AN INTERVIEW WITH THE COUNTY JUDGE ON THIS VITAL ISSUE

Hospital Major Subject of Discussion at Court Meeting

Because the Cochran County Hospital and its role as a service to the people of Cochran County has been a much discussed issue, and a real problem in the County, the Tribune took the opportunity this week to discuss the situation with incoming County Judge Glenn Thompson.

Just a day after Judge Thompson and the Commissioners' Court had spent half a day discussing the problem and trying to figure out "which direction" is the best way to head, the Tribune proposed a series of questions to express his opinions as he told them to the Court, and whenever possible to express what he believes to be the views of the Commissioners' as a group.

Maybe the reader is wondering why the hospital is any more of a problem today than it was, say, 45 days ago. The answer is, that three hospital board members' terms have expired and a fourth has resigned, because he no longer felt he was in a position to do an effective job for the county.

Their terms expired on Monday of this week; J. C. O'Brien and L. E. McDonald. Judge Thompson expected the Court to appoint the other two on Friday of this week, at a called meeting.

Another reason the hospital is more of a problem today than it was 45 days ago is simply the fact that one doctor has had to carry the burden for 45 days and you can just put that much load on one doctor for so long. It's imperative Judge Thompson said, to get more doctors, and he voiced the opinion that the only hope for obtaining more doctors is to be able to present a better picture to get them to come to Morton. Does this mean it is impossible to lease the hospital? Not necessarily. But it does mean, that contacts with various doctors has convinced the judge that it would be extremely difficult, if not impossible to get any doctors to lease the hospital until some strides have been made toward improving the overall situation. Just what is the status of the Hospital Board, some folks have been asking — a question even asked by some of the recent Board members who wanted to know just what authority they had.

Judge Thompson read the act that makes the County Hospital possible and pointed out that the Commissioners' Court first has the power to establish and enlarge the hospital. They appoint six resident taxpayers citizens to act as managers and these men can be recalled after being cited for default. They serve for a term of two years and they are in charge of selecting the hospital Superintendent, the rest of the staff, setting the salaries and conducting the financial business within the boundaries of the appropriation set up by the Commissioners' Court.

In theory, the Board is to meet at least three weeks before the County's budget is drawn up each year, and decide how much money it will take to operate the hospital for the next year. Then the County sets up its budget and in it includes an appropriation on which to run the hospital.

As is being done now, however, the budget set up for the hospital is $15,000, and as far as the judge knows, this was not done on a recommendation basis, but rather this is the amount that has been set in the budget for the operation of the hospital each year in years gone by.

The Commissioners, instead of placing the entire amount in the hospital fund at the beginning of each year, have followed a policy of transferring money to the hospital as it was needed. And, because of the heavy charity bill, the judge said he felt it would be rather difficult to estimate a year ahead of time, just how much money would be required to maintain the hospital.

However, pressed about the financial matters of the hospital, whether the availability of doctors as of now? Not so good. As long as doctors continue to office in the hospital, we cannot hope for more than two doctors, and two cannot carry the medical load of the county. Judge Thompson feels a clinic is a necessity, in order to attract more doctors to the county, and to divorce the doctor's business from the county business — also, he adds, to provide more patient rooms in the existing hospital.

Notes the judge is the opinion of most persons, that if there were three or four doctors in the county and they were getting most of the medical business of Cochran County, our hospital would probably not be large enough to take care of the patients.

Does this mean no doctors are available? No it does not. Here the judge pointed to show a letter from a young doctor who visited here just last week and seems very interested in the situation.

In part the letter read: "Two of my 1956 classmates and I have been looking for a location of sufficient size to handle three new physicians. . . . It went on to give some details about the trip of doctors, their experience, etc., and stated they planned to go in business together about July of this year.

The judge pointed to this as a hopeful sign, but then reminded us of the things needed in order to make doctors such as these, want to come here.

This doctor has not indicated yet that he would not like to come to Morton.

