Truman Doss probably wasn't any too popular with his fishing companions last week when they discovered he'd forgotten the "grub box". It seems the boys asked Truman to gather up the vittles they'd need on their trip to Cowles—he did, but went off and left the box in his other car. That's what he gets for having more than one car.

Saw Vernon Blackley in town Friday with his youngest cherub, blonde 19 month old Susan. At the time we saw her she was sporting a dark moustache—result of a chocolate milk drink.

Not because he is ours—but the spouse put on a really good movie at the Guild out-door party the other night. We might add that he used a little more discretion in choosing pictures than he sometimes does when selecting film to show his boy friends.

Due to flood light problems he had quite a time finding a place to put the screen until Mr. Joe Yates came to the rescue with a long extension cord, connections n'everything.

Most of the time during the show we had a lap full of little boys; namely brunette Michael Todd and very blonde Hap Rogers Danforth. Both youngsters are darlings. After the Canadian Rodeo film, Hap said, "See cow-boys more."

The city has done a commendable job in improving the park. It has been used many times this summer for very delightful big gatherings; children's parties etcetera.

Walked around on a cloud for hours one day last week after Cleo Stringer told us, "Evelyn Gast said she saw a picture taken in nursing school and you were the most beautiful thing." Finally dawned on us that we had neither a picture made in nursing school, nor could we ever, even by the stretchiest imagination, have been called beautiful, concluded Evelyn had two other people in mind. We are fond of Evelyn and can easily forgive the error (it was wonderful while it lasted).

August issue of West Texas Publisher announced reelection of Maud Green, Kermit, as secretary-treasurer of the West Texas Press Association. MG gets out the Publisher and has done a splendid job of it—the gal is capable and with a years experience behind her will in all probability put out an even better one.

In this latest issue MG expressed this wish and much appreciated compliment. "Hope those Englands show up in person some day. They put out one of the nicest newspapers a subscriber ever dished out the cash for. It's well printed, chock-full of hometown news, has hand-made editorials, plus "annegrams"—and just about everything."

MG said some other very pleasant things about me but all of a sudden we seem to have become modest. Anyway "thanks" a million.

We were enchanted to find quotes from me included in Tom Davis "visiting with the area press" in a recent issue of Avalanche-Journal. Can't imagine why our wearing or not wearing gloves and flowers rated mention in "wet fall and cold winter is forecast by plains editors," but if Phi Beta Kappa Davis thinks it is all right—who are we to argue?

We have definitely made up our mind that PBKD rates one of our famous broiled steaks.

This column had been written and hung on the hook before we had an opportunity to read last week's exchanges. After reading what Mr. A. M. Jackson, Slatonite, had to say about his swell head following compliments in Avalanche-Journal felt as if we'd have to discard practically the same thing in ae or be accused of plagiarism.

If these personal columns, appearing in most all weekly papers, serve no other purpose they do give most of the editors a chance to form sort of a mutual admiration society.

Did you know that Wednesday, September 28 is MORTON day at Panhandle South Plains Fair? They'd like to have our school band over there that day as well as about 2000 just plain gawkers—how's about it? If the band plans to attend as such, Mr. A. B. Davis, manager, would like to know about it.

Band members will be given free admission tickets—just go by fair offices in City Hall upon arrival.

Wouldn't it be nice for Morton to have a good representation at the Panhandle South Plains Fair? Wish too that we might have Cochran County products on display over there.

Glenda Evans, pretty little brunette daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Evans, is president of Morton school band this year. She is also drum major. The band has added a majorette corp and they are too too cute in their white satin uniforms. The four new members are Glenda Lewallen, Joyce Daniel, Jaunice Cooper and Barbara Barton. Charlotte Lindsey and Nell Brown are the other two majorettes.

Will take time out to add compliments to the Lions for sponsoring the softball series this Thursday and Monday nights, in an effort to make some extra cash to help buy instruments for the school band. Be sure and attend the games.

