Breaking Operations Are Begun At MBP

Work continues at a steady pace at Missouri Beef Packers, with the company beginning breaking operations in only its third week of operations.

Twelve new employees were added on Monday to take care of the new operation, which consists of breaking the carcasses down into rounds, lions, ribs, and chunks. About three carloads of this type of meat has been shipped as of Tuesday.

"This broadens our sales market considerably," said plant manager Bill Gilbert, indicating that the company could sell beef to more outlets than when it was sold only in halves.

Jim Hays has been employed as head of breaking operations, Jack Darron, formerly of Lubbock, is in charge of carcass sales and cuts.

Missouri Beef only began the breaking operations at its Rock Port plant this year -- some two years after opening. Thus, it begins this phase of work practically from the start at the Friona plant.

The company failed to reach its goal of 1,000 cattle per day, but through no fault of the production end, cattle, partly due to the market, were unavailable.

Gilbert indicated that the plant would shoot for 1200 to 1400 per day by next week and try to stay on that plateau, if everything is in order.

The plant reached a peak of 723 cattle killed last Wednesday. Gilbert pointed out that the workmen processed 647 cattle in five and one-half hours on Monday, and then processed 517 cattle by noon on Tuesday.

The total for the plant's second week was 3,219 cattle.

Bank Stockholders' Interests Are Sold

A group composed of Charles E. Allen, A.L. Black, Ranza B. Boggess, W.D. Buske, Wm. Doyle Elliott, G.A. McGlumphy, D.C. McWhorter, H.K. Kendrick and Melvin Rolf has purchased the interests of David H. Carson, J.G. McFarland, and S.H. Osborn in Friona State Bank.

There will be no change in the active officers or personnel of the bank.

The new directors are Charles E. Allen, A.L. Black, Ranza B. Boggess, W.D. Buske, Wm. Doyle Elliott, G.A. McGlumphy, D.C. McWhorter, H.K. Kendrick, Melvin Rolf and Frank A. Spring.

Wesley Is Appointed MBP Traffic Manager

The appointment of Dennis Wesley as traffic manager for Missouri Beef Packers, Inc. at the company's new Friona division has been announced by Gene Frye, president.

Wesley who acted as purchasing agent during the construction period, will have jurisdiction over all local matters pertaining to transportation and distribution of all products arriving and leaving the Friona plant, and will collaborate with the sales department in the ordering of equipment from rail and motor carriers for the transportation of products. The traffic department will also handle the billing of freight, certification of bills for payment of charges, expediting claims for loss and damages, and freight rate matters at the local level.

The traffic manager shall also be in charge and supervise the operation of the Missouri Beef Packers Cartage Company Inc., said cooperation handling the hosting of all trailer equipment, switching of all rail equipment, re-icing of all rail cars and other duties.

SPRING SHOWER . . . Photographs above show how spring showers are "manufactured" at the Friona Country Club, for irrigation purposes. The Star camera stopped the action of the sprinkler system, and the sun caught the beads of water in an unusually attractive fashion.

Saturday Is Poppy Day

"Lest we forget. . . wear a poppy!" This will be the message of the American Legion Auxiliary to the people of Friona on Poppy Day, Saturday, May 25.

Members of the Auxiliary and cooperating groups of young women will be stationed at numerous places all day offering baskets of Memorial Poppies and urging all citizens to wear one of the little red blossoms in honor of our Nation's war dead.

"We know that everyone in Friona will wish to express remembrance and gratitude by wearing a poppy on that day," said Gladys Wilson, President of 206 Unit of the Auxiliary.

"The memorial poppies have been made for the Auxiliary by disabled war veterans working in hospitals, and convalescent workrooms," Mrs. Wilson said. "The Auxiliary's memorial poppies are fashioned from crepe paper and wire stems and their production provides an interesting diversion for many hospitalized veterans," she added.

"The work is considered valuable as occupational therapy, in addition to giving the disabled men the encouraging experience of earning money once again. All materials are supplied without cost by the American Legion Auxiliary which pays the hospitalized veteran for his work."

"An estimated 150,000 volunteer workers from the Auxiliary and cooperating groups are required to distribute some 20 million memorial flowers on Poppy Day. All contributions received from the public are used solely for the rehabilitation and child welfare programs conducted by the American Legion Auxiliary.

Indians Romp To Easy Win At Umbarger, 22-5

The Friona "Indians" took their second win of the season without a loss against Umbarger last Sunday, winning a 22-5 runaway.

Jim Wynn, a student of Eastern New Mexico, pitched the first six innings for Friona, giving up two of the runs. S. D. Baize finished up.

Another player from ENMU for Friona, Benny Jones, was the leading hitter with four hits, including two doubles. Larry O'Conner collected three hits, and Cecil Maddox, S.D. Baize and Wynn each had two.

It was a 3-1 game, Friona, after three innings, but the Indians scored seven times in the fourth to take a 10-1 lead. Wynn and Maddox homered to spark the inning.

This Sunday the local nine travels to Amarillo to meet the unbeaten Amarillo Plowboys, who are 3-0.

Kite Flying Winners Told

Winners in the first annual Friona Chamber of Commerce kite flying contest were announced this week by Alton Peak, chairman of the event. The contest was held last Saturday.

Galen Brewer built the largest kite which flew. Sharon Smith flew the smallest kite; Maurice Royal had the best store-bought kite; Kent Miller entered the best homemade kite; John Seright had the most unique homemade kite, and Ross Middleton entered the kite which was flying the highest at 3:30 p.m.

Special Voting Underway

Voters are reminded that absentee voting for the June 1 runoff, began Wednesday at the County Clerk's office in Farwell. Absentee deadline is Tuesday, May 28.

Those who are thinking of being gone for the Memorial Day weekend are urged to go by the Courthouse and cast an absentee ballot. Ballots will not be mailed for the runoff, as they were for the primary election.

Summer Leagues Begin Tuesday

The summer baseball program gets underway in Friona next Tuesday, with a game in the Pee-Wee League between Continental Grain and the E-J Bees at 6 p.m., and a game in the Intermediate League between Friona Feed Yard and Star-Hurst.

A total of 11 teams are lined up for competition in two leagues this summer. There are seven pee-wee teams and four intermediates.

NEWEST MEMBER . . . Bryan A. Rogers, left, is presented the Friona Chamber of Commerce's "newest member" plaque by chamber president Charles Allen, Rogers, who lives in Amarillo, represents the Geo. Barnard Company of St. Louis and Dallas, suppliers of bank material.

Concerning graduation, we were thinking the other day about our own graduation date, and about the changes which have come about in the world since that date 13 years ago. Now, the world wasn't perfect back in 1955, but it seems to us that today's graduates, both high school and college, face more of a challenge than ever before.

The very existence of our nation and world may be settled by this generation.

Today's graduates are faced with turmoil both at home and abroad. In our own homeland, the racial situation bids to literally turn the country inside out.

Our leaders, rather than enforcing laws and prosecuting criminals, seem to be about ready to turn the place over to the criminals, lest they be offended.

If it's not too late by the time they are prepared, members of this new generation may be called upon to help stem this tide, which becomes more menacing with each passing year.

As we said, we're sure the world wasn't perfect 13 years ago. Perhaps it was just that we were young and inattentive to the problems which existed. The Korean conflict was resolved, and it seems that about the only internal disturbance involved the "panty raids" on our college campuses.

Many people would like to trade all of our ills for some more of the panty raids of the 1950s.

We don't mean to be alarmist—but someone needs to sound an alarm, or someday there may not be an America for our children to inherit.

We've come to love this land, with its many freedoms, and would like to think that it will forever be the shining example of freedom for all nations. However, the country is being put to a severe test, and our very future may be at stake.

We used to think it was old fashioned to talk of the "good old days," and you sometimes hear people yearn for those days.

However, you have to admit that whatever unpleasant was contained in the "good old days" they did not contain many of today's unpleasantness.

If it would be a return to law and order, a peaceful existence, and a future unclouded by many of the problems which face today's young people, then perhaps a wish to return to the "good old days" would not be out of line.

Today's graduates are faced with not only having to make preparations for becoming respectable citizens in the world, but with working out solutions to problems which threaten to make our world a holocaust.

However, if anyone can solve these problems, we're betting that the current generation can do it. They are young. They do not become easily discouraged. Life is a challenge, and most of today's young people think they are equal to the task.

