WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS" By C. WILSON HARDER
Sometimes people are heard to ask "why all this concern about small and independent business in America. Don't the huge corporations furnish opportunities for the ambitious?"
This line of thought, undoubtedly engendered by considerable propaganda, is perhaps the greatest tragedy of our times, and is a false premise, to boot.
In a national survey made at the end of 1959 by a widely known research organization for one of the nation's biggest magazines, it was established that by far more men, and especially younger men, would rather be their own boss in a small company than to receive the same income from a big corporation.
The finding reveals that 65% of all men would rather be in small business than in a big corporation.
And the interesting part is of men in the 20-30 age group 67% prefer small business, while 66% of those from 31 to 50 prefer small business.
The survey also seems to explode myth big corporations capture loyalties of the cream of the American manhood.
In fact, the reverse seems to be true. Among 27% who preferred the big corporation for a career, and those who preferred small business, when it came to the reasons for their preference, 5% in both groups attitude of all.

There's a group that actually likes the taste of Socialism they have already received, though most of them avoid definite disgust with Communism.
There's the group that are fired up to do something, but they feel so few in number that they don't want to carry the fight. This group needs leaders, more than anything else.
And then there is the biggest problem. The masses who recognize that they know little of Communism . . . it's just an odious word. They are tired of too heavy taxes but they don't know what can be done. They are sick of subsidies, as such, but they are afraid that if they bellyache much about it, only the farm subsidies will be withdrawn, and these are very important factors to their economic living. They are hesitant about which way to go, distrustful of any phase of government, and usually, not in such an attractive economic group. They must work hard for their bread and butter, and they suspect that few others have to work as hard.
There are other factions to be sure. There are many problems ahead. But several things should be clear to all who are interested.
If we are to maintain the freedoms we have, and get back those we have already given away; if we are to bring government back to the people and cut down the admitted overly-large Federal government crew; if we are state, national and international to fight Communism on a local level . . . first we must be armed with facts. First, we must educate ourselves and as many others as possible. We must look to the future and realize that in the battle ahead, most of us who are adults today, will not be around to see the end of the battle on these things, the overall plans can never succeed.
We must realize that we will find ourselves beset by many, many unwitting obstacles, as well as those planned by our enemies. But the unfitting ones; those who are being used because of their ignorance of facts, are helping destroy us as much, and perhaps more, than the calculating traitors.
It's time the citizens of Morton, as well as those of communities all over the nation, threw off the defeatist attitude and began to warm up to the battle that must be fought . . . if we want for our children and grandchildren, the freedoms our fathers fought and died for.
It's time we came forward with a positive approach. For in winning battle, a positive purpose and a knowledge of right and full expectation of victory, are very necessary.
Where to start? First, start by kicking yourselves for not attending the first two sessions of the Citizenship Training Course. Don't dwell on this one very long . . . it won't gain you anything.
Next, don't plan to . . . but see that you are in the audience tomorrow night (Monday) at 8 o'clock, when the third session of the course starts. You don't need any particular level of education

Dr. W. E. Thorn
Teachers to Elect Officers Tuesday
" It appears as though we will have a good crowd," was the way Harold Drennan, president of the Cochran County Teachers Association, described the coming county-wide teachers meeting here.
Dr. W. E. Thorn of Calvary Baptist Church, Lubbock, will bring the principle address.
Dr. Thorn is widely known for his ability to deliver "after dinner talks".
Other business of the evening will be the election of officers for the coming year.
The meeting will begin at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday, May 3, in the Morton School cafeteria.

TO PRESENT SCOUT CHARTERS
Raymond Ross, of Morton, George White district Scout chairman, will present two Scout charters to the Morton Lions Wednesday noon, May 4, it was announced this week by Murray A. Rouse, Cochran County committee man for organization and extension.
A number of Scout representatives are expected to attend. Charters are being presented in accordance with Scout requirements for Troop 101 and Ship 44.

perly, or as is more the case with us, an area, someone has to be ready to look out for it. Someone has look down the road and see the pitfalls, and exert an honest effort to steer clear of those pitfalls.
More every day folks in Morton are realizing how a few longer looks, several years back, would have reacted for the good of Morton and its surrounding area.
You know most of the major problems as well as we . . . or better. You've seen Morton almost lose complete contact from the rest of the area, because of no railroad, no Federal Highways, and only one bus a day leading into and out of Morton.

