Soil Conservation Expert Says Plains Set For Return of Erosion Conditions

The stage is set in the Plains states of the nation for a return of wind erosion conditions approaching those of the 1930's, according to Louis P. Merrill, regional director of the Soil Conservation Service in Fort Worth last week.

RAIL DUST

By DOUGLAS MEADOR

...and crystal dews of evening are on the fetlocks of his steed as he flees the dawn where the grey sage is stirred and there is a sound of creaking leather; he is untired on the forgotten trails. His love for the range is a benediction, and his devotion to his friends was as gentle as the starlight. Lone days and night in the saddle brought him close to nature and provided his heart with food against the inevitable tribulation. His passing has been simple and natural like the mesquite falling to put new leaves in the spring.

...recovering a lost friendship is like trying to return water to a bucket that has been tipped in the sand. ...our thoughts graze in some empty weedy pastures, where through stagnant water holes often consume so much loquacity we are unable to interest a deer. ...nothing suit designers are said to be using more cloth this season. Resourceful rascals, they tried almost from nothing. ...While I frequently feel a slight nostalgia to return to the farm, it is not over-powering. Viewed in the abstract, I am swayed by the opportunity to use my surplus wire coat-hangers. Besides wire coat-hangers and farming equipment, there should be other repair jobs where they could be used almost as well as anything wire. ...A bachelor friend who refuses to make hasty decision, says insurance is a wonderful thing for second husbands. ...Gentle music is like the perfume of flowers that leave the air inspired for a brief instant as they are consumed by flames in the passing hour. ...My wife has a new worry. Raising a flock of sheep she estimated the possibility of moths getting into the wool before it is shorn and made into cloth. ...Besides my natural respect for a horse and the revolting thoughts of eating its flesh, I rather resent the intrusion of a seamstress on the tables of Texas. We have eaten our share of any-hand beef to deserve a quality that could not be mistaken for horse fillets. ...We are the slaves of fear; our courage is scattered rebellion. ...Whatever happened to the old-fashioned girl who accepted a grass-widower only after the old had been narrowed to the point of exhaustion? She is probably worrying about her daughter whose fondness for old-fashioned is sustained in the company of men whose marital status is assured by their availability. ...Scientists are still fumbling in the dark attempting to equal the purification qualities of liquor when applied to the skulls that deliver men and women to destruction. ...Sweetened cherry in the freshly tasteless cocktail of life is the unknown friend who gives pleasant thought and new courage on palms that have tried futility. ...Food satisfies only one kind of hunger.

"We're in for trouble," Merrill said. "And the best efforts of farmers coupled with a good break in weather can only lessen, but in all probability they can't forestall, more serious damage to the land next fall and winter."

The regional CSC head gave several reasons for his prediction.

1. The Plains area is apparently entering the delayed cycle of dry years.
2. Millions of unprotected acres were damaged by high winds during the recent winter and spring and are now even more susceptible to wind damage.
3. Complete failure or poor growth of wheat in large areas makes stubble mulching impossible or less effective.
4. Large acreages devoted to cotton without protective wind stripping.
5. The expressed intention of many farmers to fallow abandoned wheat land instead of planting grain sorghum, hoping for enough moisture to produce a wheat stand next fall.
6. The large area of shallow and light soils (three million acres in Texas and Oklahoma alone) in cultivation which should be returned to grass.

Merrill reported that during the recent blow season nearly a million acres suffered moderate to severe wind erosion damage in Oklahoma and Texas and, in these two states alone, 2,300,000 acres are without sufficient protection to prevent blowing. Reports from regions to the west and north show that in the entire area, including Oklahoma and Texas, nearly eight million acres are now in condition to blow, an increase of more than two million acres within the past year. Nearly seven million acres of this total are in Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Colorado and North Dakota.

