In Flanders Fields

By John McCrae

In Flanders fields the poppies blow

Between the crosses, row on row,

That mark our place, and in the sky,

The larks, still bravely singing, fly,

Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are dead; short days ago

We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,

Loved and were loved, and now we lie

In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe!

To you from failing hands we throw

The torch; be yours to hold it high!

If ye break faith with us who die,

We shall not sleep, though poppies grow

In Flanders fields.

Three Ballots Rattle Around In Absentee Box

Lack of interest in the general elections held in Cochran County was mirrored Tuesday in the final absentee ballot tabulation. County clerk Joe Pierce certainly didn't have to put on any extra help handling the absentee demand as 3 County citizens showed they were interested enough in the election to cast their vote despite the fact that they were unable to get to the polls on election day.

Two ballots from Whiteface and one from Bledsoe formed the complete absentee ballot vote.

West Plains Health Group To Liquidate

Directors of the West Plains Health Association in a meeting Monday decided to turn the Cochran County Hospital, which has been leased by the association for three years back to the county.

This decision followed a general meeting of the association last Saturday; at which time it was agreed by members to give complete authority to the board to make whatever disposition they thought best regarding the issue.

It was brought out during both the general and directors meetings that should the association be dissolved all stock holders in the association would be reimbursed for the original membership stock. After assets are liquidated refunds to stock holders will be pro-rated in a percentage basis. Amount to date has not been determined, a spokesman for the association said, but it is entirely likely that each stock holder will receive $45.00.

R. C. Strickland, speaking at Chamber of Commerce directors meeting and luncheon Tuesday noon said, "If we do the little things right here at home in promoting Morton and Cochran County the big things will take care of themselves." Mr. Strickland pointed out the necessity of selling Morton locally and the community at large. He emphasized importance of stressing a "buy it in Morton" program, pointing out that Morton has the same quality merchandise, comparative prices and facilities found in other small towns.

Grass Fire Doused By City Firemen

A grass fire which burned out of control in Northeast Morton routed the Morton Fire Department Tuesday afternoon before it was finally brought under control.

The fire broke out in a large vacant lot at Washington and East 5th streets. It had burned the grass away from a large area but got out of control and threatened four or five buildings including two trailer homes, two garages, and a home. Morton Volunteer Firemen rushed to the scene when the alarm was sounded at about 1:00. The fire was no match for the heavy hoses and was doused in just a few minutes. No estimated damage was reported.

Commissioners to Consider Leasing Of Hospital

Cochran County Commissioners' Court will consider the question of leasing the county hospital at a meeting Friday morning, November 24, according to a notice appearing on another page of this paper.

This action was taken by Commissioners' Court following a meeting of the Board of Directors of West Plains Health Association, at which time it was decided it was to the best advantage of the association to turn the hospital back to the county.

The West Plains Health Association leased the hospital from Approximately 7 per cent of Cochran County's citizens told the other 93 per cent who would run the county offices in the general elections held on Tuesday.

Unofficial returns from Cochran County showed definitely uneventful results as every Democratic candidate swept to victory by huge majorities as had been expected. But, if a vote of confidence from the people means anything, the candidates couldn't boast that they had it. The per cent of eligible voters, those who had paid their poll tax, that voted in the election was just slightly less than 25.

Statewide returns followed the general trend seen in this County with every major Democratic candidate claiming victory. One of the more interesting races was the contest staged by Ben Guill, Texas first Republican Congressman in years who was running for re-election and Walter Rogers Democratic candidate. Rogers won a very slim victory but only after Guill had surprised many by staying within 2,000 votes.

The official county vote was tabulated at 459 with a total of just over 1,600 paid poll taxes in the county. Governor Shivers, Ben Ramsey, and Price Daniel all received large majorities in the County with 30 Republican votes being cast.

In the county offices, W. M. Harryman's 439 votes placed him as top county man with Joe Pierce and M. C. Ledbetter right behind polling 438. County Judge elect Fred Stockdale polled 436.

County Health Association Met Saturday

Approximately one third of West Plains Health Association met in a called meeting Saturday afternoon, November 4, court room of Cochran County Court House. B. H. Tucker, president of the board of directors, had charge of the meeting.

Various board members explained present set-up of hospital and clinic; each pointed out the difficulties encountered recently in securing adequate qualified physicians for staffing the hospital and clinic.

Following the discussion, members voted to give complete authority to board of directors to turn the county hospital, now leased by association, back to the county if they found it to be to the best advantage. To date a report from board of directors has not been available. It is assumed that their decision on liquidation of the association will depend on whether or not they are able to secure a sufficient number of qualified doctors for adequately maintaining the hospital and clinic.

Cochran County Falls Far Behind On Total Cotton Already Ginned

Three consecutive nights of cold weather including two light frosts and a freeze may this week drastically change the Farm Labor Bulletin report for Cochran County which last week listed crop condition as fair, estimated production at 23,000, and no workers needed.

Through November 2nd, Cochran County had ginned a total of 360 bales of cotton, barely half as much as its next lowest competitor in the state. Late rains are now showing their effect on holding back the county's crop. Titus County in the Longview District is the next lowest producer of cotton to date with 600 bales ginned.

Here is how Cochran stacked up against neighboring counties in the report. Hockley had ginned 17,367 bales, had an estimated 103,400 bales, and crop condition was listed as good. Lamb County has ginned 6,000 bales with an estimated production of 70,000 and good crop condition. Terry and Yoakum had 7,800 ginned with crop in good condition.

El Paso and Hudspeth Counties, with their crop more than 80% ginned, led all counties with a total of 82,000 bales ginned. Bur Lubbock county promises to surpass that total and will probably produce more cotton than 51,000 bales already ginned and any other county with a total of

At 8:30 the organizations, complete with color guard, firing squad, buglers, and the Morton High School band will start their marching parade to the cemetery where Chaplain Stephens will conduct the memorial services. A wreath, made by the Legion Auxiliary, will be placed on each veteran's grave and a 21 gun salute will be fired. Taps will be sounded.

