PAVING PROJECT NEARING COMPLETION

Grant, Hayes Avenues Get First "Shooting" of Paving Rest of Project May Be Completed By First of Month

Morton's 40 plus block paving program was "getting down to brass tacks" this week with the announcement by A. O'Brien, representative of J. R. Fannin Construction Co., that the first "shooting" of paving was done Wednesday.

O'Brien said that Grant, Hayes and Garfield Avenues, and 8th, 4th, 6th and 2nd Streets had received the prime coating (an oil base to which the paving adheres).

On Wednesday, at 9 a. m., the first shooting of paving, a course of 1 1/2 inches of rock was put on Grant and Hayes and by nightfall, the engineer said that about half of the paving on Grant and Hayes was completed. There are three courses, half inch and quarter inch course to follow the first course on each street.

The engineer estimated the project should be completed by the first of July.

O'Brien said he thought the company would probably start work on the seal coating of the Farm Road for which they received the contract a few months ago, as soon as they finished the city paving.

He said also the contractor has its scrapers at Friona where they have finished preliminary work on a paving project there and are now pouring curb and gutters. Then the group will move to Tahoka for a project. They also have a project underway at Lubbock.

The engineer also cautioned that drivers should be particularly careful for the first four to six weeks after the paving is completed here, in order to allow the paving to properly settle. Rough driving on freshly paved streets could result in holes in the pavement, he said.

EQUIPMENT TO BE INSTALLED...

Radioactive Fallout Measurement Will Be Handled By SCS Offices

A new, and highly important job is fast being accepted by the Soil Conservation Service of the nation. It is monitoring of "radiological fallout."

Thursday night all personnel and families of the local work unit of the Soil Conservation Service were in Littlefield to attend a meeting on civil defense.

Ed Thomas, work unit conservationist assisting the Cochran Soil Conservation District, reports that work units are being designated as the official checkers or monitors of "fallout" which may result from various types of nuclear explosions.

Their main purpose in monitoring will be to determine the "fallout" as regarding agricultural affairs.

At present, five South Plains work units are being equipped to report directly to Washington, D. C.

A teletype machine will soon be installed here for direct report to Washington, D. C., by the local work unit.

Eventually, says Thomas, all work units will be equipped to check or monitor and report.

Each unit will have the proper known nuclear checking equipment to measure the "fallout".

Double Ring Ceremony at Smyer Unites Dolores Oliver, George Lyons

In a double ring ceremony preformed by Rev. Dale Pruitt at the First Baptist Church in Smyer, Friday, June 17, Miss Dolores Marie Oliver of Smyer and George Walter Lyons of Whiteface, were united in marriage.

The 7 p.m. wedding, before an altar decorated with baskets of yellow roses and candleabra, united the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Oliver of Smyer and the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Lyons of Whiteface.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a gown of peau de soie which featured a shoulder neckline with straps of lace, long sleeves that came to points at the fingers and a bodice trimmed with iridescent sequins and seed pearls. The floor length skirt which fell into a chapel train was highlighted by three tiny pleats at the waist. Her fingertip veil of imported pure silk illusion was attached to a lace crown covered with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. She carried a white orchid atop a pearl Bible.

For something old the bride carried a ring that belonged to her great-grandfather. The Masonic ring is over 100 years old. For something new she chose her wedding attire, for something blue the traditional blue garter and for something borrowed her veil.

Miss Geraldine Oliver of Smyer, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Miss Linda Hancock, Miss Ann Thompson, Mrs. Olen Robertson, Mrs. Jerry Tucker and Mrs. Charles Sehon, all of Smyer, and Miss Linda Lyons, of Whiteface, the groom's sister, served as bridesmaids.

ENJOYS TRIBUNE

Mrs. Carl Trapp of Roy, Utah, writes, "I am renewing my subscription to the Morton paper. We enjoy the paper."

Senator YARBOROUGH'S REPORT

Communist led riots in Japan, which forced President Eisenhower to cancel his goodwill visit, dramatically emphasized how vital it is that we keep America in fighting trim and her guard up.

We must have a military preparedness program that will be ready for, and can more than handle, anything the Communists can throw at us.

The blunt fact is: as a nation and leader of the free world, we need to pass a number of programs to vastly strengthen our defense efforts.

This liberty we have won with honor and courage and blood, not with fear nor timidity nor dollars.

The hard fact is that we have been losing ground in the arms race. We are moving into the unwarranted and dangerous position of a second class power and there is no excuse for it. The $41 billion military budget is big. But it is not big enough so long as there remains the slightest shadow of a doubt as to whether America is so strong that Russia will never dare attack.

Steps which I believe we must immediately take to strengthen our security include:

(1) Modernize and strengthen our military forces and develop full airlift capacity so they can be placed anywhere necessary to stop aggression.

(2) Provide funds to put Strategic Air Command planes in the air on 24 hour alert so they can be kept there during periods of tension.

(3) Restoration to full scale of the B-70 development program and speedup our Polaris and ICBM missile programs.

Those who have opposed these programs or failed to get them moving have generally given the excuse that, "we can't afford it."

