Governor's Race Termed Spotlight Of Primaries

One of the most active campaigns for governor in the history of the state reaches the primary stage on Saturday, and some 13 candidates, most of them weary from campaigning, will sit down to await election results.

With 10 candidates on the Democratic ballot and three on the Republican slate, it's the largest primary field in many years, brought about by Governor John Connally's decision not to seek re-election.

Besides having the largest number of candidates in years, the governor's race has quite a bit of talent -- at least by name; perhaps also the best field from a quality standpoint in many years.

As we've mentioned elsewhere on this page, we think one man stands out from all the rest by virtue of talent and experience.

Another thing which should impress voters about Preston Smith is the fact that he hasn't depended upon politics for his living. A successful businessman, Smith isn't tied to any particular group for support, and if elected governor, should be able to represent the people and not just special interest groups.

This may cost the Lubbock resident some votes, but it's an admirable attribute that he is out to win the race without the blessing of various groups that some of the candidates cater to.

Back to the experience angle, it's interesting to note that Smith has actually served as governor for almost 300 days during times when Governor Connally was out of the state the past six years. That gives him a year's experience in the office already -- and another advantage.

We hope Friona voters will go to the polls in large numbers on Saturday -- and support this West Texas neighbor in his bid to become governor. It would be nice to have the state's "head man" from our section for a change.

Last week we personally forgot to mention at least one group which contributed greatly to the success of the dedication and open house activities at Missouri Beef Packers' new plant. This would be the Volunteer Fire Department, whose members hung up the "welcome" banners across highway streets.

We heard various ones who were visiting remark about this, saying how it helped decorate the town and add to its festive mood.

Thanks, Fire Department. Your work, as always, was appreciated, if sometime taken for granted.

We have received numerous reports of praise for the way in which the visitors from Missouri were treated while in Friona on April 20.

We've visited one person by telephone, another has written, and added to this the account in the Rock Port newspaper, all indicating that a "good time was had by all." This adds frosting to the cake, as far as the open house activities are concerned.

Total voter registration this year is a record 4,072,397 -- nearly a million more than the last presidential year (1964) but still shy of predictions.

Figures compares with 3,014,597 in 1964 and 2,970,966 in 1966.

Five biggest counties of the state alone account for nearly 1,633,000 of the total eligible voters, and if all major metropolitan areas are counted, city voters overwhelm the rural area residents. That statistical fact figures strongly in campaign plans of gubernatorial candidates who are busily scouting the big cities during the windup weeks of their drives.

Last county to report to Secretary of State Roy R. Barrera on registration was Harris (Houston) with 583,721 voters, Dallas County has 466,925, Bexar (San Antonio) 237,359, Tarrant (Fort Worth), 242,693 and Travis (Austin) 102,264.

It's a good idea to take advice once in a while, so as to have someone to blame things on.

Saturday is primary election day in Friona and throughout Texas.

Commanding the spotlight is the Democratic race for governor, where 10 candidates are volleying for the party's nomination.

That race is the only contested race in the Republican primary, with three men trying for the nomination there.

AN EDITORIAL

Smith Deserves Big Backing In Primary

If West Texans ever hope to have "Their man" in the governor's seat, they will do well to cast their ballots this week for Lubbock's Preston Smith, who besides being a neighbor is the most qualified man for the job.

Smith is the only candidate who has advocated a STATEWIDE water program -- one which would include West Texas as well as the rest of the state.

His election to the governor's chair could help assure the continued growth and prosperity of this area of the state -- which is often overlooked except as a good source of tax income.

Smith is the only candidate among the large field who dared to run even if it meant running against John Connally. He announced his intentions in the fall of 1967, long before Connally decided against trying for re-election.

With 18 years of experience in state government, Smith not only has more experience than any of the several candidates on the ballot -- he can match all candidates' experience combined. This should merit the voters' consideration. Texans' don't need a novice in the most important seat of state government.

Having a candidate with this much on his side, this area of the state should vote 100 per cent for Preston Smith. Area voters must not be complacent, nor say "I'll vote for Preston in the runoff." With as many candidates on the ballot as there are, every vote for Smith in the primary is important. We must be sure to get him into the runoff.

Don't stay at home on election day. Your vote will count big -- so make it count for West Texas.

In Friona, supporters of George Wallace's American Party, trying to secure signatures to get the former Alabama governor's name on the state ballot in November, are holding a party convention from 1-7 p.m. at the old Friona Plumbing building on Main St.

Those who choose to attend the American party convention and register for Wallace will not be eligible to vote in either the Democratic or Republican primaries.

Other races in the Democratic primary find three men running for lieutenant governor. They are Ben Barnes, Don Gladden and Gene Smith.

Another race of interest to local voters is the one for judge of the court of civil appeals, seventh district, where James Joy of Plainview, Bruce Miller of Hereford and Jack Hazelwood of Amarillo are seeking the seat.

Both Democratic and Republican primary ballots contain three referendum propositions. Two of the proposals have gained a lot of interest throughout the state. They refer to the liquor by the drink and pari-mutuel wagering issues.

Democrats will hold precinct conventions at 2 p.m. at their polling places. They are as follows:

Friona - Junior High School; Lakeview - Otho Whitefield's home; Black-Tri-County Elevator; Rhea-Parish Hall, Lutheran Church; Lazbuddie-school building.

Republican primaries and precinct conventions will be held in the following places:

Friona; American Legion Hall, Mr. Glenn Reeve, Sr., election judge. Precinct convention 8:00 p.m.

Bovina and Rhea; Bovina High School Cafeteria, Mr. Herman Gerles, election judge. Precinct convention 7:30 p.m.

Farwell and Oklahoma Lane; Farwell City Hall, Mr. John Getz, election judge. Precinct convention 2:00 p.m.

Lazbuddie; Lazbuddie School Cafeteria, Mr. J.W. Gammon, election judge. Precinct convention 3:00 p.m.

Write-in votes are permitted for the party offices of county chairman and precinct chairman.

Polls are open from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. in each case.

TO START MONDAY

First-Day Record Is Missouri Beef Goal

Missouri Beef Packers will begin slaughter operations at its new Friona plant on Monday, and plant manager Bill Gilbert said he hoped the plant could kill 150 head of cattle the first day.

"If we do, we will top what any plant has ever done in its first day of operation," Gilbert said. He explained that the company's Rock Port, Mo. plant had killed 103 head in its first day of operation.

Gilbert said that the Missouri plant had slaughtered 611 head of cattle during its first week in 1966, and that was another figure the crews will be out to beat in next week's maiden efforts.

"I think we're way ahead of the schedule as compared to our plant at Rock Port at the same stage. We might be as much as six months ahead of similar progress," Gilbert stated.

Gilbert said that buyers for the company have already purchased enough cattle for the first week's run.

An overwhelming majority of the company's construction crew has been re-hired as production employees, according to Gilbert. Probably 95 per cent will remain with the company he said.

In the meantime a good number of people have left their applications for jobs at the new plant.

"We have been checking out our equipment, and getting all of our loose ends put together. We're looking forward to next Monday," Gilbert concluded.

Sunday Rainfall Is .5" Locally

Sunday's slow, soaking rainfall provided all of the "April Showers" for Friona during 1968. A total of .50 inches was the total measurement at the City of Friona.

Of this total, .21 inches fell between midnight Saturday and 8 a.m. Sunday. The remaining .29 inches came after 8 a.m. Sunday. That was all of the moisture registered at the official weather recording station during the month.

Bank Figures Show Increase

Deposits at Friona State Bank as of the call date (April 18) showed an increase of almost a million dollars over a similar date a year earlier, and total assets at the bank were more than $1,000,000 higher than a year previously.

Total deposits at the bank as of April 18 were $7,573,201.06. This compared to $6,603,207.05 a year earlier (April 25, 1967). This was an increase of $969,994.01, or 14.7 per cent over the corresponding date a year earlier.

Total assets, meanwhile, climbed from $7,259,582.13 on the April call date in 1967 to $8,279,092.07 -- an increase of $1,019,509.94.

Breaking down the deposits, a total of $5,416,754.43 was classified as demand deposits, compared to $4,874,488.11 a year earlier.

Bank loans stood at $4,925,624.64 on April 18, a gain of $552,688.68 over the total of $4,372,935.96 of a year before.

TOP STUDENTS . . . Larry Truitt, left, was named valedictorian by Friona High School, and Becky Coffey was named salutatorian of the 1968 graduating class. Truitt is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Truitt. Miss Coffey is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Coffey.

Honor Students Are Announced By FHS

Larry Frank Truitt, 18-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Truitt, and Becky Lou Coffey, 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Coffey, were named as valedictorian and salutatorian this week for the 1968 graduating class at Friona High School.

Truitt edged Miss Coffey with a four-year grade average of 94.73. Becky's four-year mark was 94.60.

Truitt has received a scholarship from Rice University, and plans to attend the Houston school upon graduation. His present plans are to become a teacher.

Miss Coffey also plans to teach. She will attend West Texas State University following graduation, majoring in math and history.

Both honor students have had an active record of activities while in high school, in addition to achieving their high grades. Truitt placed second in the state interscholastic League literary meet in the ready writing division as a junior. He was third in the regional meet this season.

In the West Texas State University history contest, Truitt won the first-place award in the world history division as a junior, and then took first-place in the American history division this year. He placed in the upper five per cent in the world history contest as a freshman, and again in the top five per cent in the American history contest as a sophomore.

He served as Future Teachers president this year, and also was named, "Mr. FTA." Truitt was a member of the National Honor Society the past three years, and served as president this year.

As a sophomore, Truitt received the school's history award, and won the English award last year as a junior. He has been a member of both the junior and senior play casts. His hobbies include reading, model cars and model ship-building.

Miss Coffey has been active in Future Homemakers of America, receiving her state degree. She was a member of the student council the past three years, serving as secretary her junior year and vice president this year.

She also was a member of the National Honor Society the past three years. Becky has been a band student since the fifth grade, making the all-regional band as a junior.

