CC adopts project to seek industries

Jim Covell, head of the Economic Development Program of General Telephone Company, spoke to a joint meeting of the Morton Area Chamber of Commerce board of directors and industrial committee about methods of seeking and gaining new industry.

The program is provided as a public service by the company to the cities served by General Telephone.

Covell noted the importance of a community being aggressive in seeking new industry for its city. Many cities have begun projects to draw new industry, but few seem to do a complete job according to Covell.

A questionnaire given to the Chamber of Commerce will be completed by the office and returned to the company at a later date in order to determine what kind of industry Morton should seek and what type it could support. Some industries have special needs that certain geographical locations cannot fulfill.

The questionnaire will require an extensive inventory of community resources and facts and will provide the basis from which to work toward gaining new industry. A community must have a certain idea about its assets and liabilities.

It was also brought out by Covell that the field of seeking new industry was an extremely competitive one and results were sometimes slow in coming to cities seeking new industry.

Under the program's organization for action a three point program is generally followed.

The first step is to make a complete survey of a town and determine its assets and liabilities. This is the purpose of the questionnaire.

Secondly, the town will have to determine specific goals which it hopes to realize.

The final step is to determine a plan of action for attracting new industry and to formulate and carry out specific projects of community betterment.

LL action rolls into final week

Little League play in Morton was fast and furious during the past week as teams neared the final week of action.

Two exciting 8-7 games were played Thursday at the Little League ball park. Sox gained an 8-7 victory over the Cardinals while the Giants edged the Pirates 8-7 in what turned out to be an unofficial game.

Eddie Turney led Sox in scoring and Mark Balko was credited with the pitching victory for the Sox. Eddie Garza was Card pitcher and Jerry Steed led the Cards at the plate.

Sox overtook the Cards 3-0 when Larry Embry, Mark Balko and Eddie Turney were walked into home. Cards were scoreless in the first and second innings but jumped to a 4-3 lead in the third inning.

Tim Byrum banged out a double that sent Steve Cox and Jerry Steed to home plate. Then Eddie Garza's centerfield hit brought in Gerald Baker and Steve Cogburn. Don Hoover scored for the Sox leaving the score an even 4-4 in the bottom of the third.

The fourth inning saw Steed place the Cards one ahead, only to have the Sox push a 7-5 lead with three scores. Turney, Hoover and Gary Jones were all walked to home base.

Cards pulled out of their slump but could not capture a commanding lead in the fifth. Steed cracked a single to left field with bases loaded that brought in Steve Newton and Garza, leaving the score 7-7. Sox scored their winning point when Turney was forced in by Larry Clawson's walk.

Two strong teams battled out a six inning game Thursday night that left Little League fans satisfied they had seen some fine ball playing.

Otha Hightower smacked two home runs and scored on a single to lead the Giants to a 8-7 victory. He was also credited with a pitching victory over Pirate pitcher, Mike Bryan.

With two outs on the Giants, Hightower hit a home run that brought in Bob Hobson and left the Giants 2-0 over the Pirates in the first inning. The Pirates couldn't cope with Hightower's pitching in the first. They went scoreless but picked up one score in the second and stopped the Giants.

Mike Bryan, pitched three strikeouts in the second inning. Then a hard single by Ted Thomas brought in Randy McCall for the Pirates. But Giants still held a slight 2-1 advantage.

In the third, Richardson came in on a single by Soliz and Hightower in on a single by Hutcheson putting the Giants in a 4-4 position when Larry McClintock crossed home plate on Mike Bryan's hit. Then Bryan slid in on Wendell Bickett's double and McCall stole home giving the Pirates a 7-4 lead in the bottom of the fourth.

Fifth inning saw the Giants extend their lead to 8-7.

County crops need moisture

Prognosis is good on areas and crops in Cochran while other locations are having their difficulties due to the effects of dry weather late planting dates.

Present cotton crop situation is a county wide basis is that of last year's crop on irrigated land, but cotton growing on dry farms is very late according to Homer Thompson, the County agent.

Thompson further explained that of the late planted cotton came up and that some had poor stands of cotton. At this time it is difficult to determine the percentage of cotton not planted or that planted late and never came up. An estimate may be made in a week as cotton acreage is measured. Thompson expressed hope that most all acres were planted which were allocated to the county because this could very likely affect the future cotton acreage allotments.

Grain sorghum throughout the county is not in as good shape as the cotton crop. Most all the grain sorghum acreage was planted the latter part of June and many acres have failed to come up because of a lack of moisture. In addition there has been some sand and wind damage.

Over 80 percent of the grain sorghum was planted late. This means there will be few acres booted out, or the heads will not emerge by August 1. All grain sorghums with heads emerging after August 1 could be subject to midge damage. In the past midge has taken a heavy toll on 15 percent or more of the acreage.

The moisture situation over the county is very dry. The south half of Cochran County has not had the moisture that the northern portion received. There are few irrigation wells in the southern part of the county. Should the drought continue there may be an additional problem from sand erosion on acres of grassland which has been recently put into cultivation.

