WOODWORK

BY DALTON

LAST WEEKEND I attended some of the sessions of the annual midwinter meeting of Texas Press Assn. in Fort Worth, breaking a resolution I made several years ago to never again have anything to do with them after I didn't win anything when I entered one of their column-writing contests.

That was the year I sent in some columns which had appeared in the Sudan Beacon-News and Amherst Press and although I modestly didn't say so, I had a feeling deep inside that I might win first place in that division.

However, I didn't win first place. I also didn't win second place, or third or fourth place. Or honorable mention. And later, when they published their list of judges' criticisms of all entries received, my entry wasn't even on that list. Those three columns I sent in that year have been the worst entries the TPA ever received. And I guess they don't give an award for that.

Anyway, despite my boycott, the TPA struggled through, and this year I decided to take them off the hook and attend one of their conventions. And one breakfast session, at which four congressmen were the main attraction, was the highlight of the time I was there.

These four who appeared spoke briefly, and then answered questions from newspapermen present, were Jim Collins of Dallas, Bob Casey of Houston (or somewhere down there), Jim Wright of Fort Worth, and Graham Purcell, who I think is from Wichita Falls. They convinced me of one thing: People who get elected to the U. S. House of Representatives from the State of Texas are pretty sharp cookies. The way they phrased some of their statements so that one could understand their exact meaning, yet not be overtly offensive, was beautiful. All four were quite eloquent, amiable when challenged on some statement, and eager to debate a point without being nettled by opposition. Frankly, I was impressed, and came away convinced that any of the four would make a great after-dinner speaker.

L.D. Fox Rites Held

Cagers Win Tournament

The seventh and eighth grade teams came home Saturday evening with three first place trophies out of a possible four from the Shallowater tournament. Both girls teams won the championships in their divisions with the eighth grade boys losing their final game to Petersburg.

In the opening round, the seventh grade girls downed Shallowater 39-13 after leaping ahead in the first period and leading 22-3 at the half. They met Anton Friday and walked over them 45-6 after again leading 14-0 at the end of the first period. They defeated Petersburg 27-17 Saturday to win the trophy.

Following a lengthy illness, she is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Tommy Seymore of Sudan, Mrs. Marvin Drake of Bula, and Mrs. Lloyd Pryor of Amherst; three sons, D. B. of Levelland, Bernis of Muleshoe and Joe of Clovis; a sister, Lillian Barnett of Ballinger; 16 grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren.

Grandsons were pallbearers.

Kay Tamplin was high point for Sudan with 13, 18 and 12 for game scores. Pam Davison, Linda Moore, Sheryl Black, Norma Salazar also scored for Sudan.

The eighth grade girls began tournament play in a quiet game against Shallowater but came behind a 4-3 half time deficit to score four points in the final period to win 8-4. In the second game with Angon Sudan scored 11 points in the first half to lead 11-6. They added 16 more points in the second half to win 27-10. Sudan was named trophy winner after downing the Petersburg fems Saturday 23-10 following a 14-2 halftime lead. Principal scorers for Sudan were Linda Edwards, Joan Hedges, Ivory Tamplin and Cheryl Phillips.

The seventh grade boys began by defeating Shallowater 25-19 after a slow start. Next they emerged winners of a close 28-27 game with Anton. Petersburg was ahead 11-9 at the half in the final game but Sudan scored

MARY ANGELA KING Couple Sates Wedding Date

Mr. and Mrs. U. J. King of Lubbock announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Mary Angela, to Terry Mike Evin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Evin of Fieldton, locality of Star Route, Sudan.

The couple plans a June 30 wedding.

Couple Pledges Double Ring Vows

MR. AND MRS. STEPHEN DALE SMITH

Jan Gromowsky and Stephen Dale Smith were united in marriage Saturday, Jan. 8. Vows for the double ring ceremony were read at the Bovina Church of Christ with Cecil Bunch officiating.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. William Gromowsky of Bovina and Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Smith of Sudan.

A picturesque atmosphere of a quaint Polish ceremony created an illusion of nature's harvest garden. The betrothed couple exchanged vows beneath a canopy of flowing aged linen and white candelabras of burnt orange illuminated the candlelight ceremony. Bouquets of dried pampas grass and orange ribbon flanked the canopy. The lane was entwined with bows of ribbon, and glowing votive candles completed the rustic theme.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length gown of white organza with full sleeves attached to deep cuffs. The high neckline, cuffs and front of the gown were enhanced with bands of Venice lace underscored with satin ribbon. Her headpiece was caplet accented with roses, attached to her elbow-length veil of illusion. Her bouquet was a hogarth arrangement of roses, satin in love knots tied with orange streamers and centered with a japette orchid. For something old the bride placed pennies in her shoes minted in the year of her birth and the groom's. A gold watch, a gift from the groom to the bride, was something new. The wedding dress was borrowed from Mrs. Randy Barrett and the blue garter was given to the bride by her dorm mother, Mrs. Crystal Moss.

