MORTON, TEXAS, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1956

NUMBER 30

Carl Williams, Former Area Forger Escaped Jail At Vernon Tex. Last Week

Carl Williams, who "fleeched" a sizable list of Morton merchants, some of them twice, over a three year reign of forgery in 1953-54-55, and who last spring was sentenced to seven years in the State Penitentiary from Morton, is on the loose again.

The 5 foot 5 inch super-salesman hadn't gone to the penitentiary yet. He'd had so many charges against him he was still making the rounds of Texas jails. Last week at Vernon, he saw his way through two bars of a second story jail window and escaped.

Williams, who had received an estimated "couple hundred thousand dollars" in his forgery episodes, worked principally in this area at grain elevators. He'd get a job as bookkeeper or helper and soon as he knew where the proper check books, stamps, etc. were kept and learned the proper signatures he would out his job, a few days later, break into the office, steal the checkbook, etc., and begin writing checks. Using the name J. R. Jolin, H. B. Johnson, and other Levelland men's names, he cashed several checks in this city and cashed at least two at different times with two local merchants.

A clean looking man, he wears high heeled boots and almost invariably he is described as 5 foot 8 inches tall, when in reality he is short. He has one finger severed. Authorities figure he may take the money he has stashed away, and leave the country. However, this area was such "pass pickings" for him, he may return and start his old habits.

Another caution to local merchants, who are prone to cash lots of checks, is that Williams operated in Morton and area for so long, he might be familiar to many by face, who don't actually know him. Local merchants are cautioned to be sure they know the man, before they accept a check.

Another man wanted here for checking violations and forgery, & indicted last year but never apprehended here, Glen Clem, has also recently escaped from prison in Utah, local authorities said.

Indians vs. Plains In 1st Home Game Of 1956 Season

The Morton Indians, bolstered in thinning ranks by the addition of a handful of boys who rejoined the squad this week, square off against a speed-happy Plains Cowboy team Friday in the locals first home appearance of the season.

Coach Vernard Alexander's boys, who are winless, handed the Muleshoe Mules one of the stiffest fights they'll get all season last Friday as the Mules won a 7 to 0 verdict. In that game Morton was down to 18 players on the roster. Now they are over the 20 mark again.

The Indians, vastly improved on offense and defense, lack the overall speed of the Cowboys who have a strong team. However, the "roster" is beginning to wear off of Morton's team and they are emerging as a team to come with. They have steadily improved, this year, are mostly under-graduates. There are but three seniors on the entire team and only four returnee lettermen. That's not much nucleus around which to build a team.

A few personnel shifts last week have bolstered the line. This shift paid off at Muleshoe, though the Indians failed to score a TD.

The game will also feature the presence of the 1956 Morton High School Band Sweetheart between halves.

CLEMENT TO SPEAK AT SUDAN

Sudan (Spl) — More than 20,000 residents of the South Plains and Panhandle areas of Texas are expected here Friday and Saturday when Gov. Frank Clement of Tennessee will deliver a political address in Sudan's football stadium at 7:30 p.m. Friday night.

Tennessee's dynamic Governor Frank Clement is now serving his second term as that state's chief executive at 36. He is the youngest chief executive in the nation. Gov. Clement was the keynote speaker at the National Democratic Convention in Chicago last August.

Gov. Clement will arrive at Lubbock airport at 4:14 p.m. Friday, and a caravan of some 200 cars is expected to escort him to Sudan for his speaking engagement.

Cong. George Mahon will be the emcee for the occasion. The Wayland International Choir will present a musical program prior to the speaking and prominent visiting leaders of the Democratic Party will include Ralph Yarborough.

The Festival Queen will be crowned on Saturday morning at 10 a.m. The parade follows the crowning of the queen. A band concert, a dog show, another program by the Wayland Choir, music by the Serenaders, a two day flower show; a huge auction sale to raise funds for the support of the Democratic party; — these are only some of the other highlights.

Joe T. Salem, prominent area civic and religious leader is honorary chairman and Guy H. Walden, president of the First National Bank is general chairman. F. O. Masten, Cochran County and Sudan farmer headed the speaker's committee and is credited with securing Gov. Clement to speak.

Bula's Shirley Cox Was Crowned '56 Fair Queen

Shirley Cox, representing Bula school was named queen of the Texas Last Frontier Fair last weekend over nine other contestants, and as queen reigned over the fair handing out awards in the various divisions on Friday and Saturday.

