COUNTY YOUTHS TAKE 1st, 2nd IN DISTRICT COTTON CONTEST

Cochran County youth, Jerry Bryant, has won the dryland division District Cotton contest and Larry Tanner, Lankart, has taken the second straight year has won second in the overall cotton production division on irrigated land.

Cochran's two cotton winners, in the district placings, won a total of $225.

Bryant beat out Max Hawthorne and Larry Tanner in the County's contest and Bryant beat out Clyde DeBord in the county's dryland division.

The district contest, sponsored each year by the Plains Cooperative Oil Mill, has for several years found Morton Youth getting a good share of the awards.

All production weights are calculated less 22 lbs per bale for moisture and loss. This is a requirement of the District Contest. The records of the boys having the highest yield per acre in the county in each division are submitted to the District Contest.

The two county boys attended the District Cotton Contest Awards Luncheon at the Plains Cooperative Oil Mill in Lubbock and claimed their awards.

Jerry Bryant, Rt. 1, Morton, a 44-year in this county for several years, grew an average-lint yield of 880 lbs. of Lankart 57 on 5 acres of land in the dryland division. His first place award netted him $125 on the district level.

Cates, in placing second in the irrigated, won $100. His production was an average lint yield of 1374 lbs. of Dunn 7 variety on 5.02 acres.

Officers Caution Post Office Patrons

Local peace officers warned motorists this week against making left turns to park in front of the Morton Post Office.

It is strictly a traffic law violation to be coming from the west and make a left turn into a parking spot in front of the Post Office, they said.

They point out that such violations could lead to a serious accident, and urge motorists to avoid making the left turn.

Instead, they ask motorists coming from the west to continue to the end of the block and make a right turn, returning to the Post Office area and then making a right turn to park.

E. V. (GENE) THOMPSON IS NEW BOARD PRESIDENT

The Bledsoe School Board reorganized this week, following the election and named C. B. Evans the Board President and Clide McCormack, Secretary.

At Whiteface, J. W. Allen's 51 votes was tops and Leonard Gainer received 41, second highest. One was re-elected and the other trustee whose term expired did not choose to run for re-election.

Powell collected 39 votes, only two short of a tie for the second position while E. J. French, with 21, and Cecil Riddle with 20 were far behind.

Gainer was the holdover trustee and Taylor was the trustee who chose not to run for re-election.

Out at Three Way a pair of new trustees were elected, despite the fact that both men whose terms expired were on the ballot for re-election.

The exact count was unavailable but Supt. Archie Sims said that Morris T. Gant and Ed Latimer were elected. Others in the running were L. E. Warren, Tommy Taylor, Horace Hutton, D. V. Terrell, Jack Lowe, Millard Townsend and Thurl Lemons.

Warren and Lowe were the outgoing directors. Terrell and Hutton were both write-in candidates.

At Bula, only one post was up for grabs, that of Guy Sanders. A total of three opponents failed to even get started in unseating Sanders who polled 14 votes, nearly 80 percent of those cast. The other names on the ballot were A. J. Wallace, DeWitt Tiller and Robert Claunch.

The voting was relatively close at Bledsoe, where one old member was retained and one was replaced.

Clide McCormack, with six years of service already, was re-elected, polling the largest vote, 21.

Melvin Chandler was the other elected director getting the nod on 17 ballots. John Kennedy, running for reelection was defeated getting 12 ballots, and Rex Griffith polled 3 votes.

LOCAL SCHOOL CONTEMPLATING NEGRO PROBLEM PLAN TO APPOINT CITIZEN SURVEY COMMITTEE

In a four and one half hour session Tuesday, the Morton Independent School District Board of Trustees reconvened with two new trustees in the fold and then took an important step in a contemplation of the problem of Negro Education.

The Board elected E. V. (Gene) Thompson, president; D. E. (Gene) Benham, vice-president and Jack Wallace, secretary.

Thompson, and Raymond Ross, elected to the board in voting last Saturday replaced John E. (Tubby) Holloman, outgoing president and Bruce Tucker.

After first hearing a report from a color consultant of the Engineers on the new Junior High Building, the group then got down to the business of re-organization. Holloman and Tucker left, as soon as Thompson was elected president, both voicing their appreciation of the manner in which they had been able to work with the other trustees.

Thompson took over as President and the Board passed two proposals.

On the recommendation of Supt. John Barnes, they approved his filing of a requisition for two new buses for the next school year.