So, we wish them Godspeed in their task. They must remember that the world does not owe them a living. On the contrary, each one has a big obligation to see to it that the world is made a better place in which to live.

If they do that, then several members of the "older generation" might have to eat crow about today's kids. However, this would not be the first time for this to happen, and probably not the last.

Good luck, seniors! It's a delicate world you're entering. Handle it with care. You'll want to pass it on to your children one of these days before you know it.

Someone said you're getting old when you can remember things which happened 60 years ago, but can't remember what you came into the room for.

Pause And Reflect

By Nelson Lewis

Last week near Amarillo, "Miss Helium" tugged on a rope thereby triggering the release of several thousand small balloons filled with the magical gas.

Immediately upon their escape the multi-colored bubbles danced off in all directions.

Figuratively speaking, the same thing will happen when school lets out this coming weekend.

For the greater part of these escapees the summer will be too short. All too soon fall will be here again and balls and gloves and Barbie dolls will be replaced by the three Rs. Those students who will return to high school will bid adieu to jobs and summer fun and buckle down to the task of earning a diploma.

The graduating seniors are no less like the helium-filled balloons than their fellows, in fact they may be a more apt simile in that they are now being released into a strange new element—the adult world.

Some will stay close to the ground and be buffeted hither and yon by the capricious winds of life.

Others will sail away to discover that there are as many currents pushing down as there are drafts pushing up.

A few will scorn the boundaries of the eddy air stream and, setting their course for the stars, will go up, up, and away into the wild blue yonder.

These will be the path finders for their generation and will chart the course for years to come.

To each of them we wish success in whatever honorable tasks they undertake.

We can not all be high-flyers; someone has to perform the menial jobs in order that others may devote their talents to the fulfillment of dreams that will benefit all of us.

One thing we hope they learn before too many years have passed — an education is supposed to enable one to enjoy the good things in life — it is not merely a means of earning vast amounts of money.

After all, it's only money—what can it really buy?

Pedro de Castaneda was a soldier in the army of New Spain (Mexico) and accompanied General Coronado on the famous expedition into Arizona, New Mexico, Texas, and Kansas during 1541 and 1542.

In 1565 he wrote to the governor of his country in order to clear up some false stories concerning the expedition.

His remarks relating to the advantages gained, and then carelessly lost, by the explorers can be used by our people today as a warning that we too may some day regret the loss of our "life, liberty, and pursuit of happiness."

"I always notice, and it is a fact, that for the most part when we have something valuable in our hands, and deal with it without hindrance, we do not value it or prize it so highly as if we understood how much we should miss it after we had lost it, and the longer we continue to have it the less we value it; but after we have lost it and miss the advantages of it, we have a great pain in the heart, and we are all the time imagining and try to find ways and means by which to get it back again."

Thursday, May 10th, the House of Representatives passed, by a vote of 348 to 5, a bill to deny Federal financial aid to any student found guilty of willfully disobeying a lawful order of the college or university he attends.

His guilt will be determined by the authorities of said institution.

Federal aid now is in excess of one billion dollars a year, and reaches one and one half million students; about one fourth of those enrolled.

Ole! Now we are getting somewhere.

If the same degree of horse sense will be shown in the entire Congress perhaps "rocking chair money" will be denied the other groups that insist upon stirring up street riots, flag burnings and whole sale trespass.

Reverend Abernathy in Washington D.C., says he hopes "we will not have to progress to violence - is that his definition of "progress" - violence?

We Salute This Line of Marchers

The Library Corner

BY MRS. DON SPRING

The Friona Public Library wishes to congratulate the Seniors and to be of service to you with any required reading you may have before entering college.

We have lists of fiction and biographies for the college bound student. Any book you need we can get from our major resource centers if this library does not have it. We would be happy to have you come by and see what we have.

Plans are well underway for our summer reading program which starts June 5th. Watch for posters in the store windows and the display at the Bi-Wize Drug. Mrs. Flake Barber and Mrs. Jim Johnston, co-chairmen and their committee, have been very busy on this worthwhile project.

We had about seventy children to attend story hour last week. The Young Homemakers sponsored films and refreshments for the children who had attended story hour. This was the last story hour until September as the library has grown so much that there is not enough room to take care of the summer reading program and story hour at the same time.

Bible Schools will soon be starting again for the summer. If the teachers have need of special books or aids, please check with us. We have several books on crafts which might be helpful. Some books we have are: "Fun with Wood," "Fun with Clay," "Fun with Paper," "Fun with Fabrics," and "Fun with String." If we do not have the books you need, it is possible that Mrs. Gaede our librarian, can get them for you from the Mary E. Bivens Library in Amarillo if you will notify her a few days before you need the books. We also have a large list of films and filmstrips available to us from the Mary E. Bivens Library for a small fee. Many of these could also be used in your Bible School.

Mrs. J.G. McFarland, chairman, reports that plans are progressing for the Friends of the Library. Keep watching for more information concerning the Friends of the Library.

Bath Decor Savings with Color, Design

That once plain bath is now easily the gayest, newest looking room in the house.

What's making the news? Rich, deep tones—long the favorite color choice of both high fashion and interior design—are now brightly changing bath decor.

Deep, rich colors have become the popular choice in bath towels, bath tile, and fixtures. The newest deep tone accessory is vivid Kleenex Boutique bathroom tissue in hot pink, bold gold, avocado flip, and true blue.

It's easy to understand the popularity of vibrant colors for the bath. A few easy-to-coordinate accessories, harmonized in deep tones, produce a well-planned contemporary look that's quick and inexpensive to accomplish.

Vinyl and foil wall papers, prepacked for easy application, come in a variety of tones and prints, border-detailed mirrors add a custom look, and matching towel sets are available in many accent colors and patterns. Deep tone accessories, like new Kleenex Boutique bath tissue, bring a designer look to the room once considered the "what-can-you-do-to-decorate-it" area.

For the guest bath, tones of blue and green create a luxurious effect with a Mediterranean scroll pattern highlighting towels and shower curtain, true blue or avocado flip bath tissue, and a rug to match.

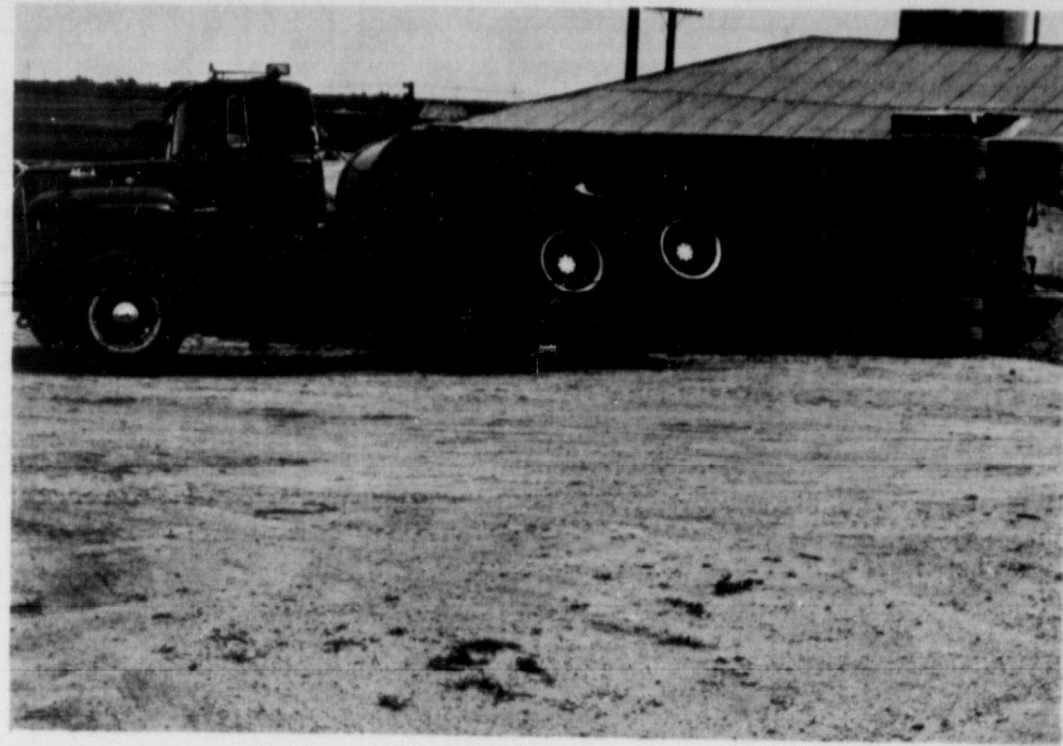

A splash of hot pink and orange creates a "wide awake" look for the family bath. Deep color is a great eye opener in a room enlivened with a pink and orange print wallpaper and pink shower curtains piped with orange. Orange towels and hot pink tissue gain impact when the color scheme is accented with a fresh grouping of star flowers in the same tones.