They dare not risk the loss of their own power so long as we stay strong.

SOCIAL SECURITY BOOKLETS ON HAND AT THE COURTHOUSE

A number of booklets on Social Security have been placed on a wall board in the Cochran County Courthouse for use by the public.

By Vern Sanford

Austin, Tex. — Texas Democrats are starting a fresh page in their history. The era when the party could be split on the basis of who voted for Eisenhower in 1952 is ended.

Only thing which could revive that long-cherished bone of contention would be for the Party to nominate a ticket so distasteful to Texans that the state could again go Republican.

At the state convention Democrats of varying views united behind the Lyndon Johnson banner to bury the extreme loyalists of the DOTC in the most overwhelmingly lip-sided vote in party history.

Even seasoned political reporters were caught off balance by the 2,252-to-40 vote by which the DOTC proposal was defeated.

State Executive Committee proposed a loyalty pledge binding on state party officials, delegates to Los Angeles and presidential electors.

DOT insisted that in addition, a loyalty pledge should be circulated among the county delegations and that no one should be allowed to stay in the state convention hall unless he signed it.

DOT did everything possible to printed flyers headed "Who Says Party Loyalty Is a False Issue?" were scattered outside the convention hall.

Alex Dickey of Denton, one of the DOT spokesmen given equal time to debate the issue before the delegates, proclaimed heatedly that "party loyalty is the issue before this convention."

But his weapon had lost its edge. After the vote, Gov. Daniel declared that any group that tries to send a rival delegation to Los Angeles on the basis of 40 votes out of 2,292 "must be out of their minds."

Even drooping DOTers agreed. Dickey refused to bolt, told sympathizers waiting out side they had been beaten fairly.

Reporters, who had tried to beat deadlines by writing "hold for release" stories describing the expected "rump" convention, hastily filed mandatory kill orders.

UNITY IN DIVERSITY — Events at the State Democratic convention, though it was frequently referred to as the most untied, most harmonious in history, demonstrated clearly that it is, as it always has been, only as united as strong personal leadership can keep it.

By its very make-up the Texas Democratic Party is like six tomatoes in a tow sack. Gulf between the very conservative delegation sent to Austin by Harris County and the very liberal is greater than the gulf between Republican and Democrat in many parts of the country.

Convention keynoter, Rep. Jim Wright of Fort Worth, took note of this. "Out of our disorganization, our diversity... and even our disagreements," said Wright, "comes our strength. We are the party of no one because we are the party of everyone."

Test of this came after Senator Johnson made his triumphal entry to the accompaniment of marching placard-carriers, music and cheer. When the tumult ended and Johnson began to speak, the Harris County delegation, which had voted not to support Johnson, booed at the end of each statement. It was an awkward moment.

Senator Johnson, who was discussing his experiences in the U. S. Senate in working with men of such contrary views as Senator Byrd of Virginia and Senator Morse of Oregon, departed from the text of his speech.

Despite their differences, said Johnson, these senators "always behave in a courteous and gentlemanly manner."

Mrs. Weinert will be officially elected at the national convention beginning July 11 in Los Angeles. But for all practical purposes, Mrs. Randolph already is deposited.

By resolution, the state convention took away from her all authority and privilege she might have between now and retiring. It was retaliation for the war which Mrs. Randolph, as head of the DOT, has waged on Senator Johnson, Gov. Daniel, National Committeeman Byron Skelton and almost all other party officials for four years.

As national committeewoman, Mrs. Randolph is entitled to be a delegate to the national convention and cast one-half delegate vote. The convention declared she must be bound by the unit rule and vote with the rest of the delegation. In short, "all the way with LBJ."

Also the convention asked that she have no control over credentials and tickets to the national convention.

GOP PLANS LAID — Texas Republican leaders are saying, in effect, that they won't fight among themselves, but will save their strength to fight Democrats in the general election next fall.

Texas' GOP traditionally has been very harmonious, except in 1952 when newcomers supporting Eisenhower wrested control from the Old Guard.

Texas' delegation to the GOP Chicago convention are pledged to support Vice President Nixon for president, Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona for vice president. Early talk of supporting Senator Goldwater or New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller for president ended short of a floor battle.

Most Republican energy at their state convention was used to try to lure Independent and Conservative Democrats to their fold by criticizing Democrats as the party of "give-away programs."

MOVING UP — Preliminary 1960 census figures show Texas, with a population of 9,493,895, ranking sixth among the 50 states — behind New York, California, Illinois, Pennsylvania and Ohio.

Houston apparently will be moved up from 14th largest to sixth largest city in the nation, following New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Los Angeles, and Detroit.

ENLARGED RESERVOIR PLANNED — Governor Daniel and the State Water Board have approved plans to enlarge a proposed salt water barrier and reservoir on the Trinity River near Wallisville to four feet instead of two feet, above water level.

Applications to build the new Trinity reservoirs were granted last spring after one of the longest, most heated hearings ever held before the Water Board.