The Soil and Water Conservation Committee is making recommendations on this matter, but moisture is necessary to establish a cover crop to limit erosion in most instances. When the sand is moving it is hard to start anything for improving the situation according to Thompson.

Fair will offer cash premiums of over $28,000

Cash premiums totaling more than $28,000 are being offered at the 47th annual Panhandle South Plains Fair to be held September 27 through October 3 at Lubbock. The premiums are outlined in a new 88-page catalog just mailed to some 3,500 exhibitors throughout West Texas. M. B. Hilburn, president of the fair, said total premiums this year set a new record. "Actually, premiums have been considerably increased in many divisions," he added. "All divisions have been carefully analyzed, eliminating obsolete classes, and adding money to more popular entries." Hilburn pointed out that the South Plains Fair pays higher premiums than many state fairs. New at this fair this year will be a free parachute training jump, sponsored by U. S. Army Recruiting, and a new paved Kiddie Land, featuring all kinds of rides and entertainment exclusively for the children. Improvements to the grounds include more paving, a new milking parlor and more restrooms.

Then Ernesto Salis scored and Hutcheson scored the Giants winning run leaving the Giants victorious by a thin 8-7 margin. But the game was declared unofficial when it was discovered the Giants had accidentally batted out of order. Monday night's Little League play saw the Giants win 7-5 over the Colt .45's and the Pirates and Cardinals battle to a 6-6 tie. The Giant - Colt game got off to a slow start. Willie Holland was the only one to score. His run, made on Hightower's single, put the Giants in front 1-0. In the second inning the Giants posted three runs as Troy Richardson was forced in by Haskell Lamar's walk. Kenin Kuehler was in on a fielder's choice and Robert West in on a passed ball. Coits scored their first run when Don Weathers crossed plate on Joe Partlow's hit. Scoreboard at the end of the second inning was Giants 4, Colts 1. ## Alligator visits East Texas farm

When a strange varmint's running loose in the pasture it's usual to drop a rope on him. Not so usual is the type of varmint roped by Elmer Easterly in his pasture near Pritchett in East Texas. His lasso found itself around a seven-foot alligator. Easterly named his intruder "Bigun", estimated his age at more than seven years, and promptly boned up on alligator lore in an encyclopedia. He figured that reading was safer than a close-up examination. This, according to W. R. Long, information and education officer for the Parks and Wildlife Department, is likely correct. There are muddy sloughs nearby, and presumably alligators sometimes get bored with their surroundings. Then it isn't at all unusual for them to pack their alligator suitcases and move. After the pastoral hubbub, Easterly counted his cows, found them all present and accounted for, then began looking for a home for the reptile.

will score on Jackie Miller's double, then Bryant Lewis pushed across. Giants remained scoreless in the third inning. Fourth inning saw the climax of the game. Coits were able to increase their score by one run. It was made by Joe Partlow as he slid into home on Eddie Lewis' hit. Giants easily overcame the thin 5-4 Colt lead. Four runs for the Giants gave them a 7-5 victory. The victory rode on the shoulders of Lamar, Hutcheson, Richardson and Holland. In the second game the Pirates led the Cards for three innings then suddenly the Cards scored two runs to leave the game 6-6 after six innings of play. Ricky McMasters and Jerry Steed were first to score for the Cards, then hit to left by Eddie Garza brought in Tom Newton. Garza was threatening another Card score when he was hit by the ball between first and second base. Pirates did not score on the first but in the second, Wendell Bickett came in on a passed ball. Ted Thomas stole second and third base. Then Mike Steven's single and stolen base set the Pirates up for scoring. Gerald Grusendorf's double brought in both Stevens and Thomas. Only one run by Allen Cogburn was scored for the Cards. Still they had a 4-3 lead. Third inning saw the Pirates grab a 6-4 lead position. Larry McClintock hit a single straight over second base, then Mike Bryan came through with a double. Next, Bickett's single sent McClintock and Bryan home. Ronydy McCall scored on an error and left the Pirates with a shaky 6-4 lead. Cards stopped the Pirates from scoring again. Steed made a beautiful catch that sent the Pirates to field. But the Pirates stopped the Cards too. Bickett caught Tom Newton's hit and ended the fourth inning with bases loaded. In the sixth inning Tim Byrum and Allen Cogburn scored on a three base error leaving the score tied 6-6. The game will be played off Saturday evening at 8 p.m. Sox romped the Cubs 13-1 and the Giants easily overcame the Cards 9-1 in Tuesday night's Little League play. Gary Jones was winning pitcher for the Sox and Ralph Soliz was the Card pitcher although Amada Ortega and M. C. Sherbet tried their skill on the mound in the sixth inning. Keith Embry walked into home and gave the Sox their only score in the first inning. Cubs did not score until the fourth inning. Dub Hill, Eddie Turney and Don Hoover scored for the Sox, giving them a 4-0 lead at the bottom of the third. Marvin Woolam was the only Cub to score in the game. Sox approached the sixth inning with a 4-1 lead but left the inning with a 13-1 victory. Embry was in on Jones hit, then Turney was forced in by Hill's walk. Jones and Hoover crossed home plate on Balko's single. Hill was forced in on a walk, then McCastland and Balko were in on a double by Embry. Ortega replaced Soliz for the Cubs and then M. C. Sherbet took the pitcher's mound. But they were unable to stop the Sox advance. Sox scored two more runs before ending the game. Embry scored on a passed ball and Clawson was walked into home. In the second game the Giants jumped to a 3-0 lead with Haskell Lamar and Willie Holland in on a third base error and Otha Hightower scoring on an error. Jerry Steed scored the Card's lone run in the top of the second inning. He was in on an error to third base. Giants placed themselves in a comfortable 8-1 position in the second, Lamar and Hightower again scored. Dupler was forced in when Kevin Kuehler walked to first base; Holland was forced in by Lamar's walk and Hutcheson scored the eighth run on another hit. Cards allowed only one run in the third when Hightower came in to score on a balk by the Card pitcher. Garza made a fine play of a ball hit to third to end the inning. The Giants also proved to be superior fielders and shut out the Cards in the following innings. Both teams remained scoreless and the Giants won it 9-1. Switzerland, no larger than a small state of the U.S., is only 13,944 square miles in area.