A member of the FHS girls debate team which placed third in the regional meet this year, Becky is active in church work. She has served as church pianist, and has worked with Vacation Bible School the past two years.

Miss Coffey also received school awards as an underclassman, being chosen for both the math and history awards as a junior. She was a member of the FTA for three years, serving as an office two of those years. She was Lions Club Sweetheart the past year, was active in the Rainbows and Trebellaires.

Hightower To Speak Locally

State Senator Jack Hightower of Vernon will be the speaker at the Friona Masonic Lodge Past Masters and Ladies night banquet scheduled for Friday at the Lodge Building.

All local masons and their wives are urged to attend, says H.L. Outland, Worshipful Master.

The meeting will begin at 7 p.m. The meal will be served by the Eastern Star.

Chamber Kicks Off Membership Drive

The Friona Chamber of Commerce is kicking off a renewed membership drive for 1968 this week. The drive was begun at a meeting Wednesday morning at Friona State Bank.

Due to other activities involving the Chamber, including the open house for Missouri Beef Packers, the membership drive had been held up until this week.

"Although Friona and the Friona Chamber of Commerce are now enjoying extensive growth as a result of our cattle and packing industries, we must continually look to the future in order to sustain this growth," said Charles Allen Chamber president.

For the information of chamber members, and the citizens of Friona, the Chamber of Commerce president listed the organization's purposes, goals and responsibilities, outlining them as follows:

1. Act as a public relations firm for the community.
2. Work for the Correct type of community growth.
3. Promote new industry and business and to increase the flow of dollars through Friona.
4. Act as a source of information for members and citizens.
5. Attracting new people to Friona and holding them here.
6. Rural-City coordination of common problems.
7. City planning and the Proper type of physical growth.
8. Aiding in numerous civic and chamber activities such as maize days, etc.

Allen stated that the chamber is continually working for new industry in Friona, but it does not feel that this should overshadow the servicing of people and businesses already in Friona.

"In order to keep people in Friona, the Chamber has used its funds in many cases. The local SCS office, for instance, has its rent paid by the Chamber. The recent location of the Texas Employment Commission Office was obtained in the same manner," Allen said.

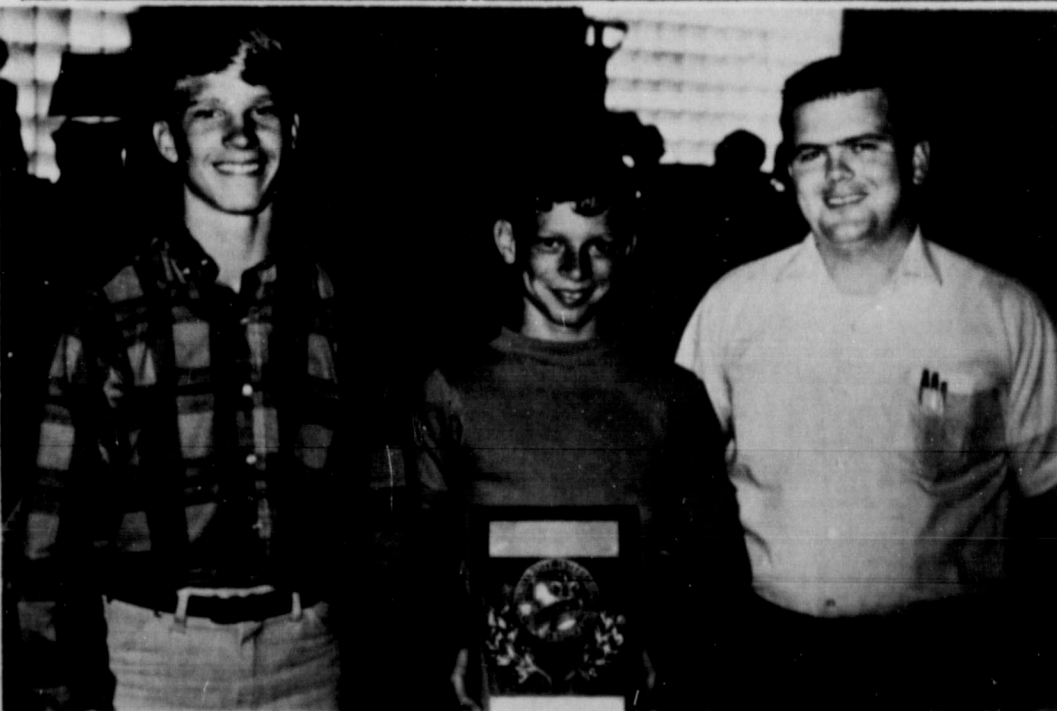

It was pointed out that still other businesses are being courted by the chamber at the present time, which could bring additional taxpayers, homeowners, church members, etc. to the community.

"The Friona Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture invites the membership and participation of every business and individual in the Friona area. We hope you will say 'yes' if you are asked to do a small part in helping Friona grow," the chamber of commerce president said.

NEW MEMBERS. . . M.W. Hicks of Hicks Plumbing and Heating is being presented the Chamber of Commerce's travelling "newest member" plaque by Chamber director Robert Neelley.

Propositions Merit Voters' Attention

Two important propositions are printed on this week's primary ballots in the Democratic and Republican primaries.

One is the "Liquor by the Drink" proposition, and the other is for legalizing pari-mutuel betting on horse races in the state. Both issues have previously been turned down by Texas voters, but both have gained new support and are being tried once again.

Backers of both programs talk about increased taxes which would come into the state's treasury as a result of their programs. What they fail to tell you is what it could cost state residents in the long run.

Texas Alcohol Narcotics Education, Inc. points out that increasing the availability of alcohol, the state could get more tax revenues by merely raising its tax in line with that of other states.

TANE states that while Texas presently taxes beer at the rate of $4.30 per barrel, Oklahoma and Louisiana's beer tax is $10 per barrel; Mississippi's is $13.23; Alabama's is $13.23; Georgia's is $14.89 and Florida's tax is $11.57.

Advocates of the liquor-by-the drink proposition point out that the state would gain $7 1/2 million a year in tax revenues. However, TANE says that if Texas would simply make beer subject to the two per cent state sales tax, it would raise nearly $13 million in added revenue.

There are other points to consider, but we think that Texans would help keep their state more safe and sane by voting AGAINST the two propositions during Saturday's election. There is more at stake than tax dollars -- and other ways of raising money.

Pause And Reflect

By Nelson Lewis

We were invited to attend an afternoon of entertainment in the high school auditorium on Sunday April 28.

The affair proved to be far more than casual entertainment. It was a thrilling, heartwarming demonstration of the qualities of youth that make up the true wealth of America.

Misses Jan Welch and Sharen Awtry treated the audience to a group of songs ranging from old spiritual to the rousing news that Dolly would never roam again.

Miss Ann Ayers presented a patriotic reading. The Trebelaire's, a group of high school songmistresses, sang the Battle Hymn of the Republic and This is My Country. Perhaps an old man's imagination played tricks with his vision; or did Old Glory and the Proud Texas Banner really shine a little brighter during these two numbers?

Mrs. Eva Miller, teacher, director, accompanist, deserves the thanks of the entire community. This wonderfully talented lady has given much of herself to the youth of Friona. You may show your appreciation of her efforts by attending the various programs with which she is associated.

We cannot reproduce the sights and sounds created by these lovely young women but we do have permission from Miss Ann Ayers to use her talk "Patriotism Texas Style" in our column this week.

Please read it carefully. As you read bear in mind that in this original composition are expressed the thoughts of one of our teenage girls.

PATRIOTISM TEXAS STYLE

On March 6, 1830, the men at the Alamo died after a twelve day siege. On April 21, of that year their deaths were avenged. The battle for an unclear purpose, Texas freedom, had been won. Texans fought again for what they believed during the Civil War. They fought and died for another unclear purpose when they fought far away from home in World War I. They fought to free an oppressed people in World War II. In Korea they fought again to help an oppressed people. Now in Viet Nam Texans are fighting gallantly again, and still the purpose is unclear. Yet, it fits into one word; FREEDOM.

A down payment was made on Freedom in 1776, and installment payments are still being made. The payments can only be made in blood.

The enemy that we are fighting is very hard to define. Abroad it comes in the form of overt aggression.

At home Communism is in a more dangerous form, subversion. The riots in our streets that grow more violent every day are the most obvious forms of this subversion, but the violence in our country is part of it too. Once this violence was far away from those of us in Texas and Friona. Now, it grows closer and closer with the Tower murder in Austin and the Cleaning woman killed at Tech last December. That is very close to our supposed security. How much closer will it get?

I realize that the people here are not guilty of this, but it still needs to be said. There is a tendency in the U.S. to believe that the policeman is the enemy of the people and society rather than its friend. Parents tell a child that if he is naughty, they will call the big bad policeman. The father who puts a child in the back seat of the car and tells him to watch out for the "fuzz" as he takes off down the highway at 80 or 90 miles an hour is guilty. The high school student who hates the police and everything he stands for is guilty. The college student who protests war and doesn't know why is guilty. These students want academic freedom, but what is academic freedom? Is it the ability to tell a teacher what to do? Is it the right to flaunt the laws of the land and the laws of God? This is the strange kind of subversion we must fight. A lack of respect for the law is everywhere in our country. The new American Philosophy is "It isn't against the law unless you get caught."

These things are a strong detriment to our society. V.I. Lenin said in his book, "What is to be Done, that there were three steps to defeating a country. First, cause a class struggle; he went on to say in the U.S. make it Negro against White. This has been done. Second, cause a lack of respect for the law. This is quickly being accomplished. The third seems the least possible, but the other two seemed that way a few years ago. Third, have the minority take over the government.

It is possible to defeat this thing if adults and youth will work together to do so. The adults need to instruct their children in the importance of knowing the difference between right and wrong, regardless of who may or may not be present. Parents must give children a respect for our law enforcement officers. Adults need to consider carefully for whom they vote in the coming elections. Make sure that those speeches mean something and aren't just hollow words. The youth need to be careful not to be sponges, accepting everything told them. Youth have the fault of listening too much and condemning too little. I feel that if the youth will think carefully about what the Communists say, they will see the fallacy in it and refuse to follow their teachings.

