Enduring music festival seen

The Morton Country Music Festival, inaugurated one year ago, may become a permanent annual event.

Harmon Springer, chairman of the music festival committee of the Morton Area Chamber of Commerce, asked directors for permission to form a separate organization for the festival.

The organization, as explained by Springer, would be comparable to the Texas Last Frontier Rodeo Association.

Springer asked that directors from each of the civic and service organizations, including the Chamber of Commerce, serve on the Music Festival Association.

Reasons listed were assurance of the festival being an annual affair and continuing the festival.

Springer also asked that the music festival not be held at the same time of the Texas Last Frontier Rodeo. "The music festival did not help the rodeo last year, nor did the rodeo help the music festival", he said.

Directors set a tentative date of July 25 for the country music festival. The rodeo will be in progress August 6, 7, and 8.

Securing suitable shade for performers appearing at the day long show was discussed. A possible site for this year's performance is the Cochran County Park.

Ample parking facilities, shady areas, and away from the congested downtown area were listed as reasons for selecting the site.

Springer suggested admission be charged to the county music festival, enabling the organization to become self supporting, requiring no funds from the Morton Area Chamber of Commerce for operation. Springer explained the organization could probably obtain the services of a professional country western recording artist, drawing larger crowds to the event.

Directors instructed the committee chairman to begin contacting recording artist and looking into the possibility of forming a separate association for the music festival.

Admission will not be charged for the event this year and a professional country western artist may appear.

The Morton Area Chamber of Commerce contributed $250, awarded as prizes to contestants in the show last year.

Cotton group sets April session here

Cotton growers of the area are being urged now to reserve Thursday night, April 16, for a special meeting of utmost importance it was announced today.

The date is being announced early so that conflicts of other meetings can be avoided insofar as possible.

Session will be held at the County Activities Building, beginning at 8 p.m.

Main purpose of the called meeting is to explain again the program of the Plains Cotton Growers. Under the program, growers authorize 15 cents for each bale ginned, the funds going to the PCG for concentrated efforts directed towards benefitting the cotton grower. Gins are asked to contribute 1 cent per bale ginned.

Explanation due The entire program will be explained in detail at the meeting by a speaker furnished by the Plains Cotton Growers.

In an effort to get a record number attending the April 16 meeting, the Morton Area Chamber of Commerce, in special session Tuesday, voted to sponsor a "get the people out" attendance contest with $100 in prize money to be awarded the winners.

While details have not as yet been worked out, the contest is planned especially for youths of high school age.

The Chamber of Commerce has accepted the responsibility of getting as many persons as possible to attend the meeting. In charge of the attendance contest will be Tommy Lynch and C. E. Dolle, members of the C-C agriculture committee, working with Johnny Johnson, chamber manager.

At a similar meeting held recently in Lamb County, more than 1,000 persons were present. With a concerted effort from everyone, it is hoped that a like number will be on hand for the April 16 session here, C of C officials said.

It was pointed out that the Plains Cotton Growers was responsible for obtaining increased cotton allotment and reapportionment for the area for the past two years. This is but one of the many ways in which the Plains Cotton Growers works for the betterment of the cotton grower, it was emphasized.

Flyers asking county commissioners to assist in airport's improvements

The next step in improving the Cochran County Airport is up to members of the county commissioners court.

A delegation of commercial and private pilots met with the commissioners last week and asked that the county consider improving the local airport.

No official action was taken by the court, but individual commissioners stated the airport needed improving.

The pilots were asked to meet with the Morton City Council and ask the city's assistance in the improvements and meet with the county commissioners again.

The commissioners court informed the pilots the county would grant the city water rights on the county property in the event the city and county decided to cooperate with the improvements.

The pilots met with the city council, who voted unanimously to participate in the proposed im-

Bookmobile service nearing

Bookmobile service is expected to begin in Cochran County in April, according to Charles Gholz, county library representative.

Cochran County Commissioners recently voted unanimously to participate in the library demonstration program.

Under the program, participating counties will receive the services of the bookmobile and approximately 10,000 books for two years and eight months. At the end of the demonstration program the participating counties will decide whether to keep the bookmobile. Cost of the program, $14,000 annually, will be prorated among participating counties.

