Coffman Is Grand Jury Foreman

Syd Coffman, well known, long-time county resident will head the Grand Jury that has been called to investigate matters of importance in the County, next month.

Coffman will serve as foreman of the 72nd District Court jury summoned on an order filed Friday in this county. It will be the same Grand Jury that was dismissed last April and would have regularly been called again in October. However they were summoned earlier to investigate possible irregularities that may have been detected in County records.

The jurors, all but one who was out of the state for the holidays, had been notified by Sunday, according to Sheriff Hazel Hancock.

The possible irregularities were discovered as a result of an audit of county books ordered by the Cochran County Commissioner's Court early last winter. The report is not yet completed but the preliminary checking showed some things that prompted District Judge Victor Lindsey and District Attorney Travis Shelton some Grand Jury investigation is needed. Just what were the nature of the irregularities has not been officially revealed. Shelton did say the delay in calling a Grand Jury was due to the fact that the audit was not yet complete.

The Grand Jurymen were ordered to meet at 10:00 a. m. on the 3rd day of August. Others who will serve on that jury with Coffman are: J. C. Wylie, Lee Belcher, Roy Alsup, Jack Carbo, J. P. Powell, Ed Burton, Lloyd C. Miller, Garland Brown, H. H. Rosson, Paul Goodman and John C. Tyson.

The order from Judge Lindsey read thusly: WHEREAS, it has come to the attention of the Court that some matters of importance to the County has arisen which should be investigated by the Grand Jury, it is hereby ORDERED that the Clerk of this Court certify a list of the Grand Jurors listed above to the Sheriff of this County, and it is ORDERED that the Sheriff notify the above named men to re-convene at the Court House of Cochran County, Texas, at 10:00 A. M. on the 3rd day of August, 1955.

The firm of Niemeir and Pierce Public Accountants were approved to conduct the audit of nine years of County books, last November 16 after several meetings of the Commissioner's Court were held.

The firm was hired on a per diem basis. The cost is $35 per day for a Senior Accountant and $28 per day for a junior accountant.

At that time, Judge Stockdale said the firm was chosen because of their experience in handling of County audit work. He said the firm was at that time "regularly auditing books for 20 counties."

Several firms had made bids though the state association of accountants frowned on this procedure, stating that a firm should be selected for their ability rather than for a price.

Niemeir was also the last man to audit the county books back in 1945 though he was associated with a different firm at that time.

Absentee Voting In July 16 Election Almost Closed

Voters are reminded that they still have a few days in which to cast an absentee ballot in the election called for Saturday, July 16.

There are two issues. First, shall the County separate the offices of tax assessor-collector and Sheriff into two separate offices, or shall the offices remain combined into one as they now are.

Second, shall we allow the Commissioner's Court to split the 30 cent county tax money into the funds as they have the past six years, putting more into the general fund and less into the jury fund than is called for in the law now on the state books. This last move, is perfectly legal, if the voters so desire.

Both issues are clear cut and have been explained in the Tribune. If a voter has not understood either or both of the issues, they should inform themselves, and by all means vote. And, if they are going to be out-of-town on Saturday, July 16, they by all means should cast an absentee ballot this week at the office of County Clerk.

Three Pay Fines For Disturbance

Three Morton Latin Americans paid disturbance fines and at least one was having to pay another fine as the result of a fight while in jail, Saturday night.

Joe, Manuel and Guadalupe Flores were brought in for disturbance, and on Monday they paid fines in City Court. But while in jail one or more of them blacked the eye of another prisoner. Manuel pleaded guilty to the charge of affray. But the other two were to reappear before City Judge Alvin O'Pray this week in the presence of the man who was beaten up so he can state whether or not they had a part in the beating.

The man who received the black eye had been booked for being drunk and had paid his fine and was released before the Flores brothers were brought before the City Judge.

Otherwise, the weekend was far quieter than local law enforcement officers had anticipated.

If you have a pet to be inoculated, don't forget the date and time next Saturday, July 9, at the City Hall, in Morton. It will only take a very few minutes and will cost only $2.50 per animal.

