FORTY-EIGHTH YEAR NUMBER 37

SUDAN, LAMB COUNTY, TEXAS

WOODWORK

—by dalton

PROBABLY no newspaper of its size in the country does a better job of covering sports in its circulation area than the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal. The A-J covers 19 counties, which includes a heck of a lot of football teams and basketball teams from no telling how many schools. We are perfectly aware of the feeling of many fans of these schools that their own hometown favorites don't get enough publicity in the A-J. This is a more or less normal reaction ("Nobody's kids are as good as ours, so we oughta get more coverage than anybody else..."), but we still think the A-J does a remarkably fine job of covering such a huge geographical area.

So now that we've thrown them a couple of bouquets, we're going to hit them with a couple of brickbats. One has to do with headlines, the other with Dirk West.

There's a continuing debate going on about whether Dirk West does the Aggies an injustice by the way he lampoons them. Most of West's Aggie cartoons have been funny to everybody, including Aggies. Some have stirred resentment among AGM graduates. Since I'm not an Aggie, it really doesn't matter that much to me, but I think he sometimes goes too far. The most recent example was just after the Tech game, which the Aggies almost won, and West's cartoon said something about the Aggies stinking. This seems in poor taste to me, but in defense of West, it's tough sometimes to know where to draw the line without offending someone. I know I have done it in print a few times, without really meaning to. And I still think that West is the funniest sports cartoonist anywhere.

So far as headlines are concerned, someone who is writing heads (as we call them in the trade) for the sports pages at the A-J is straining so hard to be clever in the headlines that the straining is far too obvious, with the result that the reader gets a little weary of trying to figure out what the headline writer is driving at. For example, consider these headlines from a single issue of the A-J (Monday morning):

- "Great White Father Smiles on Sonny, Tribe."
 - "A's Fingers: Thumbs Down on Red Bid in World Series."
 - "Lions Reign in the Rain, Overpower San Diego, 34-20."
 - "Fry Heats Up Rice With Late Decision."
 - "Bell Rings for New York; Jets Upend Colts 24-20."
 - "The Johnson Raiders Ambush Oakland Express 30-23."
 - "Bills Almost Turn To Gold, Fall 24-23."
 - "Those 'Duck Soup' Eagles Get Bird Nest Off Ground."
 - "Reds Red."
- With a couple of exceptions, these headlines are not bad; in fact, they would be quite good

SCHOOL OF INSTRUCTION FOR ELECTION OFFICERS TO BE HELD TONIGHT

There will be a school of instruction for Election Officers concerning election laws in the Lamb County Courtroom on Thursday, Nov. 2, at 7:30 p. m. The school of instruction will be held by Billy Tom Grant, County Clerk Mary Beth Willey, County Judge G. T. Sides and County Attorney Curtis R. Wilkinson.

The presiding judge and alternate presiding judge of each voting precinct appointed by the Lamb County Commissioners' Court are urged to attend the school. Those persons who will serve as clerks at the General Election on November 7 are also urged to attend.

There have been many changes and additions to the election laws this year which will be discussed and a new tallying method will be discussed that concerns only General Elections.

Persons appointed to serve as watchers at the general election and any other interested members of the public will be welcome to attend the school.

The Sudan Hornets will be carrying their rabbits foot this week—or something—as they tied the Vega Longhorns, 12-12, here Friday night. This tie was a repeat of the Hornet-Bovina game, with Sudan losing to Bovina by one first down, and losing their homecoming game Friday on one penetration.

In the first quarter, there was no scoring by either team. Starting off the second quarter, Vega's Tim Hubbard went over from the 7 yard line for the first touchdown of the game, and the try for extra point failed. Vega led 6-0. Then Gary Edwards plunged in from the four yard line, the ball struck the crossbar on the try for extra point, and the score was 6-6. But Vega was not ready for the halftime, and Brent May ran for a 10 yard TD, try for EP failed, making the score at the half 12-6, Vega over Sudan.

The third quarter was scoreless, also, and the defensive units had quite a workout. About 4 minutes deep into the fourth quarter, Hornet FB Gary Edwards charged over from seven yards out for the TD that tied the score, 12-12. So when the gun sounded, the score was tied 12-12, but the Hornets lost the game.

Hornet QB Kim Engram punted five times in this week's game with Vega for a total of 258 yards, which is a very fine punting average of some 52 yards each for this game. Engram also has a total of 720 yards passing for this season.

On Friday, Nov. 10, Sudan will host Farwell here at Hornet Stadium. This Friday night is an open date for the Hornets. The Sudan fans are backing the Hornets to Beat Farwell Next Week!