You might as well face it. The weather's changing, and so is the season.

If you're going to keep yourself lovely through the transition period, you are obviously going to pay more attention to your all-over complexion.

With the summer sun, you'll be more exposed than ever. Gone are the high-necked sweaters and dresses, and along with low-back and even-lower fronts, your old-fashioned application of powder base, blending just into the neck, will have to go. Body make-up is back, and probably here to stay for quite a while.

With the new (and nuder) fashion look, you must pay even more attention to your basic cosmetics.

For instance, in summer, your face will probably get more exposure to the sun than your arms and shoulders. The skill of blending a darker powder base on your face into the lighter portions of the rest of you depends on your willingness to learn how. It's not very difficult, actually. Big trick in blending darker powder base into lighter areas of throat and neck is accomplished by the skillful use of face powder—and body powder.

And there's another trick for evening glamour and plugging necklines.

Use two shades of powder base—darker for your tanned face, slightly lighter (your regular shade) blended into the dark shade on throat and neck, and over your shoulders, until it fades away into your body skin tone. Set your make-up with a light fluff of face powder.

You'll feel so feminine and lovely, you just won't believe you are you.

Please let me help you select the right powder base colors for you. It's so much easier when you try before you buy—and more effective, too.

Just write me, care of this newspaper, or phone and let me treat you to an hour of beauty—and a new make-up—free.

Meeting assures help for farmers

A meeting July 1 with county agents from over the South Plains gave assurance of a full scale effort by the Extension Service to education area farmers and businessmen on all phases of the coming boll weevil control program.

W. H. (Bud) Jones, District Extension Agent, told Plains Cotton Growers that the Extension Service would "be holding meetings within cotton producing counties to present the latest and most comprehensive information available on why the boll weevil must be controlled before it establishes a foothold on the Plains." In addition, Jones said county agents would discuss and recommend weevil control measures in those counties already plagued with weevil infestations.

Also attending the meeting were Bill Gunter, Area Extension Agronomist of Lubbock and V. G. Young, State Agricultural Agent from College Station. It was pointed out at the meeting that the possible $2 million cost of the "diapause" control program to be initiated this fall figures to be only .6 of one percent of the lint and seed value of a normal crop produced in the 23-county area served by Plains Cotton Growers.

President Johnson has requested the Senate to include $1 million in the 1965 fiscal year budget to provide funds for matching those put up by High Plains producers for weevil control, and Congressman George Mahon has testified in favor of the appropriation before the Senate Agricultural Appropriations Subcommittee.

Mrs. G. W. Famuliner of Wakena, Mo., is a guest here in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Joe Nicewarner and her husband.

Agent urges caution in irrigation

Don't start irrigating cotton too soon! County Agent Homer E. Thompson says, "Cotton that received a good pre-plant irrigation or has benefitted from recent rains should have enough moisture in the ground to last until the first white blooms appear. Cotton at this stage of growth should be about 60 days of age."

Watering cotton prior to this time can lead to troubles, says Thompson.

1. If watered too early (before white blooms appear) cotton tends to keep growing in a vegetative manner and doesn't start fruiting early.

2. Early irrigation can lower soil temperatures in the root zone of cotton plants. This encourages blights, wilts and seedling diseases. Above all, Thompson cautions, irrigation shouldn't be practiced when fields of young cotton are disease-ridden, as this tends to compound the problem.

3. Watering too early can also keep roots from penetrating deep in the soil. Especially in the tighter soils area north of Lubbock, this can create hazards. If roots haven't penetrated deep in the soil the normally hot, dry weather of August will cause plants to become moisture-stressed. An inadequate root system means farmers won't be able to irrigate their cotton fields often enough at this time to keep plants adequately supplied with water, says Thompson.

