Inexperienced Backs, Veteran Line; Versus Strong Backs, Green Line

With two important scrimmage sessions under their belt and once again sporting what is normally conceded to be a very slim team, with little depth, the Morton Indians play host to Sudan to open their season, Friday night.

Coach John Paul Jones' Indians have about 26 players actively working out for the team, in the top three grades. They have an additional 11 or so freshmen.

The Indian team was dealt a little stronger blow than graduation was supposed to deal. They lost the services of an experienced lineman, Dewayne Miller, who entered the service before his senior year and Earl Cox, promising Mrs. Jane Ashton comes to Morton from Oklahoma and will teach junior high English.

City Will Make Another Attempt To Get Phone Agreement Signed

The City is trying once again this week to arrange a meeting between officials of General Telephone Company of the Southwest and officials of the Five Area Telephone Cooperative, in hopes of getting a contract signed between the two companies, which will start the ball rolling on extended area phone service.

Although the two companies are still at a disagreement concerning the Maple Exchange, they have reached agreement on the Lehman Exchange. Officials of the companies have announced the agreement, and phone users on the Lehman Exchange have asked the city to attempt to arrange a meeting between the phone officials Monday of next week, and try to get the contract concerning the Lehman Exchange and Morton, signed.

City Secretary Joe Seagler agreed, Wednesday, to try to contact the phone officials and set up the meeting, or if not possible next Monday, arrange it for a near future meeting.

Even after any such agreement is signed, it would take about 18 months to obtain necessary equipment to put the system in operation, it was announced previously by Paul Farrar, District Manager of General.

Just last week, Pettit Community, in a meeting with the Littlefield Chamber of Commerce, asked the Littlefield C of C to help them get extended area service to Littlefield.

EAS means a plan whereby calls between the communities can be made toll free, the costs of the plan being shared by phone subscribers of the two exchanges.

Budget Hearing Held Monday

Cochran County's Budget Hearing was held Monday at the Commissioners' Courtroom, but only local office holders appeared to seek any changes.

The hearing, open to the public, was not attended by anyone outside the Courthouse.

County Judge Glenn Thompson said the budget pared some $1,500 in labor from the Tax Assessor-Collectors office and an additional $1,000 from the Clerk's office.

Name of the stores will be retained for the immediate future at least, Stephens announced. No changes are contemplated in personnel at any of the stores, he said.

Stephens first acquired an interest in the stores in early 1958 when the Cobb stores were re-organized from a financial standpoint.

ACCOMPANYING HAIL WIPES OUT OTHERS . . .

Weekend Rains Offer Some Crop Insurance;

The heavy rains which area farmers have been waiting for came in two sessions over the weekend but brought with them serious crop destroying hail, over large sections of land.

The first heavy rains came to the northwest sector of Cochran County and the southwest area of Bailey County on Friday night, at about 5 p. m. The worst of the hail accompanied this storm.

Rains up to 2 inches were reported (an estimate) by Woodrow Self who appeared to be the worst hit of the area farmers. The hail broke his rain gauge and he could only estimate the amount of rain that fell. But Woodrow, with 164 acres, in Cochran and Bailey Counties, was reported apparently wiped clean of a huge cotton crop. His grain also, which he himself thought didn't look so bad, will probably be severely damaged, other farmers in the area told him after looking it over.

Self also reported one of his hired hands, caught in the field on a tractor, was sorely bruised by the hail before he could scramble to cover.

Others whose crops was badly damaged by the Friday evening hail were James Greener, J. D. Thomas (estimated 50 acres), and Jim Hill. Lesser damage was reported by Truman Smith, Lee Harris, Elmer Gardner, Dee Tucker, Jake Reid and T. O. Harris. Damage was heavy in most instances, but not total.

Sunday evening the bottom fell out of the sky again, and this time most of Cochran County benefitted from a good shower, which played out about four miles east of Whiteface, in Hockley County.