Merrill declared that the only immediate step that farmers can take in preventing the spread of wind erosion is to plant grain sorghums wherever possible. The sorghums, if they receive moisture, will produce cover which will provide protection next winter and spring. Wherever organic matter, such as wheat or sorghum stubble, remain from past crops it should be left in the surface soil to help reduce the effect of wind, Merrill added. Farmers should use subsurface tillage methods wherever possible.

The regional director of the SCS hit hard at suggested allotment for grain sorghums. "To do anything that would reduce or slow down the planting of this crop in the Plains country would be a serious mistake from the standpoint of helping control wind erosion," he warned. Merrill urged that cotton growers use wind stripping, with alternate plantings of sorghum and cotton across the path of prevailing winds to help reduce the erosion threat.

And ranchers should by all means guard against overuse of grazing lands, he said. Merrill explained that much of the wind erosion threat stems from the cultivation of millions of acres of land that are too shallow or too sandy to grow crops safely. Such land should be retired to permanent cover as soon as possible, he added.

Adequate men, machines and trucks are available in all areas. The TEC will not staff temporary offices in Texas Panhandle. Farm labor bulletins will be posted where normally temporary offices are located. Information regarding Texas wheat harvest may be secured from full time offices or control offices located in Lubbock and Amarillo.

SINGING AT MAPLE

A singing will be held at Maple Sunday afternoon 2:30 at the Assembly of God Church.

KICA On New Frequency

Clovis. — This Saturday afternoon, with appropriate ceremonies, Clovis Radio Station KICA will enlarge its service by moving to a more favorable spot on the dial and increasing its broadcasting strength to 1000 watts. The new frequency will be 980 kilocycles. This means they will abandon the old spot of 1240 Kc. The Federal Communications Commission in Washington, D. C. has allowed this change so that KICA can better serve its listeners during both day and nighttime. Ross B. McAllister, Manager of KICA said "We hope with this increase in power and move to a more central spot on the dial, to better serve our wonderful listeners and we want them to feel that all of their good friends at KICA are just moving that much closer."

Mayor Bob Vinyard will throw the switch to make the change. The ceremonies will be held on the bandstand at the Curry County Park. $500.00 in cash will be given away along with many other prizes, and all you need to participate is to be there, in Clovis by 1 p.m. this Saturday, June 17th, 1950.

The new KICA transmitter location is just east of Clovis on the old Texico highway; the new 250 feet high twin towers are visible for miles in either day or night time. Chief Engineer Vernon Hughes has spent three months installing the very latest RCA equipment and burying the ground network, which if stretched out straight, would reach over 280 miles. Visitors are welcome any time during the day.

J. A. Love Announces For County Judge

After some consideration, much deliberation, and no solicitation, I made the decision to announce my candidacy for the office of County Judge of Cochran County. I was born and reared in Lamar County, Texas. My early school days were spent in the Forest Chapel School of that county. I graduated from the Paris High School of Paris, Texas, and later obtained the Bachelor of Arts and Master of Arts degrees from the University of Texas, Austin, Texas. My work in attaining these degrees included two courses in commercial law. I am a farm and home-owning taxpayer of Cochran County and have been for several years. I am not a professional politician, for I have never before sought a public office.

If the people of Cochran County see fit to elect me as County Judge, I shall discharge the duties of this office in such a manner that the trust that they have placed in me will never be betrayed. Respectively yours, J. A. (Johnnie) LOVE

Final Census Check Discussed At C. of C. Directors Meeting

Chamber of Commerce Directors in a meeting at noon Tuesday at the Steak House, on the suggestion of R. C. Strickland, voted to assist the 1950 census enumerator in a final check on population of Morton and Cochran County. Albert Morrow, secretary, was instructed to prepare a blank form to be run in the Morton Tribune for benefit of those persons who may have been missed in the census.

Neal H. Rose spoke briefly on progress of the Trades Day Program, saying, "Results have been more than gratifying and I personally wish to thank everyone for wholehearted cooperation."