CONTROL OF ORNAMENTAL AND FRUIT TREES FOR CHLOROSIS

Spray with a solution containing one teaspoonful of copperas in one gallon of water, to which is added one teaspoonful of Drift soap as a sticking agent; or use 1 1/4 ounces of copperas in one gallon of water, to which 1 1/4 ounces of citric acid may be added as an acidifying agent. When new yellow leaves appear they should be sprayed also.

Use of iron sulphate (copperas) in our soils of high limestone is tied up too quickly to be of lasting value.

Trunk injections of trees of copperas is effective. It works slow, but lasts a long time. Trees showing chlorosis, (yellowness of leaves) may have holes bored in them and place the copperas in them. Do it by this method. Holes 1/4 to 1/2 inch in diameter, spaced at 4 to 6 inch intervals and 1 to 3 inches deep should be bored into trunk at ground level. Four holes will be sufficient for trees with trunks 8 to 10 inches in diameter. These holes should be slanted downward, fill holes partially with copperas (ferrous or iron sulphate) and plug tightly with grafting wax, putty or glazing compound. This is a semi-permanent treatment and good method to combine with soil application. The soil treatment is a punch a few holes around the tree, with one inch iron bar about two feet deep. The holes should be placed about 1 1/2 feet

Cooperatives Hold Meeting Here To Help Directors Understand Duties

In a meeting of the co-operative clubs of this area last Thursday, Bruno Schroeder, executive vice president of the Texas Federation of Cooperation said, "The cooperation is not a way of life. It is simply a way for making money. The farmer is going to have to solve some of his own problems, and the only way to do where he can get into the marketing process is through his own institutions. The only power vehicle proven to him is the co-operative. The increase in co-operative has been a direct result of the cost price squeeze on cotton."

Survey Shows TV Sets Poor Example For Our Youth

"What contributes to whose delinquency" is the title of an article in the June 15 publication of "Motion Picture Exhibitor." Perhaps Tribune readers would be interested in giving it consideration:

"We see by the papers that about 300 Los Angeles college students, working in relays in for 18 hours per day for an entire week, kept a box score on all of the blood and gore they could find on TV. A total of seven stations in that area were monitored, with the following results: 3,696 acts of violence; 784 drinks of liquor; 258 instances of property damage; 1,087 threats of violence; and 7,887 commercials, covering everything from cotton-lined bras and girdles, to trips down the alimentary canal.

"All of which probably gets us nowhere. But this might be a handy reference to copy or clip out and to hand to the next dogooder who claims that movies contribute to delinquency - adult or juvenile.

"He needn't leave his living room."

Origination of Flag Day Cited

(Why is the flag flown on June 14, Flag Day? Here is the explanation. Also, says Webster's New Collegiate Dictionary, the British observe Flag Day as a day on which contributions are solicited for some small flags being given to the contributors.)

The "Stars and Stripes" was adopted as the national flag of the U. S. on June 14, 1777, by a resolution of the Second Continental Congress.

But why red, white and blue? World Book Encyclopedia says the founding fathers may have been influenced by the flag of the British East India Company, a group of merchants organized for exploration and trade. Their flag bore seven red and six white stripes.

Explanation In 1782 the U. S. Department of State explained the colors this way: red stands for hardness and courage, white is a symbol of purity and innocence, and blue is the color of vigilance, preservation and justice.

According to legend, however, George Washington gave us a more dramatic explanation when he reportedly said: "We take the stars and blue union from Heaven, the red from our mother country, separating it by white stripes, thus showing we have separated from her, and the white stripes shall go down to posterity representing liberty."

Other State Offers More Attractive . . . Teachers Head for National Education Convention; Many May Stay in California To Get Better Positions

AUSTIN (SpL) — A lot of Texas teachers will be heading for California this week to attend the National Education Association convention in Los Angeles, June 26 - July 2.

But some of them may not be coming back to Texas to teach. They may go job-seeking in California, that happy hunting ground for teachers.

The Amarillo school district lost 100 teachers to California last year. And it's no wonder, if the experience of Harold Lee Milam, a teacher in the Austin schools, is typical.

Milam is going to teach next year in San Rafael, Calif., near San Francisco. San Rafael is much smaller than Austin, but Milam's salary there will be $5,600 next year, compared to $3,888 in Austin this year. He will be teaching the fifth grade, the same assignment he had at Wooten Elementary School in Austin. He has five years teaching experience.

In his second year at San Rafael, Milam will pick up a $300 yearly salary raise, moving him up to $5,900. That is more than he would receive in Austin 20 years from now at the present salary schedule. He has a wife and two children and feels that he can't afford to wait 20 years. Latest national rankings show Texas is last in the percent of increase in average salary for teachers in the last ten years, with a 49.1 percent gain.

Will living expense in California eat up Milam's higher salary? A state income tax and general sales tax in that state will take back a little of the $1,711 salary raise he will receive. But there will be plenty left.

On the other hand, Milam personally compared prices in San Rafael on 50 food and other items his family buys each week. The total cost for these items was less than in Austin, the capital city of Texas. Comparable housing will cost about $15 a month more in San Rafael.

Milam's principal in Austin summed it up this way: "He is the kind of fellow we hate to lose."

