Morton launches cleanup drive

City, C of C combine to aid campaign work

When the time for "spring cleaning" is past, Morton will have a widespread "summer cleanup" campaign designed for the purpose of "fix up and clean up" property in the city.

Throughout the month of July, the Morton Area Chamber of Commerce and the City of Morton will be available to haul away refuse and trash from alleys and property of community residents. Those wishing help should call the City Hall as soon as possible and a work list will be prepared for the city employees to haul away trash. City Secretary Elra Oden asked that residents phone in as soon as possible in order that the number of employees to work on Saturday could be determined.

The City Council decided to pay employees working on the cleanup jobs a wage of $2 per hour. City employees are regularly not working on Saturday.

According to Johnny Johnson, Morton Area Chamber of Commerce manager, all questionnaires on the industry and business climate of a community say that the first and most important thing is to have a neat looking city. This is claimed to have a direct bearing on industry and retail sales.

"We intend to try to take these suggestions and work with them and see if we can update our city," Johnson said.

Chamber of Commerce kicked off the campaign by cleaning up the area around their office facilities and re-painting the "Welcome to Morton" signs on the edge of the city.

In addition the First State Bank has done extensive work in helping the "looks" of the downtown area with the addition of a paved parking lot and alley.

Johnson added his appreciation to the City of Morton saying, "At-

Singleton remodeling starts

Construction work has begun this week on the remodeling of and the addition to the Singleton Funeral Home in Morton, according to Sammy Leverett, funeral director.

★ Poster sales

The cheerleaders of Morton High School recently completed a money-making project by selling advertising on football and basketball schedule posters to be distributed later this summer by the girls.

This week, reports of another group selling the same type of placard were received. This group is working for an out-of-town concern, and the local cheerleaders would like the Morton merchants to know that they have absolutely no connection with the ones now selling the schedules.

Following completion of all the work the building will feature a newly-added 32 X 32 foot chapel and will be fully served with central air conditioning and heating. A covered porch 39 feet long will also be added and the outside of the building will be fully bricked.

The new chapel will feature 21 pews for friends of families and will accommodate a total of 150 people conveniently. A family room seating 50 persons will be off to one side of the chapel offering full privacy during services.

A minister's stand and pulpit will be at the front of the chapel and a music room for singers and pianists is arranged so that the music will be heard, but the choir will not be seen by those in the chapel. Background music will be heard throughout the building.

Only two windows will be present in the whole structure and they will be encased stained glass. Chapel is to be available at no charge to those desiring to use it. The room will have mahogany paneling and exposed beams in the walls and ceiling.

The foyer of the chapel will be tile with cork linoleum flooring on the rest except for carpeting on the aisle. The front of the chapel where flowers are set will also be tiled.

Chapel entranceway will be on the east side of the building. Special lighting and acoustical ceiling will be built into the chapel. Leverett noted that they had employed the services of a lighting engineer to design the new lighting and wiring system.

Lighting will be controlled by a reostat which allows the dimming and intensifying of particular lights in the different rooms. The minister's stand will be upholstered and carpeted.

A service hall will lead to lounges for men and women off of the chapel area. The lounges will have colored fixtures and formica topped dressing tables. Ceramic tile will be on the walls and the rooms will have tile floors.

The state room will be fully carpeted and will have special lighting including spot and table lamps.

In the reception room recessed lighting plus a pull down decorative lamp will be present. Mahogany

McAlister helps Lions install elected officers

R. B. McAlister, owner of KSEL radio station in Lubbock and president of the world's largest Lions Club, helped in the installation of Morton's Lions Club officers in the county activity building.

The Lions Club meeting began with the introduction of guest. Guests present were Jeff Swinney, Earnest Gurber, and Tom McAlister.

Mayor Dean Weatherly, introduced McAlister as "the greatest radio man on the Plains, and probably the greatest in Texas." McAlister greeted the club, and then spent some time telling funny stories and recalling old times when Dean Weatherly was employed by him. McAlister admitted he had music in his bones and asked the club to sing with him as he played "Home on the Range" and "God Bless America".

Hold over directors were James Dewbre and Leonard Coleman and new directors were Jim Walker and Tommy Hawkins. McAlister defined their duties as giving awards and most important, informing the president and vice president on the club's financial strength and weakness. He asked incoming song leader, Eddie Swinney, to see that the club learned new songs this next year. Next, representative for the children's home, Dean Weatherly, and secretary-treasurer, Lloyd Miller, were installed.

New Lion Tamer, Don Workman, was to work for better speaking and seating arrangement. McAlister said "physical arrangement is important to the success of any club." Doyl Brook, new Tail Twister, was installed and his duties defined. First vice president, James McClure, represented George Boring, new Lion president. Boring was absent because of illness.

McAlister said the clubs' success depended a great deal on the president. He urged the Lion members to work hard for the club. His message to the club was dedication for the community. He noted that nothing can be accomplished unless we have Lion members who are dedicated to the community and spend hours and days working for the community. McAlister said "once a person becomes dedicated to service, he will taste ingredients of the only real happiness on earth."

New Lions officers

NEWLY INSTALLED officers of the Morton Lions Club include Leonard Coleman, hold-over director; James Dewbre, hold-over director; Don Workman, Lion Tamer; Doyl Brook, Tail Twister; Eddie Swinney, Songleader; James McClure, first vice-president; and Tommy Hawkins, director. R. B. McAlister aided in the installation services.

City Council receives report for gas, water system needs

Highway Dept. delays work on 116 pavement

Paving work, originally thought to be done this month, on State Highway 116 has been delayed by the Texas State Highway Department until a tentative time next spring.

A group from Morton met with Oscar Crain, highway department official Friday and learned of the change in plans.

Reason given for the change was that the job was small that it was decided to wait until additional work which is to be done on State Highway 214 was ready to go. Then both jobs would be completed at the same time.

This would make the inconvenience to a minimum to those using the roads during the construction period. Also a more economical contract could probably be let if the two jobs were covered in one bid.

The funds had been appropriated for the 116 work, but not for the improvements to be made on 214.

Work period on the project will be from 30-60 days. It was noted that one job might be approved in September or October, but that it would probably be delayed due to heavy traffic of cotton trailers and farm vehicles during that time plus the factor of bad weather.

Representatives of the Morton Area Chamber of Commerce and the Morton City Council conferred with Crain. Those going to Lubbock were Johnny Johnson, Gene Benham, Earl Crum and Dean Weatherly.

In a special called meeting Friday the Morton City Council heard a report from city engineer Ralph Douglas on the needs of the city's water, gas and sewer systems.

The report was made by Douglas in connection with an as yet unofficial bond issue to bring the city facilities up to date. The bond issue has not been declared official to date.

An explanation of needs of the gas and water departments was given, but a full report of the sewer needs was postponed until the Council could take a closer look at the present facilities and receive a better orientation of the needs.

