BURNT BRANCH.

June 15.—J. B. Cutbirth has moved a "Batch outfit" down on his ranch, and his son, Will, will represent his interests in these parts in the future.

What is going to turn out so much better than was expected. The estimate is from 15 to 25 bushel per acre. When they thrash I will send you reports and we will see how their predictions "pan out."

The worms are on the cotton, and in some places have entirely destroyed it. They are confined to the younger plant.

Vegetables are in abundance and soon the yellow legged chicken will squall.

The gin plant at Dressy is nearing completion and will be ready for the fall crop of cotton; they are putting in a good outfit.

R. P. Ramsey has leased Mrs. Silas Edward's farm and pasture for a series of years, paying a moneyed rental in advance.

R. P. Odum and R. B. Garrett with their families, contemplate a western tour, visiting relatives and prospecting.

Rev. Mr. Hightower, of Cottonwood will preach regularly on the 3d Sunday in each month.

The continued rains of the past week has greatly interfered with all farm work, and materially with the harvest, but so far has not damaged grain in shock or standing.

J. B. Cutbirth is down helping harvest and doing around generally.

Geo. Saddler will "hit the road" in a few days for the "far and breezy west."

Mrs. Charley McDermott visited friends in these parts the past few days.

We have not had such crop and grass prospects since your correspondent has lived in the front.

We are pained to report the serious relapse of Mrs. Pitt Ramsey.

Rev. Mr. Herrington of Baird, stopped over night with us on his way to fill his appointment at Burkett on Sunday. Mr. Herrington will preach for us at Burnt Branch hereafter on each Saturday night before the 2d and 4th Sundays in each month, until further notice. All please bear this in mind and turn out, and thus encourage this earnest gentleman.