You have seen our area in a tremendous bind when the cotton "squeeze" was put on because we had little left to fall back on; and because we hadn't pushed cotton previously as we might have.
You have seen Morton time and again "left out" of the scheme of things, because we had no on to foresee the things that were about to occur, that we should have been boosting.
You have see worthwhile projects for Morton and the area fall because we lack the person who could push them through or because we lacked the overall knowledge of just how important they were to us.

You have seen really public spirited citizens "worked down" because they would do a job, until they decided they would no longer take part in things . . . and what a job it was to find someone who would take over. Often there was no one to do it.
You have known of ideas that would work, ideas that everyone knew would work, ideas that died

By the time this Dollar Day Special gets into some folks hands one day of the "Grand Opening" of Southwest Furniture, Morton, will be passed.

because we lacked leadership to put them into action.
The needs of Morton are not so different than those of most other communities, large and small; but the number of these needs that have been taken care of, is considerably larger than it is in most communities.
We like to think that we have really worked to build a better Morton, but have we?
We'd like to believe that Morton is a much better community in which to live because we as citizens showed the way in which progress should be made, but is it true?
We'd dearly love to believe it is our careful thinking and planning that has accomplished some of the few advantages we do have, but have we planned?
Oh, that we would take credit for the tremendous potential this area really has, but where is any credit due?
But we do have a very important advantage.
We live in a country where it isn't too late if we get to work. We have a large group of persons who for one reason or another have been able to see the possibilities and have indicated they are ready to take advantage of them.
"When in the course of human events it becomes necessary for the people to band together . . . to secure the blessings of liberty . . . You've recited those words before . . . in your school days. And here in Morton, the tyrant we need to fight is not an oppressive government, but a lackadaisical attitude.
It is necessary that we band together. It is necessary that we, knowing the purposes we have in mind, the things we'd like to secure, recognize the need for pull in together . . . in the same direction, behind chosen leaders.
Competition, which is the key word in today's living in the United States, hurts only those who refuse to, or don't know, how to compete. It is a real blessing to those who face it and deal with it, openly, frankly, and fairly.
And the necessary banding together for the good of the community, can live together with the individual competition which we must engage in, to better our standards.
Yes, cooperation and competition, both have a place in our society. We can do both, if we do it thoughtfully and carefully.
Meet us, Thursday night, at the County Activities Building in the Auditorium, and help form a Chamber of Commerce. And come willing, if you are asked, to serve in some capacity.

Two 3-Way Girls Are Accepted Into New Mex. Science Summer Institute

Elaine Kenley and Gayle McCelvey have been accepted for enrollment in the Junior Engineers and Scientists Summer Institute (JESSI) from June 12-25, 1966, to be held at New Mexico State University, according to Elbert Adams, counselor at Three Way High School.

The institute is sponsored by various science and industrial organizations throughout New Mexico and certain neighboring states. JESSI is an exploration in the pure and basic applied sciences. It is a two week educational career guidance program of recognized merit.

The students are grouped into classes of about 25 members each and are under the direction of specialists from the several science and engineering departments of the host institute.

Students are in classes from 6 to 7 hours a day. One day will be scheduled for visiting industrial operations. To qualify for acceptance in the program, the candidate must have completed certain high school math and science subjects and have an average of at least 85 in all high school subjects.

The student must also be of good moral character and must compete with other qualified students for enrollment due to the limitation of the number of students accepted.

Elaine is a sophomore student of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Kenley of at Three Way and is the daughter Goodland. She is interested in becoming a laboratory technician.

Gayle is a junior at Three Way and is the grand daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. McCelvey, of St. Gall. Her present scientific interest is in the field of geology.

HOWARD PAYNE'S GREAT TWO MILER —

Lyndon Gathright Does Right Well Against American Bred Runners

Howard Payne's Lyndon Gathright was born a decade too late to be a smashing success in his track speciality — the two mile run.

Ten years ago, the Morton, Texas, two year letterman might have easily been a real star in his favorite race, but in today's cinder circles, he hardly stands a ghost of a chance for top honors.