Again the shower came in the late evening, around 6:30 to 7:00 p. m., and again in some areas farmers around Maple reported hail losses amounting to 20 - 50 acres. But the rain, which was far more widespread than Friday night, was a real blessing to many hundred acres of dryland

On the B. H. Tucker place 9 miles northwest of Morton, over 5 inches of rain was received on Friday night, Sunday, and Monday evenings in addition to the Friday hail.

In contrast, Tucker had practically no rain, or little, on his home place, directly west of Morton.

Feed damage may have been suffered because of the heavy winds, Sunday. The B. O. Hurley farm west of Morton was among those hit by the winds, and feed was reported leaning considerably after the heavy winds swept through the field.

Burt Jennings, just 5 miles northwest of Morton got two inches of rain Sunday, but reported no hail damage. The rain fell in a 35 minute period.

Some of the other rainfall totals reported included D. A. Ramsey, 2.8, southwest of Morton, R. Z. Dewbre, about a half inch both Friday and Sunday; west of Enochs and northeast of Maple, Ed Nuetzler had 3 inches in the Sunday rain; and over in the edge of New Mexico, Gene Pool had only a half inch, Friday.

The Sunday rain played out east of Whiteface, but appeared to cover most of the county with at least a fair shower.

The hills Sunday came to T. A. Gresham, Foy Moore, T. T. Smith, Louis Kuehler and Cortie Coffman, southwest of Morton, and were accompanied by more than 2 inches of rain.

More showers fell Monday and Tuesday, in scattered places around the county, though Morton got only a trace of moisture.

Machines of this type have been in use for several years, Hockley County having used one since around 1955. Lubbock, Hale and Lynn Counties use the same machine. Lamb County has one similar but by a different company. Bailey County does not have one but is planning to send officials to Morton to watch this machine run.

The Cochran County machine is a first too, according to Mrs. Denny. She asked the Burroughs Company if the personal taxes could be included on the machines and a mechanic worked it, and put it on the local machine. Now, she says, other counties in the area are having their personal taxes also placed on their machines.

Back-to-school shoppers have through Saturday, Sept. 3, to register for the $125 in prizes to be given away at the Morton Drug Store.

No purchase is necessary to register. Persons need not be present at the drawing to win.

Super Market Under Construction

Morton's newest Super Market on South Main Street in the 400 block was beginning to take shape this week.

Three houses in the block have been moved and relocated in Morton, two blocks east. The contractor began laying cement block on the 150x75 foot building.

Alberto Bihl Rites at St. Anne's Wednesday

Final rites were read at St. Anne's Catholic Church at Morton, Wednesday, at 3:00 p. m., for 53 year old Alberto Bihl, Bledsoe, who died Tuesday at the Morton Memorial Hospital after a long illness.

Mrs. Bihl, who was a farm, had lived in the Bledsoe area for four years, moving there from Artesia, N. M. He was a native of Old Mexico. He had been ill for more than a year and had been in the local hospital for the past 37 days.

Father Weibert of Littlefield conducted the services and burial was in Morton Memorial Cemetery under the direction of Singleton Funeral Home of Morton.

Survivors, in addition to his wife Henrietta, include four sons, David, Lawrence, Richard and Manuel, all of the home; and four daughters, Mrs. Mary Arriaga, Bakersfield, Calif.; and Misses Josephine Bihl, Amelia Bihl and Ida Bihl, all of the home.

County Purchases Tax Computer; For Assessor - Collector's Office

Cochran County has recently completed installation of a new tax computing machine in the office of Assessor-Collector.

The machine, known as a Burrough's Tax Machine, has been installed about a month and will be ready for operation on the new tax roll as soon as the proper forms for the machine arrive.

The machine, operated by one person who types in the description and the valuation, computes state, county, county-wide school, personal and water district taxes, putting each figure in a pre-arranged column, and at the same time furnishing a receipt for the taxpayer and typing up the tax roll.

Purchased at a cost of little more than $5,600 the machine is supposed to pay for itself within three years in labor saved. Mrs. Otha Denny, Tax-Assessor-Collector, estimates it will save her office $1,500 in one tax roll.

The actual operation of the machine is unusually simple. The mechanism for computing the taxes is set inside the machine, and the computers are set for prearranged tax rates. Then the operation is a matter of correctly typing the information, feeding the correct value into the machine, and punching the correct buttons at the correct time.

