County Paid Poll Tax Total Soars As Deadline Nears

WITH EXEMPTIONS —
Total May Hit 2,000

A total of 1353 paid poll tax receipts had been written out at the local County Assessor-Collector's office through Wednesday at 4:30 p. m., and including the receipts issued at Whiteface through Tuesday.

This figure does not include the number of voids included during the writing of poll taxes and does not include the exemptions issued it was stated.

The total, with exemptions, should be over 1,500 which indicates the county total may come close to the all time high of around 2,000.

The local office again emphasized they will remain open Saturday afternoon, if necessary, to write poll tax receipts for late comers. Sunday at midnight is the official deadline according to law.

Anyone with children of school age, who are not in school; or with children who will be in school next year, but who have not yet been enumerated because of recent arrival in the district, etc., is urged to contact the school tax office. ### Chlorinator Is Damaged — City Pranksters May Have Narrowly Missed Death

Mischiefous persons who opened the valve on Morton's south-west water tanks, and lost an unknown amount of water into the neighborhood, came within a whisker of being "left" at the scene of their prank, it was announced this week by City Secretary Joe Seagler.

The pranksters, in addition to turning the water loose, climbed to the top of the building, housing the chlorinator unit and destroyed that unit, from within.

Seagler said it was just someone's good fortune that the supply of chlorine had almost run out. The City had sent for a new shipment and it had not yet been put in the tank.

If it had been full, or "fuller" Seagler said, the fumes would have probably been so great that the persons would have died in their tracks before they could scramble up and out of the skylight. The door to the building remained locked shut.

The Secretary was at loss to explain why anyone would want to tamper with the chlorinator but said they were investigating to see if a federal law wasn't broken, since the health of the community is based on the amount of chlorine put into the water supply to kill disease. If a fed-

INDIANS BEAT LOCKNEY; OLTON TO PLAY HERE TOMORROW NIGHT

The Morton Indians, who have never been last in two tough years of competition in the rugged District 2-AA, pulled a basketball upset out of the hat at Lockney, Tuesday, and moved into a position to maintain a record of never having finished in the District cellar in any athletic season.

The Indians, overcoming a first half lead, dealt the Longhorns their fourth straight district loss and won for themselves their first District cage triumph of this season, 42 to 41.

In the throes of a dismal cage year, following three much stronger years, Coach Bobby Travis' charges had suffered previous loop reversals at the hands of Olton, Abernathy and Muleshoe. Victories at home, in games to come against Olton and Lockney, could insure the Indians a finish well out of the loop cellar.

After trailing 25 to 21 at the half, the Indians used the third quarter to take a 33 to 29 lead and went on to win the squeaker. Marvin Gathright's 12 points was the top effort for the Indians.

The Maids didn't fare so well, though it took a 36 point effort by Lockney's Janice Boedeker, for them to beat Morton, 53 to 50, in another close game. Norma Flanagan had 22 points to pace Coach Pat Hugh's girls.

Both the Indians and Maids have a 1-3 conference record going into their games tomorrow night (Friday) with Olton, on the local court.

BLEDSOE BOARD OF TRUSTEES EXTENDS CONTRACT OF SUPT.

The Board of Trustees of the Bledsoe Independent School District extended the contract of Supt. Otis Parr, at its regular meeting, Tuesday night.

The contract extension, a unanimous vote of the Board, will expire on June 30, 1963.

The extension of contract, practiced almost universally in Texas schools, is a vote of confidence for the superintendent. The Bledsoe School, now on a fully independent status after many years as a Common School District, have approximately 100 students on their roll. Now operating free of debt, the school looks forward to progressive years Supt. Parr stated Wednesday.

Supt. Parr reminded that he, like most superintendents of schools, would not be happy working in a situation where harmony was non-existent. The extension of contract reaffirms the fact that the Board is behind him, and allows him to reaffirm his faith in the school and look toward the future progress of the school, instead of worries about his own job security.

At the same meeting the Bledsoe Board of Trustees voted to ask Z. O. Lincoln, Levelland, to serve as auditor of the school records for another year.

LITTLE LEAGUE OFFICERS ELECTED

The organizational meeting of the Morton Little League was held Thursday night in a meeting at the Cochran County Court house.

Preliminary plans for league operation were made so that the league charter papers could be sent off. The papers were drawn up on the basis of a 5 team league. The registration fee was also to be sent off.

