EDITORIAL . . .

Visit To School Appropriate This Week

It's unfortunate that it takes such a thing as Public Schools Week to get the parents into schools for a visit . . . but such is the case.

In fact, even though this is Public Schools Week, a great number of the parents will find it impossible to allow a few minutes of their time to be spent in visiting the schools.

This is Public Schools Week in Texas. By the time you read this editorial, the official open house will already have been held, on Tuesday night of this week.

But Superintendent John Barnes has repeatedly insisted that it does not take a special invitation for parents and patrons of the school to visit. It is the sincere hope of the Morton school system that you will feel free to visit the schools anytime you are interested or have time . . . rather than to wait until Johnny has run into some difficulty or Jane has slipped a notch or two in her grades.

Schools, though most people don't consider them that light, are big business. They are big enough business to command budgets from a quarter to a million dollars every year. When you get into budgets of that much money, most organizations are eager to find ways in which they can improve their operations. This school is no exception.

And, though we are more closely associated with the Morton schools, this does not only include the Morton Schools. The schools of Whiteface, Bula, Bledsoe, Three Way, Pep and Pettit of this area are just as anxious for the parents to know just what is going on, what are the school policies, and just what conditions exist in their schools.

Won't you make it a point to stop by your schools as soon as possible . . . allow yourself a little time to look around and meet the folks who are charged with the tremendous responsibility of giving an education to the children of Texas Last Frontier area. They'll be glad you came . . . and we think you will be too.

Dryland maize yield
 1100 lbs. per acre

KENNETH BROSEH of Lockney, Tex.
 reports that 60 lbs. of Ammonia helped make 3200 lbs. maize per acre

"A test was conducted on 250 acres of dryland maize to help determine the benefits of ammonia. On 30 acres, 60 pounds of Phillips 66 Ammonia per acre was applied pre-plant. This land averaged 3200 pounds maize per acre. The rest of the acreage that received no ammonia averaged 2100 pounds," according to Kenneth Broseh, who farms 785 acres.

"Cotton increased 1/4 bale per acre," he says, "where 40 pounds of Phillips 66 Ammonia was applied pre-plant. Using ammonia is just like selecting top quality seed and carefully cultivating the soil—it's a key part of a sound program to produce top yields."

Thousands of Texas farmers are now using Phillips 66 Ammonia to help assure top net profits per acre—on irrigated or dryland fields... in wet or dry years. Actual field reports prove that Phillips 66 Ammonia (1) produces more high grade lint (2) increases sorghum grain yields (3) boosts wheat and small grain yields (4) stimulates pasture growth for more meat and milk.

See your local Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia Distributor now. You can make more money this year with this 82% nitrogen fertilizer. It can be applied by you or your distributor.

Texas Sesame Growers, Inc. will hold a special meeting in Morton today to help farmers of Cochran County plan their 1960 Sesame crops.

The meeting will be at 7:30 p. m. in the Agriculture Activities Building County Agent Homer Thompson will be in charge. Parker will be on hand to discuss crop and market prospects for 1960. He will be accompanied by Bill Wimberly, manager of Texas Sesame Growers, Inc. High Plains plant at Muleshoe, and Ray Hodges, Sesame field man.

"Market prospects for the Sesame which will be produced this year are the best in several years," Parker said. He pointed out that two factors combine to make the market bright this year. The first is that Sesame seed consumption in this country is increasing, and the second is that the 1959 crops both in the U. S. and in South and Central America, were shorter than expected last year.

"These conditions combine to put us in a very good market position this Fall, Parker said. "New products are using an ever-increasing amount of Sesame seed, and more users are being found all the time. Any way we figure it, it is going to take more Sesame to supply the demand in 1960."

Special Ceremony Planned . . .
 Soil and Water Conservation Stamp
 To Be Issued by Post Office, April 18

Soil and water conservation leaders here are looking forward to issuance of the world's water conservation postage stamp by the Post Office Department in Washington, D. C., O. L. Castle, Cochran SCD Chairman said today.