Asked whether he favored a county built clinic or a privately built clinic, the judge said he would favor the latter, if the county built clinic, leased or rented to doctors.

In order to protect the $300,000 investment we already have in our hospital, I felt a private clinic, could possibly, if close cooperation and understanding were not established, lead to the "squeezing out" of the hospital, and thus the county's investment would be lost.

However, he was quick to say he felt the county could and would be ready to work with doctors, if a clinic were built by private money, he said he certainly would welcome a privately built clinic over none at all.

His opinions on this question were based on contacts with 35 doctors made in the past six weeks — doctors who had registered with the state medical association that they were contemplating a change and who were contacted about coming to Morton. They favored leasing or renting office space outside the hospital, in a clinic.

How could the county build a clinic? It would have to be done by issuing time warrants or on a bond issue. Judge Thompson said the Court did not voice a dissent when he told them he felt a clinic was a necessity, before the county could be served or before the hospital financial problem could ever be straightened out.

He said he felt the Commissioners' Court must work closer with the hospital board and the hospital superintendent, before the problems could be solved.

He made it clear that the Hospital Board was in charge of the hospital and the Court was not trying and would not try to run the hospital. "We can only do the leg work for them," he said, "to make it easier for them to run the hospital."

THURSDAY, JANUARY 15, IS BIG DAY IN LIFE OF BEVERLY CRISWELL; TOWN and COUNTRY STUDY CLUB SPONSORS DINNER IN HER HONOR

Since September, 1950, time has often moved slowly for Beverly Mae Criswell. That was the year crippling polio struck her.

But Beverly, now a seventh grade student at Morton Schools, is able to smile with all the charm and loveliness of any robust Cochran County.

Thursday, January 15, Beverly will be honored with a benefit dinner given by the Town and Country Study Club in the County Activities building from 11:30 am to 1:30 pm. Mrs. Keith Kennedy, club president, has announced.

Beverly was born in Portales, N. M., on July 30, 1946. Her mother did not survive the birth.

Beverly has made her home with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Corder, all but two years of her life.

The Corders homesteaded in the Lingo area, moving there in 1910. They have been residents of Cochran County for the past 10 years.

There will be 22 games played in all, before 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place winners and consolation winners are named in each division.

Mrs. M. Anglin Services Held At Shallowater

Funeral services were held at 3 p.m. Monday at the Shallowater Baptist Church for Mrs. Maude Anglin, 68, mother of Mrs. Earl Wages and Truman Anglin of Morton.

Mrs. Anglin died at the M. D. Anderson Hospital in Houston Saturday morning.

The Rev. Carrol Holtzclaw, pastor, and the Rev. J. Wayland Edwards, pastor of Southern Baptist Church in Lubbock officiated and burial was in the City of Lubbock Cemetery under the direction of the Rix Funeral Home.

A member of the Shallowater First Baptist Church, Mrs. Anglin had moved to Lubbock County from Hamilton in 1922. Her address was Rt. 2, Shallowater.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. C. W. Whittle, Plainview and Mrs. Wages; five sons; H. C. Anglin, Jr., and John Anglin of Shallowater; Truman; Horace Anglin of Lubbock; and Verlin Anglin of Ft. Stockton; three brothers, J. L. Crosby of Amherst; Clint Crosby of Escondido, Calif.; four sisters, Mrs. Ada Noah of Dallas; and Mrs. Fannie Ballard, Mrs. Willie Oulshy, and Mrs. Leta Jones, all of Hamilton; 12 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

Palbearers were Dr. James A. Fannin, Merle Galbraith, W. B. Bonason, O. A. Oidham, S. B. Deal and M. E. Herron.

Beverly has spent almost a year of her thirteen years in a hospital, and many, many more at home recovering.

But Beverly meets life with a smile. Teachers, doctors, and nurses say of her: "She's the most cheerful, pleasant, happy child imaginable."

And Beverly enjoys school, though it is tiresome. Two of her good friends are Deane Doty and Barbara Haley. Barbara, who attends classes in a wheel chair, was often given a helping push by Beverly until doctors advised that Barbara needed the exercise herself.

