

Unofficial Returns Show Truman As Winner With Safe Majority

Morton Tribune

"TEXAS' LAST FRONTIER"

MORTON, COCHRAN COUNTY, TEXAS, THURSDAY, NOV. 4, 1948.

NUMBER 36.

Voters Cast New Record Ballot

Johnson Held An Approximate 4 to 1 Preference Over Republican Porter

Cochran County voters added their weight in the November 2 election by casting a record ballot of approximately 1,000 five-box total.

Unofficial returns from four of the county's five boxes showed a total vote of 883 with Whiteface as the winner.

A definite trend was established in the early returns and the final total likely will be a percentage gain for all offices.

The vast majority of ballots were cast for the Democrats in straight ticket.

Neely Ward, with 157 voting, 138 for Truman, 6 for Dewey and 10 for Thurmond. Bledsoe, with 112 ballots, favored Truman 8, Dewey 10 and Thurmond 4.

Tabulations at noon Wednesday showed the voters in Morton favored Truman with 135 votes, Dewey, 20 for Thurmond and 1 for Wallace. A total of 672 votes were cast in Morton.

One voter, dissatisfied with the presidential candidates for both parties cast his write-in ballot for Ike Eisenhower.

Lyndon Johnson held an approximate 4 to 1 preference over the Republican candidate for the state race, Jack Porter.

All eight of the Amendments to the Texas Constitution were carried by a number eight, five close. Little doubt remains that the first seven Amendments will carry but late returns can only swing the decision for the eighth.

On the national scene, the Democrats were assured of victory for the Chief Executive when California voting showed a Democratic preference. Governor Dewey conceded defeat at 10:15 a. m. Wednesday when he sent a telegram congratulating President Truman.

Congress will also be controlled by Democrats during the next two years. The Republicans apparently are retaining 42 seats in the Senate while the Democrats will have 54. In the House Representatives there will probably be 246 Democrats, 188 Republicans and 1 representative of the American Labor Party.

President Truman's victory was one of the few up-sets in the history of the nation. National polls had given Dewey the victory weeks ago; newspapers all over the country, whether they were Republican or Democratic sympathies, were also of the opinion that Dewey would be the president. Political advisers of President Truman were fearful of defeat; only the President seemed certain of victory from the start.

Thurmond carried four states in a total of 38 electoral votes; Wallace received almost a million popular votes but no electoral tally. Truman received a probable total of 304 electoral votes and Dewey had less than labor voted strongly for the Democrats, largely in defiance of the Republican sponsored Taft-Hartley law. Republican members of Congress who favored the law by a large majority, were voted out of their seats. Thurmond's votes would all have gone to Truman as would the majority those received by Wallace.

Armistice Day Celebration Plans By Veteran's Organizations Announced

Armistice Day will be observed quietly in Morton next Thursday. Veteran's organizations are completing plans for the day's activities. Vernon are the other members of the committee.

Sheriff's Dept. Reports Damage Over Hallowe'en

Hallowe'en pranksters did comparatively little damage over the week-end, according to the Sheriff's department.

Numerous car owners reported flat tires and missing gas tank caps. The usual soaping of every window within reach and the turning over of everything small enough constituted the bulk of damage.

A few complaints of stolen cars were reported but the owners usually found their vehicle parked less than a block from where they left it.

A rocking chair adorned the porch roof of a house in the east part of town; a four wheel trailer was turned on its side just east of the square and many porches held a collection of tin cans, bottles and tree limbs.

No injuries due to fire works have been reported.

American Legion And Auxiliary To Meet Tonight

American Legion and Auxiliary will hold regular meeting Thursday (tonight) at Veterans Hall. All members are urged to attend as final plans will be made at this meeting for an Armistice Day observance and celebration.

The Auxiliary has been asked by the Parent-Teacher Association to take charge of the program on the ninth of November; plans for this program will also be completed, according to Mrs. Jim Gast, president of the Auxiliary.

Homer E. Thompson, Legion commander, has requested all Legion members to be on hand for this meeting.

Refreshments will be served by the Auxiliary to both organizations at the close of the business meetings.

Officers Arrested Two Mexicans Monday Night

Two Mexicans were arrested Monday night by members of the Sheriff's department. Charges of intoxication and fighting were filed and the men were placed in jail pending trial.