JUNIOR VARSITY LOSES TO VEGA LONGHORNS, 40-12

In the junior varsity game at Vega Thursday, the Longhorns came out on top by a score of 40-12. Both the Hornet TDs were made on long passes from Don Johnson to Tracy Bowling. Outstanding on defense for the Hornets were Tim Farley and Craig Harper.

The eighth grade football team continued their winning streak by adding Vega to the list last week when they won by a score of 30-14.

Captains, elected for that game and the remaining games, were Jerry Williams, Kyle Martin, and Webster Johnson.

Vega won the toss and elected to receive. However, the Longhorns couldn't move the ball and had to give it up to the Hornets on downs. Sudan scored on a 70 yard run by QB Craig Pickett on second down. On the try for extra points, the ball was fumbled but No. 63, J. Salamanca caught the dropped ball and ran over to score the two extras.

K. Martin also scored a Hornet TD with J. Williams converting for two extra points, and Sudan led going into the second frame, 16-0.

Early in the second quarter, J. Williams scored 6 points and Webster 2 more to put the Hornets ahead 24-0. Martin carried the ball to the one foot line in the same quarter and Johnson went over for the score. The PAT was no good. Ray Saldano, No. 80, recovered a Longhorn fumble in this quarter, when the Hornets were great on defense. The half ended, Sudan 30, Vega 0.

The third quarter was scoreless, as both teams played a determined game of defense. During the fourth stanza, Vega scored two touchdowns and kicked for two extra points and the game ended with Sudan over Vega, 30-14, when all Hornets again were in the game.

The seventh grade team did not see action last week and will have an open date this week as will all the local teams. The junior varsity, eighth and seventh grade team will play Farwell here for their next game on November 9.

ICE STORM HITS AREA

School buses ran only on paved roads on routes at Sudan, Amherst, Spade, and Littlefield Tuesday morning and afternoon, and were expected to on Wednesday also, as hazardous driving warnings were announced for motorists in the South Plains area following the cold blast of icy wet weather that came along with the front that blew in Monday.

Temperature Tuesday morning was reported to be 26° with sleet and rain occurring during the night coating yards, trees, and crops. The weight of the ice caused tree limbs and feed stalks to break with an unestimated amount of damage to the grain and cotton crops still in fields.

In some parts, the rain and sleet were expected to change to snow Tuesday night.

Phones as well as electricity service were disrupted early Tuesday morning for a short time. However, Mayor Arnold Busy bees made the honey that goes into this cake and other "busy bees" will eat it—and enjoy its rich chocolate-honey flavor. It is still possible to bake cakes like "grandma" used to make when you use old reliable products such as Baker's Chocolate, popular since 1780. Dependable ingredients help make memorable cakes and this one is so good it will disappear right out of the pan—fast!

HONEY CHOCOLATE CAKE

2 cups sifted cake flour	2 eggs
1 1/2 teaspoons baking soda	3 squares unsweetened chocolate, melted
1/2 teaspoon salt	1 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 cup butter or margarine	1/2 cup water
1 1/4 cups honey

Sift flour, soda, and salt. Cream butter; add honey, one tablespoon at a time, beating well after each to keep batter thick. Add one-fourth of flour mixture; beat until smooth. Add eggs, one at a time, beating well after each. Blend in chocolate and vanilla. Add rest of flour, alternately with water, beginning and ending with flour; beat very well. Bake in 13 x 9-inch pan, lined on bottom with paper, at 350° for 45 minutes, or until tester comes out clean. Frost as desired.

PRaise THE LORD

By LENDA WOOD

When I was 15 years old, my parents permitted me to go to Dallas to visit a sister. I went with some other sisters and was to return home alone on the bus.

After the visit, I was standing on the street corner in Dallas waiting for the bus, along with several other people, when an old lady walked up to me and said, "Are you a Christian?"

This offended me greatly and I just gave a muffled yes and turned away from her. She was not a very well-kept person, and seemed a bit unlovely to me, and I had no desire whatever to talk about Jesus to anyone, and especially to a stranger. I felt like it was none of her business. (This reminds me of what Bob Harrington, the preacher of Bourbon Street, New Orleans, said one time. He had boarded a plane, sat down by a man and tried to start a conversation with him. He asked him, "Are you a Christian?" The man snapped back, "I consider that a personal question." And Harrington replied, "That's the reason I'm personally asking you!"

Well, as I look back to that incident, I know that the Lord sent that woman to ask me the question, because I have thought about it millions of times. And immediately after it happened and I turned away, I felt like I really had denied knowing Jesus, as Peter did that night before Jesus' trial.