I'm sorry to say that aggression abroad must be paid in the blood of American boys. This is an installment on freedom that we must pay. If we fail to pay this installment, wherever in the world it may be, we may find that we will lose that hard-to-define thing called Freedom.

If you want to keep this beautiful idea in our country please consider and believe the words in the pledge to our flag with me: "I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the republic for which it stands, One nation, under God, indivisible with liberty and justice for all."

Of the three steps outlined by Lenin for a complete communist take over we have already experienced the first two. If we adult citizens fail to vote our convictions in this year's vital elections we are asking for the third wish to come true. Our daughters may sing their hearts out in a high school auditorium, our sons may make the supreme sacrifice on a far away battleground.

Both efforts will be in vain unless we mature Americans preserve for them the Freedoms they so richly deserve.

Dear Bill:

May I take this means to express heart-felt congratulations to you upon the STAR's winning five awards of distinction at the Panhandle Press Association's Meeting, Amarillo, Texas, last week.

Not only does this reflect many honors of hard and industrious work upon the part of you and your staff, but also puts Friona in a favorable spotlight in the journalistic world. The publicity is good for our community.

On behalf of the people of Friona I say thanks and best wishes to you and the staff for continued success in the future. Sincerely, W.L. Edelman Mayor

P.S. -- We all appreciate the special Missouri Beef Packer's edition last week.

Dear Bill:

I would like to express to you in writing my appreciation for your sending The Friona Star to the Veterans Hospital in Amarillo.

On a recent visit to the hospital I visited the Library and there on the rack with several of the other papers was our own Friona Star. It showed real well and the appearance of The Friona Star definitely made a difference. The Librarian expressed her appreciation for your sending it. When MEN from our part of the country are in the hospital they can enjoy the home town news and the Librarian also informed me that other men who know nothing of our town read our paper and express their appreciation of it.

Thank you again, Bill, for your thoughtfulness in sending this news media to our MEN in the hospital. I capitalize MEN for I feel just that way about them.

New Policy Begun By Frigidaire Dealership

A new open-door policy for Frigidaire customers of Reeve Chevrolet Co. has been announced by Glenn E. Reeve, owner of the retail outlet located at 510 Main St.

"The open door policy," Mr. Reeve said, "is a new refrigerator - freezer with reversible doors which may be changed to open from whichever side the customer desires."

The new household appliance, called the Reversa-Door refrigerator, was previewed by Reeve at a spring sales meeting held in Lubbock.

He said the new model offers a solution to the "wrong door swing" problem experienced by thousands of America's transient families, and even by the more stationary families who want to remodel their kitchens.

Reeve pointed out that 20 per cent of the total U.S. population moves each year and that one age group almost doubles the national average.

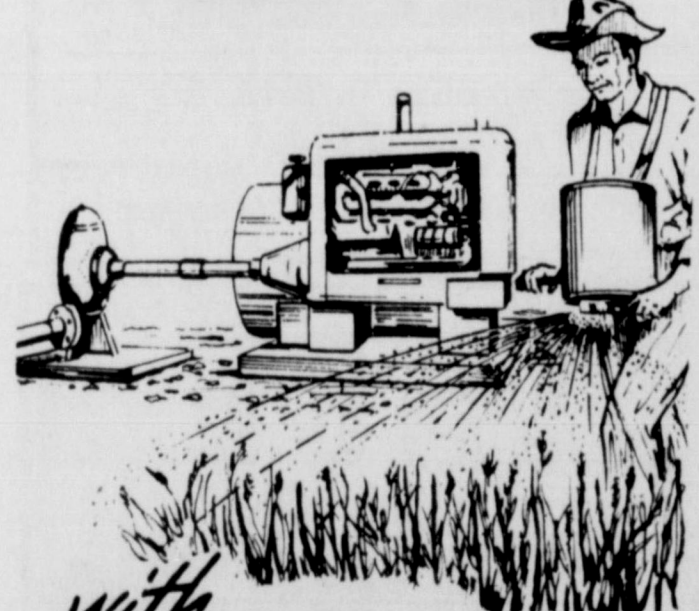

"Almost 40 per cent of those families whose head of household is in the 25-to-35 category are on the move each year," Reeve said.

"More and more of these mobile families are learning that the refrigerator that conveniently opened from the right in their suburban New York home really ought to open from the left in their new Los Angeles kitchen," Reeve said.

With the new Reversa-Door refrigerator, all it takes is a Phillips screwdriver, a 5/16" ope end wrench, and about 25 minutes to change left-hinged doors to right-hinged doors - or vice versa. The hinges and decorative trim are simple to reverse.

Reeve said the new refrigerator-freezer model also features automatic ice-making and storage, frostless freezing and adjustable refrigerator shelves.

Elementary Teachers Honored At Program

Elementary teachers were honored during the annual teacher appreciation night program at the elementary cafeteria last Friday night.

Third grade teacher, June Rhodes was presented with a 10-year service pin, and fourth grade teacher Frances Hamilton received a five-year pin. Suellen Young, elementary secretary, also received a five year pin.

Members of the custodial staff also were honored for tenure for the first time. Fred Lloyd and Clarence Ashcraft received 15-year pins. Dan Hodgson and Henry White got 10-year pins and Travis Light received a five-year pin.

School board members, W.M. Massie received a five-year pin and Don Light, who was in his fifth year this year, was presented a pin through his wife.

Other junior high and high school teachers will receive tenure pins at assembly programs at the close of school. The Parent-Teacher Organization elected new officers during the program. They included Mrs. Jackie Hight, president; Mrs. Eugene Bandy, vice president; Mrs. Dale Widner, secretary; Mrs. Jim Johnston, treasurer and Mrs. Dale Westbrook, reporter.

Entertainment was furnished by Norman Mohr, Karla Paterson, Mary Rando and Brian Witten.

Mrs. Bill Nazworth, retiring president, welcomed the parents. Alton Farr presented the tenure awards, Mrs. Raymond Euler presented the gift from the P-To, 18 clocks for school rooms in elementary school.

Dear Bill:

We wish to express our appreciation to you and other members of the Star staff for your wonderful cooperation in publicizing two recent events, which were sponsored by our club.

Without your support it would not have been possible for our food sale and visual clinic to have been nearly as successful as they were.

We also want to thank residents of Friona and the surrounding territory for their response to both events.

Plans are already being made for next year's visual clinic and we hope to make this a worthwhile project for pre-school age children in our community.

Sincerely yours,
Mrs. Dale Williams, President

An Aerosol Tip-Be Prepared

Those insects that seem to pop up out of nowhere, especially when you are off to the beach or golf course, always congregate on one or two choice plants. Here's a tip on keeping them in check until the next regular over-all spraying. Carry a can of push-button spray with you when walking through the garden. When you see a few insects, spray them immediately. With a push-button spray that contains the same insecticidal ingredient you use in your regular spraying—such as the spray-can form of Spectracide—you can be assured of effective and quick control. Push-button sprays are by far the easiest to use—no mixing, no mess; just spray as you go.

Noon Lions Organize; Maddox Is Boss Lion

The Friona Noon Lions Club was organized last Thursday with 18 members. Cecil Maddox was elected Boss Lion, Paul Mohr was named secretary. The club set the first and third Thursdays of each month as their meeting dates.

Tom Gregory, state Lions secretary, conducted the club's organizational meeting, assisted by Baker Duggins of the Friona Lions Club, sponsoring organization.

Of the 18 who signed up, four were transfers from the evening club, four are former members and ten are new Lions Club members.

The club discussed a charter night banquet, and tentatively set it for June 8.

Those who pledged as charter members included: Dale Cary, Ted Weaver, Herman Jesko, Dr. Jon Mac Roden, Dr. Loyd Shackelford, Bob Owen, David Smith, Don Spring, Cecil Maddox, F.G. Crofford, J. R. Cook, Bill Foll, Paul Mohr, Bill Nunn, Richard Collard, Mal Manchee, Bill McDonnell and Lionel Young.

The club will meet at the Farmer House Restaurant for their regular meeting today.

Jr. Band Receives First Division Contest Ratings

Saturday, April 27, the Friona Junior High band participated in the University Interscholastic League regional concert and sight-reading contest. The contest was held at Monterey High School in Lubbock.

The band received a first division or superior rating for both their concert and sight-reading performances. The concert judges were Gerald Hemphill, Phillips University, Enid, Oklahoma; Carl Lobitz, Oklahoma, University; and Doug Wiebe of North Texas State University, Denton, Texas. The sight-reading judge was George Nelson from Southwestern University.

The Friona band and Estacado Junior High of Plainview were the only two schools in Class C to rate a division one in either of the events. There were eleven bands competing in Class C.

Head Start Program Underway For Friona

Project Head Start got underway in Friona Monday night with the first meeting of the local committee. Mrs. Gene Brito was elected chairman of the group with Mrs. Joe Jackson to serve as vice-chairman. Mrs. Robert Neelley was chosen as secretary.

The group elected to hire Mrs. O. J. Beene as teacher for the Head Start School which will begin June 10 and will run for eight weeks. Classes will be held in the Friona Grade School building, with transportation being provided by a school bus.

Head Start is a free government-sponsored program to prepare underprivileged children for the first grade. Pre-school age children who will be six years of age by the first of September and are from low-income families are eligible for the class.

Friona enrollment is limited to 20 pupils. Applications are now being taken for enrollment by the committee advisors, Rev. Paul Mohr and Rev. James Price. Farmers and other area residents who have low-income families with small children living on their land are asked to inform them about the Head Start Program and have them contact either Rev. Mohr at 247-2803 or Rev. Price at 247-3045. Classes are to be fully integrated, so all races are acceptable.

The local committee will also be screening applicants for teacher's aide, cook, cook's aide and bus driver. Any persons interested in applying for these jobs should contact a member of the committee or one of the advisors.