Those announcing the change are Doss Super Store, Piggy Wiggly, McClain's Super Save, Raines Cash Food, Seany Food Store, and Willis Food Store.

Truett's Food Store announced "Double Stamps" on all cash purchases both Tuesday and Wednesday through September with customers to decide on what day to offer double stamps thereafter.

Local food merchants took a second look at Tuesday this week after other South Plains food stores begin announcing a change in double stamp day from Tuesday to Wednesday.

Wednesday has been a double stamp day in many parts of Texas for sometime.

Merchants giving double stamps on Wednesdays say they are afforded more time for stocking between rushes - double stamp day and Saturdays.

Also in Morton delivery trucks and salesmen seem to hit most food merchants on Tuesdays, adding greatly to the Tuesday rush.

With Wednesday double stamp day, food merchants will find it difficult to attend Wednesday night church services.

Invited to Local Investment Club

A guest speaker will be present at the regular meeting of the C & I Investment Club Thursday night, Sept. 8, it was announced this week by Lloyd Miller, treasurer - agent.

The group will meet at 8 p. m. in the Western Abstract building. All members are urged to be present by the club's president Van Greene.

Seek Ways To Improve Cemetery Board Services

Ways of improving services to the public were discussed at the called meeting of the Morton Memorial Cemetery Board Thursday night at the Chat 'n Chew.

Attending the meeting were Mrs. Lem Chesher, secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Gene Benham, and Bill Glassford.

Guests were Mrs. Bill Glassford and Sammy Leverett.

School Roll Reaches 940

Supt. John Barnes said Wednesday early enrollment totals at Morton Schools was 940, up approximately 12 students from the same time a year ago.

Double Stamps To Be Wednesday Shopping Feature

Along with other South Plains food stores, "Double Stamp Day" comes to Morton Wednesday, September 7.

(The change from Tuesday to Wednesday is announced in an ad appearing on page eight of this publication of the Morton Tribune.)

Those announcing the change are Doss Super Store, Piggy Wiggly, McClain's Super Save, Raines Cash Food, Seany Food Store, and Willis Food Store.

It makes good sense to pre-plant ammonia on wheat land

Prominent West Texas farmers like RAY SCHULTE use ammonia to get wheat yields up to 60 bu.

Ray Schulte of Castro County, who farms 875 acres, says: "On this soil around here, it wouldn't pay you to put in a wheat crop without ammonia." Applications of 100 pounds of Phillips 66 Ammonia per acre have given Mr. Schulte up to 60 bushel per acre wheat yields.

"On maize," he reports, "I put down 100 to 120 pounds of Phillips Ammonia per acre. I've made 8600 pounds maize per acre in the De Kalb 5-acre contest. Ammonia on cotton gives me about 1/4-bale increase per acre."

Thousands of Texas farmers are using Phillips 66 Ammonia to help assure top net profits per acre. Actual field reports prove that Phillips 66 Ammonia (1) boosts wheat and small grain yields (2) increases maize yields (3) produces more high grade cotton (4) improves forage production.

See your local Phillips 66 Ammonia Distributor now. You can depend on better ammonia service.

J. D. Hawthorne Wins Third Flight In Muleshoe Invitational Golf Meet

One Morton Golfer came home from Muleshoe Sunday with a trophy from the Muleshoe Invitational Golf Tourney.

J. D. Hawthorne was the lone Morton winner, although a fair-sized contingent of Morton golfers competed. Three others fell in Sunday (the final day) competition, but all were defeated in the morning semi-final round.

Hawthorne won the championship of the fourth flight. He beat out a Mortonite in the Sunday morning round, ousting Hub Cadenhead, and then going on to win in the finals.

Other Sunday losers for Morton were S. M. Monroe, T. L. McAlister, and Gary Middleton. All were competing in the championship of their divisions. Four other Morton golfers lost out earlier by losing a first round match and then being defeated in the consolation. Here's how the Morton golfers fared in their rounds of play:

Smiley Monroe and Button Silvers with 76's were the low Morton qualifiers, competing in the first flight. Monroe defeated Irvin St. Clair of Muleshoe, 1-up, and Silvers was a 3 and 2 winner over Don Moore, also of Muleshoe. Monroe lost to Smokey Stover of Clovis, 2 and 1, Sunday morning.

