FIFTY-FIRST YEAR

NUMBER 21

SUDAN, LAMB COUNTY, TEXAS

THURSDAY, JULY 10, 1975

10¢ PER COPY

WE NOTICED THAT a fellow named Dennis Agajanian who will appear in a "Jesus Festival of Music" in Lubbock July 10 (in connection with the upcoming Billy Graham Crusade) is described as the "world's fastest gospel guitarist."

We realize that what that means is he can pick the notes faster than anybody (except maybe a couple of sinners), but for some reason it reminded us of some of the musical programs with which we have had a part. I have played saxophone and banjo before audiences many times, and there have been a couple of times when I might have qualified as one of the fastest banjoists or saxophonists in the world. I could leap from the stage and race to the exit before more than half the audience could rise from their seats, meaning that when you play like I sometimes do, you have to move in a hurry to avoid being injured.

I have played before some well-known persons (Ronald Reagan, Gov. Briscoe) but fortunately most of them weren't musicians. I did perform once for Jimmy Dean, but only as a member of the band.

Still, I think he noticed my saxophone playing. As he left the stand, he dropped a double-handful of sausage into the bell of the horn.

IF JAZZ BAND LEADER Stan Kenton is smart, he'll stay out of Tennessee. Last week, when contacted by the Nashville Banner for an interview, he said that country and western music is "ignorant and perverted" and termed it a "national disgrace" and a "lot of whining and crying."

Well, we suppose everyone has his own opinions about the various types of music (that's why all of them are popular).

I kind of agree with Kenton that country music is mostly a lot of whining and crying, but there are some country songs I like, including some I like better than Kenton's brand of jazz, which always seemed to me to be a little far out.

One thing for sure, if Kenton ever goes to Nashville, he'd better take Sam McCloud, Matt Dillon, and Jethro Pugh along as bodyguards.

THE CROSBY ST. COMIC says his son will drive anything that runs on gas and has wheels — except a lawnmower.

ENROUTE TO HOUSTON

FFA GROUP HAS AUTO ACCIDENT

Enroute to the 47th annual state FFA Convention in Houston early Tuesday morning, local members and advisor of Sudan High School had their trip called to a halt following an accident. The automobile in which the six were riding went over a guard rail dropping approximately 16 feet into a creek bed and traveled several feet on two wheels before settling on all four wheels, it was learned. The time of the accident was 7:15 a. m. and one mile west of Snyder.

Occupants of the vehicle were Don Ham, FFA advisor, and Craig Doty, Larry Bellar, motorists with several going on by before a man in a pickup stopped who could see the car below. He had an ambulance sent to the scene; in fact, three arrived. The group was taken to a Snyder hospital where they were treated and released following Mr. Ham's consciousness. Gary received stitches in the head wound.

Word was received in Sudan about 8:15 a. m. of the accident. Mr. Ham's wife, Ruth, and Craig's mother, La Fern Doty went to Snyder for the group in a station wagon owned by the Connie Franks. They returned to WRECK SCENE at Snyder of vehicle containing local FFA group enroute to State Convention.

Mark Lane, Daryl Roberts and Gary Ham. Mr. Ham received a concussion, being unconscious an hour; Gary, a cut on his head; and Larry a bumped nose.

The automobile was not visible from the highway. Craig climbed up to the highway in attempt to flag down Sudan late Tuesday afternoon. Larry went to an area doctor again after they arrived here.

It was reported that the automobile, owned by the Don Ham's, was "totaled." It came to rest only a few feet from a concrete wall.

REVIVAL TEAM GOES TO KOREA

By Delbert Serratt
Though Korea is a small country, even compared to Texas, it is the place where God performed miracles daily during the recent Korean Crusade, June 15-22. The First Baptist Church of Claude was well represented with six members participating. Flis Brown, Mrs. Loyce Brown, Edith Ballard, Charlotte Standridge, Mary Lou Serratt left Amarillo June 10 for Korea. Landing representatives from the forty churches expecting teams to help with Revival. Saturday the Claude team went by bus to Pyung Taek where pastor YU introduced us to his church who received us most graciously.

For the next eight days our schedule was full of sharing God's love with a receptive people. In the homes, in the market-places, at schools, in the police academy, at Camp Humphreys Army Base and in the Pyung Taek Baptist Church we shared testimonies and the Word of God and watched as Jesus Christ spoke to hearts of Korean people and the Holy Spirit worked the miracles of salvation. Though we felt a little language barrier, God sent us a message and that message was received.

If statistics say anything to you, they reveal God's working power as at least 79 professions of faith in Christ were made in the church services. It is hard for us to comprehend that our powerful Christ moved upon 1377 lives as they committed themselves to Him in various gatherings. We saw God work in a small country through the Name of Jesus.

With tears of departure we left our friends of Pyung Taek on Sunday, June 22, knowing that heaven may be our next meeting place.

