

Letter Received by Mrs. Howell From Rep. Mahon Gives Burial Place of Son

In a recent letter to Mrs. W. L. Harris from the Washington office of Representative George Mahon, the burial place of her son, the late First Lieutenant Lester L. Howell has been given as located in the United States Military Cemetery at Budapest, Hungary.

Mrs. Harris received the following letter from a friend of her son's dated July 16, 1944.

Dear Mrs. Harris:

I hardly know how to start this letter or what to say. I'm truly sorry that it has to be written. Les asked me to write you in case that anything happened that he couldn't. Well none of us know whatever did happen but Les didn't come back one day. I wasn't on the mission that day so I didn't know and none of the other fellows do either. This does not mean that Les is gone—he may have either bailed out or crashlanded. There is a good possibility that he did. There are many cases like that and we all hope and pray that he made it alright.

Les is a good pilot and very sensible so there is a good chance that he is ok. There is a way I like to think of it whenever one of the fellows go down. It's a line from a poem. I can't remember the poem, but the line goes like this: "Good Pilots Never Die—They Just Fly Away." If one can think of it in that way it helps a lot.

Well I haven't much to say. I've put this all rather bluntly but couldn't think of any other way to put it. So I'll close now—

Sincerely,
Lt. L. A. Gremaux.

Lt. Howell, before his fatal flight over Budapest, was a fighter pilot stationed in England with two downed Nazi planes to his credit. He helped to extend the ground gained by France by seeking out enemy aircraft and engaging them in combat, by providing escort protection for heavy bombers, by strafing and bombing ground installations, convoys and other targets, and by providing cover for allied troops.

Lt. Howell was graduated from Morton High School in 1941. He took his primary flight training at Uvalde, basic at Goodfellow and advanced at Moore, all in Texas. He was commissioned on October 1, 1943. He flew the P51 Mustang "Texas Knight" named for June Knight of Uvalde, whom he met in primary school.

It is now presumed that Lt. Howell was lost in a raid over Budapest in July, 1944, at which time about 500 U. S. planes pounded the Balkans twice with in twenty four hours, at this time 35 American planes were shot down.

Tribune Printing Proposed Changes In Constitution

Three proposed state constitutional amendments are being published in four issues of the Tribune, beginning with this issue.

The proposals, to be voted on in the November general elections pertain to the raising of $75,000 for claims incurred by the 1937 construction of a building at John Tarleton Agricultural College at Stephenville, the provision for a retirement, disability and death compensation fund for state appointed officers and employees, and the use of motor fuel and motor registration taxes for right-of-ways and schools.

Overall length of the amendments is 2,322 words and will be used in county newspapers over the state, according to Isbell, Texas' secretary of state.

Veterans planning summer courses in college or universities were urged by the Veterans' Administration to enroll in schools they are now attending. Transfers will delay receipt of subsistence payments, the Administration announced.

Almost 70 per cent of those in the armed services during this war had more than an eighth grade education, compared with only 20 per cent in the last war—Emporia Gazette.

Irrigation Wells Progressing In Cochran County

Irrigation offers great possibilities for new and profitable industries in Cochran County. There is no doubt but what there are two irrigation areas in the county, the extent of which has not been determined, and more than likely there are more areas to be determined, according to Roy Hickman, Jr., County Agent.

The first good irrigation well in the county, the Grindstaff well is still going strong. L. E. Hobbs has a good well located 6 miles northeast of Morton, Pat Hatcher has a good well 4½ miles east of Morton, E. J. Doran has a good well 3 miles east and T. C. Hodges has a fair well 7 miles southwest.

Sam Kelly is starting a well this week, Bob Ramp plans to drill two by fall, and several other farmers are talking about having wells in operation by the 1st of January, 1947.

Present conditions truly offer a "chance of a lifetime" for the farmer who plans to put down an irrigation well. Farm prices will make it possible for them to pay for the well within from 1 to 3 years, and with that accomplished they will be financially

Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting. Price Swing Of Southwest Farm Markets

Cotton dropped about $15 or more a bale last week. Also, prices for livestock, poultry and grain were generally below recent high levels, but peaches gained strength and vegetables and eggs held about steady, according to USDA's Production and Marketing Administration.

