FORTY-NINTH YEAR NUMBER 28

SUDAN, LAMB COUNTY, TEXAS

—by Dalton

NOW COMES a San Francisco doctor making a statement which will endear him to many fat people and weaken the resolve of many of us who constantly struggle to stay within shouting distance of the "ideal weights" listed on the scales.

Dr. Paul Scholten said "the time has come to stop the war against fat and admit that people can be fat and healthy". (He did say that his fight for fat does not include the seriously obese or persons with heart or kidney conditions or diabetics who should shun excess pounds).

Dr. Scholten, 5-7, 162 says "We can allow ourselves to be plump and contented, rather than neurotic over a few extra pounds."

It's nice to hear someone say that fat can be healthy, and many of us may accept this. But it may be somewhat more of a chore to create the public image of fat as being beautiful.

Dr. Scholten makes an effort, though. He says "In almost every culture but ours, the plump woman has been the ideal of feminine beauty." He cited the "pleasantly full figures" of the Venus de Milo, Cleopatra and the robust women painted by Rembrandt, Rubens, Titian and Renoir.

Maybe so. But we've admittedly been brainwashed enough to be convinced that Mary Tyler Moore looks a lot better than Mama Cass.

BROUSING THROUGH the exchanges:

"Ole Dayton reports that a college education adds many thousands of dollars to a man's lifetime income... which he then spends sending his kids to college." ---Roy McQueen in the Seminole Sentinel.

Bill Ellis in the Friona Star lists a recipe for "No Beef Stew" and notes that someone there had several dozen fruit jars stolen from their porch. The thief took all the clean jars and left the dirty ones.

The Lamb County Leader-News at Littlefield reports that garbage collection is a problem in that city (like everywhere else), and has a story about a continuing hassle between those who want to seed clouds to stop hail and those who think it stops the rain, too.

SINCE school is underway perhaps some parents and teachers can appreciate this:

Mother was having a hard time getting her son to go to school in the morning.

"Nobody likes me in school," he complained. "The teachers don't like me, the kids don't like me, the superintendent wants to transfer me, the bus drivers hate me, and the custodians have it in for me. I don't want to go to school!"

"But you have to go," his mother said. "You're not sick, you have a lot to learn, you have something to offer others and you are a leader. And besides, you are 45 years old and you're the principal."

F. H. McCarty Rites Held

Farris H. McCarty, a 67-year-old Afton farmer, died at approximately 11 p. m. Monday, August 20 in the University Hospital in Lubbock following a lengthy illness. He was the brother of Mrs. Laura Blanchard and Lendle McCarty, both of Sudan.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday afternoon in the First Baptist Church of Afton with Rev. Luther Porter of Paducah officiating.

Burial was in the Afton Cemetery.

McCarty was a veteran of World War II and was a member of the Primitive Baptist Church of Afton.

He married Ethel Varnell Young June 14, 1947 in Roswell, N. M. and had lived in Afton all his life.

Surviving are his wife; four daughters; six sisters; four brothers; 25 grandchildren; and nine great-grandchildren.

REV. DAVID ROEVER CONDUCTING SERVICES

Rev. David Roever, evangelist, is in charge of revival services now in progress at Assembly of God Church located at 9th and Temple, Sudan. The public is cordially invited to attend the services, according to the pastor, Rev. H. T. Clarke.

Roever is a 26 year old Vietnam veteran. Only by a miracle of God is he alive today. He is an ordained minister of the Assemblies of God and enlisted in the U. S. Navy in March 1968. On January 1, 1969 he was sent to Vietnam where he served on a river patrol boat near the Cambodian border, working in conjunction with the United States Seal Team.

On July 26, 1969 in an attempt to destroy an enemy bunker he was wounded when a sniper's bullet penetrated the back of his hand which caused a white phosphorous grenade to explode six inches from his face. He was burned over 37 per cent of his body, 30 per cent being third degree burns.

After his recovery, he resumed full time evangelistic work and has conducted meetings from coast to coast.

CORRECTION--

EVANGELIST LEON GREEN

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Baker are parents of a daughter, Dawn Marie born 4:30 a. m. Saturday, August 25 in the Littlefield Hospital. She weighed 8 lbs. and 1 oz.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Baker, Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. Matt Nix. Maternal great-grandmother is Mrs. Gladys Glenn, and paternal great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Baker, all of Sudan. The couple have a son, Shane.

showed film of the New Deal and Hornet scrimmage there on Friday night.

