Newsom heading school board

Cotton acres hike seen in local area

A five per cent increase of cotton acreage will be available to area farmers this season.

The newly devised program will be explained in full by Frank Moore at the meeting of the Plains Cotton Growers in the County Activities Building at 8 p.m., Tuesday.

Moore is in College Station this week getting full details on the program dealing with the increase in allotments.

In addition to Moore, Donald Johnson, Plains Cotton Growers representative from Lubbock will speak. Johnson's topic will deal with staple lengths and trends in the cotton industry according to Willard Cox, Cochran County director and member of the Plains Cotton Growers executive committee.

Students of high schools in the county were contacted concerning an attendance contest to be held in conjunction with the Tuesday night meeting. The contest is open to any high school student attending in Morton, Three Way, Bula, Whiteface or Bledsoe.

The Students will contact businessmen and farmers asking them to attend the Morton meeting. A card will be given to each person contacted with the student's name on it. The winner will be the student having the largest number of persons, over 18 years of age, present at the meeting.

First prize is $25; second, $20, third, $15; fourth, $10; and $5 for the next six places.

Crime never pays

Burglars entering the McAlister-Huggins farm implement store left a little richer Sunday night.

But only a little richer — the entire act only netted the robbers 30c in pennies from the cash drawer.

Investigators from the sheriff's office and police department said the burglars entered the building by breaking a panel out of the door.

The burglary was discovered when the store was opened Monday morning.

New teachers okayed during trustees' meet

Weldon Newsom was elected president of the Morton School Board in a Monday night meeting highlighted by the hiring of eight new teachers for the coming year.

Other new officers selected at the meeting included Francis Shiflett, vice-president, and Millard Townsend, secretary.

The superintendent was authorized to hire a new janitor and a new yardman to begin work on June 1. Increased campus area along with the new high school necessitated the addition to the custodial staff.

In a move to broaden the high school curriculum approval was given for the hiring of an auto mechanics teacher and the setting up of an auto shop at the school. The state requires that the auto shop instructor have a college degree and three years mechanical experience or a high school education and several years of working experience.

The student insurance program will again be handled by Southwestern States General Agency in the coming school year.

Science equipment for three new laboratories in the new school has been bought from Taylor Manufacturing Co.

It was noted that four local gasoline dealers had donated a pump and storage tank to the school without charge. The four included Texaco, Mobil, Phillips 66 and Conoco. Two of the new teachers to be hired will be in the field of special education which deals with educating the mentally retarded. New classes of this nature were discussed and approved. The new teachers will be Mrs. Beulah Cross and J. W. Combs.

Other new teacher selections are: Mrs. Elizabeth Bruce, second grade; Anna Maude Heflin, fourth grade; Larry Ellison, fifth grade; Mrs. Cy Fields, junior high reading; and Fred Weaver, a new coach also Owen Houston, industrial education.

It was also announced that the school would be held on May 2 until 2:30 p.m. to make up for classes missed due to inclement weather.

Lubbock will be the scene of the area school board workshop today. Attending from the Morton Board will be Henry Williams, Weldon Newsom, Bud Thomas and Supt. Eli Douglas. Williams will be on the program for the event.

It was also announced that the National School Board Assn. would meet in Houston April 25-28.

Named to the Equalization Board of the schools were E. H. Vaughan, Kenneth McMaster, Noel Crow, James Greener and Ronald Coleman.

Approval was given to pay all bills of the schools for the past month.

Postmaster reports receipts, rate hikes

Postal receipts in Morton for the first quarter of 1964 were listed at $10,000 according to Murray Crone, postmaster.

The $10,000 figure represents an increase of 10% over the receipts for the same period in 1963 when the total reached the $9,000.

An increase in parcel post rates went into effect April 1. The hike was approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission. Rates for international and air parcels will remain the same.

Postage for 1963 amounted to $43,500 in comparison to $34,000 for the 1962 period.

Paving discussion highlights meeting of Morton council

Paving was again the main topic of discussion for the Morton City Council meeting in regular session in City Hall Monday evening.

Royce Hanna and L. F. Fitzgerald appeared before the council to ask for additional paving on neighborhood streets.

Several units were released for paving with construction to begin as soon as possible.

It was moved to accept the plat to record the property owned by B. H. Dobson.

Several units of city streets will be readvertised for paving and a property owners' hearing will be held Thursday, May 1, at 1:30 p.m.

New mayor, Dean Weatherly, and new aldermen Kenneth Thompson and Wayne Rowden took the oath of office. The vote of last week's city election was canvassed and approved.

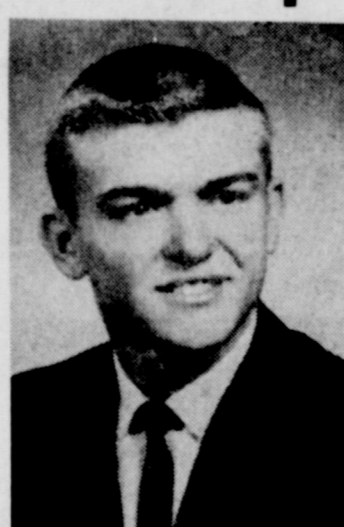

Bills for the past month were discussed and paid.

Bids on a new fence to encircle city water equipment were discussed and one approved pending more information on some of the material to be used.