The trade generally attributed the sharp decline in cotton prices to pending price control legislation and favorable weather reports. Demand for spot cotton was strong, but trading light. Reported sales in the 10 spot markets totaled 57,200 bales last week against 63,300 bales in the preceding week and 79,900 a year ago. Domestic mill buying increased. Gins were running to capacity in the Rio Grande Valley with an estimated 90,000 bales already ginned.

Eggs held about steady at southwest markets this past week, despite slow demand for moderate offerings, but hens and fryers met with dull demand and slightly weaker prices.

Heavy shipments of West Texas potatoes met with slow commercial demand last week. The government took a high percentage of shipments. Prices stood around government support level. In contrast, Northern Colorado reported moderate demand and steady prices for light haulings of potatoes. Southwest onion market remained sick. Slow demand for liberal to heavy supplies kept prices at low levels. Recent hot weather damaged the Ozark tomato crop. Canners estimate pack will be much lighter than first expected.

Heaviest peach shipments on record moved from the nation's orchards July 23 to 25. Despite this heavy movement, peaches showed gains of 25 to 50 cents a bushel over the previous week's prices. Heaviest movement from the chief southwestern producing areas has passed with only Oklahoma and Northern Arkansas to ship bulk supplies.

Last week's livestock receipts dropped far below the previous week's around the market. Southwest markets reported uneven to lower prices for sheep and lambs. Common and medium spring lambs brought $10.45 to Hats Off to this Fellow...

HE fed us, our soldiers, our allies, and a lot of other people while we won a war. Now he's asked to keep the world from starving.

He's the American farmer.

He deserves the thanks and appreciation of everybody. He deserves it more than most folks realize because he increased his production by 30 per cent in five years without enough new tools to replace the labor he lost.

But, American farmers are disappointed—and they have a right to be. They expected that the end of the war would bring them an opportunity to replace their patched, repaired, weary and over-worked farm implements.

Of all of our shortages, that in farm tools and implements is the most serious.

Strikes have caused the shortages in farm implements—strikes in steel, strikes in coal, and strikes in the farm implement industry itself.

In the steel industry alone, the production of steel in the ten months following VJ day was 19 million tons short of expectations, enough to supply farm needs for at least five years. Most of the decline was due to strikes:

That is why the steel industry has not been able to catch up with the demand for new roofing, wire, fencing, tools and all the things of steel needed on the farm.

That is why the farmer is being penalized through no fault of his own. This nation cannot move ahead under the threat of ever-recurring labor strife.

Steel mills need all the scrap iron and steel they can get. Farmers can help increase steel output by sending worn-out machinery, etc., on its way to the furnaces. AMERICAN IRON AND STEEL INSTITUTE, 350 Fifth Avenue, New York 1, N. Y.

LOOKING AHEAD

By George S. Benson, President, Harding College, Searcy, Ark.

THE ALTERNATIVE

Last year when forces in government encouraged a big increase in wage levels they started an inflationary spiral which the OPA and all other control agencies found themselves powerless to stop. Even inaccurate statistics indicating that living costs had not increased more than 5 or 6 per cent did not fool anybody very long. The price line could not be held.

How far can inflation climb? Let me cite an extreme case. In 1925-36, when I was living in Canton, China, a Chinese dollar usually bought about 18 pounds of rice. Today that much rice commands a price of 2,300 Chinese dollars. By the way, an American dollar (worth 3 to 4 Chinese dollars when I was there) will buy about 2,300 Chinese dollars now. That is inflation.

What of America?

Hard earned savings in China are not worth much today. Even in America the same trend is active. It keeps taking more and more dollars to provide food, clothing and housing here. How far will it go? What might it do to the American people? Can we keep it from getting much worse? Are we sure we can avert disaster? If so, what are the things that need to be done?

These were the questions on my mind when I was admitted to the office of John W. Snyder, Secretary of the United States Treasury, on the afternoon of July 11, in Washington. Mr. Snyder's appearance and his words are vigorous, and his expressions are straightforward. In plain frankness, he said taxes ought to stay high while money is easy, and that interest rates are just what they should be.

