THE WAY THAT jokes circulate is amazing. The Aggie joke which is newest already is so old I'm sick of it, and I'm not an Aggie. That's the one about the Aggie who won the gold medal at the Olympics and was so proud of it he had it bronzed. We've heard it several times in the last week; I read it in a column in an Oklahoma newspaper. Some Aborigine in Australia probably is telling it now.

It is a mystery how things like that are circulated so rapidly. Dirty jokes, unfortunately, have a way of traveling even faster. And they did this even back in the days when magazines, newspapers and television didn't carry obscenity.

EVERYBODY who drives, and that's just about everybody, wants to travel on the best highways possible and they figure they've got it coming because of the highway taxes they are paying. Well, we're all likely to be paying more of those highway taxes soon, if the Texas Good Roads Assn. and Texas Highway Commission have their way.

Anytime you get something good (in a material sense) you have to pay for it, and frankly, we have mixed emotions about the idea of paying two more cents per gallon for gas so we may get better highways (and even paying that extra two cents per gallon won't guarantee that every highway will be smooth and wide).

The TGRA newsletter for September says this:

"When Missouri and Hawaii went up to seven cents a gallon, that left Texas alone at five cents. That is where it has been since 1955. The Texas Highway Commission will go for seven in '73. . . It's mainly that the Commission not only can't keep up with demand; it keeps falling farther behind. The 42 urbanized Texas counties . . . are taking nearly 65 per cent of money now. That leaves only 35 per cent for the vast remaining area where construction and restoration of roads is going begging (and you ought to hear those county judges beg)."

The prospect of gasoline costing a couple more cents per gallon is pretty bleak to most motorists, who already are getting only about 10 to 12 miles per gallon on the late model Nedarized vehicles. And the increased cost won't bring the service station people any more money either.

Keep those bicycles and motorcycles in good running order.

KNOTHOLE: Looking over the Hereford Brand, the very good newspaper operated by Speedy Nieman, who used to be at Slaton, we were a bit startled at first glance at the pictures of football players on page one. That first glance told us that each player had the word HERO in big letters above his numbers. Closer look showed us that it

County Teachers Plan Sudan Meet

The Lamb County Texas State Teachers Association will meet at 7:30 p. m. Monday night, Sept. 25, at the Sudan School Cafeterium for a dinner and general session.

Speaker will be Dr. Jack L. Nance, associate professor of education at West Texas State University, Canyon, whose subject will be "Humanizing Education."

Miss Mitzi Trussell, local girls coach, will present two musical numbers.

Presiding over the meeting will be Mrs. Lois White of Sudan, president of the county association. Other county officers are said HERD, but it still looks like HERO. It probably looks like HERO to the fans, too, after their team handled strong Pampa with apparent ease. . . The biggest communicable disease problem in Texas today is not diphtheria, polio, measles or mumps. It's venereal diseases, says the State Dept. of Health. All this brings to mind is the feeling I had once when I saw a fellow named Vernon Drogemeyer wearing his initials on a tie clasp. . . High Plains Research Foundation says farmers can get more sunlight to the bolls which have a chance to mature by lopping off the vegetative top growth and small bolls that will not have time to mature. So sharpen up your scissors, you cotton farmers.

MAYBE patriotism and respect for the United States flag are out of style in some areas, but it still doesn't look too good for people to stand around with their hats on, or hear them talking to each other and gazing off in the opposite directions from the flag while the national anthem is being played at football games.

We believe the conduct of local football fans will be in sharp contrast to the actions of a couple of alleged Americans at the Olympics.

Mrs. Joe Bailey of Spade, first vice president; Mrs. Gayle Allcorn of Olton, second vice president; Mrs. Marvin Tollett of Sudan, secretary; James Settle of Littlefield, treasurer.

During the business session three delegates will be elected to attend the state convention at Houston which will be held in March.