At virtually every meet which includes the two mile race on its cinder agenda, Gathright is victim of numerous foreign athletes who have been imported to Texas Colleges and universities — many of whom are 10 years his senior.

Still, the plucky junior plugs right on, necessarily satisfying himself with second place ribbons, and he does own one distinction — he ranks right near the top in the Lone Star State in the stable of Texas born two milers.

This year, Gathright has run the rugged two mile race only four times. He won first place in dual competition with Brooke Army Medical Center — BAMC doesn't have any foreign two milers — and took runner-up ribbons both at West Texas and North Texas relays, and at the meet in San Marcos last week. He turned in a good 9:46.0 timing at North Texas for his best competitive effort of the year.

Gathright is also an occasional entry in the one mile run, but his best fortunes are found in the two mile run — foreigners or no.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Gathright of Morton, Lyndon is majoring in history and secondary education with minors in math and physical education at Howard Payne.

It's The Law in Texas —

The law allows a business a wide choice of ways to set itself up, to finance and manage itself.

You may have sole ownerships, partnerships, joint ventures, corporations; and within these classes you have many different forms.

To meet modern business conditions, to get full tax advantage, and to protect investors, for example, the law provides many ways for a company to finance itself. And these, in turn, influence the kind of management it can have, and the way it conducts its affairs.

We sometimes speak of "stocks and bonds," for example, as if they were one and the same.

But when you buy a share of stock in a company, you own an "undivided" part of everything it owns, but no particular piece of its property.

But what do you have when you buy a corporation's bond or debenture? You own nothing of the company. Instead you are lending money which it promises to pay back with interest when your bond matures.

Unlike a stockholder, a bondholder as a rule has little to say directly about who manages and how he manages the company. Remotely a bond buyer by withholding or lending money may influence a company's ability to expand. The bondholder gets only his interest payments, which come before the stockholder's "dividend," since he takes less of a risk than the stockholders.

Thus if the corporation quits or goes bankrupt, it must pay the bondholders off before the stockholders get anything.

Where does the "preferred stock" come in? As a rule, preferred stockholders collect a fixed dividend — after the bondholders are paid but before the "common" stockholders get anything. There are many kinds of preferred stock arrangements. But in return for their first chance at the profits the preferred stockholders often give up any voting rights or ability to control the company directly.

(This column, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform — not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

Why Should I Donate To A Chamber of Commerce?

... better take a second look, fella. Your donations can help build a future for Morton. Your refusal can help this town fade away.

Let's Quit Talking, And Do Something ...

For several years now we've heard all the talk about what should be and could be done ... May 5th we have the chance to do it. Will we talk some more, or will we take action.

The time for talking is now, before the meeting, with all of your neighbors.

The time to do something is at that meeting. We'll be there to vote "for" it, how about you?

Look Ma! One Handed ...

We in Morton have mastered the art of standing on one hand ... or sitting on both, but what happens while you're doing it?

The smart aleck approach just won't build Morton. It takes both hands of every individual, and all hands of the community.

It can start with a Chamber of Commerce, if we'll pay a little and work a little, after we've got it established.

Wake Up Before It's Too Late ...

We've been asleep, and we know it. As a group, we've done practically nothing to help the economy of the area.

We'd better all work on the problems of agriculture and business together — all pull in the same direction.

What helps the farmer, helps everyone in Morton, and through a Chamber of Commerce, our merchants can best lend their support to the proper agriculture problems.

We Need Someone To Help Do Our Shouting!

Singing the praises, or just telling the public what we've got, is no longer a part-time job that one man can do. It takes an expert in the field of public relations, and that's part of what a Chamber of Commerce can bring to Morton.

Who can say it wouldn't be worth our efforts and money to have a man in Morton dedicated to just one goal ... building a better Morton for us all.

We need a Chamber ... let's get it.

Let's start a Chamber at the May 5th meeting, and all join.

Local Students Are Honored By Morton Lions Club

Lenore White and Jackie Brown, junior and senior, respectively, at Morton High School, were the students of the month presented the Morton Lions Club this past Wednesday at their regular meeting. The two, luncheon guests of the club, were presented by Miss Loretta Jackson, faculty member who was also a guest of the club. Grady Johnson of Lufkin and Ray Keith Monaghan were also guests. The two students, selected by faculty members for their outstanding all around citizenship in the schools, in which attitude and activities takes preference over the "letter of their grade average", briefly told the Lions of their activities in school and their future plans.