You know there may be folks who would like to give a cash donation toward the band fund. We feel sure any Lion Club member will be delighted to accept any amount for this purpose.

The Morton band and pep squad made a wonderful showing at Littlefield Friday night.

Linda Carol Buck holding her little sister, Donna Leta Jarvis. They are daughters of Mrs. Douglas Jarvis and granddaughters of Mr. and Mrs. John Holloman.

Linda Carol celebrated her fifth birthday September 3 with a party at City Park. She is attending Little Folk School, conducted by Mrs. Joe Gipson.

Think everyone was mighty proud of the fine game our Indians played—at least we heard compliments on all sides and we were sitting in the Littlefield section.

Don't intend to harp on the subject but will mention once again that it will be necessary for club reporters to function IF club meetings occur in the Tribune. As most of you know we are only three in the Tribune office. The spouse and Bill Garrett take care of all the mechanical work while we handle the advertising, writing, news gathering, bookkeeping, office supplies, telephoning, letter writing and reading etcetera etcetera—We don't have to sweep out anymore as Verdie Pace comes in after school to do that.

Written down it doesn't sound as if it amounted to very much but all together it keeps us running in high. We want the club news and think that you want it in the paper—so please.

The Bureau of Engraving and Printing reports that our paper money is wearing out faster than government presses can replace it. So that's what happened—we thought we were just using it up faster.

Cochran-Hockley Baptist to Meet in Anton Sept. 27th

A state denominational budget of ten million dollars will be the main item of discussion when Baptists of this area meet Tuesday, September 27, for the annual conference of the Hockley-Cochran association. The First Baptist church, Anton, will be headquarters for the meeting.

Dr. A. C. Miller, secretary of ministry to minorities for the Baptist General Convention of Texas, will present the ten-million-dollar budget, which comes up for approval at the statewide Baptist convention in El Paso in November. For the first time, the state executive board will ask the convention to adopt a budget only half of which will go for state mission, the other half to worldwide causes.

Representatives from the fourteen churches in this association will report on the progress of their various organizations and will make plans for the coming year.

Dr. Miller will urge the individual churches represented to follow the convention example by designating fifty per cent of their own budgets for worldwide causes.

The Baptist churches in this association have a total membership of 5,117. MORTON VISITORS MONDAY Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Ausmus of Lubbock visited in Morton, Monday. The Ausmus formerly lived in Cochran County and still have farming interest here.

REEL NEWS

By Wallace Theatre

Plenty of action accents Warner Bros. Technicolor film, "The Younger Brothers", starring Bruce Bennett, Geraldine Brooks and Robert Hutton.

This action-filled tale of the old west is a unique combination of fact and fiction. The Younger brothers were determined to regain their lost ranch land which had been pillaged, and they wanted most of all to return to their homes.

The setting for "The Younger Brothers" is laid against that section of the old west, which included certain portions of Minnesota near the Missouri border. Law and order were in a constant state of clashing, and in the midst of this atmosphere moved the rugged Youngers.

Free Rat Killing Service Available To Local Farmers

Due to the request of many farmers, Cochran County has employed a temporary man to kill rats in Cochran County advises County Agent H. E. Thompson.

He is Voil Drennan, brother of Claude Drennan of Lehman community. Voil is here to serve you farmers at your request to kill your rats. All farmers interested in this service should apply at the county agent's office. All that is needed is name, address and location of farm. Voil's service is free to the farmers, but a small fee will be charged to farmers for the actual cost of poison used to kill the rats on each farm.

"For effective control rats should be killed on a community basis as rats do drift," said the county agent. "This is a county wide campaign and to get best results the rats should be killed before the weather gets too cold. The cyanogas when used is not too effective when temperature drops below 65 degrees," said Thompson. Other poisons are to be used depending on the circumstances. The farmer will want this done, if possible before the grain sorghum crop is harvested and stored on the farms.

Farmers are asked to cooperate in helping each other while working with Voil, by communities.