Councilmen present were Earl Crum, Neal Rose, W. L. Foust, Thompson and Rowden.

City Engineer Ralph Douglas and L. A. Partell, representative of Pioneer Pavers, Inc. were also present at the meeting.

Company sets date for direct distance telephone dialing

Morton residents will receive the latest and most modern telephone service available by the end of the year.

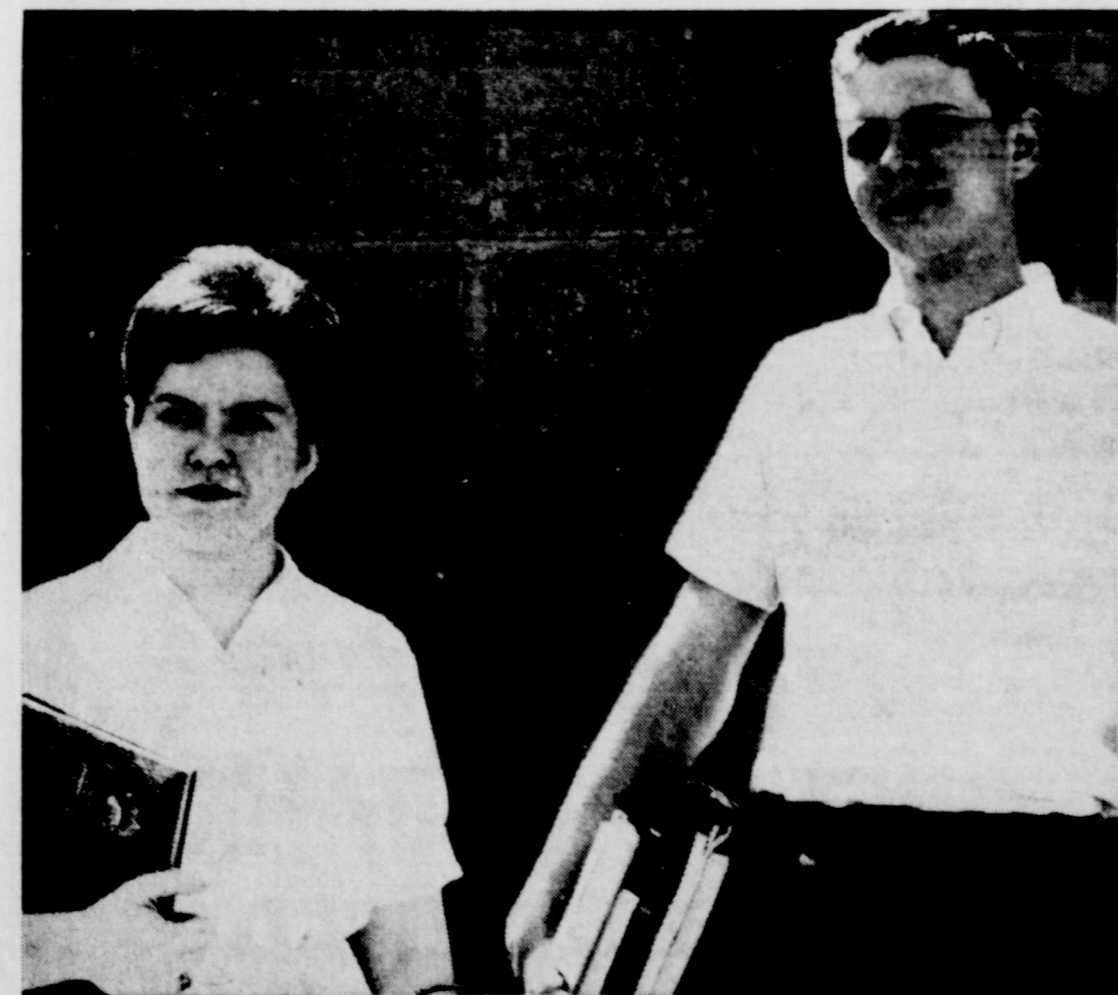

Direct Distance Dialing toll service is slated to go into effect in December, according to Herbert F. Emery, District Manager for General Telephone Company of The Southwest.

At the present time only very few exchanges in the West Texas area are receiving this type service.

The toll center for the Morton exchange is Levelland. Equipment will be installed in Levelland very soon. This will make it possible for Morton customers to dial their own long distance calls to several hundred exchanges and several million telephone numbers throughout the nation without the assistance of an operator.

Only minor changes will be necessary in the Morton exchange. Telephone numbers in Morton will remain the same.

Full details on how to use the new service and its benefits will be given to Morton telephone users before it is put into effect.

New Mustang goes on display here

The new Mustang from the Ford Division of Ford Motor Company combines the sporty, the stylish and the practical — and offers them in any combination or degree. It will be shown for the first time Friday, April 17, at McCoy Ford Sales in Morton.

Melvin McCoy, owner of McCoy Ford Sales, invites all residents of the Morton area to stop by for coffee and doughnuts while viewing the new Mustang Friday.

In effect, through its many standard equipment features and a wide customer choice of options, the new Mustang is actually three cars in one.

