Morton Indians Ready for Sudan Hornets at Local Stadium Friday

Sudan Hornets with two conference wins to their credit this season have their stingers out for the Morton Indians when they meet them here Friday night but the Indians will attempt to stem the old jinx and scalp the Hornets.

Sudan defeated Muleshoe by a score of 15 to 0 and Levelland 26 to 7. Both Muleshoe and Levelland have strong teams this year. Sudan is tied with Littlefield so far in the north half of District A, with two conference victories each.

In 1947 Sudan defeated the Morton Indians by the top-heavy score of 22 to 0 at Morton. In 1948 the Indians played an injured game against Sudan after the death of Sudan's leading citizens and promised a new stadium if they scored on Sudan. The game ended Sudan 19, Morton 13.

A new stadium has not been built as promised, after the Indians scored two touchdowns against Sudan, despite this it has recently been published in several area newspapers that the stadium was built as promised.

The Indians have a stadium built as residents of Morton know as stadium was built by local businessmen who took time out from their own businesses to go out with hammer and nails and by the sweat of their brow, blisters on their hands and good hard work grease construct the stands with materials contributed by local lumber yards.

Morton fans and boosters are behind the Indians 100 percent, win or lose. The grit and courage and the good, clean sportsmanship shown by the Indians, when playing against overwhelming odds has won for them the admiration of everyone who has seen them play.

The Sudan Hornets are heavier several pounds per man than the Indians, their starting line-up averaging approximately 165 pounds against Morton's average of approximately 150 pounds. The weight comparison by starting line-ups is:

Morton High Band Performed E. N. M. U. Celebration

The Morton High School Band attended the Eastern New Mexico University's Homecoming at Portales, New Mexico, last Saturday, where 11 bands performed.

Thirty-five local band members left Morton at 9:20. The parade, in which they performed, was forming when they arrived at Portales. At noon all bands were guests of the ENMU Band fraternity for lunch in the college dining hall. Two main attractions of the day took place at 3:30 when the Homecoming Queen, who was chosen from five candidates, was crowned and the Homecoming ball game between Adams State College from Colorado and the Greyhounds, was begun. While the queen was being crowned the Portales High school and ENMU bands performed on the football field. At the half all visiting bands performed, individually, for the Homecoming spectators.

The Morton Band left Portales at 7:15 and arrived home at 8:45. All members of the band reported a very nice time and all especially enjoyed the ball game which was a 13-13 tie.

The Gold Star Award is an annual county award and only one boy can be selected for this award each year. Another requirement for the contest is all past winners of this award are not eligible to compete again. In other words you can only be a Gold Star Boy once.

The county agent's office has a record of a few of the past winners of this award. They are: Robert Ed Keith, Gold Star Boy in 1946; James Dewbre, Gold Star Boy in 1947 and Norman Millsap, Gold Star Boy in 1948.

County Agent Homer E. Thompson is proud to see Kenneth win this Gold Star Award. It is a high honor because it demonstrates continuous 4-H Club work on the part of the winner.

Other awards won by Cochran County 4-H Club boys are the Achievement Award and Meat Animal Award. The winner of the Achievement Award is Leroy Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Wilson, Morton, and the winner of the Meat Animal Award is Clarence Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Moore, Morton. All the winners will receive gold medals next month at the Achievement Day Program.

Also at this program Hershall Tanner will be awarded the Danforth Award for outstanding club work and leadership. This award is a copy of the book "I Dare You."

Morton Members of Concert Assn. Look Forward to First Production

Morton members of the Levelland Concert Association may well look forward to a treat when the Theatre Guild sponsored, "Hasty Heart" is presented under the auspices of the association on November 10 at the newly completed Levelland High School Auditorium.

"It's a top flight job of casting. The people on the stage behave like people and not like actors, the way to twang the old heart strings, Zing!"

Such was the verdict given by the Minneapolis Tribune on the opening of "Hasty Heart."

"Good augury for the success of the first flight of the newly organized Theatre-On-Tour was the evidence presented Sept. 30 in the performance of "the Hasty Heart"—a good play, a first rate cast, excellent direction and an all-round polished production." So wrote John K. Sherman in the Minneapolis Star.

Continuing—"These are rosy adjectives, but deserved. It was obvious from the time the curtain went up that the performance had back of it all the care and conscientiousness and skill and technical precision that New York professionalism could supply.

"All you had to do was sit back, in perfect confidence, and watch and enjoy John Patrick's comic-pathetic story unroll itself.