Then they voted unanimously to give an old station wagon to the Explorer Scouts, if they think it

SHELLY BROTHERS, COMPANION INDICTED IN BURGLARY

An April Grand Jury turned out a busy two day session of business here Monday and Tuesday as they adjourned late Tuesday afternoon bringing 11 true bills, passing three cases on to the October Grand Jury and no billing seven others whose cases had been considered.

One of the things that made the 1st Cochran Grand Jury session of New District Attorney George Gilkerson such a busy one was the fact that five of the true bills returned were concerning one case, the B and B Grain Elevator burglary at Lehman a few months ago in which four brothers and another man were billed.

Billed on the burglary charges were Ernest Lee Shelly, Jess Shelly, J. D. Shelly, Roy Shelly, Hoy Kingston. Apprehended over a two month period of time, the men are now lodged in Morton, and Odessa, Lubbock, Levelland, and Odessa jails. Bonds were set at $1500 each.

Two were indicted on felony drunk driving counts. Richard Alle Belcher and Clifford Woodrow Boyle, each have a previous DWI conviction. Belcher is out of jail on a $1,500 bond and Boyle is in the Levelland jail. His bond is set at $1,500.

Two counts of swindling by worthless checks resulted in true bills.

Sidney Austin Davenport, now in jail at Albuquerque, in lieu of $1000 bond and W. L. Hanecek on a $1000 bond, were charged with swindling by worthless check.

A man who has not yet been apprehended was billed on a theft by bailer charge, but the Tribune, in keeping with a previous policy of cooperation with law enforcement officials, will not publish his name until apprehended.

The other true bill brought was on a wife desertion charge against E. Young who is out on $750.

The grand jury passed three counts and no-billed seven. In the passed cases were two charges of attempted murder and one charge of wife desertion. In the dismissed cases, five were counts of theft over $50 and two were swindling by worthless check.

Lem Chisher was foreman of the grand jury which deliberated Monday, and came back Tuesday before adjourning at 3:40 p.m. Tuesday. The Criminal Jury for 72nd District Court next convenes on April 22, at 10 a.m. The docket of cases has not yet been set.

Others serving on the grand jury were E. V. Thompson, W. S. Gilmore, Rex Griffiths, O. L. Castle, Joe Beseda, R. A. Castleberry, Bob Heneckaboy, Glen McDaniel, E. J. French, Connie Powell and Tom J. Williams.

SCHOOL TRUSTEE VOTING LIGHT; NEW FACES ON MOST BOARDS

Three incumbent School trustees representing the five schools in the Texas Last Frontier area were defeated in bids for reelection and three others were re-elected as state taxpayers went to the polls to vote for school trustees last Saturday. Three others wouldn't run for reelection.

In Morton, where two new trustees had to be named, Raymond Ross and E. V. Thompson, both former Board members, were elected. The two incumbents did not run for reelection.

Elsewhere, at Whiteface, the one incumbent running was re-elected; Bledsoe also split their vote, re-electing one incumbent and rejecting the other. Three Way defeated both incumbents, and Bula, where a single position was open, was the only district that retained its same Board.

Voting was extremely light all over the area, especially in Morton where the vote reached only 234, a total of 43 less ballots than were cast last year.

A total of 235 voters turned out at Morton but three ballots were mutilated. Raymond Ross polled a total of 153 votes while Thompson got 137. These men far outdistanced the others in the race. Hadley Kern got 70; Babe Van, 50; Lloyd Miller 34 and Willard Cox, 21. It was rumored that Kern had asked folks not to vote for him, but his name was already on the ballot.

Both Ross and Thompson have served the Morton District before, and this week Thompson was elected President of the Board.

The voting was relatively close at Bledsoe, where one old member was retained and one was replaced.

Clide McCormack, with six years of service already, was re-elected, polling the largest vote, 21.

Melvin Chandler was the other elected director getting the nod on 17 ballots. John Kennedy, running for reelection was defeated getting 12 ballots, and Rex Griffith polled 3 votes.

Trade Program Set For Explanation Tonight at 7:30 pm

A group of Morton Jaycees, who have come up with a plan for a local trades day that has interested several merchants, will hold a meeting tonight, in the district Court room, to explain the program to all interested Morton merchants and see if they would like to adopt the idea.

The Jaycees interest in the program developed when they acted as a go between to see if Morton merchants would like to resume the Appreciation Day trades program worked successfully here a couple of summers ago. The Jaycee committee found the principal objection was that too much of the money to run the program was going out of town; that the entrance fee was too high; and that certain angles of the program were unattractive.