M. C. Ledbetter, who has served as executive secretary of the league for the past several years, read an audit report and discussed the various problems that the league will face. He promised to work closely with an associate who would take over the duties of the executive secretary, George Boring was asked by the group to serve and agreed.

Roy Hill, league president, consented to hold that office again; Hume Russell was named vice president again; and Elmo Smith accepted the duties of treasurer, Eddie Irwin will again serve as player agent.

The group also discussed team managers (a couple of replacements may be necessary because men now serving will want to spend their efforts in the direction of the Babe Ruth League.)

Junior Cooper Enters Contest for County Tax-Assessor Collector

Only one new candidate announced his intentions to be a candidate for office to the Tribune this past week, but one other filing fee had been paid at the office of the County Democratic Chairman, Joe Nicewarner.

The election of a Tax Assessor-Collector, the last County post up for election this summer which had posed no contest, became one this week with the announcement that G. F. (Junior) Cooper will be a candidate for the position.

Mrs. Otha Denny, incumbent, had announced for re-election some time ago.

M. C. Ledbetter, District Judge, has filed for re-election at Nicewarner's office.

Thus, with the deadline for filing only a few days away — Monday at midnight — every county office up for election had competition with the exception of Justice of the Peace, Pct. I and Commissioner of Pct. 3.

There were three in the Pct. I Commissioners' race, and two each in the County Attorney, County Tax Assessor - Collector, and County Sheriff races.

Neither Judge Ledbetter nor District Attorney Morgan Copeland had an opponent as of Wednesday evening.

Late efforts were made to determine candidates who have filed for the Democratic offices of Precinct Chairmen and County Chairman. Nicewarner, Democratic Chairman said Wednesday night that no candidates had filed for those posts yet.

Precinct Chairmen offices in all four precincts plus the County Democratic Chairman's post will be filled by voters in the Democratic Primary. The posts are two year terms. There is no filing fee for these offices, the expense incurred being borne by other candidates.

This will culminate the observances of Guild month, which is designated for January.

All Guild members, their families and friends are invited to attend this service.

Guild Members To Be Recognized

Members of the Wesleyan Service Guild will be recognized during the morning service at the First Methodist Church Sunday, Jan. 31.

Survivors include the five sons; Jack; W. W., of Ft. Worth; Paul of Pampa; J. L. of Happy; and Les of Baton Rouge, La.; one daughter, Mrs. Thelma Price of Paris; and several grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Among those here who left yesterday to attend the services are Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Baker; Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Tanner; and Mrs. Jack Baker.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. today, Thursday, at the First Baptist Church of Paris, Texas for Mrs. R. W. Baker, 84, mother of Jack Baker of Morton, who died Tuesday.

Burial will be at Paris, Jack, and his daughter, Mrs. Billy Simpson, were among those at her bedside when she passed away.

Expenses will be paid on all cars taken, and those wishing to take cars are asked to contact Jack Baker at Baker Feed and Seed and Fertilizer, Morton. Persons wishing to go who have no transportation, are asked to contact Baker for rides.

The date is set for Thursday, Feb. 4.

Raines Cash Food Grand Opening Friday, Saturday

Raines Cash Food, located two doors north of the Rose Theatre on North Main, Morton will observe "Grand Opening" Friday, Saturday, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

Details of the opening will be found on page seven of this publication of the Tribune.

Among other things, the store is giving away a bicycle valued at $88.95, fifteen baskets of groceries, and free coffee and doughnuts all day Saturday.

Friday, a basket of groceries will be given away every hour on the hour beginning at 1 p. m. and continuing through 5 p. m. Saturday groceries will be given away beginning at 9 a. m. and continuing through 6 p. m.

In order to be eligible for the groceries, just register when you visit the store.

That's all that you need to do to receive the big bike.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Raines purchased the store from Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Lackey around the first of December. A formal opening was postponed until now.

Raines was engaged in a wholesale business at Littlefield prior to moving to Morton. He grew up in Hockley and Lamb Counties.

The couple have one child, Johnny, 3.

They extend the public a cordial invitation to attend the opening. Store hours are from 7 a. m. to 9 p. m. seven days per week.

Magazines Due

Anyone who hasn't received their magazines purchased through the recent band sale, by February 10, is requested to contact Bill Hulise, band director or a member of the band.

Shown above are the thirteen vocational nurses who were capped in impressive ceremonies at Levelland recently in a program held at the South Plains College Library Auditorium before a capacity crowd of friends and well-wishers. ### SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

District-wide Activities of the Soil Conservation District in 1959 included a 12 point program of activities dedicated to helping co-

The year-end report lists the following fields of services provided throughout the district.

