Armistice Day

Thirty-one years ago today the "Cease Fire" command ended World War I. And on that day we honored those who had fallen in the service of our country. Today, added to that honor roll are those who gave their lives in the second great conflict. It is not enough this Armistice Day to honor the brave dead of two wars by bowing our heads in prayer. Only by each of us working assiduously to prevent another war—working to build an everlasting Peace—can we pay them deserving tribute.

Elaborate Ceremonies at Three Way School Coronation Held October 29

Against a background of colorful autumn flowers Queens and Kings and an FFA Sweetheart were crowned at Three Way School's annual Coronation ceremony Saturday night, October 29. Coronation ceremonies witnessed by about 400 persons were held in the gymnasium of Three Way school.

Beauty Queen to Be Crowned Here Friday, Nov. 18th

The Beauty Queen of Morton High School will be crowned Friday evening, November 18, in the High School Auditorium, at the close of a full evening of entertainment. Tickets for the coronation will go on sale Monday morning, November 14, at 9:00 a. m. and Duchesses Janet Cunningham, Jimmy Wall and Nancy Carpenter, Jame Long and Betty Louise Cook, Larry Tanner and Francis Bessire. Princess and Princesses Carter Williams and Betty Sue Buie, Mike Pollard and Gwendlyn Williams, Bruce Fulton and Sally Lou McShan, Jim Henry Johnson and Betty Williams, Douglas Patton and Peggy Wittner, Jimmy Gibson and Nelda Jo Wilson.

Patsy Taylor won the coveted title of Beauty Queen and Anita Gibson was chosen FFA Sweetheart.

Background of the stage where the colorful Coronation ceremonies were conducted was lavishly decorated with chrysanthemums and greenery.

Three Way School originated with the consolidation of rural schools in the immediate neighborhood of Maple. At present there is an enrollment of 310. There are 16 teachers, including H. H. Homsley, superintendent. The Coronation and a Halloween Carnival on Friday night was a success financially as well as providing two nights of wholesome entertainment for students, parents and patrons of the school. Funds raised during the two night programs amounted to $1,183.00, according to Mr. Homsley.

$225,000.00 in Revenue Bonds to be Issued for Purchase of Gas System

A City election held here Saturday for the issuance of $225,000.00 Gas System Revenue Bonds was carried with 104 voting for the proposal and 75 against. There were 179 votes cast.

The City of Morton will take charge of the Morton Gas Company from the owners, W. B. Evans and C. B. Markham, around the first of the year, it was stated Wednesday by J. S. Harrison, City Secretary. It was also stated by Mr. Harrison that the City has no intention of increasing the gas rates.

Firms handling the bonds are First of Texas Corporation, San Antonio, Texas; Moss, Moore and Company, Dallas and C. E. Davis and Company, Lubbock.

Majority of Firms To Remain Open Armistice Day

The majority of Morton business firms will remain open Armistice Day, it was reported here Tuesday. Due to a heavy influx of business at this particular time most merchants felt it unwise to close.

The two cleaning establishments, Stricklands Cleaners and Bowmans Cleaners will both be closed all day Friday as will the Morton Tribune, the Court House, Post Office and City Hall.

Conversion was not complete at the end of the day Tuesday but Shelley was of the opinion that within a week the "kinks" would all be out and the new system working perfectly.

There are 281 subscribers listed in the new telephone books issued late last week; apparently each subscriber called at least 2½ of his acquaintances "just to see if the thing works."

Morton citizens reacted to the dial system similarly to a group of children with new Christmas toys; and the chief topic of conversation throughout the day was, "have you tried your new phone, does it work? did you know if you want the police department and ring the number listed you get Carl Macon and if you ring the Ledbetters number you get the L. T. Doss's, the England's private phone doesn't even ring, etcetera, etcetera."

Mortonites are expected to become accustomed to the dial within a short time and settle down to normalcy. One wonders what the next "gripe" will be since the telephone question seems to be settled for some time and it looks now as if Mr. Wallace Blankenship is going to build the new $100,000.00 theatre.

In passing it might be well to pause for just a minute and give "thanks" to the various operators who have given their time and services to the community. It is the understanding of this writer that Miss Ines Walden had charge of the office here for a good many years, caring for most of the work alone until ill health forced her retirement some few months back.