Douglas also gave a report on paving progress in the city's current project. Approximately 103-104 blocks were included in the work excluding paving done in the Payne Addition and on Eighth Street.

The city's bill for participation in the 103-104 blocks was listed at $57,526.15 plus an additional $5,000

Indians win seventh straight to tie Cards for league lead

Morton Indians continued to be the scourge of the Frontier Babe Ruth League by whipping the Whiteface Cardinals 19-18 and then slamming Sundown's White Sox 15-6 for their seventh straight victory.

In other league action the Cardinals took the measure of the Morton Tigers by a lopsided 24-7 margin.

In the Indians - Sundown encounter the Morton crew jumped off to an early lead and was never headed. Herschel Lamar and Charles Carter held the White Sox to six runs in the game.

Richard Carter got the big hit of the game with a grand slam inside - the - park blast that accounted for four Morton runs. Danny Culpepper also had a big night at the plate with two doubles and a pair of triples.

The victory over Sundown was the seventh in a row for John Carter's squad which is tied with Whiteface for the league lead.

Next games for the Indians will be the Tigers Thursday and Tuesday with rival Whiteface.

Richard Gomez scored on a passed ball in the bottom of the fifth inning to top off an amazing Indian rally and win the ball game for the local team over the Whiteface nine.

The Cardinals drew first blood in the game scoring four runs in the first inning. Baker scored on McCoy's double and Summerlin was forced in by Howard's walk. McCoy scored on a hit by Seward and Howard scored on an error. The Indians managed one run as Richard Gomez scored following Danny McCoy's double.

In the second the Cards were held scoreless while the Indians tallied three runs. Srygley was forced in by Carter's walk and Hobson came in on a single by Gomez. Legan got the final marker on a single by McCoy. The score was tied at four runs each.

Following a scoreless third inning the Cards erupted for four runs. Amada Alaniz stole home for the first score. Then McCoy knocked in Baker and Summerlin with a single. Stegall was forced in by a walk to finish the scoring. The Indians were scoreless and the Cards led 10-4.

In the top of the fifth the Cards hammered across eight more tallies to take an overwhelming 18-4 bulge. Amada Alaniz and Lupe Alaniz came in first on a triple by Taylor. Taylor then scored on a fielder's choice and Stegall came in on a walk by Kitchens. McCoy and Howard scored on base hits by Sweeney and Seward. Kitchens and Seward tallied the final runs for the Cards and the Whiteface nine had a seemingly unsurpassable lead.

Then in the bottom of the fifth the Cardinals had their wings clipped and their tail feathers shot out as the Indians roared from behind to score an amazing 15 tallies.

The scoring went like this: Srygley came in on Monroe's walk and Carter singled in Soliz for another tally. Lamar came in on Gomez tallied on a double by Danny McCoy and then Culpepper cracked a double with Keubler and McCoy on base to score two more runs. Culpepper scored on a passed ball and walks forced in Srygley and Soliz for the Indians. Gomez slammed a long double to push in Lamar, Monroe and Carter and tie the score at 18-18.

Then the stage was set for Gomez's tie breaking tally as he came in on a passed ball. When dust had finally settled, the Indians had claimed a 19-18 victory.

The Cards scored 14 runs in the second inning to whip the Tigers in a 24-7 runaway.

Japanese mission group is guest of Morton First Baptist Church

Members from Japan in Morton are amazed at the size of the church and the fact "that so few lived in one locality." The group which is visiting in the United States for a two-week period were Rev. and Mrs. Kenji Otani and Takeshi Fukuhara. Otani is pastor of the Otsu Baptist Church in his native country and Fukuhara served as interpreter for the reverend and his wife.

Speaking on the difference in churches in the two countries Otani noted that in America the churches are the center of the community and have powerful influences on the people. He was also impressed of vacation Bible school activities which included Bible reading and the pledge of allegiance to the flag. He added that strong criticism would come from this in Japan because of the very strong separation of church and state. "In America to love the country is part of the church," he said.

The visitors said that in America they found the same standard of living in the rural and city areas. From viewing different areas of the state the group noted that Texas appeared to be a very progressive state. In Japan there are 202 Baptist churches with a total membership of approximately 17,000. Otani explained that the 1700 laymen from the United States which came to Japan as part of a "new life movement" made a strong impression on the nation. Church attendance increased some 30,000 and offerings were on a 40-50 percent upswing. Mission gifts and baptisms also increased.

icans live in Japan. Also they said that soldiers returning to the United States had greatly helped the image of Japan in America.

In regard to the current situation in South Vietnam the group said that there was not a great deal of public sentiment about the matter in Japan and that the Japanese know that communism is not for Japan. They added the Communists were losing in every direction.

A bad view of Russia had been gained in Japan because of feelings following the Japanese-Russian War wherein some Japanese prisoners received severe treatment from the Russians.

On the split between Russia and Red China the group expressed a desire for peace with all nations of the world and for markets all over the world. They added that Japan had learned from war that peace was the only way.

Following their Morton visit the group was to travel to Lubbock and Dallas to visit with churches in those cities before returning to San Francisco on July 1 for the return trip to Japan.

4-H members visit leadership camp

Six Morton 4-H members were among approximately 140 boys and girls representing twenty area counties in the District 11, 4-H Junior Leadership Camp at South Plains College in Levelland this past week. Two Morton 4-H leaders were also on the teaching staff at the camp.

Camp program began with an assembly in which the district 4-H agent, Mrs. Aubrey W. Russell of Lubbock, spoke to the youth about opportunities in 4-H work.

A full schedule of planned activities kept the 4-H students busy from breakfast to bedtime. The four workshop topics were citizenship, records, role of the junior leader in relationship to adult leaders, and year-round club program.

Those attending from Morton were Ronnie Bell, Ronald Hale, Patsy Collins, Carol Freeland, Janella Nebut and Marilyn Cade. Home Demonstration Agent, Jennie Allen, and County Agent, Homer Thompson, sponsored the Morton group and counseled in the workshop topic of the role of the junior leader in relation to adult leaders.

This three-day session began at noon Tuesday, June 16 and ended at noon Thursday, June 18. After the morning classes the students enjoyed swimming, square dancing and evening parties provided for by the camp's planning committee.

Those who attended the camp were required to be 13 years and a 4-H member in good standing. All of the Morton students who attended are members of a local 4-H club and the two boys are members of a senior 4-H club.

The second game of Monday night's doubleheader saw the Colt .45's fighting hard for their 15-4 victory over the Sox.

choice. Willie Holland scored the last run of the game on Joe Partlow's powerful double.

Betty Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Taylor, is doing fine following emergency surgery for acute appendicitis at Methodist Hospital, Lubbock, last Sunday afternoon.

Otha Hightower lead the scoring for the Giants with two exciting home runs and Jackie Dupler pitched for the winning Giants.