One of the suspect was lodged in the jail about an hour before the other. While officers were making the second arrest a fire broke out in the cell occupied by the first prisoner. The fire broke out in the lower bunk of the double decker in which the man was sleeping. Damage amounted to a burned mattress, blanket and comforter plus a thoroughly smoked jail cell.

Deputy Sheriff Herman Crockett and Sheriff Hancock extinguished the fire with a hydrant hose. The prisoner pled guilty to starting the blaze in Justice court Tuesday morning.

A negro in an adjoining cell loudly voiced his fear as smoke poured through the bars.

Formal Opening for Dorthea Weekes Beauty Salon To Be Held Sunday

Mrs. Roy Weekes, owner of Dorthea Weekes Beauty Salon, announced early this week the formal opening of Morton's newest business enterprise, on Sunday afternoon, November 7 from four until six o'clock.

"The general public is cordially invited to come in and see our new building and equipment," Mrs. Weekes said.

The 16x40 building is finished in white asbestos siding with green roof and outside shutter type venetian blinds. It is located two blocks south of the square on South Main Street.

The interior is divided into three rooms, with a private office on the south, a reception room in the center and large work room on the north. Adequate storage space for shop supplies has been provided in a large closet off the work room. The entire building is double insulated and an airconditioning unit installed. Light is supplied by fluorescent lamps at frequent intervals.

Walls are kemented in pastel green and wood work is yellow. Window drapes are of floral design in colors harmonizing with interior finish and are made of hand blocked, heavy textured material.

A half colonnade of modernistic design separates the reception room from the work room.

Floors are covered with rubberized tile in a rose marble design.

Two shampoo basins are of black porcelain. A specially designed beauty bar, with continu-

Miss Jackson explained the Junior Red Cross as a membership of youth within the schools.

Miss Jackson's outline of "What do its members gain from Junior Red Cross?" included: 1. A real sense of sharing the humane work of the community and the nation through activities carefully integrated with the school curriculum. 2. An increased appreciation of the value of learning through the satisfaction derived from applying what has been learned to service for others. 3. A growing sense of responsibility toward others through working in partnership with adults on community service projects. 4. A broadening horizon of understanding through participation in national and international activities. 5. A satisfying as well as an educational sound way to contribute to the establishment and maintenance of a just peace.

Miss Jackson also mentioned a few of the services rendered by the Red Cross to Veterans.

M. C. Ledbetter followed Miss Jackson on the program; explaining to the group plans for the organization of a Junior Red Cross in Cochran County schools.

W. C. Wright was appointed fund chairman for the Boy Scout Fund Drive scheduled here on November 8.

Hallowe'en Carnival Held Saturday At Veterans Hall Reported A Success

The Hallowe'en Carnival, sponsored jointly by American Legion and Auxiliary at Veterans Hall, Saturday night, attracted a large crowd.

Clowns, witches and goblins were numerous with many spoofs adding to the weird atmosphere. Probably one of the most popular concessions was the "Abbott and Costello" movie shown by Legionaire Carl England, running a close second was the "Three minute Photo" booth under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Harris of the Photoshop with Maurice Lewallen and Mr. and Mrs. Orlean Cook helping out.

Mrs. Albert Morrow's "museum of oddities" attracted a curious crowd.

24 Cases of Beer-Liquor Turned Over To Board

Two representatives of the Liquor Control Board of Lubbock picked up twenty four cases of beer and liquor from local law enforcement officers Friday night.

This was a part of a month's haul made by the Sheriff's department. Confiscated liquor is turned over to the Control Board and resold to dealers in wet territories.

Sheriff Hazel Hancock also announced that suspected A. W. O. L. soldier was picked up in Morton Monday morning. Authorities listed the man absent from his station at Camp Stone-man, California, since April 13. The suspect had been pulling cotton near Morton.

Legion and Auxiliary members at a meeting held after the carnival expressed their deep appreciation to all business firms, members and guests who helped to make the evening's entertainment a success.

Concluding the fashion show Miss Monroe, Miss Brisco, Miss Weed, Miss Blackley and Miss McMaster, all members of the high school choral club, were presented in a group of songs. They were accompanied at the piano by Miss Nelda Childs and Miss Janelle Jones. Miss Childs played the piano softly while the revue was in progress.