The commemorative 4-cent stamp, printed in 3 colors, will be issued April 18 at the National Watershed Congress in the national capitol at a ceremony featuring three cabinet members, Agriculture Secretary Ezra Taft Benson, Interior Secretary Fred A. Seaton, and Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield.

The stamp will go on sale on the following day, April 19, at other post offices throughout the country, including those at Morton, Bledsoe and Whiteface.

"The beautiful new stamp dramatizes the fact that water is today our most precious and most limiting natural resource," Castle said. The stamp is being released at the Seventh National Watershed Congress, Castle pointed out, because of the influence of upstream land treatment and small dams in small watersheds on our water supplies.

This Congress, he said, brings together each year representatives of 30 or more agricultural and conservation organizations concerned with water problems in the nation's small watersheds. Castle said local observances of the water conservation stamp's issuance is being planned.

Exams Are Given For Positions In 1960 Census

Examinations were given Tuesday, at 10:30 a. m., at the American Legion Building in Muleshoe, for persons interested in becoming census takers during the upcoming U. S. Census.

The exams at Muleshoe, were given to Bailey County and Cochran County persons. The two counties are lumped together under one crew chief.

Carl Case of Muleshoe is chief of the two county operation, having scored the highest grade on tests given at Lubbock a few weeks ago, for the position of crew chief.

Case said in a telephone conversation last Saturday, he would notify the Tribune of whom would be selected from Cochran County to be census takers.

The Tribune received the information of the giving of the tests last Friday, too late for notification in the paper, but those who had indicated to the newspaper that they were interested were notified of the time and place, and Case said Saturday, there were six persons from Cochran County whose names were on file at Lubbock, who planned to take the tests.

The actual census takers work will last about two or three weeks, but those who pass the test will have a period of schooling before they become census takers.

Farmers Given Chance to Purchase
 Rat Poison Surplus at Large Discount

Close to 1,000 lbs. of rat bait remains on hand and can be purchased from the County at a cost of only 12 cents per pound, which is below the regular cost, it was announced this week.

County Agent Homer Thompson, and County Rat Bait Chairman, Chessher, urged farmers to buy up this supply at the nominal cost on a first come first served basis.

Now is a good time, they emphasized, to put out the rat poison which is injurious to rats because they continue to eat it, but not harmful to pets and stock because they will not eat it after a first taste.

The bait can be purchased by farmers at the office of the janitor in the County Courthouse.

Mrs. Sammy Leverett reported that two members of the nurses auxiliary are working at the local hospital each afternoon. The Seventh District Convention to be held in Lubbock on March 21, 22, and 23, was discussed and the members were urged to attend any and all of the meetings possible.

He stressed that we should always call our physician. Mr. Allen showed where the vital points for applying pressure to stop bleeding are. He explained the different types of artificial respiration and how they are to be administered. Poisoning, according to Mr. Allen, is one of the leading causes of home deaths. He stressed that we all "clean out" our medicine cabinets and cleaning cabinets and put anything that is poisonous out of reach of small children. He told some things that could be done for a person who had been poisoned while waiting for a physician to arrive. Mr. Allen stated that one

GOVERNOR PROCLAIMS MARCH 5 - 12 AS 4-H CLUB WEEK IN TEXAS

Governor Price Daniel has by official proclamation designated the week of March 5 - 12 as 4-H Club Week in Texas and has asked all citizens to participate in the observances being planned by 4-H members in the communities and counties of Texas.

The Governor in his proclamation said, "Learn, live and serve through 4-H is the 1960 challenge to Texas 4-H Club members. Since the 4-H program was inaugurated by the United States Government in 1914 more than a million young Texans have received its benefits.

"An expanding 4-H program not only teaches the latest practices in agriculture and Home economics, but emphasizes character, development and good citizenship. Club members learn by conducting result demonstrations and participating in 4-H activities. By putting into practice in their homes and communities what they learn, club members live and serve through 4-H.