Gholz reported a bookmobile and 1,500 books have arrived in Muleshoe. A librarian has been employed and a bookmobile driver was expected to be hired last week. The library is waiting to receive several shipment of books from Austin.

The bookmobile will be based at Muleshoe and the librarian, driver and clerk live there. The bookmobile will travel throughout the participating counties, leaving and returning to Muleshoe daily.

Lack of communication threatens agriculture

Lack of communication among farm organizations and allied industries is a major stumbling block that threatens future agricultural progress, according to Texas Agriculture Commissioner John C. White.

The term "agribusiness" defines a phenomenon of the past 10 years, said White. "It is a new word coined to express the explosive vitality generated by the prosperity and interdependence of rural farm interests and related urban businesses.

"But this decade of progress in agriculture and business may have reached its peak unless we establish a closer working relationship among farm organizations themselves," White added.

"We have a vast number of farm organizations in Texas, each set up to promote a particular phase of agriculture or to achieve an individual set of goals. These groups seldom unite to push for farm progress in general. Such a lack of unity gives rise to a constant scramble for supremacy in agricultural leadership. Our greatest fault lies in our failure to realize that our long-term goals are essentially the same."

Commissioner White has proposed the formation of a Council of United Agricultural Organizations embracing leaders from various farm organizations and representatives from related business interests. This group could meet regularly to explore areas of both agreement and disagreement on farm problems. This would be especially valuable in determining lines of support or opposition on state and national legislative proposals affecting agriculture, said Commissioner White.

"I do not propose that individual farm organization sacrifice their sovereignty to such a council," White stated. "Instead, we should establish a meeting place to determine our common goals, work out our common agreements and work as a strong unit for the common good of Texas agriculture."

On Friday April 27, the Three Way Baptist Church begins a ten-day revival, with morning services at 10:30 a.m. and evening services at 8:00 p.m. Beryle C. Lovelace, of the First Baptist Church, Littlefield, will lead the singing, and Donna Kay Ferguson is the pianist. Rev. C. E. Strickland, the pastor will bring the messages. Everyone is cordially invited to attend these services through April 5, Sunday. Services are at the regular times.

Easter Sunday, March 29, the Maple Baptist Church begins a fall week of revival services, with the pastor, Rev. Dennis Heard, doing the preaching. Chester Petree will lead the singing, and Doyleen Davis is the pianist. The services will begin at 7:30 both morning and evening for all the weekdays, except Friday April 3, when the evening meeting is at 8:30 p.m. to avoid conflict with the senior play. Sunday services will continue through April 5, and will be at regular times on both Sundays. The public is urged to attend.

Music festival

On Thursday evening, March 19,

students and friends of Three Way School presented an evening of music to the public, with the proceeds going to help buy new curtains for the stage. Almost sixty dollars was realized from sale of tickets; and donations for the curtains are still being solicited.

The program had an Easter theme, with Steve Pierce as the bunny, and Madalyn Galt playing popular Easter music to set the motif. A number of piano, vocal, and stringed band numbers were given. Piano soloists included Rena Neutzler, Judith Strickland, Wenonah Williams, Janna Sue Lane, Maxine and Gayle Gant, Donna Ferguson, Doyleen Davis, J. L. Hutchason, Larry Neutzler, Kathy Wittner, and Sam Feagley. Vocalists in both solo and quartets included Karen Eubanks, Sandra Kenley, Julia Burkett, Linda Heard, Harold Carpenter. The vocalizing of "The Beatles" was almost drowned out by cheers from the teen-age section; the faces under those wierd wigs belonged to Kenneth Petree, Tommy Terrell, Gary Mack Toombs, and J. L. Lemons. A cute variety number, "The Alley Cats" was given in a twirling routine by seven high school girls. The junior high section gave forth its cheers for the talented Abbe family, Charley, Geno, and Sheryl, on their string trio. John Tucker acted as master of ceremonies; and the evening was rounded out by the "Rebel Four" string and drums combination with Jim Petree, Troy Tyson, Donny Petree, and Leslie Fine.

These all come with towns. Towns

Maybe it even helps to eliminate YOUR job. Certainly it decreases the profits on whatever business you

Mrs. Jenkins discusses All American Winners

Mrs. J. J. Jenkins discussed the new "All American" winners in summer annuals at a meeting March 16 of Cochran County Garden Club.