Attired in feminine old fashioned gowns were Terri Gerik of Pep, as maid of honor, and Kathy Rice of Sudan and Jyl Gromowsky, sister of the bride, as bridesmaids. The beige homespun gowns were designed with square necklines, full bishop sleeves, and an empire bodice outlined with aprons of soft orange voile. Calico braid edged the neckline, cuffs, and apron. The attendants wore circ-lets of baby's breath and carried bouquets of dried field flowers tied with orange streamers. Gowns for the attendants, their bouquets, church and reception decorations were designed and created by Mrs. Janet Woodard, friend of the bride.

Serving as bestman was Johnny King of Sudan with Damon Provenance of Sudan and Mike Smith of Houston, brother of the groom, serving as groomsmen. Ushers attending the occasion were Widdy Gromowsky, brother of the bride, Bob Smith of Lubbock brother of the groom, and Steve Edwards of Sudan. The boutonniere were also fashioned from the dried flowers.

Bob Linville of Clovis, sang "Somewhere My Love", and "Where do I Begin", preceding the ceremony. As the bride was escorted down the aisle by her father, "Because", was sung by Orchid Hunton also of Clovis. Following the vows Mrs. Hunton sang "The Lord's Prayer". The duo sang "Go With God", providing the recessional.

Carrying a straw basket of dried field flowers and wearing a miniature of the bridesmaid gowns was flowergirl Shamel Woodard. Shayne Woodard carried the rings for the bride and groom. Lighting the candles were the bride's twin cousins, Michael and Stephen Rury of Clovis.

Guests were registered by Mrs. Ronny Dyer as Shea Woodard gave thanks you scrolls to each guest.

Orange ribbon and bows led the way to the reception where guests were received by Mr. and Mrs. Smith. The bride's table was laid with a scalloped satin cloth atop a net skirt with orange bow accents. Flowers of harvest colors decorated the Ectorian cake. Punch was served from a crystal bowl resting on a gold lease. Gold and crystal appointments completed the table setting.

Cherub scenes on an ecru cloth covered the bridegroom's table. Chocolate cake squares, spiced tea, and coffee were served from silver appointments.

An orchid corsage lifted from the bridal bouquet completed a threesome navy blue and orange past suit chosen by the bride for her wedding trip to Old Mexico. Following the trip Mr. and Mrs. Smith are at home in Sudan where the groom is engaged in farming. Both the bride and groom attended South Plains College, Levelland, where the bride will graduate in May with a degree in Fashion Merchandising.

An informal bridal shower honoring Mrs. Steve Smith, the former Jan Gromowsky, was held Saturday, Jan. 22, in the home of Mrs. James Wallace.

Refreshments of cookies and coffee were served from silver and crystal appointments. Presiding at the serving table was Mrs. Jackie Markham.

Hostesses alternated registering guests.

The hostesses' gift included a vacuum cleaner and pillows.

Special guests other than the bride were her mother, Mrs. William Gromowsky of Bovina, and the groom's mother, Mrs. F. M. Smith.

Hostesses included Mesdames Calvin Baker, W. B. Boyles, J. E. Dryden, Byron Ford, Keith Glover, W. R. Jones, Jr., Tom King, Jr., R. A. Laace, Frank Lane, Joe B. Markham, Adrian Martin, Bill Nix, Matt Nix, Olin Nix, J. W. Olds, H. H. Potter, Ves Terry, James H. Wallace, Audrey West, Wayne Whiteaker, and Ray Wood.

DEANS HONOR LIST

Juanita Louise Williamson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Williamson, was among the 410 students in the College of Home Economics at Texas Tech University who qualified for the dean's honor list for the fall semester, according to Interim Dean Donald S. Longworth.

To qualify for the honor list, a student must be enrolled in 12 semester hours of courses, excluding pass-fail courses, and have at least a 3.0 grade point average. Texas Tech uses a 4.0 point grading system.

Billy Gore, Deborah Fields, Kathy Rice, and Harvey Willeby of Sudan are among the students named to the Dean's Honor List for the fall semester at South Plains College, according to Academic Dean Nathan Tubb.

To be eligible for the Dean's Honor List, a student must carry at least 12 hours and make a grade point average of 3.25 or above.

South Plains College uses a 4.0 grading system.

Rex Boyles and Sharon Wilson of Sudan are among 1200 scholarship recipients for the 1971-72 school year at Abilene Christian College.

Boyles is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Boyles, Rt. 1, Sudan. A 1970 graduate of Sudan High School, he is a sophomore communications major at ACC. He has also been a member of the dean's honor roll for two semesters.

Miss Wilson, a 1970 graduate of Sudan High School, is a sophomore music major at ACC. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Wilson, Box 418, Sudan. She is a member of the ACC Big Purple band, class senator, Ko Jo Kai women's social club, and has been a member of the dean's BASKETBALL.....