Specialist Cites Importance of an Efficient Kitchen

The kitchen is the main work center of the house. The efficiency of the entire household depends to a large extent upon how well the kitchen is planned and arranged, says Mrs. Bernice Claytor, extension specialist in home management of Texas A. and M. College.

There is no one model or ideal kitchen plan, she adds. Any kitchen, to be convenient, should be planned according to the needs of the family who will use it. Those needs vary with the size and ages of the members of the family, the principle industry of the farm or ranch and the kinds and amount of work done in the kitchen. Consideration must also be given to the amount of entertaining that is done, the standards for preparing and serving meals, the amount of food purchased ready-prepared, the amount of outside help used and the utilities available.

Essential kitchen equipment, says Mrs. Claytor, includes a range, water supply—and this is usually combined with a sink and drainage facilities—work tables or work surfaces at comfortable heights for the worker, provision for refrigeration and adequate storage space for everything used in the kitchen. The storage space, continues Mrs. Claytor, should be located as near as possible to the place where these articles will be used. Kitchen equipment is available in various prices, variety of sizes, quantities and finishes.

For A Service Club In Public Service

The Morton Lions Club has just embarked on a project, for which we offer our whole-hearted congratulations and our unstinted support.

The Lions Club has undertaken to help the school band secure more musical instruments.

Miracles do not happen. They are made. Mortonites realized this Friday night when they saw the high school's band perform at the football game in Littlefield.

The miracle was there in the form of a smooth-playing, neatly uniformed organization. A year ago the band was hardly more than name only. Under the capable direction of Mr. Fred Danforth the band has progressed to its present status—but more instruments are needed.

The Lions are attempting, by sponsoring a series of softball games here Thursday and Monday nights to raise enough money to provide some of the needed instruments. It is up to each of us to support this effort.

A number of students have signified their desire to play in the band—let's get in there and help the Lions put the softball series over; at the same time help the school, the students and the band.

With the town behind the project Morton may soon have a band which will be the equal of any on the plains. It's an ambitious project and will require the cooperation of every citizen.

Congratulations again to the local Lions for living up, in the true sense of the word, to their motto of "Service".

Careful Planning On Grain Storage Structures Urged

The new bulletin, C-266, Grain Storage for Texas, is new and chock full of helpful ideas on grain storage structures for Texas. The publication was prepared by W. S. Allen, extension agricultural engineer, buildings of Texas A. and M. College.

On-the-farm grain storage is due to be a very important part of every Texas grain producer's farming operations for a long time and Allen says storage structures should be built with this fact in mind. Build them to last. The cheapest structure you can build is the one that will still be usable and safe ten or fifteen years from now, he adds.

Here are a few things you should remember, Allen says. Low moisture content is necessary for prolonged, safe storage of grain. Construct a strong, durable building. Eliminate entrance points for moisture and insects. Provide for fumigation, if necessary. Rat proof your grain structure, locate it for convenience on a firm, dry site and don't forget to plan an easy way to get the grain in and out of it.

If you need grain storage on your farm, Allen suggests that you visit your local county agricultural agent—talk over the situation with him—and get a copy of the new bulletin. You can probably find the answers to a lot of the questions that you'd like to know in C-266, Grain Storage for Texas.

WHY THE MISSOURI PACIFIC RAILROAD STRIKE?

Over twenty years ago, the Congress of the United States passed the Railway Labor Act. It was hailed by union leaders as a model for the settlement of labor disputes.

President Truman's Board Condemns Strike

There is an established legal method for handling disputes involving existing written contracts—just as there is such a method of settling any contract dispute which you may have in your daily life. The President of the United States appointed a Fact Finding Board to investigate and adjust the Missouri Pacific dispute. This Board reported, in part, as follows:

" . . . it is with a deep sense of regret that we are obliged to report the failure of our mission. It seems inconceivable to us that a coercive strike should occur on one of the nation's major transportation systems, with all of the losses and hardships that would follow, in view of the fact that the Railway Labor Act provides an orderly, efficient and complete remedy for the fair and just settlement of the matters in dispute. Grievances of the character here under discussion are so numerous and of such frequent occurrence on all railroads that the general adoption of the policy pursued by the organizations in this case would soon result in the complete nullification of the Railway Labor Act. . . ."