Education Needed

About inflation, he was not positive. He said "I don't know. There are so many uncertain factors involved that it is very complicated. If OPA is not restored, I don't know what will happen.

Pointing out that OPA was failing anyway, that it had been granting higher prices almost daily before its June 30 demise and, even then, seemed hopelessly lost, I asked for another opinion.

My question was: "Assuming the OPA is gone for good, then what do you think about inflation?" His reply was music to my ears. He said, "There's only one alternative—education of the public. We can readily prevent inflation and attain sound prosperity if we will all do the right things." He is right! No republic can live long if the public is not well enough educated to do the right things.

Boost the Program

When our people must be regimented into doing the right things, our country will be a republic no longer. Thousands will want to compliment the Secretary upon being ready with something better than an alternative for OPA, far better than price-fixing by law. If other leaders will join in this sound program of education, we can make progress on the only possible road to success.

There are two main things that Secretary Snyder wants to teach the American public: (1) Government, labor and industry must work together for maximum production promptly. This is job insurance. This is a fender against inflation. (2) While driving for production, educate people to buy prudently and spend for essentials only. The world's one remaining powerful republic can be preserved this way.

Texas Traffic Deaths Jumped 47 Per Cent

AUSTIN—Texas traffic deaths jumped 47 per cent in the first six months of this year compared to the same period last year, N. K. Woerner, chief statistician of the Department of Public Safety, announced today.

The six-month toll was: Killed, 874. Injured, 30,346. Economic loss: $26,141,075. This compared with 594 killed and 20,790 injured in the previous period.

"The increase continues to be greater with each succeeding month", Woerner pointed out. Most dangerous today are highways and the small towns through which motorists are prone to pass at high speed. Highway fatalities are up 66 per cent. Towns of 2,500 or less population recorded a gain of 70 per cent.

Most such towns have little or no traffic policing, and enforcement on the highways is grossly inadequate because the Texas Highway Patrol's 125 cars limited to 100 miles a day by depleted funds, Woerner said. In the cities, with increasing emphasis on safety programs and scattered additions to police personnel, the increase was only 22 per cent.

The pedestrian continues to be the number one target of death in city traffic, Woerner pointed out. For the entire state, 217 pedestrians were killed in the half-year, and a 1946 total of 485 was predicted.

Vaccination Of School Children Urged By Officer

AUSTIN—"From a health standpoint children are not ready to enter school until they have been successfully vaccinated against smallpox," Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, reminds parents who expect to enroll their youngsters in September. "Many school districts make vaccination an entrance requirement, and children who have never been vaccinated, and also those vaccinated in infancy, should be taken to the physician for vaccination now, so that the scar will be well healed before school opens."

Immunization against diphtheria is also strongly recommended for further protection. Parents are urged to have their children protected from diphtheria by immunization with toxoid. Children who had this protection in infancy should receive a booster dose before entering school in order to maintain immunity at a high level.

"These two types of protection against disease should be considered 'musts' for preschool children," Dr. Cox declared. "Any other immunizations that the physician may recommend will, of course, provide additional health security."

In addition to this protection against specific communicable diseases each child getting ready to enter school should also receive a complete physical examination by his private physician or at the nearest clinic. Any treatment or correction of defects advised by the doctor should be undertaken immediately in order that the child may enter school in the best possible physical condition.

Time trials will be held at 8:00 p. m. each Saturday. Races start at 8:30. Admission is $1.00 plus tax for adults and 50c plus tax for children.

O. H. Tabor To Hold Church Of Christ Revival

The Morton Church of Christ will begin a gospel meeting this Friday night, August 2nd, which will continue through Sunday, August 11th. Day services will be at 10 a. m., evening services at 8:30.

O. H. Tabor, who has been minister of the church of Christ in Lamesa, Texas, for the past five years will do the preaching in this series of meetings. Brother Tabor needs no introduction to most of the people of Morton and Cochran County, as he spent many years in this town and community. In fact, it was while living in Morton and working for Chas. Taylor at Morton Drug Co., that Brother Tabor first began preaching and a few years later gave up the work in the drug store to begin "full time" work as a gospel minister. He first moved to Stamford, Texas, and in the four years he was there the growth of the church was remarkable and he is still loved by the people there. He moved to Lamesa in September, 1941, and the fact that today this is one of the finest congregations in West Texas, is to a great extent due to Brother Tabor's zeal, untiring efforts and labor of love. We are sure the people of Morton and community will want to hear his fine sermons and enjoy this feast of good things.