First inning the Cards were unable to score but the Giants tallied 6 scores to give them a 6-0 lead. Both Haskell Lamar and Willie Holland were walked by Cardinal pitcher Eddie Garza. Then Lamar slid in on an error and Hightower slammed a 3-run homer to center field that brought in Holland, Bobby Hobson and Hightower. Ernesto Salis crossed home plate on Jackie Dupler's double. Then Dupler scored leaving a 6-0 gap at the bottom of the first inning.

Cards went without scoring in the second and third inning but Giants posted 3 scores in each inning. Hightower came in on Salis' single, then Dupler and Salis pushed across on errors in the bottom of the second. Hightower again slugged a home run that scored over right field and fell outside the ball park. Hobson came in on Hightower's home run and Dupler scored the last Giant run in the third inning leaving the Giants far ahead with 12-0.

The Cards tried to overcome the Giants' commanding lead, but were able to score only two runs in their half of the inning. Jerry Steed cracked a double that brought in Gerald Baker and later Steed came in on an error. The Giants did not score in the fourth inning.

The fifth inning saw the Cards run in Steve Cogburn on an error. But in the bottom of the fifth the Giants scored 5 runs to end with a 18-3 victory. Salis was first to score and he was followed by Kevin Kuehler, J. L. Hutcheson, Richardson and Holland.

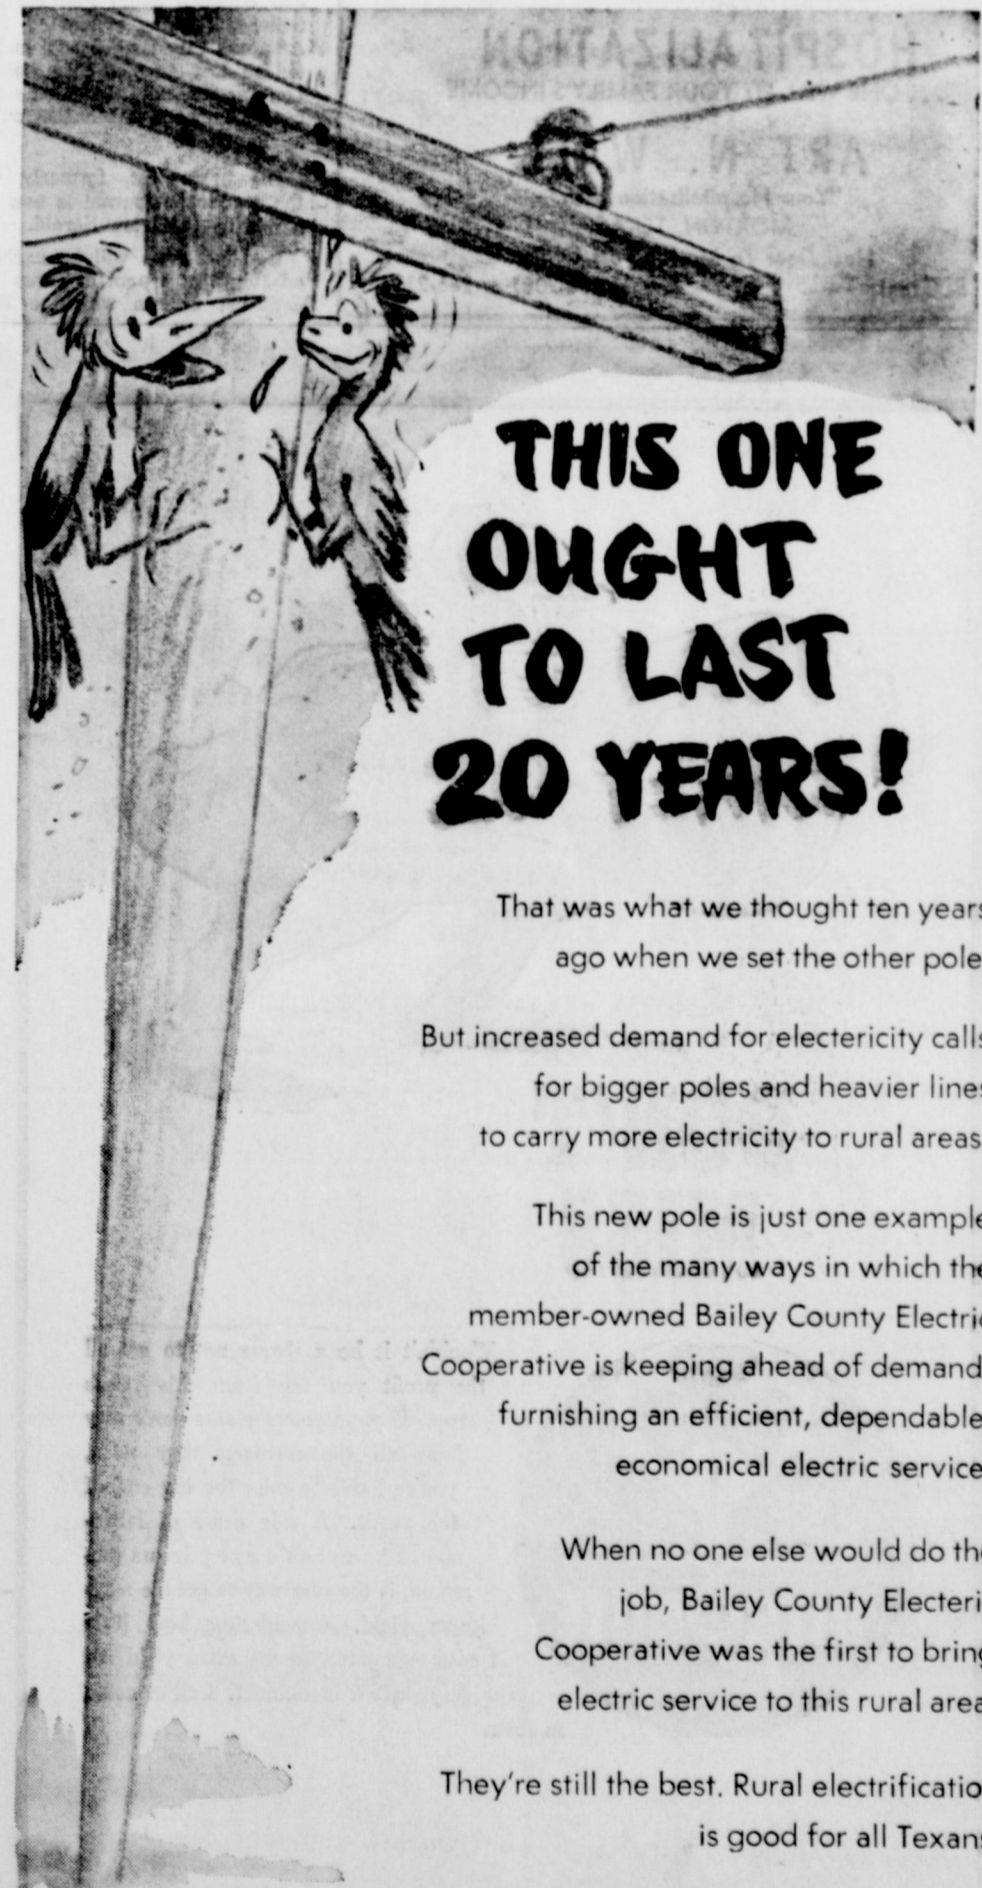

The Sox-Colt .45 game was unofficial because the Colt .45's were unable to muster 9 men for a team. But they borrowed Willie Holland from the Giants and went ahead to win a final 15-4 victory over the Sox.