Head Start classes will run from 8:30 a.m. to 10:30 p.m. daily Monday through Friday for eight weeks, during which time the children will be introduced to group activities, music, art, visual aids, and other helps in preparing them for their first year of regular schooling. They will be taken on field trips, will visit museums, libraries and will be visited by the local firemen, policemen and many others. They will be fed a mid-morning snack and will receive a balanced meal at noon.

Other members of the local Head Start committee are Steve Messenger, Ronnie Webster, A.L. Outland, Father Claver Giblin, Mrs. Bill Ellis, Mrs. George Cervantez, Mrs. Robert Alexander, Martin Mercado, Ruben Villanueva, Mrs. Billy J. Polk and those already named. Though the Headstart Program is to be a community-wide project, The Congregational Church has been listed as the sponsoring body.

The committee will meet the second Monday of each month at 8:00 p.m. in the Congregational Church basement.

TWO WORDS and THE MAN who shook up TEXAS POLITICIANS

Just 90 days ago, Ed Whittenburg was unknown in Texas politics. He was not a politician had never run for office before. Today, old time politicians throughout Texas are shaking their heads in disbelief at the way Texans have rallied around this self-made businessman who decided to run for governor and did something none of his opponents bothered to do. Ed Whittenburg listened. From one end of the state to the other, he listened, and more important, he understood. This bold, new approach... listening while his opponents were talking... holding "people conferences" instead of press conferences... understanding instead of promising... made sense to Texans who were searching through a record number of candidates for a governor to lead them out of the wilderness of professional politicians. Ed Whittenburg—a private citizen—has soared in popularity in the Texas governor's race because he offers the people a refreshing new choice. The two words that shook up Texas politicians? WHITTENBURG UNDERSTANDS. The people understand, too. That's why Saturday's Democratic primary on May 4th will begin a new look in Texas politics... an understanding look.

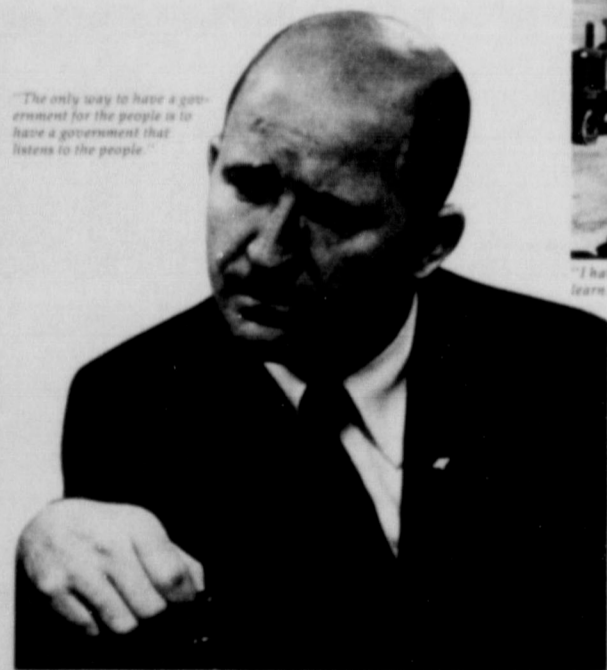

"WHITTENBURG UNDERSTANDS"

"I understand your problems, because I've been there." (August on West Texas farm where Ed Whittenburg was born.)

"Unfilled desires are the product of empty political promises."

"The only way to have a government for the people is to have a government that listens to the people."

"I have never met a man or woman I couldn't learn something from."

PARI-MUTUEL BETTING AND LIQUOR-BY-THE-DRINK

IT'S A FACT ABOUT PARI-MUTUEL BETTING:

★ For Every $1 the State receives in revenue from legalized gambling, the underworld gets more than $2.50.

★ Legalized, cleanly-run gambling will open the door to underworld gambling. Syndicated gambling never has entered a state that does not have legalized gambling.

★ Such betting siphons money from small communities around a track town and has been known to decrease sales up to 50% during track season.

★ So-called "family entertainment" provided by horse racing promotes family tragedy through pari-mutuel betting.

IT'S A FACT ABOUT LIQUOR-BY-THE-DRINK:

★ If Texas legalizes Liquor by-the-drink we can expect the number of alcoholics in Texas to increase by one-third.

★ Texas can expect 673 additional highway deaths each year if liquor-by-the-drink is legalized.

★ If Texas legalizes liquor-by-the-drink per capita consumption of alcohol will increase by 80%.

★ For every dollar of revenue brought in by alcohol in 1964, Washington State paid out eleven dollars as a direct result of alcohol. Other states have stated that they were not far behind.

Views Presented By Governor Candidates

ELECT
Ben Barnes
Lt. Governor
(Pol. Adv. — Paid for by The Committee To Elect Ben Barnes Lt. Gov., Ralph Wayne, Chrm.)

Ten candidates are on the democratic ballot for governor, and three men seek the office on the Republican ticket, when voters go to the polls on Saturday.

In an effort to give our readers a thumbnail sketch of the 13 candidates, we're reproducing here the Associated Press's collection of brief statements from the candidates on their backgrounds and positions on issues.

Republicans

Paul W. Eggers, 49, Wichita Falls attorney: "Texans want to break the political monopoly that has dominated our state. People want two-party competition and new leadership that is not tied to past promises or mistakes."

Eggers names major areas of concern as taxes, education, crime and law enforcement, conservation and pollution control.

Eggers was born in a small Indiana town, one of eight children in a Lutheran minister's family. He has lived in Wichita Falls since graduation from the University of Texas school of law in 1948.

An Air Corps veteran of World War II, Eggers received a Sports Illustrated silver anniversary award in 1966 for success in his field of endeavor.

He is chairman-elect of the taxation section of the State Bar of Texas. He is a trustee of Midwestern University foundation and a past director of the North Texas Oil and Gas Assn. Eggers and his wife, Frances, have a 10-year-old son, Steven. They are members of the Episcopal church.

Wallace T. Sisk, 38, Houston attorney:

He is a native of Kentucky but has lived in Texas since 1947 and has practiced law in Houston for 16 years. He said he has voted Republican for 18 years.

"I am for the liquor by the drink but I think it should be coupled with stringent enforcement."

"I am opposed to pari-mutuel betting. I believe it will bring organized crime."

Favors Police Academy
On crime he said "first poverty does not cause crime. The true answer is sound moral teaching in our homes, churches, and schools. I am in favor of establishment of a state police academy."

"I oppose open housing legislation because it is a serious invasion of person privacy."

Sisk said he is for equal opportunity "but opposed to give-away programs." He opposes a state income tax, firearms registration and minimum wage legislation.

For Higher Salaries
He said he favors higher teachers' salaries, four-year terms for state officials, annual legislative sessions, enforcement of water and pollution laws.

John R. Trice, 35, Dallas attorney:

He was active in young Republican affairs and ran for attorney general as a Republican in 1964.

He said he is opposed to liquor by the drink but would not veto it if the legislature passed it. He said "I am strongly opposed to open house legislation but if it passed I would not veto it."

Democrats

Dolph Briscoe, 45, Uvalde, businessman and rancher:

He stresses his experience in many fields as a "proven record of service and leadership for progress."

He has conducted a "people-to-people" campaign and says he has enlisted more than 50,000 volunteers working in his behalf throughout the state, including 37,000 block captains in the cities.

Briscoe served eight years in the Texas Legislature. He has proposed strengthening education in Texas, including expansion of technical and vocational training and distributive education programs. He has endorsed the program of the Texas State Teachers Association.

Eyes Traffic Problems
He is co-author of the Colson-Briscoe Act, which revitalized the farm-to-market road system. He has called for a similar intensive effort to help cities solve traffic problems.

Briscoe organized and headed the screwworm eradication program.

Waggoner Carr, 49, Lubbock and Austin attorney:

He is a former assistant district attorney, county attorney, member of the Texas legislature, speaker of the House of Representatives, and attorney general of Texas.

He received the Wyman Memorial Award from the National Assn. of Attorneys General as the outstanding attorney general in the nation in 1966 for his creation of the Texas Youth Council to fight crime. He said he favors:

Favors Police Schools
--More severe penalties for crimes of violence, and narcotic violations, creation of special police schools and providing state financial assistance to local law enforcement agencies.

--Maintaining the best teaching force in the nation by providing salaries competitive with other states and private employment;

--Creation of more technical and vocational schools;

--Elimination of duplication and waste in state government by combining agencies, and joint contracting for computer services for all state agencies.

Woman Seeks Post

The Rev. Johnnie Mae Hackworth, 63, minister and self-styled prophetess:

She said she was arrested for threatening the lives of presidents Eisenhower and Johnson and was sent to mental hospitals three times, but was declared sane each time.

She said she would "promote true patriotism for the United States and Texas as opposed to one-world government via the United Nations organization or United States of Europe."

She said she is for "equitable taxation adequate for major state improvements, tourism, good world press, firm law obedience and establishment of day care centers for working mothers. She opposes liquor by the drink and pari-mutuel betting."

Leadership Hill's Goal
John Hill, 44, Houston attorney:

He is a former secretary of state.

"The purpose of my candidacy is to provide leadership for the development of the human and natural resources of our state."

"We must begin with a total commitment to excellence in education. This includes competitive salaries and long-range planning in vocational technical education, state supported kindergartens, and pre-school training."

"Full development of human resources requires further industrial growth. I have outlined a four-point program to stimulate economic progress."

"The overriding issue in this campaign is the independence of a candidate to do what must be done. I am the only candidate who has no ties, no prior commitments, no pressure groups to please, I am free to serve all of Texas."

Eugene Locke, 49, Dallas attorney:

He said "Texans want strong, new leadership in the governor's office next year. Texans do not want political reruns and the same old tired voices speaking as their chief of executive."

Says Strong Executive Needed

Locke said Texas needs "a strong governor who will have the courage to resist pressure from lobbyists." He said he advocates strong law enforcement.

"Texas lawmen should shoot looters if they ever get completely out of hand as they have in some other parts of the nation."