J. W. McDermott, president, was in charge of the meeting. Mr. McDermott reported on the rural telephone project. He told the group that Muleshoe had been approved for a $100,000.00 loan for rural telephone purposes.

It was decided during the meeting to rent the Morton J. Smith building for use as an office for the Chamber of Commerce and Retail Merchants Association. Mr. Morrow was instructed to investigate costs of redecorating the interior of the building.

A clean-up drive for Morton was discussed; no action was taken. A holiday calendar was proposed; a calendar will be made of all holidays, this calendar will be submitted to merchants who in turn will indicate which holidays throughout the year they are in favor of observing by closing their places of business.

Mr. Morrow reported that to date the RMA had around 24 members with several firms expected to join within the very near future. Directors voted to have RMA also act as a collecting agency; fees for acting in this capacity will correspond with those charged by other agencies.

Those attending Tuesday's luncheon and business meeting were: M. C. Ledbetter, J. W. McDermott, Albert Morrow, L. B. Childs, J. B. Knox, Paul Goodman, R. C. Strickland, Earl Crum, L. W. Ray, M. T. Beard, Fred Stockdale and Neal H. Rose.

Allan Shivers Seeks First Elective Term

Gov. Allan Shivers, in formally announcing his candidacy for a first elective term as Governor, said he has done his best to carry out a program for Texas in a manner acceptable to the people of Texas, adding:

"If I have succeeded, I will appreciate their votes for a term of my own."

Shivers, who assumed the Governorship last July, had not held a full-time governmental job before becoming Governor. He was elected to the State Senate in 1934 and twice re-elected. In 1946 he was elected Lieutenant Governor and re-elected to that office in 1948. Born in Lufkin, he spent his boyhood in Tyler County and later moved with his family to Port Arthur.

During his public career Shivers has given particular attention to public welfare, rural roads and improved educational facilities. He was a co-author of Texas' original old-age assistance law and helped to write the tax bill which still meets the cost of old-age assistance. Under his leadership last February, the Legislature approved a far-reaching reform and improvement program for state hospitals.

"Between now and the July 22 election I will continue to make known my views on important public issues," Governor Shivers stated. "I will emphasize facts and record of accomplishment, instead of easy promises, and will address myself to all the people of Texas rather than to any special group."

The Governor said he considers economy to be the State's top problem. "And that means economy of money, of our soil and of our water resources," he added.

He expressed thanks to "the thousands of individual Texans who have already told me that they will support me in this election."

Senate Passes Grain Loan Bill

Congressman George Mahon advised early this week that Department of Agriculture officials had informed him that all the papers had been prepared for an announcement of the support price loan on grain sorghum.

The announcement has been held up for weeks pending Senate passage of a bill increasing the capital stock of the Commodity Credit Corporation. The Senate acted on June 6, passing the bill which the House had approved last March 23.

Mahon stated that Presidential approval of the pending measure was expected soon and that within a few hours after the President signs the bill, the grain sorghum loan will be announced. He said that the support price on grain sorghum might possibly be announced before the end of the week.

MRS. C. C. REYNOLDS returned home early last week from several days at her camp at Possum Kingdom Dam.

Murray Crone New Lion Prexy

Murray Crone was elected president of Morton Lions Club at the June 7 meeting in recreation room at First Methodist Church. Other new officers elected to serve with Crone are E. A. Miller, secretary; Raymond Strickland, treasurer; Bob Dunham, taitwister; R. D. Ormand, lion tamer; Paul Goodman, first vice-president; E. L. Willis, second vice-president; Truman Doss, third vice-president and two new directors Fred Stockdale and Willard Cox.

Four visitors were introduced at meeting, they were J. C. Stripling, guest of E. A. Miller, Mr. Stripling became a new member. Clarence Stephens, guest of V. L. Lawson, Mr. Stephens is pastor of Morton's Methodist Church, he also became a new member of the club. R. H. Garner of Lubbock, guest of Carl Ray, Mayor R. T. Tarver, guest of L. W. Barrett.