Convinced that a good percentage of Morton merchants wanted some sort of a trade pulling plan, the local group designed a special program entirely different from any ever held on the plains. Preliminary explanations of the plan have been met with much enthusiasm by the merchants who have had it explained. However, the program, to be successful, and to be less expensive, needs the cooperation of from 30 to 40 merchants.

The meeting will put no one under any obligation, nor are the Jaycees going to try to push the plan. If the merchants like it, the Jaycees will be willing to operate the program for the merchants, or to give the program to the merchants and let them operate their own program.

The meeting will get underway at 7:30 o'clock and will last one hour. The Jaycees will come prepared to explain the program, the cost of it, and to answer whatever questions the merchants will have concerning it. They then will put the idea of the program up to the merchants, who will decide all of the exact procedures in handling it.

Every merchant who wants to help pull trade into Morton is urged to attend the meeting and give the program a hearing.

HOSPITAL BOARD STILL TRYING TO FIND MANAGER; 14 APPLY

The Cochran County Hospital Board met Tuesday night, in regular session, to consider the very serious matter of hiring a new hospital manager — but no definite action was taken toward this end.

The group did interview two local applicants. Approximately 14 applications have been considered, including a few from out of the state. However, at this time, the Board is still believed to be leaning toward the hiring of a local person.

In the words of one hospital board member, the group stayed until "after midnight" considering the matter. He said very likely a call meeting of the Board will be made in the near future to find a successor to Bob Henthorne, who was, according to members of the Board "fired" Sunday, March 31.

Henthorne had submitted his resignation previously to take effect on the 16th of this month, but he and the X-Ray technician of the Board were "fired" after taking a partial weekend off during a time when the hospital had five accident victims who could have been in critical condition.

The Board member said that "about fourteen" applications had been received including some from persons supposedly in hospital management at this time, represented through a medical services placement bureau.

With local implement dealers to furnish an old or new tractor for operator's manual, a tool kit, and a mechanic; and College Station furnishing Mr. Willie Ulich, State Engineer, the program is expected to be one of the best on tractor safety ever offered here, the Agent said. He hopes for 100 boys and at least 50 4-H dads.

In addition, Jerry Bryant and Bobby Tims, and Bob Selman will be on hand with two or three special demonstrations.

Each boy who attends will receive one "Tractor Care Project", the Agent said.

Senator Preston Smith

The ever-present "pressure groups" of almost every legislature are not missing from the 55th. In fact, recent years have seen new methods developed by these groups in their attempts to encourage action on bills favorable to their own purposes.

One of the current pressure groups working on the House and Senate is the representation of the municipal policeman and fireman. This group has presented a strong front by entering the legislative halls in goodly numbers, persistently plugging for the flood of wage, longevity, and hour bills introduced in both the House and Senate.

Opposing these efforts on the part of the policeman and fireman is the League of Texas Municipalities. The municipalities claim that favorable response by the legislature to the the pressure group on wage and hour bills would place the lawmakers in the position of dictating to home rule cities, at the expense of municipal workers other than those who would benefit under the bills.

Harold R. Dawson, president of the League of Texas Municipalities, has charged that legislative sponsors of the firemen's and policemen's bills "are setting themselves up as super-duper city councilmen at a five million dollar annual expense to the taxpayers of 71 cities."

He listed the probable cost of the meter bills to 51 cities as follows:

SB 50, by Senator Doyle Willis of Ft. Worth, $3 per month for each year of service for firemen and policemen, $304,788.

SB 125, Willis, same as above but for policemen, $1,982,247.

SB 87, by Senator Jen Pulfus of Port Arthur, same as SB 50, but for Ben Charles E. Hughes of Port Arthur, minimum wages for firemen and policemen, $49,374.

SB 103, by Senator A. M. Allen of Paris (same as SB 66 by Representatives Don Kennard and Warren C. Cowen of Ft. Worth) minimum hours for firemen, $2,885,532.

VIEW OKLAHOMA TORNADO
Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Grove of Morton, who were visiting in Oklahoma at the time of the twister, last week, witnessed the storm that destroyed Pure City, Okla. Mrs. Grove, who operates the

They turned to another station and were told that the Ardmore TV tower had just been hit by a tornado, and that other tornadoes were in the area. They went outside just in time to see one strike Pure City, only a short distance across the lake from where they were staying.

Mrs. Grove said that she saw two separate funnels drop from the sky on Pure City. Five persons lost their lives there. The Groves, who were fishing in Oklahoma, returned to Morton last Thursday.