A look of sheer luxury is created when all bath accessories are harmonized in tones of elegant gold, a decorating idea for the master bath.

For the royal touch, secure towels, in light and deep shades of rich gold, with look-like-gold brass rings. Repeat the same metal in soap dish and powder box, add deep tone bold gold tissue, and stage the regal setting with a flocced wallpaper of gold fleur de lis on buff.

With bright, vibrant color in accessories even the most plain bath takes on the elegance of a designer room.

TRUCK FLIPS . . . A large transport truck loaded with sand overturned at the Sears Redi-Mix plant this week, dumping its load of sand and damaging the truck somewhat. No one was hurt in the accident.

TIME SAVERS

By Martha Brandt

ENTERTAINING NOTIONS

Planning a party? Plot your way out of panic with time-saving sprays to add gaiety without adding to the time you have to spend on decking the halls any time in the year. Here are a few ideas for making instant party atmosphere.

For the windows: If nature's a slow poke during winter, try trimming your windows with a splash of one of the glass cleaner sprays. The touch of "frost" around the edges of the windows adds a pretty backdrop to lights—and the aerosol cleaner makes post-party grime melt faster than a snowflake.

For a gay buffet: Looking for a new backdrop for the punch bowl? Spray-paint an old tray in green, gold, or silver, drop a little glitter dust on it before the paint dries. If you use either a silver or glass punch bowl, both the sprayed-on color and glitter will reflect in the bowl.

Wet weather protection: If you're giving a party and it rains, snows or hails—expect boots and rubbers to be added to the decor. Try spraying the bottom of a plastic runner with skid-proof spray, then spray gold paint on the corners (and maybe an initial or your name if you're really inspired). This makes an instant "welcome mat" for foul weather footwear.

Did you count the canapes? Sometimes the largest mound of appetizers can melt faster than the ice in the punch bowl. Keep several kinds of aerosol cheese spread and extra boxes of crackers at the ready in the kitchen. Then if you run short, you won't short change your guests—you can spray a tray of canapes in about five minutes.

Guest supplies: While you're fixing up the house—don't forget the extra, small-size aerosols to keep in guest bathrooms or wherever the ladies freshen up. A hint for these: personalize them by spraying a wall shelf with initials or a rim of the same color you're using as your party color. It all helps to personalize a party with pushbuttons.

To give new cotton draperies a trim, tailored look, pin pleats vertically at the bottom hem. Tie the pleats loosely together with a lightweight cotton cord and let them "set" for four or five days.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

To raise nap on cotton velvet, place garments in dryer with two damp bath towels. Tumble for about five minutes then hang until thoroughly dry.

Press dark cottons on the wrong side to prevent shine.

Cotton T-shirts and knit underwear can be machine-dried in the same load with bath towels or sheets. Remove before completely dry, block to original size, and finish drying on top of dryer.

Many of the new water-repellent finishes on cotton raincoats will take up to five dry-cleanings without having to be reprocessed.

Make soft after-bath slippers from cotton terry washcloths. One washcloth, folded and gathered around the edges, will make a slipper. Trim with matching cotton ball fringe.

There are several ways you can give cotton garments a custom-finished look when you sew. Here's one: use the zigzag attachment on your machine to finish inside seams. The garment will look better and wear longer.

TOMORROW'S LEADERS

"700 acres of PIONEER sorghum averaged 8,568 pounds for me."

Elvin Wilson, Friona, Texas

Many of last year's bumper yields came from small acreages. But Elvin Wilson had 735 acres—all Pioneer hybrid 820—that averaged 8,568 pounds per acre.

Good weather, good farming and good seed boosted Elvin's yields. He double rowed on a 40" bed, watered four times in addition to pre-watering, controlled weeds with Propazine, and put on 280 pounds of nitrogen.

Hybrid 820 makes the most of his good farming—shades the ground fast, produces big yields, stands right up to harvest. Isn't this the kind of sorghum you want, too? See me soon.

Best Thing That's Happened in Forage Crops Since Alfalfa!

Great for summer forage, whatever the season... DeKalb Sudax Brand Varieties, the original Sorghum-Sudagrass hybrids, are bred to make the most of every drop of moisture. In favorable seasons, they grow and grow, producing green feed early and often. When it's dry, growers say Sudax Brand continues to produce palatable forage, often after other crops dry up. Order DeKalb Sudax Brand Hybrids right away.

LIKE DAUGHTER, LIKE MOTHER . . . For the first time the Leonard Coffey family has two graduating seniors this year. Thelma, the mother, is graduating from college and Becky, the youngest daughter, is graduating from high school. Mrs. Coffey has been commuting to West Texas State University, Canyon, since Becky enrolled as a freshman in Friona High School. Now it is graduation time for each of them. This fall Becky will be attending West Texas and Thelma will be teaching math in Bovina High School.

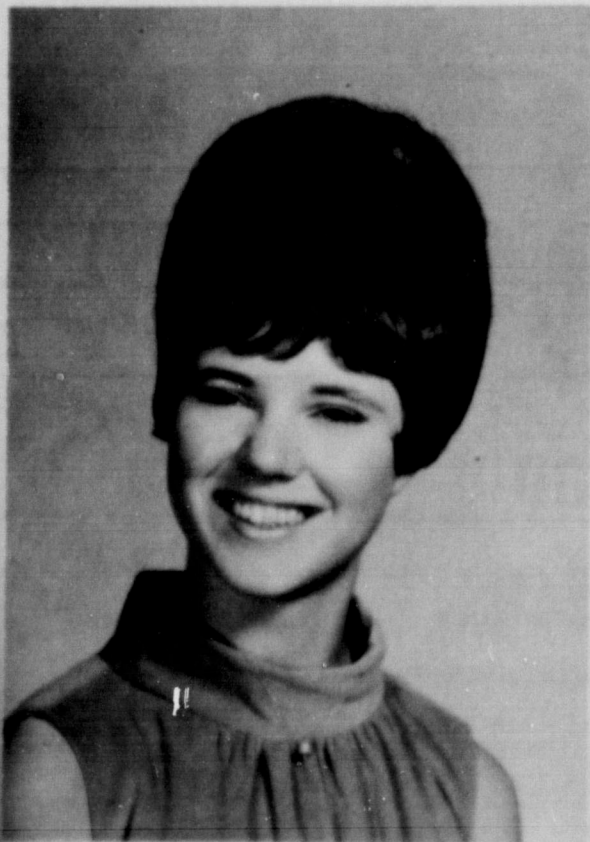

TO RECEIVE MASTERS DEGREE. . . Jimette McLean, a 1962 graduate of Friona High School and a 1966 graduate of McMurry College, Abilene, is a candidate for a masters degree from Duke University, Durham, South Carolina, at the close of the spring semester. She is a religious education major, and has accepted a position as educational director of Woodmar Methodist Church, Hammond, Indian, and will begin her duties there July 1. Miss McLean is the daughter of Mrs. Jim McLean and the late Jim McLean.