Saturday, Monroe defeated Murphy, 1 - up on 19 and Joe Renner dropped Button Silvers out of play 2 and 1.

Gary Middleton of Morton, with a 79, was in the second flight and decided Babe Barbour of Muleshoe, 4 and 2 in his first round. Middleton won over Ted Hatchett 5 and 2 in his Saturday match. Dick Garner of Plainview took out Middleton, 3 and 2, Sunday morning.

James St. Clair and Tom McAlister of Morton fired 82's to qualify for the third flight. W. L. Eddleman of Muleshoe pushed St. Clair into the consolation bracket with a 2 up victory. McAlister defeated Noel Woodyly, Muleshoe, 2 and 1 to advance to the second round of play. St. Clair was defeated by O'Neal Rocky, 1-up on 19 and McAlister dropped Ted Faberer, 2 and 1, in Saturday play.

Sam Damron, 2 and 1 for his title.

Tip Windom, had an 87 qualifying score, and defeated Earl Richards, 5 and 4 in his first round of play in the 5th flight. He was the last of eight Morton qualifiers in the meet. Connie Gupton ousted Windom, 2 and 1 on Saturday.

Lanes Laid at Bowling Alley

The actual laying of the bowling lanes was completed last weekend at Frontier Bowling Lanes, Inc., according to Babe Van, proprietor.

Van said that pinsetters were expected to arrive around September 6th or soon after. Although workmen have come a long way on construction of the bowling alley, they still had a long way to go before the lanes would be ready for opening to the public.

The contractor on the project, a Roswell, N. M. man is also a partner in the enterprises. He has built several alleys before.

Dudley Malone Dropped McAlister, 5 and 4, Sunday morning.

J. D. Hawthorne qualified for the 4th flight with an 85 while Hub Cadenhead qualified with an 84. Their first round victories were over Demp Foster, Muleshoe, 1-up; and Buck Hickerson, Floydada, 1-up, in that order. Hawthorne stayed alive with a 5 and 4 win over Shorty Burkett, and Hub Cadenhead won by the same margin over Buck Woods, Saturday.

Hawthorne defeated Cadenhead 1-up and then went on to beat

Three Way, Under A New Coach Cards Six District 5-B Encounters

The Three Way Eagles will compete in a four team District in football this season under a new coach, Sam Mayo.

The Green and Gold, who last year were tutored by Bill Wood, will find themselves this year in District 5-B, 6-Man football competition, facing Cotton Center, Bu'a and Nazareth, each on a home and home basis, in District play.

The Eagles have only eight games scheduled thus far, and would definitely like two more games added to their card. They have open dates on September 30th, October 28th, and November 4th.

In addition to their six conference games, they meet Roaring Springs and Smyer. The complete schedule can be found on the football page.

Bula to Field Light Football Team In District 5-B 6-Man Competition

Charles Seagler Bula's new coach, returns to his high school alma mater, with an eight game schedule on tap for the Bulldogs.

Seagler, who was a member of the Bula team, just when the school became famous for its hard charging six-man teams, has since played football for and graduated from Eastern New Mexico University.

Seagler says he will field a light team, and expects trouble in two eight-man exhibition games his team will play, feels that the Bulldogs should do well in six-man play.

They open with eight man games against Southland and Smyer. Then they finish with six conference games.

The six man games will be against Southland, at Southland, this Friday and at home next Thursday playing Smyer. Their Conference games will be in District 5-B with Three Way, Nazareth and Cotton Center. The complete schedule appears on the football page of this edition.

 IN THE DEMOCRATIC party have also tried to answer the question, for most assuredly, there is a conservative wing in the Democratic party that is equally opposed to the present ideas put forward by their party leaders.
 depending on . . .

HOW YOU CHOOSE to state it, both of our major political parties have radically changed their party views toward federal government, toward the separate and individual states, and toward the individual citizen.
 a conservative . . .