Veterans and spectators who will not take part in the march but will attend the services are requested to remain at the cemetery long enough to help transport some of the marchers back to town.

All those participating in the ceremonies and marching are requested to wear khaki as the uniform of the day. With others, the uniform is optional. Members of both the Legion and VFW are requested to bring both caps and lend one to a member without a hat.

The Legion Auxiliary will hold their breakfast at the Steak House on the same morning according to their president, Mrs. Carl England. They will not take part in the marching.

Guests at the Legion-VFW breakfast will be the entire Morton Band. Color guards for the day are Bob Dunham and Jack Deavers; color bearers, Roy Turner, J. C. Reynolds, Zeke Sanders and Buddy Culppepper; and sounding taps, Babe Vanlandingham, the echo, Buri Deavers.

The firing squad will be made up of Gordon Houghton, John Williams, J. B. Lilledahl, Jeff Cook, Mike Walden, Harold Key, Russel Hudson, Bill Deavers, Ross Cook and Olin Cooper with Houghton in charge.

It is hoped that Morton merchants will see fit to allow their veterans employees to report to work late on that morning and some merchants will be closed for the entire services. The memorial services are an annual affair and have been presented each year since 1946 without interruption.

A. J. Zuber Rites Held In Morton Saturday, Nov. 4

Sixty-six year old A. J. Zuber of Morton died last Friday evening of a heart attack while at his home. Mr. Zuber, a well known county resident for about 11 years had moved to Morton from Childress in 1939. He had farmed continuously since arriving in Cochran County, 2 miles south and 3 miles east of the city.

Funeral services were held Saturday morning at the First Baptist Church in Morton under the direction of Rev. W. C. Wright and burial followed in the Childress cemetery the same evening.

In addition to the widow, Mr. Zuber left two sons and six daughters. The sons, W. W. and W. T. both are residents of Morton. Daughters are Mrs. Wendie Combs of Morton, Mrs. Daniel Rozell of Morton, Mrs. J. E. Middleton of Carey, Mrs. O. G. Long of Parnell, Mrs. M. B. Long of Memphis and Mrs. J. O. Mills of Morton. Twenty-two grand children also survive.

Bledsoe FHA Girls Serve 45 Guests At Lions Dinner

Forty-five Morton Lions and their ladies were graciously received at Bledsoe Monday night as the Morton group held its ladies night session at the Bledsoe school house.

A total of 63 persons were served dinner by the Bledsoe Future Homemakers and then were entertained by group singing, fiddle playing, and piano music.

It was the first of a proposed series of "good will" meetings planned by the Morton Lions and members present termed it a huge success. The Bledsoe girls turned out a fine dinner of ham, sweet potatoes, green beans, rolls, cranberry jelly, coffee, and pie.

After receiving the official welcome from Bledsoeites, the Morton Lions and ladies remained for about an hour singing songs and renewing acquaintances with residents of that community.

Morton Girls Take Double Basketball Victory In Practice Games With Levelland Girl Cagers

A temporary lull in the football season gave the Morton girls basketball team a chance to exhibit some fine courtwork before a sizeable home crowd as both the High School girls teams came out victorious.

Perhaps the heralding of great things to come was the "A" String girls' 41 to 34 victory over Levelland. The two teams battled on even terms throughout the first half with Morton dropping behind at the half, 20 to 19. But, midway in the third quarter Coach Marcum's crew pulled into a 28 to 25 lead and they never again fell behind.

It was the fifth practice game of the season for the high school girls and they haven't been shellacked as yet. Their only defeats have come by margins of two and one points. Thursday, the team play of the Marcum girls was especially outstanding. They passed up plenty of opportunities to shoot while working the ball in under the nets. It paid off a dozen or so times with some wide open crisp shots.

Penalties were a major factor in the game with both teams just a little ragged for this early in the season. Morton however, definitely got the break in this department, caging 9 of their points via the charity stripe. Levelland cashed in on a higher percentage of free throws, converting 10 of 20 but also was charged with the majority of fouls, 18.

Betty Doyle and Glenda Kennedy led the Morton crew with 20 and 12 points respectively. However, Jones, Mills, Brown, Tucker and Williams turned in

Morton vs. Post Afternoon Affair Macon Announces

Morton fans have been advised that the final game of the season for the Morton Indians to be played at Post on November 17, will be an afternoon game starting at 2 p.m.

The announcement came from the Morton Superintendent's office this week. Subsequently, Radio Station KLVY announced that it would carry a play by play, live broadcast of the game that week instead of the usual recording and replay on Saturday morning.

Thus, for the first time this year, Morton fans will be able to hear the game exactly as it is played as reported by Wayne Robinson.

NETTERS ORGANIZE

Plans for the formation of an outsiders basketball team were revealed this week. The team plans to play as many games as possible this season including a possible challenge series with the Morton High School and grade school teachers.

fine jobs also. Pacing the Levelland scoring was Clarkson, shifty forward who dropped 14 points through the draperies. She was followed closely by Levelland's 5 ft. 10 in. center, Hill, with 12 points.

In the "B" string game, Morton took a 15 to 4 halftime lead and was never headed as they won, going away, 27 to 11. Janette Waller's 14 points paced the Morton girls with Shirley Wesson adding 6 for second honors. Baldridge, Fleenor, Allford, Thompson and Carter were outstanding in a game which featured teamwork by the Morton "B" string.

Bradbury Quintet Drops One Notch

The Bradbury bowlers dropped another notch in the Business Men's League at Lubbock last Wednesday night when they were able to field only a three man team and dropped two out of three games to league leading Furr Food.

The Morton boys, facing tremendous odds, lost the first game and then made a strong comeback to surprise the league by capturing the second game by a three point margin. They then dropped the finale.

The pin score in the first game was 718 to 656 with Speedy Coleman's 160 pacing the winners. Furr fired the exact same total in the second game with Bradbury's cleaning up 721 pins in a game that wasn't decided until the final man, Coleman had a chance to win the game for Furr's with a double in his last frame. He connected on the first strike but his second shot left the 10 pin and gave Bradbury's the win. In the third tilt, Furr gained a 812 to 741 margin.