Mrs. Pryor, a Lamb County resident for 40 years, died about 9 p. m. Friday in Littlefield Hospital.

B. of Littlefield and Loyd of Amherst; three daughters, Mrs. Mae Fisher of Sudan, Mrs. Mary Hatley of Littlefield, and Mrs. Laneta Edwards of San Antonio; a sister, Mrs. Agnes Simpson of Fort Worth; 20 grandchildren and 19 great-grandchildren.

Score at halftime was Plains 15, Sudan 0.

The Cowboys didn't waste any time in the third quarter and scored with nine minutes of playing time remaining from the two yard line following a long pass play. L. Trout scored extra points and the score was 23-0.

The Hornets' offense began to click in the third period and they got on the scoreboard with a minute left on the clock on a pass play of 14 yards from Kim Ingram to Roby Lynn for the lone Hornet TD. Try for the two extra points was called back due to an infraction.

The dominating Cowboys went over again in the fourth stanza with Joey Lowe again carrying the ball from the two. Mike Blount was credited with the next two extra points. Final score was Plains 39, Sudan 6.

The seventh grade football game between the locals and Plains was played here with the team members in their first game of their schoolboy career.

Harvey Donahue and Lonnie Simpson put forth a great defensive effort. Joel Williams D. Graves and E. Tamplin were outstanding on offense.

A long run by Williams was nullified due to an infraction by the Hornets. Graves scored on a long run of 50 yards of more after getting loose with a minute and 34 seconds remaining in the first quarter. Darren Provence went over for the two extra points.

Tamplin scored another TD in the second quarter with Simpson scoring the two point conversion. The half ended on the

Why Work?

Politicians of both parties have lamented our country's unemployment and its welfare crisis. But, putting partisan ship aside, the real tragedy of joblessness is not economic. People out of work means loss in the gross national product, yet, still more, loss of individual personal esteem.

One way or another, men require the right to work. As Solomon taught, "There is nothing better for a man than to eat and to drink and to know in himself that his labor is good. This also I have seen, that it is from the hand of God."

In an earlier era, children were taught that "an idle mind is the devil's workshop." And that an idle healthy body also suffers spiritually.

Are you hoping for a three-day week? Beware!

But wait. Isn't work a curse? Didn't God say to Adam, "Cursed is the ground because of you: in toil you shall eat of it all the days of your life?"

Less work, less curse? Solomon said no. "There is nothing better" than work, and this truth comes directly from the hand of God.

The punch-clock may have been invented by the fall, but work itself wasn't. Man was made to muscle his way through life. On his first day on earth, God put man on the job. "Then the Lord God took the man and put him into the Garden of Eden to cultivate it and keep it."

No 8 to 5 and home to the wife job: Adam lived in his Sunday School Lesson for September 24, 1972 work and literally ate the fruits of his labor.

Mass production lines deny the pleasure of making anything but money. Payment for 1,500 duplicate table-legs cannot satisfy a man like a single meal at one complete table built by a man with his hands.

Work blesses the worker. Remember that we work by God's example: "Six days you shall labor and do all your work, but the seventh day is a sabbath (rest) of the Lord your God." The law says, "For in six days the Lord made the heavens and the earth, the sea, and all that is in them, and rested on the seventh day."

Why would God work? Obviously, not for money. Work satisfies. Oddly, the same Solomon who praised the soul-warming joy in work found that working for money was worthless: "I considered all my activities . . . and the labor which I had exerted, and behold, all was vanity."

The curse on the earth made work wearisome, but still only work satisfies. The work itself, not the pay.

The deepest tragedy of unemployment and welfare is the loss of satisfaction and purpose in life, the dwindling of reassurance that each man's life contributes to the operation of God's world, the falling of confidence in personal worth that only honest work and achievement can give. Everyone needs work.

And after work, rest, and a chance to worship God.

DISNEY STAR — Mickey Mouse and more than 100 other Disney favorites star in "Disney On Parade," 2 1/2-hour live stage musical appearing for the first time in Lubbock at the Coliseum, Oct. 10-15.