Hair styles for the models and pianist were created by Mrs. Maurine Rowden, Mrs. Polly Ausmus, Mrs. Dorothea Weekes, Mrs. Bertha Williams and Mrs. Bessie Curtis of the Modern and Curtis Beauty Shops respectively.

Joe Yates of the Yates Radio and Electrical Shop furnished the public address system used for the carnival.

Well—Hallow'een has come and gone once again, thank goodness! Not much of anything lost except air and tempers and there isn't much point in losing the latter as nobody else wants it anyway.

The carnival at Veterans Hall went off nicely and we managed to get through our part of it without coming completely unhinged. Most of that tho was due to our good fortune in having excellent cooperation.

James St. Clair, Jack Rice and Minnie Childs were perfectly grand in giving us the run of their stores for our selection of merchandise.

Mrs. Faulk and Mrs. Curtis of the Modern and Curtis Beauty Shops very generously donated the facilities of their shops and operators for the hair styling and make-up of the models. Dorothea Weekes and Bertha Williams, of Curtis Shop; Polly Ausmus and Maurine Rowden of the Modern, really did bang up jobs on the girls.

Not only that but Maurine and Polly came to the hall and assisted the models in getting dressed and in arranging their hair and application of make-up.

Maurine and Polly looked lovely when they walked in Saturday night with their handsome husbands. We were tempted to ask them to model in the show.

Mrs. W. B. Cox and Allene Flinn did a beautiful job of announcing and those high school girls who modeled, sang and in short put on the whole show were positively the loveliest girls it has ever been our privilege to work with. Each girl did her part to perfection and we thoroughly enjoyed the whole thing.

However there were a few minutes of apprehension after we invited the girls to luncheon. We wondered what in the world to feed them and tried to remember what we liked to eat when we were in high school—all we could remember was that we were always as hungry as a horse.

One other had moment when we stepped up to the stage (after dressing in two seconds flat) for our tour of modeling, only to find we had forgotten our shoes—however we quickly got into them and the show went on.

A big part of the success of the floor show was due to the beautiful piano playing by Neida Childs and Janelle Jones. Both are delightful girls, pretty as pictures and extremely cooperative.

Some time in our life we hope to have an opportunity to repay all the nice things that have been done for us by a very large number of people.

Help came from every quarter—on Saturday the spouse and Bill H. were hooking up the public address system, supplied by Joe Yates, which meant they had to use the car for numerous trips. Needing a car quite badly we yelled for Van and he had gone off some where so Joe Greene (Van's father) came to our rescue and sent us a car, which we appreciate no end.

But those girls—we just can't believe anyone can be so nice. Patsy Barton very considerably phoned us on Saturday morning that she couldn't be in the show but she was sending a model in her place—pretty blonde Nell! Brown took Patsy's place and did a wonderful job.

Doris McMaster in a darling two piece dress displayed tremendous poise and grace throughout the show, rehearsals and everything.

Sweet and pretty little Beverley Blackley was too too cute—and made a swift change from her first costume to the second one.

Betty Monroe looked striking in both the costumes she wore. Betty is a pretty blonde, Neida Brisco, a medium blonde, wore her two costumes with quite a flair and one of the flash pictures made of her turned out the best in the lot.

Estelline Weed, another blonde and quite pretty, was mighty fetching in her dress-up dress.

Mrs. R. K. Lindsey with her beautiful peaches and cream complexion, lovely grey hair and her charming relaxed manner did a lot toward calming the rest of us.

We are sure we would have fallen flat on our face as we stepped over the footlights from the stage if Homer Thompson hadn't been there to give us a hand.

The spouse not only rigged up the movies in the game room for his own personal contribution but arranged for the public address system and worked all afternoon with Bill Harris in adjusting the latter so that by the time the show was ready to go on the microphone and everything was in perfect working order.

Guess we are just about the luckiest person in the world when it comes to knowing people who can get the job done. We don't even have to yell very loud for help.