SAYS THEY HAVE strayed far from the ideals as originally proposed by Jefferson (in the case of the Democrats) and Lincoln (in the case of the Republican party).

the believer . . .
 IN THESE types of party policies simply says, the parties have changed their platforms to conform with modern times. Streamlining, it might be called, and one of the first things we must concede is that this streamlining is not something the party leaders have dreamed up. It is in fact, the desired approach by a good sized element of the voting public.
 conservatives . . .

Seek To Cut Down On Labor Day Traffic Death Toll

Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, today announced the official prediction that 29 persons will be killed next weekend in Labor Day holiday traffic in Texas.

Garrison said some 125 extra patrolmen from the department's other uniformed services will join the regular Highway Patrol force in attempting to halt traffic law violations — which figure 1, most fatal accidents.

"We hope the driving public will help this Labor Day weekend to prove that we have over-estimated the number of traffic fatalities that will occur in the three day period," he said.

"Department patrolmen and all other law enforcement officers in our state will do everything possible to make the streets and highways safer by removing lawless drivers — but the statistics prove the main job is up to the individual behind the wheel."

"It is significant to note that in each of the 14 fatal accidents which occurred outside the city limits last Labor Day weekend, at least one law violation was involved."

N. K. Woerner, manager of the department's statistical services, reported that excessive speed over the posted limits was involved in 10 of the 14 rural fatal accidents during the holiday last year and that drinking was involved in seven of the 14.

In recent years, the highest statewide traffic toll for the three-day Labor Day Holiday was 43 killed in 32 accidents in 1955. Thirty died in 1958 and 27 motor-vehicles occurred during the Labor Day holiday of 1959.

"Labor Day is a yearly turning point in our lives — a time of year when activities, dress and behavior of Texans make a definite change. It is a time for many of us to take that last big outing before settling down to the routine of fall and the school season," Garrison said.

"Therefore, we can expect Texans to be on the move on our streets and highways — and we should be alert for the extra hazards presented by unusually crowded conditions."

Darlene Ballard, James Gathright Exchange Vows at Brownwood

Miss Darlene Ballard of Ft. Worth and James Ray Gathright of Morton exchanged wedding vows at 8 a. m. Sunday, August 29, at the Melwood Baptist Church, Brownwood.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ballard, 3855 Walnut, Ft. Worth, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. Gathright of Morton.

The Rev. Travis Gibson, pastor of the church read the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a chantilly lace over satin gown. Her bouffant hair length consisted of tiers of chantilly lace finished with natural scallops of lace. Her veil was attached to a coronet jeweled with pearls and rhinestones.

The bride carried a white orchid and a white Bible.

Miss Janette Ballard, sister to the bride, served as maid of honor. Matron of honor was another sister of the bride Mrs. James Gathright.

Their dresses were of pink organza over taffeta with puffed sleeves and lace front emphasizing the bodice. They carried roses and carnations.

London Gathright served his father as best man. Another brother, Marvin Gathright, served as groomsmen. They wore dark suits and white coats.

Ushers were Melvin Yarbrough of Morton, and Jerry Youngblood and Charles Kolb, both of Brownwood.

The bride's mother wore a light blue lace dress. The bridegroom's mother was dressed in dark navy blue. Each wore a corsage.

Miss Mary Bowen, organist, and Miss Jamie Robinson, pianist, presided the wedding music.

Danny Boone sang "Together," "The Lord's Prayer," and "The Wedding Prayer."

The church was decorated with baskets of white flowers and a candleabra. The archway was surrounded with palms, greenery, and white flowers.

Candles were lighted by L. A. Wensend and David Gibson.

The couple greeted wedding guests at the subsequent reception in the Melwood educational building.

The bride's table was covered with a white bracketed lemon cloth decorated with pink and rose flowers under white bells.

For a short wedding trip the bride wore a light blue sheath dress with matching jacket. Her accessories were white, matching her white orchid.

The couple will make their home at Brownfield where she will be engaged in teaching and the bridegroom is employed.