MAN PAYS FINE HERE ON EACH HOPE CHECK

Jim Sides, the man Morton officers had sought for several months on checking charges, and who had had checking charges against him in several other areas towns, has made his peace and has been released.

Sides, who now lives in Yoleta, paid $25 on each checking violation in County Courts and paid a smaller sum for each charge in JP Court and then arranged to pay off all the other fines in the other cities, and was released.

Three Way School Issues Report On Finances; Need Ag Teacher for Fall

For the benefit of all interested, Sgt. Archie Sims of Three Way School, this week released a complete financial report on the district from July 1st, 1954 until July 31st, 1955. Here, in Mr. Sims own words, is the report.

During the past year there have been several improvements made to the Three Way Schools. In July and August of last year, all buildings were remodeled. A new 3-bedroom home was built for the Superintendent. The lunchroom was completely remodeled. The inside and outside. A steam boiler was added to the lunchroom. As well as other minor repairs and equipment. Both the lunchroom and agricultural building were repaired.

This summer, all classrooms, library offices, rest rooms, home-making cottage have been repaired and repainted. The 4-room bus just west of the Superintendent's house has been completely decorated. This house, formerly occupied by the school district assessor-collector, will be occupied by the homemaker teacher for the next year. The tax assessor-collector has moved his office to an apartment in the school tracks. About $500 worth of new books have been added to the library. A wire screen has been installed in the library to separate the book stacks from the reading room. Other minor improvements have been made and the overall cost of work done is $1,500.

The school financial report reveals that at the beginning of the school year, the past session, the school owed about $8,000. The school had a very small carry-over, transportation fund had no money and the athletic fund was in the red. Now, when all salaries of the 1954-55 school term have been paid and all money received from the state, the school financial balance will look like this:

Balance in the local maintenance fund, $376.42. Transportation fund, $2,323.04. Lunch room fund, $108. Athletic Fund, $90.36. There are no outstanding bills against the school district, the athletic fund or the lunch room. All money due the lunch room was collected except $36.75. The school has purchased two buses and one chassis. The cost of these buses will be $7940.77. When all of these buses have been paid for the school will have a deficit of $5407.71 in the transportation fund. The state pays for all transportation. The two new buses will be used on routes 15 and 16. The chassis will probably be used on bus route 18. The school will operate 8 buses next year instead of seven. The reason for this is that the district will transport the Negro pupils to Morton. Up to this time Morton has been transporting these pupils.

The faculty is complete for the 1955-56 school term except for an agriculture teacher. Mrs. Nan Dyer will be the homemaker teacher next year. She holds a master's degree and has taught at Post for the past four years.

Grade school faculty for next year will be: Miss Vada Frasier, Gerald Edler, Beryl Green, Mrs. Katherine Sims, Mrs. Juanee Green, Mrs. Olen Lyons, Clyde Lyons and Sam Green. Green will be grade school principal.

High school faculty will consist of John Criner, as High School Principal, Mrs. Nan Dyer, Home Economics, Mrs. Laverne Green, English, Claude Spears, coach & Sims, Supt. The district is still without an ag. teacher.

Mrs. Dess Stafford will be lunchroom supervisor assisted by Mrs. Evelyn Bridges and Mrs. Minnie Mae Reeves. The bus foreman will be Garvin Bridges and custodian, Oran Reeves. Carey Stafford is assessor-collector.

The school will host an open house the latter part of August for all patrons.

City Notes Progress on Water, Sewer Additions; Well Drilling Is Completed

The City of Morton was progressing very well on its latest project, the addition of water and sewer lines and the addition of a water well to augment the present overtaxed water supply, according to Van Greene, City Secretary.

Greene said Wednesday that the well is completed, drilled and cased but not tested, and also added "it looks like a good well." He said he expected the well to be tested later this week.

Two truckloads of the sewer pipe have been strung and all the water system pipe was due to arrive in Morton, late yesterday.

The City boys are expecting to start the ditching today. All the fire plugs have arrived. The cast iron fittings for the well are not in yet but should arrive within a few days, Greene said.

The City Secretary advised all persons who are going to want a riser behind their property to say so immediately while workers get ready to lay the water and sewer lines.