All four visitors spoke briefly. Mayor Tarver congratulated the group upon a fine organization and urged "Unity" among members to accomplish projects promoted by the organization.

The meeting got underway with Dr. V. L. Lawson leading two songs, with piano accompaniment by Mrs. J. S. Harrison. Rev. Stephens gave the invocation. Van Greene was in charge of the meeting.

Storm Proof Cotton Shown By Clayton Stokes

Clayton Stokes was in town last week with several stalks of fine storm proof cotton grown on his farm 15 miles South of Bledsoe.

Mr. Stokes said this cotton was planted three years ago, and has continued to come up each year from the old roots, eliminating replanting each year as is customary with other types of seed.

He has about four acres planted to the storm proof seed. Mr. Stokes2 has quite enthusiastic about possibilities of the storm proof cotton for this particular area where strong winds and sand predominate.

HAMILTON FARM PLANTED

The farm of D. E. Hamilton, located east of town, has been planted to cotton and grain, by neighbors and friends of the family.

Fourteen tractors with drivers put in 104 tractor hours last Wednesday, Thursday and Friday in order to complete the job. Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton, their son Edward and his wife Louise are still hospitalized from burns received in an explosion at their home two weeks ago. Condition of all four is reported by hospital attendants as good.

MR. AND MRS. ARCH BLAN-SITT of Amarillo were week-end visitors here in the J. O. Mills and Doc Long homes.

E. H. Irwins Will Return This Week

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Irwin left Saturday by auto for Indianapolis, Indiana. Mrs. Irwin flew to Morton about ten days ago to be with her mother, Mrs. Cornelia Lytle, surgical patient at West Plains Hospital. Mr. Irwin drove in Friday.

Mr. Irwin will receive a degree in journalism at Butler University in graduation exercises Monday morning in Indianapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Irwin and son, Mike, will return to Morton to make their home. They expect to arrive in Morton some time Wednesday. Mr. Irwin is staff writer for Morton Tribune.

OVERHEARD ON THE FAIRWAYS AT MORTON COUNTRY CLUB

BY V. L. L.

Good ole hot sunshine and not much wind makes golfing much more enjoyable these days. As evidence more members are taking to the fairways.

M. C. (tournament) Ledbetter was giving his oldest daughter (that would be Mary) some pointers on the game Sunday. From the looks of things I believe she was beating papa.

Its amazing how quick Hume Russell can change clothes when some one asks him to play a few holes. He doesn't need any warm up shots either.

Willard Cox said last Friday he couldn't play golf—had to save his energy for the BIG square dance that night. Why Willard a chap your age should be able to play golf all day and then dance at least half the night.

James St. Clair says, "playing with the 'high class' golfers improves his game 4 or 5 strokes per round. If he doesn't stop shootin' those birdies, and eagles at the 'high class' golfers, he's gonna find himself in championship bracket, when next tournament rolls around. He had a pocket full of dimes Sunday.

It's about time our "touring" president rolled back into town. Bet he'll have some "cock & bull" story all ready for us. He'll have to have at least news clipping report from some reputable Central Texas paper, before we all believe him.

Jack Russell loves fishing better than his dad. Seems he got tired going to "far-away" places in order to fish, so he just proceeded to "stock" the country club lake last week with catfish. He can beat his "pa" catching fish and I imagine playing golf too.

Secretary Earl Crum says he'll be glad to "instruct" any one desiring golf lessons. He's been instructing Courtney Sanders for so long he thinks now Courtney has at long last learned how to hold the sticks.

Scott Hawkins was trying to find some one to play golf with his guests this week. Mr. Markham was very obliging.

Yours truly was mowing the grass in front of club house when Mr. Markham, Dr. and Mrs. Monk finished No. 9. Thanks C. B. for your assistance. He's always willing to lend a helping hand.