The District provided 17 pieces of equipment for use by the cooperators.

In promotion and publicity they published nearly 50 articles in the Morton Tribune and three in the Lubbock Avalanche - Journal.

The district on numerous occasions assisted the state and federal agencies in carrying out their objectives.

They prepared the annual district plan of work.

They prepared the annual report from which these past two articles have been written, to keep the cooperators abreast of what can be done and is being done in the district.

The District and SCS Technician assisted the County Agent in conducting four field tours, one in each portion of the SCS District.

The district conducted the election and with help from the County Agent, three supervisors were elected.

The District participated in the Soil Stewardship program.

The District cooperated with the Lubbock County SCD and the Lubbock Nurseryman's Association to make Arizona Cypress trees available.

The District's grass drills were used to establish a large percentage of grass and soil improving crops, along with many other items of equipment.

The district donated money for the Cochran County 4-H and FFA Fat Stock Show, to be used for premiums.

Coming to the end of another year, the SCD takes stock of its problems and needs and lists the following:

There is a definite need for technical and information assistance to bring about a better understanding of conservation practices.

Among the items needed to be brought into sharp focus of the cooperators are the need for contour farming to hold rainfall; the need for increased cover cropping to slow down wind erosion; and the need for a Conservation Cropping system of rotation of crops.

There is also, the district report continues, a need for two additional man-year assistance in the technical field to properly serve these cooperators who are ready to plan and apply conservation practices.

The District extended its sincere appreciation to all of the many individuals and organizations who have helped make their year successful.

The financial report at the end of the year shows a total of $337 received for rental of equipment belonging to the district and a total expense of $1,419.15; thus showing a net loss for the period of $882.15. The net worth, as of August 31, 1959, was $3,691.45.

Among the items planned for 1960 by the District, which are not annual events in which they participate, are:

To sponsor new and different field trips from those held in the past; to enter the Fort Worth awards contest; to invite guests to their monthly meetings so they can promote better understanding.

'Biggest' Farm Machinery Sale Set for Hub Community, Today

Today is the day of the annual farm machinery sale at Hub, Texas billed as "The World's Biggest Farm Machinery Auction." All proceeds from the commission of the sale are used for paying for the Hub Community Building, centrally located for use by civic, county or state organizations, according to a letter received here from Leo J. Ruzicka, chairman of the advertising committee of Hub Community.

They expect $100,000 worth of farm machinery to be sold. "A good many complete farming outfits will be consigned in addition to equipment such as a catpillar tractor, maintainer, scraper, etc.," consigned by the Soil Conservation Service, it was said by Ruzicka.

Five auctioneers are scheduled to work and a lunch will be served by ladies of the community. They also will have the free services of two winch trucks.

Although items on the sale bills, distributed throughout the area had to be turned in by last Thursday, items to be sold can be brought any time up until and including the day of the sale.

With Your ... COUNTY AGENT

By Homer E. Thompson

DON'T GUESS - SOIL TEST

You wouldn't scatter money all over your fields and then just plow it under. Would you? No, of course not, but you may be doing just that when you spread fertilizer over your land without knowing if the soil needs the fertilizer or not.

There are two methods of determining how much fertilizer to put on the land. One way is to guess, and the other is to take a soil sample. A wrong guess can be expensive. Even when your guess is reasonably good, soil sampling will save you money.

Fertilizer which is applied that isn't needed is money wasted. Every field is not the same - even on your own farm, and when the wrong ration of plant nutrients is used, profits go down. Soil testing can help you get your fields producing as much as possible with the fewest dollars spent for fertilizer.

Recommendations based on a soil test can be no better than the samples taken. A few minutes spent with your local county agent will get you full and accurate information on how to take soil samples correctly. He also has copies of the forms which must accompany the samples to the laboratory and the soil boxes for taking the soil samples.

Remember - DON'T GUESS - SOIL TEST.

COTTON ROOT KNOT NEMATODE CONTROL

Earl Polvado has good results with cotton root knot nematode control.

In 1958 Earl applied two kinds of soil fumigants to his cotton land three weeks ahead of planting. He claimed the results to be a 1/2 bale increase over the check area where no fumigant was applied.