Duties, Power of Grand Jury Explained

(The following is published in the interest of the general public, that they may become more versed in the workings of our Constitutional government.)

The Grand Jury has almost unlimited powers of investigation as long as it confines itself to matters that directly bear upon a criminal complaint.

That's the official word from the Texas law books.

Several persons have asked just how far the Grand Jury is allowed to go in carrying on its investigations? What are their powers? Who can they summon? Just how secret are their proceedings?

These and many other questions have been asked as Cochran County men contemplate what may be the outcome of a calling of a special Grand Jury meeting, set for August 3.

Fact is, the Grand Jury can call any person to appear before them; can ask them any question that either directly concerns a criminal act or may lead to the detection of who committed a criminal act; may demand that questions be answered; and is sworn to secrecy of all that is divulged in Grand Jury meetings except that if a man admits criminal guilt before the Grand Jury and then later denies it, a member of the Jury can be sworn in at his trial and can divulge that the guilt was admitted in the Grand Jury proceedings.

How does the Grand Jury know just what to do? Well, sir, they are instructed before they go into session. They know just what they can do. Though the jury is under the direction of the foreman, they may call upon an attorney for legal advice and the District Attorney is on hand to aid them in getting at the matters they wish to investigate.

Should a man refuse to answer questions, he may be jailed until he does answer, providing, the Jury does not disband.

If he should be found guilty of evading the summons serving he also may be fined. If a member of the Grand Jury divulges information, he is liable to fine and a 5 day jail sentence.

However, the question he must answer, all hinge upon the word "proper." The questions must be deemed proper, that is they must have a bearing on the criminal complaint charged.

Can a man refuse to divulge information on the grounds that it may mean financial loss to him? No. But Grand Jury information cannot be used as the basis for a civil suit against him.

temporary services of another top rider during the match when R. H. Baker injured his leg.

Under the rules set up for the polo competition, the match was doubly important for the Morton team in that they won the series with Lamesa by scoring more in the two game series than their opponents. Lamesa had won the first game in the series by a one point margin.

The local riders lost to Lubbock 5-2 and must beat the Lubbock team when they play the other match, by at least three points to square that series. They lost to the veteran team of the league, from Terry County, 6-1 and have a long haul ahead of them to top this team.

Clovis' Sinclair Oilers handed Maple a blistering 16 to 5 defeat in the opening game of the League's National Softball Tourney on Tuesday to advance in the championship bracket and await the winner of tonight's first game.

Maple, hampered because several of their top pitchers failed to appear, got a good pitching performance from Don Lamar but they were unable to solve the Clovis pitcher's offering and went down in defeat in a game that was halted at the end of six innings.

The more defeat will oust them from the tourney.

AFTER WHAT SEEMED like almost an eternity to those who wanted to see it go on and were holding their breaths for fear it wasn't going to be held, the Rodeo is set finally and plans are underway, no doubt.

WE WON'T AGREE with everything the present directors decide to do, and neither will many of you readers. But the important thing is that it is being planned. We are always prone to want someone else to do our thinking for us, that is, people in general are, so we hope they'll accept the plans and give it their whole hearted support. We're going to need support on the rodeo because we're a little later than usual in getting started on the planning. But it has been proven many times, with the support of the people, such an endeavor is bound to be a success.

OF THOSE WHO were afraid we were going to get started just a little too late this year for a rodeo. Not that we are overly fond of rodeos, we're not. But the rodeos we've had here in the past have been good for the people and the community. They give people something to look forward to, to plan for, at a time when many of our people are just sitting by and anxiously wondering whether or not it's going to rain. In other words, it looks to us like the rodeo is good for taking people's minds off their worries.

A GOOD RODEO and a grand time for everyone. For the first time in the history of the Texas Last Frontier Rodeo, there'll be a barbecue for everyone. The only hitch is the barbecue tickets must be purchased in advance so that they'll know how many people to fix barbecue for.

THAT WE'RE HAVING a new stock contractor is no reflection on the job done by Willis Branscum the past few years. He has always brought us top flight stock for the show. But this year Willis is in the hospital a very sick man, and we regret he'll not be with the show this time.