Paul Foutz, local evangelist, who moved to Morton from Lamesa, where he was closely associated with Brother Tabor in the Lamesa work, will direct the congregational singing.

The church of Christ in Morton extends a cordial invitation to all, to be on hand in every service, and enjoy the gospel in sermon and song.

MR. and MRS. GLENN MARTIN and children of Phoenix and MISS GALE MARTIN of Buckeye, Ariz., have been visiting their grandmother, MRS. J. E. CROW, and other relatives for the past two weeks. MRS. CROW accompanied them back to Buckeye for a visit with her daughter, MRS. T. O. DAVIS who will meet her there.

Guests in the ODELL SMITH home Sunday were his sister, MISS REITA and brother J. A. SMITH of Abernathy, and his nieces, MISSES WYVON and LYVON CASTLEBERRY of Morevo Stage, California.

- Be it further ordered that notice of such hearing be given by the publication of this Ordinance in the Morton Tribune for three consecutive weeks, before the date herein set for such hearing. And such publication of this Ordinance shall be the lawful statutory notice to said property owners to appear, should they elect so to do, and show cause why Statutory Street Improvement Liens should not be fixed against their said properties.

FARM FACTS WORTH KNOWING

Q. How often should eggs be gathered?

A. During warm weather they should be gathered 4 or 5 times daily and less often during cool weather. As soon as the eggs are gathered they should be cooled to remove all animal heat.

Q. Do dairy calves show a greater rate of gain when fed on a dry feeding program or when fed on whole milk?

A. When fed on a dry feeding program. Records at the Ralston Purina Company's Research Farm show that calves raised on a dry feeding program consistently averaged from 25 to 50 lbs. heavier at four months of age than calves raised on a whole milk program at good college and private dairy farms, according to weights reported in Missouri Bulletin 336. Furthermore, this Purina dry feeding program actually costs only about half as much as whole milk feeding.

Q. Do rabbits require salt?

A. Yes. Rabbits require more salt than the quantity normally present in the grain and roughage part of their ration. Salt spoils should be available to them at all times.

Q. In a dressed broiler, is a light or dark yellow skin preferable?

A. The only preference is a consumer preference. Most purchasers prefer the darker color, but there is probably no nutritional difference in the meat.

Q. Will college and university students be permitted to participate in meat judging contests in the near future?

A. Yes. The National Livestock and Meat Board announces that it will again sponsor the intercollegiate meat judging contests at the livestock exhibitions this fall. Teams of animal husbandry and home economics students from colleges and universities will again have the opportunity to put to a practical test the knowledge they have gained in their meat courses.

Send your questions about any phase of farm management to FARM FACTS, 415 South Eighth Street, St. Louis 2, Missouri. Questions will be answered without charge, either by mail or in this column, as a service of this newspaper.

proposing an amendment to Article VIII of the Constitution of the State of Texas by adding thereto a new section to be known as "Section 7-a"; providing that subject to legislative appropriation, allocation and direction all net revenues derived from the taxes, except gross production and ad valorem taxes, levied on motor fuels and lubricants and motor vehicles registration fees shall be used for the sole purposes of acquiring rights-of-way for and constructing and maintaining public roadways; for the administration of laws pertaining to traffic and safety; and for the payment of principal and interest on county and road district bonds or warrants voted or issued prior to January 2, 1939, and declared eligible for debt service prior to January 2, 1945; providing that one-fourth (1/4) of such net revenue from the motor fuel tax shall be allocated to the Available School Fund; providing and insuring that each county shall never derive less revenue from motor registration fees than the maximum amounts and percentages of such fees allowed to be retained by each county under the laws in effect on January 1, 1945; and negating any interpretation of this amendment as authorizing the pledging of the State's credit for any purpose.