"County extension agents work with voluntary 4-H adult leaders, 4-H members, their parents, and friends of 4-H in developing a program which provides education and leadership opportunities for the youth of Texas. The 4-H program is under the direction of the Agricultural Extension Service of the Texas A & M College System.

"Any boy or girl from the ages of 9 to 21 can take part in 4-H Club work. The opportunities offered to 4-H Club members to grow in citizenship and in practical skills are especially valuable to them, the State of Texas and the Nation."

In a letter to all Texas 4-H Club members the Governor said, "Please accept my best wishes for 1960 and the years ahead. May you continue to build yourselves, your homes and communities, and thus help build our State and Nation. The future holds bright promise for our land, and you as 4-H Club members have a vital share of this future. I join the people of Texas in saluting you and the parents, adult leaders and friends of 4-H who make this program possible."

"IMPULSE" BUYING IS COSTLY

Do you plan meals ahead and have a shopping list when you go to the grocery store, or do you buy whatever attracts you at the moment? Impulse buying can be costly. Here is why: Buying because the food looks good, is attractively displayed, or suits your appetite at the moment, often rules out such considerations as price, nutritive value, amount needed, family preferences, and leftovers or other foods that you already have on hand.

Without a plan it is hard to resist tempting displays. But you can guard against costly impulse buying by planning meals ahead — at least several days to make best use of foods on hand and to stay within budget bounds.

Knowing the essentials of a good diet is necessary for meal planning. "The Texas Food Standard" available from this office, is an easy guide for planning daily menus.

You will find that the shopping list is easy to plan after menus are made. Time spent in planning menus and making a shopping list will save time and money at the grocery store. It also will mean better nutrition and eating satisfaction for family members.

FIRST AID FOR WET SHOES

Wet weather, or even continued dampness, is very hard on shoes. Here's first-aid treatment suggested by extension clothing specialists of Texas A & M.

Take off those wet shoes as soon as possible. Leather is weak when wet. Wearing wet shoes will cause breaks in the leather or other damage. Once removed, stuff shoes with soft paper or absorbent cloth to take up the moisture. Never use tension shoe trees; they may stretch the leather out of shape. Dry the outside by patting with a soft cloth. Never rub. When inside moisture is absorbed, remove the stuffing and let the shoes dry slowly away from heat. Fast drying with heat makes leather shrink, harden or crack.

As shoes dry, clean with saddle soap. Then rub in a little sulfonated castor oil with your hands. The oil, available at drug stores, keeps leather soft and pliable. Use only as much oil as the leather will absorb. Otherwise the shoes will be too greasy to take polish. When shoes are soft and dry, polish with any good paste or cream. Two coats of polish may be needed to bring back the fresh new look to the leather.

Suede shoes should be thoroughly dry before they are brushed or rubbed. Use a rubber sponge or stiff brush; never a wire brush. It may damage the soft suede. After brushing, spread on liquid suede dressing, in one direction. When dry, brush in the opposite direction to lift the nap. If further treatment is needed to restore the appearance, have them "rebuffed" or "vaporized" at a shoe repair shop.

WMO GATHERS FOR ANNUAL STUDY OF HOME MISSIONS

The Women's Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church of Morton met Monday night, February 29th, in the home of Mrs. LeRoy Johnson, for their annual study of Home Missions.

Forty members and seven guests were present and enjoyed a salad supper.

The Mission Study Chairman, Laura Smith, introduced the book entitled "Reaching Rural Churches", which was to be reviewed.

Each circle of the WMS presents an interesting skit, these covering the five chapters, and the program was closed with an inspirational skit by Mrs. Eli Douglas and Mrs. Smith.

Guests included the pastor, Rev. Fred Thomas and six ladies from the First Baptist Church of Bledsoe; Mesdames Millsap, Knowlton, Williams, Webb, Griffith and Burris.

WHAT IS FERTILIZER ?

What is its PURPOSE in the AGRICULTURAL PICTURE ?