Washington and Small Business by C. Wilson Gardner

One thing that can be said about Earl Kintner, chairman of the Federal Trade Commission is that he is not a man to be diverted by major issues when there are minor issues to be concerned about.

Mr. Kintner is the one who made wide-spread headlines for himself on his intrepid and daring foray to disc jockeys. Of course, he was neglecting the ruination of independent business. C. W. Harder, a business tactician, which is also supposed to be his job, and which several Congressmen, including Sen. Hubert Humphrey have reminded him.

But now the FTC, which always claims it doesn't have enough money to stop predatory action in the market place have a new angle.

Somehow, according to the FTC's chief nit picker, money has been found to implement the staff by twelve more people, of which ten are lawyers.

These twelve men, presumably all good, tried and true, will perhaps be known as the Library Commandos.

Because their job will be to continuously read the nation's newspapers and magazines to make checks of the advertising being run in these periodicals.

Potomac to the mile high city of Denver is some 2,000 miles as the crow flies. Out there, there is a real issue at stake.

Some months ago one of the big Chicago headquartered food chains bought out a large locally owned grocery chain. Today in Denver, it is estimated over 60% of the food retail business in Denver is tied up by chains.

But regional packers who have long held a place in the Denver market with good consumer acceptance, are fighting for their very lives.

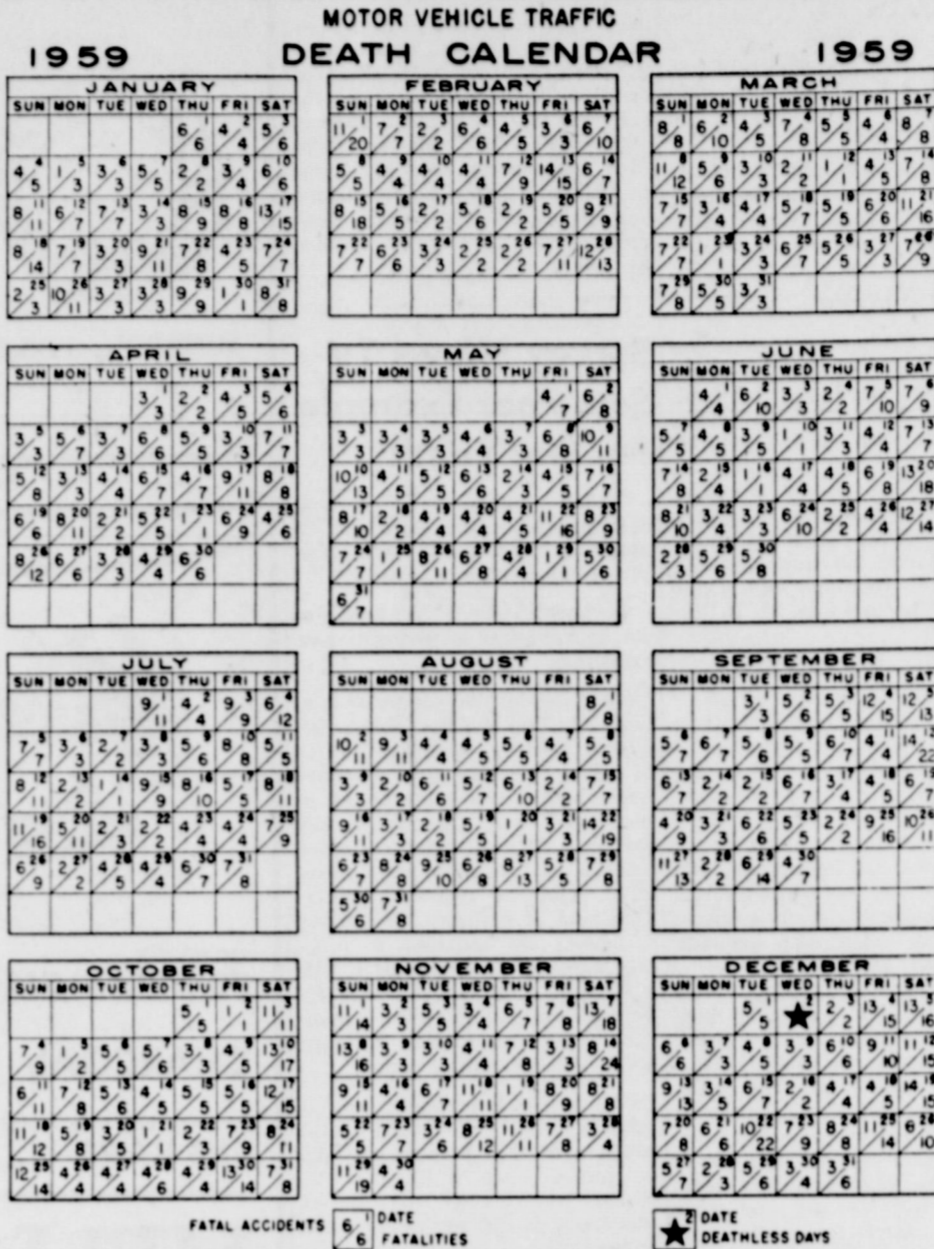

The Chicago headquartered chain has been pushing out local brands to put in their own and controlled brands.