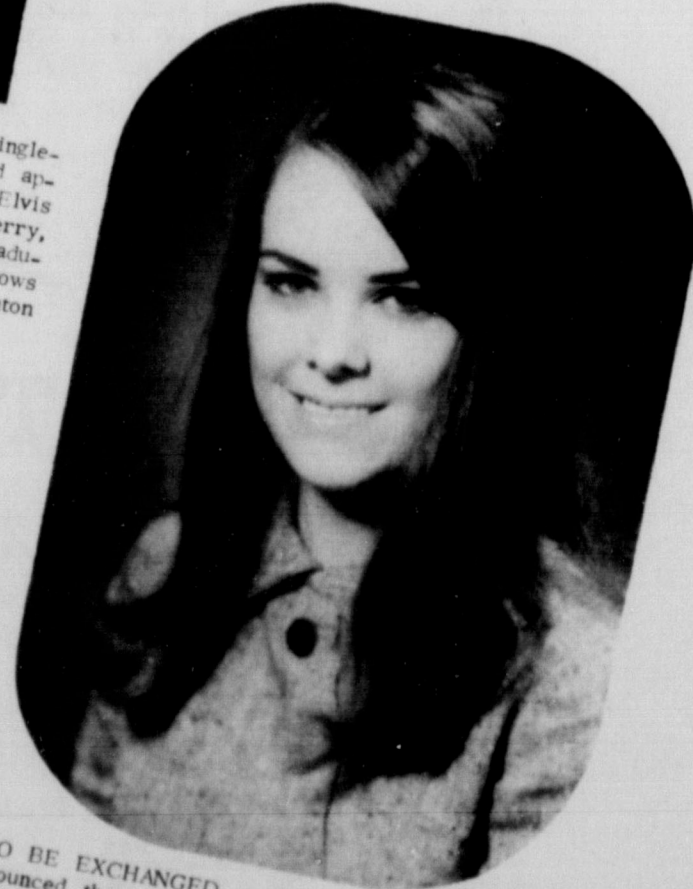

MRS. CHARLES ALBERT SHAMBLIN III
(Sandra Kay Patterson)

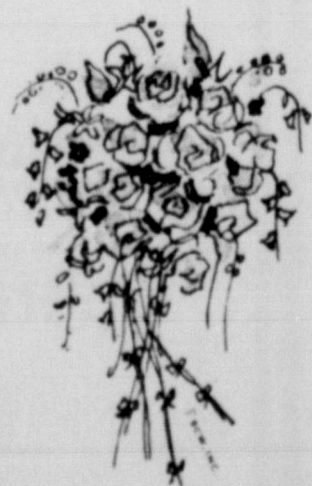

JUNE WEDDING PLANNED. . . Mr. and Mrs. Hubert A. Singletary, Brownfield, have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Jane Arden, to Elvis Lee Thornton, 110 Tenth Street, Levelland. Miss Singletary, a former student in Friona schools, is a candidate for graduation from Brownfield High School this spring. Wedding vows for the couple will be read in Brownfield June 21. Thornton is employed by C. E. Norton, Levelland.

WEDDING PLANS ANNOUNCED. . . Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Castleberry, 120 West Fir Street, Denver City, have announced engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Sandra Kay Patterson, to Ronnie Procter, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Procter, West Sixth Street, Friona. Miss Castleberry is a graduate of Friona High School and former student of Lubbock Christian College. Her fiance, who is a graduate of Friona High School and Lubbock Christian College, is a senior at Texas Technological College. Wedding vows will be exchanged at Denver City, Colorado, at Christ August 30.

VOWS TO BE EXCHANGED. . . Mr. and Mrs. L.H. Schilling have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Sandra, to Ralph Robert Kuehn, son of Mrs. Clare Kuehn, Canyon. The couple is planning a July wedding. They are both students at West Texas State University, Canyon. Miss Schilling, a 1966 graduate of Friona High School, is a math major and is a member of Delta Zeta Sorority. The prospective bridegroom is a pre-law major and is a member of Sigma Nu.

SANDRA PATTERSON IS WED TO AL SHAMBLIN

In a candlelight ceremony at First Baptist Church, Bovina, at 7 p.m. Saturday, Sandra Kay Patterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Patterson of the Rhea Community, exchanged wedding vows with Charles Albert Shamblin III, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Shamblin, Plainview.

The double ring ceremony was read by Porter Arnold, Logan New Mexico, before an archway of candles entwined with greenery and flanked by bouquets of white gladioli.

Gina Clawson, Bovina, organist, played traditional wedding marches and accompanied James McDaniel, Greeley, Colorado, brother-in-law of the bride, as he sang, "More," "Whither Thou Goest," and "The Wedding Prayer."

The bride, who was escorted and presented in marriage by her father, wore a formal wedding gown of white peau de soie designed with fitted bodice, scoop neckline, long tapered sleeves and an A line skirt. Her chapel-length train fell from a bow in the back. Alencon lace appliques re-embroidered with seed pearls enhanced her dress and train.

Her veil of silk illusion fell from a cluster of white lace flowers accented with seed pearls. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink roses and stephanotis tied with satin love knots and centered with an orchid corsage.

Mrs. James McDaniel, Greeley, Colorado, was her sister's matron of honor. She wore a pink formal length dress of crepe designed with an empire waistline, scoop neckline and short sleeves. Her headpiece of nylon tulle fell from a cluster of pink crepe roses. She wore white lace gloves and carried a long stemmed pink rose.

Bridesmaids were Judy Strawn, Bovina, Carol Denny, Childress and Nancy Martin, Hereford, Arlene and Darlene Smith, Bovina, cousins of the groom, were flower girls, Tammy and Scotty Shamblin, Plainview, sister and brother of the groom, were candlelighters.

Feminine bridal attendants were dressed identically to the matron of honor.

Jerry Couch, Odessa, brother of the groom, was the best man. Groomsmen were Gene Pruitt, Don Cumpton and Donny Dyer. Billy Minter and Ken Horn were ushers.

The serving table for the reception in Fellowship Hall of the church was covered with a white lace cloth over pink and centered with the bride's bouquet surrounded by roses carried by her attendants. Refreshments of cake, punch, nuts and mints were served.

For a wedding trip to HemisFair and Six Flags Over Texas, Mrs. Shamblin wore a pink linen dressmaker suit with matching accessories. Her corsage was lifted from her bouquet.

After September 1, Mr. and Mrs. Shamblin will be at home in Burlington, New Jersey. They are both graduates of Bovina High School. She is presently a senior at West Texas State University, Canyon, and will complete requirements for her bachelor's degree in August. He is a former student of North Texas State University and is currently serving in the United States Air Force. He is stationed at McGuire Air Force Base, New Jersey.

If you have lost a kitten and would like to have it back, call Mrs. Joe Walters. One day last week she came to town, made several stops then returned to her home in the Hub Community. On the way home she heard an unusual noise coming from under the hood of her car and stopped to investigate. A kitten had apparently "hitched" a ride some time while the car was stopped. Now, Johnnie is faced with the problem of finding the owner. Maybe some of our readers can help her out.

One group of Frionans who have done a fine job without much fanfare is the Friona Cemetery Association. Anyone who has visited our cemetery in recent years can easily see the improvements which have been made since the beginning of this organization.

An announcement has been made that a full time caretaker has been employed for the four growing months coming up. Definite plans have been made for landscaping and beautification of the approach.

At the present time Ernest Osborn is serving as president of this organization. Directors with Osborn are Mrs. Mae Magnus, Nelson Welch, Elda Hart, John Terry, Arthur Drake and Mrs. G.E. Reed.

All of the work done by this group is on a voluntary basis and many hours of work and planning have gone into the project. There are so many Frionans who do so many things for the betterment of our community that it would be difficult to list them, but the Friona Cemetery Association is certainly due a vote of appreciation for what they have done.

The many different types of weather we have been having lately seem to indicate the confusion of the elements. One can never tell in the morning whether it is a winter day, a spring day or a summer day. In fact, we often have weather typical of each of these seasons in a matter of only a few hours.

It certainly wouldn't do for any Texans to move to Hawaii. So much of our conversational material has to do with the weather than we would be hopelessly lost without a word to express our thoughts. It is hard for me to believe that the Hawaiian language has no word comparable to our word "weather."

A lot of building is being done in our town. Late Tuesday the Allsup's 7-11 store was completely open on the east side. A remodeling project is underway at the store and this includes a new front. Inside partitions have been moved and real soon the entire store will be re-arranged to give customers better service.

Dale Houlette's new Mobil location is beginning to shape up. The building is almost completed and other improvements are being made to the property.

Several new homes are under construction in the Western Addition and in Welch Acres. A number of new storm cellars are under construction and additions and improvements are being made to some homes.

Anyone who is planning a vacation trip by car this summer can get some valuable free information from the Texas Highway Department. An attractive leaflet entitled, "How to Drive The Freeways," is available for the asking.

It contains eight suggestions for more enjoyable and safer

The Seniors... young people on their way to ever-higher goals; young people dreaming bigger dreams and working hard to make dreams come true. This is what gives promise to making America's future ever greater.

The diploma, like the flag is simply a symbol. The real test of greatness for people or for nations is in honorable and continuing achievement.

The new Seniors have, by their past achievements, given every indication that they are willing and able to meet that test... to help make tomorrow's America greater than ever.