Mickey Mouse returns again as star of the all-new and different second edition of the 2 1/2-hour live stage musical extravaganza, "Disney On Parade" opening Tuesday, Oct. 10, at the Lubbock Coliseum, for 8 performances.

"Disney On Parade" is presented by Nawal Productions, a partnership of NBC Enterprises and Walt Disney Productions. Seen and enjoyed by millions around the world, Mickey steps from the cartoon film to the arena floor live to lead over 100 Disney costumed characters through major production numbers.

True to his star status, Mickey is the first of the many acts in "Disney On Parade." He turns conductor to lead his own band. Naturally, this isn't just any band, but a Disney band. Seven costumed instruments, each over 12-feet tall march on stage to play themselves and set the pace for a performance of fantasy and fun.

SOIL CONSERVATION REPORT

Due to the excessive and frequent rain storms which began in late spring and continued up to date, considerable damage has been caused to terraces and diversions that were constructed on farms in the past few years.

The most extensive damage was done this spring when the land was clean or the crops were small.

If you have terraces that were damaged and need technical help such as staking and checking out the repair work, contact the Soil Conservation Service Office in the courthouse in Littlefield. Also, if you plan to build new terraces or diversions on your farm to control or prevent erosion on your farm contact any of the personnel at the SCS office so that you will have time to get the needed planning and engineering work done before construction is to be done.

Cotton Production Increases Again... Cattle on Feed Declines Slightly... Pecan Production Expected to Set Record... Crop Prospects Good...

Texas cotton production for this season is estimated to be more than one million bales above 1971. The Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service estimates Texas' production this year now at 3,800,000 bales. This would be an increase of 1,221,000 bales over 1971 production.

Yield, based on September 1 conditions, is expected to average 356 pounds per acre. Only 263 pounds per acre were produced in 1971.

Harvest is virtually complete in the Lower Rio Grande Valley. Harvest in south Central is more than one-third complete. Blackland cotton harvest is now reaching full momentum with a good to excellent yield reported.

Cotton on the High and Low plains is making good to excellent progress.

A ONE percent decline in the number of cattle on feed compared to a month ago is reported for Texas. The state continues to be the number one cattle feeding state in the nation.

As of September 1, there were 2,095,000 head of cattle and calves on feed for slaughter in Texas. Compared to a year ago, this is 32 percent higher.

Placements into Texas feedlots during August totaled 381,000 head; this is 28 percent above a year ago. Marketings of fat cattle during August totaled 406,000 head. This is 16 percent above last year.

In the major six-state cattle feeding report, which includes Texas, Arizona, California, Iowa, Nebraska, and Kansas, number of cattle on feed totaled 7,551,000 head.

This is a three percent decrease from a month ago, but 17 percent more than for the same time in 1971. Iowa is the second ranking cattle feeding state with a total of 1,476,000 head as of September 1 on feed.

A RECORD pecan crop is in prospect for Texas. The Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service estimates a crop of 70,000,000 pounds, the highest ever. This is almost three times more than last year's crop of only 24,000,000 pounds. The Texas crop will account for 35 percent of the total estimated U. S. production this year.

Harvest in most areas is expected to be two to three weeks earlier; the first pecans of this season were harvested in late August in San Saba County. The 1972 crop estimate is one million pounds above the previous record crop of 69,000,000 pounds in 1968.

CROP prospects continue at a high level over most of the state. Grain sorghum production is expected to top off at 60 bushels per acre, a record high yield. Harvest throughout the state is more than half complete.

Corn production is now estimated at 35,000,000 bushels. Per acre yield is expected to be 70 bushels, which is eight bushels lower than 1971.

Peanut yields this year are expected to be higher than in 1971. A yield of 1,430 pounds per acre is anticipated; this compared with 1,235 pounds per acre in 1971.