Standard equipment features of all Mustangs include color-keyed, all-vinyl interior and modded nylon carpeting; foam padded bucket seat; a floor-mounted transmission shift lever; padded instrument panel; automatic glove box and courtesy lights; arm rests; cigarette lighter; full wheel covers and many other standard items which are either unavailable or are extra-cost options on most other cars.

The basic Mustang is particularly suited to the smaller family or to the family looking for a second or third car. It features compact economy and low initial cost with all of the long-life, take-care features of other, more expensive cars. It combines driving fun with a sporty appearance and the practicality of a rear seat and adequate trunk space.

Calcareous soil is most common in north county area

Calcareous general soil area occurs mostly in the northwest and the northeast parts of Cochran County. There are about 37,000 acres in small areas. About 75% is cultivated. Nearly 40% of the cultivated acreage is irrigated.

Portales soil is the major soil in the association, comprising about 55%. About 35% is of the Zita soil. These soils occupy broad shallow valleys. They are generally grayish in color and have white chalky subsoils. The reddish brown Amarillo soils and the light gray Drake and Arch soils occur closely associated with the Portales and Zita soils.

These calcareous soils are productive when farmed under irrigated conditions. They will, however, blow easily when left uncovered during the blow season. The presence of free lime greatly increases the wind erosion hazard.

As mentioned in previous articles, the published soil survey report will contain information on various subjects. For example, all the soils in the county will be grouped into a Land Capability Class. This is a system of classification used to show relative suitability of soils for crops, grazing and wildlife.

It is a practical group of soils based on the needs, limitation and risks of damage to the soils. Capability classes are grouped from Class I thru Class VIII. In Cochran County, there are no Class I or Class VIII soils.

Because of climate hazards and wind erosion susceptibility the soils begin in Class II. Class II and III are soils that are suitable for yearly or periodic cultivation of annual crops. In Class IV are soils that should be cultivated only occasionally or under very careful management. Classes V, VI and VII are soils that are too shallow, steep or too sandy to be cultivated. These soils are best used for pasture, range or wildlife.

When the report is published, everyone interested in agriculture will want to get a copy. It will be available in about four weeks.

If there is any one body of water in Texas that might have what you would refer to as "everything" it is Lake o' the Pines.

Here on Cypress Creek in East Texas, only a short distance from the Louisiana line, is a marvelous lake for all types of recreation. It is one of the newest lakes in Texas, finished only three or four years ago by the Corps of Engineers. It is located 9 miles west of Jefferson, and only 65 miles northwest of Shreveport, La.

Lake o' the Pines is created by what is known as the Farrell's Bridge Dam, which is 70 feet high and 10,800 feet long. The water supply pool covers an area of 18,700 surface acres, which makes it a fair-size lake in Texas.

There is no more picturesque spot to be found anywhere in the state.

The name Lake o' the Pines is well adapted to this body of water. Its shores are lined with towering pine trees and surrounded by huge oaks, pecans and other native shrubs.

For the fisherman, there are portions of the lake where the underbrush has not been cleared. In these areas still stand towering trees of every nature. At the root of every one of these trees is some kind of fish.

Although most Texas lakes are fished mainly for largemouth black bass, this particular lake offers outstanding fishing in perhaps the largest broom in Texas with a wide assortment. This is Texas' most popular lake for canoeing fishermen.

Although there are large semi-cruiser boats and fast hulls on the lake, there probably are more of the flat-bottom john boats here than on all other lakes in Texas combined.

This is a great lake for sculling. A fisherman sits in the end of the boat with a short paddle and maneuvers it around among the protruding tree tops.

Most of these fishermen use a cane pole, baited with either minnows or worms. They drop the bait alongside one of the cypress poles or the old dead pine stumps. They jiggle it a few times. If there is a hungry fish around they take it and move on to one of the thousands of other such locations within hollering distance.

Fishermen here generally do not bother with stringers. They use wire baskets hanging over the side of the boats. They can drop their fish into these baskets and get another bait down in a hurry.

This does not mean that casting is out. It is a wonderful spot for bait casters. There are fine big black bass, plenty of crappie and chain pickerel, or jackfish as they are called locally. Most of the crappie in the area are large black ones. This, because there is sufficient acid in the water to make this species abound.

And those big bream, or blue gill? People travel for miles just to pole fish for those fellows.

In most areas the growth is a little too heavy for fly fishing, but in the more open waters and around the edges of the little islands, the fly or bug fishermen has a field day.

There also are monstrous catfish in the lake. Some alligators have been found, but they are recognized as beneficial to the waters.

The Engineers have done an excellent job of providing recreational areas around the lake. Also they have provided enough open water for those who are just interested in water sports.

There is no reason for the man who fishes and the man who skis to get in the way of each other. In the area around the dam there is a great deal of open water where racing is possible.

There also are a number of excellent commercial accommodations for those who do not care to camp out.

Lake o' the Pines is a long lake, extending in a northwest direction from the dam up Cypress Creek to the area of the Lone Star Steel plant.

It can be reached through Pittsburg, Dainerfield, Ore City, Longview, Marshall, Jefferson, Avinger, Lassater and Gilmer. The lake is split up with a score of smaller streams flowing into the main body. Backwater in these streams also provide wonderful fishing spots.

In other words, you can hit the lake most anywhere and find a good place to catch a fine string.

Although the open water of the lake gets rough and dangerous in bad weather, there are many coves where fishing is possible almost every day of the year.

