FORTY-EIGHTH YEAR NUMBER 34

KEEP THOSE cards, letters and big tomatoes coming, folks; we love them. Well, we like cards and letters, because that shows somebody is reading the paper. And we like tomatoes, too, so long as they aren't thrown at us, but sadly, we cannot print pictures of every big tomato someone brings in, because we already have published a picture of a big tomato.

Policy of this newspaper, as with most others, is to run just one big whatever-it-is. Superlatives make news, but we don't want to overdo any one variety of plant.

However, if you have a big something that we haven't used yet, by all means, let us know. But we don't want any big debts, big headaches or big mammas.

This apparently has been a fine year for tomatoes. We suppose we might break the rule about running two of something at some point in elephantine progress, for example, if someone brought in a tomato the size of a volley ball.

Actually the big tomatoes aren't necessarily the best ones. I like those little ones you pop into your mouth. It does seem a shame, though, that some of these agricultural hotshots don't figure out how to grow the little ones with salt already on the inside of them.

SEN. LLOYD BENTSEN of Texas announced last week that he has requested an investigation by the General Accounting Office into the status of mail service in Texas.

"I am disturbed about the deterioration of mail service in Texas, particularly in rural areas," Bentsen said. "Judge W. B. Sansom of Leakey, Texas, for example, tells me that service from Leakey to Uvalde is slower than it was in 1884, when stagecoaches were rolling. I have received many similar complaints about slow delivery."

The senator said his office this summer undertook an informal check of special delivery service. The office staff mailed more than 200 first-class letters from Washington to points throughout Texas. At the same time, special delivery letters were mailed from Austin to the same recipients. Sure enough, 45.6 per cent of the first-class letters arrived at the same time or before those sent special delivery.

Bentsen noted that many of the expressions of concern about the mail service have come from postal employes themselves.

We know several postmasters personally and believe they all are doing as good a job as they can with the rules they have to live with. The problem, some of them tell us privately, is that some big shot high up in the system sits down with a compu-

FIRE DEPT. NEWS

Last Thursday at approximately 5 p. m., the local Volunteer Fire Department answered a call at the home of Babe Dawson located at the alley of Wilson and Worth Streets.

Fire damage was reported to a bed and one wall with smoke and water damage to other parts of the house. Firemen and truck were there some 30 minutes to extinguish the fire.

Mrs. Dawson was overcome by smoke and was taken to an area hospital.

A Red Cross First Aid course was held at the Community Center Monday and Tuesday night last week from 7-11 p. m. each night with some members of the local Fire Department taking the course.

Instructor for the eight-hour course was Hershel Hulsey of Earth.

All of the firemen attending passed the course and were issued cards showing certification of their ability to aid in emergencies. They were Orville Hill, chief; Bobby Davison, Gaylon Beavers, Sam DeLaRiva, Bob Nelson, Bud Provence, Phillip Gordon, Donald Powell, O'Don Bellar, Dan Pavence.

BAND PARENTS MEETING SET

The Band Parents Organization will meet Tuesday night, Oct. 10, in the band hall.

All parents are urged to be present as plans need to be made for the "homecoming" banquet that will be held October 28th. The support of each and every band parent is needed so please be present.

Band director Tommy Evins announced that a marching contest will be held October 31st at Jones Stadium on the Texas Tech Campus in Lubbock.

Word was received that the mother of Mrs. W. T. Gaston and Ted Walker had died and was buried Tuesday afternoon.

ter and figures out how things ought to work in places like this, without actually realizing all of the problems that can develop to foul up the on-paper scheme.

Incidentally, Sen. Bentsen's office later reported there was a brief delay of the Congressional probe into slowdowns of Texas mail service because of a slowdown in Washington mail service.

Sen. Bentsen said it took the Postal Service four days to deliver a letter on his senate stationery only 10 blocks, from his office to the GAO building. The letter contained the senator's request for an investigation of Texas mail service.

"I believe I can safely predict the area of the country we'll investigate when we finish with Texas," Bentsen said.