Soybean production is now estimated at 5,670,000 bushels compared with 2,781,000 in 1971.

Wheat seeding is active from the Edwards Plateau to the northern High Plains. Seeding for the state is about 20 percent complete.

Is It Murder?

Are laws that forbid abortion really infringing on a woman's right to control her own body, as some insist, or is the sanctity of human life the overriding issue?

Sen. McGovern, who earlier declared firmly that abortion was a matter to be decided between a woman and her doctor, has changed his position and now says that it is a matter to be handled by state governments.

President Nixon, however, has stated, "Unrestricted policies of abortion on demand I cannot square with my personal belief in the sanctity of human life -- including the life of the yet unborn."

In January, 1971, the General Council of the United Church of Canada decided that "abortion should be a private matter between a woman and her doctor."

But in February, this year, the editor of "The Observer," official publication of the United Church, declared, "We reject the United Church statement that 'abortion is a private matter.' The deliberate destruction of a six-month-old fetus, the death of 25 to 30 thousand unborn Canadian babies a year -- a private matter! To us, killing a child shortly before birth... is as wrong as killing a child shortly after birth."

We all know that the Bible says, "Thou shalt not kill." But the crucial question is: At what point does the developing child become a human being entitled to life?

Reader Opinion Poll
Since it seems to me that the public opinion polls have dealt with this matter too superficially, I have decided to poll the readers of this column as to their attitudes toward abortion. Therefore, I would appreciate it if you would respond to the following statements, indicating which you believe is correct.

( ) The child is not entitled to life until he or she is born. Abortion should be legally permitted at any time prior to birth.

( ) The unborn child should be entitled to life from the time of conception -- when the fertilized ovum is implanted in the wall of the uterus. Abortion at any time after conception should be prohibited.

( ) The unborn child is entitled to life from the time of "quickening," when movement of the unborn child is first felt by the pregnant woman. Abortion should be permitted until "quickening," but prohibited after that time.

( ) The unborn child is entitled to life at the time when, if born prematurely, he or she could be kept alive as a fully-formed person, even though born before the due time. Abortion should be permitted until then, but prohibited after that time.

( ) Abortion should be permitted only in certain cases, such as pregnancy resulting from rape or incest.

( ) Abortion should be permitted when necessary to save the life of the woman.

I am interested in hearing from you on this subject. You may write me in care of this newspaper.

It's 1973, and Chevrolet roofs are opening, seats are swiveling, bumpers are retracting, hatches are flipping up.

Did you ever have so much to talk about that you didn't know what to say first? We're happy to report that's us for 1973. But since everything must begin somewhere...

Isn't it romantic?

You see that rectangle beaming at you from above? That's a moonroof. Not to be confused with a sunroof. (Although many people will undoubtedly be caught using it like one.) A power roof is available on Chevelle and Monte Carlo; a manual one on Nova.

Bumpers are exciting?

This year's are something to get stirred up about. One of our new bumpers, for example, is built around twin hydraulic cylinders. So on minor impact, the whole system retracts to cushion the shock.

It's standard on all big Chevrolet, Chevelle and Monte Carlo

Look what we hatched

You know us for our little Vega Hatchback. Now dependable Nova has one. Which literally makes it half trunk with the backseat down. It's a feature as practical as Nova itself.

We've been thinking about your legs

One of the few things people asked us to improve in our popular Chevelle was leg room in the backseat. Well, your knees will be pleased with the '73s. There's almost 3 1/2 more inches in the sedans.

So what else is new

Naturally this is only a taste of what's new for '73.

Among other things, we're introducing larger gas tanks for longer cruising range, a new Exhaust Gas Recirculation system, a hatchback for wagons, and a highly refined flow-through power ventilation system.

Plus a reading light for front seat passengers, improved suspension systems, engines that give you performance combined with gas economy, reclining seats and scores of dramatic styling changes.

We invite you to see it all at your Chevrolet dealer's.