If irrigation water is short, it might be necessary to start watering before the first white blooms appear. Sherrill cautions, however, that irrigation should be timed as closely as possible to appearance of the first white blooms.

Highest water requirement of cotton plants occurs at peak bloom stage. At this stage, cotton will use one-fourth to four-tenths inches per day. This compares to less than one-tenth inch per day for cotton plants from emergence to squaring stages. From white bloom to peak blooming stage, cotton plants will utilize one-tenth to one-fourth acre-inches water daily.

Thompson points out that several years research at South Plains Research and Extension Center, Lubbock, has shown a six-inch pre-plant irrigation plus two four-inch postplants gives maximum yields with top net return in normal growing seasons. A good rain at the proper time can eliminate one of the post plant irrigations.

Observance of a water cut-off date is very important. In areas

Mrs. Jones presents Garden Club program

"Trees or Trash" was title of a program given Monday night by Mrs. Charles Jones at a meeting of Cochran County Garden Club. Mrs. W. B. McSpadden was hostess.

"We have a beautiful state," Mrs. Jones said, "and we should rightfully be proud of it, keeping it clean is one way of showing our pride.

"We as Texans are waging a war for cleanliness. On forest and public parks the government is spending 2½ billion dollars annually to keep them clean in Texas.

"Garden clubs in Rhode Island started this program and have carried it out in individual clubs stressing, 'Keeping Our State Clean'.

"It's a woman's job to bring to the attention of their families the importance of putting trash where it belongs. It has been estimated that if one half of the 35,000 tons of waste paper annually available in United States were converted it would provide about one half pound of edible carbohydrate per person per day; about 900 calories or one third the daily need."

She concluded by saying "Keep up litter because later we may be eating it."

Mrs. Bobby Travis, president, conducted the business meeting. Roll call was answered by members showing and explaining their own litter bags, which were in various shapes and sizes.

Mrs. Travis will host the next meeting on July 20. Mrs. Bud Thomas will give a program on abstract arrangements. Roll call will be "Show and Tell (Tis no recognizable thing)."

Mrs. Kenneth Thompson was a guest at Monday night's meeting. Members present: Mrs. Harold Arant, Mrs. Gene Cade, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Truett McCuiston, Mrs. J. L. Schooler, Mrs. Hattie B. Spotts, Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. Travis, Mrs. Wayne Porter, Mrs. Don Workman and the hostess.

Plenty of ROOM!

Have you ever, when on a vacation, in the peak of the tourist season, looked and looked along the highway for a roadside park with an empty table so that your family could have a picnic lunch and rest? Then, of course, all might travel refreshed. How nice it is to come upon a park like this one, with the breeze blowing across the water.

Isn't it wonderful that there is always plenty of room at the House of God? There is always a church where you can receive spiritual food, and sweet rest of the soul. The church holds out its arms in welcome to all, inviting everyone to come and learn of God. Won't you attend this week?

"Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." Matthew 11:28.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

IT NEVER FAILS

VIEWS . . . of other editors

Opposing cut in postal service

On May 4 a curtailment of postal service was instigated in Morton and in other towns of the nation. The cut in service is discriminatory to a large segment of the population in our city.

Patrons on city delivery routes receive parcel post delivery service only five days per week in contrast to service six days a week provided for boxholders and those living on rural route delivery. In short those receiving mail on city routes come up short on service.

The curtailment was designed to save the department $12 million over the United States. The need to save money in federal spending is a sound one. However, the money saved in this instance does not merit the direct loss of service taken by the citizenry. Surely, there must be another place in our vast budget to save the money than by a direct cut in postal service.

On April 1 a 13 per cent increase in postal rates went into effect across our country. Then barely over a month later a curtailment is put into effect. This "pay more and receive less" policy has justifiably upset many persons throughout the country.

Our Post Office Department has been operated at a deficit for many years. Today it is in the best financial shape in many years, but at the expense of those it was designed and set up to serve.

Full postal service to all residents should be fully reinstated at the earliest possible date.

Congress may delete old taxes

At long last it looks as if something constructive may be done within the foreseeable future about those federal excise—or sales—taxes that are a hangover from World War II and the Korean War.

A House committee has been studying them with a view to ultimate revision. It is expected that reductions—if not total repeal—will come within two years or less.

If this turns out to be the case, the government will be just about 20 years late in getting around to this particular kind of tax reform. When the excise taxes were imposed, everyone expected that they would be ended with the wars that were responsible for them. But Congress took the easy road and kept them alive year after year.

The taxes are often called luxury levies. But that, to most minds, is a misnomer. The toilet articles used universally by women hardly fall into the luxury class in our kind of society. Nor do handbags, wallets or wedding rings, all of which are subject to the tax. Nor does a coat with a little fur trim which is another tax-soaked item.