Warren stated that the Hornets showed good hustle and that he thought the team was off to a good start, but that they needed to work out techniques. New Deal averaged 200 lbs. with the Hornets average 30 lbs. less. Warren commented that New Deal was well coached and could give Lorenzo, second rated in the state, a real battle.

Warren also said that the teams in this district seemed to be pretty well balanced and that he expects strong competition from all the teams in the race for district honors.

In the scrimmage with Lubbock Cooper, district winners last year, here Friday night, Warren stated that each team would have the ball for 20 plays and would play for first downs in the last half, punting in case of no first down, but no ball return or live play to prevent any pre-season injury if possible.

It was revealed that there are some 20 athletes on the varsity squad this year; 28-30 on junior varsity; 23-24 on eighth grade team; and 10-11 on seventh grade team.

New officers for the Booster Club were elected for the 1973-74 year. They include Ernest Legg, president; Adrian Martin, vice president; Larue Edwards, secretary; food chairmen, Sue Edwards and Mutt Hanna; Hoyt Robertson, membership chairman; Frances Pickett, projects chairman; Billye Doty, reporter.

Martin then presided in the absence of Legg with members voting to help purchase colored film of games for viewing at meetings, and to purchase another cheerleader jacket.

A membership drive will be held with cards being sold by all members of the organization.

The coaches wives are in the process of repainting the sign downtown and have made score cards.

Some 100 persons attended the ice cream supper Thursday night hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Chester Thursday night at 211 Ormand Street for the coaches and high school football athletes. Tables in the back yard were decorated in black and gold football motif.

Ice cream and cake, furnished by Booster Club members and 1973-74 cheerleaders, Mary Ann Bellar, Pam Davison, Debbie Ritchie, Jo Gaye Doty, Chryel Phillips and Phyllis Ray, were served to athletes, coaches and families, administrators and wives as well as members.

The organization will meet Tuesday night at 8:00 p. m. due to Labor Day Holiday on Monday when football workouts will be held at 7:30 p. m. that day. Other Booster Club meetings will be held on Monday nights at 8:00 p. m.

MRS. JERRY ALAN BELLAR

Nuptial Vows Exchanged

Marriage vows of Miss Pamela Ann Hine of Ruidoso, and Jerry Alan Bellar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Waymon T. Bellar of Sudan were read in a candlelight ceremony held Tuesday, August 14 at 7 p. m. in the First Baptist Church in Ruidoso with Hugh Stiles officiating at the double ring rites.

The Church was decorated with baskets of white gladiolus, white and orchid cysanthemums and white statis, and two-cathedral candelabra entwined with English ivy. Miss Katie Gill of Roswell was the soloist and accompanied herself on the guitar singing "If", "The Lord's Prayer" and "The First Time Ever". Jerry Anthony of Santa Barbara California was the organist. Earline Phillips of Ruidoso registered guests.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a gown of candlelight satin with antique lace bodice which featured small satin covered buttons down the front, and with long lace sleeves. The flowing skirt of satin swept into a chapel train, covered with lace in the back. Her elbow length veil of imported candlelight illusion fell from a pearl tiara on her head. She carried a cascade bouquet of violets (bride's birth flower), snow crystal cysanthemums and white roses with ivory streamers.

Her something old and borrowed was her gown which belongs to her aunt, Mrs. W. G. Satterwhite of Amarillo; her something new was a wrist watch, a gift from the bride- (Continued inside)

PIONEER GAS CO. APPLIES FOR COST ADJUSTMENT

Pioneer Natural Gas Company made application last week to all incorporated cities and towns served by its West Texas Transmission System to change the cost-of-gas adjustment provision of the general service rate, according to an announcement by K. Bert (Tex) Watson, company president.

For the last three years, the general service rate has been adjusted annually in April to reflect increases in the average cost of gas for the prior year. Pioneer's request would allow making this adjustment each month for the current monthly average cost of gas. According to the company, this change would more closely meet the objective of the original adjustment provision.

"Annual cost-of-gas adjustments," Watson explained, "will shortly penalize the company for aggressive competition for new gas supplies because of the lag between increases in the average cost of gas in the field and the time these increases may be passed on to the customers."