For entertainment Beverly enjoys TV and playing records. Her ambition is to be a secretary or a housewife.

Last summer Beverly enjoyed a vacation — her first — a visit to an aunt in Clovis, only made possible because a registered nurse-level across the street and could give her the necessary snots.

So Thursday, January 15, will be an extra special day for Miss Beverly — and members of the Town and Country Study Club hope it will be the same for you.

All proceeds from the event will go to Beverly.

Tickets are $1.00 for adults and 50c for children. They are available from Mrs. Russell Hudson at the County Agency's Office, Mrs. Hattie B. Spotts at the County Library, Mrs. Kenneth Watts at the County Judges' Office, Bill Crone at the County Treasurer's office, Miss Lenora Jackson at the MHS Library, W. C. Millsap at the Family Community, Mrs. Alvie Harris and Mrs. R. E. Knowlton at Bledsoe, and from any Town and Country Study Club member.

Also, at the Westside Furniture, Virginia's Beauty Shop, Tommye Hays at the FHA office, the Roy Weekes Insurance Agency, Ray's Furniture and Hardware, and at the Morton Tribune.

The menu, prepared by and under the direction of Mrs. John Lloyd, calls for barbecued beef, potato salad, pinto beans, cole slaw, cherry pie, hot rolls, coffee and tea. The alternate is roast beef and creamed potatoes.

Beverly returned home with a brace on one leg and another brace on her body.

While at Plainview Beverly conducted the intense, near zero weather that had plagued the Plains for the past week was the key to the death. The men had turned a room heater up very high and failed to open any windows or doors for ventilation.

The two men were in the area on a trip purchasing farm machinery for members of their community in Old Mexico. They had been in this County buying the equipment since the middle of December and still had a considerable sum of money on their person, even though receipts and check stubs showed they already had purchased a box of equipment.

The men checked in at the motel late Sunday night and according to an examining physician evidently died around 2 or 3 a.m.

The intense heat in the room had already turned the bodies black when Constable Hardy Rhyme and Deputy Chester Miller pried a screen loose and raised the window of the room at 5 p.m. Monday. So intense was the heat, it could be felt from the outside through the door.

A brother of the men arrived in Morton late Wednesday after word got through to Old Mexico, and the local funeral home transferred the bodies to El Paso early this morning where a Mexican Undertaker was to meet the Singleton Funeral Home ambulances and transfer the bodies for the trip to Cuahutemoc, Chihuahua.

The Thiessens had been coming to this area for the past 12 to 15 years. The Border Patrol learned, by use of farm equipment for the settlement which the sect founded after leaving their home in Canada many years ago. Both of the victims were born in Winnipeg, Ontario, Canada.

Among the things in their possession, the men had a $1,200 and a $600 cashier's check; four checkbooks on banks at Cuahutemoc; a $2,000 note; $196 in American money, and some approximately 2,000 Mexican Pesos, in various denominations from 100 peso bills to 5 peso silverpieces.

13 More Businesses In the City Now Dunn and Bradstreet Report Reveals

There are 13 more business concerns in Cochran County today than there were last year," says Wayne A. Clark, manager of the Amarillo office, Dunn and Bradstreet, Inc.

Based on his facts upon a physical count of the January, 1959 D&B reference book, Clark points out that in 1958 189 businesses are listed in Cochran County and today 143 are listed.

The book lists only manufacturers, wholesalers, retailers, and some service companies, such as laundries and gasoline service stations.

It does not include some of the service and "professional" businesses, such as barber and beauty shops, real estate and stock brokers. Thus the figure for businesses in Cochran County would be higher than 143.

Better than 95 per cent of all commercial transactions in the United States are made on credit terms and the buyer and the seller are brought together by means of credit information.