This emphasizes an often overlooked fact—that we need to pay close attention to taxes other than the income tax. And we need to pay special attention to taxes which are imposed, supposedly, for the duration of a real emergency and then are continued long after that emergency has passed into history. This is the status of the federal retail excise taxes.

Recreation importance stressed

If one wants a reason to justify a vacation, some remarks by Paul J. Cupp, President, Acme Markets, Inc., more than fill the bill.

Mr. Cupp pictures vacationing such as too few persons remember. It wasn't just a matter of killing time but included useful and healthful work as well as recreation. He says:

"It is good to realize the value of re-creation and its meaning to our health, happiness and work satisfactions.

"As a schoolboy, I recall the summers spent on the farm of relatives, the cutting of hay and the harvesting of oats and wheat. While the work was not easy, it was a change, and for a city boy, quite an experience. There were no tractors—it was horsepower and manpower, literally. I learned to swing a scythe and to use a pitch fork, and while the body was tired at the end of the day, both body and mind were being re-created.

"The value of recreation is now universally recognized. It can sharpen the mind, just as whetting sharpens the scythe. We cannot spend too much time in recreation, else our work suffers. Likewise, too little recreation, and we do our work as with a dull scythe."

TEXAS AND Oklahoma growers are missing some $7 million in business by not growing guar legume, a U.S. Department of Agriculture official said last week.

Guar is used as a protein supplement for livestock, for soil enrichment and as a gum product. Some guar has been grown in this area but not on a very large scale. I don't know why it didn't catch on.

Dr. Murray L. Kinman of the USDA said the nation's need for guar is increasing faster than imports allow. Now that is something. It seems that most every other farm crop is in surplus.

Kinman said that 90 per cent of the guar used in this country in 1960 was imported from India and Pakistan. The Texas A&M research professor also said sesame and sunflower are promising crops for the area.

Stamford American

Congress recently voted to raise the pay of millions of government employees, and its own pay, and now there is another pay increase proposal. It comes from Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara, who wants new pay increases for the military.

The theory behind repeated cries for pay raises — by the politicians — is that government service and military pay must be comparable to the best wage scales in private industry.

It is claimed that government pay scales are far lower than the scales for private industry but this claim is not true. The truth is that government jobs, considering the hours, leave benefits and work performed, is far higher than the average pay today in private business.

There are certain companies which have high pay schedules and policies but there are many more private businesses which can only afford to pay basic minimums.

And there are millions of Americans who work very hard to retain their jobs — which pay these minimum salaries. Government service, both civil service and the military — has never been intended to be as lucrative as the few best-paying private corporations in the country.

Since the private enterprise worker is providing the capital and growth to pay government salaries, it is ridiculous to attempt to put every civil servant and soldier on the highest private pay level.

Yet in the last few years this philosophy has been sold to Americans and it is one of the costliest burdens the federal government now carries, as it records deficit after deficit.

Van Horn Advocate

Irish authorities have departed somewhat from general past practice in granting political asylum to a Cuban professor and his wife whose plane, a Cuban airliner flying from Prague to Havana, had landed at Shannon airport.

The mathematician and physicist and his wife escaped their Cuban security guards when the plane's takeoff was delayed because of mechanical difficulties. The couple applied for American visas to permit them to enter the United States. In the past Irish authorities have been reluctant to grant asylum to Cubans who on a number of occasions have requested it during airplane stopovers.

What made the present case different is not explained, but the idea seems a pretty good one. It would be a contribution to human freedom if the authorities of any one Communist country through which Communist planes passed would make a practice of inquiring for potential refugees and taking them into protection.

Ft. Worth Star Telegram

It may be that Madame Dinh Nhu, the former "Tiger Lady" of South Viet Nam, is so hard-pressed financially that she needs to pick up a few lecture fees in this country, but she apparently has some rather affluent friends.

The Post, presumably along with other newspapers throughout the United States, recently received a mailing made in her name from Paris, consisting of statements and letters released by her in recent months attacking actions and policies of the United States government and the new government it is backing in South Viet Nam. The packet included more than 50 long pages of singlespaced, mimeographed material, and the postage alone came to 60 old francs.

IF NOTHING ELSE, IT proves that Madame Nhu still is a very articulate propagandist. Whether or not the State Department will permit her to collect those lecture fees by granting her visitor's visa remains in doubt. The Post thinks she should be given the visa and, even though she may have overstepped propriety during her last visit to this country, that she should be permitted to have her say in any legitimate way she chooses.

The fact that political or other interests may be using her as a tool is not a valid reason for denying her permission to visit this country and to sound off personally on this side of the Atlantic.

The administration could regard the granting of the visa as part of its war on poverty. Think of all the postage and mimeographing costs she would save.

Houston Post

Never has there been such a massive effort to stop a candidate as the effort now being waged against Barry Goldwater.

Life Magazine features the William Scranton family on its cover this week and then devotes page after page to laudatory prose and pictures.