ONLY THE basic plans have been announced. The details will come a little later. But the plans are in the hands of four very capable directors chosen by the sponsoring clubs and a fifth who the men themselves selected because they could work with him. That's about all the insurance anyone can ask for in preparing a show.

NO OFFICIAL WORD from the Courthouse as to just what the Grand Jury may find when they conduct their investigation next month. We've been asked so many times why we have no official word and why we don't go to the man who can give us some official information, we feel obliged to say this in order to clear up our stand on the issue. The man who has the official information would be the auditor. He is not responsible to us, or for that matter, to any of the individual people of Cochran County, except those men who hired him to do an auditing job for us. After all, we can't all of us run the government. That's why we elect men to do it for us. As we see it, the Commissioner's Court is the group the auditor is responsible to. It's their job to see that he gives them a report as often as they want one and it certainly isn't the auditor's job to tell something to the newspaper he hasn't even told the boys on the Commissioner's Court. For that reason, we haven't even tried to talk to the auditor. We have only a few alternatives in a case of this kind for any official word, we could...

GET IT FROM the Commissioners, if they had anything to say. We could get it from the District Judge or the District Attorney if they had anything to say. And, as a matter of fact, the only official word we've had to quote came from the District Judge and the District Attorney. The other way we could have something official to say is if a party interested or involved in the proceedings would have any kind of statement to make to the people. It has nothing...

TO DO WITH the rights of the people to know and with the freedom of the press. Its purely a matter of procedure and ethics. It has nothing to do with the duty of the Commissioner's Court to the people. The Court, as we see it, is certainly in a position to demand the auditing firm to produce the records and interpret them to the Court, if they so desire. They are not only in a position to do so, but they may have an obligation to do so. Notice we say, MAY. We're not exactly sure where their obligation is in this case. We know if we were working in the Courthouse, we'd be mighty anxious to have the Commissioner's Court, or anyone else to do something. Until the situation is straightened up, everyone in the Courthouse has a black eye. So, it looks like the Court should find out something, if even only so they can say, we do not choose to make a statement, rather than to have to say we don't know anything. But then, that's their job to decide whether or not to demand a statement from the auditor, even if he hasn't finished his report.

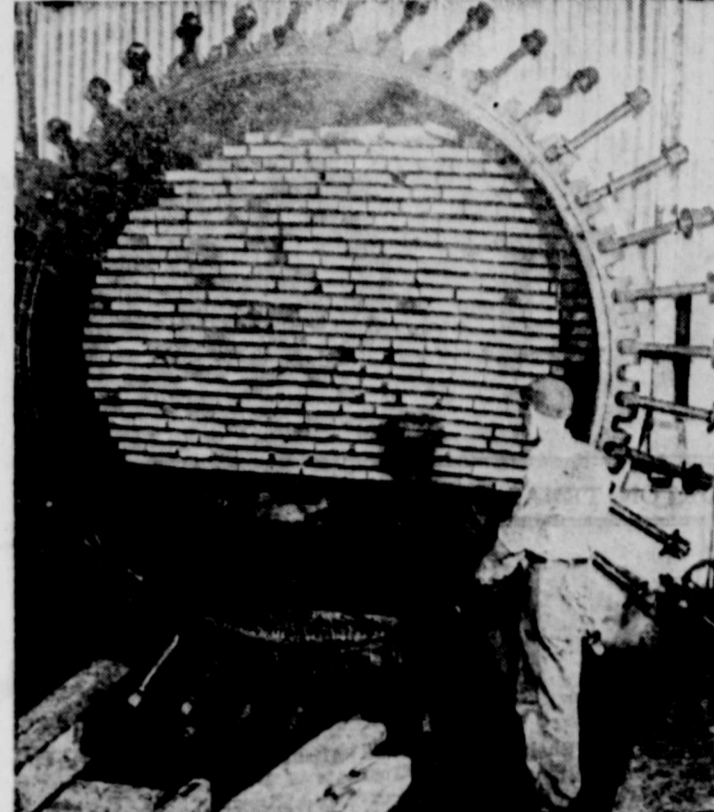

DO HAVE A right to know exactly what is going on, and the Court should publish whatever information they feel the people should know. we still insist...