New Faculty Members At Texas Tech

LUBBOCK—Appointment of three new members of the Texas Technological College faculty has been announced by President W. Whyburn.

Dr. George Whetstone, former head of the Department of Engineering at Amarillo College, is named assistant professor of civil engineering and Ivan L. Little of Godson becomes assistant professor of philosophy and sociology. Maxine Craddock of Colorado City is named instructor in civil engineering.

Dr. Whetstone holds bachelor, master's and doctor's degrees from the University of Washington. He has specialized in electricity and hydraulics.

Prof. Little is a '38 graduate of Texas Tech and obtained his master's degree at the University of Nebraska. He also has done substantial work toward a doctorate at Nebraska.

Miss Craddock received her bachelor of science degree from Texas Tech in 1945 and has been employed for the past year in research work for the West Point Manufacturing Company at West Point, Ga.

ENROLLED FOR SUMMER TERM AT TEXAS TECH

LUBBOCK—Enrollment for the second summer term at Texas Tech totals 1,994, a drop from 2,444 students registered the first term but higher than any other summer total previous to this year. Veterans enrolled total 1,141. Prior to the summer term ending July 16 the high enrollment was 1,947, recorded in 1939.

MRS. HESSE B. SPOTTS, MISS LORIE SCOTT, FRED SAUNDERS and W. K. WEED attended motorcycle races in Lubbock, Sunday.

MR. and MRS. A. A. NANCE of Lubbock visited their daughter and son-in-law, MR. and MRS. B. SWANNER last week-end.

MR. and MRS. BUTCH BAKER spent the week-end at Springdale.

CORONET TELLS OF UNSUNG TEXAS HERO

One of the greatest heroes of Texas has probably never been heard of by more than a handful of people. He was George Arnold, a modest young farmer of Hill County.

Arnold's act—one of singular courage—is described by Coronet Magazine in the August issue under the title "Greater Love Hath No Man." The incident occurred in 1880—just five years before Louis Pasteur discovered the cure for hydrophobia.

George Arnold had been bitten by a mad dog. Saying nothing about it to his family, he waited several months until the hot summer came, studying meanwhile of the grim fate that was to befall him.

After writing a farewell note to his wife and children, Arnold chained himself to a tree in the woods, locked his ankle to the chain, and threw the key out of reach. He judged rightly the consequences, for when two days later his body was found, the ground had been torn up the full length of the chain, the nails of his fingers wrenched off, and all his front teeth out, in biting.

Arnold thus saved his family and neighbors the consequences of facing a mad man. The Texan's bitter courage made his ancestors' last stand at the Alamo look easy, declares the Coronet article.

JUDGE and MRS. G. A. GRAMHAM and daughter, JANIE, who maintain a summer home in Ruidosa, New Mexico, were visitors in Morton last week-end.

JAKE MINOR returned to Morton last week from Boulder, Colorado, where he had been on a job for three weeks.

MR. and MRS. CARL ENGLAND, accompanied by MISS ALLENE CURRY of Levelland were week-end visitors in Snyder with friends and relatives.

MR. and MRS. ROY ALLSUP returned Thursday from California where they had gone to attend the funeral of her father.

The election returns, contest, clean-up drive, the excessive heat and other things have kept us in high this week and a time or so we have been, just plain old aggravated. TO THE VOTERS OF PRECINCT NO. 2

To the voters, I take this means of thanking you for your support and consideration shown me in the July 27, Democratic Primaries in the race for Commissioner of Precinct No. 2.

Making this campaign with clean upright opponents is indeed a pleasure, and I want to express to them my appreciation.

In continuing on into the runoff it shall be my intention to meet each of you in person to solicit your support, knowing that it will be impossible for me to see every one, I want to take this method to ask your consideration.

Thanking you again I am,
Respectfully yours,

New All-Sweet Marmalade Makes Appearance In Creamy Sponge Mold

The food star of the day, Welch's new all-sweet Orange Marmalade, is stepping out in newer and bigger roles these days to offer recipe variety as well as ingredient and time saving ideas. Recipes short on sugar needs, long on appetite appeal feature this real American-type marmalade as the basic ingredient. For a starter that will bring cries of "more", serve Creamy Marmalade Sponge Mold as a refreshing salad or cooling dessert course.