If you are looking for something different in a lake... then a weekend at Lake o' the Pines is it.

Earl Crum, Neal Rose and Van Greene returned last Wednesday afternoon from several days fishing at Guaymas, Mexico. They made the trip in Crum's private plane.

Mrs. John Holloman visited a few days this week in Portales with a son and other relatives.

Observation, tests assist, help control midge infestation

Every area has certain peculiarities when it comes to the control of an insect pest. Based upon observations and tests, the following considerations may be helpful in sorghum midge control in this region.

Effective chemical control is dependent upon killing the midge before eggs are laid. Insecticides should be applied when the heads have completely emerged from the boot or no later than the initiation of blooming. Proper timing assures the presence of the insecticide on the head when midge infestations occur. Two applications, 3 to 5 days apart, will probably be necessary for effective control under conditions of heavy midge infestations.

Under conditions of heavy midge infestations experienced in 1963, one application of most of the recommended insecticides failed in some cases to give significant increase in grain yields.

Application of carbofenthiol (Trithion) in all tests and diazinon in two tests resulted in significantly greater yields than that harvested from untreated grain sorghum plots. Trithion can be used only once on a grain crop. Since two applications are usually needed, the second application of another material should be selected from the recommended list.

Prathion was used in one replicated test and was not any more effective for midge control than carbaryl (Sevin) based on one application.

All insecticides recommended have shown poor control in some tests, probably due to a continuation of heavy midge infestations. Applications of certain insecticides may cause moderate to severe leaf discoloration or burn on some varieties and hybrids. A grower may consult with his seed dealer as to the phytotoxicity of insecticides to certain grain sorghum varieties. If there is any doubt in an established crop, spray a few rows a week or so before booting with the intended insecticide at the recommended rate. No data are available relative to economic loss of grain sorghum yields due to the phytotoxic effects.

NEEDED — TIME FOR MEDITATION

Every working Mother and housewife will admit that there is never enough time — time for being the mother and wife she'd like to be, time for mending, time for planning well balanced meals. Certainly never enough time to meditate on God and His laws — to think on day by day happenings and consider whether or how they affect God's plan for her life.

One way for her to assure herself this time of needed meditation is to make it her habit to visit the church of her choice each Sunday. The quiet atmosphere of love and peace and prayer will restore a feeling of oneness with God and His plan, and give her strength for the work ahead.

"Be still and know that I am God". Psalms 46:10

"He restoreth my soul". Psalms 23:3

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Morton resident returns after long hospital stay

A six-year battle with a rare fungus disease has been won by a 26-year-old Texas man, whose parents live in Morton.

On Ralph Fowler's 6 ft. 3 in. frame, 131 pounds looks like famine. That's what he weighed two years ago when he entered the National Jewish Hospital. The disease which had razed him down from his normal, slim 165 pounds and brought him to the internationally known chest disease research center at Denver was coccidioidomycosis, also known by the more pronounceable name, "valley fever."

The tuberculosis-like disease, caused by a fungus found in the soil, first hospitalized Ralph in 1958, at McKnight state sanatorium in San Antonio. He was there for a year, and was readmitted in 1961 following a recurrence. This time he stayed until May, 1962, when he came to NJH.

Coccidioidomycosis is a tough bug to whip. The fungus which causes the disease is highly regional and is found most commonly in the soil in the Southwest. Carried along with the dust by the wind, it finds its way into the lungs where it spreads. Unchecked, it can cause cavities — and death.

Doctors at NJH say there isn't any sure-fire cure. A drug, amphotericin B, has proven an effective treatment, but it must be administered carefully over a long period to prevent side effects.

It worked for Ralph. On Saturday, March 14, back to about normal weight and free of the stubborn fungus infection for the first time in six years, he was on his way home to Morton.

"It's still a little hard to believe," he said. "After that long you're almost afraid to get your hopes up."

The day before leaving NJH Ralph got another piece of good news. C. R. Anthony department stores, for which he worked as assistant manager at Crane, Texas, contacted him at the hospital. He'll be going back to work for the department store chain — "someplace in Montana."

"But first I'm going home for a while," he said.

Ralph's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Fowler, live on Star Route No. 2, Morton.

Gin fete features all-cotton show

An all-cotton style show will highlight the annual meeting of the Star Route Co-Op Gin tomorrow night in the County Activities Building.

Food will be served starting at 6:30 p.m. and last until 8 p.m. Entertainment for the event will be provided by a barbershop quartet in addition to the style show.

A business meeting will be held following the style show and dividend checks will be passed out according to Vic Jackson.

President of the group is Ralph Debord, vice-president, Floyd Lightner, secretary-treasurer, Frances Shifflet and other directors are D. A. Ramsey and Ed Nieman.

Local enlistees go for basic training

Donald Wayne Wood, 17, son of Mrs. Lucille Collins enlisted in the United States Army April 1 for assignment in Europe. The new soldier, who attended Morton High School, is receiving basic training at Fort Polk, La.

Enlisting in the United States Army for assignment to the medical corps is Herman Leroy Akins. The 18 year old soldier is the son of John Thomas Akins and attended Morton High School. He will be at Fort Polk, La., for basic training.