Eddie Lewis, Bryant Lewis, and George Prichett scored on errors for the Colts in the first inning. But Colt scoring was cut short by a quick play to first base. Sox failed to score in the first inning. But McCasland scored for the Sox in the second.

Colts came in strong in the bottom of the second. They pushed far ahead with 6 runs. Joe Partlow was first to score on Ricky Bedwell's single. Rush Coffman's hit brought in Bedwell. Then Coffman and Eddie Lewis crossed the home plate on Prichett's double. Bryant Lewis came in on a hit by Willie Holland and Holland pushed across on a fielder's choice leaving the score Colts 9, Sox 1.

James Partlow, in on an error, and Eddie Lewis, in on Bryant Lewis' hit gave the Colts a 11-1 lead. But the Sox scored 2 in the top of the fourth inning. Eddie Turney was walked in by the Colt pitcher and Stanley Jones came in on an error to give the Sox three runs.

In the fifth inning Eddie Turney scored for the Sox on an error but Sox were unable to score again. The Colts increased their lead and finished with a 15-4 victory. Eddie and Bryant Lewis came in on errors while George Prichett scored on a fielder's

THIS ONE OUGHT TO LAST 20 YEARS!

That was what we thought ten years ago when we set the other pole.

But increased demand for electricity calls for bigger poles and heavier lines to carry more electricity to rural areas.

This new pole is just one example of the many ways in which the member-owned Bailey County Electric Cooperative is keeping ahead of demand, furnishing an efficient, dependable, economical electric service.

When no one else would do the job, Bailey County Electric Cooperative was the first to bring electric service to this rural area.

They're still the best. Rural electrification is good for all Texans.

Boy Scouts, leaders go on trek to Camp Kiowa

Twenty five boys, their leaders and a few parents enjoyed a fun-packed week at Boy Scout Camp Kiowa near Canadian this past week. Boys left Sunday, June 14 and returned Saturday, June 20.

Lake Brown, in the heart of Camp Kiowa, was the center of activities for almost 200 boys attending the camp. This fresh water lake provided excellent opportunity for swimming, boating and water front activities afforded by fishing. For boys who have lived on the plains of Texas and are not used to water, the unlimited swimming facilities were a rare delight. Murray Crone, leader of the group, said Monday that one of the primary reasons for going to camp was to take advantage of the water front activities afforded by Lake Brown. All the boys were given instruction in survival swimming and 8 to 10 swimming instructors were on duty at all times. Water front activities ended Saturday morning with a swimming contest.

Water was not the only attractive aspect of the camp. The camp area abounded in wildlife and courses were offered in the use of an axe, compass and rope. A nature course was supplemented by hiking expeditions. Mosket rifle firing range and archery also made up a large part of the planned activities.

Adult leaders for the trip were Murray L. Crone, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Hamilton, and James Cogburn. Visitors present were Mr. and Mrs. Charles McDermott, Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Reeder, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Clayton, Mr. and Mrs. John Haggard, and Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Baker.

Those boys attending the camp were Lonnie Hamilton, scout leader, Bob Hawkins, Johnny Ortz, Danny Knox, Dennis Clayton, Joe Dan Jones, Danny Woolam, Mike McCasland, Alan Cogburn and Bob Ruthardt.

Others were Mike Bryan, Roe Crone, Robert Hargus, Steve Townsend, Bill Baker, Dan Walden, Rusty Rowden, Bill McClure, and Ronnie Reeder.

J. Wayne McDermott, Loy V. Daniel, Randy Paul Jones, John Duron, and Andy Haggard were also with the group.

Murray Crone was pleased with the camp and he summarized his feelings when he said, "It was a good camp and a valuable experience for all of us".

James Hunter returned Tuesday to Coleman where he is establishing a business. Mrs. Hunter and Jimmy remained in Morton.

DON'T MISS

Wouldn't it be a shame not to get all the profit you can from this year's crop. If your young plants don't now have all the nitrogen they need, you're liable to miss the big end of the profit. A side dress of Nitromite, Shamrock's anhydrous ammonia, is the sure way to get the maximum yield. Considering how little it costs compared to the extra yield it's a mighty shrewd investment. Methodists seek clothing and linens

Families of the area are asked to use clothing and linens to the Methodist Church this week for transporting to Denver. Quilts and blankets are urgently needed for refugees who have everything in man-made or paper garments for refugees. Nothing to shield them from the sun also are needed.

Other items that can be used are socks, mufflers, caps and gloves. Every kind of children's clothing and layettes. For refugee families: blankets, bed linens, cloth remnants for sewing, sewing kits. Denim and heavy duty fabric is badly needed for making work clothes. Brightly colored cotton yardage, too.

Musical committee holds meeting

A meeting of the country music committee was held Monday at the Morton Area Chamber of Commerce office. The possibility of incorporating the committee into a separate organization for the show was discussed. The committee to act on its part.

Men's, boys' and children's shoes of all sizes are especially needed. Women's shoes, sizes five and up. Do not send open toes, high heels or backless shoes. Tie all shoes together in pairs. Also needed: men's and boy's suits, trousers, coats, work clothes, underwear and work shoes. Do not send hats, neckties, bathing suits, formal garments, pillows and mattresses.

Warmth, dignity and self respect is what you offer when you share with the needy overseas, the helpless children, refugees, victims of floods, famine, the sick and aged. A good suit, coat, a dress from the closet to replace the rags thousands have to wear is not much to ask or give.

This United Clothing Appeal is made by the churches to give lasting witness to Christian love and compassion for those less fortunate. Take your clothing to the First Methodist Church this week from where it will be sent to a Church World Service Center. All items should be in good condition, mended and ready for use.

Coin shortage may force some stores to issue scrip

Several major supermarket chains are reluctantly making plans to issue scrip in an effort to overcome a worsening coin shortage, according to an article in the June 8 issue of Wall Street Journal.

Housewives may soon be paying for their groceries with red, blue or orange bits of paper, along with the more familiar green U. S. Currency. The chain stores are planning to issue scrip in amounts less than $1 to help ease the coin shortage, the article indicates.