Morton High Band Participates In ENMU Festivities

Members of Morton School Band participated in Homecoming ceremonies at Eastern New Mexico University, Saturday, November 4.

Two buses transported the students to Portales. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Danforth were sponsors for the group. Both Mr. and Mrs. Danforth are ENMU alumni.

The local band, along with bands from several other schools, marched in the colorful parade. A barbecue lunch was served at noon by Portales Chamber of Commerce to visiting band members.

In pre-game ceremonies Saturday afternoon Morton Band joined the other bands in playing the National Anthem.

TYE AND VAN SEE TEXAS AND SMU GAME

Tye Williamson and Van Greene flew down to Austin last Friday. They attended the Texas-SMU football game and visited in San Antonio before returning to Morton Sunday evening.

Showdown Week In District Pits Lobos vs. Cats

It's "showdown" week in the District 4-A Conference and at least three teams will have more than a passing interest in the results.

The long awaited meeting between Littlefield and Levelland will touch off the real fireworks with a cinch for the championship riding in the balance for Littlefield and a possible tie for the crown the quest of Levelland.

Over at Slaton the crippled Tigers will be host to Post but the Antelopes, expecting to win that game, will probably have a radio at their bench while they keep tab on the Littlefield-Levelland score. Should the Lobos pull an upset, the Antelopes would still have a chance to gain a tie for the crown.

As if all this hodg-podge isn't enough, the Morton Indians are dead set on climbing out of the District cellar and if they are to do it, this is the week it must be accomplished. Tied with Slaton and Brownfield at present, the Indians must whip the Cubs Friday while the Tigers are losing and would thus vault into fifth place in the circuit, their highest rating thus far this season. Muleshoe, playing out of the conference this week, would slip below the Indians in the event of a Morton triumph.

Last week, Levelland and Littlefield put the finishing touches on the advance speculation when they both trounced conference foes, each out to show the other that they have the strongest team. The pregame records and statistics will have to favor Littlefield by a touchdown but Levelland will point out that past records don't mean a thing.

Here's the conference standings this week:

Littlefield	6 0
Post	4 1
Levelland	4 1
Tahoka	3 3
Muleshoe	2 5
MORTON	1 4
Brownfield	1 4
Slaton	1 4

Indians Surveying Chances to Pull Out of Conference Cellar

The Morton Indians continue their late season effort to pull out of the District 4-A cellar and finish the season with a respectable mark as they meet Brownfield at the Cubs Stadium, Friday night.

The Indians go into the game as one of the most improved teams in the circuit with an upset triumph over Muleshoe and a great deal of anxiety caused Littlefield in their last two outings. Previously, after sustaining defeats at the hands of Slaton and Tahoka, the Indians were stamped as the league's doormat.

Had it not been for the fine showing that Brownfield turned in against Post last weekend, the Indians would have gone into the game a one touchdown favorite. Now, the oddsman are calling it a toss up with both teams capable of scoring punch under the right conditions.

As far as District 4-A teams go, Brownfield has a fairly heavy team but Morton counters with its heaviest first string in several years.

The Brownfield backfield features 165 lb. Howard Swan as its heaviest runner at tailback. Joe Swan and Nelson Graves share the halfback duties with Dale Cary operating from the quarterback slot. If Brownfield continues to shift its man there's no telling how the rest of the team may line up. But, in all fairness to Coach Toby Greer it must be said that his shifting paid off with a sizable degree of success last week as he shifted a guard and a half back to the end positions; and the heavier Swan into the backfield from an end post.

For Morton the story seems encouraging. All the boys have "recovered" from the bruising Littlefield contest and the same starting lineup that battered the Cubs should prevail. Fans will be looking for a diversified Indian attack featured by the jump passes of Lanar Burns but also heavily dependent upon the running of Kirby Lackey and Don Baldwin as well as Burns.

That We Might Be Free; They Died

Armistice Day is no more significant one year than it is in another. In peaceful years as in years of unrest as in times of economic stability, we dedicate Armistice Day to the dead, American soldiers.

It is a day set aside which we owe to those who have given their lives for us. It is a day which we should observe with reverence each year in which we are reminded of our debt to the words of our fabled President, Abraham Lincoln, "redeem our efforts" toward the preservation of peace.

No greater tribute can we give those honored dead than to celebrate Armistice Day, each year, as clearly today as they did on that famous occasion on which they were uttered. "It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this."

Saturday is Armistice Day. Plan now to spend at least one minute of that day in silence as a prayerful tribute to those American defenders who gave their most precious possession, their life. Plan now to spend at least a few minutes reflecting on what these Americans died for. Then, rededicate your efforts toward the preservation of peace.

No greater tribute can we give those honored dead than to celebrate Armistice Day, each year, in peace.

WHO'LL BE NEXT?

What would you do if tomorrow the Federal government were to announce a plan through which it would become your boss, setting forth the new regulations and conditions under which you would henceforth work and the standard salary or wage all people in your occupation would be paid? You wouldn't like it. You'd no doubt protest in every way you could. Most adult Americans have observed and even had some direct contact with political management and political regimentation. Very few would want a political bureau or ward heeler to take over their occupation, business or profession.

Of course, if I'm a plumber and you're a butcher and the politicians announce they're taking over the butchers and the livestock industry so we plumbers can have more meat to eat and at little if any cost, that might be a horse of a different color—at first glance. Until I'd had time to think twice, it might get my favorable attention. The butchers wouldn't like it, but of course they're outnumbered.

You're In Line

Upon thinking the thing through, I'd know the plan was a come-on for the Socialists; that after taking over the butchers and the livestock industry they'd have to take over the farmers and the feed mills because they're a part of the livestock industry; and the railroads and truck lines because they're necessary to transport both livestock and feedstuff; and the automobile manufacturers and box car and locomotive foundries because they make the vehicles of transportation; and the construction industry which builds the plants to house the box car and auto production lines and—oh! oh!—the plumbers! For who else would put pipes in those manufacturing plants to make them operate.

