

THE LAW AND YOU

by Robt. (Bob) Kirk
County Attorney
Lamb County, Texas

DO YOU KNOW whether or not a will written in your own handwriting is legal? The statutes provide for two types of written wills. If the will is wholly written in his own handwriting by the man making the same, it need not have any witnesses. If any portion of the will is not in the handwriting of the man making the will, it must be witnessed by two persons in the presence of the man making the will.

make it advisable that one contemplating making a will should be familiar with. These formalities will save the heirs much red tape and expense in the probating of a will.

The Courts will in all cases, attempt to give full effect to the intentions of the man making a will, but if the same is vague or indefinite, and not following the formalities of the law, it may not be possible to do so.

Therefore, it is advisable to consult your local attorney rather than to attempt to draw the same yourself.

Mrs. Green, Enochs will Graduate 3 Months After Son

When Mrs. J. L. Green of Enochs watched her son Jimmie L. receive his diploma at graduation exercises at Tech Monday night, she may have been mentally rehearsing for the ceremony which she will go through only three months from now.

Mrs. Green, who lacks six semester hours of work at Tech, will finish in July, six weeks after son Jimmie was awarded his degree in agronomy and farm machinery.

Mrs. Green plans to continue in school for the first session of summer school to finish her college career.

Jimmie, age 20, started to Tech at the age of 16 after graduating from Loop High school, where the Greens were teaching at the time. Presently Mr. Green is teaching at Enochs.

The oldest of five children, Jimmie came to Tech on scholarships in July, 1946. He had received the state scholarship as the valedictorian of his graduating class. He was also recipient of the Sears Roebuck scholarship in agriculture.

Mrs. Green, while now six weeks behind her son, had started her college career several years before Jimmie ever started to school. He began his schooling in 1935, two years after Mrs. Green had cut short the first stint of her college work.

She had begun her college career at Tech in the summer of 1927 after having taught school two years on a teachers certificate awarded her at Canyon. After graduating from high school there, she had taken a short teachers training course and begun teaching.

Mrs. Green returned to college in June, 1948 to begin the remaining part of her college career. She will graduate in August after actual completion of her work on an elementary education major in July, she says.

One of the remaining courses which she must take is practice teaching, she says. She believes the course will be rather easy after the eight years classroom experience she has had. She recounts that she has been popular among the girls living in her dorm, in that she has given aid in lesson planning for those now taking practice teaching.

Mr. Green is vocational agriculture teacher at Bula High school near Enochs, where the family has lived for the past year. He also has attended Tech, graduating in June, 1939.

Since that time he has been an agriculture teacher. Previously he had taught general high school subjects.

Because of this, Jimmie was better acquainted with agriculture and more interested in it than in any other subject, hence his selection of agronomy and farm machinery as his major.

He has been a member of the Aggie club, the Plant Industry club and the Honorary Agriculture club. Last fall he served as secretary of the Plant Industry club.

Now he thinks he will work with some farm machinery firm or possibly with the government in farm work. However, he still doesn't know definitely what he will do, since he as yet has no job in line.

Mrs. Green will return to teaching in the elementary grades.

Carolyn, her oldest daughter, who has been out of school this semester while Mrs. Green was away from home, will return to school in June. Other children are Shirley, 15, Curtis, 12 and Steve, 6.

OVERHEARD ON THE FAIRWAYS AT MORTON COUNTRY CLUB

BY V. L. L.

Mrs. Ann England, Editor
The Morton Tribune
Morton, Texas.

Dear Mrs. England:

In the last issue of the Tribune, it was mentioned in the column "anagrams" that "at graduation exercises the other night for Morton High School there were one or more of the students expecting to graduate who were told as they walked on the stage that they were not graduating."

Please let me correct and explain this situation.

It has been a custom for some years to allow any seniors who have fulfilled all requirements for graduation except one or less credits to take part in graduation exercises along with the other members of their class. Such was the case in discussion. Four seniors failed some of their work the last semester and were, therefore, ineligible for diplomas. Three of them lacked one-half (1/2) credit each, and the fourth lacked one (1) credit. All four of the candidates were told before the exercises, in fact before the class formally assembled for graduation, that they would not have their diplomas issued then, but that they would be allowed to participate in the exercises.

Only one of the four was interested enough to find out after examinations if they would graduate. Attempts were made during the day to contact the four candidates, but since two of them live several miles in the country, it was impossible to contact them. A third came to the high school office, and the fourth, who lives in town, could never be located.

All four definitely were told before "they stepped on the stage for graduation that they were not graduating."

We hope this explanation will correct any misconceptions any one may have concerning the matter.

Yours truly,
Wendell Watson, Principal
Morton High School.