Watson made note of the increasing demand for natural gas and the critical gas supply shortage which has developed within the last few years. "There is increasing demand in the company's gas supply area for new gas that is being developed at much greater costs than existing supplies. Pioneer must be able to buy this new and more expensive gas and participate in more costly drilling and exploration activities in order to assure an adequate gas supply for its system customers. Fortunately, Pioneer has pipelines into two areas of good potential gas supply, and since the acquisition of new gas will be necessary to continue serving existing customers, this advantage should not be lost to Pioneer's service area by failure to meet going prices," Watson said.

If approved, the effective date of new rate adjustments would be October 1, 1973, and the first adjustments would be applied to all bills rendered on or after that date. Since the end of 1972, the company's cost of gas has increased by about 2 1/2 cents per thousand cubic feet (MCF) and the first adjustment would therefore be about 3 percent of the average domestic price.

"In 1970, when we reached the original agreement on a cost-of-gas adjustment with the cities, it appeared that an annual adjustment would be appropriate," Watson said. "At that time, it was not predicted

A wedding shower honoring Mrs. Ronald Wood, nee Ginger May, was held Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Kenneth Wiseman.

The serving table was covered with a white net cloth trimmed in pale blue and centered with an arrangement of shasta daisies tinged with blue. Punch and cake squares iced with white and blue were served from crystal and silver appointments by Gwen Churchman and Beckie Kinzie.

The hostess gift was cookware. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Lois Harms, Marlana May and Mrs. W. H. Lyle, all of Lubbock.

Hostesses were Mesdames Kenneth Wiseman, Byron Lynn, R. C. Williams, R. E. Williams, Glyn Williams, Tommy Moss, Walton Downs, Darwin Reid, C. E. Nichols, Henry Williams, Gilbert Churchman, R. A. Lance, Kenneth Noles, Audrey West, Harold Ingle, Lloyd Gilreath.

T. E. A. HONORED

Members of the executive committee of District XVII of the Texas State Teachers Association honored officers at a "Get-to-Know You" tea at the Lubbock Garden and Arts Center from one to three thirty o'clock Sunday afternoon on August 26, 1973.

Guests were local association presidents, local association standing committee members, and representatives from the state office of TSTA.

Mrs. Charlene Hart, Lubbock, and Mrs. Dorothy McGregor, Frenship, were in charge of refreshments; music was furnished by Mrs. Beverly Eubanks, Lubbock.

Mrs. Mary Raphael, Past President, District XVII, was General Arrangement Chairman for the tea. Officers of District XVII TSTA include Bill Stanford, president, Plainview; Mrs. Lucy Faye Smith, president elect, Muleshoe; Mrs. Janice Posey, secretary, Plainview; and Carl McClure, treasurer of Olton.

that the energy situation would develop so rapidly accompanied by the accelerated increase in the field cost of gas which makes it necessary for us to request this more current provision," Watson continued. "I think the spirit of the original agreement, to permit Pioneer to recover its increased costs for gas, is reflected in this request," Watson concluded.

BELLAR-HINE WEDDING---

groom; something blue was the traditional blue garter, which was also old, having belonged to the bride's cousin, Elizabeth Hine. She also wore two pennies in her shoe, minted in the years she and the bridegroom were born.

Miss Cathy Hine, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Sharon Kay Satterwhite of Amarillo, cousin of the bride, and Mary Ann Bellar, Susan, sister of the bridegroom. All attendants wore identical gowns, floor length, in an old fashioned style with ivory lace bodices and violet taffeta skirts. Each carried a colonial bouquet of white caryanthemums and violets.

Monty Moore of Wichita Falls, a friend of the bridegroom, served as best man. Grooms-men included Damon Provence and Gary Gatewood, both of Sudan; and ushers were Mike Bellar of Tyler and Roger Bellar of Sudan, both brother of the bridegroom. Boutonnieres were caryanthemums, the bridegroom's birth flower.

The bride's mother was dressed in a floor length pink polyester crepe gown in an empire style trimmed with crystal beads around the waistline and on the collar. The bridegroom's mother wore a floor length gown in light blue polyester crepe with a pleated skirt and long sleeves. Both wore corsages of cymbidium orchids and pixie carnations.

The bride presented her mother with a long stemmed white rose as she came down the aisle to the altar. Featured on the altar table was an open Bible illuminated by an ivory candle, with a long stemmed white rose which the bride presented to the bridegroom's mother as the couple left the altar after the ceremony.