We are known to others by how we live and what we talk about. Rev. 12:11 says that we can overcome the devil by the blood of the Lamb (Jesus) and by the word of our testimony. When a girl is in love with her boyfriend, she certainly talks about him and is excited about him. There's no way you could keep her quiet!

David got so excited and so happy that he even danced before the Lord (II Sam. 6:12-23). But this offended his wife and she "gripped him out". He answered, "I was dancing before the Lord who chose me. . . . So I am willing to act like a fool in order to show my joy in the Lord."

We are afraid to talk much about the Lord and get happy and joyful because of what He's done for us, because we might offend someone. If we hold back, then we are quenching the spirit, and the Bible says we should not do that (1 Thes. 5:19). If we're worrying about offending someone, we have our eyes on people rather than Jesus. He sets us free, praise the Lord. "If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed!" (John 8:36)

"Talk with each other much about the Lord, quoting psalms and hymns and singing sacred songs, making music in your hearts to the Lord." (Eph. 5:19-20.)

How many of us as parents like to have our children tell us they love us? It always pleases us whenever they do. In the same

ESA News Antique Show TDP Report

The annual Halloween festivities held at the Sudan schools, were Saturday night, Oct. 21, sponsored by members of the ESA.

The Festival began with a masquerade parade at 6:30 p. m. with some 30 spooks. Each received a treat bag from the ESA organization.

Following the parade, the coronation ceremony was held when Shelley Pickrell and Mike Read were crowned queen and king. Votes were cast by placing pennies in containers in various places in the community. Runners-up were Marilyn May and Dan Messamore, and placing third were Janie Brown and Lee Markham.

Activities continued in the school cafeteria and in rooms at the grade school building with different organizations and classes in charge of booths. They included the Senior Cake Walk, Junior Pie Walk, Booster Candy Walk, Saloon, Dunkin' Booth, Spook House, Mystery House, Walt Disney Cartoons, and Sunset Strip. Each class or organization received 90% of the profit from the booths, and the ESA received 10%.

The ESA organization states their appreciation to the school, community, and to anyone who helped make the Harvest Festival a success. They also state that funds from this festival are to be used for a $100 scholarship for a Sudan graduating senior, and for projects and charities such as Lubbock State School.

To Be Held

The Twentieth semi-annual Lubbock Antique Show and Sale will be held this weekend, Nov. 3, 4, 5, at the Texas National Guard Armory, 2901 Fourth Street, Lubbock.

The Lubbock Antique Show and Sale provides a real service to buyers of antiques saving time and travel expense by bringing together, under one roof, 24 dealers from 5 states with a great variety of antiques. Show managers, Bill & Leona Kent, state it is equivalent to visiting 24 separate shops in one day. Whether a person is seeking a particular kind of antique or decorative object, the show offers a great gathering of interesting and beautiful objects. Ownership of fine antiques awakes a pride and understanding of real craftsmanship and our historic ties of the past.

The tremendous awareness of the investment qualities of antiques has become of interest to the large and small investor alike. Many corporations, banks and other businesses have found that antiques are a means of securing sound financial balance.

The Lubbock Antique Show is proud of its heritage and service to the South Plains and pleased to have you share this pride with us on its Twentieth Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Ritchie were her brothers, Vernon Corley and Gene Corley of Belen, N.M. They also visited with Mrs. Ritchie while she was in the Littlefield Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Gaylon Beavers and girls were in Quannah during the weekend to visit their parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Beavers and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Richardson. They returned home Sunday night.

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated ten accidents on rural highways in Lamb County during the month of September, according to Sergeant Thurman Keffer, Highway Patrol supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in two persons killed and nine persons injured.

The rural traffic summary for this county during the first nine months of 1972 shows a total of 77 accidents resulting in nine persons killed and 62 persons injured.

Region 5 of the Texas Department of Public Safety shows a total in September, 1972 of 561 accidents resulting in 21 persons killed and 335 persons injured as compared to the same month in 1971 with 499 accidents resulting in 33 persons killed and 268 persons injured. This was 62 more accidents, 12 less fatalities and 67 more injured in 1972 at the same period of time.

The Highway Patrol supervisor reminds you that speed is one of the main factors in accidents on the highway. Slow down a little and live a lot. Drive friendly the Texas way!

The 21 deaths for the month of September, 1972 occurred in the following counties: Oldham, Knox, Lamb, Wise, Yoakum and Young, two each; Childress, Deaf Smith, Hartley, Potter, Randall, Wheeler, Palo Pinto, Terry and Wichita, one each.