"And the towns that will see this play (on the tour) and the people in it, let me assure them, are going to buy a quality article. Nine young players—eight men and a girl—provide not only a model of fresh natural acting in a tight-knit ensemble, but a practically perfect example of good casting.

"Martin Manulis' deft direction keeps the dramatic and comic values in spontaneous interplay. The story of the anti-social young Scotsman, doomed to die as the result of a war injury and operation, gradually being thawed out and made into a human being by his ward-mates in an army hospital, is movingly enacted.

"The laughs are there, but not overplayed; the pathos is there, too, but not rubbed in. These

Morton Voters to Decide Purchase Of Morton Gas Company at Election

The following statement was released this week from City Officials, regarding the proposed election to be held here November 5.

Bond Election called for issuance of $225,000.00 Gas System Revenue Bond issue, of which $200,000.00 will be sold for purchase of entire system. Remaining $25,000.00 to be held by city and not sold unless needed later for extension and enlargement of system.

These bonds will be secured only by the net revenues of the system and no tax can be levied for retirement of the issue. Therefore, this bond issue cannot now, or in the future, affect the tax rate or valuation of property for tax purposes. No other funds of the city can be used to pay any bond of this issue except the net revenues of the gas system.

A commitment for the purchase of this issue has been received by the city from Moss, Moore and Company, Dallas, Texas, and The First of Texas Corporation, San Antonio, Texas. The commitment for the purchase of these bonds was received by the city from these securities companies after a complete engineering survey and valuation report made at the cost of the companies. The survey and valuation report has been made by the firm of Parkhill, Smith and Cooper, Consulting Engineers, Lubbock, Texas. A copy of this report is on file at the City Hall for public inspection. This report shows a gross income of the Morton Gas Company for the past year of $41,441.14 with operating expense of $18,720.00, leaving a net income of $22,721.14. Under ownership of the city the operating expense would be considerably less by using employees of the water system, thereby saving labor costs. Also, all ad valorem, gross receipts, and corporate taxes would be eliminated. The schedule of retirement of the bonds has been set up by the bond buyers and included in the engineering report. This schedule, under which the bonds would be issued, shows the payment of the entire issue over a period of thirty years at 4 1/2 per cent interest. The annual payments vary from $12,540.00 to $14,950.00 including principal and interest. The city will receive the benefit of the difference between these payments and the net revenue annually which now shows to be $22,721.00. This difference will naturally benefit the consumers while at the same time owning and paying out the system.

The engineering report shows the value of the gas system to be the sum of $207,000.00. This is an opportunity for the people of Morton to own and operate their own gas company without any obligation on the taxpayers. It is just a good, sound business proposition with nothing to lose and everything to gain.

Planes Helping Farmers Push Cotton To Maturity by Using Chemicals

Farmers have called upon the airplane to help them bring this year's cotton crop to maturity in the Morton-Cochran County area. Plentiful rainfall has produced rapid growth of stalk and leaves and much of the plants' strength has been taken from the boll. The answer is defoliation, which is being done with chemical dusts and sprays.

In addition to hastening the crop to maturity defoliation aids in the task of picking. Stripped down to stalk, stem and boll, it is easy to reach the cotton.

Cotton Defoliation Demonstration Friday, October 14, a cotton de-foliation demonstration was held on Thomas Lynch's farm four miles southeast of Morton on Highway 290. Fifteen acres were sprayed by airplane with "Shed-A-Leaf", a new defoliant. This defoliant is a spray and not a dust. About twenty farmers visited the demonstration during application. All farmers that pass along the highway, if interested may observe the results of this demonstration advises County Agent Homer E. Thompson.

Pilots Earl Crum and Gayle Bishop, managers of the squadron of small planes equipped for dusting said, "We are busy from sunup to sundown right now. More farmers are turning to this method of getting the job done quickly."

The fliers average covering 100 acres per hour of flying time. Using liquid "shed-a-leaf", they spread about eight gallons per acre. About 35 pounds of "aerocyanamid" per acre are required in the dust process.

With either type of chemical it takes from five to 10 days for the leaves to fall from the plants. One application is all that is required in the majority of cases.

Riding Circle Around Whitefaces

by Art. N. Wall

Mrs. Claude Bowden, postmistress at Whiteface, informed this column that she had ordered forty-eight more mail boxes. These boxes, the single dial type, will be installed in our postoffice. Already, all but fifteen of these boxes are rented as of October 10th. This is a sure sign Whiteface is growing. Mrs. Bowden also spoke of the proposed mail route that the people of this community are hoping they will obtain. The route will run south and west of Whiteface. The course of this route has already been worked out. We can thank Mrs. "Pick" Flowers for being very instrumental in doing this. Now the route has to be mapped and Mr. Nathan Tubbs is working on this. On completion of the mapping the map showing the route, along with the petition of the names of the people living along the route, will be sent into the postal authorities. This petition has already been obtained. Mrs. Bowden wishes very much that all the people interested in this route would write to Mr. George Mahon, your representative from this district. It is the hope of Mrs. Bowden that this will be a rural route and not a star route. Mrs. Bowden also stated that the grading of the roads along this proposed route should be done soon before the inspection of this route is done by any member of the postal service.