Thus Denver, a major market, and the leading one in the Rocky Mountain area, is rapidly sinking from sight as a place where independently produced foods can be sold.

There seems to be substantial evidence that in Denver anti-trust laws have been violated more or less openly. Yet apparently, the FTC hasn't heard anything about all this.

Thus, as Goering burned the Reichstag to keep people from knowing what was going on, it is perhaps just as clever a strategy to burn disc jockeys to keep obscured that the job to be done is not being done.

And it is doubtful that the 12 new FTC employees, including ten lawyers, comfortably ensconced in an FTC reading room, reading newspapers and magazines all day long, will ever become aware in Denver, the battle for freedom in the market place is all but lost.

THE DEADLY TRUTH—About traffic safety in Texas in 1959 was that only one day in the whole year was free of traffic deaths. In 1958, there were five "Deathless Days" in Texas, four in 1957, five in 1956, three in 1955. If more Texans will drive in such a way that their cars are never involved in a crash which takes a human life, then Texas can record more "Deathless Days." Will YOU drive so that the Fourth of July holiday will add a "Deathless Day" to the Texas traffic calendar? (Official 1959 Texas Traffic Death Calendar Compiled by Statistical Services, Texas Department of Public Safety and Reproduced by the Governor's Highway Safety Commission, Austin, Texas.)

27 Traffic Deaths Predicted for State During Long Fourth of July Weekend

An alert went out to Texas motorists today is the Texas Department of Public Safety predicted 27 motor deaths will occur on streets and highways of this state during the three day Fourth of July weekend.

The period covered by the prediction, during which time the Texas DPS will conduct its Operation Deathwatch, extends from 12:01 a. m., Saturday, July 2, through 11:59 p. m., Monday, July 4.

The DPS prediction released by Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., director, emphasized that 4,000 cars will be damaged requiring garage repairs — some a total loss — during the three day period. The report said that 1500 persons will receive bodily injury with some persons being crippled for life.

"These are some of the factors on the grim side of the holiday," Garrison said, "but it is necessary to relate them in order to explain the seriousness of the holiday traffic situation to Texas motorists."

"The fourth of July is a holiday in which Texans go out of doors and do lots of driving. I wish everyone a good time during the July Fourth weekend. At the same time I would like to advise them to be careful."

"Let someone else drive if you drink, watch your food and keep it refrigerated, and don't mix your holiday with personal injury, death, or damage to your automobile. We will have on the highways to help you, every available patrolman. You can make their job easier by planning safety into your holiday activities."

The Morton Lions Club, at their weekly meeting, Wednesday, after considerable discussion, voted to collect money at the gate and to operate the concession stand at the 10th annual Texas Last Frontier Rodeo in August.

The club had proposed to buy the concession stand from the Rodeo Association, of which the Lions are a participating member, but the Association did not want to sell it. They wanted to lease it each year as they have in the past few years.

The club had four guests on hand, including J. P. Jones, and Bob Jamieson of Morton and Joe Hodge of Whiteface.

A planned film by the Soil Conservationist was postponed until next week, because of the lengthy discussion concerning the rodeo program.

Returns from Youth Camp

40 Years Of International Flight

On February 8, 1919, eleven passengers boarded a Farman "Goliath" for the first commercial international flight—a 2½-hour run from Paris to London. They sat on wicker chairs and ate sandwiches and cookies aboard this bi-winged, multi-cabled machine.

Bold French aviators Mermoz, Gimie and Dabry made the first commercial Atlantic crossing on May 12, 1930. Captain Dabry later accomplished more than 580 trans-oceanic flights for Air France.

Air France, which pioneered the first commercial international flight 40 years ago, presently features Caravelle jets that cruise at 470 mph and range 1,600 miles. Boeing 707's are next for the progressive airline, bringing trans-oceanic hops that allow you to have lunch in Paris and dinner in New York.

Former Local Couple Celebrate Golden Wedding Day at Haskell

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Crawford, residents of Haskell for 35 years, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Sunday, June 12, at their home in Haskell.

The Crawfords, who formerly lived at Morton, still own four farms south of Lehman. While here a short time, they attended the Church of Christ in Morton, and are well known by many present Morton residents.

The couple's five children and families were present to join in the celebration and more than 300 friends called during open house Sunday afternoon.

In order to carry out the golden anniversary theme, all the drapes throughout the house were gold or had a touch of gold.

The oil cloth on the kitchen tables were gold and the dining table cloth was gold taffeta overlaid with gold net. Sixteen gold bells with fringe to match were appliqued together with the initials of each of the parents.

The children and grandchildren wore a gold dress, shirt or tie. Mrs. Crawford wore a shoulder-length veil, and her dress was also touched here and there with gold leaf.

To highlight the effect on the dining table, it was lighted from underneath.