Obviously the railroads cannot be run efficiently or economically if the leaders of the unions ignore agreements or laws.

Provisions of the Law which are Disregarded

There are five ways under the Railway Labor Act to settle disputes over the meaning of contracts:

- 1—Decision by National Railroad Adjustment Board.
- 2—Decision by System Adjustment Board for the specific railroad.
- 3—Decision by arbitration.
- 4—Decision by neutral referee.
- 5—Decision by courts.

The Missouri Pacific Railroad has been and is entirely willing to have these disputes settled in accordance with the requirements of the Railway Labor Act. Regardless of this fact, the union leaders have shut down that railroad.

Innocent Bystanders Suffer Losses and Hardships

There are about 5,000 engineers, firemen, conductors and trainmen on the Missouri Pacific. They are known as "operating" employees, and are the most highly paid of all employees on the nation's railroads, but their strike action has resulted in the loss of work to 22,500 other employees of the Missouri Pacific. In addition, they have imposed great inconvenience and hardship upon the public and the communities served by that railroad.

The Railway Labor Act was designed to protect the public against just such interruptions of commerce.

If these men will not comply with the provisions of the law for the settlement of such disputes, then all thinking Americans must face the question, "What is the next step?"

Sheriff Herman D. Crockett's Statement to the Public

We feel like this is some information to which you are entitled. We want you to know that the sheriff's office will give its fullest cooperation and ask for your cooperation also. You need this department we need your service every minute of the day or night.

Would like for each of you to acquaint yourselves with the telephone number and the name of the deputy nearest you, at least you know his number so there will not be a delay in your service.

In a fire department, fire prevention is as important as knowing how to extinguish a fire. If a man finds a hazard and has corrected he has stopped the cause of property and life. And if you don't follow the fire truck call as that is dangerous to life. Also the ambulance as you should know you are subject to a fine.

These same principles apply to information. If you know of something happening on your street in your community that might cause a life or does injury, let us know.

Want to pass on some facts to prevent crime which might save property or even life if you are someone near and dear to you.

A hot check passer is often caught. The best prevention for art is just don't take checks from strangers. I say strangers use people that make their name that way are always gingers and clever ones at that. The worst of all crimes is auto accidents. No one in this county would take a pistol and go out and shoot an old person or a child but if you are intoxicated driving too fast and someone is killed, the accident amounts to the same thing. Traffic accidents are caused mainly by these four things, drunken driving, too great a speed, driving on the wrong side of the road, failure to give the right of way.

If you are involved in an accident here are some of the things you must do. First get in touch with your highway patrol have someone else do it for you. Second, take care of the injured or see that they get medical attention. Third don't move the car until it is investigated by someone if possible or some police officer according to law. An accident must be investigated and a report filed with the department of public safety within 48 hours if the damage is over $100.

If you happen upon an accident I know you want to help do every thing you can to but lets be careful for accidents to doctors there are more people killed by moving them in an accident by putting them in a car and rushing them to a hospital, than in the accident. It takes a little more time to get ambulance but sometimes it is so I would wait until an ambulance arrives or someone who knows how to handle it. For if someone has a broken neck just one move the wrong way will kill the injured.

Remember this. If you are at the scene of an accident and someone is seriously injured, a quart of blood will cost an adult his life and a pint will likely kill a child. A severed artery squirts blood and a tourniquet should be applied.

If you don't know how you can press the artery with your fingertips and stop the blood flow until medical aid arrives.

At the department of public safety each month a form is filled out on every county in the state showing how many accidents have occurred, it would look nice for this county if we could keep our accident and death rate at the bottom of the list, not to mention the headache it would save.