That's what is happening in England. There the Socialist Labor Party used medicine instead of meat as the first persuasive come-on; though they also promised "fair shares" of meat and bread and butter for everyone—without compensating effort. But the "fair shares" turned out to be hardly more than sustenance rations.

Results Warn Us

Before the English people had thought twice, the politicians and bureaucrats had taken over the profession of medicine and the physicians and hospitals for their compulsory health program which they said would not cost anybody much of anything. Then the Socialists went on from there. They're taking over the steel industry now because everything else they've socialized has, they point out, dependence upon this basic metal. A great many English people still haven't thought twice. They continue to live in a miserable Socialist austerity, propped up by American dollars, blindly hoping for economic miracles.

In America the political "medicine men" are proposing a compulsory health program which would socialize, or "nationalize" the American medical profession. Most Americans already have thought twice on this scheme and have refused to be taken in. But the entire leftwing press and a number of influential politicians and bureaucrats are keeping up a huge flow of propaganda for the something-for-nothing Federal medicine program.

Freedom Is At Stake

Our hypothetical butcher didn't want to become a pawn of the Socialists. Neither does the American doctor. The medical profession is fighting back. And in their fight every American citizen, young and old, has a stake—his individual freedom. If the Federal government, operating under no matter what "brand" of political philosophy, should take over the medical profession, it would be only a matter of time before every other business and profession—and every job—would fall within the grasp of the comparatively small group of "planners" who seek to become the ruling force in a Socialist America.

The medical profession has been slow realizing that its fight is not merely against socialized medicine but rather against Socialism itself. It realizes that fact now. The public should not be so slow in recognizing that the ultimate objective of the compulsory medicine politicians is not merely socialized medicine but rather the full socialization (and thus the destruction) of our great nation. We must keep our professions, our business and industries—our occupations—out of the hands of politicians.

Do You Know whether a wife can be forced to testify against her husband in a criminal case? Neither the husband or wife may be called by the State to testify against the other member of the marital relationship. Even after divorce, neither may be called upon by the State to testify about matters that were communicated to them during the marriage that would be against the other.

On the other hand, either the husband or wife, may be called by the Defendant to give testimony for the other, and on cross examination the State may not go into any new matters, and question him or her on any matters not brought out on direct examination.

There is one general exception to husband and wife testifying against the other in criminal cases. That exception is, that if one party is being tried for an offense against the other, that the injured party may testify against the Defendant in such a case.

Shivers Announces Drastic Action to Curb Traffic Deaths

A Governor's emergency traffic safety conference has been called for December 8 at Austin at 10 a.m. to take steps toward combating Texas' disgraceful traffic problem.

In a letter to Carl England, Safety Director for this area, Governor Shivers pointed out that Texas traffic deaths are up 23% over 1949 with a total of 1,660 deaths compared with 1,348 during the same period last year.

To curb the rising death and injury toll the Governor announced plans for stepped up traffic law enforcement, improvement of adjudication in traffic court, increased use of driver's license suspensions, and thorough traffic engineering.

Again Freedom Faces A Threat

Now, as in 1918 America girds itself for a struggle against those who have little faith in the common man. Once again America must show others that democracy is the strongest of all systems, where, without force, all men live as good neighbors. Let us follow the examples of those who, in previous wars, fought the struggle unselfishly and successfully.

Well, we feel greatly encouraged about the American Legion Auxiliary since last Thursday nights turn-out.

There are so many nice young women here with an abundance of pep, energy and "know-how... we feel that with the mounting interest being shown in Auxiliary it won't be long until these younger gals can take over.

Can't imagine WHY someone didn't call our hand when we introduced Wynelle Jarvis all around as "Mrs. Douglas." Of course her husband's given name is Doug but still we were completely off and expect our face to remain turkey red for some time to come.

We looked across at Jackie Carson and Dot Irwin and thought, no wonder Clyde and Eddie think they have the cutest wives in town, because both girls are very attractive.

Not only are we proud and happy to have the younger ones take an interest in activities of the organization but we are most grateful and appreciative of the dignified and stabilizing influence of some of our other members, Mrs. Walter Taylor, and Mrs. C. B. Markham are two that we have in mind at present.

Mrs. D. C. Bowman and Mrs. Roy Hill are doing something that we feel is very commendable; a chain pink and blue shower for Mrs. Bobby Rhine Mrs. R., who is expecting a baby within a few weeks, has been ordered by her doctor to remain in bed. It must help considerably toward breaking the tediousness and monotony to receive a gift each day.

At long last the Homer E. Thompsons have moved into their new home out on Grant Avenue.

Noticed Judge R. E. Stamford of Waco in town last Friday. He takes the Morton Tribune and never fails when renewing to compliment the paper—which we deeply appreciate.

How many spooks, goblins and what nots called on you Halloween night? We counted out treats to 34 and finally decided that if we expected to eat for the next day or so we'd best don sheet and mask and go out on a salvaging expedition.

Mrs. Turner Beard takes the prize tho—she said she treated 54. The Paul Goodmans had some over thirty callers while only 18 banged on the James St. Clair door.

Tom McAlister hasn't been much in the news lately—especially since Dr. Lawson stopped the Country Club gossip. However last Thursday we heard a juicy morsel on T. L. Mc that is just too good to let by. Some photographic friends of ours from Clovis, Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Davis, were in and as they left Johnnie said, "I must see Mr. Tom McAlister, as he bought some equipment from me, gave me a check but failed to sign same."

Mrs. O. D. Chessler, Tribune correspondent, of Faminler Community certainly turned in some interesting news from that area last week. We'd like to add our congratulations to the community for having such a fine civic minded couple as Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Steed, who have donated a plot of land as building site for a community building.

Faminlerites have worked long and diligently on this building project. We'd certainly like to see them get construction underway.

