held to maturity of 5 years, 10 months (4% the first year). That extra 1/2%, payable as a bonus at maturity, applies to all Bonds issued since June 1, 1970 . . . with a comparable improvement for all older Bonds. Let's hope there are no troubled waters in your future. But remember, emergencies don't always happen to the other guys.

Metropolis Berlin Is Scenic, Too

Because West Berlin is a highly industrialized metropolis, not many people realize that it also abounds in all the scenic attractions that anyone could desire, including many quiet and picturesque corners such as the one above in the Kolk section of the Berlin borough of Spandau. For instance, did you know that one-third of Berlin's total area of 186 sq. miles consists of parks, woods and forests, lakes and rivers? Add the 16% of land under agricultural use, and the open areas total 49%, against only 37% that are built-up portions.

All visitors like to explore portions of Berlin's 8,000 acres of parkland: more than one million trees and shrubs have been replanted since 1945 in Tiergarten Park alone; but equally worth a visit — and a palette? — are Tegel Park with its neo-classic Humboldt Castle, Schlosspark which contains the famous Charlottenburg Castle, Kleinglienicke Park that affords fine vistas on the Havel River, Jungfernheide Park which has an open-air theatre, and Rehberge Park with its deer sanctuary.

If water is preferred, Berlin has Lake Wannsee, with its half-mile of beachfront that makes it Europe's largest inland bathing spot; Lake Tegel, where the beaches are flanked by aromatic pine forests; and the shores of the 10-mile Havel River that links Wannsee and Tegel. Cruise steamers, sailboats, rowboats, outboard runabouts and canoes add color and gaiety to these scenic pleasure spots in Germany's largest industrial center.

Pancakes For Slumber Party Brunch

When your daughter's friends gather for a slumber party, plan something different for breakfast. Let Peaches 'n Cream Pancakes take a starring role. Especially designed for feminine tastes, these pancakes also contain important nutrients. Complete pancake mix is made from flour enriched with B-vitamins and iron, and eggs and milk are already in the mix. You add only water.

The light, tender pancakes are layered with vanilla pudding and sliced peaches for yummy flavor. The pancakes are so easy that the young hostess can prepare them herself; for special party fun she can decorate individual servings with guests' names.

PEACHES 'N CREAM PANCAKES

Makes 6 servings

- Pancakes: 2 cups complete pancake mix, 1 1/2 cups water
- Frosting: One 18 oz. can vanilla pudding
- One 16-oz. can sliced peaches, drained
- One 1 1/8-oz. tube colored glossy decorating gel

For pancakes, place mix and water in bowl. Stir lightly until batter is fairly smooth. For each pancake, pour batter onto hot, lightly greased griddle. Turn pancakes when edges look cooked. Turn only once.

Frost 2 pancakes with vanilla pudding. Place one on serving plate and top with about 3 peach slices. Cover with second pancake, frosted side up. Print name with decorating gel on top. Repeat for remaining pancakes.

Life from God

The Creation

In the beginning
 For God so loved
 God created the heavens and the earth
 The world
 And the earth was so void
 That He gave His only Son
 In the beginning was the Word
 That whosoever believeth
 In Him
 Should not perish
 In the deep
 But have everlasting life.
 For the Word was with God
 And the Word was God
 And the Spirit of God moved
 For in Him was Life
 And God said, "Let there be light"
 And that life is the light of men.

Life

God gave the world His first life, and breathed into mankind His "breath of life." Jesus, as the Word of God, performed this creation. But after man, through sin, destroyed his pure life and began to die, Jesus gave Himself in death to recreate life for us — eternal life.

All life began with God. And all life, physical and spiritual, still depends on God.

"Because he lives, I too shall live."

What A Yarn!

One of the lightest and strongest spin-offs from space research is Union Carbide's graphite yarn that is now being used to produce prototypes of what may be the world's lightest (2.6 lb.) and first computerized golf club. The shaft of the club, which is a product of Shakespear Company, is made with Thorne graphite yarn. The yarn has a tensile strength of 400,000 pounds per square inch.

Government originally came about for the purpose of preserving order, according to Pennsylvania State Senator Richard A. Snyder. "Now, in a western society which depends more on government than ever before," he said, "we have less and less protection for the public's life and property."

The 1960-1970 period was one of unbroken rise in all phases of crime. Violent offenses were up 126 per cent in the decade.

Quick And Tasty Recipes Help Dad At Cooking

When it's Mom's night out and Dad has to provide nourishment for several hungry mouths (including his own), he frequently has to run down to the local fast food franchise for a bucket of chicken, heat up the leftovers from the night before or fall back on the standard meal in a hurry — hot dogs.