Mrs. Sam Rankin, teacher of one of our third grades in the Whiteface schools, was called to Wellington, Kansas due to the death of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Rankin left for Wellington on October 10th.

On the night of October 14th a man named Nickels shot and wounded his wife in the chest. The shooting occurred on the James farm which is located about eight miles south of Whiteface. It is understood the Nickels couple were employed by Mr. James. At the time of the shooting Mr. and Mrs. James were not at home. The first inkling of the shooting was when a son of the Nickels, whom was probably about nine years old, came running into the Stanolind Mallet "G" camp which is about one half mile from the James' place, and reported that his father had shot his mother. Deputies Hugh Knox and Son McKay of Whiteface were phoned also the sheriff of Hockley County. Mr. Nickels was apprehended without incident. Mrs. Nickels was rushed to a Levelland hospital. It was understood Mr. Nickels had been drinking. Mrs. Nickels stated there had been no argument. Mrs. Nickels conditions is considered very serious.

One thing by Morton boarding a football train in Whiteface, is Lions Entertained At Noon Luncheon By School Chorus

Twenty five members of the Morton Lions Club heard the High School Chorus in a group of songs at the regular meeting, Wednesday noon, October 12. Fred Danforth and Truman Doss were in charge of the program.

that by the cars and school buses that are setting at the Whiteface railroad station, they advertise that Morton backs her team. This was good advertisement for Morton. As good as any booster trip. The question all day was, "Why all the cars and buses at the station?" The answer, "Morton is with her football players."

An invitation has gone out to Mr. A. W. Peake, president of Standard of Indiana, desiring his presence at the retirement party that will be given to Mr. L. L. Bechtel, superintendent of Stanolind Oil and Gas Company of Slaughter Area. This party is for the night of the 21st and will be held at Brownfield at the American Legion Hall.

What can we people do to needle our P. T. A. here and get a larger attendance? I have found out that elsewhere and before P. T. A. meeting cards are mailed out with the letters P. T. A. printed on them. These letters are printed in large type. Little theatre plays are put on by local talent. Through admission charges to these plays money is raised. Bake sales were held the night of the play and popcorn and candy are sold. The plays may not be acted out to perfection but local talent will always draw a crowd as everyone is interested in seeing their neighbor act the villain or hero. This column suggests these plays be put on and Mrs. Clemmons direct them. (What do you say, Mrs. Flowers?)

Here is one for Morton. The mens rest rooms in the basement of the court house cost quite a bit to rebuild. As they are now they are nice and clean. The way these rest rooms are being disfigured is a shame. It is said a county is judged by the clean rest rooms in the court house. How about three days in jail and fifty dollar fine for disfiguring the rest rooms?

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lindsey to Observe Golden Wedding Anniversary Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lindsey, who were married fifty years ago, are celebrating their golden anniversary with "open-house" at their home here, Sunday, October 23. Old and new friends of the couple are invited to call.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey were married October 25, 1899, she was Miss Alice White. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Sam Robinson, who was at that time pastor of the Methodist Church at Indian Mountain, Texas. The young couple drove about 25 miles by buggy to the pastor's home near Carbon, Texas.

Attendants for the wedding were Miss Foster Lindsey, sister of the bridegroom, now Mrs. J. M. Lawson of Cupertino, California; Miss Willie Noell, Bob Sutton and John Lindsey, brother of the groom; who was single at the time but has since married and now lives with Mrs. Lindsey at Stamford, they will be here as will Mrs. Lawson for the celebration, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey farmed near Carbon for several years. In 1907 they bought a farm and home at Okra, Texas, where seven of their ten children were born. This place was sold in 1923 and the family moved to Lubbock County. They moved to Cochran County in 1933. Mr. Lindsey was engaged in farming until 1940; at which time poor health forced his retirement. They moved to Morton and Mr.

Lindsey continued to work at intervals until he was no longer able to do so.

Mrs. Lindsey is a member of the Eastern Star. Mr. Lindsey is a deacon in the First Baptist Church where both have been active church workers for many years.