Why You Should Re-Elect President Richard Nixon Nov. 7

LET'S LOOK At AGRICULTURE And STOCK RAISING

WE HAVE one of the most abundant supplies of food in history. Our exports of livestock, fresh meats, grain sorghums and grain are going to add many dollars to the general economy.

WE'RE SELLING COMMODITIES of which we've had surpluses—and we're helping provide jobs on trucks and ships at the same time.

HERE ARE SOME OF THE REASONS

PRESIDENT NIXON'S AGRICULTURAL ACT OF 1970 gave producers more flexibility and freedom in operations.

PRESIDENT NIXON'S ADMINISTRATION has turned around the farm situation that saw farmers get an increase in income of 6 per cent between 1951 and 1969 while wage rates went up 6 per cent every year.

PRESIDENT NIXON gave agriculture one of the most effective spokesmen in recent history by appointment of Earl Butz as Secretary of Agriculture.

STRIPPING OLD FINISHES

For antique lovers, the most satisfying "find" is often the one that gives the feeling that you and you alone can appreciate the true beauty of the piece you've discovered. It's the old oak chest or mahogany table that has been refinished and repainted until no trace of the original wood's beauty shows through, but you know it's there.

The beauty of such hardwood furniture is its durability. It can stand up through a lot of use, and basically still be in good shape. In fact, it's one of the things that makes hardwood furniture such a good buy for the consumer. But with time and use, the surface can become unsightly.

Make no mistake, stripping the finish off can be a pretty messy job. There's no "miracle cure" for it. But knowing what to use with the various finishes should help.

To remove shellac, a simple washing with denatured alcohol should do the trick. Just brush it on, and when the solid shellac dissolves, brush it out evenly. However, shellac from the Victorian era will ball up under pure alcohol, and you'll need a solution of one part lacquer thinner to every four parts of alcohol.

For varnish, first try a half-and-half mixture of lacquer thinner and denatured alcohol. Do about two square feet of the piece at a time. Pour the solution on, scrub it in with 00 steel wool, stroking with the grain of the wood. As the varnish dissolves, wipe it up with rags. Afterward, go over the whole piece once more with a cloth wet with the solution, to even off the separate areas you've worked on.

On hard-to-budge varnish, use a water-rinse, paste paint remover, or use undiluted ammonia, which is perfectly safe for your hardwoods. Rub the ammonia on with 0 or 00-grade steel wool, and rinse or wipe off with water and a stiff brush or rag.

Ammonia is also what you need against the old milk-based paints. For ordinary paint, a commercial liquid or paste paint remover is effective.

Don't let yourself be discouraged by the job to be done. Your reward will be the pleasure of exposing the beautiful pattern of the original hardwood hidden underneath.

Statewide Crop Harvest Ahead of Last Year... Cattle Sales Up Five Percent... Broilers Increase, Turkeys Decrease, Egg Production Declines... Fire Ant Program Progresses...

Texas farmers are ahead of harvest of the 1972 crops compared to 1971, the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service notes.

Cotton harvest is a third complete now; last year at this time, harvest was less than a fourth completed. Harvest will be underway in the High Plains as soon as weather conditions permit.

Corn harvest throughout the state is virtually completed. Less than five percent of the crop has yet to be gathered.

Grain sorghum harvest is two-thirds finished. Both dryland and irrigated grain sorghum yields are reported as excellent in the High Plains region. Soybean harvest is a third complete. Harvest of the second cutting of rice is making good progress, while peanut harvest is three-fourths finished.

Wheat planting for the state is more than 85 percent completed. Irrigated wheat is making good progress.

Peanut harvest is gaining momentum and should be at its peak by the end of the week.

MODERATE to heavy rains are increasing range and pasture prospects. Fair to good grazing is available in most areas on native pastures. Livestock condition for the state is rated good to excellent.

SALES of cattle, calves and sheep increased throughout the state during September, while sales of goats and hogs were down. Cattle and calves marketed through Texas auctions numbered 705,000; this is five percent above a year ago.

Sheep sales were two percent above a year ago. Hogs sold totaled 45,000 which is 32 percent below a year ago.

EGG production in Texas totaled 199,000,000 during September, down six percent from a year ago and seven percent below last month.

The 11.1 million layers averaged 59.6 eggs daily per 100 hens. This was below the national average of 61.2 eggs daily per 100 hens.

Hatch of egg-type chickens was up two percent from a year ago; the total turkey poult hatch was down 30 percent from a year ago.

A NEW record number of people visited the Food and Fiber Pavilion during the recent State Fair of Texas. Almost 1,500,000 persons went through the Pavilion. Plans are already underway for the 1973 version of the Food and Fiber Pavilion. The pavilion is operated by the Texas Department of Agriculture marketing division.