Ornaments for the yard were yellow bird houses, gourds and jugs. Love songs were played throughout the afternoon on the lawn. Large white bells with gold outline were hung under the trees and flowers were planted early so that marigolds would bloom for the occasion.

In addition to neighbors and friends who called, 95 cards were received along with 17 pot flowers and 83 gifts, and more than 300 names were listed in the anniversary book.

"Don't be surprised," Mrs. Crawford said, "When for Christmas a gold low appears on your package — I saved them." Continuing, she said, "Some of the cards were mislaid due to my inexperience in handling so many gifts. If you fail to get a 'thank you' just remember, somebody did thank you!"

"To everyone who in any way aided in making it a good day, please accept our grateful thanks. It isn't bad to be old, living among friends like you," Mr. and Mrs. Crawford said.

Mr. and Mrs. Crawford were married on June 12, 1910, in Stamford. The couple moved to Haskell 35 years ago, and Mr. Crawford engaged in the business of cotton ginning and cotton buyer. Later he was a farm implement dealer, and is well known for his interest in civic affairs.

The couple's children, all present with their families for the anniversary celebration are Maurice M. of Wichita Falls, Mrs. Jack Lane of Fort Worth, Duffer Paul of Allentown, Pa., Dr. Paul B. of Texas A & M College, Las.

One son, Howard Clifton Crawford and Horace R. Crawford of Dalhart, died in 1945. His widow and two children live in Austin.

In his memory, Mr. and Mrs. Crawford have established a Howard Clifton Crawford Memorial Student Loan Fund at both Abilene Christian College and Hardin - Simmons University. Their son Maurice earned a bachelor of arts degree at H-SU in 1932.

RUTH McMINN IS $10 WINNER . . .

Who's Who Jackpot Builds to $178.00 As Winner Trips up on Four Clues

It was "triple tough" for Mrs. Ruth McMinn of Morton who missed out by parts of three clues and possibly one complete clue in Tuesday's Who's Who.

Top money Tuesday was $122. Mrs. McMinn received $10.00. So, prize money will climb to $178.00 this week. That's adding the $112.00 to $66 already scheduled.

Mrs. McMinn's entry was drawn from the big red wheel by little Tommy Raines, 4 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Raines of Raines Cash Food, Morton.

Mrs. McMinn correctly identified the mystery person as Henry D. Galvin of Whiteface. But she missed out on part of three clues, and, as the rules read - "the BONUS requires a PERFECT list of correct clues."

When contacted by phone, Mrs. McMinn said she had never been a winner of any kind before, and that she was happy to get even $10.00.

As far as we knew, there were no false clues listed in the June 16 Who's Who, but most folks came up with only 30 clues.

So we called Henry over at Whiteface only to find he had left town last week and wouldn't be back for sometime.

The clue so many folks left out was "Outstanding academic records" which referred to the Galvin's three sons who were graduated with honors from Whiteface High School.

The three parts Mrs. McMinn missed involved a missing quote on the "Don't worry . . ." clue, the misspelling of "Patriot" in "Wed in county . . ." clue, and the misspelling of Walsenburg in "Born near . . ." clue.

(We're biting our nails too.) Checking through the 951 entries turned up some interesting clues, such as "Our Darling, white, Country Gentleman," "Mountain Pass," and "hard to fit."

But apparently Henry is fairly well known hereabout, entries from Lubbock, Causey, N. M., and other points turned up with his name as Who's Who.

And, as we've been promising, the Who's Who is going to be tougher as time rolls on . . .

The Who's Who awarding was conducted at Bracken Furniture and Appliance, with entries gathered from Merritt L. P. Gas Co., Seaney Food Store, Loran-Tatham Co., and Bracken's.

This week we boxes will move to Truett's Food Store, Higginbotham - Bartlett Co., Danez Beauty Salon, and Windom Oil and Butane Co.

Here are the clues to the identity of Henry (Cotton) Daniel Galvin, tax assessor and collector of the Whiteface Independent school District.

Middle name same as name of one of the books in the Old Testament, (recall Daniel); First name same as last name of early American orator, (Patrick Henry); Mate's middle name means "peace", (Irene)

Wed in county named for Texas patriot who took part in Battle of Mier, (recall the drawing of the black beans, the name of the county, Eastland); Wed in late 20's; Attended school at Brilliant, (in New Mexico); Attended school at Koehier, (also in New Mexico); Outstanding academic records, (refers to three sons, graduates of Whiteface school);

Active in boys organization, (Scouts, etc.); Moved to Cochran County from oil city (Odessa); Born Walsenburg, (Colorado); Has worked as pumpjack; Was hated under slate first day in east mine, (Oklahoma);

Until moving to Cochran County never lived in one place more than five years; Worked on "Big Inch," (in southern Missouri); "Don't worry, nothing is going to turn out alright," (philosophy);

Favorite color, blue; Favorite politician, Frank J. Lausche, (Senator from Ohio); Favorite comedian, Jack Benny; Favorite newspaper, Star Telegram, (ticks a third time!); Favorite sport, baseball; Cherry pie, (it is good); Mate attended Randolph Junior College, (Cisco, Tex.); Mate's height, 5 feet and 7 inches; Mate plays piano; Mate took college work in preparation for teaching, (and teaches);

Has five grandchildren; Eat with Lions, (member of the Whiteface Club); Order of the Arrow, (Scouts know); Worked in auto plant in Detroit; Has nickname common to a product of here, (cotton), and that's it . . . but, wouldn't $178.00 be nice about now . . .