Note: The Tribune is very happy to publish the explanatory letter from Mr. Watson.—ae.

Thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Ramby's donation of Chinese Elm trees for hedge west of club house. We can look forward to a nice wind break soon.

Those sand greens need a lot of work and there is plenty of oil available now to fix No. 1, 3 and 5 greens. How about it Mr. Bedwell, Mr. Ramby and Mr. Russell?

Doc Lawson is having the devil of a time getting grass started on No. 7 tee box.

That chicken barbecue and golf tournament went over big last month. How about another about the 18th or 19th of June?

A good rain would probably lower our score about 6 strokes per round. Wonder how long we will have to wait? Well—"let's play the 19th now."

Golfing around the club has turned out to be mostly "fish-in" since so many of the regular golfers have been away on fishing trips. Golf interest has lessened since the tournament. Some of the golfers have started fishing while others rest till another "sucker" comes along.

Joe Nicewarner, Luke Hargrove, and J. B. Knox spent several days fishing at Conchos last week. Good catch reported.

Dr. V. L. Lawson and Reagan Ormand flew up to Conchos last Wednesday after Lions club meeting. Good fishing reported and returned home with big catch of Crappie. Strong winds and stormy weather made fishing (as well as flying) a little hazardous. Five boats were sunk while anchored at docks last Thursday afternoon.

Another party of Slim Rogers, Ben Kennedy, and Buddie Culppepper also fished at Conchos last week. Making Morton well represented there.

A new lake is opening at Childress this week, June 1. Fishing is expected to be good. All boats and reservations have been sold out for weeks.

A big fish fry was held Tuesday at Chas Monford's farm, 3 miles from town, the Roses and Lawsons enjoyed all they could eat.

It seems that Tom McAlister, club prexy, is still head man after that drubbing he gave Snowball and Doc Monday. Snow ball allows as to how it was pure unadulterated luck.

The "grape vine" says Tom Mc plans to enter another golf tourney some where between here and Lampasas. Wonder if he plans on entering 4th flight or down where he belongs in championship bracket?

After Dr. Monk's visit to Cowtown last week to Colonial Country Club and seeing how easy the Pros play golf, he now has all the answers—"cept he still can't do it."

That Sunday morning group of golfers; namely the Willisess, Roses, Dr. Monk and Ann England (the editor thinks the writer meant Ann Monk—all ae has is form and not a very good one at that) was something extra special. Incidentally, Ann England is a sweet swinger so I'm told.

A most interesting 3 some would be Mrs. Button Silvers (the present ton woman golfer) Mrs. Snowball Willis and Mrs. Hessie B. Spotts.

Hey Piffier—that tennis court still needs finishing.

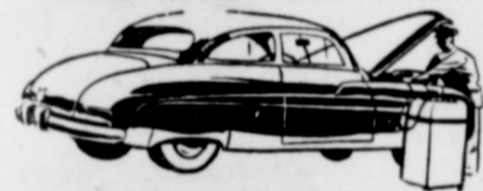

Noted taking advantage of the club last Sunday were the Ledbetter's, The Roses, Scott Hawkins family, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Crum, Dr. and Mrs. Norman Monk, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Willis and son, Norton; the J. D. Hawthorne family and others.

Some one said Dr. Lawson and Tom Mc treated the golfers in Lubbock Sunday by playing with them.

Tom Arnn Jr., apparently is trying to improve his driving. Practiced on a driving range in Lubbock last Sunday it has been reported.

There are now 16 benches and five big tables at Morton Country Club.

Sugar In Candy Is Beneficial In the Children's Diet

Sugar Land, Texas—The kids will love this! Science has gone to bat for them and proved that sugar, in the form of candy, is beneficial when added to children's diets.

There's one catch to it though, kids. For the candy (sugar) to be a healthy benefit, a youngster's diet must be basically adequate and nutritious.

Dr. Pauline Berry Mack of the Pennsylvania State College has issued a report describing a study of 50 orphanage children who had sugar, in the form of plain candy, added to their basic dietary for a five month period. The diet was originally adequate in protein, vitamins, and minerals, but sub-marginal in calories.

The sugar brought the caloric value of the diets up to recommended levels and examinations showed increases in body weight, growth, and improved resistance to fatigue.

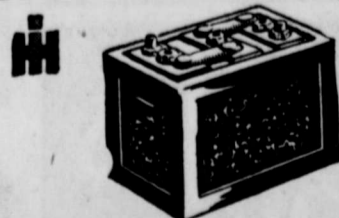

No abnormal increase in dental decay was noted among this group. And Dr. Mack says that a previous study proved that dental cavities are much higher in children having a low to moderate intake with a proper daily diet.