Locke is a navy veteran. He has long been active in Democratic Party affairs in Texas and nationally. He managed Gov. John Connally's 1962 campaign and served two years as state Democratic chairman.

He served two years as a diplomat, as U.S. ambassador to Pakistan and as deputy ambassador to South Vietnam. For this service he received the Freedom Medal.

Son of "Pappy"
Pat O'Daniel, 49, Dallas insurance executive:

He is the son of former Gov. and U.S. Sen. W. Lee O'Daniel.

"I intend to break up the power-hungry politicians which act like puppets," he said.

"When I am governor of Texas I will cut the strings which make the puppets dance."

He said he would veto any attempt to legalize liquor by the drink. He said he favors a pay increase for teachers. Lt. Gov. Preston Smith, 56, Lubbock businessman:

"In traveling more than 50,000 miles in this race for governor, I have stressed my qualifications and record which are reflected in my public record of 18 years as a member of the House of Representatives of the state Senate, and as the lieutenant governor."

"I have served as acting governor of Texas for more than 240 days -- more than one-fourth of the normal two-year term."

"The issue of a qualified governor has emerged as the only real issue in this race. This is because the operation of the state government is a $2.5 billion-a-year operation and if it is not administered with efficiency, economy and know-how, it can cost the taxpayers millions of dollars."

Alfonso Veloz, 44, Houston bank employee:

He said he served under John F. Kennedy during World War II on PT Boat 109. He said he favors a $2 minimum wage, better schools, higher teacher salaries and liquor by the drink. He has not campaigned actively.

Stresses Honesty
Edward L. Whittenburg, 39, Houston businessman:

He said he is the most candid and honest man in the race and has never refused to take a firm stand on any issue. Whittenburg said he considers the number one issue in the race to be "integrity in government."

He has called for the withdrawal of all candidates who are unable to publicly disclose their sources of income, which he did at a news conference March 7. "No man should run for governor unless he can tell the people who he's been with and who he's obligated to," Whittenburg said.

Don Yarborough, 42, Houston attorney:

For Minimum Wage Law
He served with the Marines in World War II and Korea and ran unsuccessfully for governor in 1962 and 1964.

He has called for a state consumer commission to protect shoppers, a reduction in auto insurance rates, a program to utilize the talents of retired citizens and a state human relations commission.

IF YOU ever thought about learning to fly

NOW'S THE TIME!

With so many people taking up flying today, we'll bet you've thought about it too. Maybe you've thought how convenient a plane could be for business travel or more interesting pleasure trips with the family. Perhaps the challenge of doing something new and different appeals to you.

But why just think about it? Why not come out to the airport today or this weekend and see for yourself? We're offering a Special Introductory Flight Lesson for just five dollars. With an expert government-rated flight instructor, you'll fly in a quiet, roomy, powerful Piper Cherokee, with modern low wing. You'll handle the controls. You'll be shown how to fly straight and level, make turns, climb and descend. No better time than right now to start learning to fly. It's easy, fascinating, and not at all complicated.

HERE'S THE PLANE IDEALLY SUITED FOR YOU... THE PIPER CHEROKEE

- FOUR EASY WAYS TO LEARN TO FLY
- INDIVIDUAL LESSONS. We'll schedule individual lessons to suit your convenience. 8 to 12 lessons, on the average, will have you fully proficient to fly solo.
 - LEARN ON VACATION. In one week you could be flying solo. Great way to get a jump toward your pilot's license.
 - LEARN AS YOU TRAVEL. Rent one of our fast, comfortable Piper Cherokees for out-of-town trips. An expert pilot-instructor will teach you as you travel. The perfect, practical way for busy businessmen to put their travel time to profitable, meaningful use.
 - LEARN FREE when you buy your own Piper.

You'll take your $5 Introductory Flight Lesson in the world's most popular airplane with modern low wing... the Piper Cherokee. It's rugged, all-metal, with a big, quiet, comfortable cabin. Its low wing design offers many aerodynamic advantages and other features for handling ease and safety. Low center of gravity, wide-track tricycle gear that takes the skill out of landings. Steerable nose wheel, powerful hydraulic brakes, three-position flaps to slow your landing.

FOR LESS THAN $2000 DOWN you can own your own, over-130-mph, four-passenger Cherokee 140. Economical to operate; same gas mileage as a car. Even more economical when you share ownership in a Piper Partnership. Or you can rent a Cherokee as you do a car. See us for details or call for Cherokee brochure.

Barber Manager For Hereford Credit Union

Flake Barber assumed duties on Wednesday as manager of the Hereford Federal Credit Union, it was announced this week by the credit union's board of directors.

Barber replaced Charles Bell, who has been interim manager since January 15. Bell covered the assignment since the retirement of Mrs. Dyalthis Benson, longtime holder of the position.

A native of Hereford, Barber has been with Ethridge-Spring Agency the past nine years. He served on the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, as secretary for two years, has been active in Lions being a former Boss Lion, and has been active in various other civic events. Barber was chairman of the past year's Maize Days celebration.

Barber and his wife Sarah have four children. The girls are Kelly and Tracy, and the boys are Tom and Bud. He plans to commute between Friona and Hereford at least until school ends.

Bell will continue as representative of an insurance company in Hereford.

Chamber Notes

BY TED WEAVER
Chamber of Commerce Manager

Your Chamber of Commerce staff is active! As the result of planning and cooperation, a new resident has been secured for Friona. Born Sunday at 4:26 and weighing 8 lbs, 5 ozs., Carole Lynn Weaver, using her daddy as a spokesman said "Although she is not fully adjusted yet, she is happy to live in Friona."

What else does your Chamber of Commerce do?

The Chamber of Commerce unites business and professional individuals and firms, thus creating a central agency which lends itself to improving business and building a better community.

The Chamber of Commerce is people. There is a place in the Chamber of Commerce effort for all who share the desire to improve the community and the conditions under which business is conducted.

The Chamber of Commerce organizes and directs the energies of those who believe that a community worth living in is a community worth improving.

The Chamber of Commerce enables people to accomplish collectively what no one of them could do individually.

Your Friona Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture needs you. Your ideas, enthusiasm, time and moral and financial support are needed. Everyone benefits but not everyone belongs.

VOTE SATURDAY!

ATTEND YOUR PRECINCT CONVENTION SATURDAY!

SUPPORT CONNALLY FOR FAVORITE SON!

Next January, for the first time in almost forty years, Texas will have no representation in the top leadership of our nation.

Seldom in recent history have we faced such political uncertainty. Developments just ahead will affect our state for years to come.

If you want Texas to have a strong united voice in the future affairs of our nation, join behind Governor Connally as Favorite Son candidate for the Presidency, and as leader of the delegation to the Democratic National Convention.

As a leader respected throughout the country, he will be an effective, influential voice in shaping the future leadership and policy of the party and the nation.

Be sure to attend your precinct convention, adopt the unit rule, and give your support to Governor John Connally for Favorite Son.

IMPORTANT! YOU MUST VOTE IN THE DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY TO HELP GOVERNOR CONNALLY AT THE PRECINCT CONVENTION!

Santa Fe Files For Passenger Rescheduling

Santa Fe today announced it will file with the Interstate Commerce Commission in Washington for rescheduling of some of its passenger trains to better serve the areas where non-profitable passenger operations have been discontinued.

Trains involved in the rescheduling are Nos. 15 and 16, known as the Texas Chief, which operates between Chicago and Houston, and Nos. 1 and 2 between Chicago and San Francisco.

Under the proposed schedules Nos. 15 and 16 will provide service for Lawrence and Topeka, Kan., which is not presently available.

Departures and arrivals at the terminal points will be the same as on the present schedule.

Train No. 1, the San Francisco Chief, which departs Chicago at 3:00 p.m., will be rescheduled to leave there at 10:00 a.m., departing Kansas City, 6:20 p.m.; Lawrence, Kan., 7:00 p.m.; Topeka, Kan., 7:35 p.m.; Wichita, Kan., 11:00 p.m.; Amarillo, Tex., 5:50 a.m.; and will arrive Richmond, Calif., at 10:00 a.m., the second morning.

Eastbound, the San Francisco Chief will depart Richmond at 4:30 p.m.; Amarillo, Tex., 12:25 a.m.; Wichita, Kan., 7:10 a.m.; Topeka, Kan., 10:30 a.m.; Lawrence, Kan., 11:00 a.m.; Kansas City, 12:25 p.m.; arriving Chicago at 8:00 p.m.

Santa Fe will propose these new schedules for consideration by the Interstate Commerce Commission as soon as possible to create the minimum delay in instituting the new service.

Present law requires, however, that there be 30 days between the filing of the rescheduling application and the approval of the Interstate Commerce Commission. The effective date will depend on the action of the Interstate Commerce Commission and will be announced as quickly as approval has been received.

Friday, May 3 will be a holiday for first grade students in Friona. They will stay at home and allow next year's first graders to come to school for their pre-school day activities.

Friday Set As Pre-School Day

First grade students are not to come to school Friday, but all students who will be in the first grade next fall should report to the elementary building.

Bond Sales Are Given

During the first quarter of 1968 United States Savings Bond sales in Farmer County totaled $9,747, according to a report received today from Mr. Frank A. Spring, Chairman of the Farmer County Savings Bonds Committee. Seven per cent of the county's 1968 goal of $130,000 has been achieved.

Savings Bond sales in Texas during the month of March totaled $14,174,187 which is an increase of 8 per cent over the same period of 1967. During the first quarter sales totaled $45,978,599 and 25 per cent of the state's goal of 184.5 million has been achieved.