Henry Cabot Lodge has returned home from Vietnam to try to throw a monkey wrench into the Goldwater machinery. He says it would be bad for US officers to take command in Vietnam and try to win there. It might make somebody mad at us.

It's all right for our officers to get their guts ripped out with rusty Viet Cong bayonets. The enemy doesn't get sore about that and Henry can maintain his image at home as a "reasonable" Republican.

Henry says he is against debate in Congress on the Vietnam war. Apparently Henry thinks it would be better if the American people who are giving their sons and providing the money for the Vietnam fiasco not to know what is going on.

Canyon News

The Senate recently approved a proposal to write into all spending measures the pointed reminder that the money appropriated comes out of the taxpayers' pockets.

Let us hope that the House follows suit and makes this an established policy from now on. For the term "federal funds" — which we have seen applied to all manner of activities, from highways to welfare programs — obviously has misled many people. They seem to believe that this money comes from some mysterious source which has no relation to themselves.

Well, the federal government can get money only in two ways. One is by taxes which hit us all hard. The other is by increasing the national debt which will have to be paid, plus interest and administrative costs, by the taxpayers of tomorrow.

The only money the government has, or ever has had, is that which it gets from the taxpayers. It's time much more notice was given to this simple and inescapable fact.

Shrinks Hemorrhoids Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery. In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place. Most amazing of all — results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—discovery of a world-famous research institute. This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form called Preparation #19. At all drug counters.

Capturing three wins during the week the Morton Indians all but sewed up the title in the Babe Ruth League. Thus far they are undefeated in nine contests. One of the week's encounters was a no-hitter hurled by Steve Middleton who struck out 17 batters.

The Cochran County Sheriff's posse led by Sheriff Hazel Hancock rode to third place in the Brownfield Jaycees rodeo parade.

Highlights & Sidelights

Surplus may lead to tax cut

AUSTIN, Tex. — Local governments in Texas may be the main beneficiaries if state government winds up the current fiscal period with an $80,000,000 surplus as Gov. John Connally predicts it might.

Should such a surplus be reached, Connally told reporters, it is "fairly" certain he will recommend abolishing the ad valorem tax on property for state revenue purposes and leaving that source exclusively to local governments.

Connally said $20,000,000 of the expected surplus could be set aside in a special fund to retire college building bonds backed by ad valorem tax contributions.

In predicting that the surplus will not be less than $35,000,000 and probably will reach the $80,000,000 figure, the Governor joined those who have contended all along that the general revenue fund will be so far in the back by 1965 that new tax problems will be eased if not erased.

Connally also said that he contemplates submitting to the Legislature in stages the recommendations of his Committee on Education beyond the High School.

He still plans to call a conference on morals and ethics but said he has not picked a time. However, he declined to say whether he would recommend fair employment and public accommodations legislation in order to maintain some state jurisdiction over civil rights under the new federal law.

ILLITERACY FIGHT — A quiet campaign is under way to mobilize South Texas community facilities to combat an illiteracy problem which results in wasted lives and a damaged economy.

Fausto Toscano, an assistant to Governor Connally, is in South Texas determining what can be done at the local level to help stamp out the blight of illiteracy.

Toscano has visited seven South Texas counties attempting to establish local literacy centers to teach adults to read and write. He reports that in most counties in Southwest Texas illiteracy is far above the national average, and runs over 20 per cent in some counties.

Texas Education Agency is engaged in the most intensive study of the problem ever undertaken in the state and the director of that study says the problem can be substantially solved in a few years by a concerted state-local effort.

CAPITOL HOSPITALITY — The Texas Highway Department now has a team of travel information officers in the rotunda of the State Capitol. They are stationed in an illuminated tourist booth.

This information team has the task of acquainting the thousands of visitors to the Capitol with the State's other tourist attractions.

NEW MANSION ASKED—Should Texas build a brand new $500,000 governor's mansion? That is a subject of debate in the capital city.

Building Commission Director H. R. Nieman Jr. has recommended a new structure to replace the 108-year-old mansion. Budget Director Bill Cobb also has testified in favor of the proposal.

Connally, a member of the Building Commission, supports the new mansion plan. But whether he will throw his full backing behind it depends on the state's financial condition when the Legislature convenes in January.

If a new mansion is constructed, Connally suggested the existing one be turned into a museum supported by nominal admission charges.

Other structures proposed in Nieman's $8,084,330 budget request included a $3,600,000 state finance building to house state fiscal agencies and a $2,600,000 office building for legislators and their related services. Both would be located in the capitol area.

GOOD NEIGHBOR TRIP — An August trip to Mexico City and to the four Mexican states adjacent to Texas is planned by Governor Connally, who said that much of this state's economic future is tied to lands south of the Rio Grande.

Connally hopes to improve relations with Latin leaders before the 1968 Olympics are held in Mexico City. Also he would like to link the Olympics with San Antonio's Hemis Fair which is scheduled for the same year.