Double four scores

INTRAVENOUS MEDICATION doesn't interrupt Ralph Fowler's domino game. The medicine filters down from the jars above, through a catheter inserted in a vein and extended from just above the wrist to a major blood vessel near the heart. Ralph wore the catheter for four consecutive months. When it was time to administer medicine, a tube leading from the jars was simply connected with the catheter.

Religious survey maps ready for area canvass

A great deal of work has gone into the preparation for the Religious Survey. Representatives from approximately fifteen churches within the area have mapped and zoned the area, counting the houses and preparing cards with numbers for each house in the area.

Ministers and representatives of these participating churches will meet in the Fellowship Hall of Methodist Church Saturday, April 18, at 8:00 p.m., to complete the packets for the canvassers.

Approximately 200 persons will make up the teams. These will be meeting in the First Methodist Church of Morton for instructions and their packets Thursday, April 30. There will be three sessions during the day for this purpose, 10:00 a.m., 2:00 p.m., and 8:00 p.m. Every canvasser is expected to attend one of these sessions. Roy Edwards of the First Baptist Church will give the instructions.

Saturday, May 2 is the time set for the canvassers to go out to call on every home in the area. If for some reason they are not able to complete the canvass on Saturday, they will go out again

Locals score well in literary contests

Morton High students scored well in the Interscholastic League literary contests in Dimmitt.

Mike Egger topped the Morton delegation winning a first place in number sense and slide rule. Joey Newsom and David Newsom copied second and third in the slide rule contest respectively.

The typewriter team, consisting of Reva Walden, Darlene Lytle and Penny Knox, placed third in that competition.

Janice Holloman and Carol McCuiston were on the shorthand team which also took a third place in the contest.

Marshall Grimes competed in the ready writing contest, but results were not available at press time.

Keith Coats is winner in cotton raising contest

Keith Coats, 4-H Club boy of Cochran County received a cash award of $50.00 for his outstanding cotton production at a program in Lubbock Saturday. Keith, an outstanding 4-H member, had a yield of 387 pounds lint an acre produced on non-irrigated land in 1963 on a measured 5-acre block, according to County Agent Homer Thompson. He planted Gregg variety cotton. Keith is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Coats, Rt. 2, Morton.

Mike Hale placed 7th in District with a yield of 665 lbs. lint per acre. Mike planted Lockett 4789 variety. Mike is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hale, Rt. 1, Morton.

These boys were in the spotlight at a meeting held at the Plains Co-op Oil Mill in Lubbock Saturday. According to W. H. (Bud) Jones, District Agent, twelve of the youngsters were presented cash awards — made available by the oil mill — for their exceptional cotton yields. Jones said each 4-H'er recognized at the meeting raised his or her cotton on a measured five acres. Two contest divisions were entered — irrigated or dryland.

Roy B. Davis, manager of the Plains Co-op Oil Mill, reported several of the youngsters, their families and their respective county agents were on hand for the tour, lunch and the awards program which followed.

Davis said the oil mill sponsors the contest to promote greater yields of lint cotton on farms of the South Plains. These high yields result from improved fertility and texture of the soil and by better cultural practices.

Four-H members interested in entering the 1964 Cotton production contest should contact the county agent's office.

Future Farmers banquet

AWARD WINNERS displaying their trophies at the FFA banquet are: Elliott Elliott, owner of the grand champion hog, Danny Cade, owner of the Reserve Champion lamb and hog, and Clem Kuehler, owner of the Grand Champanion lamb. The banquet was held in the County Activities Building with Donald Johnson of the Plains Cotton Growers as the headline speaker.

Companies slate wildcats in Cochran

Oil activity in Cochran County saw two new wildcats slated for drilling in opposite ends of the county.

The Atlantic Refining Co. will drill a 4,800-foot San Andres wildcat, No. 1 J. C. O'Brien, 10 miles northwest of Lehman in northwest Cochran County.

Drill site is located 660 feet from north and east lines of Labor 3, League 147, Stonewall County School Land Survey.

American Trading & Production Co. of Midland has scheduled No. 1-A M. E. Daniel Estate as a 12,500 foot Devonian prospector, 12 miles south of Lehman in south Cochran County.

The drillsite is 660 feet from south and west lines of the northwest quarter of Section 8, Block 1, PSL survey. It is three 3/4 miles east of a lone Devonian producer in Landon (San Andres and Devonian) field.

Recent guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Fralin were their son, A. A. Fralin Jr., his family of Lubbock and his daughter, granddaughter of the Fralins, from Clovis.

Overdue books get free ride during library week here

In observance of National Library Week all over-due books will be fine free this week, according to an announcement by Mrs. Hattie B. Spotts, local librarian.

"Anyone having overdue books out may bring them in and will not be fined regardless of how long they have been out," she said.

"There are 41 counties in Texas that do not have library service; we are proud that we do have a library in Cochran County. The prime objective of all Texas librarians is to strive toward good library service for all the people of Texas.

"It is important to keep in mind that National Library Week is not to be regarded as a separate, isolated project, but is used to integrate all efforts — whether those of librarians or of interested laymen — to strengthen the community's support of all libraries; to encourage their use and to increase the community's awareness of the increasingly vital role reading plays in our life," Mrs. Spotts concluded.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Foust of Sudan were overnight guests here Thursday in the home of their son, W. L. Foust Jr., and his wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Doss left Lubbock Friday by air for San Francisco for a convention of Associated Grocers. Afterwards they will fly to Hawaii for a post-convention holiday. Mr. and Mrs. Doss expect to be gone about two weeks.