HOSPITAL —

lems be solved. The services of more doctors will lighten the load on the individual doctor and make his stay more pleasant; make it a rosier picture for him to want to come here; cause him to want to build up a practice and stay, rather than leave a year or two after he comes here; give the people a chance to establish a family doctor they can turn to, and give them a chance to get medical attention when they want and need it, rather than to have to wait for several hours.

He felt this would give people more confidence in the hospital; would attract more nurses and other staff members; and would, in the long run, solve the problem of the huge cost of the hospital to the county. But, he said, the loss in money, aggravating as it may be to some folks, would be relatively unimportant if it were being spent on a hospital serving the people of the area. It's a problem now, he said, because the money loss is increasing, and we don't seem to be moving any nearer to a solution.

Asked how the present manager of the hospital felt about the situation, Judge Thompson said Dewitt Allsup is "hopeful" after his first month here; and he was sure, with cooperation and understanding from the court and from the people, the problems could be licked. As for the petty problems, dislikes, etc. that have always seemed to plague this hospital, Judge Thompson felt these would cease to be an important thing if the hospital could ever get a good foothold and begin to run in the right direction.

Finally, Judge Thompson was asked just how far he would go toward helping solve these problems. He said he would go as far as he was asked to go by the Board. He said his main qualifications to be helpful in solving the problems, was simply that he had been closely associated with the problem for 25 years, had his own money invested in it many years ago, and that he had been forced to give it grave consideration because of the money involved. He felt that his own personal financial problems with the hospital had taught him a great deal about these problems.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"
 By C. WILSON HARDER

In what may well develop into one of the most interesting has-les of 1953, the Senate anti-trust and monopoly subcommittee has issued a report asking the Justice Department to consider the feasibility of court action to break up General Motors. The committee is headed by Sen. Estes Kefauver.

It seems quite logical that some probe should be made of the situation.

The National Federation of Independent Business has never been against big business per se. Rather, the stand has always been that there should be no limit on the size a business may attain, provided free competition is not diminished.

Thus, it would appear that quite properly, it should be determined if General Motors, or any other Big Auto, has conspired to drive out competition.

It is a certainty that the auto industry, one of the nation's most vital, has been concentrated in the hands of a very few. It is perhaps long overdue to hold an inquiry into just how this has been done.

In addition, the impact of certain practices of Big Autos in certain aspects of the national economy, particularly in the pricing of labor, should also be thoroughly discussed, as there is not a small manufacturing plant in the nation that is not seriously affected by the practices entered into by Big Autos.

In fact, at a time when inflation is quite properly of prime concern to all thinking people, some of Big Auto's labor contracts, National Federation of Independent Business tracts do not appear to be the most wholesome.

Particularly reference is made to the clause which provides for automatic raises as and when the cost of living index goes up.

An increase in wages tied with increase in productivity cannot be logically assailed, as the increase in production tends to hold down inflationary forces. But wage increases not based on increase in production are not logical.

Because inasmuch as in the cost of living index, auto plays a vital part in pegging this index, any increase in auto wages, with subsequent increases in product prices, merely increases inflationary forces. It is an example of inflation waiting for its feeding on itself.

Thus, there are many profound considerations to be considered in any probe of the auto industry, or any factor in the industry.

Neither should there be any feeling that because an operation is so big, its operation is therefore quite sound.

Not too long ago, Congress made a study of General Motors and found the firm was working actively against the best interests of one of its strongest assets — its big corps of independent dealers.

Remedial measures were taken which have done a great deal to alter the unfavorable position in which many dealers were placed by unfair policies.

Thus, it seems high time that Congress pursue this matter much further.

After all, reality control of one of the nation's leading industries is a situation that should be studied from an all angles.

Cochran Counties Invited to Reese AFB B-25 Commemoration Program, Jan. 24

A B-25 commemoration and an open house at Reese Air Force base this month will mark the end of basic reciprocal pilot training and the institution of basic single jet training throughout the Air command.

(A special invitation has been issued Cochran County residents to attend.)

The commemoration will include the unveiling of a mounted B-25 at Reese's main gate on Jan. 23.