The scrip would simply be pieces of paper — in denominations of 1, 5, and 10 cents — which would be redeemable in currency, coin in dollar amounts, or goods. It would be backed by the good faith of the issuer. A major tea company, with 350 stores in the Midwest and New England, already has approved a design and is now printing what it hopes will be several weeks' supply of scrip. They plan to issue the scrip in September — unless something happens between now and then to ease the coin shortage.

Supermarket chains have been forced into making plans for scrip because they have been hit the hardest by the coin shortage, their executives claim. Food stores are a major user of coins because of a large volume of sales involving small amounts and because they cash millions of pay checks for Americans each week.

While U. S. Treasury rules explicitly prohibit private individuals from issuing any "note, check, memorandum, token or other obligation for a sum less than $1 intended to circulate as money," food chain attorneys believe the scrip would be legal because it would not be intended for general circulation. To back up their case for scrip, they call attention to the cents-off coupon and the trading stamp.

Mrs. S. E. Leverett and her husband's mother, Mrs. Dessie Leverett, have returned from a visit with relatives in Paris.

"Mike" is made official

Micronaire, or "Mike", readings will join grade and staple as official measurements of cotton quality this year, reports the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture.

W. K. Palmer, in charge of the Agricultural Market Service's Cotton classing office in Lubbock tells us that the classing office is ready to take a Mike reading on all cotton samples they receive, and the Mike reading will appear on the Classification Card, right along with the grade and staple.

Cost of the Mike reading service has been reduced from 8 cents to 6 cents per sample, provided the ginner applies for this service prior to the time the samples are submitted; otherwise the charge will be 25 cents. Grade and staple information will be provided free, as before, under the Smith-Doxey program.

Mike describes fineness and maturity of cotton fibers. Its measurement on a scale from 2.4 to 8.0, in steps of one-tenth. It works like this: When compressed air is forced through a sample of cotton, an air-flow instrument registers the Mike reading of that particular sample. Fine fibers permit less air to pass through. Thus, the finer the fibers, the lower the reading. Fineness and maturity affect the spinnability and value of the cotton.

About six weeks ago, USDA announced that Mike readings will be required for all upland cotton that goes under price support loan.

Included in the announcement was a schedule of premiums and discounts, based on Mike readings. If the reading is between 3.7 and 4.8, a premium of 13 points per pound will be allowed when the cotton is placed under the loan. No premium or discount will be allowed if the Mike reading is 4.9 through 5.1 or between 3.3 through 3.6.

Who is at the Helm?

Who guides our lives? Are we a ship without a helmsman? Are we adrift, going no place?

Thanks be to God, who loves us so, He is willing to guide us, to show us the way over all manner of seas. How glorious to know there is such a One! All of us follow someone, some standard, but the true standard is God and His Word.

Let Him take over the wheel. He doesn't promise smooth sailing all the time, but He promises to guide us through the storm, and show us the way over calm and sweet but sometimes marker-less seas.

"And the Lord shall guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soul in drought, and make fat thy bones: and thou shalt be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water whose waters fail not."

Isaiah 58:11

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Morton slates cleanup campaign

July has been designated as "paint-up and fix-up" month in Morton. During this time an all-out effort is going to be made by the Morton Area Chamber of Commerce and the City of Morton to do the utmost in beautifying and improving the appearance of our city.

The overall success of the program depends on you, the individual citizens of the community. The two guiding arms of the campaign will do a great deal toward making it easier for the citizens to participate in the project. However, a tremendous amount of time and energy on the part of each individual resident will be required if the efforts of all are to be successful.

If each person having a lot in need of cleaning off, a fence that needs painting or some unsightly trash that needs carrying away will do their best, the efforts of many individuals will combine to form a nucleus of workers to make the overall scene in Morton a much brighter and cleaner one.

It has long been noted that industries seeking a new home for their workers and working places put a great deal of emphasis on the general appearance of the community in which they choose to locate. This is an added incentive to a community such as Morton which has the able and foresighted leadership to see the need and usefulness of new industries in their city.

There will be work involved in the job and much more for some than others. But the end product of all the combined efforts of the citizenry will be something that the people are keenly interested in—a cleaner and more beautiful city in which to live and work—a better Morton.

Encouraging juvenile delinquency

A short time ago some 75 students skipped going to school in a Chicago suburb in order to observe what is known as "senior ditch day." This was a direct violation of school rules. But, worse by far, was the attitude taken by a number of the parents who falsely stated their children were ill on that day or involved in some urgent family business.

The known "ditch day" participants were suspended for three days. The Superintendent then wrote to the board of education and said: "If the attitudes shown by some of both parents and pupils in relation to this ditch day has significance as to the moral outlook and fiber of leaders of our present and future generations... I am profoundly concerned and quite pessimistic about the future effectiveness of this or any school in teaching the values of personal pride, honor, integrity, sportsmanship and responsible citizenship."

Well said! The parents who lied set an example for their children that directly and inevitably encourages juvenile delinquency. It is a short step from skipping school to serious crime.

Too Much To Bare

Too little is just too much! That should be everybody's reaction to the newest and wackiest item yet in women's wear — the ridiculous topless bathing suit. Much as we believe in staying current with what's new in women's fashions, we can't stomach those suits that have made quite a splash in some of the nation's stores.

Bikinis — which were a product of the Atomic Age — were bad enough. If this new suit — or lack of suit — reveals what lies ahead in the Space Age, then let's send the designers and the buyers of the suit to the moon. If there are people silly enough to make them, there will be people stupid enough to buy them.

Happily, good sense and good taste seems to be prevailing at most leading stores, such as Neiman-Marcus, which isn't touching the new suits, and Lord and Taylor, which sent them back for tops. Possibly they should have attached a note saying: "Can you top this?"

Houston Post

It kinda Chaps us!

Last March Congressmen attempted to run through a bill in the House to double their own salaries as well as many of those of the executive and judicial branches.

The bill failed to pass at the time mainly because many of the congressmen were facing elections back home.

Now with most of the primaries out of the way, the bill carrying lower raises than the March measure, sailed through 243-157. We're sure living costs in Washington have gone up but a raise of $7,500 is a big chunk of an increase — even for Congressmen.

We were rather proud of our congressman, George Mahon, who was one of the Texas Democrats voting against the measure. He was joined by Burlington of Anson, Fisher of San Angelo, Poague of Waco, Roberts of McKinney, and Rogers of Pampa.

We can't think of a better man than Congressman Mahon to have over the powerful Appropriations Committee of the House.

He's a good'un!

Not cure-all or catastrophe

The Civil Rights Bill which is about to become a reality in Washington isn't going to create the pandemonium which its Deep South detractors have direfully predicted, nor is it going to be the panacea for all racial problems which the extreme liberals had hoped to get . . . but it does promise to be a sound piece of legislation which can provide the basis for a settlement of the problems of both extremes.