WEDDING SHOWER FOR MRS. AUTRY

Cooking for the special occasion started at 5 a. m., and serving of the dinner meal, beginning at noon, required five separate settings for the adults. The Guajardos, after the occasion, offered their sincere thanks to all of their friends who dropped by to help observe the occasion, and make it one they will not soon forget.

Local Pastor At Methodist South'rn Jurisdiction'l Conf.

Rev. H. F. Dunn, pastor of the First Methodist Church, Morton, will be among those attending Methodist's South Central Jurisdictional Conference in San Antonio this week.

Some 314 delegates are expected to attend the conference, one half of whom are ministers from Texas, New Mexico, Arkansas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, Missouri, Kansas, and Nebraska.

Purpose of the conference, which meets every four years, is "to promote the evangelistic, educational, missionary, and benevolent interest of the Methodist church at large; to provide for the various interests and institutions within the jurisdiction; to elect bishops, and to determine the boundaries of the annual conferences within the jurisdiction."

High on the agenda of the business this week will be the election of five bishops.

Two will be elected to succeed Bishops A Frank Smith of Houston, resident bishop of the Houston - San Antonio area, and Dana Dawson of Topeka, Kansas, resident bishop of the Kansas area, both are retiring from active service.

A third will be elected to succeed Bishop H. Bascom Watts, late resident bishop of the Nebraska area.

Two others will be elected as results of membership gains in the jurisdiction and a revised quota, authorized by the Methodist General Conference which recently met in Denver.

Bishops are elected for life, by ballot without nomination, and the 1956 jurisdictional conference ruled that a minister must receive 60 percent of the votes cast in order to be elected a bishop.

After the election the jurisdiction will have a total of nine bishops. Others are Bishop William C. Martin of the Ft. Worth - Dallas area, Bishop Paul E. Martin of Little Rock, Ark., Bishop Eugene M. Frank of St. Louis, and Bishop W. Angie Smith of Oklahoma City, a brother of Bishop A. Frank Smith.

Another item of business will be the assignment of bishops to episcopal residences, which is the work of the conference.

The recent general conference enacted a non-retroactive law that no bishop may serve the same area for more than 12 years.

Making the trip to San Antonio with Rev. and Mrs. Dunn will be two of their daughters, Treva and Barbara.

They left Morton Monday in order to attend a district meeting at Brownfield.

Following the meeting they continued on to Midland where they visited briefly with Mrs. Dunn's sister and family, the J. C. Russells, before going to San Antonio. They expect to be home by this weekend.

Local Pastor At Methodist South'rn Jurisdiction'l Conf.

Rev. H. F. Dunn, pastor of the First Methodist Church, Morton, will be among those attending Methodist's South Central Jurisdictional Conference in San Antonio this week.

Some 314 delegates are expected to attend the conference, one half of whom are ministers from Texas, New Mexico, Arkansas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, Missouri, Kansas, and Nebraska.

Purpose of the conference, which meets every four years, is "to promote the evangelistic, educational, missionary, and benevolent interest of the Methodist church at large; to provide for the various interests and institutions within the jurisdiction; to elect bishops, and to determine the boundaries of the annual conferences within the jurisdiction."

High on the agenda of the business this week will be the election of five bishops.

Two will be elected to succeed Bishops A Frank Smith of Houston, resident bishop of the Houston - San Antonio area, and Dana Dawson of Topeka, Kansas, resident bishop of the Kansas area, both are retiring from active service.

A third will be elected to succeed Bishop H. Bascom Watts, late resident bishop of the Nebraska area.

Indians Roll Over Babe Ruth Tigers

The Morton Indians, thanks to a bundle of walks and errors on the part of the Tigers, maintained their undefeated record and their superiority in the Frontier Babe Ruth League here Friday as they walloped the Tigers, 17 to 6.

The Indians were paced by their pitcher Donnie Powers. An assortment of Tiger hurlers took turns on the mound including Larry Dupler, Tommy Terrell, and Jimmy Billbreay. It was the Indians second win over the Tigers who have won all the rest of their games thus far.

Tigers Outlast Whiteface Cards

The Morton Tigers romped to a 15 to 8 victory over the Whiteface Cardinals, Monday night on the Morton Babe Ruth diamond. The Cards, who have had to forfeit two games because they didn't have enough players, were playing only their second game of the season.

ker, Plainview; George Mahon, Washington, D. C. Alternates were: Frank Hardesty, Big Spring; Billy Clayton, Springlake. The delegate-at-large from this district was Lloyd Croslin from Lubbock.