A reception was held at the Deck House Restaurant following the ceremony. White trellises entwined with fresh ivy provided a gardenlike setting for the affair. Floor candelabra with greenery and candles with glass shades were placed throughout the large room. Placed at the entrance were two white cupids suspended from the ceiling holding a large white bow with streamers. The bride's table featured two matching center pieces of white spider mums, orchid pompoms and baby's breath suspended on cathedral poles above the ivory floor length burlap cloth. In the center of the table was the four-tiered ivory wedding cake, with the bottom tier of three heart shaped cakes. The cake was decorated with ivory roses and small violets in shades of orchid and purple. Silver appointments were used.

Members of the house party included Mrs. John Dillard, Mrs. Mike Clements, Mrs. Lloyd L. Davis Jr., Mrs. James M. Wool-

The Now Washbasket
By Bobbie Hill

Fifty percent of all of today's wearing apparel is made of polyester knit fabrics. This recent revolution in garment manufacturing has caused the consumer to adopt new laundry methods to obtain satisfactory results. Polyester knits are machine washable. But the garment manufacturers, now required to label clothing with permanent fabric care instructions, are advising consumers not to use bleach, which, they say, can damage the fabric and cause colors to fade.

Here are some tips for washing polyester knits: Prevent a buildup of soil by frequent washing. Polyester knit garments should not be worn more than twice without washing because odors cling to the fibers and they readily pick up oily soil. The automatic washer should be only half filled with polyesters. Overloading hinders cleaning. Use the warm water setting to prevent shrinkage. Also, the garments will return to their original shape. For normally soiled clothing five to six minutes of gentle agitation time should be sufficient.

To the recommended amount of soap or detergent add one cup of Borateem Plus, a bleach substitute which deodorizes the clothing and helps keep colors bright. A cold water rinse will help keep the polyesters from wrinkling. Use a warm setting in the dryer and remove the garments immediately after the cycle is completed. A fabric softener used as directed will reduce static cling.

Microfilm is expected to account for 17 per cent of all photographic industry sales by 1985, exceeded only by still photography and photocopying.

SOIL CONSERVATION NOW ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS

Applications for windbreak seedlings are now being accepted at the Soil Conservation Service Office. If anyone is interested in establishing a field or farmstead windbreak next spring, you need to get your order in soon.

Trees that are available this year are pines, red cedar, ash, mulberry, black walnut, arborvitae, honey locust and osage orange. There are several varieties of pines to choose from. Order dates for pine are Sept. 1, 1973 until October 16, 1973 and for other trees the order dates are September 1, 1973 until February 12, 1974. The trees will be shipped directly to you sometime between mid-December through the first week of March. So a good seedbed should be prepared early and be in good shape when the seedlings arrive. The trees should be transplanted as soon as possible after they are received especially the evergreens.

Anyone that is interested can contact any of the personnel at the Soil Conservation Service Office in the basement of the Lamb County Courthouse in Littlefield and pick up an application blank as well as any information they need on planning and establishing the field or farmstead windbreak.

The American Quarter Horse was the first breed developed in the Americas, according to the book, "The Encyclopedia of the Horse," recently published by the Viking Press. It originated during the colonial era in the Carolinas and Virginia, where match racing was the leading outdoor sport, with races run on village streets and along country lanes among the plantations. These horses were seldom raced beyond 440 yards, hence the colloquial name "quarter miler."

Driving Expert Says Plan Ahead

Driving by intention instead of instinct can stretch gasoline mileage for America's fuel-conscious motorists, says the head of a group that drives test cars for a living. "Most motorists tend to think about their driving maneuvers only in terms of immediate need or opportunity," said Fred Bardwell, manager of The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company's 7,300-acre tire proving grounds in San Angelo, Tex. "Thus, they have to make quick stops when something comes up ahead of them and gun their engines when the way is clear again."

The net effect is wasted gasoline. "The key is planning and anticipation," Bardwell says, "planning ahead to avoid unnecessary quick stops and starts, driving carefully and basic preventive maintenance."

Correspondence Schools Teach Millions at Home

This fall many Americans will obtain their education through private correspondence courses. Drawn from all segments of the population, most home study students share one common desire: to improve themselves and obtain a better job through correspondence education, according to the National Home Study Council.

Private correspondence schools operate as independent enterprises and without public funds or endowments. The schools also pay all the normal business taxes, while serving more than a million-and-a-half students without cost to taxpayers.