But now, from the Ann McGregor kitchens of Amana Refrigeration, Inc., come these tasty dinner recipes to help Dad become a popular and imaginative chef in just minutes. They can be prepared on a conventional stove or in super-quick fashion with an Amana Radarange® Microwave Oven.

On bridge night, Dad simply combines tomato soup, pimientos, mushrooms, olives and hard cooked eggs for a nourishing "Bonus Supper", a casserole delight which can be served on toasted hamburger buns.

The evening of the Women's League Bowling Tournament might be the perfect occasion for Dad's "Coney Islands" and its abundant serving possibilities can result in a treat for all the youngsters on the block. Canned meats, lunch meat or cold ham is combined with onions, green pepper, cheese and tomato paste. The mixture is then spread on toasted hot dog buns.

If Dad is using Amana's Radarange microwave oven, he is bound to appreciate, as substitute cook, the minimal clean-up time. Pots and pans become a thing of the past, because disposable paper and plastic cookware are used in microwave cooking.

When the inevitable "leftover" meals arrive, Dad can still win favor with the youngsters since Sunday's roast retains its full flavor when reheated in the Radarange oven.

The following recipes are offered with both Radarange microwave oven and conventional cooking times.

BONUS SUPPER

- 2 (10 3/4 oz.) cans tomato soup
- 2 tbsp. chopped pimientos
- 1/4 cup chopped ripe olives
- 1 (4 oz.) can sliced mushrooms
- 1/2 tsp. salt
- 8 hard-cooked eggs, sliced
- 8 hamburger buns, halved and toasted

Combine tomato soup, pimientos, olives and mushrooms in casserole dish. Heat in Radarange oven until almost boiling — about 3-3 1/2 minutes. Conventional cooking time requires 20 minutes over a medium heat. Arrange slices of 1 egg on each bun half. Sprinkle eggs with salt. Pour sauce over eggs and serve at once. Yield: 6 to 8 servings.

ONEY ISLANDS

- 1 can solid lunch meat or cold ham
- 1 onion
- Green pepper (optional)
- 1/2 lb. processed cheese
- 1 can (6 oz.) tomato paste
- 16 hot dog buns

buns. Wrap Coney Islands separately in wax paper and twist ends. Heat in Radarange, 30 seconds for one, 1 minute for two, 1 1/2 minute 45 seconds for four.

For conventional cooking, heat cheese and tomato paste over a low flame, stirring frequently. Add ground meat. Overall cooking time: 15 minutes. Spread the hot mixture generously on split, heated buns and serve.

Yield: 16 generous servings. Any leftover sauce can be frozen for future use.

SWPS Opens New Plant

Clifford B. Jones Station, the newest electric generating facility on the Southwestern Public Service Company's system, will be dedicated at ceremonies to be held at 11 a. m. on Saturday, Nov. 6. The plant is located southeast of Lubbock on Farm Road 3020, just west of the Buffalo Springs Lake Road. Following the dedication ceremonies, the plant will be open to the public for two days, with the visiting hours on Saturday being 11 to 7 p. m. and on Sunday from 1 p. m. to 7 p. m.

Dr. Clifford B. Jones, President-Emeritus of Texas Tech University and a director of Southwestern Public Service Company for more than a quarter-century, will dedicate the new facility. The response to Dr. Jones' dedicatory remarks will be made by Roy Tolk, president of Southwestern Public Service Company. The Rev. J. M. Washington, rector of St. Paul's-on-the-Plains Episcopal Church, will offer the invocation.

The new generating facility has a first unit capability of 256,000 kilowatts. This machine is the largest single unit of the same size, scheduled to be in service in 1974. When the second unit does go on the line three years from now, Jones Station will be the largest of the 11 major generating stations on the Southwestern system.

The turbine control system at the new station is the first of its type in the world. The result of cooperation in research and development between Westinghouse Electric Corporation, the manufacturer of the turbine, and Southwestern, the system utilizes a digital computer and data recording devices to bring the turbine on the line and control it while in operation. Peter

G. Botsonis, a supervisory engineer for Southwestern and a 1958 Texas Tech graduate, played a major role in the development of the control system.

The new facility uses treated sewage effluent, purchased from the City of Lubbock, as its cooling water. In addition, it has equipment which makes it possible to use sewage effluent for the boiler water for test periods of operation.

The sewage effluent is also used for irrigation purposes after it has left the plant system.

The use of the reclaimed water at Jones Station and at Nichols Station on the North Plains results in a daily saving of fresh water which is sufficient to meet the needs of a city of 25,000 people.