GO, HORNETS- Here come the Hornets, with Pat Hedges, 20, carrying the ball, while Nos. 35, 33, 23 and other Mustangs try to stop him before he gets into the clear. This is an action shot of the game between the Sudan Hornets and the Shallowater Mustangs Friday night. PHO. J.W.H.

quarter, Ingram passed to TB Richard Tamplin for a 60-yard TD. The try for point failed, and Sudan led at the half, 13-0.

Going into the second half, the Mustangs Bobby James, 33, ran over from 3 yards out, following a long pass play, to score Shallowater's only TD, with J. Lester, 51, kicking the extra point, narrowing the margin between the two teams to six points, Sudan over Shallowater, 13-7.

Throughout the entire game this was mainly a defensive battle, and in the last quarter both the Hornet and Mustang defense stopped the scoring, and the game ended, Sudan 13, Shallowater 7.

Much credit is due the Hornet defense for the Sudan victory, and to indicate that the going was rough, the Hornets 103 assisted (A) and 21 unassisted (U) tackles went like this:

The seventh grade Hornets won over Shallowater by a score of 29-6. Sudan got their first TD in the second quarter on a run by Edgar Tamplin who also ran over for the two point conversion. Tamplin scored twice more in the last half and made another two point conversion. Lonnie Simpson scored for the Hornets on an 85 yard run with Tamplin throwing the block on the last Mustang between him and the goal line. Try for extras failed. Harvey Donahue intercepted a Shallowater pass when playing heads-up ball.

Final score Sudan 29, Shallowater 6.

The eighth grade team also defeated Shallowater by a score of 36-22. Webster Johnson and Kyle Martin were captains.

Scoring for Sudan in the first half were Martin and Johnson with PAT failing. Halftime score was Sudan 12, Shallowater 6. Ronnie Harrison recovered a Shallowater fumble prior to the half.

To the dismay of the Hornets, the Mustangs returned the punt opening the second half for a 75 yard TD, and scored the PAT.

Sudan's Webster Johnson scored again with Jerry Williams making the two point conversion. On the punt, Shallowater again returned the punt for a TD, this time about 90 yards, and a two point PAT. Late in the third quarter Craig Pickett intercepted a pass which set Sudan up in a scoring situation. Jerry Williams scored the TD and Kyle Martin went over for two points.

With approximately a minute of playing time left, Martin scored a TD and Johnson two points after.

The Hornets almost scored another TD earlier in the game after a run of some 30 yards and on the one yard line when they lost the ball on a fumble.

Final score was Sudan 36, and Shallowater 22.

4-H News

National 4-H Week has been set for October 1-7 with this year's theme "A New Day—A New Way."

4-H is a venturesome organization of active boys and girls and these youngsters are constantly eyeing progress and taking the necessary steps to move forward and to grow and develop. 4-H is reaching out into new areas, involving youth with new interests and backgrounds. Its reaching into urban areas and involving youngsters with a multitude of backgrounds, needs and interests. Thus 4-H has expanded its program areas to meet these varied needs and interests. Boys and girls are now encouraged to "do their own things, set their own pace, venture into new areas of interests."

4-H'ers are limited only by their imagination, and that's what makes 4-H so exciting today. 4-H is also attuned to such present-day concerns as community development and improving the environment.

Although there are now more than 100,000 boys and girls between the ages of 9 and 19 enrolled in 4-H in Texas, many more are eligible to join. And with the upcoming observance of National 4-H Week, the call goes out to these youngsters to become involved in a real "action-oriented" program—4-H.

Special programs and activities will be staged in counties throughout the state during 4-H Week to recognize 4-H'ers, their parents, friends, and other supporters. This is a good time to learn more about 4-H and then to make the decision to invest a little time and energy to become involved in an organization that has something for everyone. Being a 4-H'er can mean the most exciting years of your life.

4-H is a part of the educational program conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service of Texas A&M University. It is directed at the local level by county Extension agents who work with volunteer 4-H adult leaders and other local citizens.