In a manner of speaking the new dial system may be vastly more efficient but neither Mr. Bell nor Mr. Leich have been able to install hearts in their superior equipment.

A crew of ten men worked all night Monday in order to make the change over by six Tuesday morning. Leich electric equipment has been installed in a new tile building south of the old telephone office on West Washington Street.

Charles Yates, son of Mrs. G. C. Yates, will preach his first sermon at the First Missionary Baptist Church, Sunday morning, November 13.

Charles, a Morton resident for several years, has only recently began ministerial work. The public is cordially invited to this and all other services of the church.

Morton Has New Dial Telephone System; Service Started Tuesday

The present system will take care of 400 single subscribers or 800 party lines. There are six circuits to Levelland, formerly there were only two. The master office is located in Levelland. Since the new system is entirely automatic there will be no switchboard operators in Morton.

All long distance telephone calls will be handled through the Levelland office. Mr. Shelley and a crew of linemen, installation engineers and mechanics were assisted in the change over by J. L. (Dusty) Kemper, northern division plant superintendent of Lubbock; Gordon Lane, chief engineer, Dallas and G. T. Sims, general plant superintendent, Dallas.

"Cotton Pullers Still in Demand" Says Local Agent

"Cotton pullers are still much in demand in Cochran County", advises county agent Homer E. Thompson. The farmers need not lose hopes, as the situation is improving according to Tom F. Camp, Texas Employment Commission representative, who is stationed in Morton at the camp site prepared for Latin American laborers, one block east of the court house square. Mr. Camp's headquarters are located at the Hawkins Olds mobile agency place of business.

Cochran Farmers Showing Interest In Recently Passed Housing Act

Farmers in Cochran County are showing considerable interest in the new Housing Act recently passed by Congress and signed by the President on July 15, 1949, according to Robert C. Cross, Farmers Home Administration Supervisor. He said that his office had received a number of calls or visits from farmers anxious to construct or repair farm buildings.

Bob Cross, said that his office is ready to accept applications for farm housing loans. Last Tuesday Mr. Cross, his office staff, consisting of Mr. Leon Hurse and Miss Louise Nesbitt, and Mr. Walter P. Houston and Mr. J. B. Knox, members of the local County Committee attended a meeting in Levelland to get the latest instructions on this new program.

The program will run over a four year period. It is set up for $25,000,000.00 the first year, which began July 1, 1949. The second year calls for $50,000,000.00; the third year for $75,000,000.00; and the fourth year calls for $100,000,000.00.

"Now we are working in the fifth month of the first year. The $25,000,000.00 sounds like a lot of money to us, but by the time it is broken down by states, districts and counties, we probably won't have but about 5 loans from now to June 30, 1950. You can see as time goes on we will be able to make more and more loans," Cross said.

"The loans will be made to farm owners only. They can be made for the repair or construction of houses and other farm buildings for the use of the owners or their tenants, or for farm labor houses. The requirements are that the farmer can not get adequately financed from some other source. It also includes some money to purchase additional land in order to make the present farm an economic unit, or for land development to make the land produce more."

The terms of the loan is 4 percent interest and may run from 5 to 33 years, depending on the ability of the farm and family to pay.

Riding Circle Around Whitefaces

by Art. N. Wall

Saturday the 5th a clearance sale was held at the old Cut-Rate store in Whiteface that was previously owned by Sam Bozike, now dead. As we strolled through the store looking at the canned goods and dry goods we could easily imagine Sam with his white store apron on, following us around with his dog, Mike, at his heels. It is understood a large store will be put in place of the old Cut-Rate. As yet this column does not know who the owner of this store will be.

Many oil field roustabouts and pumpers, after work hours, at their regular jobs, are working in the cotton fields. The other night at Stanolind Oil and Gas Company's Employees Bargaining Agency meeting the conversation was, instead of how much oil did you produce today, it was how much cotton did you pick today.

Mr. Swift, field maintenance man for Slaughter Field Gasoline Plant is back at work after being burned in a gas explosion on the Mallet "G" lease. Mr. Swift reported for work Monday, October 31st. His hands are still bandaged but he states he can still use his fingers in handling tools.