Our prayers and best wishes go with this outstanding Senior Class.

BROOKFIELD DRILLING

RECEIVES SUPERIOR RATINGS . . . These three piano pupils of Mrs. Fran Dunn, piano student at Eastern New Mexico University, Portales, received superior ratings in national guild competition in Clovis Tuesday, May 14, Carol Reeve, daughter of Mrs. Fay Reeve, who has been studying piano for five years, and Tracy Barber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Flake Barber, who has been studying piano for four years, entered on the national level. To qualify for national competition, students must memorize ten pieces and do sight reading. Gustaf N. Nelson, judge, gave each of these students a grade of 96. Alesia Ragsdale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mack Ragsdale, entered on the state level. To be eligible for this competition a student must play seven pieces from memory and do sight reading. She is an eighth grade student and has been taking piano lessons seven years. She received a grade of 95. Miss Barber and Miss Reeve are both seventh grade students.

Frionan To Receive Associate Degree

Frieda Floyd, sophomore student from Friona, will receive an Associate in Science degree from Lubbock Christian College in commencement exercises May 24, at 8:00 p.m., in the college auditorium. Miss Floyd is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Glenn Floyd, Rt. 2, Friona. She is a 1966 graduate of Friona High School. At LCC she is majoring in biology. She has been a member of the Royal Blue Band, Big Sisters, the Women's Dorm Council, the Inter-Club Council and Christliche Damen, women's social club. She is also an LCC hostess. Miss Floyd plans to attend Abilene Christian College this fall. Jon Jones, minister of University Avenue Church of Christ in Austin, presented the baccalaureate address May 19, at 8:00 p.m. Dr. George S. Benson, President Emeritus of Harding College, will present the commencement address.

Majority Of Seniors Plan More Education Lt. Larry Rust Goes To Vietnam

With only a few exceptions members of the 1968 graduating class of Friona High School plan to attend colleges, universities or trade schools in the near future. West Texas State University, Canyon, was the choice of about one third of the class members in a recent survey. These crashes resulted in 7 persons injured and an estimated property damage of $2,375,00. The rural traffic accident summary for this county during the first four months of 1968 shows a total of 37 accidents resulting in 2 persons killed, 32 persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $22,120,00. "The final bell closing the present school year will soon ring," Sergeant Wells said. This will be the signal for the beginning of summer vacations. Residential neighborhoods which were quiet between 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. will be alive with children popping out in all directions. This means that motorists must be constantly alert at all times during the summer months for children darting out from unexpected places," he continued. The Sergeant added, "During 1967, of the pedestrians killed in rural and traffic accidents one of four were school age children."

Others indicating planned enrollment at West Texas for the fall semester are Jackie Claborn, Vicki Vaughn, Clyde Wylie, Carl Freeman, Gary Murphree, John Baxter, Debbie Jarecki, Charles Hamilton, Carolyn Menefee, Peggy Drake, Crista Evans, Karene Milner, Joan Gall Brookfield, Patti Ragsdale, Charles Short, Ronnie Stevick, Ruben DeLeon, Larry Graves, Jimmy T. Taylor, Donna Patterson, Randy Balze and Becky Coffey. Ranking second with West Texas in popularity is South Plains Junior College, Levelland. DeWayne Gable, Linda Stone, Chloe Ann Ford, Susan Mills, Nickie Hand and Jay Potts plan to attend this college. Five members of the class have indicated plans to attend Texas Technological College in Lubbock. They are Randy Ellis, Rickey Hurst, Terri Sue Cummings, Sharen Awtreay and Becky Elliott. Kara Beth Sides and David Reeve plan to attend McMurry College, Abilene. Kathy Cook also plans to go to Abilene, but she will enroll at Hardin-Simmons University. Four of the class members plan to go in our neighboring state on the east to continue their education. Eddie Barker and Joe Moet will enroll at Panhandle State College, Goodwell, Okla., and Ronnie Altman and Lonnie Woodruff plan to attend Oklahoma State Tech, Okmulgee, Oklahoma. Linda Smith plans to enroll at Southwest Texas State College, San Marcos, this fall. The Texas Highway Patrol investigated 6 accidents on rural

Patrol Investigates Six County Wrecks In April

Larry Truitt will be attending Rice University, Houston and Ann Ayers has been accepted for admission at Austin College, Sherman. Freshmen students at Wayland Baptist College, Plainview, will be Conrad Armstrong and Walter Dan Carlton. Belinda Mabry plans to attend Eastern New Mexico University, Portales. Galen Brewer plans to attend Sam Houston State College, Huntsville, and Barry Myers will be going to Florida Computer School. Sherrie Hicks is the only member of the class who has announced definite plans for marriage. She is planning a June wedding. Sharon Walker and Diana Vinson have indicated plans for college but have not decided definitely where they want to go. Margie Stewart and Rhonda Ruzicka, who completed graduation requirements at mid-term have already begun their college careers. Judy Jordan attended Jessie Lee's Hair Design Institute in Lubbock last summer and plans to complete her course there. The smallest package on any shelf is a man all wrapped up in himself. Members present included Mesdames Gene Welch, T.J. Presley, Helen Fangman, Johnny Mars, Glyn Hamilton, J.R. Braxton, John Benger, Roscoe Ivie and Bill Carthel.

Old cotton gloves make ideal cleaning gloves. For instance, when you clean a crystal chandelier, you'll save time by wiping fixtures with both gloved hands, dipped in ammonia water.

To remove orange or lemon juice stain from a white cotton tablecloth, first rub baking soda on each side of the stain. Then moisten with cool water. After a few minutes, rinse well, then wash as usual in your machine, using warm water.

Girl Scout Troop 238
Closes Year's Activities

Girl Scout troop #238 closed out their year of activities the past week with an Emergency Preparedness Challenge on Friday, May 10 and an awards tea, May 14. The emergency preparedness badge was a challenge of activities. First the girls were instructed to report to the Girl Scout House no later than 5:15 p.m. There had been a fire and a bus wreck and they were to rescue nine children with the help of firemen and treat a multiple of injuries on the scene. When the girls arrived the fire engine was waiting and they climbed aboard to go to the imaginary fire at the residence of Mrs. Pearl McLean.

They entered the back door as the house was supposedly on fire and the front was blocked. A mock fire drill followed with all nine children and the baby sitter rescued. The fire engine then returned the girls to the Girl Scout House, then departed for the mock bus wreck in which seven children had been injured at the Spohn Farm. On the way out the children had been transferred to town as the roads had been become slick. The Girl Scouts then returned to the Scout House and treated broken arms, legs, shock, bruises, cuts, burns, unconsciousness and bleeding. Then a meal for the victims was prepared from the two cans of food each that was brought along for this purpose. They also purified water and used a gasoline lantern as the water had been contaminated and the electricity was supposedly off. Tuesday, May 4, the girls had a tea at which time their awards for the year were presented by their leader Mrs. Bob Riethmayer. A total of 102 badges and pins were awarded. The Friona State Bank purchased the badges for the troop. Mothers were guests at the tea, which was served from a table covered with white cloth and yellow and green centerpiece flanked by wrought iron candle holder with candles. The awards were arranged on a cardboard daisy for presentation. The following girls met their challenge of emergency preparedness.

Rhonda Bauer, Fran Dodd, Kathy King, Kathleen McLean, Carolyn Martin, Vicki Mingus, Jill Riethmayer, Melissa Pruitt, Vickie Schueler, Lou Whaley, and Dixie Wilkins.

Joining these girls in receiving awards were Ann Hurst, Jeannie Thompson, Vicki Ulen, and Vicki Beck.

Special Film To Be Shown

A special film entitled "Whatever Happened to Eight" will be shown Tuesday, May 28, at 8 p.m. in the High School Auditorium.

This is a story of a little boy, who received brain damage in a car accident and of his astonishing recovery through special exercises called "patterning."

All those who are interested in helping children who have special problems such as stuttering, reading difficulty, learning problems, or any type of brain damage are urged to attend and learn more of this revolutionary new discovery in human development.

This film is being presented by the Institute for the achievement of Human Potential, San Antonio, Texas. The admission is free.

The Panhandle Dietetic Association will meet Thursday, May 23, at 6:30 p.m. for dinner at the Villa Inn in Amarillo.

Larger Numbers Will Obtain College Degrees

By 1985, about one-sixth of the men and one-eighth of the women 25 or more years old in the United States will have completed 4 years or more of college if present trends continue.