Saw Kirby Smart at the Morton-Tahoka football game Friday night. He and Jerry, the twin boys and a baby girl of about six weeks are now living in Tahoka. Kirby is associated with the Chevrolet people over there. We were glad to see Kirby looking so well and happy.

The Jack Nelson family have sold their home here and are moving to Lubbock. We seldom see Bea and the littlest girl but Jackie Bea is frequently with her daddy in town, at Lions Club and on various construction jobs.

Mrs. E. L. Cox has the most beautiful flowers. We passed there a few days ago and her chrysanthemums are out of this world. Mrs. C. has a lot of nice indoor plants too.

We have hit the jack-pot on letters lately, had such a nice one from Mary Davis, our colored friend over at Carlsbad. Every time we think of Mary we remember the delicious egg custard she used to make for us.

One from Ruth Caldwell, teacher at Seagraves, Ruth thanked us for a lovely evening (she was a recent visitor at Vagabond House) and asked if every one always had such a good time there.

Received a souvenir issue of "The Miami Herald" from Florida last week. It contained pictures of the American Legion and Auxiliary convention highlights and much interesting data. Suppose we have the Morrow's to thank for this thoughtful gesture.

"Goodness", gushed the missus, "everyone in town is talking about the Joe Doake's quarrel. Some of them are taking his part, but most of them are taking hers."

"But don't you suppose," replied her husband mildly, "that there are a few eccentric individuals who are minding their own business and taking neither?"

Cochran County Garden Club Meet Held October 26th

The Cochran County Garden Club met October 26 in the home of Mrs. R. E. Burlison. Ten members and the hostess were present.

Mrs. L. W. Ray explained the basic rules for Corsage making and presented lovely corsages made of garden flowers to each member.

Mrs. Alvin Wolfenberger gave a very interesting talk on "Bulbs for early bloom" with colored pictures of bulbs in bloom. Mrs. Wolfenberger stated that she got interested in bulbs while preparing her paper; with the result that she has ordered many bulbs to plant in her own garden.

The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Roy Hill, Nov. 9. Every member is urged to attend.

Research on Flour Made From Grains In Texas Resumed

Research on sorghum grains and flour made from grains produced in Texas' southplains area is being resumed by the foods and nutrition department at Texas Technological College.

Shallu, which produces a fine grain white flour, and Martin maize, producer of a coarser darker flour, are the two grains which will be tried in the new experiment. Standard recipes for hot breads, yeast breads and pastries will be used in the test. The experiments are designed specifically to determine allowable proportions of sorghum grain flour substitute for wheat flour to obtain equally satisfying products.

During the texture and taste experiments, a biological assay will be conducted on the grains to determine nutritive properties. Mrs. Johnnie Michie, professor of foods and nutrition, said. A colony of approximately 125 white rats are to be used in this part of the experiment.

"Revived interest in utilizing for human consumption an abundantly grown crop as sorghums in this area prompted extension of grain sorghum experiments done in 1942. During that year some work was done in use of flours from coarser maize in hot breads," Mrs. Michie said.

Since Shallu have been developed, indications are that, because of better milling properties of this grain, it will be possible to make finer textured and more acceptable products from the flour, and also that this flour will be more suitable for use in wider range for flour mixtures.

Highlights From Soil Conservation District Office

Fred W. Collins

Mr. W. S. Moss, a co-operator of the Cochran-Young-Terry Soil Conservation District, who owns two labors of land northeast of Morton, has started a complete terrace system on his farm. The county maintainers are constructing these terraces, which are to be of the large ridge type. The terraces base will average twenty-four feet in width and approximately sixteen inches in height. Gullies had begun to form on this land, which is an excellent sign that the top soil was being lost. By the construction of terraces the slope will be broken up, lessening the length of run down slope of any rain. By following the terrace as a guide line, with all farming operations, the rows will be more nearly on the contour, allowing more time for moisture to penetrate the soil; thus increasing the crop yield. Mr. Moss plans to seed the terrace channel and terrace burn to small grain as soon as moisture conditions permit to prevent wind erosion this fall and coming spring. The cost of constructing these terraces to the landowner will be nil, as there is a payment set up by the P. M. A., formerly A. A. A., that will cover the expense involved, provided the land owner or tenant gets prior approval at his P. M. A. office before actual construction is started.