Mrs. Gathright was graduated from Polytechnic High School, Ft. Worth, and Howard Payne College, Brownwood.

A graduate of Morton High School, the bridegroom attended Howard Payne College.

Out-of-town guests included the grandmother of the bride, Mrs. Ethel Deaton, Ft. Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Estes, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Lemons, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ferguson, and Mr. and Mrs. Whittier, all of Ft. Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Keller, Plainview, and the bridegroom's parents of Morton.

J. F. Bass, Mrs. Mary Agnew Wed In Ceremony at Muleshoe, Aug. 19

A Morton couple recently proved the old adage that people are only as young as they feel, when their companionship blossomed into marriage.

Wedding vows were exchanged in the Bailey County Courthouse at Muleshoe, Friday, August 19, by J. F. Bass and Mrs. Mary E. Agnew, Morton.

Bass, 80 years old, and Mrs. Agnew, 70, met recently while he was working on a project at the Assembly of God Church.

Mrs. Ryan St. Clair accompanied the elderly couple to Muleshoe where County Judge Glenn Williams, also a Baptist minister tied the knot.

They are at home at 219 Northwest 3rd Street, in Morton.

Bass, father of six daughters and one son, was a widower since the death of his wife last February. A daughter, Mrs. J. T. Lowe, lives at Morton.

Mrs. Bass, formerly lived at Bledsoe before her husband a farmer, passed away. Since that time she had moved to Morton.

Of his "young" wife, Bass exclaimed this week, "she's the workingest woman you ever saw. I just can't get her to slow down when there's work to be done around the house." Then he added Mary just wouldn't let him do much work at all.

Morton High School to Adopt New 'Floating Period' Schedule

Morton High School goes back to a four year high school plan this year, more for necessity than choice.

It became necessary to put the school in classes in the high school building to alleviate overcrowded conditions in elementary school, Principal Tom Pate said.

While the 6-3-3 plan is probably the most popular around the country, still a great many schools use the 5-3-4 plan.

Another innovation is also under way at Morton which has been highly successful at two schools, a Triple A school and a Class A school. The new plan is for scheduling classes.

Each of the five days of the week, daily class periods have been increased in time, and one class is left out each day. In other words, the fourth period class usually rotates each day, periods increased to 70 minutes, instead of the original 55 minute classes.

The additional time in classes allows time for more work in the class session, without interruption, and is especially effective in classes where lab work necessary and additional time required to finish an experiment or a program. The net result may be a little confusion, with that one floating class, but the total study time is actually slightly more per week, than under the old system.

The final period on Friday is utilized for Pep Rally's, Assemblies and class and organizational meetings. All of these meetings are set on Fridays during the last period and after school, with the theory that if the meetings are worth while at all, they are worth taking school time.

Principal Pate said he felt the increased time in actual classes would more than make up for any confusion which might initially result.

Especially of benefit to two chemistry classes, one physics class, two biology classes, three general science classes, three vocational agricultural classes, three home-making classes and one journalism and annual groups, will be the longer schedules. These classes require more lab time and undertakings that take longer time to complete than is often allowed in the regular 55 minute classes.

Winking Eyes Vanish From Local Billboards

Apparently problems which involve mischievousness are about the same, the country over.

A story, datelined Springfield, Ohio, appeared in the Lubbock paper, Sunday, explaining that unknown persons have been removing the winking eyes from billboards erected by a cereal company, in a new type of outdoor billboard advertising. The eyes give the appearance of winking as a motorist passes.

The eyes have turned up, among other places, installed in the rear windows of autos, and they give the same effect.

Because of the tremendous cost of such an overall program, it's just possible, the person caught with one, could be prosecuted, not for petty theft, but for theft over $50, which is a felony.

A quick check Monday in Morton revealed . . . you guessed it . . . the eyes have been removed from signs on the Levelland Highway inside the city limits, just south of the Eastside Church of Christ and from the sign located on the Country Club Road, as it intersects with the Muleshoe highway, in north Morton.

The other sign, located on the west city limits, just west of Heflin Lumber Co., had been pushed completely down . . . perhaps by someone attempting to swipe the eye, or possibly by the heavy windstorm Friday or Sunday.