REPUBLICANS HEADING FOR — Nearly 500 Texas Republicans, "irrevocably committed" to Barry Goldwater for the presidential nomination, will arrive in San Francisco this weekend for the GOP state convention starting on Monday, according to state GOP headquarters here.

Texas has 56 voting delegates, but state Republican headquarters reports 112 delegates and alternate names have been named; 300 Texas guest tickets have been issued; and six pages, six assistant sergeants-at-arms, six assistant delegates, six assistant doorkeepers and 68 honorary assistant sergeants-at-arms from Texas also have their credentials.

BUSINESS STRENGTH MAINTAINED — Texas' 40-month business upswing is the longest of the postwar era (except for the Korean War period), according to the UT Bureau of Business Research.

While the business activity index slipped two per cent in May, average for the first five months of 1964 is seven per cent above the same period in 1963.

"It now seems reasonable to expect that before any adjustment occurs, Texas business will surpass even the 45-month rise of business activity from October 1949 to July 1953," Bureau Director Dr. John R. Stockton predicted.

MENTAL HEALTH — County Judge C. L. Abernethy of Plainview heads a statewide committee which is taking a long, hard look at what Texans are doing about mental health problems.

The 112-member citizens committee expects to have its report ready by August. But comments at meetings have indicated strongly that the committee will tell Texans that mental health work should begin in the local community.

Judge Abernethy said the old concept of isolating mental patients far from home is far less effective from treatment in their home towns.

FISHERMAN'S HEAVEN — The Parks and Wildlife Department spokesmen expect the out-sized Amistad Reservoir, now being fashioned from the Rio Grande, Pecos and Devils rivers, to be a heaven for fishermen.

Aquatic biologist Larry Campbell predicts that when the 6-million acre feet reservoir is completed in 1968 it will boast blue catfish from the Devil and Pecos; large-mouth bass from Lake Walk and Devils Lake, and flathead, blue and channel cat from the Rio Grande.

Underway are conversations leading toward a joint management program for the $100,000,000 reservoir project with the Mexican government.

SHORT SNOOTS — Cigarette smokers are doing it again. Revenue from cigarette tax stamps increased $568,048 in June over May 1963 and more than $600,000 over May.

A gold-painted guard rail was installed along a $90,000,000 freeway section near Winnie in Jefferson County. Freeway connects downtown Houston with Beaumont.

Highway Commission Chairman Herbert C. Petty Jr. predicted it will save 21 lives a year. Cotton still is big in Texas, Lt. Gov. Smith told the International Oil Mill Superintendents Association. During the last 10 years the state has produced an average of 3,900,000 bales a year and more than 1,800,000 tons of cottonseed, with an average value of $715,000,000 a year.

State Hospital Board Executive Director Raymond Vowell has been appointed to two presidential advisory committees on mental retardation.

Governor Connally has named a planning committee of state officials to develop an administrative internship program in state government.

Republican candidates will attend a political school in Austin on August 20-22.

During the last week in June the State Securities Board opened eight applications to sell $2,000,000 in securities in Texas. A total of $2,400,000 in additional applications were received the same week but not processed.

Jim Stowes of Abilene attended to business here Thursday and was a luncheon guest of Van Greene.

Mrs. Van Greene and daughter, Becky, were in Lubbock Thursday with Mrs. Lloyd Miller while Miller underwent surgery at Methodist Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Johnson were weekend visitors in Ruidoso.

Plenty of ROOM!

Have you ever, when on a vacation, in the peak of the tourist season, looked and looked along the highway for a roadside park with an empty table so that your family could have a picnic lunch and rest? Then, of course, all might travel refreshed. How nice it is to come upon a park like this one, with the breeze blowing across the water.

Isn't it wonderful that there is always plenty of room at the House of God? There is always a church where you can receive spiritual food, and sweet rest of the soul. The church holds out its arms in welcome to all, inviting everyone to come and learn of God. Won't you attend this week?

"Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." Matthew 11:28.

©Coleman Adv. Ser., P. O. Box 20067, Dallas 20, Texas

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

News from Three-way

By Mrs. H. W. Garvin

Cooper-Corking wedding

Double ring vows were said Sunday afternoon, July 5 to unite Doris Kathleen Cooper of Maple, and Ronald James Corkins of Lubbock. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Cooper, Maple, and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Bruce Corkins of Arkansas City, Kansas. The ceremony took place at Three Way Methodist Church, Maple, and the officiating minister was Rev. Mrs. Ruth S. Cooper, mother of the bride. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Matrons-of-honor were twin sisters of the bride, Mrs. Lamar Taylor, Lubbock and Mrs. Carlton Earp, Abilene. Best man for the groom was his father, Gerald Bruce Corkins and Lamar Taylor served as groomsmen. Brothers of the bride were ushers, Harold Cooper of Lubbock and Rev. Ralph Cooper of Southland. The flower-girls, Karen Cooper, Southland, and Dianne McMahan, Littlefield. Ring bearers, Douglas McMahan of Littlefield and Brenda Cooper, Southland, were nieces and a nephew of the bride.