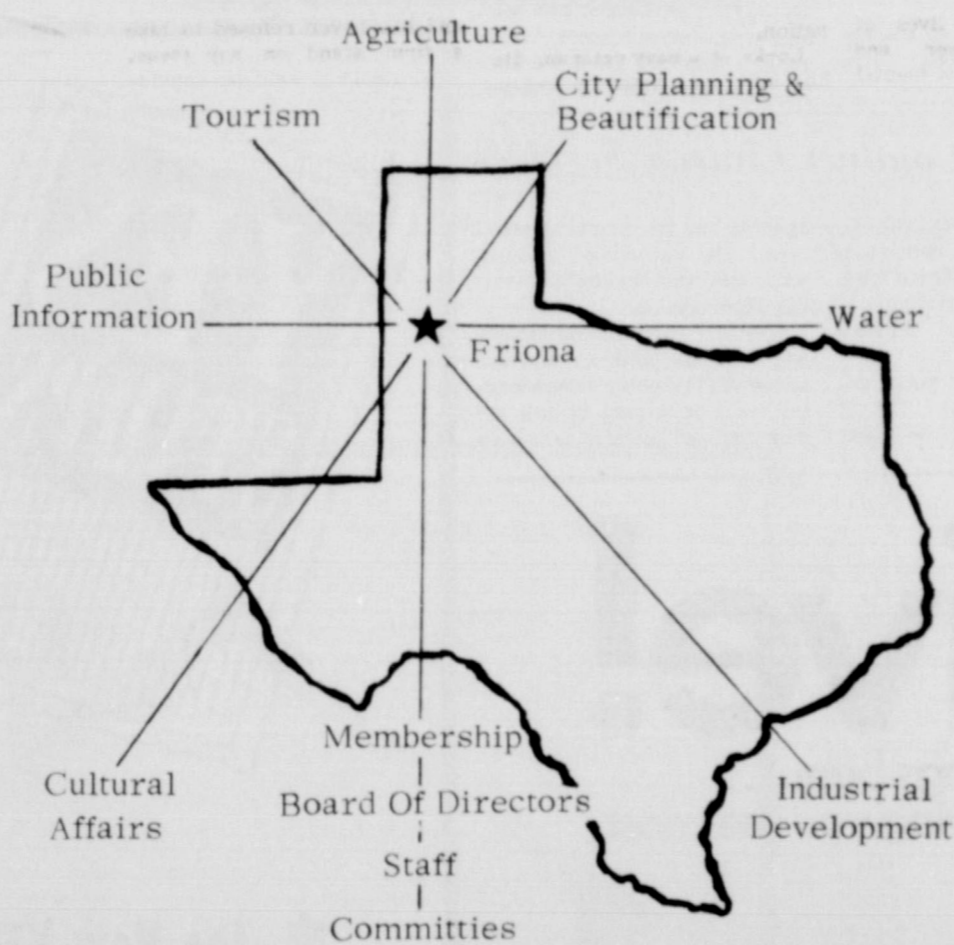

The Treasury Department reports that March sales of E and H Bonds and Freedom Shares over the Nation totaled $419 million, bringing quarterly sales to $1,340 million.

Report From GS Troop 211

The 23 members of Girl Scout Troop 211, who are sixth graders, have recently completed the requirements for the "Sign of the Star," and "Sign of the Arrow," and have earned the required badges to become Cadette Girl Scouts in October. These girls have designed a troop flag and will soon have it completed for display.

Plans for the three meetings, which will be held between now and the close of school, are to plan and make preparation for a troop trip to Camp Rio Blanco again this year. Registration will be at 10 a.m. June 3 and check out time will be 10 a.m. June 6. Troop members plan their menus and activities. Any mothers of troop members, who desire to go are being invited to do so.

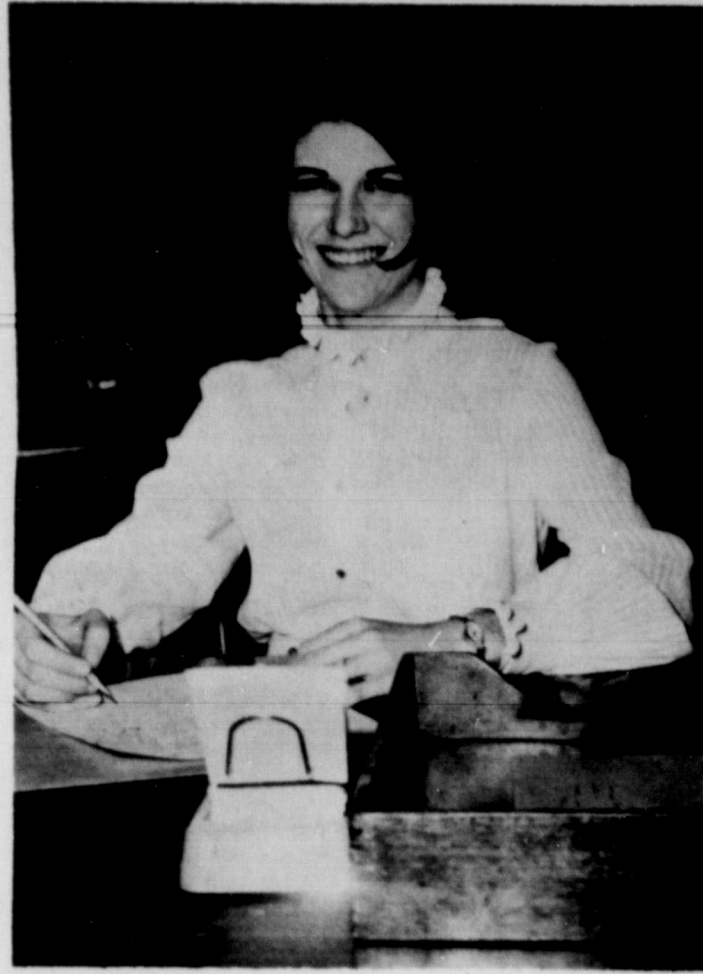

Jeannie Bandy, Annette Reznik, Tena Gale Day, and Janice Bandy were elected to serve as patrol leaders at camp. Recently members of this troop prepared and served supper in the large room of Girl Scout House. Special guests are the honorary troop parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Shirley, and parents of the troop members.

About 65 persons were present for supper. After supper plans for construction of a brick barbecue pit at the Scout House in memory of Jan Shirley, who spent several years working with the troop, were announced. Parents supported the project 100%. Fathers pledged to supply all materials needed and mothers pledged assistance on money raising projects to pay for labor on the project.

Leaders of the troop are Mrs. Al Reznik, Mrs. Herbert Day, Mrs. Meryle Massie. Members are Beverly Bailey, Jeannie and Janice Bandy, Mary Beth Bennett, Kay Cochran, Tena Gale Day, Paula Dean, Shera Finley, Carolyn Core, Laquita Graham, Karene Hart, Dorothy Johnston and Dorothy Latham.

Also Joy Mann, Linda Martin, Malinda Miller, Vicki Pryor, Glenda Reeve, Annette Reznik, Jana Sue Robertson, Lisa Taylor, Jan Young and Denette Vaughn.

TEC CLERK. . . New clerk in the Texas Employment Commission office, located at Sixth and Euclid, is Mrs. Dwight Whitaker. Fred Jackson reminds farmers and businessmen that the employment service at the office is a free one, with no charge to either party. Employers and those needing jobs are urged to put their applications on file.

HAVE RECITAL. . . Jan Welch and Sharen Awtrey are shown with Eva Miller, as they practice for their recital held last Sunday. The two girls are students of Mrs. Miller.

Jan Welch, Sharen Awtrey Presented In Voice Recital

Mrs. Roy V. Miller Sr. presented Jan Welch and Sharen Awtrey in a senior voice recital at 2 p.m. Sunday. Guest artists were Gay and Holly Welch, Ann Ayers and the Trebelaires. Miss Ayers presented "Patriotism Texas Style." Gay and Holly Welch appeared to complete the Welch Sisters Trio in singing "Sugar Time." Members of the Trebelaires, who sang "Battle Hymn of the Republic," "This is My Country," were Diana Wilson, Paula Fortenberry, Risa Howell, Janet Mingus, Jan Welch, Becky Coffey, Bennie Hannold and Esther Smith. Miss Welch and Miss Awtrey formed a duet to sing "With a Song in My Heart." Solos presented by Miss Welch were "Deep River,"

"Bless This House," "Alice Blue Gown," "Danny Boy," "Getting to Know You," and "Love Is The Sweetest Thing." Miss Awtrey's solos were "Were You There," "Think On These Things," "The Trolley Song," "Hello Dolly," "Beautiful Dreamer," and "Almost Paradise." About 200 guests were registered by Patti Ragsdale and Carolyn Menefee. Ushers were Joan Gail Brookfield and Peggy Drake. Hostesses for the reception were Karene Milner, Debbie Jarecki, JoAnne Jennings, Vickie Vaughn and Kathy Cook. Kathy Renner had charge of the lighting.

Mrs. Jim Cocannouer has returned home after spending several weeks visiting relatives in California.

Society

Woman's Club Members Visit King's Manor

Fourteen members of Friona Woman's Club, accompanied by four guests, met at Federated Club House at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday then went in a group to Hereford for their regular program at King's Manor. The program began with Mrs. Floyd Schlenker modeling an antique Quaker costume, which had been worn by one of her ancestors more than 200 years ago. For the devotional Mrs. John Benger read "With The Guardian of The Gates," which was written by Elbert Parsons in 1903. Parsons was a personal friend of the Schlenker family. Mrs. H.L. Outland, guest soloist, was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. O.T. Patterson as she sang, "Take Up Thy Cross," "The Man Upstairs," and "How Great Thou Art." A reading entitled "What Is A Grandmother," was presented by Mrs. Kenyth Cass. Mrs. Joe Moyer read a poem, "How To Reduce." Refreshments of cookies and punch were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Joe Moyer, Mrs. Clyde Hays and Mrs. John Benger. Guests from Friona were Mrs. Outland, Mrs. Ray Landrum and Mrs. Cass. Mrs. Myrtle Kelly, San Francisco, was also a guest.