IF THE COURT had been keeping their reports to the people up to date they would have had to demand reports from other offices, and consequently, this mess never would have occurred.

OVER THE holidays was the swimming pool but as has been the case over the entire early portion of this summer, windy afternoons still kept lots of folks out of the pool. That unusual type of weather has, more than any other single factor, been responsible for the dwindling attendance at the pool.

Lumber Turned Into Termite Killer

The cylinder has just finished impregnating southern pine with "Wolman" salts, a solution that makes the lumber termite-proof, decay-proof, mold-proof, leech-proof and more fire resistant than untreated lumber. The salt solution termite-proofs the lumber after it is pulled through the wood and under a near absolute vacuum and is then pushed back through it under extreme pressure. This treated lumber, used for sills, posts and girders, exterior siding, floor joists, bridging and headers, sub-flooring and skirting below the first floor level, makes a home completely termite-proof. The additional cost of "Wolmanized" lumber—which can be sawed, nailed, painted and finished as though it were ordinary lumber—is about $100 for material costs in the average home. The lumber can be purchased through your local lumber dealer, or if he is out of stock, by having him write Frost Forest Products Division, Olin-Mathieson Chemical Corporation, P.O. MUCH INFORMATION in last week's time for printing, about the Posee Polo team's victory in the game with Plainview. Yanks Leading Indians By Four Full Games

The Yanks posted their fourth victory of the Pony League season on the local diamond last Saturday evening in a thrilling bout that saw the potential tying run nipped at the plate for the final out of the game. Jimmy Little doubled to the fence, took third on the bobbled relay but was out by a whisker in a very close play at the plate. The Yanks were 6 to 5 winners.

The Indians had previously won two of the games but their managers and sponsors announced an ineligible player had been discovered and they voluntarily forfeited the games. It left the Yanks with a 4 and 0 record in the local league play.

Getting credit for the victory was Middleton who pitched tight steady ball until the final inning when he weakened a little to let the potential tying run nearly get home. The Yanks piled up their margin a run or two at a time as they got men on base in nearly every inning. Mike Miller was tagged with the defeat although he hurled creditable ball.

4-H CLUB NEWS
 Three clothing workshops for Club girls have been scheduled for July. Each group will have periods with an added extra if it is needed.
 Arrangements were completed to the meeting at the following times and dates:
 Whiteface High School Clothing Laboratory at 8:45 on Tuesday morning, July 5, 12, and 19.
 Redwood High School Clothing Laboratory at 8:45 on Wednesday mornings, July 6, 13 and 20.
 County Activities Building, Morton at 2:30 on Monday afternoons, July 11, 18 and 25.
 Each club member was sent out with the above information and the girls were advised they attend at whichever place they find most convenient.
WETTABLE CANNING
 A one-step, cold-pack method of canning is making the job of home canning easier than ever, on certain vegetables. This new method can now be used for canning fresh lima beans, snap beans, carrots, cream style corn, whole kernel corn black-eyed peas, English peas, and summer squash.

 The directions are simple — as an example take snap beans. Begin by washing all pint or quart jars in hot, soapy water and rinse well. It is not necessary to sterilize jars since the pressure canner must be used in canning all non-acid vegetables.
 Use only fresh, young tender beans. The bean should be just beginning to form in the pod. Wash thoroughly, trim ends and cut into one inch pieces.
 Thus far, there is nothing different from the old method of canning snap beans. Now you will note the fill is different.
 Pack raw beans tightly into jars to one half inch from the top. Cover with boiling water, again leaving one half inch space at the top of the jar. Add one half teaspoon salt to pints and one teaspoon to quarts.