Judge and Mrs. M. C. Ledbetter attended to business last Thursday in Lubbock.

Warranty law affecting sellers and advertisers

Of late, the law of warranties has placed heavy tort responsibilities on advertisers. Sometimes the buyer may treat what sellers say about their goods as promises to which the law will hold them.

In the old days, a seller was responsible mainly to the buyer, but the product liability now goes beyond the first buyer. Warranties now sometimes protect the buyer's family, his friends, or innocent bystanders whom the product may hurt.

But the law is not all one way. Recently, in another state a chemical firm sold an insecticide spray. Farmer Jones bought some, and sprayed his crops. Many plants wilted. Jones sued the firm for the loss of his plants.

The company replied that the label said "Seller makes no warranty of any kind, express or implied, concerning the use of this product. Buyer assumes all risk in use or handling . . ."

The chemical firm won this lawsuit: Parties to a sales agreement, as a rule, can agree to disclaim liabilities, as for example, when the seller tells the buyer before he buys that he makes no warranty, or makes only limited ones. Jones should read the label and know of the limitation, otherwise, without any express limitations the law "implies" a warranty that the product is fit for its intended use.

Like labels, advertisements may limit as well as increase a seller's responsibility. In a famous case a car maker claimed that all his cars' windows had safety glass that would not shatter when hit by small rocks. Smith bought a car, but when a pebble struck the glass, it shattered, hurting him badly. The court held that the sel-

Petition presented concerning trapper

A petition containing 163 signatures asking for the abolishment of the government trapper in Cochran County was presented to the Commissioners' Court Monday.

Mrs. Frances Cunningham and Mrs. Lavon Davis brought the petition before the court.

In other action the commissioners voted to sell lots No. 9 and 10, Block 106, in Morton to C. L. Acree for $400. In addition Acree purchased Lots No. 11, 12, 13 and 14, Block 23 from the city for the sum of $200.

Land was purchased for the storage of county equipment in Precinct Two in Whiteface. The purchase included Lots 1 and 2 Block 1, Oats Addition. Owner of the land was Joe Beseda.

Passing thoughts and shifting sands

By ART WALL

Local, state and federal elections occupy much of our thoughts now. We have not met many people running for office personally. We are given a card by a stranger and they speak a few words about how such an office should be run. In our local elections, we know our neighbors are running for office, and we feel secure of our vote because we know the local campaigners.

Considering our local office seekers, are we voting them in because they have every qualification to handle the office? Or are we voting them in because they are good friends of ours? In voting we should be concerned by the future because it is the days ahead that we must live. It is not good to base our vote on friendship alone. We must accept reality in a person instead of close friendship, and because so and so has a good personality.

Too often we allow sentiment to interfere with sound reasoning. We Americans are supposed to treat our neighbors as equals but in voting a neighbor to public office we must judge him closely. It might pay us to say we want to make the future of that public office better than it has been in the past, and this thought will hold good for local, state and federal offices.

We are much like the farmer at election time. If the farmer plants good clean seeds he will reap a good harvest but if his seeds are poor and full of weeds his crop will be poor. We have that in elections — we must vote in good seed in local, state and federal positions and hope that during their term of office they will give us a good return in their duties. Someone wrote, "We are reading the first verse of the first chapter of a book whose pages are infinite . . ." That is so in voting — we place the people in office — we can not see in the future how they will perform in that office.

Many of us get tired of campaign talks, and when election day arrives we are so anxious to get it laced by and over with we get careless with our vote. It is also said that men have died that we may vote yet many of us would not go vote if it was a rainy day. Then someone else said concerning day, that man will do nearly anything to preserve the freedom that enabled him to make that dollar. We are all guilty of voting for the wrong person at sometime or other but far better to have voted and hoped you cast a good vote than not vote at all. After all more poor public servants have been voted in office by the person who stayed home and did not bother to vote.

The fellow who says that politics is one thing he is going to keep out of kidding himself. We are all in politics. If you work for someone your job is affected by politics for you get a paycheck with a notation that a tax is withheld. When your son or daughter's class room is overcrowded you seek out school-board members to see if more classrooms can be built. When you over-park at a parking meter you are in politics when you pay the ticket. Either you like laws and go along or you get into politics when you suggest a change. Remember all the laws were made by the people and you "are people".

The most rewarding thing about being voted into public office is to eventually leave that office knowing you did your best while serving the public. Public office can be a "Splendid Misery" for it offers you a chance to do wonderful work while being judge often harshly.

We have demanded less from our politicians through the years in campaign tactics. During the days of our west when a man campaigned on horseback he was judged by four qualities: Was he good and mad at his opponent? Was he well informed and gave a tough speech? Was he able to present good proposals on how things should be run and did he have answers to every solution concerning the problems of the office? Least of interest to most every voter was the old boy running for office ready to whip anyone who disagreed with him? If an early day office seeker had all these qualifications he would just about get all the votes.

The good thing to remember about office seekers is they come from every walk of life, the housewife, the office worker, the farmer, the merchant. Then there is the one we must watch who comes from graft representing a corrupt union or syndicate, and he hopes that by getting in office he can swing more weight for more financial return. He cares nothing about you and he only used your vote. You are something he can dispose of if you get in his way.