This doesn't mean that Junior can run amuck in the cookie jar whenever he chooses. Dr. Mack says this experiment does not justify the unchecked consumption of sugar by the growing child, and that during the experiment, the candy was given the children at the end of each meal. Afterward, they carefully brushed their teeth.

Artie Hicks Attends Hospital Meet In Lubbock

The South Plains Hospital council held their second quarterly meeting in the Lubbock Hotel Thursday with 20 area hospital administrators, including Artie Hicks, business manager of West Plains Hospital and Clinic, present for the occasion.

Among the speakers was Sister Julia Diederich of St. Mary's hospital who discussed the need for uniform visiting hours. She pointed out that visitors are often detrimental to the recovery of patients. She went on to show the need for a uniform schedule of visiting hours in the city. No solution to the problem was reached, however.

Other talks included "Hospitals and News Relations" discussed by James L. Dow of the Gaines Clinic hospital in Seminole and a discussion of the admission and dismissal procedure by J. H. Felton of Lubbock Memorial hospital. A report was heard on the purchasing institute held recently in Galveston in connection with the Texas Hospital association meeting.

--annegrams-- by ann england--

Do you ever think of a beautiful speech you could have made—some time after the occasion for speech making has passed?

That is exactly what happened to us after the barbecue and party last Thursday night at De Bord home for Good Neighbor Club of Famuliner community.

We were mighty proud they invited us to attend and we thoroughly enjoyed everything—including ALL the barbecued chicken—salad, four kinds of cake and ice cream we consumed. We were thrilled to a polka dot when our names were called as winners of award pin and button BUT we were sort of flabbergasted when asked if we'd like to say a few words.

Since then we have thought of several very fine talks we could have made—that is if we were just a little quicker on the uptake. Anyway it was a grand party and those people out there are wonderful hosts.

Mr. Martin, Oklahoma farm editor of Farmer-Stockman Magazine, was clever in his presentation speech. Mixing a good bit of humor with his more serious thoughts. He too, experienced difficulty in pronouncing Famuliner. Think we've explained time and again that we say famu-LINER to ourself and then translate to fa-MIL-ner before actually saying it.

Winona Webb, president of the recently organized 4-H Club for boys and girls, made such a nice talk. She is a lovely little girl. Understand the youngsters in that group will be in charge of recreational program for a June party for all 4-H clubs.

We were pleased and proud of Waggoner Carr, Lubbock County Attorney, who, when called upon to make a speech, said, "As most of you know Forrest Weimhold was also invited to this party but was unable to attend because of the death of a close friend—and since we are both candidates for the same political office I'll just save my talk until a time when Forrest can also be present."

We happen to know that Forrest and Ruth had the Carrs as their special guests at a banquet recently in Lubbock for South Plains Press Association.

That is the way we like to see political candidates conduct a campaign. They are both so nice about it one almost thinks Waggoner is campaigning for Forrest and vice-versa. Both are smart and successful young men. They served in the Army during World War II—each worked his way through college. And have been so busy getting an education, aiding their country and then building up a business and profession they've not had too much spare time to get into mischief.

Here it is ice cream weather again. We made a gallon of peppermint candy ice cream one evening last week. Dorothy Rose and her two buds, Deanna and Denise, Teresa Kay Doss; Mrs. Dick, Van Greene and Beth Garwick helped us eat it.

Have you a favorite recipe for home made ice cream that is unusual—easy to make or something? If so, send it along as there are lots of folks who'd like new ideas for summer's favorite dish.

Last Friday noon we had a most delicious French apple pie, courtesy Dorothy Rose. She called and we stopped by to get the pie enroute home to lunch. It was just out of oven and still bubbling when we cut into it.

Had a nice rest this week-end at Ruidoso. At home there is always so much to do we feel real guilty if we sit down but away from home—ah, that is different.

Van Greene was with us; he flew up Saturday afternoon. The spouse was a little apprehensive since Van was only checked out as solo pilot a few weeks ago; but he made a beautiful landing and take off at the Ruidoso airport. We are both so proud of him you'd think he belonged to us.

Our boys are getting around. Had a nice long letter from Roger in New York City. He and Winston had already blistered their tonsils looking at the tall buildings and strained their eyes ditto the beautiful show girls.

Anybody have a good fast walking stick they'd consider lending us? From the looks of the program for Texas Press Association meeting in Fort Worth 16 and 17th of June we will need it—either that or an electric wheel chair.

Swift and Company have invited us on a tour of their plant and to luncheon; and that big airplane plant has done the same thing (Consolidated Vultee, think it is). We are sure the airplane thing covers a 100 square miles as well as we remember Swifts is pretty good size.

As a child living in Fort Worth any time we had out of town guests we treated them to a tour of the packing houses and it was an all day event.