MORTON, TEXAS

Don Elliott is part time pastor of the First senior pre-med student. Next year he will attend medical school at Baylor Medical school in Houston and will eventually become a medical missionary with the United Christian Missionary Society.

What the Christian Churches Believe

by Don Elliott, First Christian Church Morton, Texas

This week let us consider the belief about baptism by immersion as an act of obedience unto the example and command of our Lord.

As we saw last week, baptism is just a part of the conversion process. It is not a part of salvation, since salvation is a process of growth in knowledge and grace that is granted by the Lord. Rather it is a symbol of our willingness to be buried with Christ to then be raised to walk in the new life. In this act we are burying our old ways and saying "Christ, I want to walk in the new life, and I am willing to be buried with You and do anything that You would have me do in order that I may know Thy love."

We, as a denomination, believe in immersion as the form of baptism for several reasons.

First, baptism by immersion symbolizes the person's being buried with Christ and rising to walk in the new life much better than any other type or form of baptism. If an act is to symbolize something, it should symbolize that thing.

Second, the word baptism as translated from the Greek means the form of baptism known today as immersion. The word in those days meant baptism by immersion and no other. Indeed, there was no other for quite a while.

Third, many scriptures describe the baptism in such a way as to leave no doubt as to the method used. In Matthew 3:16 and Mark 1:10 the scriptures in speaking of Christ's baptism say words to the effect "and when Jesus was baptized He came up out of the water..." There are many other scriptures that have led us to affirm immersion as the way practiced in the New Testament.

Finally, all the churches accept baptism by immersion as a form of baptism. Even though they may practice other forms, if a member wishes to be baptized by immersion then the church will accept that form.

We hope that you will visit with us each Sunday as we meet in the veteran's hall in Morton.

We welcome your question and comments. Just Address your queries to Don Elliott in care of First Christian Church, Morton.

STORY NO. 10—in a series of articles on Duval County by Frederick Hodgson and Franz Rosenwald, New York newspaper and magazine writers who wrote the series exclusively for Texas readers.

People Take Over in Duval County; County Government Has New Look

By-FREDERICK HODGSON

SAN DIEGO, Tex.—Things are different in Duval County. No matter how brightly the lust for liberty burns, it takes a little know-how to jump in and operate a government according to the Constitution. Before the "cleanup" Duval County leaders had had their government run for them since before World War One, and unashamedly admitted they were rusty as the nails in the Ark. They obtained and circulated elementary textbooks on county government and read them like dime novels.

As a result, Duval County became a textbook on democracy. It would have made any county in the United States ashamed of itself to see Duval citizens religiously attending every meeting of the school boards and the commissioners court in such numbers that crowds had to stand out on the courthouse lawn.

This is the courthouse, here in San Diego, Texas, where Parr's non-supremacy say they were never allowed to enter unless they were summoned. These non-supremacy men of the district courtroom, they say, "unless we were being tried for something we did not do." The meetings of the commissioners court and school boards were always held in secret. If at all.

After "Operation Clean-up" an invisible line developed down the middle of the courtroom, dividing the Parr people from the non-supremacy men. The Parr people had relatives under indictment. Every day was a big day in court, with overflow crowds. One day the Duke himself appeared to answer an indictment. Another day a handful of school trustees arrived, with a motion to quash an indictment. The next day half a dozen lawyers tangled with District Attorney Sam Burris and the "State men" in a minute of fear, Ranger stood up or shuffled his feet to remind the participants that "it's peaceful here, and we aim to keep it peaceful."

The courthouse is the Sanctum Sanctorum from which all but Parr's "Old Party" members were excluded. There are other places besides the courthouse that used to be rigidly off limits to Parr's opposition, but not any more. The San Diego Community Center, a public building, now is accessible to any group of citizens, no matter how they vote. And that's new in Duval County.

No str. you wouldn't know the old Duchy with its new look. People stand around in the drug stores and talk about whatever they please without whispering, without looking over their shoulders to see who is near. This is maybe the biggest, the most striking change.

Business has picked up in the Duke's domain. Manuel Marroquin, whose tortilla bakery was put out of business by Parr, started over again before he began publishing his newspaper, the New Duval. He had to set up his cafe across the line in Jim Wells County, just outside San Diego. But all the old customers who had quit trading with him on the Duke's orders came back. They bought his tortillas and his milk, and now they read his newspaper.