As it is finally drawn, the Civil Rights legislation retains for the States the privilege of handling Civil Rights problems within their own borders . . . within reasonable limits. It does not, as many states-rights fanatics feared, create a federal Frankenstein to be rushed into trouble spots to crush all opposition at the indiscretion of some Washington bureaucrat . . . but it does provide guidelines for federal protection of individual civil rights where states fail to act . . . and it draws these guidelines more clearly than ever before, so that everybody can know the rules of the game in advance.

It gives evidence of being a carefully-drawn and well-thought-out piece of legislation. And it brings with it the comforting thought that the 87-day Southern filibuster was not time altogether wasted . . . since it was utilized by cooler heads in the Senate to hammer the original Civil Rights hodge-podge bill into a workmanlike piece of legislation.

It is peculiarly appropriate that a man from Illinois should have been the major architect of a legislative package designed to nail down some of the principles established, at great cost, by another man from Illinois a century ago. Although he obviously had a lot of help, Senator Everett Dirksen is the chief engineer in this Civil Rights construction, and we think that old Abe Lincoln, must be pleased with the job.

The task of the Texas Legislature was increased this week when the Supreme Court ruled that state legislative districts must be apportioned as closely as possible on a population basis.

Already a committee of the Legislature is holding hearings on congressional redistricting. Members of this group hope to have a plan ready to submit when the law-making body meets next January.

This ruling of the high court was not altogether unexpected. Representatives from some of the state's larger cities have filed suit in Texas courts, seeking to have the present districting declared unconstitutional. This action came after some other states had done likewise.

Court decision affects Texas

AUSTIN, Tex. — U. S. Supreme Court's decision ordering both houses of state legislature be selected on strict population basis will have a far-reaching effect on the Texas Legislature, particularly in the Senate.

In the upper house, no county presently is entitled, by the Texas Constitution, to more than one senator. Lt. Gov. Preston Smith noted that under the new ruling five of the heaviest populated counties would be entitled to 12 of the 31 state senate seats, leaving 19 senators for the other 249 counties. This would create some senatorial districts 300 miles wide. Senate districts now vary from 147,454 to 1,200,000 population.

"The high court's laudable aim of equal representation for all citizens cannot be maintained in such circumstances," the lieutenant governor said. "Equality will be theoretical only. No senator could serve such a great area as adequately as three or four senators (or even one) can serve a single county."

Lt. Gov. Smith promised to ask other lieutenant governors to petition Congress for a review and "practical relief." A similar resolution may be brought before presiding officers of House of Representatives by Texas House Speaker Byron Tunnell. However, it is doubtful how Congress could intervene except by submitting a constitutional amendment spelling out authority for states to have real bicameral (two-house) legislatures if they want to.

A Texas legislative committee already is at work determining how best to comply with a prior Supreme Court decision ordering congressional districts to be formed on the basis of population only. Its work may be expanded to include a look at legislative districts as well.

OIL PRODUCTION — July oil production will be cut back to the lowest level since March, 1963, by order of Texas Railroad Commission.

In response to purchasing forecasts by 13 major companies, the Commission set July maximum production at 27 per cent potential, or 2,788,685 barrels daily, compared with the present 2,845,571 barrels.

Presidents of five Texas producers associations declared the decision, "regrettable," and said it would hamper attempts to get the U. S. Congress to effect a "very substantial reduction" in oil imports.

Commissioners also scheduled a July 6 hearing on the 1947 yardstick for fixing oil field allowances. HIGHWAYS — Texas highways are now valued at $4,500,000,000, Chairman Herbert C. Petry Jr. of the Highway Commission announced.

Petry said every effort must be made to maintain a balanced system of highways, from the farm-to-market roads to the interstate highways, to serve all sorts of traffic.

TAX REVISION RECOMMENDED — Texas Research League proposes the state's unemployment compensation tax on employers be more closely related to benefits paid former employees.

Benefit payments to unemployed have exceeded revenue for five of the last six years, a League study for Texas Employment Commission shows. However, the Texas Trust Fund, from which payments are made, cannot go broke, because a surtax is imposed on all by and view the flower beds with this thought in mind that in the beginning they were filled with grass and weeds!

The girls who participated in this project and visited with the patients at the rest home were Beverly Browne, Karen Fred, Karen Rozell, Sharon Irwin, Karen Holtmann, Jeannie McMillin, Meiba Townsend, Ann Haggard, Patsy Collins, Janella Nebhut, Carol Ann Freeland.

Thank you,
Mrs. Daniel Rozell

Dear Mrs. Rozell:
Thank you for your letter and I sincerely apologize for our neglect in this matter. There is certainly no excuse for it. After searching through our file of April negatives (of which there were 368) I found three pictures taken of the girls at the Nursing Home, none of which were suitable for publication. This is not your fault nor the fault of the girls, but entirely ours. However, neglect of the Campfire Girls was certainly not intentional, and it is definitely not the policy of the Tribune to give adult clubs any more publicity or photo coverage than youth groups. I think a check through our file copies will bear this out.

The KiWaKi's are certainly due a big pat on the back for their work at the Nursing Home. I hope Morton residents do take a few moments to drive by the home and see the flower beds. Please call us again when the girls have another project going, but remember, our photographers can and do goof, just like everyone else.

Sincerely,
Gene Snyder, publisher

SECURITIES SALES HIT PEAK — Issuance of permits for sale of securities in Texas reached a high peak for 1964 during May, with $37,062,966 authorized to 58 corporations by the State Securities Board. This was the highest monthly total since November 1962, when $42,510,619 worth of permits were granted.

TOURIST RECORD SET — Large Texas cities attracted a majority of the record-breaking number of tourists who visited the state in 1963. Texas Highway Department reported.

Out-of-state visitors totaled 11,700,000, some 26 per cent over the previous year. They spent $532,200,000 to show a 12.8 per cent increase over 1962.

Dallas was the stated destination of some 15.8 per cent, while 14.1 per cent were heading for Houston - Pasadena; El Paso drew 9.8 per cent and San Antonio 9.6 per cent.

Highway Department recently released this information in a colorful 16-page brochure available to the public. The booklet described results of the annual survey on the Texas Tourist Industry, and the cover depicts scenes from the states outstanding recreational areas.

SCHOOL RULING — School boards have the right to make rules about students' clothing, State Education Commissioner J. W. Edgar ruled in an appeal against an Andrews school board policy.

Mrs. Kenneth King of Andrews made the appeal which led to the ruling. Mrs. King contended that her third grade daughter, Vickie, should wear trousers to school to protect her health.

In upholding the school board, however, Edgar advised that the policy be clarified, and that clear provisions be adopted so the clothing regulation could be suspended for a student whose doctor prescribed trousers for medical reasons.