Dr. Metzner was playing around Sunday with Dr. and Mrs. Monk. Dr. Metzner had his bathing suit on (getting a sun tan) and his car parked with radio going but LOUD. He was pulling for Boston Red Sox against Detroit but the Red Sox lost a double header. Doc finally got disgusted, turned the radio off, put on his clothes and left out.

J. D. Hawthorne said reason his golf game was so terrible, lightning killed one of his fine steers this week and he couldn't concentrate on what he was doing.

Sno-ball left town Sunday. Guess he got tired "donatin." he hasn't thrown all his clubs away.

Mrs. Button Silvers was playing around with Mrs. Vanlandingham this week. They found Doc L. cutting weeds on No. 7 green. After a few minutes of putting instruction, Mrs. Babe V. was running all them putts down. She immediately remarked "why hasn't Babe told me these things."

Henry Bedwell has promised to oil No. 1 green this week. It's the only one left since Pfifer

VISITORS HERE FROM KANSAS

Mrs. James P. Cook and three children, Tommy, Iva Jean and Margaret of Pratt, Kansas, visited here last week with her brother, Clyde F. Carson Jr., and family. Mrs. Cook was en route home from a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Carson of Kermit, Texas.

MR. AND MRS. NILE WEED and children, Donald, Carolyn and Norma and Mrs. and Mrs. Dake Merritt were in Lubbock Sunday for a family reunion.

Austin. — You shouldn't take this as an omen—

But Russia has bought a book, "The (Texas) Constitution and the Circumstances of its Adoption."

It was written by A. Garland Adair, curator of history in the Texas Memorial Museum. It was prepared to help a "know your constitutions" campaign by the Texas Heritage Foundation.

C. V. Terrell, president of the foundation, said the book was sent to a university library in Moscow on order of its New York agency.

Mr. Adair and Mr. Terrell are both long time friends of Carl England, publisher of the Tribune.

Old Sale Bill Reflects Missouri Life In 1849

The following article was given the Tribune by Slim Rogers and will no doubt be very interesting to readers of all ages but especially those of the younger generation. Many of whom have no idea of how life was lived during pioneer days. The Tribune is grateful to Mr. Rogers for passing along the item.

An 1849 farm sale bill, recently unearthed at Elsberry, Mo., was sent to the Hannibal Courier-Post. The paper reprinted the advertisement as an item of historic interest.

The bill follows:
"Having sold my farm and am leaving for Oregon territory by ox team, will offer on March 1, 1849, all of my personal property, to-wit:

All Ox Teams except two teams, Buck and Ben and Tom and Jerry; two milch cows, 1 gray mare and colt, 2 ox carts; iron plow, with wood sole board; 800 feet of poplar weather boards; 1,000 three-foot clapboards; 1,500 feet fence rails; one 60-gallon soap kettle; 85 sugar troughs, made of white ash timber; 10 gallons of maple syrup;

2 spinning wheels; 30 pounds of mutton tallow; 20 pounds of beef tallow; 1 large broom made by Jerry Wilson; 300 poles, 100 split hoops; 100 empty barrels; one 32-gallon barrel of Johnson-Miller whiskey, 7 years old; 20 gallons of apple brandy; one 40-gallon copper still;

Four sides of oak tanned leather; 1 dozen real hooks; 2 handle hooks; 3 scythes and cradles; one dozen wooden pitchforks; one half interest in tan yard; seven 32-calibre rifles, bullet molds and powder horn; rifle made by Ben Miller.

ADVERTISING FOLDER TELLS STORY OF CROSBYTON

The development of Crosbyton and Crosby county in the early days depended largely on how many people came and saw for themselves the advantages of the then new plains country. Realizing this, the Bassett Land & Livestock Co., founders of Crosbyton, published an advertising folder of some 25 pages telling of the many advantages to be found here. The folder was circulated all over the north central and southern states.

As a result of these folders and other promotional schemes, whole trainloads of prospectors came to Crosbyton and Crosby county on several occasions. Many of these prospectors bought land and remained. Others who purchased land but remained back home, still own their Crosby county soil. The rosy future which the folder pictured was not overexaggerated.