Extension home management specialists at Texas A&M University also cited a U.S. Department of Commerce report saying in 1965, about one-eighth of the men and one-fourteenth of the women were college graduates.

Rising enrollment rates in the past have been accompanied by a lengthening of the number of years spent in school. Increased schooling will lead in turn to a rising level of educational attainment for the American people as older generations are replaced by younger ones with more education, the specialists say.

One measure of this rising attainment is the proportion of the population completing high school.

It is expected that in 1985, 68 per cent of the population 25 years old and over will have completed high school, as compared with 49 per cent in 1965, they report.

Library 'Friends' To Organize

Plans are being made for organizing a "Friends of the Library" in Friona early in June.

Friona's library has doubled its size and its services in the past year, but additional help is needed for continued growth, according to a spokesman for the library.

The City of Friona pays maintenance cost and salaries, but books, films and projectors are needed, the spokesman said.

"Friends of the library" are a group of people with a common interest in libraries and a special interest in their hometown library.

For more information on the new organization, residents are invited to contact Mrs. John Gaede, librarian, or Mrs. J.G. McFarland, chairman of the "Friends of the Library" committee.

BANDS PERFORM. . . The Sixth Grade band's cornet trio, made up of Chris Sanders, Gayla Self and Teddy King, are shown as they performed as part of the Friona schools band concert last Friday.

CHOIRS SING. . . The junior high choir, under the direction of Charles Faulkner, is shown just prior to performing, along with the high school choir, last Sunday.

TO GRADUATE. . . Listed among the graduates who will receive diplomas at Oklahoma Military Academy, Claremore, Okla., in commencement exercises at 10 a.m. Saturday, May 25, is Keith Black, son of Mr. and Mrs. A.L. Black, Friona, Maj. Gen. John F. Smoller, OMA's retiring president will present the commencement address.

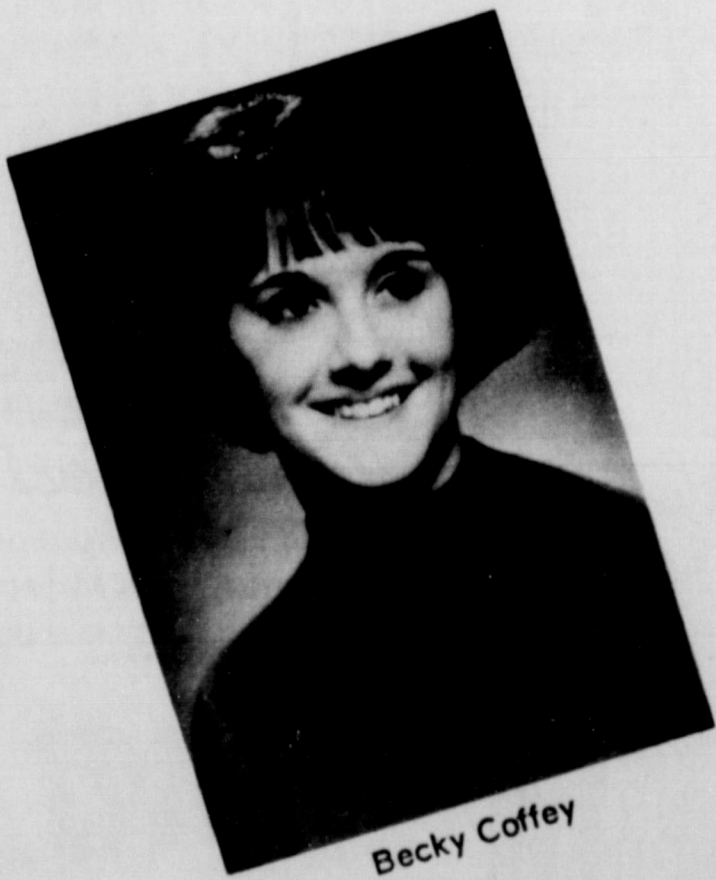

RECEIVING DEGREE. . . Receiving a degree from Oklahoma Military Academy, Claremore, Oklahoma Saturday, May 25, at 10 a.m. will be James Richard Fortenberry, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fortenberry. The annual OMA awards assembly, the traditional graduation parade and the graduation dance will be held May 24.

Mrs. Charles Mock and children of Lubbock have returned to their home after spending several days visiting in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J.T. Carroll.

A SHORT STORY

Statue Of A Man

by Nelson Lewis
He wasn't much to look at; this little man who needs no name.

His slight figure was familiar to three generations of Hawthville residents.

The older folks remembered him as a young carpenter, building houses and barns and fences.

Those born in the early years of the twentieth century knew him as a hard working contractor and they recalled the stock market crash that took away his business.

The depression took more than his small but profitable enterprise. Somewhere along the way he lost the driving force without which mere ambition is about as dependable as a strand of wet spaghetti. He was never known to loaf. Odd jobs of home repair made him, his wife and son, a bare living -- that is until the accident happened.

Mrs. Holtzclaw's second floor window blinds needed painting. The home made ladder he had lugged all over town for years finally caved in and if a large umbrella tree had not broken his fall the story would be finished here and now. As it happened he suffered a badly twisted knee that left him with a limp the remainder of his life.

The son managed to get through high school and joined the army during the summer of 1938.

Shortly after December 7, 1941 a gold star appeared in the front room window of the carpenter's small framehouse. Folks in town said that the loss of the boy was the final straw in the load the parents were carrying.

About a month after Pearl Harbor a white wreath joined the gold star.

The little odd jobs man lived on alone, and as Shakespeare said he was "sans teeth, sans hair" but not, as was the bard's character, sans everything.

And thereby hangs our tale. He was no longer able to work regularly. What with a few yards to care for and his social security, he scraped by. One other source of income he had that few old men would ever dream of -- he was known as the best baby sitter in town. As the years went by it became evident that the children he had helped care for from their infancy were the most polite, the bestmannered, made the best grades in school, and got into the least trouble.

This was the first mentioned at P.T.A., then bridge clubs, and finally the men's civic organizations took note of it.

At every meeting somebody had a story to tell. It was universally agreed that despite his lifetime of reverses he had kept his feet on the ground where the important human characteristics were concerned and had retained his sense of humor.

His big grin and merry eyes were never diminished nor dulled by the tough breaks. His Sunday school class of teenaged boys was taught regularly and well.

Townfolk, especially the young people, sat on his narrow front porch in the moonlight and his calm manner and soft voice answered many questions ranging from puppy love to politics.

He celebrated his eighty-fifth birthday just as he had observed those for more years than he cared to remember.

The city schools occupied two blocks in the center of town just across the street from the county court house.

On June first, the day school let out for the summer, he stood in his accustomed place beneath an enormous oak and either shook hands, or spoke, or waved to every student as they poured from the buildings.

The mothers driving cars to pick up their offspring waved too, because it didn't seem too long ago that they had been in that merry throng and had paused in their homeward rush to say hello to this same man.

The serious high school seniors ganged around him and before long, his old arthritic right hand tingled from so many vigorous hand shakes and when they had all gone he stood and rubbed his wrinkled cheek and wondered how many different shades of lipstick were imprinted there-on.

He made out pretty good that summer but he caught a cold in the fall and spent the winter in a rest home.

The rest home was a good one, therefore expensive and he told his doctor he could not afford such high-toned treatment.

The young doctor smiled and told him not to worry, it seemed that old Mrs. Holtzclaw's lawyer, another of his "boys" had inadvertently misplaced a small legacy bequeathed him by the old lady before she passed away a few years ago.

The old man gave the doctor a sly grin but he went on with his reading.

Even long winters finally have to surrender to the youth of spring and so it was that the first of June was almost upon him before he knew it.

His doctor told him he did not think he would be able to stand on his corner and say good-by to the children, but for him not to worry about it, he would drive him down in his new convertible and that would be about as good, wouldn't it?

The day arrived and wrapped to the gills the old man was wheeled down the ramp and helped into the rear seat of the open car.

He was surprised to see the mayor and the superintendent of schools there, but greeted them warmly and remembered them as right good sort of boys.

The young doctor, in front with his pretty wife beside him, wheeled slowly down into the business district.