From a family of ten children three of the Lindsey sons have died. One son, M. Sgt. F. G. (Bill) Lindsey is stationed with the army in Burtonwood, England, and will be unable to attend his parents anniversary party. The other children, their spouses and their children are expected to be here. They are: Cecil Lindsey, who has four children and lives here; Mrs. Myrtle Feazell and two children, Lubbock; Mrs. Virgil Humphreys and two children, Levelland; Mrs. Emmett Jones and four children, Clovis, New Mexico; Mrs. Amel Glaser, San Francisco, California; Mrs. Vincent Viaille and two children, Levelland. There are six other grandchildren, children of two of the deceased sons and three great grandchildren.

SPEEDY SLATON TIGERS STOP INDIANS 12 TO 0

The Slaton Tigers scored in every way possible Friday night as they defeated the Morton Indians 12 to 0. The Tigers started the scoring in the first period on a pass play that carried for 30 yards and a touchdown. The point was added from placement. This ended the scoring for the first half as neither team made another serious threat.

Late in the third quarter a Morton back was trapped behind the goal line for a safety. In the fading moments of the game Slaton made successful a field goal attempt to run their score to 12.

MORTON HIGH SCHOOL BAND GIVEN CHECK FOR $50.00

The Morton High School band received a check for $50.00 from E. L. Banks Co., when they performed at the recent International Harvester show.

"All members were surprised and certainly happy over this gift," stated Glenda Evans, band president.

Grade School Highlights

By Jim Grantham

Mrs. Gray's pupils were all pleased with their pictures and are having fun exchanging them. Her grade has started a new Rhythm Band. The first graders have also started making their Halloween posters.

Mrs. Beard's pupils are still working hard. They have a new room mother. She is Mrs. H. L. Moses.

Shirla Thomas is back after a long illness. The three Spanish speaking children, Rudy, Frank, and Frances are learning by pictures and signs. Columbu's sailing ships have been the hand work for the three first grades.

Diane Robertson was absent due to illness.

Mrs. Neal Rose is to take Mrs. Waddell's place after this week. James Coy Gibbons and Sara Ann Gibbons are new pupils in the fourth grade. They came from Gould, Oklahoma.

Ann Sanders, Jackie Outlaw, Patricia Key and Davy Mitchell from 5-1 are riding the special train to Slaton Friday. The class is painting the book case they made from pear boxes.

Mrs. Love's fifth grade geography class has completed a study of Philadelphia. They constructed scenes from that city on a table. The children made a sugar refinery, and oil refinery, a textile mill, the city hall with William Penn's statue upon it, Bryn Mawr College for girls, the University of Pennsylvania, and a bridge over the Delaware River leading from Philadelphia to Camden, New Jersey.

7-2 sent flowers to Steve Brack-en who broke his ankle in a football game Tuesday. This class also won the clean room contest.

Mrs. Gowdy reported that they had the bulbs to plant in the flower beds around the Junior High building.

Fourth grade news: In section L. Mrs. Brunson's reading class had made a colonial scene. It contains a covered wagon, a long cabin, a fireplace complete with pots and pans, a stage coach, an ox cart, and an Indian tepee. These things were made by the members of the class working together or separately and show a great deal of originality.

After studying poetry in Mrs. Watson's English class they decided to collect a few of their favorite poems and make a poem book. These books are covered with bright colored paper backs with the words "My Poem Book" on the front. Some of these books display cover pictures or designs illustrating a favorite poem and are attractive.

The game was marred by fumbles that were costly to both teams. The Morton offense, though very good in spots, never found the punch needed to cross the goal line.

Slight injuries were received by Johnny Green and Ted Woods. Approximately 250 people rode the special football train to Slaton, according to the conductor.

The band, pep squad, local business men and many others rode the train to Slaton and were joined on the return by the football boys, compliments of the Quarterback Club.

All you folks who didn't ride the "football special" last Friday night, really missed something. It was a fine trip from beginning to end.

Slaton folks put out the big welcome sign and met the train at the station, where transportation was provided for all to the football field.

The sparkle in the eyes of the young, taking their first train ride—as well as the eyes of some of those not quite so young, but still on their first train, was something to see.

Everyone had a grand time; the trip was orderly and congenial and fun for all. Crewmen on train were especially nice.

We take off our hat to the band members who did such a super job of "butching". As the trip was nearing the finale we visited the baggage car where concessions had been stored and prepared. Hadn't realized until then what a terrific amount of work and effort had gone into making the trip so successful.