LARGEST PALO PINTO CROWD ATTENDS RECENT FIRE DANCE

The largest crowd of people to assemble in Palo Pinto in several years attended the dance on the courthouse square Tuesday night. Estimates of the crowd ranged as high as 3,000, but that figure may be a bit optimistic. The dance was sponsored by the Palo Pinto Rural Fire association.

Dancers and spectators from nearly every community in the county, as well as some from outside the county, were present. John R. Winter was master of ceremonies. A. H. Brackeen spoke briefly at intermission giving a brief history of the fire organization. Tom Jordan, fire chief, and all members of the association cooperated in entertaining the visitors.

Music was by Marvin McCracken's orchestra. There was round square and folk dancing.

W. P. Cameron, of the Mineral Wells Index, presided at the drawing for the Ben Hur deep freezer, which was awarded to Bill Little of Mineral Wells.

The fire association's treasury was enriched by approximately $800 after all expenses. The money will be used to pay on the building debt and for other fire purposes.—Palo Pinto County Star.

New Manager For Levelland Theatres Named

The Wallace Theatres announced today the appointment of a new city manager for the city of Levelland, Texas. The new manager will be Jeff Fulton Hardin who, will be assisted by his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Narwood Hardin.

The Wallace Theatre circuit operates in 8 South Plains towns and four of the 25 Wallace Theatres are located in Levelland.

Hardin was literally born in a projection booth. He got his start in the theatre business at a Cole Theatre in Bonham, Texas as a relief operator and circular boy. During the theatre pioneering days and through the dark depths of the depression, Hardin remained with his first love—the theatre and show business.

When World War II interrupted the routine of Hardin's life, he enlisted in the Army in 1942 and served in the Special services division as a theatre operation specialist at Atlanta, Nebraska.

After his discharge, he returned to the lone Star State where he became manager of a Crowell, Texas, theatre. Later he was transferred to manage a Slaton, Texas, theatre. He assumed the management of the Slaton theatre in October of last year.

Hardin is a hard-working go-getting manager who believes that a good showman knows no hours. He lives—breathes—and eats theatre business.

He is a Mason, a Rotarian, and is active in several brotherhood organizations. He is also active in veterans clubs.

Accompanying Hardin to Levelland will be his wife, who will act as assistant manager and bookkeeper for the conventional houses in that South Plains town. Jeff Junior will be the manager of the Wallace Ozoner in Levelland.

MRS. LELAND WEATHERLY and children of Ryan, Oklahoma were guests here last week in the home of her brother-in-law, Mr. Bill Weatherly and family.

Hosts for the occasion other than Mr. Nairn were Truman Doss, C. M. Cravy, Neal H. Rose, P. B. Ramby, Hume Russell and Jiggs Baker.

Following several indoor games the guest of honor was presented with a bassinet filled with "gags" and gifts, to which he responded with suitable words of appreciation.

Approximately thirty men were present, they were joined later on in the evening by their wives for refreshments. Mrs. Nairn, assisted by wives of the hosts, served as hostess.

--annegrams

— by ann england —

Slim Rogers was kind enough to give us an old bill sale last week—a reprint from 1849—we found it extremely interesting and think you too will enjoy it. It is being used in this issue of the Tribune.

It is hardly necessary for us to add anything on Country Club since Dr. Lawson is doing such a splendid job BUT the place is definitely looking mighty nice and more and more members are taking advantage of the club for late afternoon picnics—a round of golf after work etcetera.

The ladies meet on Tuesday afternoons—which is, unfortunately one of our busiest days.

We are the luckiest people. Roger Southall came out the very next day after his return from New York City and told us all about his trip while it was still fresh on his mind. He also brought a bunch of records from the musical shows he'd seen.

Pretty little Pat Metzner has been doing a stint of 11 p.m. until 7 a.m. duty at the hospital. She is a darling in her uniform. As the old song goes, "There is something about a uniform," and this holds true with the female as well as opposite sex.