WHAT IS A FERTILIZER? . . . In one sense of the word, fertilizer could be said to include any and all materials that are added to the soils to increase the growth and yield of crops. However, the term fertilizer is usually restricted to mean only those artificially prepared compounds containing plant nutrients which we ply to the soils in various ways. Fertilizer is used primarily to increase the supply of available plant nutrients in the soil and to balance the plant nutrient ratio.

Each nutrient in the soil and in fertilizers has definite functions in the plant and no one nutrient can be completely substituted for another. For the best results they must all work together.

ELEMENTS ESSENTIAL FOR PLANT GROWTH . . . Agricultural scientists recognize only fifteen chemical elements as being necessary for the normal growth and reproduction of plant growth. They are: carbon hydrogen, oxygen, nitrogen, phosphorus, potassium, calcium, magnesium, sulfur, iron, copper, manganese, zinc, boron, and molybdenum.

The air supplies carbon, hydrogen, and oxygen. About 95 to 98 per cent of all plant growth consists of these three elements. With the exception of nitrogen, all of the remaining elements are obtained from the soil by plants. Nitrogen comes from the air, but it must be converted into plant food compounds before most plants can use it.

Legumes, when inoculated with the proper bacteria and supplied with mineral nutrients, have the ability to take nitrogen from the air, convert it and use it as plant food. Other plants do not have this ability, but must obtain the nitrogen from the organic matter in the soil or from nitrogen fertilizers.

MAJOR PLANT FOODS — NITROGEN, PHOSPHORUS, AND POTASSIUM . . . We have learned from experience and experiments that nitrogen, phosphorus and potassium are more likely to be insufficient for maximum plant growth than any other elements. This is because they are more readily removed by crops or otherwise lost, from the soils. Too, they sometimes exist largely in unavailable forms in the soil.

The only way to increase the amounts of these three nutrients is to buy and apply these elements in one form or another. This is why these three elements are the basis of the composition of fertilizers which may supply any one, two, or all three of them. When properly used, these three elements tend to support, balance check, and supplement each other, as well as the availability of the other plant food elements.

Nitrogen has the quickest and most noticeable effect on plants. It stimulates leaf and stem growth. A lack of nitrogen usually shows up as, stunted growth, thin yellow leaves, tender woody stems and lightweight seeds.

Phosphorus is the reproductive element. It stimulates a vigorous early root growth, and development. It makes seeds germinate better. It hastens maturity and tends to balance the effects of nitrogen. A lack of phosphorus shows up in slow growth and stunted or dwarfed plants at maturity.

Potassium is the quality producing factor in plants. It causes plants to have more vigor and fruits to be of better quality. A lack of this element often results in scorched leaf edges and tips, or bronze-colored spots; the older leaves being affected first.

The remaining chemical elements are used in very small amounts by most plants. But where any of them are not present in sufficient quantities for high crop yields, they too must be added to the soil.

Every day...every meal...every farmer feeds this crowd

In 1960, every farmer will produce food aplenty for 25 people—27,375 square meals in all! This record productivity is now possible with the help of science, farmer know-how, chemicals, and electric power.

Yet, electricity, which has helped triple food production in only 25 years, was just a dream for most farmers as late as 1935. People, living in the country, were scattered . . . supposedly too costly to reach with light and power.

To get electricity, rural people organized into nonprofit local groups, borrowed money at interest from the REA and built their own lines. Today, nearly 1,000 locally-owned Rural Electric Systems operate 1 1/2 million miles of line serving 16 million Americans.

As workers leave farms for other jobs, farmers are using more electricity to produce better food at lower cost. This means lower grocery bills for you and promises adequate food even when our population doubles in the years ahead.

Best of all, owner-users bear the cost of rural-electricification. Already they've paid more than $1 billion in principal and interest on their $3 1/2 billion loans.