This is why we should judge our campaigners whom we have never met. Who is not our neighbor. And why does he want the office? A fiery speech will get the crooked politician in office. A warm handshake. A lot of money in his pocket. A brimming personality. Then he is in office. Sometimes he is hard to vote out. Every day these types are investigated in Washington and many are never discovered.

We must keep good government on local, state and federal levels. We must judge an office seeker as to honesty. We must be sure they are the best administrators for the job. They must not be too authoritarian — or too weak. We must consider law enforcement. We must consider constitutional rights. We must consider the dollar value. We must consider education. We must consider labor-management. We must consider foreign affairs. We must consider our homes — our neighbors — our children — our religion — our way of life. Mr. Voter — you have yourself a real job to do come election day. Can you afford to ignore this responsibility?

If you hear thunder, relax; the lightning hasn't hit you.

Funeral services

Funeral services for Mrs. J. C. Reynolds, 80, of Eliasville, were held at 10 a. m. today at the Eliasville funeral home. Burial was in the Eliasville cemetery. Mrs. Reynolds was born in Eliasville and was the wife of the late J. C. Reynolds. She was a member of the First Baptist Church here and First Baptist Church, Shreveport, La.

This week's favorite recipe was submitted by Mrs. W. L. Foust. It is a hearty salad especially suitable for a buffet or in addition to outdoor cookery.

- Three Bean Salad
- 2 cups canned green beans, drained
 - 2 cups canned wax beans, drained
 - 2 cups canned red kidney beans, drained
 - 1/2 cup chopped green pepper
 - 1/3 cup chopped onion
 - 1/2 cup chopped celery
 - 1/2 cup vinegar
 - 1/3 cup salad oil
 - 1/2 teaspoon pepper
 - 1/2 teaspoon salt
 - 1/2 cup sugar
 - 1/2 teaspoon celery seed
 - Garlic salt (dash)

Mix beans, add pepper, onions and celery. Mix remaining ingredients, pour over vegetable mixture. Cover and refrigerate for 12 to 48 hours. Drain and serve. Will make eight to 10 servings.

Mrs. Foust, a long time area resident, moved with her family to Sudan while a student in high school. She was born in Hollis, Okla., attended schools in Oklahoma, graduating from Sudan High School.

The former Jozelle Tyler, she is one of four children of the late Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Tyler. Jozelle has two sisters, Mrs. Maurice (Katherine) Lewallen and Mrs. Elsie Lawson, Oklahoma City and one brother, Cecil Tyler.

After their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Foust lived in Sudan until moving to Morton. They have two children. A daughter, Mrs. Frank (Thetis) Hilliard of Dallas and a son, Billy. Also two granddaughters, Kelley Ann Hilliard and Connie Jo Foust.

Mrs. Foust is chief clerk in the ASC office, where she has been employed for 11 years.

They belong to the First Baptist Church. For years Mrs. Foust taught a Sunday School class.

As a couple Mr. and Mrs. Foust used to square dance. She played golf some and has bowled but doesn't do either much any more. She says, "I find my time taken up with work and my home and when it is possible I love keeping my little granddaughters."

She and Mr. Foust enjoy traveling and look forward each year to a vacation. Last summer they made an extensive tour of the deep South and Eastern seaboard, culminating in a sight-seeing visit in New York City. They have big plans for this summer's vacation with alternative plans to choose from.

They belong to a couple's bridge club and Mrs. Foust often plays bridge with different women's groups.

Mrs. W. L. Foust

Mrs. Eunice Pillion of Garland visited here earlier this week with her brother, Joe Nicewarner and wife.

H. B. Barker, Bud Thomas, Melvin McCoy, Tip Windom and Doyle K. Brook have returned from a few days fishing at Lake Stamford.

JIM LANGDON—A WINNER!

Railroad Commissioner Jim Langdon is a 49-year-old native Texan with a winning record in public office. When John Connally appointed him to the Railroad Commission, the Governor said:

"I have for several weeks been attempting to find a man I consider to have outstanding ability, integrity and honor... I am happy we have found that man—Judge Jim C. Langdon."

Jim Langdon has fully lived up to Governor Connally's expectations. He has conducted his office in the spirit of Governor Jim Hogg, who had the Commission set up in 1891 to look after the public interest in railroad and freight rates. It now regulates also truck and bus rates and the production of oil and gas. Judge Langdon will continue to keep transportation rates in line and see to it that our oil reserves are protected against waste and greed. This will help keep down Texas gasoline prices, already among the lowest in the nation.

Jim Langdon was elected District Judge twice and re-elected Chief Justice of the El Paso Court of Civil Appeals.

ON THE OTHER HAND—

Jim Langdon's Opponent Is a 10-Time Loser!

Jesse Owens, 69-year-old attorney, is still running for office after 38 years and TEN DEFEATS. He has lost the following races:

- 1926—Defeated for Sheriff of Foard County by L. D. Campbell.
- 1930—Defeated for District Attorney by John Meyers.
- 1932—Defeated for District Attorney by Ed Gossett.
- 1940—Defeated for District Attorney by T. Gene Rogers.
- 1946—Defeated for Court of Criminal Appeals by Tom L. Beauchamp.
- 1952—Defeated for Court of Criminal Appeals by K. K. Woodley.
- 1956—Defeated for Court of Criminal Appeals by W. A. Morrison.
- 1958—Defeated for District Judge by Tom Davis.
- 1960—Defeated for Court of Civil Appeals by James Denton.
- 1962—Defeated for Texas Supreme Court by Meado F. Griffin.