Ran into a recipe that sounds perfectly fascinating. If we have bridge club or a group anyway soon plan on serving it. It is called Hawaiian milk float and is made as follows:

Hawaiian Milk Float
1 cup crushed pineapple and juice, 2 tablespoons sugar, few grains salt, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, 1/2 teaspoon ginger, 4 cups cold milk, 1 pint vanilla ice cream and 3 slices pineapple.
Combine ingredients except ice cream and pineapple slices. Blend thoroughly. Turn into cold glasses and top with vanilla ice cream. Garnish each glass with half a slice of pineapple, 6 servings.

Not long ago a subscriber of the Tribune remarked in our presence, "We certainly enjoy the Tribune—alho there's not much in it." Sort of chuckled—as we felt she didn't mean the latter statement quite as harshly as it sounded.

Reminded us of girl friend who had very little tact; alho extremely kind hearted and well meaning. One time she was visiting an older friend of her mother's in hospital and resemblance of the sick lady to another woman in town was mentioned (neither were at all good looking) our tactless friend exclaimed, "Oh, Mrs. so and so you are not nearly as ugly as Mrs. other lady."

Talked with Jim Roberson a few days ago. He mentioned that his folks had known the Weimhold family for years and years and had deep admiration and respect for them.

Have done a little sewing lately—decided a brown linen jacket was in order since changing basic color scheme. Made the thing in two and a half evenings of hand sewing. Had real good luck too, only got one sleeve in backwards.

Directions for sleeve putting in always confuses us; as any one knows there is usually twice as much sleeve as hole and it is quite an art "easing" that surplus.

Reminds us of the summer we made a suit from a discarded one of the spouse. Put the sleeves in and took them out five times, practically had the thing worn out by time it was finished.

Saw Mrs. O. D. Chesshir in town with her two boys the other day. Each time we think of it are amazed at the amount of time and effort she put in as secretary on the "Good Neighbor" project. Not only that but she kept up a nice correspondence from Famuliner Community to Tribune.

We certainly appreciate everything Mrs. C accomplished. Of course after keeping up with the fine people out in Famuliner Community through Mrs. C's column we feel as if we know each one personally.

Eddie Irwin and friend drove in from Indianapolis Friday; a 1300 mile trip that took 27 hours driving time. Gosh we were glad to see Eddie—told him we'd never again attempt to do another's work for nine months in order to hold his job open for him.

Think tho—in this case—it is going to be more than worth it. All of you can look forward to improvement in the Tribune. Eddie plans to start the sports news just as soon as he gets back and of course he will be responsible for ALL the City and County news.

We were trying to think just what title Eddie would have; actually he will be news and sports editor as well as assistant to the editor. Reminds us of a barber we once heard say, "I'm head barber in a one chair shop."

Anyway the Irwins will be back this week if nothing happens. They left Saturday morning for Indianapolis. Eddie graduated Monday morning—they picked up their son, Michael, and headed for Texas and Morton that same day.

They have a new car, a Chevrolet convertible, and we are so happy for them. Eddie said, "We walked, did without other things we wanted for years in order to get the car."

Another thing we are proud of is the fact that Eddie graduated among the ten top high in his class.

We would be amiss if we failed to mention Dot and the part she has played in helping E get an education. She has held down a job, had a baby and gone without a lot of things that most girls feel they just have to have, in order for Eddie to remain in school.

Unless we are mistaken the sacrifices made by both of them will pay off.

Thursday evening we were guests of Forrest and Ruth for a swim at the country club (Levelland), supper and the softball game. They are ideal hosts.

They were certainly pleased with progress being made on a public park for Levelland, the American Legion sponsored swimming pool has been started on the same tract of park land.

We thought it confusing enough when there were two Bills on radio station KLVT—that wasn't enough, they now have two chaps whose last names are Collins and two with given names of Wayne.