A lot of Duval residents are coming back home to work from the surrounding counties where they say Parr drove them by forbidding their employment in Duval. Some have been traveling 20 to 60 miles to their jobs in Oilton and Palfranus and Alice because nobody would hire them in George Parr's county. There are many in this category—exiles from sunup to sundown, six days a week. Now they're coming home.

Life, business, government, even love—they've all been busy-wire in this haywire county, and are getting back to normal. Boys and girls who couldn't date each other and fall in love because one family had Parr's blessing and another his curse, now can give Cupid a free rein. The invisible barriers of hatred are falling down. Romeo and Juliet have come into their own.

In the classrooms the distinction—the discrimination—between the kids of "Parr people" and others has pretty well vanished. You don't have to be the child of an "Old Party" family to go to the fair now and sell your 4-H Club calves and lambs. If you're poor, you don't have to be a Parr follower in order for your kids to get free milk at the school cafeteria. Giving milk to one child and withholding it from another for reasons of politics is just one of the many quiet practices condemned by Duval County grand juries that have been looking into things since the State of Texas met in the stronghold of the Duke.

The changes in Duval County don't mean that Parr isn't still fighting. Those who know him best say he'll be fighting when the iron doors clang behind him. The men who hang around the courthouse, the ones who couldn't hang around there before, will tell you that George Parr's ghost will walk the dim halls fifty years after he has fought his last fight.

You don't get rid of 40 years of Parrism quickly. A whole generation of men and women in one Texas county have been born and raised in a climate of fear, hatred and distrust. There are those who have always eaten at the public trough, always had the protection of a Big Boss, and always helped him elect his candidates, say on his enemies, destroy his opposition. In Duval County there are still many of these, and they have children. Their Golden Age has passed away, and they will mourn for it because they, like the Duke of Duval, have been born in the wrong century. They are a part of feudalism, part of a day when little kings dominated a few hundred square miles of earth, overtaxed their impoverished serfs, and amused themselves with senseless wars.

But the rest of the people in Duval County have just come into their Golden Age. They have a new dignity. They have a new hope. They have a County Auditor, an impartial grand jury, supervised elections, and police protection. As one Duval rancher put it, the clouds have parted and the sun has broken through.

To be sure, the sharp crack of legal conflict is still heard. There is still tumult and shouting in Judge Woodrow Laughlin's district courtroom. But the roar of the big legal artillery that has rattled the whole State of Texas for three years, while George Parr and his friends fought ditch by ditch to hold their fortress intact, has died out. The final score has yet to be tallied, but the trend is clear. The watchers in the grandstand are picking up their pennants and going home, and the boys in the press box already have written their copy for the morning edition.

What does the Duval story mean to the State of Texas? My colleague, Franz Rosenwald, has seen more than one dictatorship rise, flourish, fizzle and die. He says there are two things to remember about dictatorships. First, they don't just fizzle by themselves. They have to be helped along by people who are fed up with them. Second, there's not much hope for people who get rid of one dictator and fail to lock the door against the next one. And there is always a next one.

Under the Texas Constitution there's not likely to be a dictator-governor, nor even a Legislature that gets too far out of line. The old state charter was written in 1875, when carpet-buggers were crawling all over the capital, and the men who wrote it made provisions against abuses of power on the state level. They made Texas counties relatively autonomous, letting them retain much authority which ordinarily belongs to a state. This is especially true of the criminal law.

This local autonomy is a good thing, provided you have your guards against its misuse. But once a county boss learns enough law to take advantage of the loopholes, you've got a dictator on your hands. This is the way for one of our country's greatest attorneys, Attorney General John Ben Shepperd explains it:

"By controlling elections through threats, bribery or the misdirection of the ballots, you control the sheriff, the county and district judges, and the county and district attorneys. Your puppet district judge appoints the grand jury commissions, and they appoint the grand and petit juries. Since you control the sheriff, you can lock up or destroy the records, thus removing the evidence. You cannot be arrested, indicted, tried, convicted or sentenced. You are the law in your county."

If you steal or mismanage the county funds, nobody will know it because you can just refuse to let them see the records. There are few penalties for such selfishness. Besides, whether you are accused of hiding records or stealing money, or both, you have to be indicted in the county of the offense. And remember, the grand jury is in your own pocket along with the judge and the prosecuting attorney.

In most cases you can't even be sued for the money you have scooped out of the till, because recovery suits can only be started with the permission of the governing body of the agency you have stolen from. When Shepperd's office and District Attorney Sam Burris filed a suit to recover money misappropriated by the Duval County Commissioners Court, the Commissioners effectively stalled it by refusing to go along with it. It took a couple of dozen court battles in three different counties and several changes in county commissioners to straighten the mess out.