In listing the flowers that do well in this area she named a new pink button zinnia, which produces blooms in great quantities, "Bonanza", a giant cactus type zinnia; a new, bright celosia called "Fire Glow Bright"; a snapdragon growing to six and seven inches in height, "Floral Carpet"; this annual blooms all summer and is rose color.

A rich salmon pink salvia is called "Evening Glow"; a "Pink Julep" bachelor button has varying shades of pink from palest pink to maroon.

Another zinnia of the cactus type "Princess Pink" is mildew resistant. "Powder Puff" is a new double hollyhock.

Included in the selection is a true blue petunia, "Capri"; a double multiflora in orchid color, also a "double pentunia "Cherry Tart".

In the marigold family there is "Doubloom," "Double Eagle", "Texas" and "Geraldine"; these are the giant hybrid.

Another favorite is the new snapdragon of many colors named "Topper."

Plains were made for a placement show and Silver Tea in the home of Mrs. W. B. McSpadden on April 19. The show and tea will be open to the public.

Mrs. Trueit McCuiston, hostess for the meeting, served refreshments to two guests, Mrs. C. B. Jones, Mrs. Cullen Dansby and the following members: Mesdames Roy Hill, Cherylone Inglis, Jenkins, Charles Jones, W. B. McSpadden, Wayne Porter, A. E. Sanders, J. L. Schooler, Bud Th-improvements, on a 30-50 basis providing the county granted water rights on the property to the city. Sam Kelly, commercial pilot, met with members of the commissioners court Monday morning. The commissioners were informed of the city's intent, to participate in a joint improvement project of the airport.

The commissioners discussed the airport with Kelly and asked that the pilots return with specific amounts needed for the proposed improvements.

The pilots are asking that runways be lengthened and paved and taxi strips and parking aprons be paved.

The present county airport has nine hangers and one county hangar. The county hangar can accommodate eight airplanes, the private hangers, one or two planes each. Pilots pay a $10 hanger fee for each plane using the county hanger.

The pilots report the Cochran county seat, that does not feature on the South Plains, serving a County Airport is the only airport paved runways.

The pilots stated the improvements would aid the county, city and area, as well as local commercial and private pilots.

Approximately 25 aircraft utilize the local facilities.

John P. Haggard, Certified Public Accountant, met with the commissioners Court. Haggard recently completed the "outside audit" for the county and asked the commissioners if they had any questions concerning the audit.

The commissioners court approved the audit at the last regular meeting.

Haggard showed the commissioners the county audit had been reconciled with the county's bank statements.

The outside audit, required by law, checked out with the annual county audit recently completed by County Auditor Joe Nicewarner.

Wayne Porter met with the commissioners and asked that the Government trapper be abolished in Cochran County.

Porter explained he did not feel there was sufficient need for the trapper in the county to warrant his presence.

"I am here representing myself. I did not ask my neighbors to sign a petition," he said.

The trapper, paid by federal and government funds, works in the county to exterminate coyotes and wild dogs.

The farmer was the second person to meet with the commissioners during the last two meetings, asking the position be abolished.

Mrs. Francis Cunningham appeared before the commissioners at their last regular meeting with a similar request. Mrs. Cunningham reported two pet dogs died after getting into poison placed on a neighboring ranch by the trapper.

Porter reported three dogs shot, but emphasized he did not know who had shot the animals.

Commissioner Leland Scifres reported the government trapper was restricted in his activities by government regulations. Scifres added the regulations were very strict. The commissioners have also given the trapper instructions concerning poisoning and the placing of poison.

The trapper can and will place poison only on ranches where he has been requested to do so by the owner. He does not place the poison near houses where pet animals may get into the bait.

The commissioners informed Porter they would consider his re-

Inter-faith essay contest deadline for students near

San Antonio — Time is running out for high school students entering the inter-faith essay contest on "Religious Freedom in a Democracy" sponsored by the Texas Knights of Columbus.

"Final day for mailing the 300-word essays," said James R. Barger, contest committee chairman, "is Tuesday, March 31. Entries will be judged by a panel composed of a Jewish rabbi, Protestant minister and Catholic priest, and the top winners will receive $100 and $50 U. S. Savings Bonds. Ten honorable mention medals also will be awarded in the statewide competition."