Anyone wishing to join 4-H may contact any 4-H member of the local organization, or local leaders, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Cardwell and Mr. and Mrs. Don R. Ham. Only members can take part in 4-H projects of their choice. However, the Sudan 4-H Club has a rule which will be enforced. That is that a member must attend 75% of the local club meetings before he can enter animals under the 4-H banner in the Sudan Livestock Show, Lamb County Livestock Show, and the Areawide Show and Sale.

The Hornets, after a 13-7 victory over Shallowater, will begin their district games Friday against Springlake. The game will be played here so we invite you to support your team to victory. The cheerleaders will be putting Hornet signs in the yards of football boys. A poster contest is being held this week between classes. The winner will be announced at the Pep Rally. Senior Play try-outs were held last week. The play, "Her Kissin' Cousin" will be presented November 3rd. The cast includes Ann Harlan, Jana West, Toni McWilliams, Vicki Doty, Roger Swart, Jerry Price, Keith Downs, and Kevin May. Stage director is Jackie Withrow.

The Senior Class will serve a Chili Supper Friday before the Springlake-Sudan game in the local school cafeteria. The meal will be served from 5:30 to 7:30 p. m. and will include chili, beans, pickles, and pie at $1.25 for adults, and .75¢ for students under 12. Tickets may be purchased from any senior or at the door.

FFA and FHA meetings were held this week.

SPECIAL—It's "A New Day - A New Way" with 4-H.

That's the theme of 1972 National 4-H Week, Oct. 1-7. It's a time when 5 million 4-H'ers, a half million volunteer leaders, and the thousands who support the 4-H program nationwide, call attention to their many accomplishments. Together, they assess what America's largest youth organization is doing to help young people, in rural and urban environments, "to learn by doing". And they look to the future to see in what directions 4-H should be going to further help young people from all walks of life.

Friends, in business and industry, who support the 4-H program, are taking advantage of this "new day" in 4-H, to assist youth in "new ways" and "to make the best even better".

Over 55 corporations, businesses and foundations contribute time, energy and resources to aid 4-H. Through the National 4-H Service Committee, Chicago, which is in its 51st year of service to the 4-H program, nearly $3 million will be spent in 1972 for incentives including college scholarships, leader training, educational aids and other services.

These 55 corporate friends of 4-H provide over 270 educational grants, totaling more than $187,300, for 4-H'ers. Many of these grants will be awarded through the National Committee at the 1972 National 4-H Congress in Chicago, Nov. 26-30. Over 1,600 teens will participate in five days of seminars, tours, and special events, geared around the theme of "A New Day - A New Way".

Donors to the 4-H program have already met the challenges of this year's 4-H Week and Congress theme, with challenging programs that help meet the needs of the 5 million 4-H'ers, in urban and rural areas.

Examples of new ways of donor support and programs can be found in American Oil Company's fertilizer-ecology pilot program; conservation of natural resources, sponsored by John Deere; The Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company's support of 4-H bicycle activity; The Upjohn Company's support of 4-H veterinary science and Corporation's support of the 4-H electric program.

Scholarship programs also enter into new areas and directions: Boye Needle Company provides scholarships for 4-H'ers interested in clothing and textiles; for young people interested in agribusiness careers, DeKalb AgResearch, Inc., provides scholarship assistance; while The Wehr Corporation provides assistance to a 4-H'er from a low-income, disadvantaged home.

Along with these special programs, the prestigious list of corporate supporters of 4-H, includes Celanese Chemical Company, The Chicago Board of Trade, Eastman Kodak Company, Eli Lilly Company and TOP-FORM Products Dept., Merck & Co., Inc. Also Tupperware Home Parties, Union Oil Company of California, and The West Bend Company, along with the other business friends of 4-H.

Start "A New Day - A New Way", with 4-H as a member or a volunteer leader. Contact the county extension office for more information.