Now basketball is in the news. Around town in Whiteface it is said the first string team for the boys of our school is really good. As for the girls it is stated a few more games and a little more experience will put them in fine shape. We have never had anything to be ashamed of in our basketball teams.

In the November 4th issue of U. S. News and World Report it states: "The Christmas jam in the U. S. mails is coming early this year and threatens to be the worst in history. By the first week of October the volume of mail was greater than at the peak of the Christmas rush a year ago." What about doing that Christmas shopping early? Then you can mail out your gifts early. Too, with our cotton picking season on, and more people in our county at the present time, by shopping now for Christmas, you can leisurely look over the many gifts in our stores and avoid that Christmas rush. Remember, near Christmas, goods will be picked over so severely you may not find what you want.

From "Old Tacks" column of the Amarillo Daily News is this: "People have been inquiring as to the plague of wasps afflicting most of the high plains. Those who live out in the country say it is the worst they have ever seen. Over in Hemphill County, they are so bad they are all but driving the roosters and the hens out of the chicken houses." Here in the oil fields it seems that wasps delight in swarming around iron during the heat of the day. Around tank batteries and wells they are in a mass.

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Wall this week are Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Dane Barnette. Mr. Barnette is employed in the construction of the Levelland Gasoline Plant.

Spending the week-end of the 5th and 6th of this month in Odessa visiting friends, are Mr. and Mrs. John Stockton of Whiteface.

We read of many towns building youth centers. Why is it that surrounded by cotton and oil we can not get one in Whiteface? Towns with way less the pay roll of Whiteface have strived to build youth centers and have succeeded. Our community in the last few years has grown. Our school attendance has increased. We have more young people now with more time on their hands. We can be rightly proud of our young people by them not creating major juvenile problems. Can we always expect them to be thus? Youth is youth and what may seem fun to them may only bring heartaches to adults. We here are neglecting our youths far more than our neighboring towns. If you doubt this ask our peace officers.

I put on the boxing gloves last night with Mr. Barnette who stands over six feet and weighs over two hundred pounds. After boxing him a bit it occurred to me this was a short cut to total disability. Too, why wear out my boy's boxing gloves?

Assn. By-laws
Changed at Meet

In a meeting November 2, of Morton Cemetery trustees and association committeemen certain changes were made in the existing by-laws, which has to do with making charges for the privilege of burying on free property in the Morton Cemetery.

County residents will be charged a five dollar fee for each burial space; while out of town residents will pay $10.00.

These new plans were made necessary by lack of free space in the Cemetery as well as rising costs of maintenance.

R. T. Tarver and J. A. Vernon are trustees of the Morton Cemetery Association and the following are committeemen Lloyd Evans, L. B. Childs, Alton Burleson, R. C. Strickland and Roy Allsup.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Clam Chowder Can Be Dynamite!

If Smiley Roberts is a friend of yours, like he is mine, and if you want to keep his friendship, like I do, don't ever let him hear you say that good clam chowder can be made without cream.

In New England, where Smiley comes from, friendships have been broken over tomatoes versus cream in clam chowder. Experts say that south of Boston the tomato reigns supreme, but north of Boston it's cream—or else!

From where I sit, whether it should have cream or tomatoes is simply a matter of taste. This is plain to anyone who doesn't come from clam chowder country.

What a great world this would be if we could all see that most prejudices are matters of taste only. Some like hot coffee. Some like it iced. Some people like a temperate glass of beer. Others prefer ice-cold lemonade. My grand-mother used to say, "Prejudice that sees only what it pleases, cannot see very plain."

Anne Goode writing from the National Press Building in Washington D. C. says:

"Because there are not many ways to change the new short haircuts fashionable New York women are tinting their hair to match their hats and dresses. Ginger, navy blue and even pink are proving popular and effective. Don't worry. The color comes out with each washing.

★ Now see that's what we've been trying to tell you all the time. Of course we haven't had ours navy blue yet and Bill Harris always insists that we try green but we have had ginger and varying shades of pink and red. And if nothing else it provides Tye Williamson with something to tease us about.

★ This week-end we took a little trip to Ruidoso—with each visit we decide THIS is definitely THE most beautiful season. Actually autumn must be choice. The shades of crimson and gold as one enters the Hondo Valley are beyond description.