Other co-operators who plan to build terraces this fall are as follows: C. P. Drennan, Joe Bennett, Bill Daniel and E. J. Doran. The cover crop of Hairy Vetch on E. D. Courtney's farm, northeast of Morton, is up to an excellent stand. We would like for the farmers to see and watch this cover crop of Hairy Vetch. The purpose of this crop is wind erosion control and addition of nitrogen and humus to the soil. Locations for irrigation wells were staked by the SCS personnel for the following co-operators this past week: Vernon Blackley, L. E. Huggins, M. A. Bennett, L. O. Hurley and Hume Russell. Applications have been received recently by the CYT Soil Conservation District at Morton from Vernon Blackley and J. M. Lane. New co-operators of the District who have worked out a soil and moisture conservation plan on their respective farms are: E. C. Nieman, J. T. Porter, Ken Coffman, Keith Kennedy, O. B. Huckabee, J. R. Chapman, G. D. Lewis, B. L. Rhoderick, C. P. Drennan and Willie McCulloch.

Bulletin Released On Mechanized Cotton Production

A summary of the best recommended practices in the mechanized production of cotton in Texas has just been released by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station.

Bulletin 704, by H. P. Smith, research agricultural engineer of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, and D. L. Jones, superintendent of the Lubbock Experiment Station, presents highlights of cotton production and shows how mechanization has been developed to meet these problems.

Early Texas farmers produced cotton with the hand hoe and the sweep stock. Riding mule-drawn planters and cultivators were not developed until the 1880's and 1890's.

Outstanding progress has been made in mechanization since the introduction of the row-crop tractor about 25 years ago. Tractor-mounted middlebreakers, planters and cultivators were developed about 1930. Though strippers and pickers were experimented with nearly 100 years ago, there was little progress in their use until attention was given to the effect of varietal characteristics on their performance.

This bulletin, "Mechanized Production of Cotton in Texas" lists each phase of Texas cotton production and discusses the various labor and time-saving machinery which has been developed to handle it. Fifty-five illustrations show these mechanized tools and their relationship to cotton production problems.

TRUE GREATNESS

"At the same time came the disciples unto Jesus, saying, who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?" Matt. 18:1.

Here we find that Jesus and the disciples were traveling through Capernaum. The disciples were discussing the question as to who would be the greatest in the kingdom of heaven but they were not able to agree on the real answer to the question. They came to Jesus and asked Him about the matter because they were deeply concerned. No doubt the subject of the Transfiguration gave rise to this question. Doubtless they were still looking for Jesus to establish an earthly kingdom, and they were wondering just who was going to fill the high offices. They had misunderstood the meaning of the kingdom of heaven and the meaning of true greatness.

True Greatness has a great significance if only we will get its meaning. Jesus gave an illustration concerning "True Greatness" when "He brought a little child and set him in the midst of them and said; Verily I say unto you, except ye be converted and become as a little child, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven." In this we find two great things taught; First, that we must be changed and Second, we must depend on some one else. Being so independent in this life is wrecking as many lives as any other one thing we have. If true greatness is ever attained we must depend upon the Lord for it. It is not and cannot be of our own accord. True Greatness is not attained like the greatness of man. Not of our own merits but of the merits of our Heavenly Father.

True Greatness consists of humility, bravery, loyalty to the Lord and his work and word, and willingness to do what the Lord wants done to his glory. Man cannot be truly great and be possessed with worldly ambition and self exaltation. He cannot be truly great and seek his own glory. Jesus said, "Whoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven." When men can realize their utter dependence on God as a little child depends on others then they are really and truly great. This statement is very striking. "He that is greatest among you shall be your servant." "Whoever shall exalt himself shall be abased; and he that humble himself shall be exalted." Hence we understand that "True Greatness" is found in humility and willingness to serve.

BOYCE HOUSE

'Gives You Texas'

The old Pecos River bridge, subject of poems, songs and Roy Bean yarns, is doomed. The work of demolition is underway or may even be completed.

A new bridge has been built and the old one has been unused for several years.

Cowboys, to avoid the long ride down into and up out of the canyon, used to ride their horses across the high bridge. A young and pretty woman, "Pecos Kate," rode across and when a suitor was too faint-hearted to follow, she rejected him—or so the song says.

