Tickets for the rodeo and barbecue will be sold in advance. Those not wish ing to attend the barbecue may purchase rodeo tickets only in advance or at the gate, but, the har becue tickets must be secured in advance so the planning committee will know how many are to be ser

Ask Your Preacher

where the Bible says that all demoninations are branches of the same vine. You have heard that statement made many times, no doubt, when there has been any discussion of denominationalism. We know that the religious world is woefully divided with conflicting sects of every kind-

Not only do these denominations differ in name; they differ in teaching and practice. Their doctrines are in direct conflict with one another. In no sense is there unity, harmony or concord, but there is discord, disagreement and division. When I ask if God is pleased with a condition like this, we are told by many that it is perfectly all right, where the Bible says so-tions but to his disciples. And to his disciples Jesus said in verse 5: "I am the vine, ye are the branches." He was not speaking of denominations, for in that case He would have said: "I am the vine, they are the branches." But He did not say: "They are the branches." A number of disciples make a number of branches. Christ was the vine, the disciples were the branches; and each disciple in Christ was a branch in the vine. It took just one disciple to make a branch for Jesus said in verse 6: "If a man

This destroys the idea that Jesus referred to denomina tions as branches, for in that case, it would take a great group of men to make a branch, but Jesus said one man makes a branch. So this is not the passage that your preacher must find. If your preacher refers you to this passage, call his attention to the fact that one man is a branch, and that he must find some other passage. This one will not do, for it does not even begin to say that all denominations are branches of the same vine.

for all denominations are just branches of the same vine. Now if you have heard your preacher say that, please ask him

I have read the statement made by Christ in John 15:1-6 that is often relied on to sustain that idea, but it doesn't say anything that remotely resembles it. In this passage Jesus is talking to His disciples. He is not talking to denomina-

Plymouth's brilliant Forward Look styling gives you better forward visibility by letting you see more of the road directly ahead of the car.

If you ever have a blowout, your Plymouth has Safety-Rim wheels which help hold a deflated tire on the rim while you slow to a safe stop.

Plymouth's Oilite fuel filter is located back in the fuel tank to low-price 3.