Former Teacher Presents Program

Miss Lora Mae McFarland presented a program of slides from her tour of Mexico a few years ago to Progressive Study Club Members Tuesday evening. Miss McFarland, who has been a Spanish Teacher in the Clovis school system and is now retired, gave a short speech preceding the showing of the slides, in which she urged the members to try to learn more about the habits and customs of a country before visiting it. She told how friendly people of other countries can be to strangers who will make the first step toward friendship. Entertainment was provided by Tracy and Sunny Horton singing a medley of songs accompanied by their sister Kathy on the guitar and piano. During the business meeting community service projects and money-making projects for next year were brought up to be voted on at the next meeting. Coffee, tea and fruit tarts were served by hostesses for the evening, Mrs. Hollis Horton and Mrs. M.C. Osborn.

Future Teachers Have Installation

Following a salad supper at Friona Country Club Wednesday evening the Ethel Benger Chapter of Future Teachers of America had formal installation of officers for the coming year. Mrs. Martha Bates was installing officer and talked to the group about the importance of teaching. Deloris Phipps was installed president. Other officers installed were Kathy Bandy, vice-president; Debbie Baxter, secretary; Karen Crofford, reporter; Sharon Crofford, treasurer and Linda Carson and Carlene Greeson, historians. About fifty persons were present. Mrs. Kenneth Houlette and Mrs. Wilbur Dean Moore and daughter, Jana, all of Dumas, were Thursday afternoon visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Griffith.

Miss White Weds Bill McCoy

Wedding vows were exchanged between Barbara White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. White, Route 1, Bovina, and Bill McCoy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lathin McCoy, Route 5, Lamar, Oklahoma at First Assembly of God Church here Tuesday evening. The ceremony was read by Rev. Ott Robertson, pastor.

Jinnie White was the maid of honor and Joe Mabry was the best man.

The bride wore a white double knit street length dress designed in an A line. Her corsage was a double cymbidium orchid. She wore an antique diamond drop necklace and the traditional blue garter. She carried a lace handkerchief, which had been borrowed from Mrs. Leo Proctor, Midland.

A reception in Fellowship Hall of the church followed the ceremony. Mrs. Leo Proctor served the cake and Miss Jinnie White served the punch.

Mrs. McCoy is a student instructor at Amarillo College of Hairdressing and the groom is employed by a pipeline company.

Following a wedding trip to points of interest in Oklahoma, Mr. and Mrs. McCoy will be at home in Ellsworth, Kansas.

MRS. BILL MCCOY

Robert Miller Slated To Receive Music Degree

ROBERT MILLER

Robert A. Miller, son of Mrs. Lois Miller of Friona, will receive the bachelor of church music degree from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary during the annual spring commencement exercises May 10 at 7:30 p.m. in Truett Auditorium.

President Robert E. Naylor will present degrees in church music, religious education and theology to approximately 187 candidates. These will join over 11,000 Southwestern Seminary graduates serving every continent.

Dr. James S. Riley, pastor of Second Baptist Church, Houston, Tex., will deliver the commencement address. Riley is a past member of the seminary's board of trustees and was president of the Alumni Association in 1967.

Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, owned and operated by the Southern Bapttist Convention, is the largest evangelical seminary in the world.

Class Hears Book Report

The L.L.L. Class of the First Baptist Church held its regular monthly social last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Dale Widener. Mrs. Cecil Maddox was co-hostess.

Roll call was answered with "The person I most admire." Mrs. Bill Ellis reviewed the book, "A Hat On The Hall Table" by Jean Reynolds Davis. Coffee, tea and cakes were served to 12 members.

Those present were Mmes. Dee Clark, Clarence Monroe, Richard Adkins, Mal Manchee, Lionel Young, Dale Hart, Sam Mears, Ed Hicks, Bill Ellis, Jimmy Maynard and the hostesses.

Mrs. J.L. Smith Buried Here Monday

Mrs. Effie Otha Smith, who had been selected as the 1967 Senior Citizen of the Year by the Messenger Home Demonstration Club, passed away at her Saturday after a short illness. She had lived two miles South of Bootleg on Rt. 2, Friona.

Funeral services, under the direction of Gililand Funeral Home of Hereford, were conducted Monday at 2:30 p. m. at the First Methodist Church of Friona. Rev. James Price officiating. Burial was at the Friona Cemetery.

Pupils To Present Recital

Mrs. Jane Bengt has announced plans for a recital, which will be presented by her piano pupils at Federated Club House at 8 p.m., Saturday, May 4.

Students who will appear on the program are Debbie Hancock, Ann Spears, Vandra Nichols, Ann Carrasco, Beverly Schueler, Debbie Wilkerson, Lisa Edelman, Susan Garner, Peggy Martinez and Debbie Dorrell.

Mrs. Smith was 79 years old. Born in Tennessee on September 4, 1888, she married J. L. Smith at Cental, Oklahoma in 1911. She is survived by her husband.

She and her husband moved to Deaf Smith County in 1934. They had lived in a barn for a short time when they first came here, and continued to farm at the same time on a place in Western Oklahoma for four years, with members of the family going back and forth.

Mrs. Smith's other survivors are three sons, Lewis, Ralph and Hoyt, all of Friona; a n four daughters, Gladys Abbott of Amarillo; Pauline Rondeau of Albuquerque; Marie Bass of Friona; and Nold Pave Vestal of Friona.

Mrs. Smith is also survived by one brother, A. W. Anthony, Sr. of Friona, 14 grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.

Thirteen Attend Scout Overnight

Thirteen persons met at Girl Scout House Friday afternoon for an overnight for members of Girl Scout Troop 268. After supper and a game session a "Scout's Own," based on friendship, was directed by Sandy Reznik.

Assisting Miss Reznik with the candlelight ceremony were Susie Spring, Susan Floyd and Jayn Massie, who read poems, and Gay Welch who directed a sing song session. The event ended with breakfast Saturday morning. Others present included Mrs. Louis Welch, leader, Mrs. Glenn Floyd, Cindy Campbell, Ann Spears, Amy Renner, Jonnye Cudd, Dorothy Miller and Nancy Scales.

Scout Cooking School Concluded Recently

The final session of a three lesson cooking school was conducted recently at Federated Club House by Janet Newman, representative of Southwestern Public Service Company. Miss Newman presented cooking certificates to nineteen members of the troop who successfully completed the course.

The serving table for a tea, which followed the presentation, was centered with an arrangement of red tulips and purple lilacs, which troop members made. The tulips were picked from a bed on the Spohn Ranch in which the bulbs were planted last fall by the Girl Scouts.

A gift was presented to Miss Newman in appreciation of her helpfulness.

Others present were Mrs. V.R. Wilcox and Pam; Mrs. Jerome Erdman and Debbie; Mrs. Don Light and Devonn; Mrs. J.V. Fulks and Sandy; Mrs. Ira Holt and Glenna; Mrs. W.H. Mays and Hope and Mrs. Ethel Adams and Judy Ulen. Also Mrs. Hank Wheeler and Stacy; Mrs. Dale Hart and Holly; Mrs. Doyle Cummings and Connie; Jeanine Jarboe; Terry Fallwell, Tonna Morgan, Judy Massey and the two leaders, Mrs. Dan Laceywell and Mrs. Watson Whaley.

Summer plans including a troop camp at the Spohn ranch were made. Officers elected to serve during the summer months included Stacy Wheeler, president; Jeanine Jarboe, vice - president; Lisa Cummings, scribe; Pam Wilcox and Kenna More, song leaders and Hope Mays, reporter.

Monday evening troop members went to the Soil Conservation office in the American Legion Building and were shown a slide entitled "America The Beautiful," by Jerry Isbell. The film stressed the importance of conservation of natural resources.

From there the group went to the home of Mrs. Dan Laceywell, who is ill, and presented her a potted plant.

CONSTANT COMPANIONS

Copyright 1968 Kelsor Advertising Service, Inc., Strasburg, Va.

"Those three are always together," remarked Lisa's mother. She was referring to her little daughter, who is seldom seen without her beloved collie, and her well-worn rag doll. They are constant companions.

"Lisa is very sensitive about friends," her mother continued. "And this week she came home from Sunday School with a very important lesson. Her teacher told her about God's love, and how He never leaves us. Lisa came skipping into the house and announced, 'Now I have three good friends, and the best one of all is Jesus.'"

Little Lisa had indeed learned a wonderful truth. All of us need to discover it for our own lives. For every life needs the companionship of God. Let your church bring this hope and promise to you.

Frionans have every right to be proud of the reception given visitors during the weekend of the open house. With the opening of Missouri Beef Packers, the eighth annual Junior Rodeo and a golf tournament, it seemed that all roads were leading into our town. It would be interesting to know just how many visitors we had.

Much favorable comment was heard up and down the street about the hospitality shown visitors and the cooperation of groups and individuals as they were called upon to perform various duties and chores.

Tuesday morning everyone was asking the same question, "Was the fruit frozen last night?" Of course, no one knows for sure at this time. It is always surprising how some tiny fruit buds seem to survive low temperatures. In spite of our late late freeze last year, a lot of fruit grew to maturity in this area. Think the official low was 31 degrees. There was ice on shallow containers of water and the wind was blowing enough to make it seem much colder.

Porter Roberts has the answer to a situation which has been puzzling to a lot of Frionans. Someone asked, "Why does the thermometer at the bank register to high at times and too low at others?" He says, "It all depends upon whether the needle is hovering over cold cash or hot checks."

All members of the Staff appreciate the many kind things which have been said about the showing we made in the Panhandle Press Association contests in Amarillo. We want our readers, news sources, fellow townspeople and subscribers to know "Without your assistance and cooperation, it just couldn't be done."

Our apologies this week go to West Friona Grain and Farmer County Pump. We want Jack Tomlin and his associates at West Friona Grain and Hollis Horton and all the folks at Farmer County Pump to know we were not willfully discriminating against them.

Someone just forgot to tell us they were co-sponsors with Claborn's Funeral Home and Floral of the women's bowling team, which participated in the national tournament in San Antonio earlier this month.

Probably ignorance is no excuse, but we just didn't know about it. Sorry folks!