There was good hot coffee served going and coming. This was accomplished by the installation of a portable gas burner and gas tank on the car. Really delicious sandwiches were sold, along with fruit, peanuts and other things one always wants the instant he boards a train.

Some of the band members as well as fans were a little disappointed that they didn't wear their uniforms so they might put on a show for Slaton. But the band was scheduled to play at ENMC homecoming in Portales Saturday so they just had to keep their uniforms nice for that.

The spouse made 200 feet of movies of the game. At the risk of his neck he might add since the stand was only built to accommodate three persons. There were two photographers from the Slaton Chamber of Commerce on the stand; Jimmie Henley of the Avalanche-Journal and Verdie Pace, who was helping the spouse. We too were up there throwing our weight around until some very kind man informed us it wasn't safe. Hardly waited to walk down the steps; such was our hurry to get off.

Incidentally Henley did a very nice piece of work on reporting the game. Some times wonder if the A-J staff realize how eagerly most of us around here look forward to Friday mornings paper? We're pretty disappointed if Morton doesn't get the recognition we think we are entitled too.

All in all tho they have been mighty nice to us and we do appreciate it. The Tribune especially has been recipient of many favors from the Avalanche-Journal.

While we are about it we'd like to mention again how very grateful we are to everyone in Morton for the many kindnesses extended us since our coming to Morton in March 1946.

In our time we have lived in a good many places from the Atlantic to Pacific coast, with several stops in between as well as entirely out of the continental U. S. but never have we been associated with friendlier or more kindly people.

Sometimes think we've just been unusually "lucky" in that people have always been so "good" to us—and the strange thing is for no reason at all. Guess we'll never be able to figure it out.

Haven't we been having beautiful weather lately? Autumn is definitely the choice season out here.

So many people came to the Ledbetter's party for the Rose family. We poured coffee and more coffee—this is the out-drinkingest coffee area we ever saw.

Eltha Russell relieved us at the coffee service—she looked so pretty in a very becoming taffeta evening dress. Lois St. Clair and Crickett Hickman served at the tea end of the table—they looked wonderful—as usual. Lois was wearing a sweet black dress and C had on a pretty evening blouse of white with a black skirt.

The honoree, Mrs. Neal Rose, or Dorothy as she soon will be to everyone, looked lovely in a long white crepe. Deanna and Denise Rose, are charming children and we know will be a welcome addition to the younger social set. Dorothy is a good looking blonde and we understand is going to teach school here.

Mary Lois wore a soft blue taffeta and lace dress with long blue mitts to match. Mrs. Gowdy wore grey lace and a beautiful iris corsage. Mary, Vivian and Betty Lou Ledbetter were "three little girls in blue."

We couldn't sleep that night after the party was over for worrying about Charles Coleman Ledbetter. He must have eaten at least two dozen cookies. Bill Ed Rice found the cookies pretty appetizing too. About a hundred called during the evening.

The spouse and Bob Cross were assigned the program for Lions Club this week. Waggoner Carr, Lubbock County Attorney, accepted the spouse's invitation to speak so we asked him for a picture to use in the Tribune and were very amused when he wrote, "This is a cut I had made during the recent political campaign, and I offer it to you with slight misgivings, since during the campaign a person in Slaton, whom I have come to like, made the remark, "Well, at least if that young man is elected as our county attorney, we will have the distinction of having the ugliest looking county attorney in the State of Texas." I have always thought after that that perhaps I should get one of my closest friends who is a photographer to touch up my natural features in order to eliminate any future comments."

Actually Mr. C is quite a fine looking young man and must have just been fishing for a compliment.

However you can see for yourself how he looks and if ever you have an opportunity to meet Waggoner you'll find that he also has a very engaging personality. Some of you may remember that he was guest speaker for an Armistice Day program we had out here last year.

Have you gals planted bulbs for the spring placement show? Don't know just how these things are worked but imagine at the peak of blooming season the garden club members go around enmasse and look the various yards over.

We haven't been a member (honorary that is) of the club long enough yet to know all the ins and outs. It is very interesting tho and especially out here where we don't grow flowers at the drop of a hat or seed as it were.

Lubbock yards have beautiful early spring flowers. See no reason why Morton can't make an equally good showing.

Mrs. W. E. Angley is back home after two months in Oregon and vicinity. She had a grand time and loved flying to and

A KINDLY SMILE

By Elois Carroll, HCM 2/c

One day as I walked down the street,

A man I didn't know I chanced to meet.

A surly frown was on his face,

But when I smiled, a smile took its place.

A few days later a letter I received,

It said, "I was really so very pleased,

That you took away a frown and put in its place

A kindly smile on a stranger's face."