The generating capability of

Jones Station will be controlled by an automatic dispatching system, which regulates the production of all of Southwestern's major generation facilities. The automatic dispatching system knows which generators do their work the most efficiently and the cost of fuel, is taken into consideration. So, the ADS loads up those generators which are most efficient first, and conversely, takes the load off those machines which are least efficient first. The result is that, under any given conditions of electric load - maximum - average - minimum - the electric company is working to provide its customers with the most efficient - and economical - electricity that it can produce.

The plant has a central information system which takes nearly 500 different readings every minute, records them and calculates their meaning insofar as the plant's efficiency is concerned.

Jones Station is located on a 320 acre tract which was formerly part of the V-8 Ranch. It has been under construction for about 36 months and has provided more than $5,000,000 in payroll and local purchases for the area economy.

The design, engineering and construction supervision was done by Southwestern Public Service Company's own engineering department, under the direction of H. O. Hodson and E. W. Robinson, vice presidents. Missouri Valley Constructors, Inc., of Amarillo, was the mechanical and structural contractor and Budwine Service Electric Company, Carlsbad, N.M., was the electrical contractor.

J. B. Bottoms was resident engineer for Southwestern Public Service Company during construction of the new unit, and Floyd Starks is the plant manager. Bottoms will also serve as resident engineer for construction of the second unit.

An aerial view of Southwestern Public Service Company's Jones Station, southeast of Lubbock. Named for Dr. Clifford B. Jones, president-emeritus of Texas Tech and a Southwestern director for more than a quarter-century, the new plant will be dedicated at 11 a.m. on Saturday, November 6. It will be open to visitors from 11 until 7 on Saturday and from 1 until 7 on Sunday, November 7.

CREATIVE CRAFT IDEAS

Beautiful Batik

Batik is a Javanese word for a method of applying designs to fabric. It requires the use of wax and fabric dye, fabric, a brush and a little time. The results of batik design on fabric are lovely and often unusual. A finished batik has many uses. Wear it as a scarf, make it into a pillow, an apron, a blouse, or frame it.

When making a batik, melted wax is painted onto fabric. When the wax hardens, the fabric is dipped into a dye solution. The waxed areas resist the dye so that dye is absorbed only on the unwaxed portions. Waxing and dyeing is repeated several times to obtain the final, colorful design. The cracked, cobweb effect so characteristic of batik is formed when dye seeps through cracks in the wax. Wax is removed on a finished batik by ironing fabric placed between layers of absorbent paper.

Prepare the first dye solution while wax is hardening, starting with the lightest color. In a rectangular pan with deep sides, mix 1/2 cup liquid or dissolve 1 package powder all purpose Rit dye in 1 quart warm tap water. Add waxed fabric to dye and stir gently for about 5 to 10 minutes or longer for deeper colors. Remove fabric, rinse in cool water and hang to dry. Then paint on more wax to protect areas that are to remain the previous dyed color. Continue dyeing and waxing steps until all colors are added. Rinse, dry and remove wax.

The first step in batik is to plan the design and colors to be used. Choose colors that will blend well. Dyes are transparent and one color dyed over another will create a third: Scarlet over yellow gives dark orange, fuchsia over royal blue makes green. If you are not sure how a particular color combination will work, experiment first on a small piece of fabric.

Select white or lightly colored fabric with a close, tight weave that is washable and dyeable. Wash, dry and iron smooth. Place fabric over a layer of foil or waxed paper, stretch taut and secure with push pins or thumb tacks to a board. Melt paraffin in a double boiler, never over a direct flame as paraffin is flammable. With an inexpensive bristle brush, paint wax over areas that are to remain the original fabric color.

Basketball

The Sudan girls 7th, 8th, and Junior Varsity teams coached by Mitzi Trussell journeyed to Littlefield Monday afternoon where the first of the 1971-72 basketball season scrimmage began at 4:30 p. m.

The 7th grade from Sudan won by a score of 34-10. The 8th grade team also posted a win with a final score of 30-25. They led at halftime 20-8 and also going into the final period of play 26-14.

Mary Ann Bellar netted 12 points for top scoring honors in the Junior Varsity game but Sudan tasted defeat by one point, 31-30. Littlefield took an early lead and was ahead 9-5 going into the second quarter. They led 17-6 at halftime. On the first play after half, the Junior Varsity Hornets went ahead on a basket by Mary Ann Bellar, only to have Littlefield to regain the lead on the next play.