In 1959 the results were similar. In the spring of 1959 about three weeks prior to planting he again applied the soil fumigant (Dow fume 85) at a cost of $15 per acre for the treatment. This seems expensive says Earl, but again in 1959 the increase in pounds of lint per acre was 225 pounds over the check area (check areas mean no treatment). Earl believes firmly that where you have nematode on cotton land that you should fumigate. He also believes that the fumigant in the soil helps to control weed and grass seed, which lessens your hoe bill considerably, or about 75 percent Earl said.

Earl believes that two applications of Giberellic acid at the cost of $6.00 per acre application, made him about 10 percent lint increase or 63 pounds per acre.

REPORT ON FARM AND HOME DEVELOPMENT FAMILY

The Merlin Roberts family is working very close with the County Extension Agents, and some things he has tried on his own. Merlin found out some of his mistakes and admits that he thinks he can do better next year. He used a little lesser amount of fertilizer than soil test showed. For instance, he had 162 acres of cotton and he used 40-40-0, it except the check plot. It did yield him 268 pounds per acre increase on lint per acre. He admits that it would have made him much more lint had he gone up to 50-50-0 or even 60-60-0 per acre as his test plots indicated.

Another mistake he says that is not going to be made this year is that he is going to put down all the (P2 05) phosphorus and at least half his nitrogen requirements prior to planting. He sidedressed some 40-40-0 in 1959. He made 65 bales on 62 acres, but it was late, immature and low grade. It required more expense in harvesting and ginning. He says "When cotton is weak in staple - irregular because of immaturity - that the gin blows it out the bur discharge pipe." Merlin believes had he put down the 40-40-0 fertilizer prior to planting in 1959 instead of side dressing the 62 acres that it would have made him a great deal more take home money.

Even though Merlin made 169 bales on the 162 acres, he feels that his experience can show him where he can cut expenses. For example, he had 5 acres of non-irrigated cotton in 1959 that made him 4 bales of good high quality cotton and all he did after planting was knife, hoe and cultivate it one time each. This is where Merlin got his take home money. Concerning the 62 acres that produced 65 bales of lint cotton, Merlin said, "My expenses and wastes were tremendous. Besides getting a poor turnout, I had irrigated it three times (one preplant irrigation) and it took two plowings and a big hoe bill plus, applying insecticide and knifing. It was immature when the frost came."

610 on 175 acres of non irrigated land that averaged 1201 pounds per acre.

An earlier report on Merlin showed his use of fertilizer 40-50-0 on grain sorghum irrigated made increase of 1810 pounds per acre over the irrigated check plot. The cost of fertilizer was $10.00 per acre, and the increase in grain produced was $28 per acre.

COTTON FERTILIZER AND VARIETY TESTS (WORK WITH ADULIN)

Mr. F. M. Sharp, Morton, Texas planted Rex Cotton variety on his 57 acres cotton land in 1959. He picked the first time, and hand pulled the last time. He never uses a stripper.

He produced 57,010 pounds of lint on the 57 acres or better than 2 bales per acre average. The first time he picked over he harvested 60 bales which averaged his 33 cents per pound. The last going over he pulled by hand and harvested 44 bales which sold for 30 cents per pound average. He says the knots ran middling Lt. Sp., average grade. The turn out was 38 percent on picked cotton, and 29 percent on pulled cotton.

Rex is an open boll cotton and Mr. Sharp says, "It is tolerant of angular leaf spot."

Mr. Sharp irrigated once, pre-plant, and all cotton was watered twice after planting and 13.4 acres had 77-72-36 fertilizer applied prior to planting in 20 inch rows.

The three applications of fertilizer applied were 77-72-36; 61-41-20 and 59-36-18. He said there was very little difference in the yield but the last two mentioned were the most economical producers. In other words, gave him the most cotton for the least money spent on fertilizer. Too, the third irrigation did not help the quality of cotton a bit - perhaps more immature. The little lint yield increase did not make up for the grade and price loss on the 13.4 acres where 77-72-36 fertilizer was applied.

He will plant Rex variety cotton in 1960 because he had no loss by falling out.

To mention here a grain sorghum fertilizer demonstration of Mr. Sharp's in 1959: He applied 55 lbs. of anhydrous ammonia, or 45 pounds nitrogen per acre on 20 acres of irrigated Texas hybrid 50 grain sorghum. He produced 4306 pounds of grain per acre. Where he irrigated all the remainder of grain sorghum, but no fertilizer applied the average yield was 3,000 lbs. per acre. The difference in yield of 1306 pounds per acre was due to 41 pounds nitrogen. For each $4.75 spent for fertilizer, his return was $20.00.