The open house will be held from 8 am until 2 pm on Saturday, Jan. 24. The public is invited to see a Wing parade and aircraft flyover, inspect aircraft on the flight-line, see an F-100 flown, and see Bob Hoover, North American Aviation test pilot demonstrate the T-37, and watch the "Colorado Minute Men" an Air National Guard flying team that risks with the Air Force "Thunderbirds," put on a precision flying demonstration.

Reese is the last ATC base to train basic reciprocal engine pilots. With the graduation of Class 59-E, currently training in the B-25, the end of an era of reciprocal pilot training will have been reached. In the future, all Air Force student pilots will graduate jet qualified.

Reese underwent for the past two years the five ATS basic pilot training.

Your Baby And Sleep

How much sleep does an infant need?

There is no hard and fast rule to apply since babies differ widely in their sleeping requirements — some seem to need a lot, while others get along with less. If he appears to be satisfied with his feedings, is comfortable, and gets plenty of fresh air, a young baby will usually determine his own requirements automatically and sleep from one feeding to the next.

Here are some tips from the Beech-Nut baby food staff on good sleeping habits for your baby:

1.—Try to get your baby used to going to bed and to sleep right after a meal. Some infants like to be playful after meals, a habit which should be discouraged. Too much activity may overstimulate him.

2.—Some babies are often restless for a short while before going to sleep. Prolonged crying may indicate some discomfort — try patting him in the crib, and if that doesn't succeed, pick him up.

3.—Most infants can get accustomed to normal household sounds, such as conversation, the TV or radio playing at a reasonable level. Hence, there is no point in tiptoeing and whispering around the house — you will only be training him to be easily awakened by unexpected sounds.

4.—If he has been asleep for a few hours and then awakens, he may be hungry again. Don't hesitate to feed him — repeated satisfactions increase his confidence and feeling of security.

5.—Many babies, in the beginning seem to be more comfortable sleeping on their stomachs instead of their backs. In the case of infants who develop colic, pressure on the abdomen seems to relieve gas pains.

6.—Starting at six months, a child should be in a room by himself if possible, away from the engine and exhaust systems will create acid or rust. When the car is driven on longer trips, with a hot engine, the condensation evaporates before it can do any damage.

Oil in a little-used car should be changed as often as once a month. The exhaust systems should be checked to be sure back pressures in the muffler and tail pipe haven't become dangerous.

A little attention to that second car can keep it from becoming "second best in the running."

Well, how did he do it?
 "Simple," Jim explains. "People were waiting on themselves."

Corner on Cotton
 BY BOB COLLINS

If you are a Choice "A" farmer under the new farm bill either plant entire cotton acreage allotted or release that part of your allotment you won't use . . . all that's necessary is a letter to your county ASC committee . . . this will mean additional acreage may be allocated to someone who wants it badly . . . you won't lose "acreage history" by this . . . it amounts to everybody winning . . . your ASC committee can answer all your questions.

We find the most misquoted part of the farm bill is "percentage vs. points" . . . this is correct. Choice "B" farmers will have a support price of 15 parity POINTS less than Choice "A" . . . not 15 PERCENT less.

Picker Sales Up

Reports indicate that the sales of mechanical cotton pickers are up for the first time in quite awhile . . . does this mean there's going to be a lot of Choice "B" planting???

Price Cuts

A large synthetic textile manufacturer has cut prices on two well-known synthetic fibers in a "move to broaden markets" garment makers say the cut will have little effect on prices of finished clothing . . . but it will have an effect on use of synthetics . . . the same company upped its prices in 1954 . . . why cut prices now?? . . . maybe to steal another march on cotton . . . certainly points up need for a more competitive cotton price, if that needs pointing up.

What Next?

Now there's a rat that eats cotton . . . finds both the lint and seeds tasty . . . comes from West Texas and is moving into other areas of the cotton belt!

New Device

A new cotton device is going on the market . . . it will pick scrap cotton left in the fields by mechanical pickers . . . we haven't seen one, but an observer says it does a good job and estimates it could pick up to $20 million worth of cotton that is now left in the fields.