Last year they won a $100.00 cash award in a contest. They've quilted, made and sold pies, cakes and just about everything one could mention in order to get together a little money for their treasury.

A neighbor and a former one, Mrs. John H. Holloman, and Mrs. J. A. Vernon, have been somewhat under the weather lately. Mrs. Holloman is anemic while Mrs. V suffers from arthritis. Mrs. Vernon hasn't been really well since we moved to Morton but until just recently Mrs. H. got around with the speed and agility of a grasshopper; she is about the size of one too.

We had a very delightful as well as educational trip to Big Spring last Saturday afternoon and Sunday, where we attended fall convention of Legion and Auxiliary.

Have you seen the FARMALL painted white, with red wheels and gold stars?

BANKS & ROSS CO.

One of the most pleasant things about these affairs is getting to see and visit with people we are exceedingly fond of but seldom see.

Mrs. L. B. Elliott (19th District Auxiliary president) and her good looking spouse drove in just ahead of us. We enjoyed a visit with them and also two personable young men of our acquaintance, Waggoner Carr and Robert L. Kirk, county attorneys of Lubbock and Lamb county respectively.

Boy—Van Green, Tye Williamson, Artie Hicks and some of Morton's other eligible bachelors are certainly going to have to look to their laurels with the new lawyer, Bob Ziesenheim, in town.

Incidentally Ziesenheim is pronounced just as it looks as if it would be. Well almost. And he is a great big ol' good looking blonde.

We still think the spouse was right when he said, "Fun is like insurance—the older you get the more it costs."

Mrs. Carl Macon Presented In Book Review

Reviewing "Bells on Their Toes," by Frank B. Gilbreth, Jr., and Ernestine Gilbreth Carey, Mrs. Carl Macon presented the review at Book Lovers meeting recently when the group met with Mrs. Gene Benham.

In her review, Mrs. Macon gave the quotation "to get a ring on her finger a belle has to be on her toes!" and this was certainly true of the Gilbreth girls who had mischievous brothers examining, testing, and approving every beau who came in the house. This story was as entertaining as "Cheaper by the Dozen."

Mrs. Turner Beard, guest, and Mrs. Loris Tanner, new member were welcomed by the president, Mrs. Joe Gipson. Three resignations, Mrs. J. S. Harrison, Mrs. Elsie Gates and Mrs. Connie Gray were accepted with regret.

A refreshment plate was served by the hostess to Mrs. W. W. Smith, Mrs. Elizabeth Greer, Mrs. E. L. Willis, Mrs. Lloyd Miller, Mrs. Ermon Miller, Miss Mabel Ann Manley, Miss Lonora Jackson, Mrs. J. Are Our Texas Highways Being Destroyed by 1% of Highway Users?

This question is presented squarely for the first time by the Texas Tax Journal in its booklet, "The Case of the One Percenters."

Every Texan who wants good highways, adequate for 99 of every 100 users, should write for a free copy of this revealing booklet.

Approximately 99% of all Texas motor vehicles are registered for a gross weight of 20,000 pounds or less.*

All Texas taxpayers, including your Texas Railroads, have reason to be concerned about the high cost of constructing and repairing our highways and the prospect of building more costly roads made necessary by the operation of highway "box cars."

No one has any desire to bar vehicles of reasonable size from our highways, so long as each pays its fair share of construction and repair costs.

Other Texas taxpayers should not be required to shoulder the burden of a roadway system for highway "box cars", representing only 1% of highway users.

Every Texan interested in good highways without increasing the growing tax burden should fill out the coupon below and get a copy of this valuable booklet.

Tips on Expanding Cotton Acreage Offered By Head of Regional Soil Conservation Service, Louis P. Merrill

Louis P. Merrill, regional head of the Soil Conservation Service, has some timely suggestions for farmers who are considering expansion of their cotton acreage in 1950. Merrill fears that some farmers, with the lifting of government cotton restrictions, may do much of the good conservation work they have accomplished unless they choose their cotton land wisely and take steps to protect it.

Here are Merrill's recommendations for the farmer planning to increase his cotton acreage:

1. Put cotton only on land that is suited to cotton. Cotton land should be productive enough for a profitable yield and not easily eroded.
2. Legumes or other winter cover crops help prevent erosion and step up cotton yields from 25 to 100 per cent. Increased per acre yields can meet national cotton needs without expanding planting to unsafe land, Merrill points out.
3. Keep cotton off land where cotton root rot is common.
4. Think it over before plowing up good stands of grass. Farmers often net more from grass than from cotton, especially when they make full use of opportunity.

ties for grazing and seed harvesting.

In most areas, information on land suited to cotton is available, Merrill said. Landowners can make use of the help that soil conservation districts can give them in deciding what land can produce cotton profitably and without damage. In the plains areas of Texas and Oklahoma, nearly 5,000,000 acres of land now being cultivated are too shallow or unstable for cotton, a crop offering almost no resistance to the forces of erosion.

Legumes and other winter cover that have been planted can be worked into the soil next spring. These crops improve the soil, protect it against erosion during a danger period and offer winter grazing in addition to increasing the yields of the cotton crop that follows, Merrill said.

It is seldom wise to follow cotton with another crop of cotton, Merrill pointed out. However, when it is done, a legume cover between crops of cotton will help to control erosion, increase productivity and reduce cotton root rot.

Farmers have been getting more grass-conscious in recent years, the regional director said. More than 250,000 acres have been put in native grasses alone in Oklahoma and Texas during the last two years and still additional acreage in introduced grasses. On nearly all of this land grass for livestock is the safest and the most profitable use, and to plow up such plantings with the questionable prospect of a high cotton yield would be poor business.

Several grasses fit in well with rotations that include cotton,

Merrill said. Some of these grasses are blue panicum, weeping and sandgrass, king ranch bluestem and tall fescue.

It is urged that farmers keep in mind the other practices that are useful in conservation farming. Planting cotton in alternate strips with tall growing crops such as grain sorghums is essential in helping to control wind erosion. Stubble mulching, contour cultivation and terracing help conserve moisture and prevent erosion.