 Close jar with two-piece lid and place it in the pressure canner. Exhaus; canner for 70 minutes, close petcock and process at 12 pounds pressure — pint jars for 20 minutes and quart jars for 25 minutes. Remove canner from heat, let the pressure return to zero and remove the jars.
 While this one-step method is used for the vegetables listed above some of the processing time is different. They will be printed at a later date, or you may call at the office to get this information.
ANTS
 There are few insects which have caused more trouble to the housekeeper than ants. Everyone is familiar with the fact that when ants have invaded houses, the workers will be found crawling over any food that is to their liking, bits of which they cut off and carry to their nest. Some species also cause injury by establishing their nests in the sills and woodwork of old houses; but as a rule, they do not attack perfectly sound wood. Other species throw up mounds of earth about the entrance to their nests, disfiguring lawns and walks. Some species obtain a part of their food from the sweet sticky, honeydew given off from the bodies of aphids, scale insects, and mealy bugs, and these species may establish and protect colonies of these insects on plants out of doors or in green-houses or residences.
CONTROL — The best known insecticide for the control of all types of ants is chlordane. Spraying the interior of the house where ants are commonly seen, with a two or three percent chlordane household spray usually gives temporary relief. A more permanent control can be obtained by treating the premises of the house to eliminate the colonies, thus preventing re-infestations. Chlordane is also the insecticide to use for this treatment. A two percent solution, made either from fifty percent wettable powder or the emulsion form may be used. Either of the two wettable forms will not injure flowers or ornamental shrubs. If the colonies can be found, a half pint of this material should be poured over that particular area. If it is not possible to find the colonies, thoroughly spray the ground for a distance of three or four feet out from the house, and also spray the side of the house for a distance of two or three feet above the ground. This should prevent ants from entering the house. A five percent chlordane dust may be substituted for the liquid form if desired.

"JUST WAIT AND SEE!" — Tiny Timmie Lee Brashear, three-week-old patient at the Texas Scottish Rite Hospital for Crippled Children at Dallas, looks confident he will be on the "first string." The son of Mr. and Mrs. Billie Ray Brashear of Sadler, Texas, he was born with congenital club feet but the crippling condition will soon be corrected and he will be able to lead a normal boy's life. Holding him above is Mrs. Lucille Covington, a nurse's aid at the hospital. Timmie, like thousands of other Texas children, will be a member of the Scottish Rite Hospital until he is 15 years old and will be eligible for treatment until that time.

Miss Carolyn Cox, Don McDermett Exchange Vows In Wedding At Methodist Church, Friday July First

In a candlelight ceremony, Friday evening at 8 p.m. at the First Methodist Church of Morton, Miss Carolyn Cox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Cox, became the bride of Don McDermett, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McDermett. Both families are prominent residents of Morton.

Beneath an archway of orchid flowers and greenery, the double ceremony was performed by Rev. Clarence Stephens, pastor of the Methodist Church in Mule Lake. Rev. Stephens, former pastor of the local church is also close friend of the two families.

Two large baskets of orchid and carnation flowers and tapered candles flanked the archway. A pyramid candelabra formed the background for the arch.

Pre-nuptial music was played by Mrs. Pegues Houston. Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Bill Proctor sang "Because" and "Eternally," and at the close of the ceremony she sang "The Lord's Prayer," as the couple knelt beneath the archway. Mrs. Houston was attired in a blue dress with a corsage of pink asters and Mrs. Proctor wore a cocktail gown of pink asters with a corsage of pink asters.

Ushers were James Wolfington Lubbock, friend of the bridegroom and Ed Knox and Jack Russell of Morton, school mates of the couple.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in a wedding dress of Chantilly lace and tulle over white taffeta. The fitted bodice of lace was cut in a deep point in the front and back and an applique motif of lace accented the point.

The low cut neckline was fitted with illusion and a small standing collar of lace finished the edge. Iridescent sequins and seed pearls trimmed the neckline and the lace motif at the waistline. Long sleeves came to petal points over the hands.

The floor length skirt of lace over taffeta was worn over crinolines. A knife pleated inset of tulle was set into the skirt, forming a panel down the front.

Her fingertip veil of imported silk illusion fell from a tricorn lace hat outlined around the edge in pearl embroidery.