Among the students are many college graduates continuing their education through correspondence courses. Others hope to increase their earning power, start new careers, complete an education, keep abreast of new technology, or simply to pursue a hobby.

The courses they are taking range from art and accounting to welding and writing. By studying through correspondence schools, students do not have to give up their present jobs, leave home or lose income. Adults do not have to compete with youngsters fresh from school. Many are said to choose home study because the course they wish to pursue is not available at their location.

"If you're planning to take a correspondence course, investigate the school before you enroll," advises William Fowler, executive director of the National Home Study Council. The Council of Better Business Bureaus publishes a consumer information booklet: "Tips on Home Study Schools."

Another source of information is the 1973 Directory of Accredited Private Home Study Schools which can be obtained free from the Council, 1801-18th Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20009.

The Word for Today

By Charles H. Robinson, Asst. P.R. Director
Bryan College, Dayton, Tennessee

Your last appointment... We come into the world and we leave it once. There is one way for all men to settle the matter of their souls' salvation. Yet, many live "without Christ, having no hope, without God in the world," as if they believed who die unrepentant and without Christ is certain in fact, terrible in character, and everlasting in scope. Nevertheless, your last date will be your appointment with death. "It is appointed unto men once to die, and after this the judgment."

After death there is no second chance for salvation. The rich man mentioned in the 16th chapter of Luke found too late that, once he had crossed the great fixed gulch of death, he was beyond all help from heaven or earth. The judgment of all who die unrepentant and without Christ is certain in fact, terrible in character, and everlasting in scope. The only Savior is Jesus. The only time is now. Turn to Him in faith today!

Add Another Three Million... It's One Hundred Million Above 1972... Fifty-four Per Cent More.

Crop production records in Texas continue to climb. For example, you can add another 3,000,000 bushels or so to the 1973 Texas wheat crop; add 100,000,000 bushels more to the grain sorghum crop; the corn crop in Texas is up 54 per cent this year from a year ago.

Latest estimate now on the wheat crop in Texas is 98,600,000 bushels. This is the second highest ever. Back in 1947--26 years ago--the Texas wheat crop totaled 116,960,000 bushels. Yield this year will be a new all-time record high of 29 bushels per acre.

Texas, the leader in the nation in grain sorghum, is out-doing itself this year in that commodity. Expected production now is forecast at 414,800,000 bushels. This compared with 319,780,000 bushels in 1972.

This year's estimate (it could even go higher) is the largest ever. Yield this year will average 61 bushels per acre, another record high. That means an average of 3,416 pounds per acre. Several reports indicate 5,000 to 6,000 pounds grain sorghum on dryland in Texas this year.

ADD 54 per cent on to the 1973 corn crop compared to 1972, says the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service.

Corn production in the state this year is forecast at 60,800,000 bushels. A record per acre average of 95 bushels per acre is expected for Texas this year, the highest ever.

COTTON crop for Texas this year is expected to reach 4,500,000 bales, which would be the largest crop since 1965. Acres for harvest are estimated at 5,500,000 compared with 5,000,000 acres in 1972. Yield is expected to average 400 pounds per acre, which is only the third time in history when Texas produced that much on a per acre basis.

TEXAS also continues to be ahead of the rest of the nation in cattle on feed. The latest report shows that there are 2,302,000 head of cattle and calves on feed in Texas. This is nine per cent above a year ago but one per cent below the number on feed a month ago.

Marketings of fat cattle during July totaled 389,000 head, which is five per cent above July of last year and three per cent above June, which again proves that Texas cattle producers are not holding cattle in spite of the price freeze.

Texas had almost 700,000 more cattle on feed as of August 1 than the second-ranking state, Iowa.

Nationwide, the number of cattle and calves on feed in the seven major cattle feeding states totaled 9,122,000 head. This is four per cent less than a month ago but two per cent more than a year ago at this time.

JULY milk production in Texas is up by only one per cent from a year ago, and is one per cent below the previous month, which continues to bear out predictions of lower milk production.

Nationwide, milk production during July is 3.3 per cent less than a year ago. The number of milk cows is also down 2.5 per cent from a year ago.

Pasture and range conditions over most of Texas are rated good to excellent. However, a large portion of West Texas is rated as poor to fair.

NEW regulations regarding brucellosis control are now being studied throughout the state. A public hearing on them will be held in Austin September 18 by the Texas Animal Health Commission.