Shirley, who was the first contestant in the talent revue, sang a song. She was escorted by Kenneth Hasty.

Two Morton girls were named the queen's attendants, and also helped in the presentation of awards. They were Sue Cooper, escorted by Paul Zuber and Fredia Boykin escorted by Clyde Brownlow.

No overall financial report of the Fair was available but the Jaycees, who were in charge of collecting the money from the Carnival concessions and rides reported $133 added to the Fair fund.

The Fair, from indications, will probably wind up a little in the "red" the group was told. There were less merchant booths and displays, but increased participation in other divisions.

The Jaycees also made plans to bring the bleachers in from the Rodeo Grounds for the football game Friday night. That was to be done Monday night.

The group met at the Eastside Cafe this week.

Jaycees Report 'Fair Is Success'

The Morton Jaycees proclaimed their end of the Fair a success at their luncheon meeting Monday, as the booth chairman announced a profit of $11.00 on the booth after all costs were paid for including the construction of two permanent type booths; the Fair Queen committee proclaimed that part of the Fair a success; and the General chairman of the Fair, who is a Jaycee, said all indications show it was a larger crowd than ever before.

Carnival to Return Late In October

The Morton Jaycees will sponsor the return visit of the Great Western Shows of Hobbs, New Mexico, in Morton, the third week in October. It was recently announced. The Jaycees are presently working on the placing of the carnival which will come to Morton at the height of the Cotton picking and gathering season providing entertainment for the workers.

At present, a motion is before the Jaycees to apply the profits on the debt incurred by the Texas Last Frontier Fair, if there is any.

Bob Roth, owner and manager of the carnival, promises on his return to Morton, he will have in addition to the rides and concessions found at the Fair, a ferris wheel and a tilt-a-whirl ride.

Important Meeting Tonight, Explains FHA Policies

A meeting of importance to representatives of all sources of agricultural credit in Cochran County is being held tonight (Thursday), at the County Activities Building, the Farmer's Home Administration Acting County Supervisor advised today. Invited to attend and participate are local bankers, representatives of Production Credit Associations; Federal Land Banks; Insurance Companies; farm machinery and supply dealers, merchants who are interested in this type of credit meeting, and representatives of all agricultural credit agencies.

This meeting, and a similar meeting in every county in Texas, has been suggested by Walter T. McKay, Farmer's Home Administration State Director at Dallas. It is an outgrowth of the interest of all people interested in and serving Texas farmers and ranchers. Its purpose will be to give those present information regarding Farmers Home Administration Loan programs and to work out a proper working relationship with them, since this agency's lending activities supplement but do not replace other sources of agricultural credit.

Mr. McKay has advised that, as a result of recently enacted legislation, the lending activities of the Farmer's Home Administration have been broadened materially, and now makes it possible for the agency to serve the credit needs of a larger number of Texas farmers and ranchers.

'Oldsters' Asked To Watch Driving

Local law officers said this week parents are becoming the most flagrant traffic violators in the area of the schools, instead of the students who drive cars.

They called on parents to drive cautiously when in the school area; and especially scored one habit of rolling over to the opposite side of the street, across traffic, to let children out in front of the school building. They remind that parents know exactly what buildings the children belong in and with only a slight amount of forethought can approach the building from the proper direction.

Bailey County's Fight With Lubbock for Water Rights Explained To Morton Lions By Art Hall, Wednesday

Art Hall, former Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce manager and now on the Bi State Water Conservation District Board, outlined for the Morton Lions Club Wednesday the fight being waged by the group against the City of Lubbock's encroachment of what they claim is their water supply and pointed out the six point program by which they are asserting their rights.

Hall, guest speaker, told the local Lions he felt they should know the facts in the case and said they are attempting to tell their story to interested groups throughout the area. He asked his listeners to study the ideas, and to bring to the attention of their own Water District whether or not they favor the proposed program seeking to protect the farmers' right and title to water lying underneath their soil.

He said they were basing their argument on the fact that there is no present status defining the ownership of underground moisture, only surface rights.

Hall told the Lions the group was hoping to have farmers' or agricultural use of the water, declared priority over industrial use of the water.

Special Exams for Boys Seeking Academy Apts.