DO-IT-YOURSELF RECIPE FOR CHILD DELINQUENCY

This sure-fire recipe never fails. Take one pure and unblemished child. Mix in: One generous helping of neglect. One drop of impatience. A vigorous shake of "socialitis" frequent "I'm too busy." A variety of babysitters. Let smoulder several years. Then Add: A liberal helping of "anything you want." A great deal of unconcern. A dash of late hours and evil companions. Blend all together and top with a lack of teaching God's word. Serve with both heartache and tears. Guaranteed to produce one authentic juvenile delinquent. When your guests ask, you'll be able to say, "I did it all by myself!"

Twice the fun and excitement is in store for visitors to SIX FLAGS Over Texas with this year's addition of a second Log Flume ride. Proper Footwear Best For Travel Aching feet can be a drag on HemisFair fun. Sunny days and sizzling sidewalks call for footwear that will keep you cool and dry, reminds Cricket B. Taylor, Farmer County Extension Agent.

Filmy non-porous canvas or plastic shoe materials can trap moisture and heat, multiplying foot discomfort, says the Extension agent.

Leather has a built-in "air-conditioning" system. Its million of tiny natural pores permit a continuous change of air inside the shoe, while simultaneously absorbing foot moisture. The breathing action keeps feet dry and helps prevent chafing and blistering.

For sightseeing the current crop of leather pumps and sandals prove good. They're available in leather, from sporty brushed, waxy and antiqued leathers to the dressier smooth suede and real patent leather finishes.

Good walking shoes need not be dull.

Color at your feet for Summer '68 includes the pale, (gray, pink, banana cream, nude and the brights are poster green yellow, orange, azalea, reports Mrs. Taylor. Also stepping lively will be navy, dark brown, red and of course, white.

Friona Soldier Promoted

Jose H. Longoria, 21, son of Mrs. Evangelina Hernandez, Friona, Tex., was promoted to Army specialist four April 2 at Ft. Hood, Tex.

He entered the Army in March 1966, completed basic training at Ft. Campbell, Ky., and was last stationed in Vietnam.

He is a 1965 graduate of Friona High School.

Movies Are Collaborative Art

The importance of the audience in the art of film making is noted by Dore Schary in his recent book, Case History of a Movie. "A painting or a statue is usually a one-man production. But a movie script is more like the score of a symphony. The written notes of the symphony mean little until men play them in concert... and this collabora-

The Library Corner

BY MRS. JOHN FRED WHITE

The library board met last week for our regular monthly meeting. Our new board member is Ted Weaver, representative for the Chamber of Commerce. We are pleased that we will now have regular contact with the chamber.

Two special guests at the library board meeting were Mrs. Flake Barber and Mrs. Jim Johnston, co-chairmen of the summer reading program. They reported to the board on the progress of their plans and a general discussion on their work was held.

We wish to express our thanks to the staff of the "Star" for the exceptional coverage that they gave our efforts to publicize National Library Week. This is National Library Week and several classes from school will be visiting the library this week. We hope every school aged child will take part in the summer reading program that will begin June 5 and end August 10. Certificates will be issued to everyone who reads 12 or more books. The story hour will be held this morning (Thursday) at 10:00. Bring your pre-schoolers ages 3-6 for an hour of fun and education. Forty-seven children attended last week.

In the interest of helping some people of our community that may have a visual problem that keeps them from reading regular printed books, we are presenting a sample of the actual size print that is available in a number of books. This greatly enlarged print is used in books that we can get for you or for someone you know at a very small charge. A few of the titles that are available are "A Horse Called Mystery," "The Grizzly," "Old Yeller," "Death Be Not Proud," "Rommel, The Desert Fox," "Seven Days in May," "The Bridge of San Luis Rey" and "Tomorrow is Now." The first three books listed are for young readers ages 8-12. These books may be purchased for an average price of $5.50. This makes an unusual and appreciated gift to the partially sighted.

In addition to these above listed books, we have access to "Talking Books." These are phonograph records of actual books, recorded for use by the blind or bedfast. These have been used at the Friona Convalescent home occasionally and were reported to have been enjoyed. Further information on these is available from Mrs. Zora Gaede, library.

Safety Demonstration - Gary Green and Gene Christian, Farwell.

Control Measures Given For Cattle Grubs

The common cattle grub is the larvae stage of the heel fly. The non-feeding, sexually mature heel fly, about the color of a honey bee and nearly twice as large, emerges from a puparium in the soil during warm sunny days of late winter and early spring.

Common cattle grub adults most often approach a reposing animal and attach their eggs to hairs on the udder, legs, esutcheon, belly or side without noticeably disturbing the animal. It is not uncommon, however, to see animals fleeing wildly, standing in water up to their bellies or in dense shade to protect themselves from heel fly attack.

Eggs are attached in rows of two or three to as many as 25 or 30 along a single hair. Females usually produce 400 to 800 eggs with an average of 500 eggs per fly. The eggs hatch in 2 1/2 to 6 days and the larvae crawl down the hair and begin to penetrate the skin, usually at the base of the hair. The first instar larva apparently spends about 8 months migrating through connective tissues. The grub spends most of this time in the submucosa of the esophagus (gullet), but it has been found in connective tissues.

Upon reaching the back, the grub secretes an enzyme creating a hole in the skin through which the grub obtains oxygen. Natural mortality of grubs in the back is commonly 50 per cent or more and may be as high as 100 per cent in some animals.

After developing 1 or 2 months in the warble, the fully-grown grub, squeezes through the breathing hole in the skin, drops to the ground and seeks shelter under ground trash, leaves or other debris.

Grubs normally appear in animals backs from October to February, varying according to location in Texas.

Cattle are the only important hosts of the common cattle grub. Horses are sometimes infested by there is no record of a grub completing its development in a horse.

Some authorities feel cattle grubs cost the livestock industry $100-300 million per year in the U.S., all factors considered. Loss of flesh and reduced milk production results as animals flee from flies and are unable to graze normally. The migration and parasitism of the grubs within the animal's body cause irritation and nutritional losses. Warbles in the back lower carcass values, and breathing holes in the skin reduce the hide's leather value.

For effective grub control, treat cattle with synthetic insecticides-chemicals absorbed into the animal's body where they control grubs by contact action. Systemics are available as sprays, dips, backline pour-ons and feed additives or mineral mixtures. The choice of insecticide and treatment method depends on the type of operation. Administer treatments after heel fly activity and before grubs reach the animal's back. In most areas of the state, treat between May 1 and September 1. In all areas, better control is obtained by treating soon after May 1.

Severe systemic insecticides effectively control cattle grubs. Sprays that are recommended include (Co-Ral) Ruelene 25 E; and (Neguvon). These materials also control horn flies and lice, and comaphos controls ticks as well.

This may require up to 1 gallon of spray for grown animals and proportionately less for smaller animals.

Presently only comaphos (Co-Ral) 25 per cent wettable

At Home In Parmer County

By CRICKET TAYLOR
County HD Agent

County 4-H Contest, one of the big events of the year in 4-H work is over. Last Saturday was a big day for 4-H'ers throughout the District when contests were held on the University Campus at Canyon. Parmer County took their share of honors with the big honor powder is recommended as a grub control dip.

Hand treating individual animals with ready-to-use, pour-on formulations is a rapid, convenient method for gentle herds or when cattle can be held in a crowding pen or driven through a chute. Handling and exciting the animals is minimized. A few ounces of chemical applied to the backline give excellent grub control and also horn flies by contact for 1 to 3 weeks. Little control of ticks and lice can be expected except by direct contact with the insecticide.

Recommended ready-mixed pour-ons are 4 per cent comaphos (Co-Ral), 9.4 per cent Ruelene (Ruelene 8R) and 8 per cent trichlorofenol (Neguvon).

Materials containing ronnel can be fed to animals for systemic cattle grubs control, going to Jan Jameson of Friona. She will compete in the State Contest June 5th for National honors and we are really counting on her taking that honor too. Saturday was a big for parents and 4-H'ers and we were proud of all those who took part in the District contests.

Now that school will soon be out 4-H interest turns to Clothing and Sewing projects. With new 4-H members, this calls for more adult help in leadership. Anyone interested in working with their 4-H members and other 4-H'ers in the group should contact the Extension office. We can always use leaders to help in these worthwhile projects for training youth.

Sewing machines training for adults 4-H leaders is on the agenda for the 2nd week in May. A total of seven leaders will be given training on the "Use of the Sewing Machine." This training will be given to the 4-H members by the leaders prior to starting the Sewing project work. It's going to be a big busy summer for some, with 4-H and the Hemisfair competing for time.

THE NAME IS REGISTERED Reg. No. 681459 THE DESIGN IS PATENTED U. S. Patent No. 186,183

Is Mother's Day the only appropriate time to give her The Mother's Ring?
Not really. Christmas, Valentine's Day, Easter, her wedding anniversary, her birthday, the day her first child arrives may be equally significant days for her. But since Mother's Day is so close, why wait? THERE IS ONLY ONE "MOTHER'S RING." IT IS so distinctive, so unique, that it has been awarded U.S. Patent #186,183. Ask for it by name, confirm it by its identifying tag.

NEW! For clean Sorghum... spray weeds when you see them! with BANVEL

Velsicol announces Banvel herbicide for control of all hard-to-kill weeds of major importance in grain sorghum. This includes carelessness (pigweed), sunflower, lambs-quarter, purslane, morning glory and other annual broadleaf weeds. Banvel herbicide is applied post-emergence, so there are no wasted sprays in years when rain is scarce and weeds are not a problem. With Banvel you see your weed problem and then spray—all in plenty of time to give young sorghum plants plenty of opportunity to grow.

Banvel is sprayed onto weed leaves and translocates to the roots... for new, total control of weeds. Just apply Banvel between the 10th and 25th day after emergence of grain sorghum (approximately 4 to 12 inches tall).

Banvel is not dependent on soil moisture for its effectiveness, so its results are dependable. And it's a liquid that won't clog your sprayers; nor does Banvel need constant agitation.

Banvel increases yields. It's excellent for use on grain sorghum, wheat, barley, oats and field corn. Order Banvel herbicide to get full potential from your valuable, high-yielding sorghum seed.

See your dealer today. You'll be glad you did!