Back to those secret records. There is no adequate law under which you can be removed from office for refusing to show them. And you can always do as the county auditor of Duval County did. He stood on the Fifth Amendment and refused to say where his records were kept on the grounds that it might tend to incriminate him. There's no law against that, either.

Texas needs many new laws to protect its citizens against another "Duval County." Fifteen corrective measures have been introduced in the Legislature, by the Texas Press Association. Each of these "Better Government Bills" merits public support.

Who rates what for performance and smoother riding in the low-priced three? Chevrolet has laid the answer and the proof on the line!

First, Chevrolet won the Auto Decathlon over every car in its field, and over the higher priced cars that were tested, too. This rugged ten-way test (right, below) showed Chevrolet was the champ in handling ease, braking, acceleration, passing ability, smoothness of ride and other driving qualities you want in a car.

Then, Chevy won the Pure Oil Performance Trophy at Daytona (left, below) as "best performing U. S. automobile."

It's quite a feeling to know that you are driving a car that performs so well, responds so beautifully and is so finely built. You feel proud, of course. But you also enjoy a sturdier, smoother, steadier way of going, a keen cat-quick response of power, and the easiest handling you've ever experienced behind a wheel. Just try this Chevrolet (V8 or Six) and see!

Chevy showed it's still the champ... at Daytona... and in the Decathlon!

REPRESENTATIVE BOB BOWERS'

WEEKLY LETTER

This week began with the passage of H.B. 3—a code of conduct for officers and employees of state agencies, Legislators and Legislative employees, and H. B. 10, Lobbyist Registration Act. Each of these bills are a step in the right direction toward cleaning up our House.

Also passed Monday was H.B. 10 which provides for the issuance of $100 million additional bonds for extension of the Veteran's Program. These bills have been sent to the Senate.

The House also passed S.B. 22 and S.B. 94 this week. The first regulates the handling and sale of cotton seeds. This bill will include among the majority of states the nation which require a uniform seed grading system.

Prune trees for a purpose, says Miss Sadie Hatfield, our Extension Homestead Improvement Specialist—plan carefully and prune moderately. Severe pruning or "dehorning" can permanently deform and injure trees.

Prune trees to make the place more comfortable, convenient, safe, and attractive. Often trees can be shared to improve their appearance. Low hanging limbs can be pruned off so that the lawn will be open and look more spacious.

Time To Spring Clean Your Car

Now's the time to drain your worn-out anti-freeze, have the system flushed thoroughly, then install clean water and a good anti-rust. Your dealer's Spring service package is designed to put your car in apple-pie shape for happy summer motoring.

Proper greasing helps you make sure any "tweets" you hear are birds, not your springs.

Your tires (including the spare) should be rotated every 4,000 miles. Uneven tire wear is a sign that you may need wheel alignment. Check tire pressure carefully for cuts and bruises.

You'll get more fun out of motoring in the months ahead if your car is in shape... and if you remember.

LITTLE LEAGUE MAKES PLANS; POSTPONES ELECTION OF OFFICERS

The business of electing Little League officers for the coming season was temporarily postponed at the meeting held last Thursday night, due to the fact that only six people showed up for the meeting.

The group held a general discussion of problems facing the league as it begins its eighth consecutive year of operation, and third consecutive year of franchised play on the new field.

It was revealed that the total expenses for last year ran approximately $1,000 and of that total about $400 was on a note. The group was told by the secretary and the treasurer of the league, available expenses for a year of operation are about $250 to $300. Donations at the games last year and concession stand profits for the league were $129.50.

It should be operated separate, and apart from the Little League with the exception of the general cooperation needed between the two on scheduling of games, and persons to help run the games.

The group was told the Little League's Minor league system will probably have to be expanded this year. An urgent need for managers, umpires, scorekeepers, etc., may develop. Those who will work in the Little League program are urged to contact M. C. Ledbetter.

Lands '70' Pounder

W. W. Williamson, president of the First State Bank in Morton, was back from a productive fishing trip last weekend, showing pictorial proof of a 70 lb. Grouper he caught in the Gulf of California, off of Guaymas, Mexico.

Caught on light tackle, on April second, the fish was one of four in a photo displayed by Williamson. He made the trip with three other men, including George Benson, Lubbock banker. The group took the photos — possibly since the trip was so close to April Fools Day, they felt they might have trouble proving it.