COMMISSION STUDIES PLAN — Texas Industrial Commission and the Agriculture Economics Department of Texas Tech have made a contract to study the feasibility of increasing the meat packing industry in Texas, with the hopes a solution can be found to alleviate beef import problems faced by Texas producers.

Findings will be available in the fall of 1965. HARDING COUNTY — Texas Water Commission, releasing a report on untapped ground-water resources in Harding County, said use of that water may be a key to future industrial expansion, as it has been in the heavily industrialized Houston area.

The TRIBUNE'S favorite RECIPE of the week

Mrs. Sally Wheeler of Whiteface and the ASC office here submitted this week's favorite recipe. She got it from a friend who got it from the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel. Mrs. Wheeler has made the cake and says it is one of the most delicious she has ever eaten. Her friend, incidentally, was billed $100 for the recipe. From the looks of the recipe it has about that amount of ingredients.

- Ambrosia Cake
- 1/2 cup butter (part shortening, if desired)
 - 1 cup fresh buttermilk (dissolve scant 2 teaspoons soda in milk)
 - 2 cups sugar
 - 3 eggs beaten
 - 3 cups sifted flour
 - 1 teaspoon cinnamon
 - 1 teaspoon nutmeg
 - 2 tablespoons cocoa dissolved in hot water
 - 1 apple chopped fine in dough
- Icing
- 1 pint sweet milk
 - 3 cups sugar
 - 1 stick butter
 - 1 teaspoon baking powder
- Cook to soft boil stage, using large pot because baking powder makes it foam a lot.
- 1 grated coconut
 - 1 cup raisins
 - 1 cup pecans
 - 1 whole orange
- Grind in food chopper and add sugar and milk after it has been cooked to soft ball stage.

Mrs. Sally Wheeler

Douglas McBride of Greenville, Ohio. She and her husband, who is superintendent of engineers for Corning Glass Works, are parents

Mayor, Councilmen attend institute

Mayor Dean Weatherly and Morton City Councilmen, Neal Rose, Earl Crum, Kenneth Thompson and Tom Rowden were in Austin last weekend for the third biennial Institute for mayor's, councilmen and city commission-ers.

The institute, sponsored by Texas Municipal League, covered functions, responsibilities and operation of the city council. Legal limitations on city councilmen and conflicts of interest also operation of the corporation court.

The institute conducted a typical council meeting, with the variety of public business matters in store, sooner or later, for practically every elected official; a problem clinic, where special problems from those in attendance was answered by a panel of authorities in several fields.

His view from the Capitol added the increasingly important dimension — state and city relations, to the institute.

The programs were varied, authoritative and timely; including subject matter basic to an understanding of the city governing official's powers, duties, and responsibilities.

Mayor Weatherly, Rose, Thompson and Crum made the trip in the latter's plane. Rowden drove to Austin.

Mickey Sue Raindl is visiting with relatives in Houston.

... you would probably give him ALL of your popcorn business ... you might even Actually, you DO share in the profits of EVERY business in your home community, because a BIG PART of the gross margin on every local business transaction goes toward the support of things that benefit YOU and everyone else who lives here.

Such as schools, churches, roads and streets, fire and police protection, jobs for more people so that we can keep among us MORE good teachers and preachers and doctors and other skilled folks. And so we can have more stores that are better stocked for our convenience and for our EMERGENCY needs.

Because we don't get these benefits in cash, we sometimes forget that ALL home business is really OUR BUSINESS. And some of us even forget ... and trade somewhere else ... when OUR OWN PAYCHECK depends on keeping this community prosperous.

Informality keynotes residence in the Vernon Blackley farm

Informality keynotes the recently remodeled, enlarged and brick-walled home of the Vernon Blackleys about 15 miles west of Morton. Good, old-fashioned hospitality is a way of life with the Blackley family and the same firm handshake is offered to stranger stopping to ask directions or friends dropping by for a cup of coffee.

The Blackley family moved by chartered railway car from Tennessee to Dallas County, moving from there in 1902 to Anson. The Blackley home affords plenty of space for all fresh entertaining. Here comfortable furnishings are of a contemporary design. Comfort and attractiveness of the patio is further enhanced by a brick planter and plastic shutters, which provide shade from the west sun.

Adorning the patio is an ivy filled iron bean pot, an old iron tea kettle from Shiloh and a charcoal burner with accompanying sad irons. Yard at the Blackley home provides an enchanting playground for children. Vernon certainly had his grandchildren, particularly the boys, in mind when he constructed a tree house in the back yard. Entry to the tree house is by a permanent ladder but for a quick-get-away there is fireman's pole, mattress-wrapped at the base for the protection of small children. What fun... especially if a couple of sisters or cousins, as the case may be, invade the privacy of the boy's hideaway.

Immediately to the south is a fine orchard with a variety of trees including peach, plum, apple, apricot, pear, cherry and pecan.

On the east side of a small patch of fragrant and cooling alfalfa, is a vegetable garden equipped with "Shesystem" irrigation. Vernon said, nodding toward his wife, Maurine, "If she wants the garden watered, she moves the equipment."

Storage room in back containing deep freeze and facilities for surplus kitchen edibles has long since replaced the smokehouse.

When the Blackleys remodeled they also added 20 x 25 feet of floor space to the house proper. Originally a stucco structure it is now red brick with white trim.

A large "L" shaped family room and kitchen is where the family does most of its living. Wood paneling is used and all modern conveniences included in kitchen appointments.

Featured on the south wall is an antique clock in maple of unusual and beautiful design and workmanship. On this same wall is the butter mold and paddle used for years by Maurine, also a cookie rolling pin with cut-in designs. Cornice over the double windows in family room was found at a lumber yard in Anson. This type ornament was originally stocked and sold for exterior house trim.

The dealer told Mrs. Blackley the decorative pieces had not been sold for 40 years or more as people just quit using such ornamental work as trim on porches et cetera. Lining behind cornice is a deep tangerine with a matching foam rubber cushion on a window seat under the windows. On this wall there is an old wall telephone brought from Tennessee.

Louvered double doors in this room conceal the washer-drier equipment. At the corner of the "L" stands a hutch cabinet done in antique green. This same finish has been used on at least three other pieces in the home. One in particular is the base of a round table in the commodious living room. Since the table top was in bad condition Mrs. Blackley covered it in mosaic with a metal rim around edge.

The other two pieces of furniture in green are in the guest bedroom, adjoining the family room. One is an old dresser, minus the top portion and a matching chest of drawers. Other furnishings in this room include a massive brass bed and early American love seat on rockers.

An original oil painting of an old farm scene hangs over the couch in living room. The picture was painted by Mrs. Roy Propst of Anson sister of Maurine, and given to the Blackley family as a gift.

Size of the master bedroom was cut down somewhat in the remodeling process to make space for a bath and double closets. Colors in this room are red and white. A chair back Maple bed has a quilted coverlet of red and white in "Robbing Peter to pay Paul" design. The coverlet was pieced and quilted by Maurine. A red dust ruffle completes the bed's dressing. Windows are curtained in ruffled white organdie.