Soil conservation districts can help farmers needing assistance in making decisions on what land to plant to cotton and on how to use these lands to best advantage, Merrill said.

Health Officer Gives Praise To Newspapers

A highly placed state official has given Texas newspapers a pat on the back.

State Health Officer Geo. W. Cox, veteran of more than 13 years as head of the State Department of Public Health, called the Texas press a "most potent force in mass public education," and said his department invariably turns in that direction as the first means of reaching the people with information on health subjects.

"Texas newspaper editors and reporters have consistently shown an awareness of public health problems and have given unstintingly of much valuable space to stories relating to public health," Cox said.

"I can define public health in three words—mass public education," the health officer said. "Without newspaper cooperation, such education is literally an unobtainable ideal."

Pointing out the custom of rural people to read their local weekly or semi-weekly thoroughly, Cox said he was especially happy that these papers used that and local health department releases.

"It's one of the most valuable services a paper can render its readership, but then maybe I'm a bit prejudiced," he observed.

Radio is an especially valuable outlet for information relating to venereal diseases, Cox indicated, because of the availability of professionally prepared recordings on the subject. More than 100 Texas stations have used the recordings during the past year.

On the same theme, Dr. Cox said well over 600,000 persons have seen the Department produced motion picture short subject "What's the Disease?" in which syphilis information is presented.

4-H Club Facts Point Out Value Of Youth Group

A glance at the accomplishments of 4-H members throughout the nation reveals that 16 million quarts of food were preserved during the year; 100,000 acres were planted to gardens; they produced 9 million birds in their poultry demonstrations; they own one million head of livestock and the list could be extended to cover just about every job in the home and on the farm. They participated in many worthwhile activities such as farm safety, fire prevention, health work, soil conservation, wildlife conservation, tractor maintenance and a large group of others.

Their work is not limited however to producing and conserving the food and feed they produce for they devote much time to personal improvement programs. They participate in leadership training activities, citizenship work and group discussions that help them to better understand some of the important social and economic factors that are now at work in the world. They study and practice democratic procedures and are doing their part to develop the good-neighbor spirit at home and abroad.

Texas 4-H members are extending an invitation to the public to join with them in their observance of National 4-H Achievement Week.

Selective Service Sends Out First Call For Doctors, Dentists and Vets

First calls for examinations of physicians, dentists, and veterinarians were put in the mail recently by the state Selective Service headquarters.

Brigadier General Paul L. Sheffield, state director of Selective Service, announced this morning would involve 95 physicians, 42 dentists, and 54 veterinarians. Dates for examination are November 20, 21, 22 and 24.

The state director explained that not all local boards would give a call. A few boards in the state have no registrants of the type and some local boards are classified none.

as available for service, 191 in all.

This leaves a total of 347 physicians, dentists, and veterinarians of the first priority in the state. Those classified as available for service out of this number will be given December examinations.

Examinations will be given at Amarillo, Abilene, Corpus Christi, El Paso, Texarkana, San Antonio, Houston, Dallas, and Shreveport, La., being conducted by examining stations of the Fourth Army.

Lt. Col. Morris S. Schwartz, state deputy draft director, met Thursday with the state advisory committee of medical and allied professions, formed in accordance with the law, to discuss draft problems.

Meeting with the Selective Service representative were Dr. R. A. Trumbull, Dallas, chairman; Dr. George W. Cox, Austin; Dr. B. Carl Holder, Cuero; Dr. Hamilton F. Ford, Galveston; Dr. Joel L. Cochran, San Antonio, and Dr. Robert E. Windham, San Angelo.

General Wakefield said that national Selective Service headquarters has directed that all physicians, dentists, and veterinarians of the first priority be examined prior to December 15.

Telegraphic reports received from local boards Thursday indicated that a little more than a third of personnel in the first priority had been classified.

Letters To The Editor

Morton, Tribune, Morton, Texas.

Gentlemen: Our Mid-Century Fair this year was by far the best ever staged—and, a large measure of its success was due to the fine publicity and other cooperation given us by you and the other newspapers of this section of West Texas.

Of course, the many improvements on the grounds—paving, painting and improvements in various buildings, such as the concrete sidewalks in the cattle and swine barns, the service aisles in the cattle barn, modern lighting, and many, many other things contributed to the convenience and pleasure of both exhibitors and patrons; but, the publicity and cooperation rendered by the newspapers of the area was the big thing that got people to come and see for themselves these improvements as well as the splendid exhibits.

I have often said in speaking to Chamber of Commerce annual and other meetings that if the average town had to choose between a good newspaper and a Chamber of Commerce that it should choose the newspaper.

I honestly and sincerely believe this and because I do, both the officers, directors and stockholders of the Fair Association appreciate the support of the newspapers of this section more than I have words to express.

Suffice to say, therefore—"We Thank You."

Sincerely yours,
A. B. Davis, Manager
Panhandle South Plains Fair Association.

Applicants for positions paying $3,825 will not be required to show this experience provided their graduate study in social work included 3 quarters or 2 semesters of supervised field work in case work. For positions paying $4,200 and above the applicant's experience must have included or been supplemented by case work experience in a hospital or clinic. Indian Papooses Tounce Whiteface In Grade School Game Here, 25-6

The Morton Papooses turned on the steam Tuesday evening to subdue the Whiteface Cockerburrs with a fourth quarter double touchdown scoring punch.

Morton's lads rolled up a 7 to 0 margin in just three plays in the first stanza capitalizing on a short Whiteface punt and scoring on a 22-yard aerial from Jerry Don Mills to Don Macon. Whiteface came back to whittle the margin in the second quarter with a three yard plunge but the try for extra point was rushed and blocked by Kenneth Welch. At the half the score stood 7 to 6.