PUNTER BOBBY BROWN

BOBBY BROWN, SENIOR, MCMURRY PUNTER
A surprise among surprises for the McMurry College Indian football team is punter Bobby

Brown, a former Sudan athlete. Brown, a senior at McMurry, decided to try his foot at punting for the Indians this fall. He came out two weeks ago, practiced with the team for an hour each day, and then made his debut last Saturday afternoon against Western New Mexico. The pressure didn't bother Brown. His first punt traveled

ABSENTEE VOTING DATE SET

Absentee voting by mail and by personal appearance in the Lamb County Clerk's Office is expected to be heavy for the General Election to be held on November 7, 1972. Applications to vote by mail in the General Election are now being accepted in the County Clerk's Office. The ballots will not be mailed until October 18th, the same day that a qualified voter may vote absentee by personal appearance at the County Clerk's Office.

Each year the Texas absentee voting laws become more complicated. In most cases, when a person qualified to vote absentee by mail, voting material must go through the mail four different times before their ballot is finally placed in the ballot box.

The voters that are in one of the categories listed below and wish to vote absentee by mail are urged to contact the County Clerk's office now.

ART. 5.05 OF THE TEXAS ELECTION LAWS reads as follows: Subdivision 1—Any qualified voter of this state who expects to be absent from the county of his residence on the day of the election, or who because of sickness, physical disability, or religious belief cannot appear at the polling place in the election precinct of his residence on the day of the election may cause his vote to be cast at any election held in this state by compliance with the applicable method herein provided for absentee voting. Absentee voting shall be conducted by two methods: (1) voting by personal appearance at the clerk's office (starting October 19) and (2) voting by mail (applications being accepted now but ballots will not be mailed until the first day of absentee voting, October 18th).

THE FOLLOWING, AND NO OTHER, MAY VOTE BY MAIL:

(A) Qualified voters who because of sickness or physical disability cannot appear at the polling place on the day of the election may vote absentee by mail. The application for an absentee ballot shall be made not more than sixty days before the election. It must be mailed to the clerk, and the clerk shall preserve the envelope in which it is received. If the application is delivered to the clerk by any method other than by mailing, the ballot shall be void and shall not be counted. If the ground of application is sickness or physical disability by reason of which the voter cannot appear at the polling place, a certificate, contained in the application, of a duly licensed physician, Chiropractor, or Christian Science Practitioner certifying to such sickness or physical disability must accompany the application.

(B) Qualified voters who, before the beginning of the period for absentee voting, make application for an absentee ballot on the ground of expected absence from the county of their residence on election day, and who expect to be absent from the county during the clerk's regular office hours for the entire period of absentee voting may vote absentee by mail. The application shall be made not more than sixty days before the day of the election, and may be mailed to the clerk or delivered to him by the voter in person, but the clerk shall not furnish a ballot to the voter by any method other than by mailing it to him.

(C) Qualified voters who, after the beginning of the period for absentee voting, (October 18, 1972) apply for an absentee ballot on the ground of expected absence from the county and who are absent from such county at the time of applying for an absentee ballot and expected to be absent from such county during the clerk's regular office hours for the remainder of the period for absentee voting may vote absentee by mail.

The applicant's permanent address shall be given and the address to which the absentee ballot is to be mailed as well as the address to which his registration certificate is to be mailed back to him. In all methods (A, B & C), the application shall be accompanied by the voter's registration certificate or his affidavit that the registration certificate has been lost or misplaced. Such affidavit form is contained in the application form and must be signed before a notary public.

Service men and their dependents are urged to send their official Federal Post Card Applications to vote absentee as soon as possible. Service men and their dependents need not be registered as a voter when they send the Federal Post Card application with their registration certificate.

Those who vote absentee by personal appearance in the county clerk's office (after October 18) are urged to bring with them their voter's registration certificate.

Students who are attending school out of Lamb County should call the County Clerk's office as soon as possible so their applications may be mailed to them now. Parents of students may also provide the information to the County Clerk's Office.

For voters in Precincts 10 & 14: In the event a liquor election is called by the Commissioner's Court then the absentee voting will overlap with the absentee voting for the General Election. The same procedure is followed to vote absentee in a liquor election. If the liquor election is called, it will be a completely separate election and a new application and the whole process must be complete again.