Senator Lyndon B. Johnson has announced that Civil Service examinations for Texas boys seeking appointment in 1957 to the Army, Navy and Air Force service schools will be held November 20 at 71 cities and towns throughout the state. Senator Johnson uses the results of these examinations as a guide in making his appointments to the military academies. Entrance requirements vary, but all three academies require that appointees be United States Citizens. In case of applicants to be considered by Senator Johnson, they must be residents of Texas. They must be between the ages of 17-21 years upon entry, must be single and must pass a rigid medical examination and a physical aptitude test. Candidates for the Air Force Academy must be able to pass the medical examination for flying training and a pilot aptitude test. Persons interested in taking the competitive examination on Nov. 20 are advised to write Senator Lyndon B. Johnson, Senate Office Building, Washington, D. C., not later than October 15.

HERE ARE EISENHOWER'S EIGHT PRINCIPLES:

- 1. The individual is of supreme importance. 2. The spirit of our people is the strength of our nation. 3. America does not prosper unless all Americans prosper. 4. Government must have a heart as well as a head. 5. Courage in principle, co-operation in practice makes freedom positive. 6. The purpose of government is to serve never to dominate. 7. To stay free we must stay strong. 8. Under God, we espouse the cause of freedom and justice and peace for all peoples.

WASHINGTON AND 'SMALL BUSINESS' By C. WILSON HARDER

During every political season, there is a lot of catch phrasing thrown about. Thus, there is talk about the reactionary wing of one party, the moderate wing, the liberal wing, and so on.

Perhaps it is a good time to examine what is meant by these phrases in contemporary political jargon. It very much appears that anyone who believes in being liberal with other peoples' money automatically becomes a liberal in the socio-political sense. On the reverse side of the coin, anybody who reacts against this trend is tagged a reactionary.

A case in point is Sen. Wm. Jenner, (R., Ind.), who has perhaps never been called a liberal; often termed a reactionary.

Yet the recently published address by Sen. Jenner entitled "Re-examination of Our Farm Policies" could rank with some of the writings of Thomas Jefferson as pure exposition of the true liberal thought.

Condemning American farm policies that have existed over the past 25 years, Sen. Jenner says, "The Purpose of the American farm policy is not to get so-called parity for farmers with some mythical competing class. That is the Marxian class conflict. Our purpose is to save the American family farm. The family farm is the social basis for our free enterprise, our political liberty, our biological heritage, and our military strength. It should not be the purpose of Congress to help corporation farming. It should not be our purpose to help the city owner who buys farmland to help him avoid taxes. Nearly all the so-called remedies for farmers but-... National Association of Independent Business

...ent the owner of capital invested in land, and penalize the farmer-producer."

The Senator points out that farmers, along with their customers, are saddled with heavy taxes for foreign aid making it possible for super controls to manipulate American agriculture to make it fit into a plan of worldwide boondoggling.

"We hear," he said, "The Secretary of Agriculture complain about the surplus of cotton in the U. S. What is done about it? It has been made possible, through U. S. money for Mexico to double its cotton production, India increase its production by 50%, Egypt to add 2,000,000 acres. All this cotton growing is being encouraged by the State Dept. when production has already increased by more than 5,000,000 bales, all of which competes with U. S. cotton. As a result, U. S. cotton exports dropped near 40% in 3 years, while exports by other cotton growing countries rose 46%."

He goes on to point out that agricultural production over the world is being encouraged with gifts of seed, fertilizers and farm machinery for which the taxpayer American farmer must pay a part.

He then says, "Our government is like Penelope of Greek Legend. Penelope knit by day, unraveled by night. What little is knit by our agricultural officials is quickly unraveled in the stealth of the night through the State Department."

So, during this election season it is important to keep a level keel as charges of "reactionary" and "liberal" fly through the air. There is a wide gulf between the true liberal and many so-called liberals on the political scene today. Too often the term liberal only denotes a politician eager to be liberal with other people's money.

Irrigation Was Discussed Here

Monday, Sept. 17, two parts of sprinkler irrigation discussion and demonstration were held in Cochran County for all interested farmers. Fifty farmers met in the morning at the County Agricultural Building Auditorium to hear George Black, Extension Irrigation specialist and Mr. Woodard of the National Sprinkler Irrigation Association made talks on sprinkler design layouts, costs, labor, fuel consumption and power relationship, nozzle spacing and water distribution.

In the afternoon a portable demonstration was set up on the Borton Silvers' farm for farmers to observe. Here was well demonstrated the pressure resistance of various size pipe in relation to power requirements, fuel cost and consumption. The fact that the cheaper pipe, which is usually the smallest pipe, may be purchased for less money, does not mean it is the cheapest in the long run. Because of increased fuel and labor cost, it may be the most expensive to operate. One point clearly brought out in the two meetings was the equipment which is not properly designed for the users purpose even though its initial cost is less, may be the more expensive and less serviceable to the farmer.