It was in the second half that the Hartgraves boys began to pull away. A third quarter drive by the Papooses was stalled just short of the goal and Whiteface booted out of danger. Then, on a surprise 30-yard aerial, Mills hit Macon again and the glue fingered end slipped over the goal for the second score. The Indians tried to fake a kick and pass for the extra point but an alert Whiteface defender batted the pass to the ground.

A fourth quarter plunge by Dick Greer added the Indians 3rd score. The play was set up by a 42-yard jaunt around right end and then Greer bucked over from the four yard line three plays later. Again the Paps tried to pass for the point and it was no good.

The fourth score was the beauty. After stalling off a determined Cockerbur attempt, the Hartgraves boys took over the ball on their own 38 yard line. On the second play, Dick Greer caught the Cockerburrs asleep on a bootleg run and he traversed the entire 62 yards around left end without ever being touched by a would be tackler. An attempted run of the extra point failed and the game ended right there.

Child Welfare Work of Legion Auxiliary Gets Underway Here

Child welfare, one of the major projects of American Legion Auxiliary, got underway at a meeting of the local organization Thursday night. Mrs. Walter L. Taylor, child welfare chairman, reported findings of a needy veterans family that had been investigated prior to the meeting. Members voted unanimously to extend financial aid to the family and help in providing clothing, and other necessities.

Mrs. Taylor reported that the father, a disabled veteran, is ill as well as two other members of the family, with immediate hospitalization recommended for one of the children.

In addition to help extended by the organization, individual members at the meeting decided to give the mother a personal shower.

Mesdames Taylor, C. B. Markham and Robert Cross, were appointed by the president, to attend to details of the shower and to purchase needed items of apparel for the child requiring hospitalization.

Other reports were heard from the financial program, membership, and poppy chairmen. Mrs. Bill Proctor gave final plans for the Armistice Dance which will be held at Veterans Hall the night of November 10.

An audited financial report was given by Miss Helen Butts, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. J. M. Waller, co-chairman of refreshment committee reported that soft drinks and coffee would be sold during the dance.

Mrs. J. A. McBee, membership chairman, reported sixteen 1951 members to date.

Mrs. Carl England, president, was in charge of the business session, which was held in Auxiliary room of the Veterans Hall.

Mrs. England asked that all members planning to attend the coffee party at eight o'clock Saturday morning notify either Miss Butts or Mrs. England by Friday afternoon.

At conclusion of business meeting, poppy wreaths were made which will be used in graveside memorial services Saturday morning, November 11 at Morton Cemetery.

Refreshments of coffee and cookies were served by Mrs. John L. McGee and Miss Helen Butts to Mesdames Taylor, England, J. A. Vernon, C. B. Markham, J. M. Waller, J. A. McBee, M. A. Silvers, Bill Harris, Bill Proctor, Bob Cross, Albert Morrow, Douglas Jarvis, Clyde F. Carson Jr., Edmund H. Irwin, G. E. Spiller and two Levelland visitors, Mrs. Pete Bridges and Miss Allene Curry.

The next regular meeting will be held Thursday night, eight o'clock, November 18. Mrs. J. A. McBee and Mrs. Bill Proctor will have charge of refreshments.

Health Dept. Inaugurates Plan To Protect Teeth

The Texas State Department of Health has undertaken a program to promote the fluoridization of municipal water supplies wherever necessary, according to Dr. George W. Cox, State Health Officer.

It has been proved that where drinking water contains 1.0 to 1.5 parts per million of sodium fluoride that less dental decay occurs, especially among those that have used the water since birth. Excessive amounts of fluoride causes mottling of the enamel.

The city water supply at Marshall has been treated for four and one half years. This has resulted in a reduction of 47 per cent in the decay rate among the age group 6 to 7 years. The younger groups receive earliest benefits from such a program but all ages have shown some improvement. Other cities adopting fluoridization of their water supplies are Austin and Corpus Christi, Fort Worth, Iowa Park and Breckenridge and some forty other Texas cities are seriously considering the measure.

The Texas Junior Chamber of Commerce in cooperation with the State Health Department and the State Dental Society has made this program its main health objective for this year for control of tooth decay.

Mrs. Ramby Hosts 1936 Study Club

The 1936 Study Club met with Mrs. P. B. Ramby Wednesday, November 1. Refreshment plates were served as the guests arrived.

The beautiful and spacious living room was decorated with arrangements of fall blooming irises and nasturtiums.

Mrs. Scott Hawkins presided at a business meeting. Mrs. Carl Macon was elected to membership.

The program was an interesting and instructive forum discussion of Aristotle's Philosophy of Ethics and the Nature of Happiness.

The leader, Mrs. J. B. Knox reported that the forum had found Aristotle difficult and prosaic. His philosophy both abstract and obscure.

Members of the forum were Mesdames L. F. Harzore, M. C. Ledbetter, J. D. Hawthorne, and Joe Gipson. They amid some heckling pursued happiness to its ultimate end. Happiness was defined as the result, or end product of virtuous actions. One member, humorously said, "One might be innocent but not virtuous before resisting temptation."

Ethics was defined as "The science of right conduct." Another pointed out that virtue itself did not assure happiness. "One must not only be good, but good for something."

Members of the forum are to be commended in that they made a mummy like mass of material come to life by giving it a modern interpretation.

County Borrows $1,000 From Polio Foundation

A check for $1,000.00 to help pay for medical care of local polio patients has been received by the Cochran County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. It was announced yesterday by Walter Taylor, Chapter Chairman. The funds were provided by national headquarters of the March of Dimes organization.

Foundation Chapters, the chairman declared. A late September rise in cases indicates there will be more than 30,000 cases before the year is ended, Mr. Taylor said, making 1950 the second highest polio year on record.

Up to October 31, 1950, the National Foundation had advanced $7,070,619.00 this year to Chapters whose funds were depleted by both new and carry-over cases, Mr. Taylor stated. Chapters able to do so have been asked to contribute what they can for epidemic aid to Chapters in hard hit areas.

At present the Cochran County Chapter is providing funds for the care, in whole or in part, of patients afflicted this year.