The bride carried her grandfather's white Bible which was topped with an orchid. For the traditional something old, she had two early coined pennies given to her by friends, Mrs. Roy Hickman and Mrs. Virgil Riley. Something blue were the garters from her Maid of Honor and Mrs. J. C. Stripling. Borrowed was a wedding ring from her grandmother, and the wedding gown was new.

Junior bridesmaids were Mrs. Ian Cox, sister of the bride and Mary Lee Ledbetter. Judy Johnson, college friend of the bride was bridesmaid and Nancy Blackley, close friend of the couple, was Maid of Honor. All four young ladies were attired in identical waltz length orchid gowns of crepe-line over taffeta. They carried colonial bouquets of purple asters tied with three shades of purple ribbon. Orchid fluted net bandeaux were worn on the head.

Candlelighters were Willard, Jr., brother of the bride and Mike McDermett, cousin of the bridegroom. Jay Wayne McDermett, also cousin of the groom, was ring bearer and carried a cane on which the ring was fastened. He was wearing a white suit, white shoes, and a midnight blue bowtie.

Jeanette Childs, dressed in an orchid crepe-line floor length dress with bouffant skirt and a cowl neck was flower girl. She wore a flowered bandeau.

Serving his son as best man was

J. W. McDermett. The ushers stood in attendance with the groom during the ceremony. The groom, best man ushers and candlelighters were dressed in identical summer tuxedos and white dinner jackets, midnight blue bow ties and blue carnation boutonniere.

Mrs. Cox, mother of the bride, wore a black pima silk afternoon dress with white hat, gloves and shoes. Her corsage was an orchid colored orchid.

Mrs. McDermett, mother of the bridegroom, was dressed in a lace over white afternoon dress, toast and white colored hat and shoes and lace gloves. Her corsage was a brown orchid.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cox.

The bride's chosen colors of three shades of purple were carried out in the refreshment table which was laid in orchid and purple lace cloth over purple. Purple streamers with "Don and Carolyn, July 1, 1955" lead from the three tiered wedding cake to the corners of the table. Decorated in orchid and white, the cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom and formed the centerpiece for the table.

Large bouquets of flowers decorated the reception room.

Mrs. Roy Hickman served the wedding cake with Mrs. L. B. Childs, Mrs. Charles McDermett and Mrs. Opal Priddy assisting in registering of guests and at the tea service.

For her going away costume, the bride chose a grey silk linen with white accessories and wore an orchid corsage. Following a wedding trip to New Mexico and Colorado, the couple will be at home on College Avenue in Lubbock.