Received a note from Vern Sanford the other day to effect that Van Stewart, president of Texas Press Association, had appointed its chairman of the memorial service for convention in Fort Worth this week-end.

Fortunately on the committee with us are six others from widely scattered portions of the state: C. K. Kfick, Smithville Times; Clark Coursey, Brownwood Banner; Mrs. E. A. Kennedy, Chillicothe News (one of the other Ann's in TPA); Tom Whitehead, Brenham Banner-Press; Jack Howerton, Cuero Record and Mrs. Ross Woodall, Huntsville Item. So you see we can't go wrong with all this marvelous help.

The spouse says, "In less than six days after birth you learn to open your mouth and put your foot in it. Then it takes 60 years to unlearn the trick."

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Coffman visited here Wednesday night with her brother, Van Greene. Mr. and Mrs. Coffman were en route to Lamesa from a wedding trip to New Mexico.

Miss Betty Barnett, Charles R. Bills Married Recently

Miss Betty Jo Barnett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Barnett, became the bride of Charles Raymond Bills, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Bills of Whiteface, in a double ring ceremony in the Church of Christ, Spur, Texas, June 7.

The young couple will live in Whiteface after a short trip.

J. V. Davis, minister of the Austin Street Church of Christ in Levelland, read the rites before an altar decked with greenery and pink flowers lighted by tapers. Transcribed voices of the Abilene Christian College a cappella choir furnished music. Miss Colleen Turner of Fort Worth was maid of honor for her cousin and Mrs. Melvin Starcher was matron of honor. S. J. Bills of Whiteface was his brother's best man and J. E. Bachman and Melvin Starcher were ushers. Junior bridesmaids were Merry Dee McArthur and Everetta McArthur.

The bride wore a pink slipper satin gown with a fingertip veil attached to an orange blossom tiara and she carried orchids. Her father gave her in marriage.

A reception was held at the Barnett home after the wedding.

LEHMAN NEWS

by Mrs. Charles Sanders

Mrs. Charles Sanders was hostess to the Lehman H. D. Club at her home last Wednesday afternoon, June 7. Mrs. Dale Pond gave a demonstration on salads and salad dressing.

The business session was in charge of Mrs. J. W. Pond, president.

At conclusion of club meeting the members surprised Mrs. Sanders with a house warming shower.

Attending were eleven members and these guests: Mesdames Minnie Beard, W. G. Freeland, M. B. Swanner and daughter, Mrs. J. W. Pond and Mrs. Bert Darland, brought cake and ice cream for refreshments for the group.

Mrs. Bledsoe will host the H. D. Club at the next meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sanders and Granddad Sanders were in Seminole recently for the home wedding of Miss Jeanette Ward to B. V. Terry of San Antonio.

Mrs. Sanders, aunt of the bride, served at the refreshment table at a reception for the bridal party following the ceremony.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Ward. The family formerly lived in Cochran county.

Dewain Smith, son of the Horace Smiths, is ill with chicken pox and complications.

Robert Nance, brother of Mrs. Charles Sanders and Mrs. M. B. Swanner, will be married June 16, to a girl from Alvin, Texas. They will be at home in Levelland, where he is employed by Staniland Oil Co.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Oh—My Aching Feet!

Other night just as I was settling down with a book and a mellow glass of beer, the wife calls down, "Joe—I almost forgot—you and I are going over to the High School and take dancing lessons!" Now, I can waltz with the best of them, so I put up a quiet struggle against going but it was no use. Turns out it was the class in square dancing. And from the look of some of the other men I judged wasn't the only one there who had been taken by surprise!

feet, and before it was over, darn if I wasn't actually enjoying myself. Going back next week, too!

From where I sit, we sometimes get an idea into our head for or against something and then hang onto it for dear life. Whether it's square dancing, or the right to enjoy temperate beer or ale now and then, we owe it to ourselves as Americans to take an open-minded attitude—that's even after we make up our minds about it!