The Bible Says

Jesus told his apostles in Matthew 7:16, "By their fruits ye shall know them." On my first visit to Sudan, in February 1975, I formed my first impression of Sudan that later proved to be true. My first impression was an immediate feeling of warmth that the community possessed. Being a resident from the hills of Tennessee myself, I have lived in smaller towns all of my life. You expect smaller towns to be friendlier than a larger community, but today this isn't always true. The attitudes of a community reflect the attitudes of the people that live in the community. Would you "smile" or example as a member of this community reflect the warmth and friendliness that are characteristic of Sudan? Most important, what type of attitude or example do we teach our children about the Lord? Do our children ever see us reading the Bible? Do we have family devotionals? When was the last time our children heard us talking to God in prayer? When the Bible is discussed, do we teach our children to prove what is discussed to be the truth from God's word? Paul, in 1 Thessalonians 5:21, told the Christians at Thessalonica "to prove all things; hold fast that which is good (truth)." You know we as preachers are human like everybody else. Are we willing to stand before God on the day of judgement to be judged on

The Ku'damm: Essence of Berlin

In Berlin (West) it looks like one more summer that the friendly competition between local residents and visitors for the best tables at the city's famous sidewalk cafes may beat yet another record. The best of these oases are on fashionable Kurfurstendamm boulevard, 2 1/2 miles long and an impressive 175 ft. wide, with sidewalks in proportion and a parking strip down the center (described by one wag as a two-mile-long coffeehouse).

In truth, though, the Ku'damm (as it is called for short) is much more than that: it is also the hub for literally hundreds of elegant boutiques, smart hotels, famed restaurants, art galleries, antique shops, and a score of legitimate theatres (not to forget the many movie houses). All this is in addition to under-one-roof shoppers' paradises such as the Ku'damm Corner or the 22-story five-acre Europa Center, where a new gambling casino is slated to be opened this year.

As for the after-dark hours, perhaps it suffices to remember that the cabaret is virtually a Berlin creation. This means that the theatres and opera and concert halls are supplemented by more than fifty major locales for entertainment to every taste and purse.

But to return to our sidewalk cafes, one of the best-known is Kranzler's (at left, across the street in photo). There, or anywhere else, be sure to linger over a cool Berliner Weisse, the frothy light beer fortified with a jigger of raspberry juice and served in a bowl-sized goblet: even if only temporarily, the world will seem a far brighter place!

DELINQUENT TAXES IN AREA

AUSTIN—Comptroller Bob Bullock said Wednesday that some 1,800 delinquent taxpayers in the Lubbock area owe more than $1 million in state sales taxes and almost $250,000 in city sales taxes.

The back taxes owed in the Lubbock area are part of $59 million owed by an estimated 70,000 delinquent sales tax accounts statewide. Bullock has assigned a special task force in his office to set up an aggressive collection system.

The Lubbock area delinquents are those under the jurisdiction of the Lubbock district field office which covers the counties of Bailey, Hale, Floyd, Motley, Dickens, Garza, Lynn, Borden, Dawson and Gaines.

The Lubbock office is in Suite 400 of the Terrace Shopping Center (4002 34th Street); the telephone number is (Area Code 806) 795-0691.

The Lubbock area delinquents date back to 1962 and what the preacher told us in the Bible said or will we search the Bible to prove what is the truth? Jesus said in Matthew 7:17 that there are only two kinds of fruit, good fruit and evil fruit.

Jesus said, "Not every one that saith unto me 'Lord, Lord' shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father who is in heaven." Matthew 7:21
What type of fruit does our life reflect?

MANOR NEWS

Amherst, Texas

Once again June is gone from this year's calendar, but we didn't let it go unnoticed. We went June 28th as picnic day. All the students and staff followed the lead out to the back porch where tables were set up for everyone. We enjoyed hamburgers, potato chips, baked beans, and ice cream. The weather must have been wonderful, because it was just perfect. It was great fun to be out and eat out. The picnic was the topic of conversation for several days.

Mrs. Lizette Nicholson had visitors from near and far this past week. Vernon Edwards, Dora Wilson, Nancy Rice of Littlefield and Mrs. J. B. Fielden and John of Phoenix, Arizona.

Is there an accepted formula for determining how much life insurance I should carry?

Why is the working an insurance policy so difficult to understand? Why not use plain talk?

All policy forms must be approved by the Department of Insurance for each state in which the policy is to be sold. Therefore, to comply with various state regulations, an insurance company must develop, adjusting the amount of 50 different policy forms. Insurance companies would like to see plain talk policy since most consumers maintain Policy Holder Service Departments which write in policy holders re-empowering the terms of the policy in layman's language. Companies would prefer to eliminate this additional expense and pass on the savings in premium payment reductions. Progress has been made in the last five years to simplify the language and better illustrate the benefits.

LUBBOCK BOYS RANCH RECEIVES LICENSE

Texas Boys Ranch of Lubbock recently received their license from state officials in Austin which was the last step required to receive home less or unattached boys. The ranch was started in January of 1973 and has one cottage at the ranch site located just north of Lubbock on Liberty Road.

"This means we now can accept applications for boys," says Roger Engels, executive director of the Ranch, "and hopefully the assessment committee can meet in early July and we will have ten boys living in the cottage by the end of July." Hopefully in other cottage will be started by fall. Engels said the office has been swamped with calls about applications and the sooner we can build more facilities, the sooner we can accommodate more boys.

Texas Boys Ranch has received the license required by the State Department of Public Welfare. County judges, families, churches, educational facilities and concerned citizens throughout the fifteen South Plains Associations of Governments.

Plastic is a rapidly expanding industry. Its total sales volume is expected to grow from approximately $20 billion in 1970 to an estimated level of $200 billion in the year 2000. But plastic does not merely go and cover the walls of your home. So, in the future of the plastic industry, many people expect governmental action aimed at using alternative sources of energy, such as nuclear and solar, while eliminating substitute supplies of petroleum products in the production of plastic.