RULES

1. This is a family fun contest. Entries welcome from every member of the family old enough to fill out his or her own. You may submit one entry per person at any or all of the Sponsoring Merchants whose ads are in the row that is heavily bordered this week... but only one entry per person at any one store (more than one will disqualify all entries of that person for that week). Anyone can enter unless a member of your family is employed by the MORTON TRIBUNE. Sponsoring merchants, their families (and their employees and families) are most welcome to enter EXCEPT during weeks that entries are brought into the Sponsor's place of business.

2. Nothing to buy. Use any slip of paper for entry blank. DO NOT put your entry in an envelope. Not necessary to be present at the drawing to win.

3. WHO'S WHO may be anyone in the Morton trade area. Clues to his or her identity will be hidden ONLY in ads of Sponsoring Merchants (this means any ad in this section or any ad of the same merchant elsewhere in the paper). When star (s) appear in any ad in this section, it is your warning that other ad (s) of the same merchant (in which there may be clues) appear elsewhere in the paper. Clues will be scattered... many ads will have no clues while others may have as many as five. Beware of false clues; there may be some! This is a contest of skill and we intend to do our best to outwit you. We'll be delighted if you succeed in outguessing us, in spite of our best efforts.

4. If, by coincidence, the name of WHO'S WHO (or other facts about him or her) happen to appear in news items, editorial matter, or other places in this newspaper, these will not count as clues.

5. To enter, write down the name you think is WHO'S WHO. List all the clues you can find in all the ads of the Sponsoring Merchants in this issue. Don't forget your own name and address! Then drop your entry at the business location of any Sponsoring Merchant WHOSE AD IS BETWEEN THE HEAVY BORDERS IN THIS SECTION. You may enter at all four if you wish. There are no other places where entries will be accepted... and MAIL ENTRIES WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED.

6. This week's contest starts when you receive this issue, and closes at 4:30 p. m. Tuesday of the following week. At that time (4:30 p. m., Tuesday) a drawing will be held. The first entry drawn that correctly identifies the WHO'S WHO will win $10.00. If THAT entry also lists every correct clue, (and no false clues) hidden in all ads of Sponsoring Merchants, the Bonus Jackpot of $56.00 will be given. Whenever this bonus is not won it will be added to next week's BONUS... which will continue to grow until it is won! Winning the BONUS requires a PERFECT list of correct clues... the exact number and all copied correctly.

Family participation gives you a better chance to win the jackpot. Your wife, husband, or some bright-eyed youngster MAY spot a clue that you miss!

Got any detective blood in you? Think you can outwit us? Remember you can't win if you don't enter... Fix up your entry NOW!

First State Bank, St. Clair's Department Store, McMaster Tractor Co., and Piggly Wiggly. You are invited to drop an entry in the Who's Who box at each of the four firms, but no more than one entry per firm.

Here are a few points to remember when making out your entry or entries - any piece of paper will do, write down the name of Who's Who, list the clues, copied correctly from the Tribune, sign your name, address and phone number if you have one.

Deposit your entry in Who's Who box at firms whose ads on the Who's Who page appear inside the heavy black border.

Here are the clues to Mary's identity: Born in Hockley County, (Levelland hospital, there was none here); attended classes at ENMU, (music school); attended classes at SMU (cheer leaders school); was a member of 4-H; enjoys gardening; pulled bolls, (apparently most folks hereabouts have).

Worked in local department store, (Cobb's); painted landscapes, (was a hobby); washed cars, (with club); basketball and volleyball, (plays both); enjoys eating with Lions, (every Wednesday as sweetheart); class officer four years, (president of freshman class, vice-president of sophomore and senior classes); Issued Camp Roberts Commissary card while in California, (while father was stationed there) a football and basketball fan; plays dominos; plays piano; appeared before Texas Legislature, (when Morton choir went to Austin in 1957); teaching first choice as career; given name same as that of two English Monarchs; (Mary); bears name of exceptionally famous general, (none other than General Robert E. Lee); plays golf, (miniature); sings, (and nicely too).

The publishers have dug in more this week, and promise you finding clues will not be as easy as in the past... but it's all fun... extra fun for the winner... $66 in fact, this week.