Around Texas with the Exchanges

It was a hot Poppy Day and her feet hurt. If she just hadn't worn those darn high heels . . .

Well, only a few more poppies left. Soon she could dash home and relax. Relax! What a laugh! She corrected her thinking to "dash home and start washing."

She began to wonder how the baby sitter was getting along with her three youngsters, but her mind kept coming back to her feet. Gosh, she wished she could step out of her shoes!

Well, she couldn't . . . so she might as well quit griping about her feet, her children and the washing. After all, this was the one day of the whole year she gave to those almost forgotten heroes—those poor hospitalized guys.

She twisted her pretty face into a smile:

"A veteran-made poppy for you, sir?"

The martyred voice that answered was tinged with sarcasm: "Do I have to buy one?"

That did it! That and the heat, and her aching feet, and her worry about the children, and her waiting washing. She shot back: "Would you rather have to buy on or have to make one?"

John Q's face broke into a slow, red smile as he breathed ever so softly:

"Sister, did you ever tell me off—and did I ever need it!"

The money he put into the donation box was folded.

Don't forget Poppy Day on November 11th.—Abernathy Review.

SCHOOL

The Anton school is refusing this week to take any additional pupils. Supt. Bridges stated Monday that every desk and in most cases, book was occupied and there was simply no room for other children, nor facilities for teaching them, as all classes were loaded to the limit with pupils, Mr. Bridges stated.

The school took up again Monday on a half-day schedule after being out for two weeks. It is understood that there was a difference of opinion among members of the board of trustees. Some insisting that the school should remain closed until the cotton harvesting situation is somewhat relieved, and others taking the position that to do so would work to the detriment of the school. This side won out and the school has been running until noon all of this week.

Those who opposed the reopening of school are pointing to the fact that many crews of Mexican laborers have left the county and gone where there is no school in operation. This desire of farmers to get laborers for the fall harvest is the crux of the whole situation, for the school could have refused to take on, or in, the transient pupils two weeks ago just as logically as they did this week.

It is being rumored that there will be a petition presented to the school authorities next Monday, urging that school be entirely dismissed until the rush of cotton harvest is over.

County Supt. T. O. Petty was in The News Office Wednesday and stated that parents of children who had been refused admission into the Anton schools had been in his office inquiring as to what course they could take to force the school to take the children as pupils. Of course there is nothing to be done as the school has no desks or other facilities to take care of them.—The Anton News.

4-H Club Members To Observe Annual Achievement Week

Texas 4-H club members, more than 113,000 strong, will join with the nearly 2,000,000 members in the nation to observe National 4-H Achievement Week, Nov. 4-12.

Working towards their 1950 theme, "Better Living For a Better World," 4-H youth have been a busy group during the past year. They have produced and conserved food, worked to make their homes more comfortable and attractive, helped to supply the extra labor needed to produce crops and livestock and furnished "know how" for making their farms more efficient and productive. During National 4-H Achievement Week, they will report to the nation on just what they have done. The local volunteer 4-H leaders and the outstanding members will be recognized for the contributions they have made to the welfare of their state and nation.

The officers of the 4-H clubs in Texas, their leaders and extension agents have made plans for achievement banquets, tours, achievement days and other special events for the week. Exhibits will be placed in show windows and 4-H members will tell service clubs, farm organizations, school assemblies and other groups about their work. The winners of state awards will be honored in many counties by their fellow members and leaders.

Cochran County 4-Hers will observe National 4-H Achievement Week Monday, November 13th with a pageant. The pageant will be held in the Morton Junior High School Auditorium. The high point of the program will be the crowning of the 4-H Club Queen. 4-H Club members winning county medals will take part in the pageant. The staging committee for the pageant is made up of three 4-Hers and one adult leader. The 4-Hers are Linda Stockdale, Ruth Williams, and Katherine Fleener. Mrs. Glenn Thompson leader for the Morton Junior High School 4-H Club is acting as adult councilor for the committee. All of the 4-Hers receiving medals and their leaders are assisting the committee.

Farmers to Vote For PMA Officers

Farmers of Cochran County on Nov. 18th will have an opportunity to elect the committee who will administer the Agricultural Conservation Program, Price Support, Acreage Allotment, Marketing Quota and other production programs in 1951.

Elections will be held as follows: Morton, PMA Office; Lehman, Store; Whiteface, Schoolhouse; Bledsoe, Brown's Grocery; and Neely Ward, Schoolhouse.

At these elections farmers will be voting for three members of a community committee and a delegate to the county convention where a county committee will be elected.

According to D. E. Benham, Chairman of the Cochran County PMA Committee, no farmer who is eligible to vote should pass up the opportunity to "voice" his choice of the three farmers in his community best qualified to administer farm programs in 1951.

In the chairman's words, "The coming year can be expected to call for decision and actions which will demand the most able leadership available. This places the responsibility of electing able committeemen on the shoulders of the farmers in each of the five communities in Cochran County."

CARD OF THANKS

To all the lovely people in Morton who were so kind and thoughtful during my recent hospitalization I want to say a great big thank you.

Your cards, flowers and other expressions of friendliness mean more than words can express.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Lee Taylor. 37c

Three Day Revival This Weekend at 1st Baptist Church

A week-end revival meeting set for Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings has been announced by the Morton First Baptist Church with Dr. J. W. Marshall, President of Wayland College, in the pulpit.

Dr. Marshall will bring with him a group of students from the college and Sam Allen, Girls' Basketball Coach at Wayland, and also the possessor of a fine tenor singing voice.

The meetings will start at 7:30 each evening with the sermon and singing on the agenda. Dr. Marshall has spent his entire career working with young people and formerly served as overseas secretary of the Baptist Foreign Mission Board in Richmond, Virginia. An alumnus of Texas Christian, Baylor, and Southwestern Baptist Seminary, he received his Doctor of Divinity degree from Hardin-Simmons.

The average dairy cow needs 12 to 15 gallons of drinking water a day.

Overcrowding leads to rapid spread of respiratory diseases in farm animals.