Urging contestants to mail in their essays to "Essay Contest Committee, Texas Knights of Columbus, 1111 Majestic Building, San Antonio," Barger pointed out the competition is open to all bona fide high school students under 20. He noted the essays must be typed, double-spaced or written legibly in ink on one side of the paper only.

Barger also asserted they must be signed with the student's full name, age, name of school, class, home address, telephone number, city and state, the parents' name, address and telephone number, and the principal's name.

He added winners would be notified before April 30.

library will also serve as depository for the state books that are not in the bookmobile or left at any of the stops.

Provisions of the demonstration program require participating counties to furnish a suitable depository for the approximately 18,000 volumes. The Muleshoe Friends of the Library organization have agreed to furnish the building, utilities and janitorial services, at no cost to the participating counties.

The books not checked out will not be placed in a warehouse type building, but will be on the shelves of the Muleshoe Area Library, enabling that library to have a wide selection of volumes.

As explained by Gholz, the books will be constantly rotated by the bookmobile. It will leave with a load, 1,500, drop them off during regular daily stops, pick up books previously checked out. The books will be returned to the depository, in this case, the Muleshoe Area Library, and other volumes loaded onto the bookmobile for distribution.

"We have the bookmobile. We have a librarian. We expect to hire a driver this afternoon. We have a building. And we expect to get the bookmobile into service early in April," Gholz said Friday.

Mrs. Georgia Pena has been employed as bookmobile librarian for the four county library area. She is a graduate of New Mexico University with a B.A. degree in business administration with specialties in office management. She worked her way through college and served as librarian of the college library.

UT chooses former Morton girl for project on health

Mrs. Clyde Brownlow, the former Mary Lee Ledbetter, is one of six students at the University of Texas chosen to take part in a project sponsored by the National Institute for mental health. Choice was based on scholarship and recommendations by the faculty of the College of Education.

Mary Lee, daughter of Judge and Mrs. M. C. Ledbetter, is a senior student at the university.

The project in which Mrs. Brownlow took part involved filming the students in their practice teaching during the fall of 1963. Filming was made possible by a $400,000 grant from the National Institute for Mental Health to the University of Texas. The films were to depict situations conducive to good mental health in children.

Mary, an honor graduate of Morton High School, continues a high scholastic record in the university. She also serves as representative from the Pharmacy Wives to the Married Student Council. Mary has been employed the past three years in the International office of the university, the center handling all foreign and exchange students.

Her husband, Clyde Brownlow, a senior in the university's School of Pharmacy, also is an outstanding student. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brownlow.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brownlow joined his brothers and sisters and their families at Lake Sweetwater this weekend for a family reunion. Members of the family attended from Anton, Lamesa and Ft. Worth.

Jimmy and Kay St. Clair attended the junior play here Friday night and visited over the weekend with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. James St. Clair. Both Jimmy and Kay are students at Tech.

The bite of a tarantula is no worse than a hornet's sting.

Mrs. Carl Eugene Belk gave the Tribune a recipe for a delicious pie for this week's favorite. She says it is easy to make and quite a favorite.

Apple Crumb Pie
1 recipe for plain pastry
4 large tart apples
1/2 cup sugar
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 cup sugar
3/4 cup enriched flour
1/3 cup butter or margarine
 Pare apples; cut in eighths and arrange in nine inch pastry-lined pie pan, mix 1/2 cup sugar with cinnamon and sprinkle over apples.
Sift 1/2 cup sugar with the flour; cut in butter till crumbly, sprinkle over apples. Bake in hot oven (400 degrees) for 40 to 50 minutes.

Mrs. Carl Eugene Belk switched from politics to wife and homemaker when she married Gene Belk about eight years ago. Mrs. Belk, the former Patsy Taylor, announced, campaigned and won the office of district clerk in Thornton, Texas back in 1954. She cast her first vote that year—the traditional "free" one, at which time she also voted for herself.

Her opponent was another woman but Patsy won the election with considerably more than a comfortable margin. She polled 4,430 votes to her opponent's 1,748. She resigned the office after serving two years and three months of a four year term when she married.

Prior to her entrance in politics Patsy had attended North Texas State College at Denton. She was born and attended schools in Thornton. The youngest of five children of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Taylor, who still live there.

Returning home from college, "because I was homesick," Patsy worked in the office of the district clerk. It was when the incumbent did not announce for reelection that she decided to run for the office.