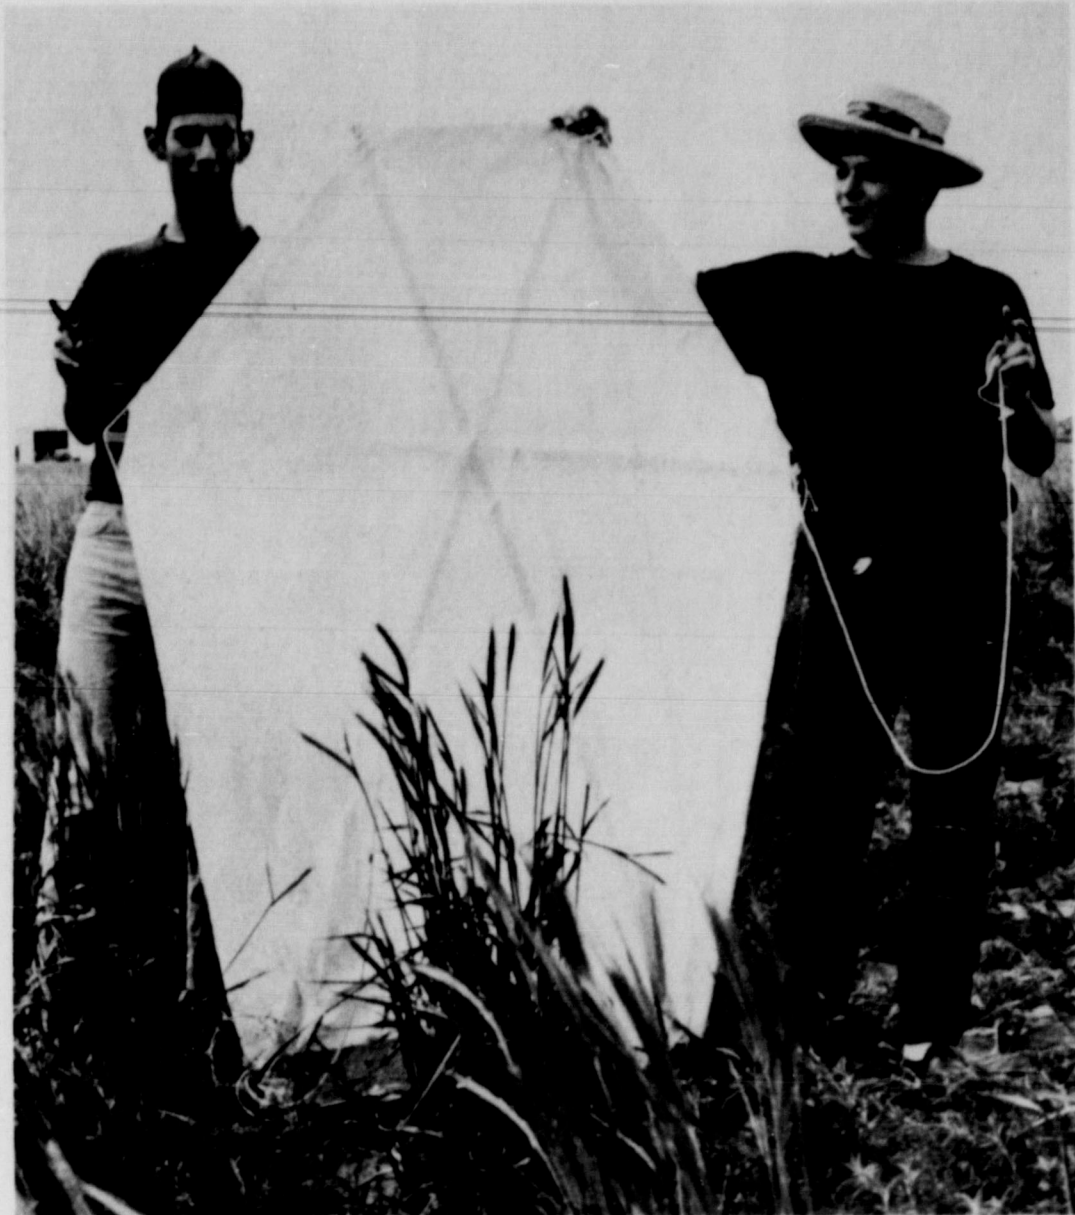

The street between the schools and the court house was filled with people, yet strangely quiet.

Ghost-like, the big shiny car glided to a stop under the familiar oak tree and the old man, his gaze focused on the crowd, realized that all the kids were already out and waiting for him.

All the teachers too, and hundreds of parents -- why good gosh, the whole town was there -- all lined up on Main St.; must be going to have a speaking at the end of school.

The quiet was broken by a well modulated yet powerful voice that seemed to come from his old place by the oak.

On his corner stood a tall man who upon closer inspection was seen to be the Hawkins boy who had gone from law school into politics and now held the position of County Attorney.

Some things he said came to the old man's ears, "someone whom we all know and love -- without further ado -- all right girls."

What's going on here? Two pre-school girls each pulling a white cord, skipped nimbly by. The cords pulled open a curtain and there on his corner was a block of stone on top of which stood a bronze figure.

He recognized the form at once. A small man, one knee bent in a perpetual limp, an open-top carpenter's tool box in one hand while the other hand grasped that of a laughing child who was gazing upward into the older person's face.

The old man in the new car batted his eyes rapidly just as the crowd bust into a wave of applause that overcame everything except the ringing in his head.

Before the crowd closed in on the car he glanced at the bronze figure and saw for the first time the engraving on the base.

It stated very simply -- "STATUE OF A MAN"

Some of the new All-America roses, like Miss All-American Beauty, will add something extra to any garden. Even old varieties, when given Nutro feedings, will flourish anew.

NEW TOMORROW

If I had time tonight, I might be a bit frightened. But just now, there's little time to feel only excited and happy. It's funny... when you're a little kid, it seems as if you go to school forever. Then all of a sudden, it's graduation night, and you know that this is an end and a beginning all at once.

Mom and Dad will be out in the audience, and so will Dan. He sent me these roses. Our minister will be out there too, and I hope he'll notice that the smile I send in his direction will be a particularly grateful one. How often I've gone to him with my childish troubles, only to have him treat them as seriously as if they were of world-shaking consequence. It was he who really taught me how to pray.

He taught me so many of God's lessons. And I am sure that throughout my lifetime I'll be learning them anew and repeating them over and over again. How wonderful to realize that this commencement, this end of an era, is really the beginning of a new tomorrow.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Some people plant tomatoes in the spring

Others plant carrots, or onions, or cucumbers, or asparagus, or lettuce. But there's one thing you can plant now that will create a variety of tastes. A gas barbecue grill.

We have several varieties. Any one lets you harvest a delicious meal any time of the year. Its perfect heat control and permanent briquettes give you year 'round cooking pleasure without the mess of a charcoal fire.

For best results, we recommend early planting. This will guarantee larger yields because you can start your harvest immediately.

New lower prices on the '68 models are in effect through July 31st. Prices start at $77.52 cash (includes installation and tax) or as little as $2.50 a month, whichever you prefer. After that, it will only cost a few cents per month for us to feed it.

Call us. We'll plant a gas barbecue grill in your yard. That is, if you have a taste for the outdoors.

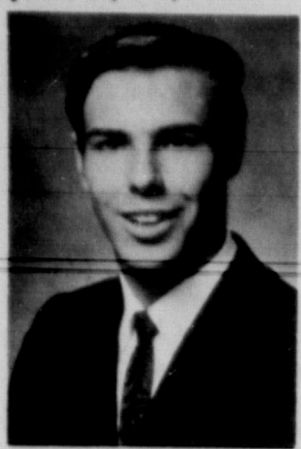

Buy a PATIO PAIR (one gas light and one gas barbecue grill) and save $26.00. Prices start at $103.70 (includes installation and tax) or $4.00 a month.

When Hemistair '68 opens there'll be a lot of exciting exhibits, but the biggest wheels of them all are at the Flying Indians Spectacular. There, the Hua Huas of the Totonac Indian tribe, perform a centuries-old ritual in ancient costumes.

Forming human pinwheels on two sides of a 114-foot pole, the Hua Huas revolve by self-propulsion - using two cross-bars. This wheel is further enhanced by the colorful head-dresses the Hua Huas wear - multicolored, 28-inch discs set in tight fitting skull-caps.

Los Voladores Flying Indians, another part of the tribe, use the 114-foot pole for their spell-binding act at the Frito-Lay/Pepsi-Cola Pavilion. Climbing to the top, they descend by making 32 revolutions around the pole secured only by a rope around their waists. As the rope for each flyer unwinds, the four fan out to a radius of thirty feet.