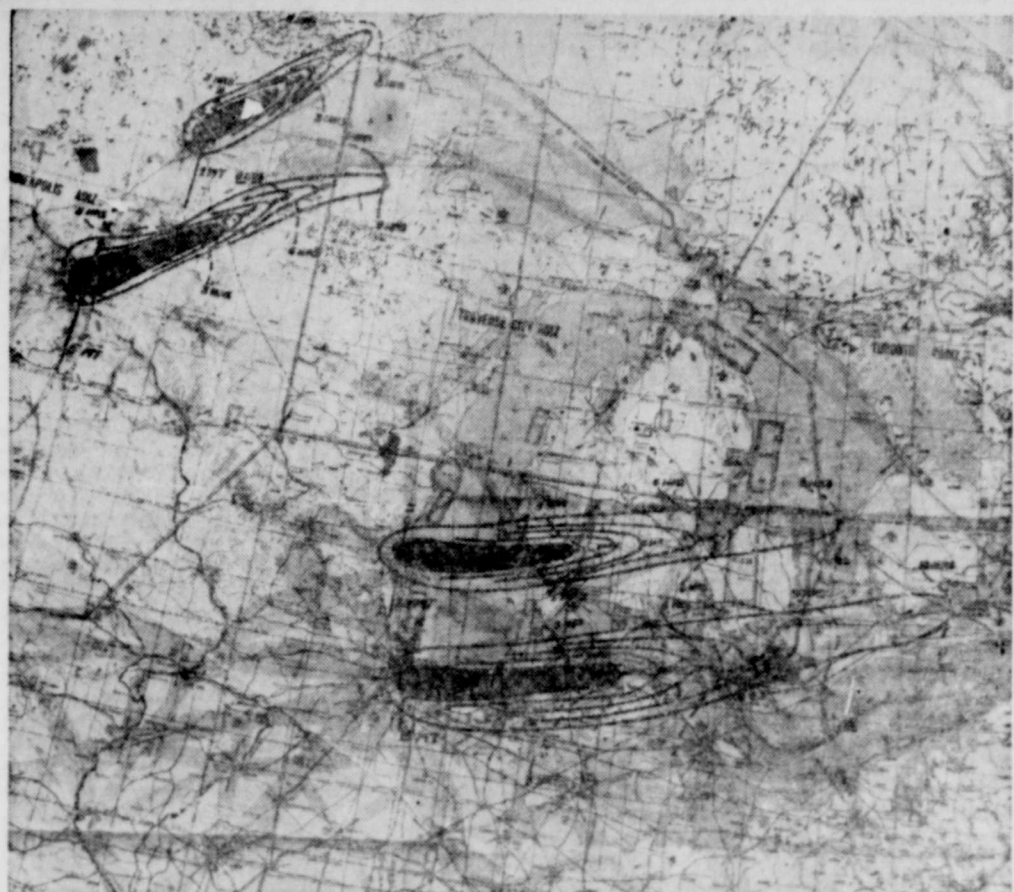

Mrs. McDermett has attended Texas University at Austin for the past two years where she was majoring in dress designing. She was a member of Alpha Phi sorority.

The bridegroom has attended Texas Tech, where he is classified as a junior. They both plan to enroll at Tech this fall where he is a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity.

Mr. and Mrs. McDermett are graduates of Morton High school where they were both active in school activities.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were:

Mrs. Louise Long and granddaughter of Hobbs; Mr. and Mrs. English Cox of Lovington; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Nall of Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Graham of Portales; Mr. and Mrs. C. P. McDermett of Ralls; Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Walker of Ralls; Mr. and Mrs.

Financial Boost Given Sealey Hospital To Continue Important Research Work

Research which may lead to new hope for victims of polio, arthritis, and other joint crippling diseases got a financial boost this week when Dr. G. W. N. Eggers of John Sealey hospital in Galveston received a $2,000 grant from the Texas Society for Crippled Children.

Presenting a check for the Easter Seal organization was Mrs. Thomas A. McCarthy, leader in its work in Galveston County.

"We are trying to find the best way to treat joint stiffness in human beings," is the simple description of the important work he and others at the center are doing in Dr. Eggers own words.

Dr. Eggers is believed to be the first to study various ways of getting an immobilized joint back into use. He is unique in this respect, as earlier experimenters had studied only the immobilized joint with no attempt to re-mobilize it.

Since 1953 the Galveston doctor and his research team have first made immovable, and then remobilized, the knee joints of scores of white rats. Following an operation in which a plastic strait is fastened to the legbone of a rat, causing its knee joint to stiffen, Dr. Eggers and his helpers experiment with different methods of re-mobilizing the joint. Observation of the rats' progress and degree of recovery in the laboratory is expected to lead to improved methods of treatment for crippled children and adults.

As an indication of the project's scope, and of the careful and detailed study involved, Dr. Eggers states that at least two more years will be required to complete his work.

The Texas Society for Crippled Children is a non-profit statewide organization of affiliated county societies dedicated to the welfare and development of crippled children. Its work is supported by public contributions.

Juvenile Crime

Recent accounts of "thrill killers" are not of men who learned the art of killing through their experiences on the battlefield, but they are of boys in their middle or late teens. These boys, and some girls, seem to take pride in inventing new and ingenious methods of gratifying their sadistic desires.

Walter Lippman wrote of these things recently. He argued that children are not born with any greater tendencies to crime in this generation than the children of the past but that the children of this postwar generation are "less effectively restrained and more actively stimulated."

CAUSES OF JUVENILE CRIME

1. Broken homes. This condition is usually cited as the primary cause of juvenile delinquency. It may be no worse than some others, but since it is bad, much too bad for it causes boys and girls to go wrong, parents should do all in their power to hold the home together for the sake of the children.