All Lions who could make any part of the convention activities,

Several members expressed their satisfaction with the Citizenship Training Course being conducted each Monday at the County Auditorium, at 8 p. m. It has four more sessions to run. Lion Millard Townsend suggested the need to get the high school student out

Likes Progress of Local Democrat Johnson Drive

The movement to name Senator Lyndon B. Johnson, Texas' favorite son and win the Democratic Presidential nomination is gaining momentum throughout Texas. Jack Bowen of the Johnson For President headquarters in Austin and in Morton last week, said throughout Texas people of all walks of life are rallying to the LBJ standard. "They want Lyndon Johnson as their next President of the United States," Bowen added. "It is not just a matter of being proud of Senator Johnson, they know he is capable, able and different and one of the most astute leaders in our nation today."

Joe Nicewarner, a leader in the Johnson for President campaign in Cochran County, said that the campaign in the County is progressing "quite well".

"I am convinced," Nicewarner said, "that the vast majority of people in our country are behind Senator Johnson. Many of them are working diligently in this movement to win the Democratic nomination for Senator Johnson. I believe we will be successful." Bowen, who travels throughout Texas, said he has found the sentiment strong for Senator Johnson. "The people are ready to go 'All the Way With LBJ'," he added.

SPANISH CLASS IS ABANDONED

There will be no special summer class for Spanish speaking youngsters, it was announced by Eli Douglas, Morton Elementary Principal. Douglas said not enough interest was shown to sponsor a class. He regretted abandonment of the project which was felt would have been a great benefit to helping youngsters who speak only Spanish, to learn a basic English they could use to help them do better in school here.

Highlights and Sidelights FROM Your State CAPITOL

By Vern Sanford
AUSTIN — First it was $100,000 homes for college presidents. Now razza floors in the brand new it's $36 doorknobs for State Office Building that have cost conscious legislators blowing their tops.

Legislature went through an arduous seven-month tax raising session last year to scrape up enough money to keep state services going. Despite all the problems and criticisms they weathered, it wasn't enough. Now they are face to face with the prospect of another deficit next year and the need to raise more taxes.
It is in this not so rosy setting that the House Committee on Saving Taxes is checking into how state money has, and is being spent. When they heard that the State Office Building had cracked, committee members decided to investigate further into the $3,793,000 building.

They learned that the air conditioning system vibrated excessively; that the building had 1,000 elaborate door knobs, costing $36 apiece; and that there were telephone booths in the hallways lined with expensive marble. Some of the offices had no doors.
They noted that the Texas Employment Commission Building, just across the street and to the casual observer equally as handsome, cost only $14.33 per square foot compared to $17.40 for the State Office Building.
Cracked floors are being removed and replaced by the contractor, at no cost to the state. Efforts are underway to smooth out the knobs in the air conditioning. Legislators are unhappy at the lack of supervision and inspection while the building was under construction.
H. R. Nieman, who became director of the State Building Commission after the building was already built, told the committee he agreed the structure was probably wasteful in some features. He attributed this to inadequate supervision. Steps are being taken to watch this more closely on future projects, he said.
RAW MATERIALS — Gov. Price Daniel has promised to have two sets of ingredients ready when the State Finance Advisory Council meets May 16 to begin shaping up a long range fiscal policy for the state.
Daniel will present to the committee:

(1) A 10 year projection of budgets of agencies which represent the state's main money needs — schools, highways, hospitals and welfare.
(2) Five suggested new tax plans.
He does not intend to make the five tax plans public before the committee meeting, said the governor, because he doesn't want them to get involved in current political campaigns.
It is certain that the governor's proposed tax plans will not include a general sales tax or income tax, both of which he has long opposed. However, he said he will ask the committee to look down the road and "report honestly whatever you find and let's see how long we can go without sales or income taxes."
HOUSTON U ASKS AID — Now under consideration is whether the University of Houston should become a fully state-supported college.
Commission on Higher Education will hear a report on its staff findings probably in October and make a recommendation to the Legislature, pro or con, next year.
In making their bid before the Commission, Houstonites said the state would get a $22,000,000 institution with a 275 acre campus, all free of debt. In return, it would need to spend about $4,000,000 a year for operating it.
Increased costs have forced the school to raise its tuition fee to $600 a year and more, with a resulting drop in enrollment. Tuition at state colleges is only $100 a year.
Council of State College Presidents opposes the move on grounds that the state cannot afford to spread its support any thinner without a damaging drop in quality.
Houstonites point out that their county has 10 percent of the state population, pays 20 percent of state taxes, but has no state college in the area.
SPORTS FUNDS DUE INQUIRY
Commission on Higher Education has ordered an investigation of rumors that state money is being used by some colleges for inter-collegiate athletics.
A previous report to the Commission had indicated that this was usual among all schools except those in the Southwest Conference which get enough from gate receipts to support athletics.
Requests by six schools to expand their course offerings are under study. Each proposal will be considered at least six months before the approval or disapproval.
LABORERS CASES UPHELD — State Supreme Court ruled that labor unions have a right to present grievances to a school board if they do not claim the right to strike.

It overruled the position of the Dallas School Board that dealing with the union would be the same as recognizing it as a bargaining agent for public employees and therefore contrary to law.
In another case the high court struck down the sentences imposed by a Dallas Judge on three labor officials for picketing in violation of his court order. Because they were picketing a business that is in interstate commerce their action was held to be a case for federal, not state, courts.
STATE DEFICIT DROPS — Annual payments of taxes on corporation franchises and insurance premiums are whittling down the shortage in the state general revenue fund.
After hitting an all time high of $88,000,000 in March, the deficit dropped to $76,496,922. It is expected to drop further through the spring but not enough to get out of the red this year.
Reasons are several: a drop in oil revenue due to the industry's troubles, lawsuits which tie up expected revenue from the new severance beneficiary tax on natural gas, loopholes in the new sales taxes on furs, jewelry, air conditioners, etc., that have caused revenue to fall below expectations.
LARGE WHEAT CROP — Texas' winter wheat crop is expected to hit 78,714,000 bushels, third largest crop among the states.
U. S. Dept. of Agriculture describes conditions in Northwest Texas as very favorable, with plenty of moisture and light damage from winter weather.
An estimated 4,373,000 acres of wheat have been planted in Texas. States with higher crop expectations are (1) Kansas and (2) Oklahoma.

Star Route Co-op In Good Gin Year
At the annual membership meeting of the Star Route Coop Gin, two weeks ago, members re-elected Jesse O'Brien as director of the cooperative.
The annual report showed that the gin made just a little under $8 per bale on the ginning, the best record posted since the gin was organized.
Roy Greer is manager of the Cooperative.

IN FIGHT AGAINST TRAFFIC DEATHS . . .

Governor's Highway Safety Commission Announces Special Awards

DALLAS, March 29.—Governor Price Daniel has announced that special awards from the Governor's Highway Safety Commission to 13 Texas counties and 17 cities with no traffic deaths recorded in 1959, and to 21 counties and 21 cities with reduced traffic death records.

The Governor also presented special awards to Bexar County, and the cities of Corpus Christi and Laredo for excellent showings in reducing traffic deaths.

Two State agencies and four of their regions and districts received special commendations from Daniel for special accomplishments in behalf of traffic safety.

Governor Daniel said additional special awards would be made later in the year to Texas newspapers, radio and television stations and outdoor poster companies for their "unusually excellent cooperation" with the Governor's Commission and other agencies in behalf of traffic safety. The associations include the Texas Press Association, Texas Daily Newspaper Association, Texas Association of Broadcasters and Outdoor Advertising Association of Texas.

The presentations were announced at the third annual Governor's Highway Safety Conference at the Hotel Adolphus, held each year in cooperation with the Texas Safety Association and its annual statewide safety conference.

Governor Daniel told the recipients that "except for your continuous, ceaseless and zealous efforts in behalf of traffic safety all year long, the 1959 highway death toll would undoubtedly have been much higher."

The Texas Department of Public Safety and its director, Colonel Homer Garrison, Jr., received the Governor's Special Award for their contributions to the special safety crusade and for their outstanding service.