The Cochran County Delegation supported all the candidates who were elected. The only poll taken of the entire delegation was taken on the much disputed "loyalty oath." The liberal faction sought to have every state delegate sign a pledge to support all the party nominees. The Conservatives, including Sen. Johnson, opposed the oath. To avoid an embarrassing split, Sen. Johnson and Speaker Rayburn helped work out a compromise that the state delegates would not have to sign a pledge, but the delegates to the national convention would sign a pledge.

The vote ended in a resounding victory for Johnson. The vote was 2252 to 40 in favor of Johnson. Thirteen of the 40 "ultra" liberal votes came from plains counties. These were Andrews, Crosby, Castro, and Dawson counties. McDermott said that Cochran voted to support LBJ all the way. He said that the general consensus of the 2252 delegates is that L.B.J. has a good chance to be nominated.

PLANE CRASH —

home, northeast of Morton. The first such crash reported in this county of the present crop season, it continued an unusual record of amazing good fortune crop dusters have had in crashes in this county in recent years. Twice last year crop dusting planes crashed in the county, though seriously injured, recovered.

Warren, taken to the Memorial Hospital, treated and x-rayed and sent on to Lubbock, suffered a fractured hip in three places and numerous cuts and bruises. The crash occurred around 8 a. m. as Warren, flying one of two planes being used to dust the crop of Masten, in Masten's plane, seemed about to go under the powerline, and suddenly pulled the plane up into the power line. The day before his plane had clipped one wire without crashing. Later Warren told spectators that he got turned around and thought he was at the other end of the field he was dusting.

His plane was almost fully loaded with the poison and had just completed one short swath before starting one mile runs. Ervin Merritt, standing on his front porch watching the dusting operations, saw the crash and was the first one to the scene. He went to the plane, found Warren unconscious, jammed up against the cockpit and decided against trying to remove him. Leaving two other men standing by, Merritt raced to Morton in his vehicle, got the ambulance and picked up ambulance driver Sammie Leverett.

James Masten, and brother Bob of Sudan, who were flagging and mixing and loading poison, for the pilots of the two planes, helped load Warren into the ambulance after he had regained consciousness and been removed from the demolished plane wreckage.

The Masten land being dusted is about three miles north and a mile west of Morton. Warren, married, has a family in Alabama. His wife came to Lubbock, Tuesday to be with her husband who is in room 401 at Methodist Hospital.

Pirates Scare Cards; But Leaders Maintain Their Margin In Little League

Cards Wallop Sox, 21 to 9
The Little League Cards, utilizing mostly walks and Sox errors, raced to their fifth consecutive victory and their eighth of the season, Thursday, swatting Sox 21 to 9.

David Newson pitched the first innings for the Cards and set up a comfortable lead. Herold Lamar and David Jenkins added to the trio allowing the Cards to score three base hits in the game.

Elky Monroe started for the Sox and gave way to Kernell, who then was relieved by Dick Newson, in addition to doing the pitching, clubbed a pair of home runs in the game.

Pirates Nip Cubs Bottom of 6th

The Little League Pirates took a temporary lead in their game with the Cubs for second time in the Little League as they tried to life with two runs in the bottom of the 6th.

Pirates had a 5 to 1 scoring lead and looked like they were coasting to victory. The Cubs' hurlers suddenly came on to tie the game in the 3rd, 4th, and 5th frames and two in the sixth. The Pirates pushed across the winning runs to take a one game lead over the place Cubs.

McDaniel was the victim of the Pirates fireworks and the Cubs came on to tie the game in the 6th frame. Kenny Palmer on the mound for the Pirates finally earned the tri-

Sox' Comeback Nips Giants

The Little League Sox duplicated their feat of two weeks ago, scoring six runs in the bottom of the 6th inning to take a 6 to 5 lead over the Giants.

As in a wild game as you'd ever see, the two teams combined for 43 runs on 36 hits, 17 errors, 23 walks and a hit batter. Sox came out 22 to 21 winning the fray.

St. Van and Mike Irwin hurled for the Sox while Otho Ray and Fabian Flores did the pitching. The Sox won was the third for this season while the loss was the 6th for the slumping Sox. Penn Tom Burke, Sam Garza, Freddie Turney and Mings each had two hits for the Sox and Alton Ray Black had six times, scoring five

Cards Edge Bucs In Real Thriller

Joey Newson's sixth inning double drove home Eddie Lyon with the tie breaking run to give the Cards a 5 to 4 win over the Pirates, Tuesday night.

The run broke a deadlock that had existed two innings as the Pirates spotted the Cards a 4 to 1 lead and then battled back to tie the game in the 4th frame. Kenny Palmer was the losing hurler for the Pirates. With one away, Lyons had reached first base on an error and took second on a passed ball. He scored easily on the wallop to the right center field fence.

covering approximately 70,000 acres with the federal share of obligations at about $400,000.00. This allocation covers the next three to six years. In 1959-60 twenty four of the 47 were written by the local office. Thomas said he expects the coming fiscal year to be another active year for the Great Plains program here. And, he urges all farmers interested in the program often described as one of the "best jobs" yet tried in this area to come by the local office in the County Activities Building and check into the program now. (In 1959 Congress put a ceiling on the program for each participant at $29,000.00)