Things are looking better all the time. Ordinarily, this should be the weekend that all of our area teams win, that is by the past pattern. But the one hitch is that Bula and Three Way get together. So, all we can say is, may the best team win. As for Whiteface, they kept rolling against Ropes and this week meet Friona. The Whitefacers are as yet undefeated. Three Way beat Pettie last week for their first conference win, and Bula took a conference win from a plucky Union team. Morton played it right to the hilt, but couldn't quite hold the Muleshoe eleven, and lost 7-0. Thus the Indians are the only one of the quartet yet to win. They have been on unfriendly fields every week. Finally, they come home Friday. We're hoping Plains will be Morton's first victim as the Indians get progressively stronger.

By Eddie Irwin

WELL, SIR, the Texas Last Fair for 1956 is now history, and there seems to be quite a difference of opinion as to whether or not the carnival hurt the Fair. One thing we feel is being done, is jumping to conclusions. After all the facts are considered, then the time to make up the mind. And here is what we mean by the double talk.

WE HAVE NOT yet fairly judged our Fair, without a carnival. The Fair last year cannot be considered because the fact that we received two very rainy days during the Fair, kept untold numbers from attending. Then too, last year as well as this year, we weren't able to entice enough local clubs to put up booths, to know whether or not they would provide entertainment for the kids. This year, the carnival was brought in, the crowd was relatively small until Saturday afternoon, and the impression was gained by many that they didn't like the carnival. We think this is a false assumption. The fact that our crop situation is getting ripe, and that farmers had lots to attend to held down the attendance. The fact that we erred in placing of the local concessions hurt the proceeds of the local booths.

CONCEDED that kids, the world over like rides. It can also be conceded that it's hard to book rides from a carnival, without concessions. But as to whether the carnival itself hurt our local booths worse than the fact that they weren't as well located or lighted, it's hard to figure. From this corner it looks like we need to try to find a way to get more local organizations setting up carnival games, and try to book a few rides independently.

WE HAD BETTER attendance than we had last year. Almost all of the merchants agree who had a booth. Unfortunately, we had a few less merchants participating, and we had a few vacant spaces. Nearly all of us were gant of waiting too long to get started on the Fair preparations. We are badly in need of a way to house additional merchants booths, if we are to expand the size of the Fair. however . . . THERE ARE A NUMBER of good things to say about the 1956 Fair. The quality of the display booths was better; the quality of products entered was better; the weather was more ideal; the queen contest was better because of increased interest and because the queen and her attendants took an active part in it; the carnival added entertainment, but on the other hand took money out of the area and perhaps "scared off" a couple of potential local booths; the lighting was better outside; the dog show and horse show came off smoother.

WE PROBABLY shouldn't mention, because it will only make a lot of folks angry, but we just have to get it off our chest. We're glad a lot of merchants had various items to offer at drawings on Saturday night. Others probably would have, had they thought about it in time, but it was plumb pathetic the number of folks who simply walked from booth to booth asking, "what are you giving away, or where do we register for your drawing. If the sole purpose of a Fair is to get something for nothing, it's perhaps better if we forget about fairs and concentrate on other things.

PAT ON THE back this week to 16 or 18 Morton Indians who showed a whole town full of people how important "desire" can be in a football game. The fact that we didn't quite win was the least important thing about last Friday's game. But if ever a group of boys recalled the words of the famed ode — it matters not whether you win, but how you played the game — this was it. The boys made a lot of mistakes, as all teams do. The boys were shorthanded. But, in the process of having nothing left on the field but those who really wanted to play, they made their coaches, and their fans, mighty proud. We hope everybody, who has a love for football in their heart, will come out Friday for the first home game of the season. Don't come expecting a win, and don't come expecting to see the Morton team lose. Plains has a speedy and efficient team this season, judging from past scores. The Morton team is different in almost every respect from the one that started the season. It's a far better team, and getting stronger. And, the boys will play the game to the hilt, we believe, win, lose or draw.

FOOTBALL. THE victories are coming to our area teams by degrees. The first week only Whiteface failed to lose, and the best they could do was a tie. The next week, Whiteface won. Three Way tied, and Bula and Morton again lost. Last Friday, Whiteface Three Way and Bula all won, and Morton nearly tied. This should be our week from this sort of superstitious deduction.