Region 2 of the DPS, commanded by Major Glen Rose of Houston accepted the Governor's Special Award for the "greatest saving of lives in any Department of Public Safety Region in 1959." Region 2 reported a reduction of 96 in the 1959 death toll over 1958, or 25.3 percent.

Highway Patrol District 2-A, headquarters at Houston and commanded by Captain K. B. Hallmark, and District 2-B, commanded by Captain Luther Moore at Beaumont, received the Governor's Special Awards for the 23.5 percent and 28 percent reduction in traffic fatalities in their respective districts, which form Region

The Texas Highway Department and State Highway Engineer DeWitt C. Greer were presented the Governor's Special Awards for highway engineering. The Department spent $25,000,000 in 1958-59 and has assigned $20,000,000 in 1960 for elimination of hazards and improved traffic safety features on older highways.

For the second consecutive year, District 12 of the Highway Department at Houston, headed by District Engineer W. E. Carmichael, won the Governor's Special Award for the "greatest achievements in Engineering Traffic Safety by any Highway District in 1959."

Among the counties, Bexar County (San Antonio) was awarded 1st place among metropolitan counties in Texas for a "notable reduction in traffic deaths in 1959." Bexar County was the only major metropolitan county in Texas to show a reduction of as much as 20 percent in 1959 traffic deaths over 1958.

The City of Corpus Christi was given the Governor's first place award for "notable reduction in traffic deaths in 1959" among the State's major cities. Corpus Christi's traffic deaths dropped from 21 in 1958 to seven in 1959, a reduction of 67 percent.

The Governor's Special Merit Citation went to the City of Laredo, the only Texas city in the 50,000-100,000 population bracket to show a reduction in traffic deaths for 1959 over 1958. Laredo reduced the death list from eight in 1958 to five in 1959, a reduction of 38 percent. The six other cities in this group showed increases ranging from 40 to 250 percent.

Special citations recognizing the fact that no traffic deaths occurred within their boundaries in 1959 are being sent to the county judges of Collingsworth, Dickens, Goliad, Haskell, Hood, Jeff Davis, Loving, Mills, Ochiltree, Roberts, San Augustine, Somervell, and Throckmorton Counties.

Loving County maintained its unequalled record of never recording a traffic death in the history of the county since its organization in 1831 as the last Texas county to come into existence.

A total of 21 counties showed major reductions in traffic deaths and their county judges are being sent special certificates from the Governor's Office. The counties with their deaths from 1958, 1959 and percentages of reduction, include:

Mitchell, 10 deaths in 1958, 1 in 1959, 90 percent; Bandera 8 and 1, 87 percent; Jack, 13 and 3, 77 percent; Grimes, 12 and 3, 75 percent; Parker, 12 and 3, 75 percent; Caldwell, 10 and 3, 70 percent; Guadalupe, 16 and 5, 69 percent; Jasper, 16 and 5, 69 percent; Chambers, 13 and 4, 69 percent; Walker, 15 and 5, 67 percent; Refugio, 9 and 3, 67 percent; Hardin, 11 and 4, 64 percent; Runnels, 13 and 5, 62 percent; Donley, 10 and 4, 60 percent; Karnes, 9 and 4, 55 percent; Orange, 14 and 5, 55 percent; Montgomery, 25 and 12, 52 percent; Cameron, 46 and 24, 48 percent; Eastland, 15 and 8, 47 percent; Wilbarger, 11 and 4, 45 percent; Oarage, 14 and 8, 43 percent.

The honor list of Texas cities without a traffic death shrank to 17 in 1959 from its recent record-high of 30 in 1958. They included Cleburne, College Station, Crystal City, Dumas, Galena Park, Highland Park, Jacksonville, Lufkin, Mineral Wells, Pampa, Seguin, Snyder, Sulphur Springs, Taylor, Uvalde, and Waxahachie. University Park was the only city above 25,000 population in the State without a traffic death in 1959. Their mayors will receive the certificate from the Governor's Office. Governor Daniel said the record showed College Station and Sulphur Springs to have been free of traffic deaths for the past three calendar years. Crystal City, Dumas, Galena Park, Uvalde and Waxahachie have had no traffic deaths from 1958 to 1959.