The Flyers wear costumes of birds' feathers, since the Totonacs believe that the spirit of the dead comes back to earth as a bird. Their chief wears a red and white costume with a small headpiece made of colored stones as he takes the biggest risk of all. Standing at the very top of the pole on a tiny twelve-inch platform, the chief dances as well as plays a flute and a small drum while the Flyers spiral downward.

No matter where you look at the Frito-Lay/Pepsi-Cola Pavilion there'll be a free-wheeling show.

FIELD DAYS SET

1. A field day will be held at the North Plains Research Field at Etter on Tuesday, May 28. Etter is located 12 miles north of Dumas. The day will begin at 1:00 p.m.

2. The field day at the New Mexico Experiment Station north of Clovis will be held May 29. The day will begin at 9:00 a.m. Tours will be made of the farm to view the various research plots. Work is being conducted on barley and wheat varieties, rates of fertilizer on barley and wheat, insecticides on sugar beets, potato, alfalfa varieties, crop rotation, and grain sorghum research. Research is also being conducted with the cross between the barley and wheat plants.

Johnsongrass along ditches and fence rows should be controlled to reduce the source of seed that may later contaminate cultivated fields," says the agronomist.

Small patches of Johnsongrass may be eradicated in non-cultivated areas with such soil sterilant herbicides as sodium chlorate or bromacil, explains Metzger. Sodium chlorate at three to five pounds per square rod (16 and 1/2 feet) can be used along ditches and fence rows. Bromacil should be applied at 15 to 20 pounds of active ingredient per acre.

"Rainfall is required to move these herbicides into the soil," says Metzger. "Treated soil will remain sterile for two or three years. Shorter periods (several months) of sterilization can be obtained with a mixture such as sodium TCA and dalapon."

JOHNSONGRASS CONTROL

With Johnsongrass beginning vigorous growth, now is an excellent time to begin control of this troublesome weed. Herbicides are most effective when the weed is in a young, succulent growth stage.

Dr. Robert E. Metzger, Extension area agronomist at the South Plains Research and Extension Center, points out that "Johnsongrass not only competes for water, nutrients and sunlight but may serve as a source or habitat for insects and diseases."

Johnsongrass is the primary overwintering host for maize dwarf mosaic virus, a new disease of grain sorghum in this area of the state, according to Metzger. Therefore, eradication of the weed may become increasingly important in sorghum production areas.

In cultivated areas where soil sterilization is to be avoided, Metzger recommends using dalapon at a rate of 10 to 20 pounds per acre on 6 to 10-inch Johnsongrass. Small areas can be treated by spraying foliage until wet with one or two pounds of dalapon in 10-gallons of water.

Usually two or three sprayings at two-to-three-week intervals is necessary for eradication.

"Economical Johnsongrass control on large cultivated areas can best be obtained by tillage and DESMA or MSMA with a one-half per cent surfactant," points out the agronomist. "This should be applied to vigorously growing plants at three to five pounds per acre. Herbicidal oils may also be effective under these conditions."

Metzger cautions producers to carefully follow the recommendations of herbicides manufacturers as spelled out on the labels for specific compounds. Metzger further explains that a combination of crop rotation

Tips Given On Ways To Save On Grocery Bill

Want to save some money on your grocery bill? Perhaps these suggestions on food marketing by Gwendolyn Clyen, Extension consumer marketing specialist, will help.

Values on the meat department include pork shoulder roasts and steaks, picnics, hams and bacon; beef chuck roasts and steaks, T-bone, sirloin and round steaks, ground beef and liver. Fyers, eggs, turkey and turkey products all have attractive price tags.

According to the Texas A&M University specialist adverse weather conditions in some growing areas have resulted in decreased supplies of some fresh vegetables. Carrots, cabbage, radishes, green onions, yellow onions, potatoes, celery, mustard, turnip and greens are among the economical choices.

Asparagus, broccoli, squash, eggplant and cauliflower are moderate to relatively high priced items, but are certainly worth considering for meal variety.

Because of heavy supplies, canned cut green beans, whole kernel corn and peas are featured in some stores at lower than usual prices.

At fruit counters the imports, bananas and pineapples, remain heavy and prices are reasonable. Lemons from California are reaching their harvesting peak and retails may be found much lower. Oranges, including the Navels and Valencias, very considerably in price from market to market. Strawberries from California still remain heavy and are featured frequently, says Mrs. Clyen.

Watermelon from Florida is gradually improving both in quality and in price and a sharp increase in volume is expected within the next three (3) weeks.

Avocado and grapefruit supplies are declining as their season moves to a close.

Watch for special offerings on canned and frozen fruits, Mrs. Clyen advises.

HOME SEWING

It seems that everyone is sewing like mad these days. There is little wonder that the women and girls are more concerned about sewing since the price of clothing has risen considerably in the past two years. The cost of clothing can be cut by one-third or more with the do-it-yourself project—home sewing.

Economy is not the reallure. Today's women sew because it's one way of getting what she wants when she wants it. Other reasons - because it's a useful hobby that calls for creative ability and (only incidentally) because it's a money saver. Not to be overlooked however, sewing is indeed a money saver. Some of the women who sew are wives of very prominent men in our Nation. Reasons given for sewing are -- "If you decide you want a certain thing, you can't always find it in a ready-to-wear department store—but you can always find the fabric."

A jacket dress is the most useful garment for a busy life -- especially when traveling-- and these are hard to find in shops today. Another good reason for sewing is that "you do not have to look like everyone else."

One may duplicate a $200 garment for under $50.00. "Comparable," is a key word in all of this, however. The quality of workmanship spells the difference between "home-made" look and the "hand-fashioned" look. There's no such thing as "running up," a little dress in an hour if you want the finished product to appear professionally made.

Too many home-sewers are not willing to take the time to do a good job and their clothes have that "home-made" look. Some important points that are often skipped are: -- getting fabric reading before cutting (pressing, shrinking, straightening, adjust pattern to own measurement). For women who like to sew, there is always time, it seems.

4-H SEWING PROJECTS

Trained adult leaders will soon be starting classes for 4-H members enrolled in Clothing projects. The County 4-H Dress Revue date has been set for July 19th. Each year a few new learning experiences in construction techniques are added. Some of the older girls will concentrate on Personal Appearances and dressing appropriately for the occasion. Some women or girls never learn this fundamental lesson. Young teenagers need parent interest and support during the teen years. It's a real rewarding experience for many adult leaders in 4-H.

Bookmobile Sets Stops In Area

The High Plains Bookmobile will make its regular schedule in the Friona area the next few days.

The bookmobile comes to Rhea Thursday for an 11:45-12 noon stop. It then comes to Friona for a 1:15-1:45 stop and then to Black from 2-3 p.m.

On Friday, the bookmobile stops at Hub, 8:45-9:45; White's Elevator, 10-11 a.m.; Lazbuddie, 12-noon-1p.m., and Clay's Corner, 1:15-2:15.

Saturday, the mobile library makes its regular stop in Friona from 1-4 p.m.

CHOCOLATE, DATES & NUTS combined in delicious dessert

Nothing is more delightful, in the course of a wintry afternoon, than the treat of a warm custard cup full of sweet pudding, with all the goodness and flavor of walnuts and chocolate and hearty Bordo imported diced dates.

Chocolate date nut pudding is the kind of a special treat that gives the term "home cooking" real meaning in this day of convenience cookery and instant foods.

To make six individual servings of this delicacy, you'll need:

- 2 cups soft bread crumbs
- 1/2 cup milk, scalded
- 1/2 cup granulated sugar
- 2 egg yolks, beaten
- 2 envelopes no-melt unsweetened chocolate
- 1 teaspoon grated orange peel
- 1/2 cup orange juice
- 1/2 teaspoon salt

1/2 cup chopped walnuts
1/2 cup Bordo imported diced dates
2 egg whites
Stir bread crumbs into hot milk. Combine sugar, egg yolks, chocolate, orange peel, juice and salt; then blend into milk mixture. Add dates and nuts.

Beat egg whites stiff and fold into egg mixture.

Turn the entire mixture into six greased 6-oz. custard cups. Place the cups in a shallow pan and pour 1" of hot water around the cups in the pan.

Bake at 350° F. for 35 minutes, or until knife inserted in center of pudding comes out clean. Serve warm.