Creamy Marmalade Sponge Mold
2 tablespoons unflavored gelatine; 1/3 cup cold water; 1 1/3 cups boiling water; 1/8 teaspoon salt; 2 teaspoons grated lemon rind; 3 tablespoons lemon juice;

4 egg whites; 2/3 cup Welch's Orange Marmalade; 1 cup mayonnaise; 3 tablespoons honey; 1/2 cup cream, whipped; Walnut halves.

Lettuce cups.
Soften gelatine in cold water; dissolve in boiling water. Add salt, lemon rind and juice. Chill until syrupy. Beat egg whites stiff. Fold in Welch's Orange Marmalade until well blended. Fold in gelatine mixture, mixing well. Pour into ring mold and chill until firm. Just before serving, blend mayonnaise thoroughly with honey, and fold in whipped cream. Unmold sponge mold on round platter, fill center with mayonnaise mixture and garnish with walnuts. Serve with crisp lettuce cups. Makes 6 servings.

How Your Television "Commercial" Will Look

To enhance an impressive list of manufacturing "firsts," Chevrolet now engages in another pioneering venture as the first motor car manufacturer to sponsor a regular commercial television show. Admittedly an exploratory venture to evaluate the possibilities of television as an advertising medium, these broadcasts were the first employing live talent to be sponsored by any automobile producer. Four weekly shows were staged by Chevrolet and broadcast through the facilities of the American Broadcasting Company's television network. The shows were televised at the Dumont Studios in New York for the three stations currently teamed in the ABC television network. Shown above is a scene from the second of the series, a half-hour program titled "Roads to Romance."

Gee, that looks purty, over there

The other fellow's economic grass may look greener to us because it's farther away and deliberately clouded in mystery.

But before we fall in love with any foreign "isms," let's remember that, in spite of temporary troubles, we have the sweetest set-up on earth right here, according to all facts and figures.

Right now we have nearly 57 million people employed. Normally, with only 7 per cent of the world's population, we have 80 per cent of the automobiles, 50 per cent of all telephones, 60 per cent of all life insurance policies. Before the war we used 75 per cent of the world's silk. We had 1 radio for every 3 people, against 1 for every 90 in Russia.

And we still have more freedom and less harness on us than any other people on earth.

READING & WRITING

BY Edwin Seaver AND Robin McKown

"MY opinion has always been this. That you ought never to give up as long as you live, even though they have stolen everything from you. If nothing else, you can always call the air you breathe your own, or at any rate you can claim that you have it on loan."

The speaker of these lines is Bjartur, sheep raiser in contemporary Iceland, who is the central character in "Independent People," a novel by Halldor Laxness. "Independent People" is the August Book-of-the-Month Club selection.

Bjartur wants only one thing in life—more sheep. There is one thing he holds on to—his land, for which he is willing to slave to the end of his resources. When spring comes, and the supply of hay grows low, he kills the cow, whose milk means health and strength to his family, so that his sheep will not suffer. He is a poet, who knows by heart all the ancient sagas and ballads.

The story tells of Bjartur's two wives (both of whom he is willing to sacrifice for his sheep), the terrific hardships of his life, the bringing of his children into the world, and particularly among these children the girl Asta, the flower of his life. Bjartur prospers, like most of the Icelanders, from World War I, and suffers defeat in the depression that follows. At the end of the book he is where he was at the beginning—land-hungry once more, and once more prepared to begin all over again.

Halldor Laxness was born in 1902, at Reykjavik, and was brought up on his father's inland valley farm, surrounded by the mountains and heath and sheep which he describes in "Independent People." Like most Icelanders, he had a strong desire to travel across the oceans and see the world, an ambition he was able to indulge because his father had sufficient means.

He was two years in Canada, in Hollywood and San Francisco, and has spent several winter vacations on the Crimean Riviera. He also lived for brief intervals in Republican Spain and Nazi Germany. But during the entire war he remained in Iceland. His first big novel, "The Weaver of Cashmere," published in 1925, caused a storm in his home country comparable to that caused by "Elmer Gantry" in the United States. Today he is Iceland's outstanding younger novelist.