Wonder if they still give away souvenirs to the kids? Expect we'll find out come June 16.

Wesleyan Service Guild Begins New Study

Mrs. C. M. Cravy started a new study, "Missions at the Grass Roots," in a meeting of Wesleyan Guild at the home of Mrs. Raymond C. Ross, Monday night, May 29.

Mrs. Reagan D. Ormand introduced the study as Mrs. Ross played the piano. At intervals during the review supplements to the study were given by Mrs. V. L. Lawson, Mrs. P. B. Ramby, Mrs. J. D. Hawthorne and Mrs. Ross.

Mrs. Cravy traced "Missions" from their origin, treating the study as an undenominational subject, she prefaced the review with, "Why do we need to know the history of Missions? It gives us a better understanding and with understanding we acquire faith." Mrs. Cravy will continue the study when the group meet with Mrs. J. D. Hawthorne, June 12.

During a business session conducted by Mrs. Lloyd C. Miller, president, the following committees were appointed; Spiritual Life, Mrs. Fred Stockdale and Mrs. J. W. Alford, Finance, Mrs. J. D. Hawthorne and Mrs. Fred Danforth, Educational Service, Mrs. Cravy, Mrs. Alford and Mrs. E. A. Miller.

Christian Social Relations, Mrs. J. W. Watson, Recreation and Supplies, Mrs. Courtney Sanders, Mrs. Ormand and Miss Joyce Huff, Membership, Mrs. R. C. Ross, Mrs. Arlee Barnard and Mrs. Orville Tilger, Music, Mrs. J. W. Askew and Mrs. Cravy, Publicity, Mrs. Carl England.

Mrs. Hume Russell was retained as coordinator from W.S.C.S.

Two new members, Mrs. W. R. Metzner and Mrs. Clyde F. Carson Jr., were welcomed. Ray Ann Ross, daughter of the hostess, served a refreshment plate to Mesdames Cravy, England, Lawson, M. Turner Beard, J. W. Alford, Miller, Ramby, C. H. Silvers, Courtney Sanders, Ormand, Hawthorne, Metzner and Carson.

Amon Carter is treating the press to a barbecue at his Shady Oaks farm; which is something to look forward to.

Then there are about 40 talks by as many celebrities. Those two convention days are certainly going to be full—as will the press members we imagine.

While at Ruidoso we again ran into Buford Davenport, publisher of the Abernathy Review. He always makes us feel good by complimenting the Tribune. Heard him tell the spouse, "Make up on the Tribune is about as good as I've ever seen."

Notice in paper that hospital administrators meeting in Lubbock last Thursday heard a talk on hospital visitors.

We've been out of the hospital business a long time but still remember that progress of patients was often retarded by well meaning but worrisome visitors.

Hospitals usually designate certain hours for visiting. These hours are worked out for benefit of sick folks and it is our honest belief that patients would all get along much better if visitors would adhere strictly to the rules.

Overheard the spouse say, "Statistics show that only a small per cent of the girls in this country are working girls; the rest are working men."

RED CROSS FCUNDER

Clara Barton, founder of the American Red Cross, personally directed in the field her organization's first major disaster relief efforts. They included the Galveston (Tex.) hurricane and tidal wave of 1900, the Michiean forest fire of 1881, and the Johnstown (Pa.) flood of 1889.

THE STORY OF TEN LITTLE FREE WORKERS

THESE ARE THE WORKERS
REDDY DOCTOR RAILROADER MINER STEELWORKER FARMER LAWYER GROCER SALESMAN REPORTER

Ten little free workers in this country fine and fair.
But if you cherish your freedom—worker have a care!
Ten little free workers—Reddy was doing fine
Until the socialists got him—then there were nine.

Nine little free workers laughed at Reddy's fate
Along came federal medicine—then there were eight.

Eight little free workers thought this country heaven
But the government took over the railroads, then there were seven.

Seven little free workers—till the miners got in a fix
Uncle said coal's essential and took over leaving six.

Six little free workers till the day did arrive
The steel mills, too, were federalized—then there were five.

Five little free workers—but the farmers are free no more
The farms have been collectivized—that leaves only four.

Four little free workers till the government did decree
All must have free legal advice—then there were three.

Three little free workers—the number is getting few,
But with government groceries selling food—then there were two.

Two little free workers—our story's almost done,
With clerks at work in federal stores—that leaves only one.

One little free worker—the reporter son-of-a-gun
Mustn't criticize government—so now there are none.

Ten little workers—but they are no longer free
They work when and where ordered, and at a fixed rate you see,
And it all could have been prevented if they'd only seen fit to agree
And work together instead of saying "it never can happen to me!"