BY LYNN BARON, COUNTY
EXTENSION AGENT

FRESH LEMON PIE

- 1 1/2 cups sugar
  - 1/4 cup plus 2 tablespoons cornstarch
  - 1/4 teaspoon salt
  - 1/2 cup fresh squeezed lemon juice
  - 1/2 cup cold water
  - 3 egg yolks, well beaten
  - 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
  - 1 1/2 cups boiling water
  - 1 teaspoon fresh grated lemon peel
  - Few drops yellow food coloring
  - Meringue
  - *1 baked 9 inch pastry shell.
- Meringue
- 3 egg whites
  - 1/4 teaspoon cream of tartar
  - 6 tablespoons sugar

*Use your favorite pastry recipe or mix. (Remember "store bought" pie shells hold less pie filling.)

In a 2 to 3 quart saucepan mix sugar, cornstarch and salt together, using a wire whisk. Still using whisk, gradually blend in cold water, then lemon juice until smooth. Add beaten egg yolks, blending very thoroughly. Add butter or margarine. Add boiling water gradually, stirring gently and constantly with spatula over medium to high heat. Reduce heat slightly as mixture begins to thicken. Boil slowly for 1 minute. Remove from heat and stir in grated peel and food coloring. Pour hot filling into baked pastry shell. Let stand, allowing a thin film to form while preparing meringue.

Meringue Directions

Have egg whites at room temperature. Use a small, deep bowl when beating 4 egg whites or less. Beat with electric mixer several seconds until frothy (some fairly large air cells still remain).

Add cream of tartar. Beat on high speed until whites have just lost their foamy appearance and bend over slightly when beaters are withdrawn, forming "soft peaks."

Reduce speed to medium while adding sugar gradually, about a tablespoon at a time. Return to high speed and beat until whites are fairly stiff but still glossy and "soft peaks" are again formed when beaters are withdrawn. Place meringue on the hot filling in several mounds around edge of pie. Using narrow spatula, push meringue gently against inner edge of pie crust, sealing well. Cover the rest of the filling by swirling meringue from edge of pie to center, forming decorative peaks with spatula. Bake at 350°F. for 12-15 min., until golden brown. Cool on wire rack at room temperature away from drafts for 2 hours before cutting and serving. Use sharp knife and dip into hot water after each cut for a perfect "clean cut" serving.

This pie recipe has been carefully formulated to insure success. Read the recipe and measure all ingredients ahead of time. Then use the right tool for the best results. Everyone likes to know the why behind successful food preparation, so several researchers have shared their lemon meringue pie research with us.

Use a saucepan that conducts heat evenly. This will help prevent lumping and scorching. Also mix dry ingredients thoroughly. This allows the sugar to separate the starch granules, keeping them from forming lumps during the thickness process. A wire whisk will make this step far easier.

The whisk thoroughly and quickly combines liquids with dry ingredients. It also blends in the yolks, avoiding lumps and scorching.

Boiling water saves time because mixture will come to a boil faster.

To avoid raw or starchy taste, cornstarch mixtures should boil slowly and long enough for starch granules to swell to their full capacity. A "slow boil" means bubbles should break the surface, but not as rapidly as when using high heat.

The zesty flavorful oils in the peel are released in the hot filling. Grate the peel using the small holes of your grater. With firm, short downward strokes, grate only the outer yellow colored peel avoiding the white albedo just below the skin.

When meringue is placed on hot filling there is less chance of meringue shrinking and seeping. Pouring hot filling into baked crust will not cause it to become soggy either.

All egg mixtures should be refrigerated if they are to be held over. Lemon meringue pie is no exception, even though they may become watery due to a change in the starch gel. But, who has delicious lemon pie left over?

Lemon Meringue Pie is an All-American dessert classic, and once that you've mastered this easy filling and meringue techniques, you'll want to try some variations. Call our office and we'll gladly send you the recipes for Fresh Orange Meringue Pie, Fresh Grapefruit Meringue Pie, Old-Fashioned Lemon Meringue Pie, Easy Lemon Meringue Pie, and Lemon Velvet Pie. Our number is 285-4004, or our box number is Box 432, Littlefield.