WHO AREN'T particularly interested in football, or who are more interested in politics than football, or who are of the curiosity type, who like to be where well known or famous people are, the little neighboring town of Sudan is a good place to be in next Friday night. Gov. Frank Clement of Tennessee, who could well be the Democratic nominee for president four or eight years from now, will speak at Sudan on the occasion of the Fall Festival. Clement will repeat his role at Chicago last month when he keynoted or kicked off the Democratic convention. He will keynote the Sudan Fall Festival.

BUSY THINKING ABOUT the Fair the past couple of weeks, we failed to even mention that our fine Sheriff Posse has added another pair of trophies to their case in the Activities Building. The Cochran riders took second place in competition at Littlefield and at Levelland, running second to Hockley County in one parade and to Lubbock in another. They will be in two parades this weekend, both in New Mexico. They've already gained a potfull of trophies this year for the fourth consecutive season.

Mrs. John Weaver, nee Berniece Kirby was honored with a miscellaneous wedding shower in the home of Mrs. Horace Hutton, Friday, Sept. 14 from 2 to 5 p.m. Hostesses were Mesdames J. G. Arn, Andrew Wittner, Frank Knox L. B. Fox, H. C. Brashear and Dave St. Clair. The serving table was laid with a white linen cloth centered with an arrangement of fall flowers. Mrs. Arn poured punch and Mrs. Wittner served the three tiered wedding cake. Blue napkins with silver letters spelled out Berniece and John were used. All appointments were in crystal. The hostesses wore corsages of lily-of-the-valley that were presented to the guest of honor at the close of the party. Mrs. Weaver was presented a blue yellow mum corsage and Mrs. Kirby's corsage was a white mum. Berniece and John were married on August 31 at Clovis, N. M. Mr. and Mrs. Haskel Kirby of Goodland, the parents of the bride accompanied them. John is the son of Mrs. Mae Weaver of Austin, Texas. He is a senior at Texas Tech. Mrs. Weaver graduated from Three Way High School in 1956. She was active in school sports and was named Miss Three Way High School of 1956 by vote of the stu-

To all this we have added true elegance—a kind of elegance never before seen in the low-price field. To make a car truly elegant, you must start deep-down inside.

The New Inner Ford

The Inner Ford—the car you cannot see—is a very remarkable structure. Its frame is actually a cradle. Side members extend almost the full body width; they serve not only as supporting members but as concealed side bumpers of immense strength.

The New Ford Body

The new Ford body is a triumph of engineering in steel. The doors close with the solid finality of a bank vault. Even the door-lock button has been moved up front—easier for you to reach, but out of the children's reach. All these features were engineered to give you a solid new kind of comfort.

The New Ford Ride

The New Kind of Ford sits six people as no other low priced car has ever sat them—six elbows wide in each seat, with deep space around each one of six knees. And above all that space, there's hat room to spare for all six passengers. The 1957 Ford rides low, solid, with a firm, deep road-holding feel. Yet it's a light-hearted, light-hearted ride—this car is responsive, nimble, agile, with a proud easy movement.

The New Ford Choice

Ford offers not only one, but two sizes of cars . . . each with its own extended wheelbase . . . each with its own body shell . . . each with its own styling. First, the two Fairlane Series on a 118-inch wheelbase. The Fairlane 500's come in 5 body types, a four-door sedan, a two-door sedan, a two- and four-door Victoria with no center pillars, and a convertible coupe. The same body types (except for the convertible) are available in the Fairlane Series. Second, two Custom Series mounted on the 116-inch wheelbase chassis. In the Custom 300 Series, a four-door and a two-door sedan are distinguished from the Custom models by more luxurious inte-

The New Ford Look

That low, low cradle span frame makes a low, low car. The Fairlane 500 is only four feet eight inches from road to roof! The Custom is just over four feet nine inches!

The new Ford is not only low—but long. Ford gives you more than 17 feet of elegant length in the Fairlane Series, a shade less in the Custom. It's a nice kind of fun just to look at it. It's high priced in every way except price.

The New Ford Performance

You can have up to 245 wonderful Thunderbird horsepower in any Ford model. There's a moderate—and really moderate—extra charge for this engine of 312 cubic inches with its 4-barrel carburetor. For "Six" lovers, we've got the 144-hp Mileage Maker Six. Whether you choose Six or V-8, the going is great!