★ The spouse shot a whole roll of 16 MM movie film winding up at the Coe ranch, one of the loveliest places we've seen. The sparkling white Mission type house nestled down in that valley with gorgeous trees in the back ground is something one dreams about. That particular ranch originated in 1882—it says so on the mail box right out front. Probably has a very interesting family history.

★ Anyone who has known us for as long as 30 minutes realizes we love to get letters and the following is quite one of the nicest we have ever received.

★ And since we enjoy passing out bouquets equally as well as receiving them we are enchanted to hand Dr. Doyle Jackson a whole arm full.

Dear Mrs. England,

This is just a note to tell you how much we appreciate your recent use of a picture of our little daughter, Ramona Jo, in your "Annegrams Presents". The picture came out very nicely; and it was quite an opportunity for many of our old friends and acquaintances to see a picture of her, which otherwise they might never have done. You see, I attended Morton schools from fifth grade through high school. And later I taught for five years in Cochran and Bailey County schools. I know that there were so many of my former classmates, fellow teachers, and ex-pupils who saw my little daughter's picture for the first time—and perhaps some of them may not have known that I even have a daughter! Though I'm a confirmed Californian by now, I agree with you that Morton is one of the friendliest of all places—and it is always a genuine pleasure to renew old friendships and acquaintances on our infrequent trips to Morton.

As I was writing, I happened to recall some of your references in the past to Dr. Doyle D. Jackson in your column. And I thought that it might interest you to know that he is as appealing in the classroom as he must be as a speaker at the Lions Club gatherings! I thoroughly enjoyed being in his education and psychology classes when I was a student at Texas Tech. He is one of the most scholarly of professors—and I'm sure that he must be the most human! Some of his "Jackson-isms" should be put into a book. I remember his saying that "some students should be given a Bachelor's degree along with their birth certificate, and then they could come to college to learn something." He always seemed to have an amazing capacity for remembering facts, yet a head full of facts was not to him an outstanding evidence of one's being a good student. He appreciated a student who could come up with an idea of his own occasionally. And some of the most valuable things which I got from his courses were not facts from the textbook, but rather the keen mind and the forceful personality of the professor himself. I think that this one incident is an example of the kind of man that Dr. Jackson really is: Just before final examination, he made the statement in class that anyone who felt that he needed and wished to use his notes during the examination, might do so. Because of his necessary absence on examination day, his wife (who is as charming and gracious as anyone could wish to be) was in the classroom to conduct the examination. Some student suggested that Dr. Jackson had said that we might use our notes—and Mrs. Jackson agreed. A few students, with obvious embarrassment, used their notes—and I have often wondered if they really thought that they really fooled Dr. Jackson, or expected to get a better grade by doing so. Believe me, no student in one of his classes needed a good grade on a final examination to indicate his intelligence or interest—Dr. Jackson could "read each student like a book!" And he never let his sense of humor go to waste. I remember quite well his giving our psychology class an inventory of his own son, Lamar's, overloaded pockets! And when one of his students was elected campus beauty, student body officer, or had any collegiate honor bestowed upon him, Dr. Jackson never failed to congratulate him in the presence of the entire class. He would probably be amazed to know that a student remembers such small incidents—but there's more to a college course than just what's in the book! And, to me, Dr. Jackson was a course in what it takes to make a great scholar, gentleman, human psychologist, counselor, orator—and a really human human being!

My! But this turned out to be a long note. I certainly went beyond my original intention; but since you, too, are quite obviously an admirer of Dr. Jackson, I thought that you might be interested in the "professor" side of his personality.

Thank you again for affording us and our friends and relatives the pleasure of seeing Ramona's picture in "Annegrams Presents". You should have seen her tonight! She went to a Halloween Carnival at the local Los Angeles County Park, and won a special prize in her costume as one of the "Three Little Pigs."

Sincerely,
Geneva Shelton
(Mrs. R. M.)

Thank you very much Mrs. S.

Late in the first quarter Sundown recovered a fumble on the Indian 30 and marched for a touchdown. Early in the second quarter Bobby Clark raced 70 yards for another tally. The point after the first touchdown was added from placement to make the half time score 13 to 0. Morton threatened late in the first half but were stopped by penalties.

As the third quarter neared an end the Roughnecks plunged over for their third touchdown. Early in the final stanza Clifford Wall sprinted 55 yards for the first Morton tally.