Traffic deaths last year 2059, so far this year 991. Cochran county last year 2, so far this year none. So each and every one help keep it that way. Ex sheriff Faiby of El Paso has a safety parade once each year. Last year he dressed a number of children as skeletons. One was a boy nine years of age carrying a sign which read I might have been a doctor, a minister, or even a president, but I was killed by a drunken driver. Another showed a little girl with a sign which read I was an only child and my parents loved me very much but I was killed at the age of five by a man who was driving so fast in the city limits that he could not stop.

Now school started Monday, September 5 and we are going to have many and many a child crossing the street so lets be careful and don't kill one of these children. These things are not nice to think about but if they can prevent an accident and save a life they are worth keeping on your mind. A car is like a gun, if it isn't handled with every precaution someone will get hurt or killed.

If anyone in the county has an idea about safety that will help prevent a crime of any kind I invite you to come to the office and talk it over with me. If practical we will put your plan into use.

I also want to pass our appreciation to T. A. Rowland and Wayne Walthall, the two highway patrol which we have stationed here. They have four counties to work in their district, Cochran, Ballew, Yokum, and Hockley and are doing a wonderful job. They are here to help each and every one of us.

This office wants to know every person in the county young or old. We want you to know we are your friends and want you to think of us as such. We are for what is right and against what is wrong and with your cooperation we can just about do what's right.

Yours,
Sheriff, Tax Assessor, and Collector, Herman D. Crockett. (pd. adv.)

Riding Circle Around Whitefaces

by Art. N. Wall

This column this week is on our Girlstown, U. S. A.

Girlstown needs help. In two conversations with Miss Anthony this fact stands out very clear. Girlstown needs both skilled and unskilled labor.

A thirty-two room building of cement tile is under construction. When this building is completed it will house sixty-four girls. Here it is folks—until this building is completed, girls who are in need of homes from right around your West Texas country are going to be turned away.

Girlstown has become our responsibility. We might as well acquaint ourselves with all the facts concerning it. We may shrug our shoulders and tell ourselves, "Well, Girlstown will have plenty of financial help. No need of me worrying about it." When you think this way imagine yourself supporting a family of five hundred children. Sending them to school, clothing them and feeding them. It would be rather a large task wouldn't it? You know, before shouldering the job of caring for five hundred children you would have to provide living quarters for them, wouldn't you?

Miss Amelia Anthony who has charge of Girlstown must provide living quarters. She can always use financial help of course. Right now though it is not so much financial help, what Girlstown needs is free labor. Girlstown has become your job and my job.

Miss Anthony hopes that in time five hundred girls will be living at Girlstown. The first living quarters for this number of girls is this thirty-two room dormitory. As time goes on other dormitories will be built. Boys Ranch at Amarillo and Boys Ranch in Nebraska was built in such a manner. Boys Ranch in Amarillo was built by the people of Amarillo. As in every project a few men in Amarillo "spark-plugged" or pushed it, but in the long run the people of Amarillo worked behind and eventually built Boys Ranch. In our Girlstown we have the same thing. It will take all of us to make Girlstown a success.

We all know that Girlstown has been given money. The $20,000 from Mr. T. B. Duggan, the $1,000 from the Whiteface, August 4th celebration and maybe there has been a few other donations. We people may ask ourselves what of this money—how about it, couldn't it be used to pay for labor? I feel sure that any business man will say that these funds are just a drop in the bucket as to what Girlstown is trying to build to. This amount can be drained very easy in the construction of buildings, plumbing, clothing, food, necessary furniture, gasoline, car repairs, medical care, school supplies, you can name many other necessary expenditures. There is your answer—all free labor donated to Girlstown will cut down on the withdrawal of the above funds. The work you donate will allow this money to be used more directly for the care of the girls. Now—this is why Girlstown has become your problem and my problem. It needs you, it needs me. Its success depends on you and me.