One Farm and Home Development family who live 1 1/2 miles south of Whiteface, Texas are the Hubert Taylors.

He had a big prospective crop almost mature on August 30, 1959 when a severe hail storm took its destructive toll. It took out all the watermelons, fifty percent of the grain sorghum yield and seventy percent of the cotton. Fortunately the Taylors had hail insurance on the 46 acres of cotton amounting to $100 per acre. He collected $70 per acre hail damage or 70 percent, allowed by the company. The cotton looked like it would make over two bales per acre as he had irrigated land and applied 30-60-30 fertilizer before planting cotton.

Hubert harvested 33 bales of cotton off the 46 acres last fall after he collected on his hail insurance. The grade and staple was good; so he figures his gross sale of cotton, plus insurance received for hail damage was good. He believes he would have made a bumper cotton crop and advanced his net cotton income considerably had he not had the big hail damage on Aug. 30, 1959.

The 80 acres of grain averaged him $500 lbs. per acre. This average is excellent considering that at fifty percent of the early grain acreage turned about 2200 pounds per acre when harvested after the hail. The late grain survived the hail damage much better than the early grain, almost mature when the hail hit. Hubert believes he would have exceeded his 1958 grain sorghum yield of 4500 lbs. per acre had it not hailed.

Hubert produced two hybrid varieties of grain sorghum on the 80 acres, being equally divided between Texas hybrid 610 and Dekalb hybrid 788.

Mr. C. A. Moore, Morton, Texas planted cotton on 40 inch rows solid, and planted cotton 4 rows in and 4 out. It was all irrigated and fertilized alike. He used about a 30-60-0 fertilizer per acre. Counting cotton land as cotton land in all instances the 40 inch regular rows of cotton produced 870 lbs. of lint cotton per acre, whereas the 4 rows in and 4 out, produced 1240 lbs. per acre.

He planted two varieties of cotton. These were: Lankart 611 and Gregg. The Lankart varieties slightly out yielded the Gregg cotton, but Gregg made Mr. Moore the most money. He said, "It matured earlier, opened earlier and made a much better grade." "I believe Gregg is the Cotton for me!" The Gregg certified seed planted in 1959 yielded slightly less than the Gregg seed planted first year out of the white sack. Mr. Moore stated, "I expect to plant some certified seed every year to produce plenty of planting seed."

Rep. Bob Bowers Is Candidate For Re-election

STATE REPRESENTATIVE ROBERT L. BOWERS

In a story released in the Brownfield News, hometown paper of the 98th District State Representative, Robert L. Bowers, Jr., on January 21, Bowers announced he would be a candidate for a third two-year term as State Representative.

The 98th District comprises Terry, Hockley, Cochran and Yoakum Counties. The announcement is subject to action of the First Primary Election, May 7th.

Born and reared in Brownfield, he is the son of Mrs. R. L. Bowers Sr., 406 East Tate.

The representative and his wife (the former Jane Lawson of Lubbock) and their three children live at 1609 East Cardwell.

Bowers explained Tuesday that he will campaign as a Conservative. He also expressed deep concern about the inroads which labor unions have made in Texas and national politics during the past decade.

"I certainly don't know at this time," said Bowers, when asked if Gov. Danie'l might call a special session before election. "However," he concluded, "in the near future we'll have to face up to the question of better schools for Texas."

Texas Chamber of Commerce Speaker Lists at a Chamber of Commerce Can Do for Community

talk to the Morton Lions here last Wednesday, Ralph of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, pointed up sharply the position of the Chamber in the Community.

at the invitation of various businessmen, Duncan started during that he hadn't come to "sell a Chamber," but it would be entirely up to them to decide whether they need a Chamber.

listed four essential needs for a Chamber: to keep it functional; to keep it properly managed; to keep it properly financed; and to keep it properly organized.

Chamber managers, he said, should be college graduates, preferably from the Midwest, and should have a course in management. But he urged against the formation of "just another organization."

His purpose was not to sell to find a manager.

"Most of the progress of the area," said Duncan, "can be traced to teamwork." Then he pointed out graphically that the Chamber is selling teamwork.

If for no reason, he told the group, that teamwork was important just to keep from the tremendous wasted effort that goes into each man trying to get something done.

Duncan was strongly in favor of the formation of a Chamber with a full time manager, as opposed to a Chamber with only a secretary or a Board of Directors. He said he felt the local Jaycees and Lions could operate as effectively as a Chamber, if the Chamber were not to be set up with a full time manager. He urged against the formation of "just another organization."