COTTON INSECTS
The boll worm is coming into more prominence now in some fields of cotton. A new crop has hatched in the past three days and seems to be spreading over wider areas in the field. Advise a close check be made for flares on squares, holes in bolls, and for the young boll worms. They are very tiny when they first hatch. They can be killed more easily in the small size. The nearly grown boll worms have about lived their life and have done their damage. They are hard to kill in this stage, too. Don't worry about the big boll worms, its the little ones that should be controlled. If you find as many as 4 to 5 small boll worms on 100 stalks of cotton, its time to get started. They can hurt this late cotton pretty badly.

There are recommendations made in the cotton insect guide for their control. If necessary a repeat application of insecticides should be made in five days after the first application.

Come by the agent's office and pick up your new 1960 cotton insect control guide.

For spray use 2 to 3 quarts of DDT, 2 lbs. per gallon per acre; 4-2 mixture of Toxaphene DDT, 2 quarts per acre; Endrin (1.6 lbs. per gal.) 1 3/4 pint per acre plus DDT 2 lbs. per gallon, one quart per acre. There are other insecticides mentioned in the guide that are also recommended.

LIVESTOCK PRODUCERS SHOULD PREPARE FOR WINTER

This is the traditional season of "Dog Days" — it's too hot to work and too dry to fish. Farmers and ranchers, however, cannot afford to be dull and lazy during these late summer days. Winter is not very far away, and now is the time to make preparations for carrying the livestock until next spring.

Rangelands needing an increase in the number of better perennial forage grasses should be deferred until the end of the growing season, the specialists say. This deferment will insure seed production and natural revegetation as well as increasing the vigor of existing plants. Vegetation produced before frost will furnish winter forage as insurance against a hard winter.

Grain and hay stubble fields may be utilized to facilitate deferment of native rangeland. This is also a good time to plant for temporary winter pastures to supplement feeds.

Hot, dry weather during August and September will greatly increase fire danger.

REFUND ON FEDERAL TAX ON GASOLINE USED ON FARM

Now is the time to file claims for refund of federal tax on gasoline used on farms, for the period from July 1, 1959 through June 30, 1960. Claims will be allowed only if filed on or before September 30, 1960.

If you need copies of the card to report your claim, you may get them at the County Agent's office.

Lonnie Hooper Is Believer In Soil & Water Conservation

Continuous membership in the Cochran Soil and Water Conservation District and its programs since 1942, make Lonnie Hooper not only one of the oldest active members of the Cochran Unit but also a man who can speak well for the benefits.

Lonnie who farms about 7 miles southeast of Morton, is carrying out a complete soil and water conservation plan, and his production has increased proportionately, in addition to the fact that his farming program has been diversified.

Lonnie has a system of rotation grazing of his livestock (cows and calves) are grazing for a period of about 2-3 weeks, to a height of about 12 inches, and then being rotated to another plot of grass while he watered the section just relieved from grazing.

The rotation allows for maximum forage production and the grass, when allowed to be grazed only to about a foot in height, snaps back to production exceptionally well under irrigation.

Lonnie has been growing grass from 3 to 5 years on a particular plot of land, following it with cotton, which has proved an increase in production as well as improved the soil.

He seeded ry on his cotton and grain sorghum land for winter cover crop and winter pasture. He has improved his irrigation management by replacing part of his irrigation system with sprinklers instead of row crop irrigation on steeper slopes.

His future operation is based on diversified farming with about half of his land in grass and the other half in row crops. At the present he has 22 acres in grass and plans an additional 10 acres in grass next spring, working toward his half and half program.

The plan also allows for an income from pastureland at a time when hail or heavy rains could destroy his cotton crop.

Lonnie's irrigated pastureland carries about one animal unit per acre and he saves about 40 acres of native grass for use during the winter since it is especially high in protein content.

He also reported increased production in 1941, just the year before Hooper enrolled as a member and thus he is one of the veteran Soil Conservation practitioners in this county.

One other improvement Lonnie has made is to replace open ditches on his row crop irrigation with portable pipe to increase irrigation efficiency.