Trains used to stop so that passengers could take in the view. Far below was a tiny trickle of silver—the Pecos river. On its bank were even smaller objects, hardly discernible—they were cows.

While the bridge was under construction, a scaffolding broke and seven men plunged to the boulders below. Judge Roy Bean rode over from Langtry to hold the inquest. The bodies were lying in a row. He instructed the jury to return a verdict that "these here seven men met their death by falling from the bridge." One juror spoke up, "But, Judge, one of them ain't dead."

"Well," said Old Roy, "he will die and I ain't gonna ride 14 miles on a soreback mule to hold another inquest. Officially and legally, he is dead."

The jury so found—and two days later, the seventh victim did pass away.

The old bridge is part of the story of the Southwest. Many old-timers will hate to hear that it is gone.

Seventy-One Pay 1949 Dues For American Legion

Seventy one members have paid their 1949 dues in the American Legion, according to Arthur Cook, Adjutant.

In comparison with the last two years this total is very good, Cook said. By November 21, 1948 only 35 members had paid their dues; 19 had paid dues by November 6, 1947.

Dues are delinquent after February 1, 1949 and the local post has a quota, or a three-year average, of 134 members. Dues may be paid to any member of the Membership Committee or to Arthur Cook in his office in the court house.

Texas Farm Bureau Federation To Stage Annual Convention Nov. 8-10

The annual convention of the Texas Farm Bureau Federation will be in The Plaza Hotel, San Antonio, November 8-10, according to Roy Lewis, president of the local organization. The first day of the convention will be devoted to resolutions and special conferences. Cochran County, with a membership of 239, will have 3 votes at the convention. There were 27,820 members of the Texas Farm Bureau in 1947 and the number has been steadily increasing this year. Farmers are learning that "Farmers must organize in self defense, against organized buyers and sellers and organized legislation."

The Bureau is leading the fight now to kill bills introduced to tax non-highway used gasoline at six cents per gallon, which costs the tractor operators 6 million dollars annually; to maintain a legislative director in Austin throughout the session of law makers; support legislation to increase the salary of teachers; supported efforts to tax natural resources, which was defeated; supported rural road legislation and helped organize a low-cost insurance concern for farmers. An announcement has been made to the effect that the county having the largest percentage of membership increase will be awarded a trophy. Cochran county had 25 members last year, and ranks second now with 239 members. Not very many additional members are needed to assure this county of the trophy.

Cochran County Farm Bureau officers are Roy Lewis, President; Ken Coffman, vice-president; E. V. Thompson, secretary-treasurer, and E. P. Farmer, Roy Hickman, David Weaver, G. C. Keith and Glenn Thompson, directors.

Weekly Cotton Market Review

(Texas and Oklahoma)

Trading in the southwestern markets continued heavy during the week. Prices declined $1.50 to $2.50 per bale. Sales decreased slightly from last week's heavy trading. Domestic and export inquiries were good. Generally good weather prevailed and harvesting made good progress in all sections. Labor demand for harvesting eased slightly in some sections of Texas. Plowing stalks and planting cover crop in north and central Texas made good progress and harvesting nears completion.

The Dallas price for Middling 15/16" on Thursday was 30.65 cents compared with 30.95 cents last week and 32.00 a year ago. The Houston and Galveston prices of 30.75 cents and 30.85 cents compared with 31.25 cents and 31.30 cents, respectively, last week. The basis remained firm in the Dallas market but widened slightly in the Houston and Galveston markets.

Reported sales in the Dallas market for the week ending Thursday amounted to 140,466 bales compared with 145,532 bales last week. Sales in the Houston-Galveston markets amounted to 32,809 bales compared with the reported sales of 43,014 bales last week and 38,595 bales for the corresponding week last year.

Demand for export and domestic shipments was good during the week. Qualities desired were Low Middling White through Strict Middling ranging in staple 13/16" through 1-1/32". Current ginnings are being offered at about loan prices and a good portion is entering trade channels.

Texas ginnings through October 17 averaged lower in grade but about the same in staple length than that ginned during the corresponding period last year. In Oklahoma cotton averaged considerably higher in grade and longer in staple length than that ginned at the same date last year.