NEW TESTING SERVICE FOR AUTOMOBILE MECHANICS

A major new program that promises immediate and long-term benefits for everyone concerned with car repairs goes into effect within a few weeks.

It involves a battery of four tough tests, scheduled at the end of November, to grade and certify the professional knowledge, skills and experience of automotive mechanics.

Mechanics who pass any one of the tests will receive a certificate and badge from the newly-formed, independent, organization that administers the program—the National Institute of Automotive Service Excellence (NIASE). Certified mechanics will wear a patch on the shoulders of their uniforms listing the specialists in which they have passed the examination.

Both the Institute and the certification programs are outgrowths of a movement launched early in 1970 with $1 million in grants and guarantees through 1973 from, primarily, the National Automobile Dealers Association and the Motor Vehicle Manufacturers Association of the United States. Incorporated in June of this year, NIASE hopes to become self-supporting through test fees.

Henry A. Sorenson, one of four Institute directors, pledges that "the Institute will work with the public, with governmental people and with every element of the vehicle service industry to help bring into being new servicing standards and reliable measurements of the competence of those who service this nation's vehicles."

Every car owner is free to take his car to any mechanic he chooses, but under the Certified Mechanic program he will have a way of identifying mechanics who have objectively demonstrated a high degree of knowledge and skill.

Test organizers will be giving

PUNT-PASS-KICK Contest winners shown above are Billy Williams, 11, with 195 1/2 points; Paul Kent, 8, with 118 points; Dan Messamore, 9, with 130 points, and Pete Edwards, 12. Others placing in the event sponsored by Frank Lane Ford were 8 year old Billy Ray Scott, 112 1/2 points, Lester King, 109; 9 year old division, Mike Hill, 127, Joey Bellar, 113 1/2; 10 year olds Mark Cantrell, 173, Max Bachiclia, 155 1/2 and Ken Williams 148; 11 year old, Wayne Johnson, 172 1/2 and Vic Read, 157. The contest was held Saturday and winners of each age group will advance to the contest to be held in Lubbock later.

HISTORICAL MARKER FOR SPRINGLAKE TO BE SET

An official Texas Historical marker for Springlake School will be erected on October 13th it was announced today by V. M. Peterman of Amherst, chairman of the Lamb County Historical Survey Committee.

The marker will be placed at FM 302, five miles northeast of Earth. Dedication plans will be announced in the near future.

Made of cast aluminum with Swedish steel effect, the marker measures 18 by 28 inches and is sponsored by Lamb County Historical Survey Committee and the Springlake-Earth School Board.

briefings on the program in various Texas cities beginning September 25, and applicants have until October 29 to enroll for one or more of their first four tests. The pre-test fee is $10, or $40 for the full series.

These examinations, each of which probes two areas of the mechanics' ability and takes approximately three hours to complete, will be offered on four consecutive Tuesdays—November 21 and 28, December 5 and 12—in Amarillo, Beaumont, Corpus Christi, Dallas, El Paso, Fort Worth, Houston, Odessa and San Antonio.

Educational Testing Service (ETS) of Princeton, N.J.—a non-profit research and knowledge measurement organization that has developed diverse testing programs, including the College Board admissions tests—has been appointed test administrator by NIASE.

The candidate who passes all four 80-question tests and who has two years experience as a working mechanic will qualify as a Certified General Automobile Mechanic—the highest grade, at least thus far.

For those who want "to spread it out a bit", different versions of these tests will be given in March 1973. In any case, to pass each test section, mechanics will need to know how to do just about all common maintenance, diagnosis and repair work on the systems and components involved.

Certified mechanics will be required to pass a re-certification test every three years to help assure that they keep up with vehicle changes and servicing developments.

The Institute and ETS are now developing tests to certify heavy truck mechanics and various other specialized mechanics in order to expand the program in late 1973 and 1974.