Mean Anything?

Does the corn farmer's rejection of high support prices and acreage controls also reflect opinion in the cotton belt? . . . who knows? . . . some officials in high places say it's clear evidence that the farmer is fed up with "government farming" and wants to recover his freedom and to get back to "supply and demand."

Cullen — He Invented The Big Super-Market

Seventh generation in grocery business
 Men Who Make America Great
 "You'll go broke," he was warned

Who invented the supermarket? Jim Cullen should know. He was right there when it happened.

It was in 1930, in the middle of the country's worst depression, when Jim's father, Michael Cullen, opened the first self-service grocery store in the nation in the little town of Jamaica on New York's Long Island.

"A help-yourself grocery store without clerks? Everybody said we'd be out of business in a month," Jim recalls.

Worked all night

The day before the opening (in a converted garage) Jim, who was then 18, worked all night helping his father pre-pack flour, soap chips, sugar, beans, cereals and vegetables.

It was the dawn, too, of a completely new industry—pre-packaged foods.

Outside, the Cullens painted a big red sign that blared: "King Cullen — King Of The Price Wreckers! How Does He Do It?"

Thousands of depression-riddled customers, counting every penny and hungrily seeking a bargain, jammed the doors of the little store right at the opening. All day long they came from all over the island.

And they were getting bargains—as much as 5 and 10 cents an item cheaper.

Well, how did he do it?
 "Simple," Jim explains. "People were waiting on themselves."

He comes from six generations of grocers. His great grandfather opened a store in America soon after his arrival from Ireland, and his grandfather and father worked many years with the A & P.

Not only famed as a grocery innovator, Cullen is widely known as a musician with his own jazz band. He blows a mean saxophone when he gets in the groove.

The King Cullen stores soon will be selling a new item—a record album of his own band's music—and, for once, Jim says it will not be an exclusive with King Cullen.

WATER DISTRICT ELECTION SET NEXT TUESDAY ALL OVER PLAINS

The High Plains Underground Water Conservation District will hold its annual election of County Committeemen and District Directors on January 13, 1959.

In addition to the voting in Cochran County on two commitments, two County Committeemen will be elected in each of the other 12 Water District Counties to replace two retiring Committeemen. The Committee consists of five members who serve three-year terms of office.

The Board of Directors, which is the governing body of the Water District, will have three of its members whose terms of office expire. District Board members serve two - year terms of office. Voters in Director's Precinct No. 1, consisting of Lubbock and Lamb Counties, will elect a Director from their area to serve a two - year term on the District Board. The same is true for Director's Precinct No. 2, which consists of Bailey, Castro and Farmer Counties, and for Director's Precinct No. 4, consisting of Armstrong, Deaf Smith, Potter & Randall Counties.

The Water District Headquarters has released the following statement: "These persons who are qualified voters and reside within the bounds of the High Plains Undergound Water Conservation District are urged to cast their ballots on January 13, a voter may cast his ballot at any one of the voting places within his county."

"The problems in connection with development and use of underground water in the southern High Plains are problems that have an effect on everyone who lives in an area, regardless of occupation, consequently it is most important that capable men who represent the majority, are elected to these offices."

Of particular interest to Cochran County voters, and to all members of Bailey County, will be the District Director vote for Director's Prec. 1, Bailey, Castro, and Farmer Counties. Three names are on the ballot: A. H. Durbin, Napier, John Gunnison of Rt. 1, Friona, and Johnnie M. Halverson of Route Four, Muleshoe.

There will be three voting places in Bailey County. At the Community House in Muleshoe; at the Epochs Gas Office in Ector; and at the Three Way School House. Nominees for the County Committeemen posts in Bailey County, will be: for Committeemen's Precinct No. 1, F. A. Carter and Duane Davis, both of Muleshoe; and for Prec. 1, Hubert Backwood, Ed and Lloyd Throckmorton, Rt. 1, Muleshoe.