With six minutes remaining to play the Sudan team led again 27-23. However, the Wildcats again tied the game with 2 1/2 minutes remaining and went ahead with 55 seconds left on the clock. They went into a stall and won 31-30.

Donna Provence scored eight points for second top scorer for Sudan.

In the Junior Varsity and Varsity scrimmages at Amherst Tuesday afternoon, the Sudan teams were defeated.

The Varsity and Junior Varsity teams will meet the Pep girls there Monday at 8 p. m. in their first game of the season.

Foundation Finds:

Motorists Ignore Seat Belts

Cleveland—(HK)—Although they have spent more than a billion dollars on seat belts, more than two-thirds of all motorists and passengers don't use them, says the Highway Safety Foundation.

And, says Richard D. Wayman, president and founder of HSF, the driver can help change this.

"Our studies show that when a driver buckles up, he influences his passengers to do so," Wayman said. "In fact, when drivers use restraints, 66 percent of right front seat passengers use them, too."

In support of a proposed Ohio law to make use of seat belts mandatory, HSF investigated 4,571 accidents involving 12,797 passengers. Among the findings were that the chances of being killed in a traffic accident are more than five times greater when seat belts aren't worn, and the chances of being seriously injured double.

SCIENTIFIC TECHNIQUES

HSF has been conducting its unique in-depth accident investigation program since 1967. Teams of specialists are sent to investigate accidents at the scene, employing the most advanced scientific techniques to determine their causes.

Within a few years, HSF expects to have enough scientific information on accident causes to present comprehensive recommendations to Congress and state legislatures. To expand its research, the foundation is initiating a nationwide fund-raising campaign. Gifts may be sent to the Highway Safety Foundation, Box 5900, Cleveland, Ohio.

The Make Yourself Over Clinic

BY DOLLY REED WAGEMAN

Q: The new black velvet looks great but it makes me look a jillion Help!

A: You'll need a real rosy tone on cheekbones — brighter than normal — and a more positive lipcolor too. Try one of the new true reds, but be careful not to get one that turns blue on you. For eye makeup, add peary highlights all around the eye area, and especially at outside corners. If you still don't like the look of black next to your face, put a splash of white in between — a white satin as cottie would be delicious, or ropes of creamy pearls.

Q: Anything new in boots?

A: Variety is the thing. Don't have 6 pairs of knee-length boots for instance. They're great for minis and hotpants, but for long pants you'll need at least one pair of short boots which just cover the ankle bone. With long skirts, try a slightly longer lace-up boot for a pretty costume look.

Q: Evening gowns are a problem because my arms are so flabby, and I think sleeves or stoles are awful. What can I do?

A: Even the best-held stole slips once in a while, and this season even long-sleeved gowns are filmy... so your best bet is to exercise, as I explain in my book. Kneel facing a chair, place hands on chair seat, fingertips to fingertips. Using your arms only, lower your body weight until your chin touches chair seat, then push up until your elbows are straight. Do 3 times. Learn about exercise as well as the latest in make-up, fashion, and a wonderful never-gone-hungry diet based on Slender diet food from Carnation. It's all in my book, "The 6-Week Make Yourself Over Plan." At paperback counters, or send name and address: plus $1.00 to New American Library, P.O. Box 999, Berkeley, N.J. 07621.

NEEDED: A CUTOFF

TIME FOR A NEW LABOR LAW

The Administration's wage-price freeze dramatically illustrated the need for a reform of the nation's labor relations law, which is an inflationary force because of the preponderance of power it gives to labor unions.

Whether almost commonplace twenty and thirty percent wage settlement packages have been the symptom or the cause of a sick economy can be debated, but it cannot be denied that they happened. Business seemed helpless to do anything but accept the big wages and raise prices. Meanwhile, foreign countries, without strict pollution controls and relatively lower living standards for their workers, were taking over the American markets in product after product.

Hopefully, free economic competition conducted with a rulebook that is fair to all will come soon. Meanwhile, Congress should initiate legislation to provide a more equitable balance in the collective bargaining process.

A Floridian turns used aluminum beverage cans into miniature spotlights suitable for lighting prized paintings, antiques and trophies.

Our country existed almost 200 years before the Federal budget totaled $100 billion. It took only nine more years to reach $200 billion.

Does the word "aluminum" on the top mean the whole can is aluminum?
No. Only those that read "all-aluminum." Virtually all beverage cans use aluminum tops to provide the tear-tab feature.

There's ever walking side by side
To be accepted or denied,
A right or wrong that fills each day,
That never fails to come our way.
A task that we're to live, to do,
Is making choice between the two
We find it's one continuous fight,
To always stand for what is right.