Patsy and Gene lived in Dallas for several months after their marriage, moving from there to Plains where he taught school for two years. During this time Mrs. Belk was employed by the bank for a year and for a year in the school tax office.

They then moved back to Dallas and Belk entered dental school. She worked there for two years in the 160 district court and another two years as a clerk in the Federal office of Dallas, where her assignment was principally taking passport applications.

In the summer of 1963, following Belk's graduation from dental school, they began making plans to move to Morton, where he had decided to practice his profession. They moved here last September. On November 25 the Belks welcomed their son. For some reason or another they had expected their first baby to be a girl and hadn't even picked out a name for a boy. They deliberated for some time, settling on Steven Taylor, which they've shortened to Stevie.

The Belks have made themselves right at home in Morton, where they are members of the Methodist Church. They belong to a couples "42" Club. She is a new member of L'Allegro Study Club. Presently most of Patsy's time is taken up in the care of her

Chevrolet will go to any length to make you happy

Things have changed a lot since a Chevy was only a Chevy. Especially your ideas of what you want a Chevy to be. So now you have the Jet-smooth Chevrolet—17 1/2 feet of pure luxury, bumper to bumper. The size makes it a luxury car. But not the price. Or you can choose the thrifty Chevy II, a 15 1/4-foot family car with all kinds of passenger and luggage space. This year, your choice might be the new 16-foot-plus Chevelle, sized to fit nicely between Chevrolet and Chevy II (and between parking meters, with five whole feet left over). Then, too, there's the sporty 15-foot Corvair, so right for so many people (young girls, in particular) that we've never touched an inch of it. And finally, Corvette—still 14 1/2 feet and still too much for any true sports-car lover to say no to. The long and short of it is, you don't have to go to any length to find exactly the kind of car you want. Just see the five different lines of cars at your Chevrolet dealer's.

Maid of Cotton show will be on Lubbock TV

Arrangements for two live television shows during the South Plains Maid of Cotton Finals, April 10 and 11 have been completed according to Rufus Grisham, chairman of the Maid of Cotton Committee.

The shows high lighting the finals will feature the 18 to 20 finalists who will be named soon after the closing date for accepting applications March 25.

An hour-long show on KCBD-TV, Channel 11, Friday, April 10 at 3 p.m. will give South Plains residents their first chance to see all the candidates. Each applicant will be interviewed and will model briefly before the cameras.

KLBK-TV, Channel 13, will telecast the last 30 minutes of the Maid of Cotton Show live from Lubbock Municipal Auditorium beginning at 10 p.m. on Saturday, April 11.

The telecast will begin with the introduction of the top five candidates who will have been selected from the finalists earlier in the evening. Viewers will see the present South Plains Maid of Cotton, Miss Susan Elliott, make her farewell speech and the presentation of the 1964 South Plains Maid of Cotton with her two alternates.

Because of the television coverage, stage settings for the show will be more extensive than in the past according to Carl Gandy, chairman of the staging committee. Another reaction to the live coverage according to Grisham will be the desire of many persons who will want to participate

The fulfillment of God's word...

In the Old Testament Our Lord's birth, death, and also His resurrection were foretold. These events were proclaimed and written about long before Jesus came to earth. God saw that these prophecies were fulfilled—that these things were accomplished. Hosea 6:2 prophecies Christ rising from the dead. The scriptures say that Jesus is now alive, that He sits on the right hand of God and intercedes for us, and that as He rose from the grave, we, who are in Christ, will rise also. On this commemorating Easter let us all be in God's house to rejoice in this promise.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

New Safety Shoulder

Makes Your Driving Safer

Ever had the blood-chilling experience of running off the road at high speed... even for just a second or two?

Dunlop construction alleviates this danger with tread ribs on the sides of the tire. Treads that climb down pavement edges and right back up without losing their grip. When you go off the edge of the road there's no lurch, no sickening jolt. They lean into turns, giving you traction where ordinary tire treads quit, especially at high speeds or on wet roads.

We call these new side treads SAFETY-SHOULDERS... a brand new concept in tire construction. So new, in fact, it's patented. You'll find SAFETY-SHOULDERS on the Dunlop Elite premium nylon tire. *Pat. No. 3,024,825