The bride wore a dress of white peau de soie, ballerina length, with portrait neckline, a fitted bodice, bouffant skirt, and tapered, three-quarter-length sleeves. Chantilly lace appliques, re-embroidered with seed pearls, decorated the bodice and skirt. A cummerbund effect in front, and formal bow in back emphasized the waist. Doris' veil of double illusion fell to shoulder-length from a crown of tulle leaves. Her bouquet was of blue and white carnations with blue ribbon streamers on a white Bible.

The matrons of honor wore dresses styled similarly to the bride's with fitted bodice and bouffant skirts, made of pastel blue pinpoint pique. They wore blue crowns of petals with seed pearls, and carried long stemmed carnations. The three nieces of the bride wore light blue identical dresses, with fullness at the sides and white lace trim.

Miss Mary Ellen Wedel of Muleshoe played wedding selections before ceremony, also the wedding march. She accompanied Carlton Earp of Abilene, as he sang "Whither Thou Goest" and "The Lord's Prayer". Miss Trudy Davis of Muleshoe registered the guests, at a table decorated with blue and white shasta daisies.

The reception following the ceremony was in Fellowship Hall of the church. The serving table was decorated in the bride's chosen colors of pastel blue and white. Blue net covered a cloth of silver and white mylar, and the appointments were of silver and crystal, with blue tapers in crystal holders flanking the wedding cake. A miniature bride and groom under a bower of white roses topped the cake, and was the centerpiece for the table. Blue punch, varicolored mints, and wedding cake was served by sisters-in-law of the bride, Mrs. Harold Cooper and Mrs. Ralph Cooper.

The bride wore a going-away suit of blue and white shepherds' check with white patient bag and shoes, and a blue carnation corsage from the center of the bridal bouquet. The couple left after the reception for Los Angeles, California.

Doris attended schools at Muleshoe and Matador, Texas, graduating from the latter in 1962. She attended South Plains College, Levelland; where she was treasurer for Phi Beta Lambda, then was employed at the Avalanche-Journal, Lubbock and Plainview Herald, Plainview as teletypist. Ronald Corkins graduated from high school at Arkansas City, Kansas, and attended college at Los Angeles City College, Los Angeles, Cal. He has been employed as a linotypist by the Avalanche-Journal for the past year.

The groom and his family hosted a rehearsal dinner for about twenty of the wedding party at the Maple Cafe, on Saturday evening, July 4, preceding the rehearsal at ThreeWay Methodist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Duron renew wedding vows

Mr. and Mrs. Cruz M. Duron renewed wedding vows made 25 years ago in ceremonies at St. Ann's Catholic Church, which was followed by a reception on June 27 in the Goodland home of Mr. and Mrs. Cruz DelHoyos. They were assisted in hospitalities by the couple's daughter Mrs. Joe A. Salas and immediate families of the host couple.

A semi-circle of tiny bells, silver lace and a silvered 25 decorated a bridal confection iced in white, which was served with pink punch to the honored couple and guests. The table was laid with a white cutwork cloth.

Mrs. Duron, the former Trinidad Guerra, was born in Skidmore. Her husband is a native of Zaragoza, Coahuila, Mexico. Moving as a small boy with his parents to the United States, Miss Guerra and Duron were married in Comal County on June 24, 1939.

They are parents of three children, John, Rachel, of the home and Mary. All three attended Morton schools and Mary, Mrs. Joe Salas, graduated with the class of 1958. Mary and Joe, who were married in 1960, have two sons.

Cotton industry receives help through program

Representatives of the American Textile Manufacturers Institute have told Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman that the one-price cotton program passed by congress this year is already having a beneficial effect on the cotton industry, according to a report published in the Daily News Record - the textile industry's daily newspaper.

Heading up the group meeting with Freeman was William E. Reid, President of Riegel Textile Corporation and President-elect of ATMI. He told the Secretary that carded and combed yarn prices have fallen and that there has also been a decline in fabric prices.

Inventories throughout the industry were low in anticipation of one-price cotton, it was pointed out, and only the strong demand following institution of the program has kept prices from falling to even lower levels.

Reid said the cotton textile industry and the apparel industry are so competitive that the lower prices will be passed down the line, but there is a time lag before these lower prices will reach the consumer. Among the benefits coming to the industry, Freeman was told that the program has already caused increased cotton consumption and is resulting in new mills devoted to cotton fabric production.

Stills, moonshine still in Texas

"Stills in the hills" and "moonshiners" may seem like a thing of bygone days for most people, but not for the Texas Liquor Control Board.

In the month of May inspectors for the control group reported the seizure of four illicit stills. The contraptions had a cubic capacity of 275 gallons. Inspectors captured 730 gallons of mash and made four arrests. Fourteen and a half gallons of moonshine liquor were destroyed.

The four stills were seized in Fannin, Harrison, Marion and Red River counties.

Mrs. Connie Joiner returned to her home here last week after a visit of a month in Mangum, Okla.