His purpose was not to sell the Chamber idea, he repeated again and again. He said the first thing necessary was to sell the Chamber to ourselves. . . then to put the proper steps in motion to educate the community as to the work of the Chamber.

In closing he left it squarely up to the men of Morton, whom he said could determine the feelings of the community in several ways. . . but should consider the determination a "must" before proceeding further. He suggested a Joint Lions - Jaycees Committee

SPEAKS TO LOCAL P-TA — Highway Patrolman Allen Cautions: Legal Speed Not Always Safe Speed

One of the most pertinent points that Highway Patrolmen Bob Allen brought to a meeting of the Morton P-TA this past week was the thought that "the legal speed is not always the SAFE speed."

In nearly any discussion about safety, speed is the number one subject. Thinking people recognize, though they cannot always reason why, that speed is a number one factor in automobiles. People buy them for the speed they can generate. They reject others for their lack of speed. It follows that speed is the number one cause of traffic deaths.

The point Allen was making was simply that too often we have a tendency to say, "but I was only going 55," or "we didn't drive but 40 miles per hour and the sign said 60 was the speed limit."

location. He related the story of a man who was given a ticket for running a certain stop sign and a year later was killed at the same intersection, running the same stop sign.

And then Bob Allen went into this thing of driver courtesy. It's a subject that has been given top billing in safe driving stories for years and years, but which from a glance at the type of question asked from the floor, proves that most people just don't think about courtesy when they are behind the wheel.

A lot of the questions asked following the meeting were concerned with this approach: "What do you get after..."

ions which are pertinent in some ways, but which mostly deal with discourteousness of drivers. They indicated often that the person framing the question was as a discourteous driver as the man being complained about.

Allen told the group how important he thought it was to maintain courtesy while driving. ESPECIALLY, under the stress and discomfort of someone else's discourteousness.

It was a good session. It was a meeting that brought the parents and teachers who attended some needed concentration on safe driving problems that are often skipped in the discussions about speeding and drinking while driving.

Traffic zones of speed are set up under ideal weather conditions. If the driver behind the wheel hasn't the common sense and judgement to know how and when to adjust for poor weather, chances are he's been placed in too much of a position of authority... chances are he has no business being in charge of 300 or more horses.

Patrolman Allen went on to hot hard on the subject of negligence or carelessness behind the wheel. He tied it in with driving too fast for the weather conditions, but explored the problem further with respect to foolish poor driving habits which are easily acquired (such as running stop signs at intersections we think we know well).

In connection with this it follows that acquiring a habit of not stopping at THIS or THAT stop sign, carries over to all stop signs, and ends in a general disrespect for stop signs at any

Whitface Holds Boy Scout Court of Honor

Whitface (spl.) — A Boy Scout Court of Honor was held Monday evening, Jan. 18, in the Educational Building of the Methodist Church at Whitface.

There was a good turnout of adults and Scouts to show their appreciation of the efforts these boys had made and the achievement awards they were to receive.

The following boys advanced one rank in Scouting by receiving their second class awards. Robert Pond, Charles Bridges, Billy Eaton, and Stanley Stegall.

One boy advanced another rank up from second class to first class. He was Mike Howard.

All were members of Whitface Troop 73.

There was a short meeting of the Scout Committee of Troop 73 after the Court of Honor. There were 10 members and fathers present.

Plans of organization of the different committees of the camping and outdoors activities were discussed. An Advancement Committee was selected.

Boy Scout Summer Camp was also brought up for future planning.

Raise a car in a grain sorghum field?

It's not fantastic! And here is why:

One leading farmer with 250 acres of maize reported a yield increase of 1625 pounds per acre after application of Phillips 66 Ammonia. He cut a total of 7250 extra bushels of grain and netted $4,050 in extra profits after deducting the cost of ammonia. You can buy a pretty good car for $4,050.

Ask your Phillips 66 Distributor to show you the ways Phillips 66 Ammonia can help you live better through higher profits per acre.

	Using Phillips Ammonia	Without Ammonia
Fixed Cost Per Acre	$39	$39
Ammonia Cost Per Acre	$7	—
Yield Per Acre	97 bu.	68 bu.
Net Profit Per Acre	$31.60	$15.40
INCREASED PROFIT PER ACRE $16.20

*Grain sorghum 80c bu. Example only. Results vary, according to soil fertility, available moisture and cultural practices.