COOLER weather has slowed to some extent the screwworm infestations throughout the northern part of the state, but a freeze deep into South Texas will be needed to halt the worst recurrence of the pest in more than a decade.

More than 85,000 cases of screwworms have been reported to the screwworm fly factory at Mission this year. Officials with the program are continuing to urge producers to submit samples to the fly lab for verification.

SPRAYING of Mirex-treated bait over Fort Bend County to control imported fire ants is about half completed, delayed somewhat by bad weather. The program was begun earlier in October under sponsorship of the county, state, and federal governments but fog and rain have delayed the four twin-engine planes flying out of Hobby airport from making the runs over Fort Bend County.

Arthritis Meet Set

The Texas Cooperative Extension Service and the Arthritis Foundation are sponsoring an open meeting to be held Thursday, Oct. 26, (today) 10:30 p. m. at the Levelland Senior High School Cafeteria in Levelland. The purpose of this meeting is to inform persons of all ages in this area of the South Plains about arthritis and what can be done for this disease. A very qualified group of authorities on arthritis will be on hand for the program.

Dr. Wm. A. Riley, Chairman of the West Texas Chapter of the Arthritis Foundation Medical Committee will speak on "What is Arthritis?" - the various kinds, symptoms, diagnosis and treatments.

Dr. Pete Rhymes, also a member of the medical committee will speak on "Surgery and Arthritis." He will discuss "How much it can help in the knees, hands, and feet and hips."

The role of Exercise and Physical Therapy in the Treatment of Arthritis will be discussed by Mr. Jim Thompson, a distinguished physical therapist in this area. Under Thompson's direction there will be demonstrations of certain treatments, exercises and self-help equipment used with arthritis.

After a coffee break, this group will answer questions from the floor.

This meeting is open to all persons of this area without regard to race, color or national origin. It should be a very informative program on one of today's major health problems.

SPECS APPEAL

If you haven't already noticed, eyeglasses have really come into their own as great beauty accents and fashion accessories. So much so that even gals who don't need them wear fabulous fakes for specs appeal.

With that in mind, here are some tips from the Fashion Eyewear Group of America to help you become a vision of loveliness:

1. Blondes look great in transparent beige or pastel frames; redheads and brunettes in tortoise classics; true brunettes in dramatic black.
2. Makeup colors should complement the tint of tinted lenses. A light lavender tint flatters brown eyes, and a light green tint gives extra emphasis to hazel and green eyes.
3. The eyes behind no-color frames need to be accented a little more with mascara, liner and shadow.

And, because one set of eyebrows is enough for any gal, tops of sexy spec rims should rise above them.

The case of the disappearing paycheck and what to do about it.

Some people learn the hard way. Paychecks disappear fast. Day-to-day living expenses eat up a lot. And maybe part goes in the savings account for this year's vacation or another immediate goal.

A good chunk of that money seems to disappear by itself.

So it's no wonder that when it comes to long-term goals, or when an emergency comes up, there simply aren't funds to meet the need.

Unless there was a nest egg building up all that time.

A good way to build that nest egg is with U.S. Savings Bonds. The easy way to buy them is to sign up for the Payroll Savings Plan where you work. An amount you specify will be set aside from your paycheck and used to buy Bonds.

And while you're going through grocery bills, car repairs, vacation weekends, kids' toys and nights out on the town, you'll know you're saving money too.

That's good to know.

Take stock in America. Join the Payroll Savings Plan.

A Fashion Note

Hair Takes A Cue From Fashion

Make a fashion statement with a total-control hairstyle.

Next to the clothes you choose, your hair is your most versatile fashion asset. As you change its style, its color, its look... you influence your total appearance. If it looks fabulous, so will you. With a little effort and attention your hair can be a bright fashion plus for you all the time.

Hair that has a natural look to it is always in place, always under control. It'll be fresh and beautiful all through an on-the-go day.

Beautifully controllable hair starts with a basic cut that fits the features of the wearer and the characteristics of the hair. The style comes through with carefree freedom: soft waves or curls, smooth sweeps and billowy fullness - all in their place, all complementary to each other. Bouffant ratted bubbles and unkempt locks have no place in the clean, unfussy look of today.

Beautifully natural-looking hair fashions depend on the control of a good hair setting lotion, a body-building conditioner for manageability, and hair spray - an essential finishing touch for a total-control hairstyle.

Hair spray adds the touch of confidence that helps a woman keep the look she's starting out with, because for busy women there's only one chance to look good all day.