Other cities cited for reduced traffic deaths in 1959, with percentages of reductions, were named as follows: 25,000-50,000 population bracket Brownsville 57 percent, Grand Prairie, 75 percent, Halington 64 percent, Marshall 50 percent, Midland, 80 percent, Orange, 75 percent, University Park 100 percent.

10,000-25,000 population bracket La Marque 75 percent, Levelland 67 percent, and Vernon 67 percent.

Food and Drug Administration Rulings Scored

Not long ago Rep. Henry A. Dixon (R-Utah), who was an agricultural expert before he became a congressman, delivered a speech to the House in Washington in which he strongly implied that the present policy of the U. S. Food and Drug Administration toward use of chemicals in agriculture is downright ridiculous.

Rep. Dixon traced this policy to the administration's interpretation of the Delaney amendment in the last session of Congress. The Delaney amendment prohibits in food any carcinogen residue — a chemical which ingested under any conditions can produce cancer in animals or humans.

"The original Delaney amendment," said Rep. Dixon, "was opposed by the Food and Drug Administration and had been rejected in committee as being too sweeping. However, there was little opportunity for debate and on the floor House members were made to feel they would be voting for cancer if they opposed the Delaney amendment. So it passed in a breeze, as it also did in the Senate.

"The Food and Drug Administration takes the position that the Delaney amendment prohibits even the most minute trace of any carcinogen in human food even though it requires heavy and sustained dosages to produce cancer in animals. This has aroused the Farm Bureau, Farmer's Union, and virtually all other farm organizations to an unprecedented fury.

"Farmer groups want to use these needed chemicals and protect public health through designated safe, low, tolerances of chemicals established by the National Academy of Science, or a commission of scientists . . . They fear that the present interpretation of the Delaney amendment could virtually wreck U. S. agriculture as well as worsen rather than improve public health."

Rep. Dixon quoted the Food and Drug Commissioner, George P. Larrick, as having pointed out that "cancers can be produced in test animals by repeated injections of sugar solutions in the muscle tissue or peanut oil or cotton seed oil or lard or tannic acid."

A realistic policy on the use of chemicals in agriculture is essential the congressman insisted, because "so much publicity has been given to the cancer scare that even routine Food and Drug actions are now causing financial losses to farmers, merchants and companies."

Before becoming a congressman Rep. Dixon was president of the Utah State Agricultural College.

Jim Bowmer Seeks Post On Court of Appeals

"Common sense — not non-sense, should be the guide in interpreting our criminal laws in Texas Courts," is the platform of Jim D. Bowmer, candidate for judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Bowmer, 40 year old Bell County Attorney, is campaigning for a position on the highest Texas court of criminal cases — a post he decided on while a boy.

Bowmer was honor graduate of Baylor Law School, and has since taught criminal law and procedure there, driving back and forth each day from his home in Temple.

During World War II he served four years in the Judge Advocate General's Department, two of those years over seas. After the war he was elected county attorney of Bell County.

He is a member of the Skelton, Bowmer and Courtney law firm at Temple.

In his spare time Bowmer teaches a men's Bible class, served as Kiwanis International lieutenant governor, is Grand, Chancellor of the state Knights of Pythias, and board chairman of the Pythian Children's Home a Weatherford.

He has been endorsed for the judgeship post by more than 500 prominent lawyers in Texas, including three former Supreme Court Justices.

NATIONAL HOME DEMONSTRATION WEEK MAY 1 - 7

Some 30,000 Texas Home Demonstration Club women will be among the 7 million homemakers throughout the nation who will observe their 15th National Home Demonstration Club Week May 1 - 7.

During the week, most of the 1,700 home demonstration clubs in the State plan special activities to highlight their programs. Special exhibits, community programs, feature stories, radio and television programs, and tours are planned to inform other homemakers and families of the purpose of home demonstration work and to show its contribution to family and community life.

Today's home demonstration program takes into account that today's homemaker — and her family — face increasingly complex adjustments to the world around them. The program is planned by homemakers and carried on cooperatively by the Extension Service, of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, the land-grant colleges and county governments. New research information in all phases of homemaking is brought to women and families through research home economists, specialists, home demonstration agents and local leaders. Club members also conduct special programs in civil defense and encourage and assist with local 4-H Club programs.

Get acquainted with the home demonstration club program in this county. You may like what is being done.