Susan's room is typical of a teenager, complete with stuffed animals, mementos and stringed musical instruments (which she can play). Furnishings include a what-not self, two good sized chests flanking a long mirror, poster bed with floral coverlet in blue, window curtainers are of the same material. The furniture is white and gold. Two original oil paintings by Susan are hung in this room.

An interesting and utilitarian item in the bathroom is a towel rack made by Mr. and Mrs. Blackley from an old floor lamp. Suspended from the curved piece at top, which held originally the light bulb and shade, is a basket of pink sweetpeas and grapes. Holes were bored through the lamp pole and rods for towels run through. The converted towel stand is done in gold and white.

Of the four daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Blackley only Susan, a junior in Morton High School, is now at home. Susan is a talented pianist and presently has plans to become a public school music teacher.

The other daughters are married and have children. Beverly, Mrs. Wayne Walthall, her husband and two sons live in Hobbs.

Mrs. C. B. Ellis, Nancy, also is the mother of two boys, she and her husband and sons make their home in Midland.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Coleman, she is the former Judy Blackley, are the parents of two sons and two daughters. They live in Cochran County.

Mr. and Mrs. Blackley have done all the restoring and refinishing of the antique pieces used in their home.

Decorating is not reserved for new homes. The older house bought by the Blackleys has been remodeled and decorated into a spacious and gracious home. The generous sized kitchen - family room is their delight, as well as their many friends. Real cordiality in the tradition of the old West is expressed by the Blackley family in their home and in their way of living.

Group installs former resident

W. K. (Speedy) Lindsey, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Lindsey, and a former resident of Morton, was installed as the new president of the Brownfield Lions Club at the annual installation meeting Tuesday evening, June 16.

Bert Belcher of Seagraves was installing officer. Entertainment for the ladies night program and installation was provided by Dale Durham, music and educational director for the First Baptist Church in Brownfield.

Guests last week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Allsup were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bagley and three children of Lakeside, Calif. The two couples met in Honolulu when the two men were serving with the Navy and have continued the friendship by letters and visiting back and forth in the respective homes of each.

Workshop schedule slated for July 2

On July 2 Mrs. Eula Newman state specialist in home management, will be in Morton to conduct a workshop on time and energy.

Taking part in the workshop are Mrs. E. C. Hale and Mrs. M. L. Abbe from Happy Homemakers H.D. Club; Mrs. Carl Ray from Modern Mother's H.D. Club; Mrs. Jas. Cogburn and Mrs. Cullen Dansby from Y.M. Study Club; Mrs. Connie Gray and Mrs. Charles Bowen from Town and Country Study Club; Mrs. Wendell Dunlap, Young Homemakers Club; and Mrs. Murray Crone. These women are keeping records of the time they spend on ironing and house cleaning for the two weeks before the workshop. Afterwards, they will also keep records for comparison.

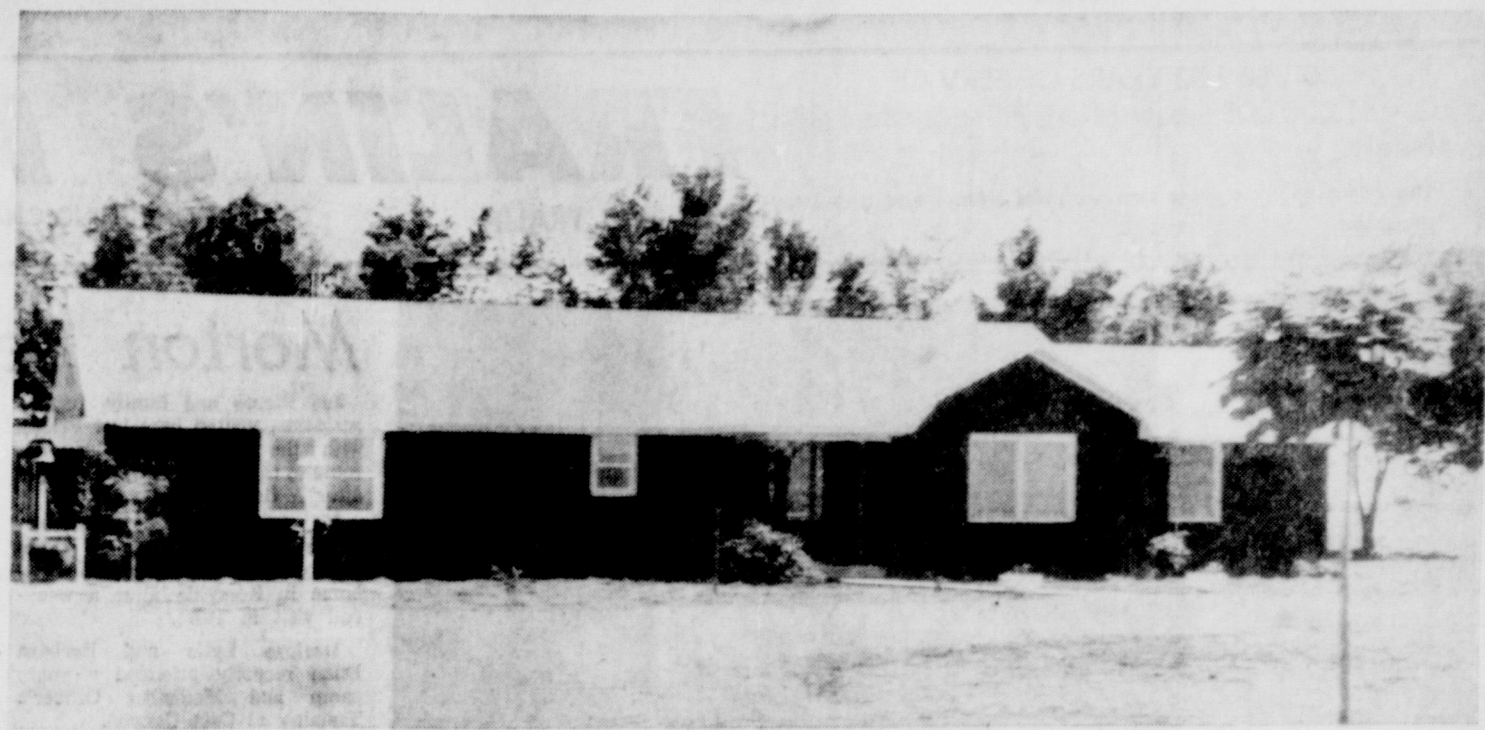

Purpose of the workshop is to help homemakers think through their values and decide if they are using their time and energy to obtain the things most important to them. The information obtained at the workshop will be later presented to the clubs represented as a program for the coming year.

Other women or clubs interested in taking the workshop are urged to contact Jennie Allen, Home Demonstration Agent.