A Winner All the Way—

Jim C. Langdon

Treads that climb down pavement edges and right back up without losing their grip. When you go off the edge of the road there's no lurch, no sickening jolt. They lean into turns, giving you traction where ordinary tire treads quit, especially at high speeds or on wet roads. We call these new side treads SAFETY-SHOULDERS... a brand new concept in tire construction. So new, in fact, it's patented. You'll find SAFETY-SHOULDERS on the Dunlop Elite premium nylon tire. Pat. I am a graduate of Lubbock High School and hold an LL.B. degree from the University of Texas School of Law. I have been actively engaged in the practice of law 29 years — 22 years in Lamb County and the South Plains area and 7 years in Amarillo and the Panhandle area. By diligence and loyalty to my clients' interest, I have built an excellent law practice in both areas. My clients and my record in the Courts of this District are my best recommendations. I also served on the Court of Civil Appeals and as Associate Justice wrote 176 opinions of which less than 7% were reversed. These opinions reflect the character of my judicial ability.

The Court of Civil Appeals is composed of a Chief Justice, a Senior Associate and a Junior Associate Justice. The Chief Justice and Junior Associate of the Court, no matter how diligent and capable, cannot carry the case work required of the Court if the other Associate devotes a large portion of his time to outside diversions. I served on this court until December 31, 1960 and the docket was in good condition during that time. The Docket of the Court was not only kept up to date but the Court disposed of many cases transferred to the Amarillo court from the Dallas Court of Civil Appeals. Although the number of cases before the Court have not increased, this condition no longer exists. Instead other Courts are having to assist the Amarillo Court — thirteen cases were transferred from the Amarillo Court to the Waco Court of Civil Appeals on January 11, 1964.

More important than the mere number of cases disposed of by the Court is the type of justice under the law as reflected by the Court's opinions. In 1956, while I was on the Court, the majority of the Court, the then Chief Justice and my present opponent as the other Associate Justice, wrote an opinion styled "Stanley v. Stanley, 294 S. W. 2d, Page 132". This case reflects that a 40-year-old career army sergeant married a former school teacher who had been successful in the finance business. The sergeant contributed nothing to the marriage but, the undisputed record discloses, in six years squandered $84,044.63 of the profits earned by his wife's business. He also squandered $41,911.13 of the wife's capital investment. On dissolution of the marriage, it was the sergeant's theory the wife had mingled her earnings, as community property, with her separate capital and through such commingling of her earnings with her separate capital, he was entitled to one-half of all remaining property owned by his wife. In the judgement of divorce, the trial court awarded the sergeant an addition sum of $29,881.89.

The widow appealed from the trial court's judgment and on appeal the Chief Justice and the other Associate Justice of the Court of Civil Appeals, such Associate being now a candidate for the election to the Court, agreed with the sergeant's theory and affirmed the judgement of the trial court awarding him the additional sum of $29,881.89. This opinion of the majority of the Court was directly contrary to the undisputed audit of a Certified Public Accountant who traced all funds and proved that all the wife's earnings had been squandered by the sergeant and a large part of her original capital and that her earnings were not mingled with her capital. As an Associate Justice of the Court, based on this audit and the applicable law, I wrote a dissenting opinion holding that the sergeant was only entitled to his equity in a 1955 Station Wagon for which he had traded an old Station Wagon owned by him at the time of the marriage.

Other similar and equally inequitable opinions were rendered by the Court acting as a majority and on which I dissented, but the above opinion is discussed here because the same reflects clearly and unequivocally the opposite points of view on the duty of the Court as held by me and my opponent for Associate Justice. The most essential element of every judgment of the Court of Civil Appeals should be justice under the law and facts. If the citizens of this district will take a few minutes' time to go to a lawyer's office and read the Stanley opinion, I am confident I will be elected to the Court of Civil Appeals by an overwhelming majority vote.

As a member of such Court, I never have and I never shall subscribe to the proposition that justice under the law and a citizen's property rights should be bartered for political favors. No Court judgment should dissipate an elderly person's savings of a lifetime where the basis of such judgment is a strained and superficial ruling under a highly technical theory not supported by the evidence. The personal rights of every citizen and the property rights of every citizen have always been a sacred trust of the Courts. This essential and vital element of our judicial system should not be lightly cast aside in order to favor a friend or political supporter. I am certain the present members of the Court with whom I would serve subscribe to the principles herein set forth.

I ask every citizen to support me on the principles enunciated herein. I particularly ask every client whom I have ever represented to give me in the coming campaign the same untiring loyalty and effort toward my interests that I have exhibited over the many years of my practice for their interests. I pledge to every citizen that their rights and property shall be secure under the law. It shall be my constant endeavor to write opinions of the Seventh Court of Civil Appeals that shall be based soundly upon the law and the facts and shall reflect credit and honor upon such Court.

Sincerely,
Herbert C. Martin