15 points in the last half to win 24-21. Jerry Williams and Kyle Martin were outstanding shooters for Sudan.

The eighth grade boys began the tournament with a loss to Shallowater 26-19 after leading 6-2 at the end of the first period. Shallowater scored 11 points in the second quarter to gain the lead which they maintained until the final whistle. Sudan came back Friday to win a battle, 31-27, over Anton. Saturday, Sudan fell behind in the opening quarter, 10-2, and was unable to overtake the Petersburg team. Danny Williams, Phil Kent, Joey Huerta, Monte Glover, Tony Lopez, Freddy Legg, Brian May scored for Sudan.

Monday night the Junior teams went to Springlake where the girls won their games and the boys going down in defeat.

The seventh grade girls won by a slim margin, 20-18, after carrying a 9-4 halftime lead. Kay Tamplin and Elizabeth Jefferson scored 9 and 7 points each.

The eighth grade girls poured in 15 points during the first half to win 26-17 over Springlake. Leading the scoring for Sudan was Joan Hedges with 16 points.

Brad Pierce and Jerry Williams led the scoring for the seventh grade boys with 11 and 10 points but were unable to capture the lead from Springlake who won the game 35-31. The eighth grade boys began the game in the right direction by leading 6-2 at the end of the first period. However, Springlake hit for 11 points in the second quarter to lead 13-9 at the half, then outscored the Sudan boys by three points in the second half to win 26-19.

The junior high teams will host the Farwell teams here Monday, Jan. 31.

In Varsity play, the Hornets were edged 51-49 by Hart Tuesday night in an overtime bout. The score was tied 44-44 at the end of regulation play. The overtime period was mainly a fouling time as 16 fouls were called during this time. Sudan capitalized on 5 of 8 of these but were unable to score from the floor. Hart made 3 of 5 of the free shots but managed to get in two hits from the floor. Tanya Chester led the scoring for Sudan with 20 points followed by Georgia Ray with 14, Cecie Bandy with 11 and Deanna Phillips with 4.

The Hornets lost their second game of the week 55-47 to Hart although they were tied at the honor roll for four semesters. Scholarships are awarded on a basis of academic achievement, ability, character and need.

beginning of the second period and trailed by four at the half. Hart added a big 20 points in the final period to cinch the game. Eugene Lopez was top scorer for Sudan with Bo Lance and Mark Hama getting 10 points each.

The varsity teams and the girls junior varsity hosted teams from Vega Friday night when all three home teams were downed by the invaders.

The junior varsity girls lost 47-34 after Vega took a 23-11 halftime lead. Mary Ann Bellar had 17 points and Phyllis Kay, 13, to pace the scoring for Sudan. The varsity girls lagged from the very opening of the game and trailed 10-38 at the half. The Vega girls added 24 points to claim a 62-18 victory. Tanya Chester had 9 points for Sudan to lead the Hornets.

The varsity boys, fared only slightly better against the mighty Vega team as they were downed 50-37 although the Hornets led throughout the first half. Vega scored 35 points in the second half to hand the Hornets the district loss. Vega leads in district play for both boys and girls.

The varsity teams and junior varsity girls will host teams from from Happy Friday, Jan. 28, and will go to Bovina on Feb. 1.

Playing inspired basketball in the 4th quarter, the junior varsity boys came from behind to nip the Dimmitt "Sophomores" 54-53. Dimmitt had previously defeated the Hornets twice in a row and was well on their way to a third victory. The Bobcats led 49-34 going into the fourth quarter but the last stanza was Sudan's as they outscored the Bobcats 20-4.

Sudan trailed throughout until 23 seconds left when Richard Tamplin rebounded a missed free throw and scored to give the Hornets a 54-53 victory.

Tamplin netted 27 points and 22 rebounds for the game. Roby had 8, Pat Hedges 6, Kevin May 4, Carroll Legg 3, and Curtis Chester, Rory Manning and Terry Graves 2 each.

The J.V.'s won their seventh game of the year Tuesday in a 60-33 romp over Hart. Sudan led by only one at the half, 18-17, and even trailed the Longhorns for a short time in the third quarter. However, the Hornets did get their momentum going in the third quarter as they "clicked" for 24 tallies.

Tamplin took game honors with 32 points, Roby Lynn 10, Rory Manning, Terry Graves, and Pat Hedges 4 each, Carroll Legg 3, Kevin May 2, and Craig Harper 1.

The junior varsity will play their next game at Bovina at 5 p.m. Tuesday.

Only 21 per cent of the people live in communities where there are enough litter containers.

"ALL TIED UP"

"All tied up" usually suggests that one's movements are restricted.

But to us, "all tied up" means good things. For example, this year we'll complete building a transmission line that will enable us to move electric power to the Public Service Company of Oklahoma... maybe even as far away as the East Coast. Or, to bring electric power into our system from far-away places.

Either way, it's a good deal for you — our customer. It means efficiency in the distribution of electric power and it means firming up dependability.