Girlstown was dumped in our lap. The lap of us West Texas people is big enough to take care of it. A union in Lubbock donated some labor—two days of it. Continental Oil Company has some employees who are going to work on their days off in the building of Girlstown. A pumper for the Atlantic Oil Company was digging ditch at Girlstown on Saturday the 17th, he was Mr. Powell. Mr. Bascomb carried some needed material to Girlstown. He is farmboss for Continental Oil. The Stanolind Oil and Gas Company Bargaining Agency will work out a plan to donate some free labor. Already Stanolind men have worked at Girlstown and will continue to do so. Miss Anthony says, "We will serve free a hot lunch to all help." Too, Miss Anthony said, "When coming to Girlstown to work, report to me or Mr. "Andy" Anderson. Mr. Anderson is construction engineer on the first new dormitory. In this manner," said Miss Anthony, "One will not have to stand around wondering where to start."

It seems that in a large project of this kind and such a worthwhile project, that neighbors, and men working together could form Girlstown labor gangs. For example the men of the Stanolind Oil and Gas Co. could form gangs of five men each and give so many hours of free labor to Girlstown every once in a while. Other oil company employees could do the same. Miss Anthony stated she would rather have small groups of men work at Girlstown all along then have large groups of men swoop into Girlstown then leave probably never returning again—feeling that they have done their duty.

We must learn that Girlstown is yours and mine. I have a close friend and when I asked him the other night where he had been his reply was, "Took some tomatoes up to Girlstown." He said it just as though he had taken some tomatoes down cellar. He had accepted Girlstown as part of his responsibility. It is nothing to hear over the Amarillo radio, "Thank you Mrs. Jones (or ever what the name might be) for the jars of preserves you sent of Boys Ranch." The people of Amarillo found out that it was small donations such as preserves that has made Boys Ranch a success. It all worked into one thing—they worked together.

Mrs. Bill Markham Honored Sept. 13 With Stork Shower

The attractive Henry Bedwell home was the scene of a beautifully appointed "stork" shower honoring Mrs. Bill Markham, Tuesday afternoon, September 13.

A pastel color scheme was carried out in decorations and refreshments. Mrs. Bedwell was assisted in hostess duties by Mrs. W. E. Childs, Mrs. C. A. Moore, Mrs. J. B. Knox, Mrs. C. L. Taylor, Mrs. E. L. Willis, Mrs. Joe Gipson and Mrs. P. B. Ramby.

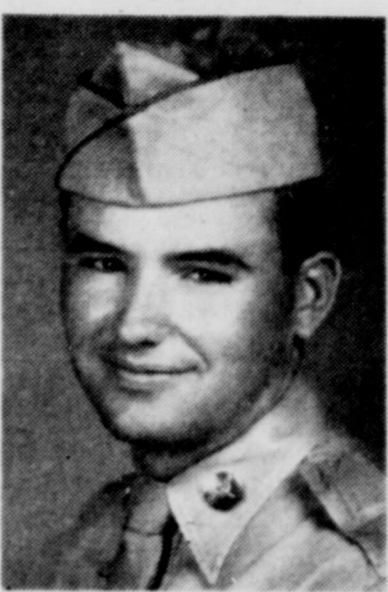

Approximately fifty guests called and gifts were received from many unable to attend.

Miss Anthony is a regular person. You can not help but like her. She has a terrific task. We neighbors who live around Girlstown have got to relieve Miss Anthony of some of her worries. Miss Anthony has now at the present time, nine girls. She has had to turn some away already. Why—she had no room for anymore. The first dormitory is hardly started.

One job is this—a water well needs to be drilled. They figure it will have to be drilled to three hundred and fifty feet. They want a fourteen inch hole. The need of this water well is very urgent. As Girlstown grows other water wells will have to be drilled.

The same as our church or school, Girlstown should be next on the "musts." It needs your help, a girl somewhere needs Girlstown's help. Let us not have Miss Anthony turn any more girls away.