In Cochran County, there will be only one voting place, at the County Administration Building in Muleshoe. Voting in this County will be for a Committeeman - at - large, with two or three names. W. Martin and Lloyd Miller, of Norman, and for a Director from Committeemen's Prec. No. 2, O. L. Castle and L. L. Taylor of Morton Route One, are the names on the ballot.

COUNTY AGENT

By HOMER E. THOMPSON
ANNUAL REPORT

During the past year, 1958, the following work was accomplished by the office of County Agent of Cochran County:

Eight hundred seventy-nine farm or home visits were made. There were 1831 office calls requesting information and 1077 telephone calls. The agent prepared 71 news columns and appeared on the television station at Lubbock twice, and had ten radio programs. A total of 278 Extension bulletins were distributed by the agricultural agent. Thirty-two adult result demonstrations were conducted. Eleven training meetings were held for local leaders with an attendance of 370. The local leaders held 15 meetings for adults with a total attendance of 122. The agent held 26 training meetings for 4-H club leaders with an attendance of 920. The leaders held 22 meetings with an attendance of 428. The agent held or participated in 53 other meetings for adults with a total attendance of 5493. The agent held or participated in 59 other meetings for 4-H Club members with an attendance of 2751. Of the 281 days worked, 163 were devoted to working with adults and 118 days with 4-H members.

During the year there were 300 boys enrolled in the Boys 4-H Clubs in Cochran County. Of this number 120 completed demonstrations.

Six boys entered swine in the annual 4-H and FFA Fat Stock Show held in March. Lester Dupier, 4-H Club boy from Morton, won the showmanship award in the fat barrow showing. In preparation of the swine demonstration color slides on "Fitting and Showing Hogs" were shown to four clubs in February. The total attendance was 151.

In January safety films were shown to the 4-H clubs at their regular meetings. There were 78 boys enrolled in safety this year and 60 completed the work. This included the boys enrolled in Rifle Safety. Many training meetings were held, including films, demonstrations, & actual practice meetings.

In January a county-wide meeting was held to re-organize the Rifle Club. Twenty-eight 4-H members, parents and leaders attended.

The first training meeting was held in March with 52 members, parents and leaders present. The two adult leaders, Ken Coffman & Ralph Chadjev, discussed and presented visual aids on rifle safety and shooting. The weather was cold but the enthusiasm and spirit was high. The County Agent discussed the present program and requirements expected of the group.

During April there were 4 meetings held at the pit for members interested. The total attendance for the 4 meetings was 174 boys, girls, adult leaders, and parents. The county team placed first in the district again in 1958. They then went on to place 6th in the state contest.

A 4-H Electric team was trained to compete in the district contest. Curtis Chapman was the training instructor. Several training meetings were held for these 4-H members. The team competed in the district contest but did not place in the top three.

In June three 4-H Club boys, one 4-H Club girl, one adult leader and the Agricultural Agent attended the annual 4-H Electric Camp. The 4 phases of the educational program given at the camp included wiring and crafts, electric motors and care; lighting for homes, reading, etc.; and a visit to Plant X to observe the distribution and manufacture of electricity.

This camp is sponsored jointly by the Southwestern Public Service Company and the Extension Service and is very educational.

Fourteen training meetings were held to train 4-H members in Entomology with 205 attending. There were two adult leaders, Don Avery and Bob Pierce, assisting in this training. Slides and films were used in these training meetings. The team representing Cochran County placed third in the district contest.

Other activities of the 4-H Club members were: Achievement Program in December; a coffee can supper, a skating party, Tractor Maintenance Schools held at Morton, Bledsoe and Whiteface, the Rally Day Program; a District Leadership Camp attended by four local boys; seven members participating in the District 4-H Cotton Contest and one land judging meeting.

Four families are now enrolled in the Farm and Home Development Demonstrations and we now have an active County Program Building Committee with several sub-committees.

The Agent showed movies to various groups 58 times with an attendance of 2,482 and slides were shown 16 times with 485 present.
